

Brad Henderson

Director, Oklahoma Baptist Symphony

Brad Henderson is an arranger, producer and multi-instrumentalist. He serves as the Worship Associate at First Baptist Church, Tulsa, as well as the conductor of the Oklahoma Baptist Symphony since 2015. He believes instrumental musicians have a unique opportunity to worship the God who created this method of artistic expression. Henderson spent five years on the road as production staff for Up With People where he and his cast performed with Belgian National Symphony, Winnipeg Symphony and Boston Pops. He also served for many years as pianist, arranger and musical director for the Oklahoma Music Hall of Fame Awards Show. Henderson is a member of the Singing Churchmen of Oklahoma and produced a recent recording. His undergraduate degree is in Instrumental Music Education from Northeastern State University, and he holds a Master of Music in composition from the University of Arkansas.
