

Wynn Anne Hook

Director, Oklahoma Baptist Children's Chorus

From its inception in 2013, the Oklahoma Baptist Children's Chorus has thrived under the direction of Wynn Anne Hook. A native Oklahoman, born in Norman and raised in Oklahoma City, Hook graduated from Oklahoma Baptist University with a degree in Music Education and taught public school music prior to working at our state Baptist convention for 27 years. She directed one of the three choirs on the Singing Church Women's mission trip to Romania and is the handbell director for the SCW west choir. She is the pianist at Village Baptist Church in Oklahoma City and teaches private voice and piano. Hook has led conferences in children's music in several states and has directed the Young Musicians Camp and WACK for Capital Baptist Association multiple times. She is a popular speaker at women's groups and has written articles for Chorister's Guild and children's choir curriculum for Lifeway.
