

Dr. Randy C. Lind

Director, The Singing ChurchWomen of Oklahoma

A native Oklahoman, Dr. Randy C. Lind has served as Minister of Music in churches in Missouri, Texas and Oklahoma. In 2012, he became worship and music specialist for Oklahoma Baptists and The Singing ChurchWomen's fourth conductor/director. In 2024, Dr. Lind began serving as Associate Pastor/Worship at Southern Hills Baptist Church (full-time) and still serves part-time for Oklahoma Baptists, conducting the Singing Churchmen, Singing ChurchWomen and administering the other ministry groups. He also serves as a visiting professor at Oklahoma Baptist University. Since taking over leadership of The ChurchWomen, Lind has led the women on a mission to Latvia and Estonia in 2016; a Memorial Weekend celebration in Washington, D.C., featuring concerts at the Kennedy Center and on the National Mall; and in the recording of two CDs. The group recently returned from a mission trip to Greece. In addition, Lind co-wrote two songs which were published by LifeWay. Lind believes music transcends culture, language and style and wants the ChurchWomen to encourage churches spiritually as well as musically. He is quick to state that the fellowship among the women is almost as valuable as the music they share. Under Lind's direction, this call to ministry and camaraderie is clear the moment the ChurchWomen take the stage.
