Dr. Will Whittaker is Minister of Music at Ivy Creek Baptist in Buford, Georgia, where he leads a multi-faceted, intergenerational music ministry. He holds both the BME and MME with emphases in voice and choral conducting from Auburn University and the Doctor of Musical Arts degree in Church Music with specializations in worship and hymnology from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary, where his dissertation research focused on choral ministries in intergenerational churches. Beyond his local church ministry, Will is a frequent teacher and clinician at worship conferences throughout America and has been an adjunct Professor of Church Music at Truett McConnell University in Cleveland, Georgia. He is an active member in both the Baptist Church Music Conference and Metro II Music Conference. Will continues to write about his research on intergenerational worship on his blog, www.drwillwhittaker.org. His new book, Cultivating Intergenerational Worship, designed for all church leaders, covers the biblical foundations and practical ways your worship ministry can involve all ages serving together no matter your church context. Will and his wife, Deanna, have three sons.
