Following is the adopted report of the special committee: "We, your Committee appointed to consider resolutions presented by Rev. Leon Gambrell, instructing the Executive Board of the Convention to create a department of Evangelism, submit the following:

While we feel that the work of Evangelism is the supreme task of this Convention, and that our program of work along this line should be enlarged as speedily as possible, yet we question the wisdom of creating such a department at this time.

We would further suggest that since the report on State Missions calls the attention of the Board to this urgent need, that the matter be left entirely in their hands to work out as may seem wise to them, in view of the needs of all our work."

REPORT ON STATE MISSIONS

The Baptist Churches, with a reported membership of over 200,000, form the largest denomination in Oklahoma. This fortunate condition is partly the fruit of the consecrated efforts of our Home and State Mission Boards. Our growth has been phenomenal. Approximately 12,000 people have been baptized during the past year.

Being the largest denomination in the State, coupled with the fact that we alone preach the entire Gospel, brings us under tremendous responsibility, both to God and to our fellow citizens. When we realize that 74 per cent of the people in Oklahoma are not affiliated with any religious organization the magnitude of our opportunity becomes apparent. The response to this great challenge must come through the increase of our evangelistic efforts.

For a number of years, our State Board has been handicapped by a great debt. Thanks to the liberality of our people, the Debt Paying Campaign has removed this shackle. We are now free to go forward in a great God-honoring, soul-winning Crusade. The coming year should be given over to evangelistic efforts to an extent heretofore never attempted. The winning of the lost should be our chief concern. To this end, all of our prayers and labours should be directed. In order to make the program possible, your committee makes the following recommendations:

1. That we urge our people to greatly increase their contributions to State Missions. To accomplish this, we suggest the preaching of stewardship and tithing as the basis of giving.
2. That we accept December 5-12, as budget week, during which an every-member canvass be made to enlist all of our people in this work.
3. That our State Board launch out on a great evangelistic program that will reach and influence the entire state.
4. That we urge all of our people to work mightily and pray fervently, for the salvation of the lost.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Another year is numbered with the past and adds its historic actions to the weal or woe of mankind. In the state of Oklahoma the Baptist General Convention has passed through a period of strenuous endeavor that is honoring to God and edifying to mankind. The Convention at Muskogee a year ago was one of the greatest spiritual dynamos that has ever taken shape in a Convention in this State. When God is honored the brotherhood is unified; when the brotherhood is unified God's cause makes marvellous progress.

Another account of our stewardship is now to be made. Another day of reckoning is at hand. We face the accomplishments of the past and the problems of the future as men of God. Human wisdom must not dominate, human plans must not be laid. By faith in God the work of the ensuing year is planned as well as the praise we offer Him for what the year just closing brings us.

I.—Our Accomplishments.

The entire Baptist line has gone forward this year in this state. We have made progress financially, spiritually, organically, and proportionately. The Program has not been lopsided. It has been a well rounded and inclusive enterprise. Therefore, all having profited, all shall rejoice.

1. The Debt Paying Campaign was inaugurated under the conscious direction of the Spirit of God and the Committee in whose hands its destiny was placed have accomplished wonderful things. It is not our purpose here to relate in detail this work for that task rests with the Debt Paying Committee. Dr. J. W. Bruner came to its leadership out of prayer to God for the right man. We have no hesitation in saying he has accomplished this task in a masterful and efficient manner.

2. The Christmas Love Offering for Foreign Missions was observed over the entire Southland. But in Oklahoma it had a double attraction. It reduced the Foreign Mission indebtedness and it reduced the special obligation of this state to the Foreign Board. This Love Offering aggregated $41,582.96 and was the first glorious step in the Debt Paying Campaign. Its success urged on the movement and aided it materially. This offering was inspired by the great spiritual momentum generated in the Convention and without the aid of the special state organization. The loyal pastors, laymen and women came to the rescue in a marvelous manner and through their determined aid, a glorious victory was consummated. When Baptist hearts are burdened Baptist loads are lifted.

3. The 1926 Program Collections have suffered greatly from the continued pressure of the Debt Paying Campaign. This Campaign, supposed to be a whirlwind effort concluded in three months, was found to be in such condition that it required its prosecution to the time of the Convention. Therefore, the 1926 Program was not urged as it otherwise would have been. When our books closed we had received $117,258.45 on the 1926 Program which is $52,231.11 short of the previous year. We are, therefore, in serious condition on the Program pledges and must be given right of way for 1926 and 1927 to retrieve the loss thus sustained. The Co-operative Program is the most important financial objective of the denomination. It is the outgrowth of many years of effort and earnest searching after Divine leadership. It is a Southwide conviction and is endorsed by both the Southern Baptist Convention as a whole and the various state organizations in particular. It is also Scriptural, sensible, economical, and inclusive. But Oklahoma must greatly enlarge its amount to bring in our proportional part of the whole. A combined effort here will lay foundations for the most glorious development of the Cause of the Master.

4. Our Institutions are growing as rapidly as our support of them will allow. It will require several years for this new state to place her institutions in the same relative position that the older states now sustain to their work in general. In no sphere of our activities do we need greater wisdom and care than in our dealings with institutional development in the interest of denominational progress.

(1) The Orphans' Home under the leadership of Rev. E. A. Howard is making the most encouraging progress. It is in fine condition and its children are having the best of care possible. Its valuation now exceeds $150,000.00. We greatly need to enlarge it so as to care for at least 250 children.

(2) Our Hospitals are in a very fine condition also. Hospital work under Baptist patronage is essentially a Christian service and our institutions are doing considerable charity work. Both Miami and Muskogee have done heroically in the Debt Paying Campaign. Muskogee Hospital has probably the best financial record through its entire existence of any hospital in the South. Our aim is to care for the sick and train nurses to give Christian as well as medical aid to those to whom we minister.

(3) Oklahoma Baptist University is our present Herculean task. The building of the Girls' Dormitory undertaken by the women must be erected this coming year. Plans are maturing under the efficient leadership of Mrs. Berta K. Spooner on the dormitory recommended at the last Convention. Active solicitation of funds was stopped when the Debt Paying Campaign projected its intensive movement with the understanding it was to be resumed as soon as this heavy pressure was relieved.

(4) The Baptist Messenger has had a very encouraging year's work. Its subscription list has greatly enlarged and many country churches now have subscribers that a year ago did not take the paper. Their lists in many town and city churches have been enlarged. The subscription contest with Tennessee was very helpful. The support given the Debt Paying Campaign as well as all the regular denominational enterprises is highly commended.

Dr. C. P. Stealey, the Editor, surprised and delighted the Brethren by offering $1,000.00 on the Debt Paying Campaign as a gift from the Baptist Messenger. This is a unique and splendid offering. We do not know of a paper in the Southland that has been able to do what the Messenger has in this way. The Board highly approves of this splendid gift and congratulate the Editor in making it.

(5) The Messenger Book House is growing in favor with the people. Partnership with the Baptist Sunday School Board is very highly commended and we are of the opinion this is of the greatest advantage both to the state and southwide enterprises. Our book house stands fourth in volume of business among all the states of the South. We are only led by Texas, Kentucky, and South Carolina. Your patronage of the Book House is greatly desired both in behalf of the state and the Sunday School Board.

(6) The Baptist Building continues to increase in value. A twelve story building one-half block east and an eighteen story building one and one-half blocks east, now under construction, are rapidly bringing our property nearer the business center. With our indebtedness provided for we have a home for the offices of the denominational interests in the heart of the city that would cost us at least $4,000.00 a year, in rentals. Its only expense is heat, light, and maintenance of the property.

(7) The Baptist Assembly Grounds embrace 180 acres of land with improvements thereon. This property is now out of debt. It is conservatively valued at $25,000.00 now. A dam is being built across the creek that will impound water covering about nine acres and as much as sixteen feet deep in some places. This is to be paid for by stock purchased by individuals and Mr. Farmer is instructed not to build till the money is in sight to complete the project. This will increase the value of the property by at least $10,000.00. The attendance at the last Assembly was as large as we have ever had with one possible exception. The grounds are so popular that they were in use all last summer by Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, University Extension workers, Y. M. C. A. Camps, as well as other Assemblies than our own. Each organization pays rental for the use of the property.

5. Our Southwide Enterprises have all profited by the Debt Paying Campaign except the Home Mission Board. We are today out of debt with every out-of-the-state enterprise. For this we are profoundly thankful to God.

(1) The Foreign Mission Board has been looking to Oklahoma to settle her indebtedness for some time. Each year this was reduced materially. In 1922 it was over $100,000.00, but at the Convention at Muskogee this had been reduced to $56,870.65. Our Love Offering for Foreign Missions in December netted us $41,582.96, leaving our debt to them $15,287.69. This has been wiped out in full, thank God.

(2) The Home Mission Board has suffered at our hands this year. The small returns to the 1926 Program and the fact we were out of debt to them made our offerings to Home Missions very meagre. Oklahoma should make up to the Home Mission Board this year what we were forced to leave undone last year. They are our mother and what we are today we owe to Home Mission work for the last quarter of a century and more.

(3) The Southwide Educational Institutions have been aided according to the requested pro rata of Southwide funds. These are our seminaries and training schools in Louisville, Ky., Seminary Hill, Texas, and New Orleans, La. Here are trained our ministry and missionary forces for church, Home and Foreign Mission operations. The indebtedness to them has been paid in full.

(4) The New Orleans Baptist Hospital is remembered and out of every hundred dollars raised on the Co-operative Program they get $1.20. This institution is giving the Baptist name prestige in the greatest Roman Catholic center of the South.

(5) The Ministerial Relief and Annuity Fund receives $3.80 on the $100.00 basis of division of 1926 Program funds. They also have been paid $8,833.78 on the debt, thus clearing off entirely the amount we owed them. We need to give special consideration to this fund for many worthy old ministers are suffering because of the inability of the Board to aid them.

(6) Our Missionary Endeavor in Oklahoma known as State Missions embraces the state mission work proper in the support of pastors of weak churches, associational missionaries, General Enlistment missionaries, B. Y. P. U. department, W. M. U. department, Sunday School department, a state evangelist, missionary to the Indians, a small work among the Laymen, and a special campaign among the Jews in Oklahoma City and Tulsa. The departments will have their separate reports and therefore, will not be discussed here. We have this year had four enlistment missionaries who hold meetings, budget churches, look after demoralized situations and aided in presentation of the denominational program. These men are doing a valuable work and we should increase their number. Our evangelist, Rev. C. Bowles, has been doing some good work in revival meetings since being released from the Debt Paying Campaign. Rev. G. Lee Phelps has had a good year among the Indians. In the study work they were for the first time put on precisely the same basis as the white churches and did splendid work. Prof. J. E. George has led the laymen in a good year's work. They are stressing study classes as never before. Many new tithers have been enlisted and the work is taking shape more substantially than ever. Our next step forward should be the selection of a secretary for the field to give his entire time to this and stewardship and budgeting. We had Rev. Jacob Gartenhaus and two other Jewish preachers in a campaign of a week each in Oklahoma City and Tulsa. Especially in Tulsa the meeting attracted a large number of Jewish listeners. No conversions but considerable interest was manifested and it seemed wise to plan for another series of meetings next year. The following table shows the results for the year:

II. Our Problems.

1. The auditor recommends that the change of pro ratas in our annual budget all take place at the Convention so that the entire year will show the same ratios throughout. This he says avoids confusion and increases efficiency. Our 1926 Program is supposed to run from January to December on the pro ratas set. But this confuses the audit and increases the expense of operation by having two sets of ratios to deal with each year. Our aim is to accept the recommendation of the Southern Baptist Convention in the Southwide divisions. These would all go into effect with the first of November if the Auditor's recommendation was followed. We are inclined to believe this would be a wise policy to follow.

2. Our Associations over the state are passing through a period of readjustment and change. There are few Associations that have missionaries. Country fields all over Oklahoma are being abandoned or at least neglected and temporarily closed. The cause of this is given by various authorities to be the changing social order. That may be largely the cause of the trouble. It is, however, not the cause we are so vitally concerned about as the remedy thereto. We are convinced that many fields are circumscribed because other churches are too close to them. We are further convinced that the country churches of the future must have memberships ranging from 150 and up to successfully meet the environmental influences that are drawing our young people away from the great country church life that has meant so much to the Baptist cause in the past. This problem demands the most serious and prayerful consideration of the Baptist leaders. The permanent establishment of great Baptist centers in country communities is a problem demanding the best thought and most serious prayer on the part of the Baptist forces of this state. This can best be done through Associational initiative. We therefore, urge the leaders in each of our Associations to give serious thought to this problem during this year. If the committee on Associational Missions for next year is instructed to give special thought to recommendations along this line we might reach a workable basis in a year or two. But meanwhile we are losing the country in many sections. Immediate hope of relief is to be found in the Laymen and others in the larger churches manning the weak fields during the period of their inability. But they must be taught not to depend permanently on outside help.

III. Our Recommendations.

1. We recommend that the Co-operative or 1927 Program be projected on the basis of $300,000.00. The Commission has requested us to undertake to raise $375,000.00, but after prayerful consideration we recommend $300,000.00 with the amounts apportioned to Associations and Churches based on obtainable estimates of ability and willingness.

2. We recommend that our churches be urged to pay pledges in full for the 1926 Program before the close of December and churches that have not made a pledge be requested to take an offering for the 1926 Program.

3. We recommend Dec. 5th to 12th as Budget Week for all churches that have not an earlier date set for that purpose. It is a very essential part of a budget program that pledges be made early enough to make twelve months of giving possible on the budget basis. Material will be provided from the office for the prosecution of the work for that week.

4. The Double Budget is recommended after the most careful study of the single budget in operation. The denomination suffers when the churches adopt the single budget. The Double Budget gives every person an opportunity to subscribe definitely to denominational objects and is in harmony with Scriptural precedent in money raising.

5. Regular weekly or monthly remittances should be made to the Secretary's office. This year eleven churches made regular weekly remittances and fifty-one made monthly remittances to the office. An award is being prepared for the churches who keep up their standard to Jan. 1, 1927. We recommend that all our churches adopt this method of remitting for the ensuing year. Those sending each week will be known as Class A churches, those sending monthly as Class B. In small half and fourth time churches where this seems impossible a quarterly offering is recommended and they shall be known as Class C churches. All others are placed in Class D.

6. We recommend that Associations definitely accept apportionments and undertake to make that Association responsible for the raising of a certain amount. In case some churches meet with reverses the others make up the amount, or better still, furnish workers to visit pastorless and discouraged fields and give them an opportunity in the spring and fall to have a part in the denominational work.

7. We recommend that the Co-operative funds for the ensuing year be divided upon a forty-five—fifty-five basis. Our debts now being wiped out, and the interest necessarily paid each year with the amounts used in paying the principal on the indebtedness makes the forty-five—fifty-five basis a practical and workable division of the funds. We recommend the following pro rata division on the above mentioned basis:

State Missions	24%	$24.00
O. B. U.	19%	19.00
Orphans' Home	7%	7.00
Hospitals	5%	5.00
		<hr/>
		$55.00
Out of State, 45%.
Foreign Missions		$22.50
Home Missions		10.12½
Southwide Education		6.75
Ministerial Relief and Annuity		4.27½
New Orleans Baptist Hospital		1.35

8. Believing the experience of the past four years has justified the wisdom of the policy adopted at that time, we recommend the continuation of the policy then established of requesting the Boards of Trustees of the various institutions to borrow any money to meet their emergencies upon the signature of the Boards of Trustees of the institutions involved, only after permission is granted and consent given by the Board of Directors to the transaction.

Conclusion.

As we come to the close of this historic year we look out over the great state and its opportunities and privileges, with its responsibilities and cares. This company of Baptists stand in an eminence of Glory as we think of the accomplishments of the year. But with every advantage, with every gift of our Lord there bears down upon us a responsibility that cannot be shirked or set aside. Out into the year 1927 we must push our Campaign for the enlistment of our Baptist causes for the enlistment of Baptist forces and for the enlightenment of our host of members who will enter the task of the Kingdom as vision is given them. "My people perish for lack of knowledge" applies to our Baptist forces. Our endeavor is to lay upon the altar of our Master for service all that we have and all that we are as a people in this State. May it redound to His honor and glory, the Salvation of the lost world, and the enriching of a commonwealth. This is the aim and effort of the Baptist forces of this State.

J. B. ROUNDS.

To The Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, Nov. 9th, 1926:

As Superintendent of the Oklahoma Baptist Orphans' Home I wish to bring before you the work and activities of your Orphans' Home for the past twelve months.

During the past year God's blessings seem to have been with us. We have received in the home 38 children, and during the same period they have been exceedingly good. We are happy to report no deaths at all and only one or two cases of sickness of any importance. Our children are doing fine work in school. We have 30 in high and junior high school. We are taking special pains in looking after the religious and moral life of our children. On January 1st, last, we organized our own Sunday School and now have a Standard A-1 Sunday School in the Home. We were compelled to do this on account of transportation facilities. We found it to be almost an impossible task to take this large number of children down town to Sunday School. We find it much more desirable from every standpoint to have our own Sunday School.

The Woman's Missionary Unions of the State have given us exceedingly fine co-operation, for which we are very grateful. The Sunday Schools have contributed during the year a total of $15,781.51. Last year they contributed $18,560.62, a net loss from this source of $2,779.11.

During this year we have made improvements and repairs to the amount of $4,661.96. These were absolutely necessary. We do not contemplate any further improvements until we have fully and completely liquidated our indebtedness. We expect to complete this task before launching any building enterprises.

I now submit to you the financial report from Nov. 1st, 1925, to Nov. 1st, 1926, as follows:

Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma.

Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Gentlemen:

In accordance with your instructions we have audited the Books and Records of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma for the fiscal year ended October 31st, 1926, and submit herewith our report together with the Exhibits and Schedules enumerated on the preceding page.

Scope of Service

Our audit embraced a detailed examination of the cash disbursements and a thorough check of the recorded cash receipts. Tests were made of the distribution of receipts to the several Fund accounts. Analysis of expenditures were verified and the necessary adjustments were made.

Exhibit A, Reconciliation of Balances, sets forth the active operating accounts of the Convention. By referring to this Exhibit the exact amount of cash receipts and disbursements on each fund can be determined. The schedules enumerated thereon will supply further detail of the principal accounts.

Exhibit B, the Balance Sheet, presents the financial condition of the Baptist General Convention as at November 3, 1926. Attention is directed to Exhibit C, which shows analysis of Exhibit B, by Institutions. It was impossible to secure Balance Sheets of the different Institutions as at November 3, 1926, in time to provide the Convention this report. We, therefore, were compelled to use the available data, and have designated the correct date above each balance sheet shown on Exhibit C.

We did not audit the records from which these accounts were taken, and are therefore, unable to certify as to their correctness. It is our opinion, however, that the Balance Sheet sets forth conservative values, with the exception of accounts appearing in the General Convention Balance Sheet as designated Accounts Receivable and Notes Receivable amounting to $22,319.12. These accounts are made up of accounts and notes receivable given to the Oklahoma State Baptist Hospital. We are advised that they are considered practically worthless.

When consideration is given to the detail contained in the Exhibits and Schedules, we believe further comments unnecessary.

Respectfully submitted,

WILSON & GARNETT,
Certified Public Accountants.

EXHIBIT C

REPORT OF DEBT PAYING COMMITTEE

The Committee appointed by the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma at Muskogee, November 11th, 1925, for the purpose of raising approximately $300,000 with which to pay off all indebtedness of this Convention, makes the following report:

Greatness of the Task.

It is no easy thing to raise so large a sum of money extra and apart from the regular budget. It is more money than has ever been raised in one year from the regular program by any State in the Southern Baptist Convention. It has been a gigantic and challenging task to secure so much cash in the brief period allowed for this movement. Especially is this true when the people are poorly informed on condition of our denomination and when there is a weak denominational consciousness.

Steps of Progress

We set down here briefly, the steps in the progress of the accomplishment of the task.

1. The Committee held its first meeting the week following the Convention last November. In this meeting it was decided to elect a Director for the Movement who would give his full time to the work for one year, but the Committee experienced delay in finding the proper man for this position.

2. On December 6th, J. W. Bruner was chosen as Director. He agreed to accept the responsibility of leadership upon four conditions. (1) That it would be made a whirlwind campaign and put on in January, February and March. (2) That the whole force of the denomination be given over to the work of this Movement for the period of three months. That every department and the employees of the State Board give themselves to the task under the supervision of the Director. (3) That the State paper, the Baptist Messenger, be placed at the disposal of the Director, so as to have no limit placed on the space used for this Movement. (4) That the First Baptist Church of Chickasha, release the pastor for a period of the Campaign with the understanding that a supply be secured and the supply's salary be paid by the Church, with the Director's salary paid by the Debt Paying Movement. The Committee accepted these conditions and the Board of Directors approved the action of the Committee.

3. The Christmas Love Offering for Foreign Missions was made a part of the Debt Paying Movement with the understanding that all money collected would apply on the $58,000 due the Foreign Mission Board. The churches were urged to make their offerings liberal and they responded with more than $40,000.

4. The month of January was devoted to setting up the organization and creating the literature. Ten District Directors were chosen, inspirational meetings held in each of the ten districts, and a Director appointed for each Association.

5. At the close of the period of three months we had succeeded in securing a total of $134,302.18 in cash; $1,795.30 in post dated checks; and $99,304.90 in pledges, making a grand total of $235,403.38. The time was then extended to, and including the first Sunday in May.

6. At the close of the first extension of time, or on May 5th, we had received a total of $142,508.16 in cash and post dated checks, and $120,499.74 in individual and church pledges, making a grand total of $263,007.94. At this time the Committee decided to continue our efforts to the meeting of this Convention. The balance of $37,000 needed, was apportioned to the various Associations of the State, plans were made for speakers to attend the meetings of the Associations, deliver inspirational addresses, and organize for the collection of the money. The apportionments requested from the Associations were all accepted in their annual meetings and most of this money has been collected.

7. When the books of our Convention closed, we had received a total of $219,336.01 cash, and there was $6,404.37 reported in transit, which had not yet reached the office. This gave us a grand total of $225,740.38 when the books were turned over to the auditor and in cashable subscriptions, $22,500.00.

At this time another careful survey was made of our condition, counting all unpaid notes, outstanding accounts, interest, expense of the Debt Paying Movement to date, and adding the necessary money to care for outstanding obligations. It was discovered that $33,000.00 would be needed to free all the institutions of indebtedness and to clear our denomination of all outstanding obligations.

Difficulties Encountered

It has been necessary for us to meet many serious and challenging difficulties and face many opposing odds in the Debt Paying Movement. Among them we mention the following:

1. Shortness of Time. It was necessary for us to organize, mobilize information and inspire the whole denomination within the brief period of thirty days. The literature had to be created, published and distributed in less than six weeks. This is the shortest period in which any great denominational task has been attempted. This difficulty is greatly enlarged when we remember that approximately three-fourths of our churches are in the small towns and country places and that many of them are insufficiently organized for a great forward Movement. We were without a dependable mailing list of church officers. Many of the Associations had not published Associational minutes. People were slow in answering correspondence.

2. People were poorly informed on conditions of our denomination. Even Board members themselves did not understand how much money we owed and where we owed it. Very few, if any, of our people realized the seriousness of our condition.

3. A weak denominational consciousness. There had been no special effort made for some years to awaken denominational interest and many of our churches had allowed the mission zeal to die. Preachers were not preaching on the work of our denomination in Oklahoma. Our people were asleep. Only 540 of our approximately 1,100 churches contributed anything to the 1925 Budget. The whole denomination gave an average of $1.20 per capita for denominational work in and out of the State last year. This is the least per capita gift of any State in the Southern Baptist Convention. There was no feeling of denominational pride. There was no sense of denominational responsibility.

4. The subject was unpopular. It is never pleasing to talk about debts. It is always hard to pay old debts. There is no inspiration in caring for past obligations. Some of the obligations included in this indebtedness were very unpopular. So much so, that only a few people were willing to contribute except as a matter of denominational interest. It has been necessary to create and develop sufficient denominational interest to cause our people to respond to the call of the whole program.

5. The Love Offering. When the Convention launched the Debt Paying Movement at Muskogee in November its influence swept the State like wild fire. Churches immediately decided to get in and help. The very fact of the Debt Paying Movement being on and the churches being credited with the Love Offering caused a prompt and liberal response to the appeal for Foreign Missions. It was at that time understood that the general Movement would be launched later in the year and the churches took the Love Offering under the impression that it would be some time before the next general offering. When the Debt Paying Committee decided to put on the Movement in a whirlwind fashion and went back to the churches immediately following the Love Offering, many of the pastors hesitated about taking another collection. 369 churches were represented in the Love Offering and 160 of these had no other part in the Debt Paying Movement until after the meetings of the Associations. We have felt all along that the Love Offering was a great help to the Debt Paying Movement but after finding the effect on the churches, it is our deliberate judgment that the Love Offering served as one of the greatest difficulties. Churches taking the collections on the Love Offering did not set high standards and did not make the strong appeal of a large program for big gifts. The collections were small when compared to the greatness of the whole program. It is barely possible that we reached some money that we would not have reached in any other way but while reaching the small amount on the Love Offering, we were closing the door against the larger appeal and making it hard on the general Movement. We were also eliminating from the Debt Paying Movement the strong and challenging appeal of Foreign Missions. Had it been necessary we could have secured in any one week, of the Debt Paying Movement, sufficient designated funds to have wiped out the debt on the Foreign Missions.

6. Director unable to give longer time. It was necessary for the director to return to his church on April 1st. On account of prolonged absence many things had been neglected. He could only give part time to the Debt Paying Movement through April. In May it was necessary for him to undergo an operation and he was confined to the hospital and to his home for four weeks. The lack of leadership and the constant reminders caused a letting up in the efforts of the churches and considerable delay in collecting pledges.

7. Slump in Prices of Cotton. Immediately following the Associational meetings when most of the churches had accepted definite apportionments there came a terrible slump in the price of cotton, which greatly distressed the financial plans of a great many of our Baptists. There was also a prolonged season of rain, which greatly hindered farmers in harvesting their crops. These conditions made it exceedingly hard to collect the subscriptions made by the churches on the last $37,000.

The Forces That Helped

The credit for the victories won is not due any one man or any group of men, but they have come as a result of united, cooperative forces of Oklahoma Baptists all keeping step and moving in the same direction. Space will not permit a complete roll of all who have had part, but we feel that as matter of history, special reference should be made to some of the groups.

1. The Committee, composed of eight men and the Director has been faithful in the performance of duty, not only in attending meetings and counselling together in the problems of the Movement, but also in giving extra time on the field.

2. Pastors. More than 100 pastors have given special time to the Movement and many of them have been away from their own work as much as a month during the Campaign. Most every pastor in the State has thrown open the doors of his church to special speakers, distributed literature, and helped in every way to prepare the hearts of the people for the appeal. Only a very few pastors have been careless, indifferent, and selfish. Less than one dozen pastors in the whole State have acted as if they feared the denominational appeal would lessen their salaries or hurt their income. Men with very small salaries have given their time to the Campaign at their own expense, sparing no effort to make it a success. All praise to the self sacrificing pastors who have helped us in putting over this great Movement.

3. State men, including Missionaries Floyd G. Rogers, G. R. Naylor, W. A. Bryan, G. Lee Phelps, Evangelist C. Bowles, B. Y. P. U. Secretary T. H. Farmer, Sunday School Secretary Fred A. McCaulley, Orphans' Home Superintendent E. A. Howard, have given of their time and efforts to the Campaign and have rendered valuable help in every section of the State.

4. Dr. J. B. Rounds, our Corresponding Secretary, has cooperated to the fullest extent of time and influence. He has counselled with the Committee, visited Associations, made many speeches and personal appeals.

5. The Baptist Messenger, Our State Paper, and the O. B. U. Bulletin, have gone their full length and given unlimited space to the interest of this Movement. It would be impossible to estimate the value of the space given and the influence of this publicity.

6. State Institutions, including O. B. U., the Orphans' Home, Miami Hospital, Muskogee Hospital, with their Trustees and employees, have rendered beautiful cooperation. All these institutions have helped in getting collections from the churches and have made liberal contributions. Muskogee Hospital raised an extra $15,000 and the Miami people with the leadership of the Church, Brother C. Stubblefield, Pastor, and the Hospital forces raised approximately $30,000.

7. Big men, with large business affairs have helped us with their time, their money and their influence. We feel that special mention should be made of J. F. Robinson of Miami, who has given weeks to this Movement. It is utterly impossible to estimate the value of his influence and service to the Campaign. He has gone about in his quiet unassuming way, always with the most optimistic spirit and ready to lend encouragement, not only to the Movement, but to the Director of the Movement, of J. I. Cronwell, of Muskogee, who came to the rescue of the Movement at a time of need with a large gift of $25,000. He, too, has devoted time in soliciting help from others. R. A. Hefner, of Ardmore, has contributed liberally and helped in interesting others; B. F. C. Morris, of Oklahoma City, contributed $2,000 and has been quite active in soliciting funds; Dr. W. S. Spears, of Ardmore, who is a member of the Committee, has also been a liberal contributor and a great help; I. W. Shannon, of Tulsa, has contributed $1,500. Space will not permit personal mention of even all the big men, or people, who have had a large part. All the future will owe a debt of gratitude to these men who have come up to the help of the Lord in this needed time.

It has been necessary for the Director to act as organizer, publicity director, inspirational speaker and give direction to this work, but he has been greatly strengthened and helped by a large company of workers.

Achievements

All the joy bells of our hearts ring an anthem of praise to Him who hath led us and blessed us during the past year. It has been a period of hard work, crowned with the joy of service and victories all along the way. Eternity alone will reveal the full meaning of what we have done. It is easy for us to see at this time, the following immediate results of our efforts:

1. Cash received, amounting to $249,391.94. When we deduct from the $300,000 counted as the original goal, the $10,000.00 subscription made for O. B. U. Endowment, and the $5,000 anticipated loss on subscriptions, together with the interest saved on notes settled, it puts us within $27,609.06 of complete victory. We confidently expect this amount to be paid before the close of this service. This sum of money frees all institutions owned and controlled by the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma and the Missions enterprises, of indebtedness and gives us property valued at $993,068.35 free from debt. It is a record unheard of in all the history of Christianity. This accomplishment surpasses the hope of the most optimistic brethren among us. In the beginning of the Campaign the best informed brethren of the State, even the members of the Committee said that if we were able to secure $100,000 the Debt Paying Movement would be considered a great success.

2. Expenses held low. The total expenses of securing and collecting pledges is as follows:

Travelling	$2,986.29
Salaries	2,335.58
Postage	674.75
Printing and office supplies.....	1,648.37
Radio	114.06
Gas and electric	12.46
Telephone and telegraph.....	109.22
Miscellaneous	45.80
	$7,926.53

This is less than 3 per cent of the money actually collected, which is a remarkable record. The expense has been held low by the use of volunteer service, by the Movement paying director's salary for only three months and by close economy on all things.

3. Churches enlisted. Regardless of the fact that we have been dealing with an unpopular subject we have secured gifts from 740 churches. Only 540 churches contributed to the Budget in 1925.

4. There has been a great awakening of denominational loyalty and an enlargement of denominational vision. If we had secured no money the effort has been worth while in the amount of information given out to our people and the awakening of the Mission Spirit and the fresh consecration to the denominational work.

5. The institutions have been helped. Many students have been enlisted for O. B. U. There is now a feeling of pride in the work of our hospitals. People know more than ever before about our Orphans' Home and our methods of doing things. We have hushed many criticisms, corrected many false impressions and turned a mighty tide of enthusiasm towards the denominational program.

6. Forces united. This Movement has unified our people and enabled them to see, eye to eye, and we walk in the unison of a common faith as never before. Oklahoma Baptists now offer a solid front in the Kingdom work and in the accomplishment of a great task. It will be much easier to launch a worthy program in coming days on the account of the Debt Paying Movement. Our people now see the need of doing more.

7. Spiritual Life Quickened. More than 100 conversions have been reported as the result of services held in the interest of the Debt Paying Movement. Church work has been revived in many small communities. The revival fires have broken out and our people have been brought closer to God. There is new life in many of the Associational organizations. There is a new feeling of brotherly kindness and helpfulness.

With unspeakable thanksgiving to God for His continued and wonderful blessings and with unmeasured gratitude to all who have helped your Committee hand to the Convention the trust committed to it. We have labored together for the glory of the Master. Our faces are turned towards humanity's needs; we expect to be courageous in the gigantic struggles for right and righteousness. May we enter the new year and a new era with new loyalty to Him who is leading and has sworn that He will not fail or be discouraged until justice is established in all the world.

Faculty of Oklahoma Baptist University Unanimously Adopts Houston Convention Anti-Evolution Resolution.

It will doubtless be a matter of interest to the general public and especially the Baptists of Oklahoma to know that the faculty of Oklahoma Baptist University has unanimously adopted the statement voted by the recent Houston Convention on the evolution issue.

The readers of The Messenger will doubtless remember that the faculty of Oklahoma Baptist University adopted a confession of faith as a statement of doctrinal belief three or four years ago and in that confession a strong, frank, conservative article on creation was included. The faculty and new president feel that although this O. B. U. creed is clear and covers the ground in matters of recent controversy, that it is in every way consistent and proper to adopt the Southern Baptist Convention statement as voted at Houston, because the Oklahoma Baptist University point of view is frank and candid.

It is the desire of the faculty that the institution be recognized everywhere as committed without reservation to the fundamentals of orthodox faith as held by Southern Baptists through all the years. We glory in our reputation as "fundamentalists."

The statement adopted by the faculty is as follows:

"Be it resolved by the faculty of Oklahoma Baptist University in session June 17th, that we hereby affirm our acceptance of the recent Southern Baptist Convention statement on the evolution issue as follows:

"This Convention accepts Genesis as teaching that man was the special creation of God and rejects every theory, evolution or otherwise, which teaches that man originated in or came by way of a lower animal ancestry."

The vote on the above resolution was absolutely unanimous, the president and all members standing to indicate their personal vote. Practically every man on the faculty was present.

We are incorporating this resolution in our O. B. U. confession of faith and all members are signing it in personal assent to it.

EXHIBIT D—REPORT OF MESSENGER BOOK HOUSE

H. Killingsworth, Manager

This year we come with the first full annual report of the Messenger Book House since our arrangement with the Baptist Sunday School Board whereby they took over a one-half interest in the business and our Book House became a part of the Southern Baptist Chain of Book Stores.

It will be remembered that this arrangement went into effect May 1, 1925, but as our fiscal year closes on April 30th, the report to the Convention last year included a supplemental report of only the first six months under this present arrangement.

The first year of operation under this plan was spent largely in an effort to adjust the business to the change and to discover just how we should operate in this chain of Southern Baptist Book Stores, and it is only since the close of the first year, April 30th, 1926, that we really have struck into our first stride under this plan.

Immediately after the close of this first year's business we computed the amount of money paid into the State Missions Fund during the year and the following notice was sent in various ways to a large number of our customers and prospective customers:

GOOD NEWS TO OKLAHOMA BAPTISTS

Out of EVERY DOLLAR sent to MESSENGER BOOK HOUSE during the year just closed (April 30th) TWELVE AND ONE-FOURTH CENTS was turned into the Oklahoma State Missions Fund. This consists of ALL OUR SHARE OF PROFITS and certain of the expenses.

THAT IS, for each $5.00 worth you ordered during the year YOU THEREBY CONTRIBUTED $1.00 (practically) to the Oklahoma State Work.

IF ORDERS ARE SENT ELSEWHERE our State Work suffers to just that extent. Our prices are as low as can be secured anywhere. (If not, tell us.)

SEND IN ALL YOUR ORDERS and let's increase the percentage to the State Work this year!

We are particularly fortunate in that the Book House is located in the Baptist Building at Oklahoma City and the rental, which previous to the purchase of the building had gone to a private individual, is now paid in to Dr. Rounds' office and is credited to the State Mission Fund. This item, together with certain other smaller expense items, added to our share of the profits, makes up the twelve and one-fourth per cent turned into the State Missions Fund. With an increase in orders received of course this amount can be increased.

One of the noticeable benefits from our connection with the Sunday School Board is our increased credit rating and the financial assistance which results therefrom. We therefore have been able to branch out somewhat into sales on terms from which the Book House largely had been hindered heretofore. Our first efforts along this line was in a great sale of MacLaren's Expositions of the Holy Scriptures. This wonderful work had gone out to print and the Sunday School Board made an agreement with the publishers who owned the plates for these books to purchase a full car load of these sets to be distributed over the Southland if they would issue a new edition. This large purchase of these sets enabled us to offer them at the never before heard of price of $17.50 for the sale on these sets.

Later this large order was increased and we are still having a great sale on these sets.

Recently the Baptist Sunday School Board and Associated Stores have brought out another set of books which has long been contemplated by Dr. VanNess, Secretary of the Sunday School Board. This set, known as the Baptist Home Library No. 1, is composed of five books which were formerly published in seven volumes priced at $7.25. Fifty thousand copies of these books have just come from the press and this set, attractively and durably bound, is now priced at $2.95, postpaid.

With success in the distribution of these sets we expect to go on to further and larger aims in the distribution of good literature to our people in the future.

EXHIBIT E—BAPTIST MESSENGER REPORT

(C. P. Stealey, Editor and Manager.)

We are happy to report that in many respects this has been the best year for The Messenger. Early in 1912, there being no State Paper in existence, we conceived the idea of establishing the paper and with the encouragement of Secretary Stalcup and others, The Baptist Messenger was born. When the Convention met in Enid in 1918 action was taken resulting in the Convention ownership of the paper. The present Editor has served continuously, making, if we mistake not, the longest period of continuous consecutive service in one position.

We are told by those who are competent to make surveys that about 76 per cent of our Southern Baptist people are uninformed to a great extent about our denominational work, which means of course that they are unenlisted. Recent figures gathered by careful investigation indicate that not over one family out of six read the denominational papers. We are glad to report that while Oklahoma is one of the younger states, our average is a little better than one out of five, if we allow an average of four Baptists to one family. Are we presumptuous in believing that The Messenger has contributed in some measure at least to the splendid progress of Oklahoma Baptists?

Through the year, as in all the years, the Baptist Messenger has earnestly sought to promote the cause of Jesus Christ and has been loyal to every interest dear to Oklahoma Baptists. A review of our files will reveal that large space has been given to the various interests of this Convention, with unstinted cooperation with the Debt Paying Movement.

A denominational paper should serve as a medium of communication, as a conveyor of inspiring news regarding the progress of the Churches, but to properly function, it must be more than a bulletin. Among all the servants of the denomination, the survey of the Editor should be the most comprehensive. He must keep in touch with all the lines of activity and phases of religious life, thus having an advantage over even great men who are charged with the direction of individual institutions and interests. An Editor should be able to view them all in their relation to each other as constituting an harmonious whole. A recent report adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention sets forth that we should chronicle "the acts of the disciples," and that we should also be "epistles," that is, warn the Churches against false prophets and teachers. In other words, indoctrinate. In this day of unionism and community churchism, and the various other isms that require us to overlook or modify the Baptist Bible position, there is special need for emphasis at this point, though to give it may be unwelcomed by some. The numerous pleas for "broadmindedness" and "liberalism" with their highly accredited propagandists create a deadly atmosphere that will prove the severest test that Baptists have ever had. To be a sure enough Baptist today requires clear convictions, faithfully expressed and constant conscious fellowship with our Lord.

There is today a constant pressure on the pulpit and the press insisting that we soft pedal on the doctrines of our faith. The Editor has a duty here that he cannot shirk. The preacher may preach and his words be forgotten. The Editor puts it down in black and white and it becomes a living epistle.

Again this report says they are "apocalyptic." The Editor reads the other papers, keeps posted on the currents and cross currents. "Visions are before him." He sees "lambs" and "lions" and "beasts with horns" and "hosts" and "chariots," etc., and we might add that he sometimes gets gored or torn or run over by the horns, the lions or the chariots. But unless we produce a literature which seeks to counteract the subtle influences coming from most every direction in these days which give comfort to a nominal profession and indifferent attitude toward the old doctrines or actual acceptance of the Bible destroying new doctrines, we have lost our commission and serve not the Lord God of Heaven.

We rejoice in the loyalty of Oklahoma Baptists to the things that matter most. It is of course impossible to publish a paper that will please all the people all the time. We have had a larger contact with various parts of the State this year than ever before. The hearty support and expressions of approval for The Messenger's policy are to say the least encouraging.

While our circulation is not larger than reported last year, in fact slightly less, owing to revision of the list, the actual contact with the people is larger. In our friendly contest with the Baptist and Reflector of Tennessee, we are at this time something like 800 points in the lead.

At the request of Dr. Freeman, the Editor of the Baptist and Reflector, the contest will continue until December first. Shall Oklahoma win?

It has been suggested by some that the most effective enlistment work that could be done by our Convention would be to assign to one of the State Enlistment Men in connection with his enlistment work, the specific task of enlarging the circulation of the paper. We would recommend that this plan be considered by the Board of Directors.

EXHIBIT F—WOMAN'S WORK

In presenting the report of the Women's Missionary Union for 1926, we wish to express our appreciation of your generous attitude toward our work; for the cooperation and help given.

The past year has been one of decided progress and steady growth along many lines; and to the District and Associational President is due much of the credit. This year nine of the Districts are well organized; thirty of the Associations have consecrated leaders who are faithful in presenting every phase of our denominational work. Twenty of these are trying to reach the unenlisted through the quarterly rally meetings. Even in the rural churches there have proven to be a splendid medium for enlistment and efficiency. The Associations leading in organization this year are, North Canadian, Northeastern, Delaware, Mayes, Banner, Pontotoc, Central, Muskogee, Lincoln and Pottawatomie.

Rural work having met the challenge of the Sunday School Board, we have placed on the field during the summer three splendid young women, Miss Mae Lee Hughey, Miss Earl Hester, and Caelia Dnerscherl. Much of their work was necessarily seed sowing. Missionary fires must be kindled in the hearts of women before they will respond to the appeal to organize. Too much can not be said in commendation of these three splendid young women, who have given themselves for special service in the Master's vineyard.

The following figures will show some of the tabulated results of their services: 273 days, reaching 93 communities, 35 churches, 25 Associations, reviving 25 Missionary Societies and organizing 74. Teaching 19 Mission study classes, taking 85 subscriptions to religious magazines, and making many house to house visits. This new year we hope to do even more in the rural work.

Three hundred forty-three Societies observed the Weeks of Prayer for Foreign, Home and State Missions. The crushing debt on the Foreign Mission Board was indeed a challenge to our women to make their gifts to the Love Offering heroic. The Week of Prayer was held early in December with the hope that we would make our Christmas gifts to Christ generous and make it before we had satisfied our own selfish desires. As a result $14,600.00 was reported as coming from our W. M. U. This year the pressure of debt still is retarding the work of this great Board. Our gifts have been and are as "Starlight in Lands of Night." The influence of W. M. U. was felt in both Assemblies. We had Mission Study classes for all grades of Societies. The enrollment at Falls Creek being the largest ever. More than three hundred in classes. Mrs. Copass of Fort Worth, Texas, who gave us Travel Talks on her trip abroad, scored highest in enrollment and attendance. Her lectures on the many interesting places visited in the Holy Land were most interesting

Mission Study.

"Study to show thyself approved unto God a workman who needeth not to be ashamed." One of the most important phases of our W. M. U. work is Mission study. It is the foundation of effective work. We must know before we are interested and how can we know unless we study? Our obligations and responsibilities increase in proportion to our blessings. Clearly do we hear the words: "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel." "Why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things I have told you." Eight hundred ninety-two classes reported with an enrollment of 9,785. Total awards received 4,504, with 226 Bible Study classes; 47 completing Dr. Moorers' Outline and receiving diplomas, with 76 finishing the books, "Great Bible Characters," and "Ministry of Women."

Personal Service

Many Societies are undertaking in a systematic way to minister to the needs of the neglected and others in the community, and are finding new life and zeal in this direct contact with human need.

Stewardship

Christian Stewardship rests upon the foundation of God's ownership of ourselves and our possessions. "Ye are not your own, ye have been bought with a price," is the divine declaration. All wealth is to be held in trust as God's gift. It is to be used as He commands. The financial plan for W. M. U. is the bringing of the whole tithe into the Lord's cause.

The number signing the tithers' cards this year 454; total number of tithers among our W. M. U. forces as reported to me is 4,453.

It is always a joy for our women to do for our children in the Orphans' Home. Their gifts of clothing, linens, and other household articles, canned fruits, chickens, eggs, cash for shoes and hats, and lots of nice warm quilts and blankets, total $17,114.73.

Dormitory

We would be untrue to our own hearts if we did not express our deep appreciation of the cooperation and gracious encouragement we have received from women of our W. M. U. Their prayers, their interest, their gifts have helped and given courage for the great task we have undertaken. The campaign has been carried forward ever as a sacred trust, with the one dominant passion in our hearts to be true to the great program of our Master in the larger sense, feeling, however, that this special work must be consummated if we would be altogether faithful.

In accord with this purpose no active campaign has been pressed the past year on account of the Debt Paying Campaign. But despite this fact many pledges have come in, bringing our total amount pledged to $75,000.00 with $15,775.00 plus, paid in cash. As we enter a new year our hearts are greatly encouraged and our faith strengthened as we press forward toward the goal of $150,000.00 for the Memorial Dormitory, the greatest single task ever undertaken by our Oklahoma Baptist women, it surely appeals to the best there is in us.

Progress Made

Two hundred sixty-six new organizations this year give us a total of 1,093, with more than 800 mission study classes and 4,900 awards, 226 Bible classes and 47 completing Moorer's Bible Outline, therefore receiving diploma for same.

Contributions

This year we have given to the 1926 Program only $39,086.15, about $18,000.00 short of the amount pledged; but to the local work $42,515.90, an increase of several thousand over last year. To miscellaneous causes which include contributions to Associational and District expenses, $15,654.00; to Orphans' Home not included in church budget, $17,114.73; to Christmas Offering $14,600.00, and to State Missions $647.60 credited on the Debt Paying Campaign; with $1,832.99 to Home Missions as a result of the Week of Prayer; cash to White Cross to help to relieve the suffering in our Foreign hospitals $1,902.76, making a total of $133,354.40, including cash on the Memorial Dormitory gives us a grand total of $149,130.23.

Received from the Baptist General Convention for salaries and office expense $6,200.00.

Disbursements:

Field and Convention expense	$ 870.25
Salaries for the workers	4,050.00
Stamps and Envelopes	561.78

EXHIBIT G—REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK

We, your committee on Sunday School Work, report as follows:

Recognizing that the Sunday School affects and is affected by all the other church activities, it is self-evident that it is to the best interests of all, that each activity of the church shall prosper. This same analogy is applicable to our denominational work, and so during this year when the chief concern of Oklahoma Baptists has been relief from our old debts, our Sunday School department has given every assistance possible towards the promotion of the Debt Paying Campaign. Despite the fact that our State Sunday School Secretary gave the major portion of sixteen weeks of the year to this campaign, the high standard of Sunday School work in Oklahoma has been maintained as will be revealed in this report.

The Sunday School Board

During the recent years of financial stress and strain through which we have been passing, Oklahoma has been deeply indebted to the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention for the valuable assistance it has extended. This Board has provided splendid literature; it has furnished thousands upon thousands of pages of tracts and booklets without cost to our Sunday School workers; it has assisted in the promotion of our assemblies, conventions, training schools and enlargement campaigns; it has met dollar for dollar money placed in rural campaign work both by setate and associational agencies; it has made possible part time service of Mrs. W. A. Fite, our own splendid Intermediate Department worker; it has assisted in caring for the salaries of every paid Sunday School worker in the state except that of the office secretary of the Sunday School department; it has furnished willingly the services of its splendid corps of trained Sunday School field workers; it has facilitated the distribution of books and supplies to our Sunday School workers through the purchase of a half interest in our book store; it has assisted many of our churches contemplating church buildings, through its architectural department; and it has published many books so essential to our own growth and development. May we not forget that these benefits have been made possible only through the patronage received by this great board from our Baptist churches.

Some Sunday School Growth

At present there are in Oklahoma, 1,119 white and Indian Baptist Sunday Schools, with a total enrollment of 115,185. This is an increase over last year of 169 Sunday Schools and 6,857 pupils. In 1920 there were 660 Baptist Sunday Schools with an enrollment of 60,533. This indicates an increase of 459 schools and an increased enrollment of 54,652 in those Baptist Sunday Schools during this period of six years. To be sure some of the 459 schools had been in operation before as "Union" Sunday Schools, but are now reported as "Baptist." While this gain is perhaps gratifying, it is by no means commensurate with our possibilities of enlargement when we realize we have approximately 11,500 Sunday School officers and teachers at work.

Daily Vacation Bible Schools

Last year there were ten Daily Vacation Bible Schools, reporting 1,274 enrolled. This year with several of our schools failing to report, the department has received statistics from sixteen schools with a total enrollment of 2,585. As a result of these schools, many boys and girls were saved; many had their Bible knowledge greatly increased; and all were blessed through the profitable use of those hours of time. Every school reporting this year, and many others, state that the summer of 1927 will find such schools again.

Standards and Training

Last year there were 19 standard Sunday Schools in the state; this year there were 22. Six years ago 422 diplomas were granted. This year 1,083 diplomas and 3,344 other training course certificates and seals were granted through this department. In 1920 there were 276 churches in Oklahoma in which any Sunday School training work had ever been done; the total today is 428.

Rural Campaign Work

Eight Associations this year have taken advantage of the offer of the Sunday School Board to match through our State forces, dollar for dollar, money invested in the Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. Rural Campaign. Some of these workers have been used throughout the year, while others for only a portion of the year. This work is probably doing more to assist our rural churches than anything else that is being done in our state at the present time. These workers are organizing Baptist Sunday Schools in many of our rural churches; they are enlisting, teaching and training leaders in these churches; and through it all, they are evangelistic, winning many souls to Christ.

State Sunday School Convention

A rapidly growing agency for the propagation of our Baptist Sunday School work is our Statewide Sunday School Convention, which convenes in its fifth session with the McAlester Baptist church, February 9-12, 1927. This year's program is comprehensive in its scope, dealing with every phase of Sunday School work ordinarily cared for by such gatherings, and in addition, providing sections of special interest to our college students, and to our Indian brethren. McAlester is already making elaborate plans to care for a record breaking crowd, of which it is hoped each of you may be a part.

Secretary's Personal Report

The 1926 personal report of our State Sunday School Secretary, Rev. Fred A. McCaulley, indicates that he delivered 606 sermons and addresses, taught 150 class periods; conducted three training schools and thirteen enlargement campaigns. Six years ago, with a half-time office secretary, and a full-time field assistant, his report reveals that there were 27 conversions and 67 volunteers called out for Christian service. How different in this year's report with 185 conversions; 278 additions to the churches; 107 young people re-dedicating their lives for Christian service, and 267 new volunteers called out, among whom were 15 for the ministry and 48 for foreign service.

Our Secretary enlisted 60 new titlers; sold 881 study course books; travelled 24,936 miles; attended 219 different meetings; granted 197 study course awards, and graded 22 Sunday Schools. He organized seven new Associational Baptist Sunday School conventions; and in local churches organized 39 new Sunday School departments, 170 Sunday School classes, and 84 Sunday School training classes. He sent out from the department 5,416 personal letters, 17,385 circular letters, 95 articles for publication, 3,393 posters and wall standards, and more than 450,000 pages of free Sunday School literature.

During the past twelve months our Sunday School Secretary secured in cash and pledges on the Debt Paying Movement and other denominational interests, a total of $13,485.26. His report indicates that our secretary stresses the spiritual and practical phases of the work, and would urge that every Sunday School worker in our state should do the same.

Recommendations

We recommend to the churches more consistent efforts to discover, enlist and train for Sunday School activities, every member of those churches at all capable of such service. We would urge that our churches approximate as nearly as possible, reaching every possibility in these church communities with the Bible, God's Infallible Word, so effectively taught to all unsaved individuals that they shall come to know Jesus Christ as their personal Savior; and to all those who have been previously saved, that they shall acknowledge through loving service, that Christ is Lord and Master of their lives.

We recommend that every Association conduct Baptist Sunday School conventions or rallies for the purpose of inspiring and instructing our Sunday School workers for more efficient service. We would also recommend in all instances possible that the Association cooperate with the Sunday School Board and the State Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. Departments in the securing of a Rural Campaign worker.

We further recommend that if possible, our State Sunday School Department be given some much needed working equipment, and an additional worker in the field.

Respectfully submitted,
M. E. RAMAY,
FRED A. McCAULLEY.

EXHIBIT H—ANNUAL REPORT OF STATE B. Y. P. U. DEPARTMENT

As we come to make the annual report of the B. Y. P. U. work in this state, to this convention, we do so with gratefulness to God for His abundant blessing on the work during the year, and with great appreciation for the united support of Oklahoma Baptists in helping us to realize our hopes for the year.

There are 17,665 B. Y. P. U. organizations in the South, with a membership of more than a half million. With this vast army in training for the work of our Lord, we can but thank God, as we contemplate the church of tomorrow with intelligent faith, trained power and consecrated leadership.

The work in this state under the able leadership of Mr. T. H. Farmer, has gone forward with increasing growth and efficiency. The personal report of the secretary reveals astonishing accomplishments in this Department during the year.

If Baptists are wise they will seek to help their young people to deepen their spiritual life; to express their Christian experience through training for service, by training them in the principles of Christian Stewardship; by giving instruction in Baptist doctrine and history; by creating a deeper reverence for and knowledge of the Word of God through systematic Bible reading; and by developing in their lives a loyalty to our great Missionary Program at home and abroad.

Our Rural Work

The Baptist Sunday School Board has appropriated $7,500.00 to Oklahoma as a fund to be matched dollar for dollar, by the Associations of the State in doing B. Y. P. U. and Sunday School work.

Oklahoma, up to and including September, 1926, had invested $6,095.20, which represents a gift from the Sunday School Board of $3,047.60 and an equal sum from the Association organization for the support of the Rural workers. These figures reveal the fact that Oklahoma Baptists passed up $3,477.40 that could have been used for the promotion of our Educational Program. Nine Associations took advantage of this very gracious offer of the Sunday School Board, by employing a worker for all or part time. The results of the labors of these workers are very gratifying. A few of which are enumerated here: Sold 861 books. One hundred nine classes were conducted, enrolling 1,876 people, with 1008 completing the examination; 992 awards were issued. They visited 350 churches and delivered 364 addresses and report numerous conversions. The Sunday School report will give the results of Sunday School work by these workers.

The workers and their fields are as follows:

Rev. E. J. Blanton	Perry Association
Miss Verta Von Hagen	Northwestern Association
Mrs. Maude Abner	Tillman Association
Miss Bettie Koller	Northeastern Association
Miss Eunice Mannahan	Northeastern Association
Miss Lena Ragsdale	Northeastern Association
Mrs. G. T. Herrin	Bryan Association
Miss Mary Tommie Hendricks	Delaware Association
Miss Ruth Taylor	Cotton-Comanche Association
Rev. W. L. Wilcoxson	Cotton-Comanche Association
Rev. E. J. Blanton	Union Association
Mrs. Laura McInturf	Leflore-Latimer Association
Mrs. R. J. Reynolds	Pittsburg Association

In this Program, we are making progress toward changing Baptist liabilities into Kingdom assets.

Falls Creek Assembly

Oklahoma's giant enterprise for finding recruits for Kingdom expansion is Falls Creek, our State Baptist Assembly. It was here that Rosulee Mills Appleby, Mrs. Betty Stevens Lyde, Rev. J. S. Richardson, J. Earl Mead and hundreds of others were led to say: "I'll go where you want me to go—I'll do what you want me to do."

Friday night of the first week of the 1926 Assembly, will never be forgotten by those in attendance. At the close of a masterful sermon by Dr. R. M. Inlow, 216 of Oklahoma's brightest and best young people made a definite surrender of life and all to the Lord Jesus. God was present in the Person of His Spirit. Indeed to recall the incidents of that night, makes one feel that he is reading in the Acts of the Apostles, so marvelous was the unmistakable manifestation of His Power.

Some of the leading speakers in and out of the state, appeared on the program. Sunday was designated as All Mission Day, and Brethren Phelps, Smith, Davis, with Mrs. George English and other Indian leaders, were there with large numbers of their people and rendered the program for the day, much to the delight of all.

About 1250 were enrolled in the various classes. The variety of Doctrinal, Devotional, Bible Study and Missionary subjects offered, furnished opportunity to individuals, to get suggestions on work most desired.

Finances

The finances of the Assembly are in excellent condition—all outstanding bills are paid. The sale of lots on the grounds reached great proportions this year; the receipts from which amounted to $850.00. Money received from rental of cots, mattresses, buildings, etc., to the amount of $2,940.87 was designated to pay the expenses for this year's Assembly, and maintaining the grounds for the year. Total receipts from all sources amounted to $7,142.87.

The Lake

The Falls Creek Baptist Assembly Lake is now under construction. It will add great value to the grounds, and will cost $7,295.00. This money is being raised by selling stock, at $50.00 per share, entitling the holder to privileges of duck hunting and fishing, for a period of 13 years. The 1927 Assembly is scheduled for August 2-12.

The State B. Y. P. U. Convention

The Annual B. Y. P. U. Convention of the State has come to be a mighty factor in the work of Oklahoma Baptists, for its inspirational value, as well as the dissemination of information on the Baptist Doctrine, and purposes in world evangelization, and the promotion of good fellowship among our people.

The 1926 Convention, which was the 14th Annual session, was held with the churches of Shawnee. The attendance was large and the spiritual atmosphere was dominant. The Baptists of Shawnee were deservedly praised for the royal way in which they entertained their numerous visitors.

The 1927 Convention will convene in Oklahoma City, March 24-27. Some of the outstanding speakers of this country will appear on the program. Already the Baptists of our capital city are making large plans for the entertainment of the 4,000 people who are expected to attend this, the 15th Annual meeting.

Secretary's Personal Report

Some of the items listed in the secretary's personal report include the following: Total awards issued 6,274; days labored 365; addresses delivered 270; class periods taught 170; training schools conducted 20; conversions 32; subscriptions to Messenger 22 and to B. Y. P. U. Magazine about 500. Total volunteers, consecrations including State Convention and Falls Creek 1,372; he attended many conventions, conferences, Fifth Sunday and Associational meetings. Total amount of money collected on B. Y. P. U. work $9,060.37. Letters, cards, Standards of Excellence, packages of literature, numbering above fifty thousand, were mailed out from the office.

Recommendations

Your committee would recommend:

FIRST: That we urge our churches throughout the state to strive toward greater efficiency in our B. Y. P. U. work by making the standard of excellence the basis of operation and by observing study course week in March or some time during 1927; emphasizing the Eight Point Record System; and by enlarging local organizations as well as to foster the work in neighboring churches.

SECOND, That TITHERS' BANDS be organized; stewardship emphasized and an earnest effort be made to enlist all the young people in the support of both the local and denominational budget of the church.

THIRD, That the members of the Executive Board of this Convention keep before them the urgent need of a Junior-Intermediate field worker for this department.

FOURTH, That we pledge our cooperation in promoting the District B. Y. P. U. conventions in each of the ten Districts and that we will make every effort possible to obtain record breaking crowds at both the State Convention and the Falls Creek Assembly for 1927.

McKINLEY NORMAN,
E. W. WESTMORELAND,
T. H. FARMER.

EXHIBIT I—REPORT ON ASSOCIATIONAL MISSIONS

Until recent years Baptists have been deeply interested in the people who live in the rural districts. Long before Oklahoma was a State; they were wise to send Missionaries wherever the opportunity presented itself; hence today we are the largest denomination in this great State. In recent years many of our Baptists have moved to the towns and cities, leaving our country churches with few members who feel that they are not able to pay a preacher enough to support his family. Therefore our Baptists in the country are discouraged and unorganized. These great people cannot be enlisted as they ought without a Missionary.

We, your Committee, recommend that the pastors and churches co-operate in putting missionaries on every field in the State to evangelize and enlist the people for the cause of Christ.

We further recommend that the strongest men, with vision and tact be chosen, and that the Association pay a salary that will not be beneath the dignity of Christ's Kingdom.

J. H. GARDNER,

Committee.

EXHIBIT J—REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

In view of the prevalence of uneasiness and unrest, in view of the dominion of vice and crime, in view of the regnance of naturalism and selfishness, and in view of the rule of carnal nature in life's activities, we, your committee on Christian Education, feel impelled to raise the question: "What is the matter with the world?" Our diagnosis of present-day moral and spiritual problems has compelled us to conclude that the world's ills are products of wrong nature and wrong nurture. To solve our problems, we believe that we must come anew to Christ, the source of righteousness. The learning process dominated by the Spirit of the Master can best cope with current drifts.

To proceed intelligently, we believe it is necessary to define adequately Christian Education, to determine definitely its objective, to requisition carefully the tools for its work, and to apply conscientiously ourselves to the task of Christ-like character building.

What are we trying to realize in Christian Education? Are we seeking to turn out an intellectually cultured individual without reference to the heart-side of his life? Are we building up taboos against the heart and sanctioning only intellectual functions? If so, then it is time for us to take an inventory of our educational wares.

What is Christian Education? Is it the instruction of a saved man? Not necessarily! Is it the instruction of a Baptist teacher in a Baptist college, both of which profess allegiance to the Book Divine? No! not necessarily. What then is Christian Education? As we see it, Christian culture is a process of multiplying and organizing meaningful experience under the guidance of the Spirit Divine. Such learning calls out the heart, stimulates the soul, renews the mind, and increases the strength of individuals. It is thus that the sufficiency of God's Grace is disclosed.

What is the True Objective of Christian Education? As already implied, your committee believes that a worthy objective is not a cultured carnality, but a cultural state which brings all of the race's powers under subjection to God's Will. It is an objective which reveals the dominion of self-forgetting and Christ enthroning behavior. It is thus that character approximates the attributes of Christ, the Savior.

What are the tools of Christian Education? As conceived by your committee, the tools of Christian culture comprehend the personnel of the faculty, textbooks, and methods. Of these the faculty is obviously the most important. We believe that the faculty of the Christian College should be loyal to supernaturalism; that it should hesitate to put too large an emphasis upon human nature in the learning process; and that it should diligently walk according to the mandates of the Book Divine. We believe that so far as possible textbooks should be purged of naturalistic teachings, and we further believe that school methods should be adjusted so as to run in harmony with the Scripture's teaching concerning human nature. It is obvious that the Maker of man knows more about human nature than the student which seeks to evaluate it.

What should we do to develop Christian Character? We, your committee, believe that Christian Character, or Christ-like integrity, can be developed only through a learning process dominated by the Spirit of Christ. Accordingly, Christian Colleges should seek to enlist the young of this age in sacrificial endeavors; turn human hearts into planes of unselfish activities; bring conquering souls into the cooperative relationships; enlarge man's vision for world conquests; and wed immortal spirits to the work and worth of the Son of Righteousness. To achieve such a mental and spiritual state, the Kingdom of God must be exalted. We should herald from the house-tops the Glory of Righteousness. Its appeal should be so made as to challenge the biggest minds and the greatest hearts among the sons of men. We need not apologize for instruction which magnifies Christ Jesus. Christian culture which combines tested knowledge, conquering faith, and Christ-like love, will produce the character necessary for the solution of our problems.

Believing the existing indifference toward things eternal and the evident laxness of this age in enforcing the standards of Heaven importune Oklahoma Baptists to face our moral and spiritual problems squarely, and believing that consciousness of need should impel us to act, we your committee, recommend:

1. That Oklahoma Baptists ever strive to approximate the above suggestions in their educational work.

2. That Oklahoma Baptists commend Oklahoma Baptist University for its official stand on Bible fundamentals and recommend continued diligence in safeguarding the tenets of our faith.

3. That we strongly recommend the Board of Trustees of Oklahoma Baptist University, when seeking teachers in the future, to enlist only those who are Baptists in faith.

4. That Oklahoma Baptist General Convention memorialize the Southern Baptist Convention at its coming session, 1927, to create a text book commission with authority to secure competent scientists to write college text books which do no violence to the Orthodox Baptist's Conventional interpretation of the Book Divine and that the President of this Convention designate some one to present this memorial to the Southern Baptist Convention which convenes at Louisville, Kentucky, next May.

5. That Oklahoma Baptists, through the channel of this Convention and their general organizations, lend tangible encouragement to our Baptist Churches located in cities where State Educational Institutions of Higher Learning are maintained; that we strongly advise the Board to investigate the needs of these various Baptist Centers; that we provide as soon as possible pastors' assistants for such churches; and that we aid such churches at the earliest possible moment, in providing necessary equipment.

An Amendment to the Report on Christian Education

This Convention is now about to launch an enlarged and far reaching movement to give Oklahoma Baptist University the place and prestige which the Baptists of this State so earnestly desire it to have.

And in view of this fact, and in order that the time honored and cherished Baptist principle of Democracy may be preserved;

And that our great school may have the largest support of our people in every section of the state;

The Convention hereby expresses its desire that from henceforth not more than two members shall be appointed from any city, town, or community to serve on the Board of Trustees during any one term of office;

And that such action be taken at this Convention as will make this action become effective at the end of the expiration of the terms of office of such brethren as may be affected hereby.

In case this action of the Convention is found to conflict with any section of the Charter or of the Articles of Incorporation of Oklahoma Baptist University that the Board of Trustees is hereby instructed to take whatever steps are necessary to see that the spirit and letter of this action is carried into effect.

REPORT OF THE BUSINESS MANAGER OF OKLAHOMA BAPTIST UNIVERSITY

To the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, in session at Enid, Oklahoma, November 11, 1920:

There is submitted herewith the report of the Business Manager of Oklahoma Baptist University for the fiscal year beginning September 1, 1925, and ending August 31, 1926.

The financing of a growing university is a problem and a task worthy of the serious consideration of the denomination. The university is now being run on the most economical basis possible consistent with good work and required college standards. Operating expenses have been reduced to the minimum. The books are open for inspection by anyone interested and if there is a single cent that can be cut from the running expense account without materially affecting the efficiency of the institution we would welcome with gladness that suggestion. We are now running a bigger school, doing more work and teaching more students than has ever been done before in the history of the college and doing it on a smaller per capita expenditure of money for running expenses. We are willing to compare figures with any college in the south doing the same grade of work. An investigation of the financial administration of your school will reveal the fact that the money which this convention invests in the maintenance of the school is being wisely and economically spent in the production of the highest type of Christian manhood and womanhood.

The total amount of the contributions made to Oklahoma Baptist University during the past fiscal year was $47,544.04. Of this amount $25,784.24 was from the Debt Paying Campaign and was to be used for the payment of debts only. The balance of $21,759.80 was to be used for maintenance. (The total amount of Debt Paying funds received was $26,137.73. An expense of $353.49 was incurred on the Christian Education June campaign which reduced the net amount available for the payment of debts to $25,784.24.)

There were 1,197 students enrolled in Oklahoma Baptist University during the last year, which means that the year in school cost the denomination $18.18 for each student. This is an investment which is paying enormous dividends to the denomination when one considers the preachers, teachers and leaders who are developed, not to mention the hundreds of laymen who enter all walks of life and who are now rendering distinctive service to the denomination because of the training and vision which they secured in O. B. U. Our most economically operated state schools cost the tax payers of Oklahoma a minimum of $87.26 for each student enrolled, according to the secretary of the state board of education.

An outstanding feature of the report this year is that although we received a total of $1,002.34 more in contributions this year than the year previous, $25,784.24 was designated for the payment of debts which is $26,786.58 less this year for maintenance than we received the year before—a decrease of 55 per cent.

To summarize and restate, we received this fiscal year for maintenance $21,759.80, for payment of debts $25,784.24, or a total of $47,544.04, which was only $1,002.34 more than the amount received for maintenance the previous year.

By action of this Convention O. B. U. was to receive not less than $40,000.00 per year for maintenance and our operating deficit was not to exceed that amount. In spite of increased enrollment we have succeeded in reducing the total operating deficit to $35,913.05.

The total expense of running the school for the year was $185,027.10. The total receipts from students, including tuition, fees, meals, books and printing was $149,114.05, which leaves an operating deficit of $35,913.05.

Since we received only $21,759.80 for maintenance it was necessary to incur new obligations amounting to $14,153.25.

We have received Debt Paying Funds amounting to $25,784.24 up to the close of our fiscal year. Of this amount we have $2,268.73 in cash which is to be applied on notes due this month. The balance of $23,515.51 has been faithfully applied to the payment of debts.

The report for the year ending August 31, 1925, did not include salaries for August, 1925, because the report was made before the salaries were due and this item was left out by direction of the President. It was the intention at that time to leave out the August salaries each year to facilitate making reports which would adjust to a correct status after the first year. However, the best accounting practice requires that this item be inventoried and included. Consequently this report includes salaries for August, 1925 and August, 1926, which makes the deficit $3,926.04 more than it would otherwise have been.

Contingent liabilities have been increased $7,100.45 by the addition of a new Intertype casting machine, and other equipment, to the printing department. The payments on the machine are being paid out of the profits of the printing department.

Our greatest need is a permanent endowment which will insure a regular, permanent income and which will enable us to secure the recognition of the North Central Association of Colleges, which our scholastic attainments deserve. Our balance sheet shows that this Convention has a capital investment of $278,106.23 in Oklahoma Baptist University after all obligations are paid and it has a strategic opportunity and an investment in good will which could not be created by the expenditure of a million dollars.

Respectfully submitted,

R. J. McKNIGHT,
Business Manager.

EXHIBIT L—REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON OKLAHOMA BAPTIST UNIVERSITY ENDOWMENT

In a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Convention, held at the Baptist Building in Oklahoma City, June 1st, 1926, a motion was made and carried that a Committee be appointed whose duty it was to work out a plan for Enlargement and Endowment of the Oklahoma Baptist University.

In accordance with this instruction and authority, such committee was appointed. It has had two meetings and after much prayer and serious deliberation, it wishes to make the following recommendations to this Convention:

First: That this Convention go on record as approving a plan to launch a Campaign for One Million Dollars, to be used as follows: $700,000 for permanent endowment; $300,000 for buildings and equipment.

Second: That July 1st, 1927, be designated as the time for beginning the preparation period of such Campaign, with the understanding that this does not mean active solicitation from the churches during this Convention year, but will include publicity, organization and approach to individuals.

Third: That we commend the Woman's Missionary Union for the worthy undertaking in which they are engaged in raising funds for the erection of a Dormitory for women. We recommend, however, that the women, after September 1, 1927, merge their Campaign with the general Campaign.

Fourth, That the President of this Convention, the Corresponding Secretary, and the President of Oklahoma Baptist University, be authorized to name a committee of seven, to be known as "The Committee on Endowment and Enlargement of Oklahoma Baptist University," and that the aforementioned President of this Convention, Corresponding Secretary, and the President of O. B. U. be ex-officio members of this committee. We further recommend that this committee have full charge of the Campaign; how and by whom to be directed, and all such detail matters, as will be necessary.

Fifth: That all funds be handled through the office of the Corresponding Secretary of this Convention.

EXHIBIT M—REPORT ON TEMPERANCE

The 16th of this coming January we will have had national prohibition seven years. We are slowly, but surely making progress in our great temperance cause. Every reformatory movement has had to pass through an experimental stage and meet periods of crisis and sometimes, discouragements. The temperance cause is no exception to the rule. This law has been in operation long enough for us to appreciate its merits and value. It saves in men, morals and money. The number of drunks has grown less and less and crime has greatly decreased throughout the land.

The Law is Being More Strictly Enforced

The report of the justice department just made public showing the number of convictions, fines collected, jail sentences imposed, and injunctions granted in the enforcement of the prohibition law, is encouraging to the dries.

The increased number of convictions during the fiscal year ending June 30, over the preceding fiscal year does NOT indicate an increase in drunkenness. It rather indicates more rigid enforcement of the prohibition law.

It is encouraging also, to note there has been a decrease in the amount of fines collected, but a corresponding increase in jail sentences imposed. According to justice department officials, the tendency of the courts is to resort more to the jail sentence and less to the fine in imposing penalty upon the dry law violators.

Perhaps the most significant information in the report is the item showing that there were but 10 convictions in the pioneer prohibition state of Kansas. Time was in Kansas when dry law violations were numerous, as numerous in proportion to population as they are now in New York. Kansas has kept the prohibition faith and enforcement has steadily increased in efficiency and several generations of non-drinkers have come on as citizens in the state. When the alcohol is out of her system and she has sobered up, the same can be brought to pass in any state in the Union. It requires time and patience.

The report certainly brings encouragement to the friends of the prohibition policy.

League of Nations to Debate Alcohol Problem

Whether one be the friend or the adversary of the League of Nations one can not but recognize that this international organization, representing 50 governments, is an institution of great importance and that the turning of its attention to the alcohol problem cannot be a matter of indifference to us. We can not but rejoice that now for the first time in the history of the annual assemblies of the League of Nations in this world parliament, which unites so many ministers and statesmen of note, the alcohol question has been a subject of discussion. Ever since the constitution of the League of Nations temperance reformers have wished to invoke the aid of the new organization. This no doubt, is a timely step taken by the League. Several times, of late years, serious conflicts have arisen between alcohol exporting nations and other nations which have adopted advanced temperance legislation. Such conflicts threaten the pacific relations between said nations and must therefore be an object of concern for the League of Nations, whose first duty is the safeguarding of the peace of the world.

Prohibition and Prosperity

Prohibition has greatly aided prosperity in our country among all classes. Millions of workmen have been able to move into larger and better homes. Many have bought or built homes of their own. These homes are well and comfortably furnished. The building record in the United States since prohibition is the greatest in the history of the world.

Prohibition has increased efficiency. The output of goods is 36 per cent over that of 1919. Workmen and officials free from alcohol will go ahead at great speed, increasing enormously the wealth of the nation.

Prohibition adds to the health, wealth, pleasure and comfort of the people. While liquor dulls the intellect, sickens the nerves, weakens the body, unsteadies the hand of the artisan and finally destroys the will-power as the prelude to a slow and certain death. It is man's mortal enemy. It takes all and gives nothing in return. It is the companion of thieves, liars, pick-pockets, and the modern gunman who kills for pastime. No reasonable man will defend liquor. The wets even promise to curb this human scourge.

Prohibition takes away the beer bottle and makes possible the milk bottle instead. In New York alone, the increased consumption of milk has been over 1,250,000 quarts per day since prohibition. May we as a Nation continue to keep the beer wagon from the door of our homes and persist in our efforts against the liquor traffic until every home in the land and every child in the home shall have its bottle of milk and other necessities of life.

J. W. HOLLUMS,

EXHIBIT M2—COMMITTEE ON ARMY CHAPLAINS

We, your committee on Army Chaplains, make the following report:

First, that we believe that our denomination should carry the story of Christ as we understand it, to all the people of this nation, from those living in the White House down to the humblest family in all the land, regardless of race or color.

We believe that as long as we maintain a standing army however small it may be, that we should furnish them competent chaplains to look after their spiritual welfare.

Last year we maintained an army of 119,548. We have at present 125 chaplains with this number of men, classified by denominations as follows: Baptist 16; Baptist, colored, 2; Congregational, 9; Disciples of Christ, 8; Evangelical, 1; Lutheran, 6; Methodist Episcopal, 28; Methodist Episcopal, colored, 1; Methodist Protestant, 1; Presbyterian, 13; Presbyterian, Cumberland, 1; Protestant Episcopal, 9; Reformed, 2; Roman Catholic, 24; Unitarian, 2; Universalist, 2.

Thus it is evident that the Baptists of America are not doing their duty to the men that are serving in our Army. According to our constituency, we should have a great many more chaplains.

Respectfully submitted,

A. ROSCOE LUTON, Chairman.

EXHIBIT N—IN MEMORIAM

We pause to do honor to our fallen comrades. During the year just closed the following have gone before to be with Jesus: Mrs. Mary E. Roach, Rev. B. R. Byrns, Rev. J. H. Boyett, D. D., Rev. J. L. Butler, Rev. N. T. Wesley, Rev. Joe Kingfisher, Rev. Lincoln England, Dr. G. W. Austin, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Hendrick, Rev. Johnson, Rev. W. Bion Adkins and Mrs. W. Bion Adkins, Rev. J. L. Caldwell, Rev. J. R. Cason, Rev. Andrew J. Shelton, Rev. Stephen Whipkey.

Let not your hearts be troubled, since Jesus conquered death, it is an open door to our heavenly home. Higher service, and sweeter, purer joys are theirs. Death is swallowed up in victory, to die is gain, it is far better to depart and be with Jesus, death is numbered with the Christian's possessions, and along with unquestioned blessings: "For all things are yours, whether Paul or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life or death, or things present, or things to come—all are yours." The testimony of dying Christians confirms this teaching.

Some time ago, I sat in the presence of Rev. G. J. Johnson, D. D., of St. Louis, Mo., consciously, quietly, triumphantly passing away. Heaven and Jesus seemed more real to him than his room and the loved ones about him. The sweet, old hymns of Zion and the familiar words of his well-worn Bible were his chosen language. None other could express his thoughts and feelings. Like Goldsmith's village preacher, "His heaven began ere the earth was passed." It is sweet and glorious for the worn and weary servant of God to lay the tired body down to rest and awake in heaven, his Father's house—"where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest."

Then death brings promotion. Moses was great on earth, but greater in heaven. Here he dealt with men and things, and time. There he deals with God and the Angels and eternity. Surely it is better to depart and be with Jesus and the saints forever.

EXHIBIT O—REPORT ON MINISTERIAL RELIEF AND ANNUITIES

The Relief and Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, through its relief fund and its annuity fund, is grappling with a great and growing problem of providing for ministers, their widows and dependent orphans in the best possible way. This Board is located in Dallas, Texas, and has made rapid progress in the work committed to it and there is a growing appreciation of its work on the part of the brotherhood throughout the South.

The Relief Fund

The permanent relief fund is still under $600,000.00, and the relief beneficiaries are receiving on an average less than $150.00 per year. To provide properly for nearly 1,200 beneficiaries of this fund, the Board must have a very much larger income. Still the amount that we now distribute to aged and infirm ministers and to widows and dependent orphans of ministers is bringing peace of mind and a degree of comfort to these denominational wards that is justly gratifying.

The Annuity Fund

The Annuity Fund has combined resources of $1,687,144.44. Members of the fund who have reached their sixty-eighth birthday or who have become permanently disabled, are receiving the maximum amount promised in the membership certificate, namely, $500.00 per year, and the widows of deceased members are receiving $300.00 per year. There are at present fifty beneficiaries of this annuity fund.

Increased Provision Planned

The action of the Southern Baptist Convention, which met in Houston, Texas, in May last, in adopting the New Service Annuity Plan, as recommended by the special Laymen's Committee and by The Relief and Annuity Board itself, has been hailed with great satisfaction by thousands of our ministers and by the brotherhood generally. The provisions of this plan mark a distinct advance in the work of Ministerial Relief and the carrying out of these provisions will give every participating minister, the widows and dependent orphans of participating ministers, within the bounds of the Southern Baptist Convention, a support worthy of our great denomination when they shall come to require it by reason of age, physical disability or dependency.

Some of the Provisions of the New Service Plan

Some of the outstanding features of the New Service Plan are as follows:

1. An age annuity available at sixty-five for every active minister, missionary or other general denominational worker. This plan builds to a retirement annuity of approximately 50 per cent of the average salary on a basis of thirty-five years of service, i. e., on a basis of an average salary of $2,400.00 there will be eventually given an annuity of $1,200.00 and so on. There will be guaranteed to every active minister participating in this plan, a minimum of 50 per cent of his average salary up to $600.00. Three-fifths of the retirement annuity will be continued to the widow.

2. Total and permanent disability prior to the age of sixty-five will entitle the participant, after the first year of membership, to an annuity amounting to 40 per cent of his average annual salary during the five years of membership, to an annuity amounting to 40 per cent of his average annual salary during the five years preceding disability, provided that during the first five years of the operation of the plan, the disability annuity shall be the same as the minimum retirement annuity of $600.00.

3. There will be a death benefit to the widow, after the first year of membership, amounting to 75 per cent of the current year's salary of the minister, but not to exceed $1,000.00.

4. Minor children of disabled ministers will participate in this plan to receive $100.00 a year each, up to age eighteen, with certain educational allowances up to age of twenty-one.

How the Plan is to be Financed.

All ministers and others participating in the plan will be required to pay 2½% of their salaries, while the churches, or other agencies, paying the salaries shall pay 8% thereof. These percentages are to be calculated on salaries of workers from the time the plan begins to be operative, and membership therein begins. It is to be understood that in order to make this plan effective and for the Board to pay the benefits proposed herein, it will be necessary to raise a special fund with which to finance prior service credits for ministers and others who are already advanced in years, the amount of money thus to be raised, and the time of raising it, is yet to be determined by the Southern Baptist Convention.

For details concerning the New Service Annuity Plan, ministers or others interested should write The Relief and Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, 1226 Athletic Club Building, Dallas, Texas, and illuminating literature will be sent promptly.

Respectfully submitted,
J. M. PARKER, Chairman.

EXHIBIT P—HOME MISSIONS REPORT

1926-1927

Notwithstanding the receipts of the Home Mission Board were more than $100,000 short of those of the previous year, the year's work was most gratifying. Conversions and baptisms were numerous. The Home Board for years has been recognized as probably the greatest single evangelizing agency in America. Also the report of the Board shows a most gratifying tendency towards self-support. Mission stations and weak churches helped by the Board are in turn giving liberally to our denominational work—beneficiaries thus becoming benefactors.

Since the Convention met in Houston eleven years ago, the work of the Home Mission Board has gone steadily forward. Since that time, the workers—Independent and cooperative—of the Home Mission Board have delivered 1,794,408 sermons and addresses; conducted more than 140,480 prayer meetings, made 3,069,975 religious visits; have added to the churches through baptism 405,796 members; total additions, 652,312; volunteers for Christian service, 121,895; constituted 2,123 churches, built or improved 4,696 houses of worship, organized 7,148 Sunday Schools, distributed 309,753 Bibles and Testaments, circulated 53,537,829 pages of religious tracts. A great record, indeed!

The Board is laboring under a heavy debt contracted not from plunging but from a reduction in receipts for five years past. Retrenchment of the severest sort has been exercised each year. It will be almost suicidal for us to enforce further retrenchment in this great work. This report may well be closed by a brief statement from the last annual report of the Board:

"This is the greatest hour for Home Missions in the history of our country. The problems were never so acute, the demands so urgent, the opportunities so great and the obligations so overwhelming. This conviction is growing with thoughtful persons who realize the significance of America for the salvation of the world. America constitutes at once the greatest field and force in all the world for Christian civilization. Christian statesmen everywhere are beginning to realize this. Problems at home are as serious and complicated as those beyond the seas.

"Our country has become notorious for its disrespect for law, for its numerous murders, for its commercialism. Nothing but the mighty power of the Gospel of Christ will save us from this deluge of worldly diversion and material prosperity. These things constitute a most serious problem which deserves the thoughtful consideration of our Convention. Our work abroad will advance apace as we lay the foundation at home."

The Board furnishes free of cost excellent tracts and leaflets on all phases of its work at headquarters, 804 Wynne-Claughton Building, Atlanta, Georgia.

Your Committee most cordially recommends that every church and individual in our bounds study this great department of our work and pray earnestly and give liberally for its success, not forgetting the original purpose of its formation, i. e., EVANGELISM.

EXHIBIT Q—OUR BAPTIST INDIAN WORK

Most of our work among the Indians is in a very healthy condition; in some phases the progress has been unusually gratifying.

The problem that has given us the greatest concern for the past several years seems to be solving itself now; that of the enlistment of the young people in the work of the churches when they return from school. The B. Y. P. U. organizations are solving the problem. Nearly every one of the Indian churches are making some effort at B. Y. P. U. work and in some churches they are rejoicing in the splendid efficiency of their young people along this line.

A State-wide intertribal B. Y. P. U. convention was held this year with the West Eufaula church in which eight tribes were represented and a real inspirational program was carried out for three days under the leadership of President David Johnson and General Supervisor Rev. John Smith. Rev. Smith is giving his full time to this work. Nearly one hundred of these young Indians attended the Falls Creek Assembly and put on an excellent program.

Another encouraging sign is the closer fellowship now between the Indian churches and the white churches; I do not know of a single Indian pastor that is opposed in any way to the great denominational work; this is the first time I could say this for many years.

There are seven Indian Baptist Associations in the state and six of them are affiliated with Southern Baptists, five of these have appointed Associational Missionaries and some of the Associations have two Missionaries. Some of these missionaries are doing excellent work.

Just now the work in the Choctaw churches is not prospering, there are some dissensions among them that are hurting the work.

Two new church houses have been dedicated within the past few months and one new church organized.

All the summer camp meetings this summer have been the best ever and a high note of spirituality on through all the meetings.

White people are literally hounding the Indians for money, they come from many different states with all kinds of schemes asking the Indians to finance them. Graffers are as they have always been, hot on the Indians' trail to deceive and cheat him out of his property. This naturally makes it harder to make an honest appeal to them for money for denominational objects and legitimate benevolence.

Let me request every pastor of a white church in the Indian country to give some special attention to the Christian Indians in your community and especially to the Indian pastor; they will appreciate your help and spiritual counsel. Visit their meetings frequently, you can render a distinct service to our Indian work in this way.

Some of the very salt of the earth are among our Indian Christians in this state.

G. LEE PHELPS.

EXHIBIT R—REPORT OF FOREIGN MISSION COMMITTEE

The Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention has just closed its 81st year as a clearing house of Southern Baptists for dissemination of the gospel in the most remote and destitute parts of the earth. These 81 years have been filled with many perplexing problems, hard work and many discouragements. Notwithstanding all this the Board has made great progress and achieved much to the glory of our great Lord.

Some Accomplishments During Last Year.

There were 13,269 persons baptized on the foreign fields, making a gain over the previous year of 1,135, bringing the total membership on the foreign fields to 140,488. This membership is now organized into 1,215 churches, 557 of which are self-supporting. These 140,488 contributed last year $444,258.00, making nearly $4.00 per member. On these fields we have 1,818 Sunday Schools, with 76,991 pupils, and 568 women's societies with 13,649 members. There are also 574 young people's societies with a membership of 13,868.

Before the finances of the Board made it necessary to discontinue many schools on the foreign field we had 920, with a total student body of 36,893. Fifty per cent of the baptisms for the past year was among these students in our Christian schools on the foreign field.

The work of the Medical Board for the year consisted of 214,910 treatments administered to 69,583 patients, of which number 5,498 were admitted to the hospitals. 934 of the operations performed by the Board's Medical Staff were major operations.

The Present Status of the Board

Beginning with the year 1922 gifts for Foreign Missions began to decrease until the present. The year ending May, 1920, the Mission Board received $2,360,909.68. The year ending May, 1921, the Board received $2,529,155.63, the largest sum ever received by the Board in a single year. This was during the Seventy-Five Million Campaign. The very next year the receipts fell suddenly to $1,784,344.76, and have continued downward until the past year, when only $1,071,834.16 was received from the cooperative program. There were in designated gifts $240,613.03, and in total gifts to the Christmas Love Offering $281,344.01, making a grand total of $2,123,791.32. This substantially reduced the debt, but there was still left an indebtedness of about $700,000.00. The good Women's Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist Convention is undertaking to raise during the week of November 29th to December 3rd, of this year, the minimum sum of $300,000.00 for this debt on the Foreign Mission Board. This heavy indebtedness and reduced gifts to Foreign Missions has greatly reduced the effective work of the Board.

The Board is now operating on a basis of around $1,500,000.00, even after the disastrous reduction made a year ago. The Board has now been forced to make a further reduction for the year 1927. It has laid out its work on the basis of $1,300,000.00. This further reduction means cutting out of $441,000.00 from the greatly reduced budget of estimates which the missionaries submitted to the Board, after they, themselves, had striven even to their own hurt, to cooperate with the Board in its distress and shortage of funds. Some of our missionaries, burdened because their salaries were being paid out of borrowed money, have been, and are now returning to the Board 22-23 cents out of every dollar of their meagre salaries. This to be applied on the debt of the Board and in order to have part in the sacrifices of their brethren and sisters at home, in cancelling this debt and thereby making it possible to better take care of an imperilled work on the Foreign Field.

This shortage of funds will and is now depleting our missionary force. Those left on the field are greatly embarrassed by not having funds to carry on the work in an effective way, while those at home on furloughs have been frankly informed by the Board at its recent meeting that unless the receipts of the Board have substantially increased before their furlough period expires, the Board will not be able to return them to their fields. The Board is greatly grieved to have to make such discouraging announcements, nevertheless our Baptist people must know the facts.

The Future

What does the future hold in store for Southern Baptists? The Foreign Board has for more than three years denied the missionaries all equipment, such as residences, church buildings, school and hospital buildings, and has now for some time discontinued appointment of missionaries, despite the fact that there has been a sad depletion of the missionary staff by death and resignations. All of this is in view of the fact that hundreds of our young people have answered the call of their Lord, to give their lives to Foreign Mission work. They have been trained and are now awaiting a time when the Board will be able to send them out, where the Lord has called them to serve. What is the need for training more missionaries unless we are going to send them out?

It is to be remembered that at the beginning of the Seventy-Five Million Campaign, Southern Baptists prayed the Lord of the harvest to thrust more laborers into His harvest, and this He has gloriously done until now we have hundreds on the waiting list. He has not only called men and women to be Foreign Missionaries, but He has also given into the hands of Southern Baptists the funds with which to send them into the various mission fields. This is but a reminder of the responsibility that now rests upon Oklahoma Baptists, as well as the Baptists of the Southland. In these past five or six years the Baptists have made and spent large sums of wealth and too many of them have failed to recognize the Lordship of Jesus Christ, and the fact that they are stewards, using and investing that which belongs to another.

Southern Baptists are at this moment in the balances, being weighed. Shall they be found wanting? If we shall fail in our Foreign Mission work the day is not far distant when we shall fail as a people at home. The command of our Lord is, "Go ye therefore and teach (Disciple) ALL nations." The gospel which the Lord has committed to Baptists is world-wide in its scope, and it is the duty and glorious privilege of Oklahoma Baptists and those of the Southern Baptist Convention to give this gospel to a lost world, which is in desperate need but ready for this message of life and salvation.

It is indeed a sad fact that more than 90% of the world's population is now, at this moment, lost and without Christ, having no hope. Most of these live in Foreign Mission territory, where our Board is doing work. Will we send these lost the gospel or will we let them die in their sins, robbing our Lord of the glory which He is due to have in their lives? Christ is not only the hope of this lost and ruined world having peace with God, but man with man and nation with nation. If wars are to cease, the Prince of Peace must rule in the hearts of men, controlling their actions.

Some Recommendations

We would recommend that each church in the state of Oklahoma put on annually the every-member canvass and follow up same from year to year until every Baptist in the State is enlisted to give.

We would also recommend that great emphasis be placed upon tithing and that tithers' bands be organized in every church looking forward to the complete enlistment of all our people in tithing.

When Oklahoma Baptists are once enlisted in Scriptural giving we shall witness one of the greatest and most glorious spiritual revivals this world has ever seen or experienced. Then the windows of heaven shall be opened, backsliders reclaimed and sinners saved. This is the promise of the God of the Baptists, Mal. 3:10, "Bring ye all the tithe into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it."

That in following the action of the Southern Baptist Convention which met in Houston last May, we would approve the effort of the women to raise $300,000.00 as a Christian love offering, and we would commend these fellow workers in our own State to the sympathy and prayers of our brethren as they put forth a most consecrated effort to raise their portion of this sum.

EXHIBIT S—REPORT OF THE HOSPITAL COMMITTEE

Jesus, when talking to His followers as to their work said: "As my Father hath sent me, even so send I you." And as we read the account of His work while on earth, we find that He was sent to the sick and maimed with healing power; to the demon possessed with saving power: to the poor an outcast with that that brought to them joy and comfort; and to the untrained mind and life with that that sent them out into the world fitted to successfully meet the problems of life.

When we turn to the Book of Acts, the record of the early churches, we find that they were to be witnesses of their Master, and we find that they were true witnesses of all that He "began both to do and teach," by healing the sick, looking after the needs of the poor, leading the lost to Him, and training the untrained.

In our Hospital field of service Baptists are witnesses of the things that "Jesus began both to do and teach" more fully than in any other field of service. In our two hospitals, the Miami Baptist Hospital, at Miami, Oklahoma, and the Oklahoma Baptist Hospital, at Muskogee, Oklahoma, during the past year, we have administered to 2,476 patients. We have done free and charity work to the amount of $18,813.70. There has not a day passed in which there has not been personal evangelism done among the patients, and we now have 49 girls in our Training Schools. In these Training Schools the girls get not only theoretical knowledge, but practical knowledge, and go out from these schools fully equipped for professional life. Also while there they receive three years of Bible and Christian training.

The following is a statistical report of the Hospitals:

Special Mention

It is very gratifying to note that the Hospital at Miami under the capable management of Mr. G. M. London, although it did $5,164.09 in free and charity work, shows a net profit for the year of $705.37.

The above report of the Muskogee Hospital is for 11 months only, as their books closed this year on September 30th, instead of October 31st, as in former years.

Since September 1st, 1926, the Muskogee Hospital has a three years' course of training instead of 2½ years.

We are also glad to state that the Tulsa Baptist Union has employed a Director and is in a campaign to raise funds and erect a $600,000.00

Baptist Hospital in Tulsa. We want to commend them for this noble undertaking and ask the prayers and cooperation of the Baptists of Oklahoma for this new undertaking as well as for our Hospitals at Miami and Muskogee.

EXHIBIT T—REPORT OF THE LAYMEN'S MISSIONARY MOVEMENT

We, your Committee, extend greetings to this, the twenty-first annual session of the Oklahoma Baptist General Convention and submit the following report and make the following recommendations:

Since the Laymen's Missionary Movement was organized in 1907, it has emphasized the importance of many practicable measures; some of which are as follows:

1. Loyalty to, and adequate support of the pastor. "We should esteem him very highly in love for his work's sake." "The laborer is worthy his hire."

2. The weekly offering by every member of the Church as a vital feature of worship. "Upon the first day of the week, let every one of you lay by him in store as God hath prospered you." "Bring an offering and come into His courts."

3. Religion in business. "In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy paths."

4. The larger study of God's work, the reading of religious books, papers and tracts by the Laymen. The Executive Committee is announcing a study course for Laymen, and is awarding an attractive certificate with seals for those who complete these books. "Study to show thyself approved unto God."

5. The organization of men in the churches into Brotherhoods for the purpose of cultivating fellowship and promotion of intelligence and consecration. It also suggests the organization of associational units that the Laymen of the different churches may compare notes and plan for the promotion of the cooperative work. "That in all things, Christ may have the preeminence."

6. Your Committee also recommends that the Laymen, as well as the preacher, recognize that he is a Kingdom factor. He should share the burdens that come to the pastor and other leaders. "How shall they preach, except they be sent?"

Your Committee further reports that several thousands of letters have been written in the interest of the Laymen's Missionary Movement in Oklahoma in the past year; that numerous addresses have been delivered at Associational Meetings, Fifth Sunday Meetings, Laymen's Banquets and individual churches.

That a conference of Oklahoma Baptist Laymen was held in Oklahoma City in March, for two days, when a representative number of Baptist Laymen came up from various parts of Oklahoma. A very fine program was rendered and an unusual interest was manifested. Three definite things were set out as the principal task for the Convention year just closing, namely: the teaching of the Laymen's Missionary Course, the advancement of the interest of the Oklahoma Baptist Orphans' Home, and the memorializing of this Convention to employ a paid secretary for the Laymen's work and to supply him with proper facilities for the successful conduct of his work.

We believe that the organization of the Laymen's Missionary Movement in some such manner as the Sunday School, B. Y. P. U., and W. M. U. work is organized will prove to be a wonderful inspiration to the Laymen and productive of very beneficial results in increasing church attendance and local and denominational financial contributions.

We are glad to report that we have many assurances of a decided growth in interest in the Laymen's Missionary Movement and its objects. Many brotherhoods have been organized and many classes taught during the past year.

We offer the following recommendations: That the Oklahoma Baptist General Convention, at as early date as practicable, employ a trained and consecrated Layman, on salary, to enlist, organize and develop the Laymen, stressing the Association as the leading unit of organization, and it is the earnest desire of your Committee, and of the Laymen's Conference, that the Convention take such a step at this time.

Second, that the Laymen of the State join with all other agencies employed in making a success of all departments of the work, that this Convention may outline for the 1927 program.

Third, that the annual Laymen's Conference be continued and that same be held at such time and place as may be determined by the State Chairman and the Corresponding Secretary of this Convention.

Respectfully submitted,

EXHIBIT U—REPORT OF COMMITTEE FROM LAYMEN'S CONFERENCE

To the Oklahoma State Baptist Convention, assembled at Enid, Oklahoma, November 12, 1926.

The Laymen's work of this Convention has progressed during the past few years up to the present time to such a point that our skeleton organization is so overwhelmed with demands and opportunities that it is disheartening to the Laymen Chairman to face such demands and opportunities without being able to meet them.

This brings us face to face with the fact that we do not have the organization to meet the needs for service, and accounts for the fact that we are unable to present to this Convention the number of religious services held in this state by Gospel teams and individual Laymen, the number of conversions, the number of tithers enlisted, the number and enrollment of Sunday Schools fostered by the Laymen, the number of study classes held, etc., etc.

We believe that if these facts together with the ways and means used by these Laymen in this work could be collected and presented for the information of all our people it would enthuse and enlist ten-fold other Laymen and pastors. There is no way under the present organization whereby the various brotherhood groups can keep in touch with the work of each other, in such a way as to give that strength, encouragement and information so badly needed.

For these reasons, we the Laymen of the Baptist Churches of Oklahoma, memorialize this Convention to authorize the Board of Directors to provide if possible, the salary and expenses of a Laymen's Secretary for our organization.

EXHIBIT V—SYSTEMATIC BENEVOLENCE

Christianity is a beneficent religion. Christ came into the world to reveal his Father's love; to bring his Father's blessing, and to make it possible for every individual to enjoy full salvation with all of its attendant benefits. Both by precept and example, He taught us to extend the blessings of salvation to every creature of earth. The last words Jesus uttered, before his ascension, challenge us to be faithful witnesses unto Him beginning at Jerusalem and extending to the uttermost part of the earth. His commands to evangelize, baptize and teach to observe all things He has commanded, include every detail necessary in carrying out those orders. We are responsible for the accomplishments of the task and also for the glory of our Leader in the successful performance of the assignment.

For more than nineteen hundred years Christ has waited for full obedience and we are still half-heartedly seeking to find easy plans and schemes to lighten our burdens. And while we have waited in ignorance of God's plan for our service, millions of lost souls have gone into eternity without God and without hope.

God has ordained that "whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." But the apostle asks, "How shall they call upon Him in whom they have not believed; and how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard; and how shall they hear without a preacher; and how shall they preach except they be sent?" Baptists, in their program, have been weakest in the last link of this chain. Sinners, at home and abroad, need and long to hear the gospel message; hundreds and even thousands of our young people want to go and preach the Word of God; but we have not the funds to send them. There is only one great outstanding reason why this world has not been won to Christ and it is stated in three words: "failure to send," "lack of support."

Our great problem, today, is financial. And its solution will be one of the greatest single contributions to the advancement of Christ's kingdom in the history of the Christian movement.

Haphazard schemes will not do. Pious phrases and blind faith will never solve the problem. Our God is a God of order and system. He does nothing by chance. All His works conform to definite systematic plans and He has made no exceptions in the matter of church finance.

The Bible mentions great offerings in which the people offered willingly and rejoiced in their giving but they did not depend upon such collections for the regular support of their work and worship. God's people of old gave their tithes regularly into the Lord's treasury and made offerings only on special occasions to meet emergencies. God would have us to give liberally in times of necessity and to make every sacrifice necessary in the most rapid advancement of his kingdom, but He has given a better plan for the regular support of His work.

In First Corinthians, Paul outlines a definite system of church finance which was in operation in many churches and extended over a period of at least one year and perhaps became a fixed plan of financing worthy enterprises. "As I have given order to the CHURCHES of Galatia even so do ye, upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store as he may prosper that there be no collection when I come." Thus we find a specific financial plan in operation in Asia Minor and in Europe. The apostle writes to the church at Corinth of the success of the plan in the churches of Macedonia. This particular discussion was relative to raising money for the poor at Jerusalem but we are constrained to believe that the same system so successful in this instance was employed in raising money for other worthy causes.

In this brief outline, Paul tells us the standard of giving: every member according to his prosperity; the time of giving: upon the first day of the week, the resurrection day, the day of worship and spiritual service; the goal of giving: all that is needed so that special collections will not be necessary when he comes. He also mentions, in this connection, two other very great essentials in financing the Lord's work, viz.; handling the money and disbursing it. "Whomsoever ye shall approve by letters, I shall send to bring your liberality unto Jerusalem." The church decided, by ballot or letter or otherwise, who was to handle their offerings and thus assured its accurate accounting. They also designated those who were to carry their gifts to Jerusalem and in this way guaranteed proper disbursing of funds.

The system here outlined is known as the budget plan and is being operated in practically all of our large churches. It is also being used in an ever increasing number of smaller churches and is producing most satisfactory and encouraging results. This is not a new plan in any sense of the term but it has been tried in our churches of all sizes from those in the open country to the great city churches and in almost every instance, as testified by thousands of Baptist churches now on the budget plan, and as our general secretaries will gladly testify, has largely solved the financial problem of those churches. In such a plan is the hope of our cause at home and abroad.

We wish to urge the churches of this Convention, through their pastors and Sunday School teachers and other leaders, to teach the principles of systematic benevolence and to put them into practice as far as possible.

We also recommend the holding of a series of budget conferences in the state, reaching at least every Association and as many county seats as possible, with the objective of leading every church in the Convention to adopt the budget system of finance, preferably the double budget.

Your Committee would also urge the different agencies of the denomination in the state to put on a definite campaign to secure at least 25,000 additional tithers during the succeeding year.

We would call to the attention of this body and of the executive board whom the convention has elected the necessity of selecting a leader for the solution of this, our greatest problem.

LEON M. GAMBRELL,

B. M. JACKSON,

P. J. CONKWRIGHT,

Committee.

EXHIBIT W—REPORT OF THE 1926 COOPERATIVE PROGRAM

The year 1926 has really been a year of generous giving. Unusual harmony has prevailed among the brethren, and the sacrificial spirit has been notable. Churches and Associations readily accepted their suggested apportionments on the 1926 program, and much hard work has been done for the cause. The total gifts to this program to November 10th amount to $117,258.46, which we believe is a very encouraging total when we remember that so many of our people yet need to be taught the grace of giving to causes outside of their local churches; that comparatively few have a real sense of their stewardship as Christians; that church building projects and general local interests have absorbed the major interests in many important centers; and that just now we are facing a financial crisis which is already causing many churches to think retrenchment on their budgets for the next year.

Oklahoma Baptists were asked by the Cooperative Commission to contribute the sum of $300,000 during the year 1926. We have not reached that goal but have, nevertheless, paid our debts of long standing by conducting our debt paying campaign, and have learned much as regards our needs, our resources, and our ability to do larger things in the future for all of our Baptist causes. The following facts should hearten and encourage us as we contemplate our General Baptist Program for 1927: Many of our churches are nurturing a rich membership, who if consecrated and fully committed to our Kingdom tasks, might well take care of all our financial quotas and leave the over-subscription to brethren of average or meager income. Brethren of great prosperity should be urged to make large gifts if we ever expect to reach our yearly quotas to our general Baptist work. Our crops have been very abundant, and nothing but low prices should be allowed to hinder our people from large giving during the next Conventional year. Our Board, our general workers, and our pastors, therefore, need not hesitate to ask the churches for enlarged budgets for both local and denominational interests. Oklahoma Baptists are rapidly becoming an educated people. Strong, well prepared leaders are being developed in our churches and schools. Many of our churches have great educational facilities for the instruction of their people. Sunday School, B. Y. P. U. and W. M. U. work have been enlarged and intensified during the year. Our pastors generally are well trained, spiritual and zealous. Our Associational meetings have been harmonious and enthusiastic for all of our Baptist work. In short, our spirit, our resources, and our ability to do things for Christ seem unlimited. We therefore, call upon this Convention and our people generally to see to it that we "lengthen our cords and strengthen our stakes," and not to think of any reduction or retrenchment as we undertake another year of glorious work for our Master.

As a denomination we are now facing a serious situation. The statement of the Cooperative Commission is that "our general Boards and Institutions cannot take care of their regular work and retire their debts gradually without larger revenues from the Cooperative Program than they have received the last few years, and we are faced with the absolute necessity of increasing our distributable receipts in which all objects embraced in the Cooperative Program shall share upon the established percentages." The recent meeting of the Foreign Mission Board revealed the appalling fact that the hundred or more missionaries now at home on furlough cannot be returned to their fields of labor unless special provision for their support is made at once, and that others will probably soon be called home. "The dreadful thing has come, our missionaries are being cut off." Other objects embraced in the Cooperative Program have suffered like reductions and embarrassments. Baptists must arise in their strength to our present situation or lose much of the ground gained during the last seven years.

With these facts in mind, we appeal to our brethren to put forth a heroic effort to increase the offerings of their churches for missions and benevolence. Without these we shall never be able to reduce our denominational debts and go forward in a worthy way. We shall need to concentrate all our forces, including our General Board, our several agencies, and all our pastors and churches on our one recourse for the raising of adequate funds—to our denominational work, namely; the Cooperative Baptist Program. And with that in view we recommend:

1. That all special financial campaigns among Oklahoma Baptists be deferred until we first have ample time in which to secure the subscriptions for our 1927 Baptist Program.
2. That our General Board be instructed to enlarge and intensify their efforts to commit all our people to Bible principles of giving.
3. That our churches be urged to make the every member canvass for subscriptions to the 1927 Cooperative Program, along with their local budgets, on the date to be set by our General Board.
4. That the Convention now in session adopt a State Financial objective for the 1927 Program of not less than $300,000.00, and that announcement of same be made through our Corresponding Secretary to the churches before the date of the Every Member Canvass.
5. That the churches composing this Convention be urged to adopt the double budget, rather than the single budget, as the most commendable plan of gathering funds for all phases of our work, and that they use every possible means to educate Sunday School pupils and all church members in the grace of Christian liberality.

Enid, Oklahoma, November 8-9, 1926.

Motto: "Fellow Helpers to the Truth"

Year's Watchword: "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God."—Matt. 6:33

CONSTITUTION OF THE W. M. U. OF OKLAHOMA

Preamble

We, the women of the Baptist churches of Oklahoma, known as the Woman's Missionary Union, believing literally the truth of the Apostle Paul's declaration, found in Romans 2:4-5: "For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office; so we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members of another;" and in Gal. 3:28: "That in Christ there is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female, for ye are all one in Christ Jesus," and deeply and earnestly desiring the most efficient training and highest degree of consecration and missionary endeavor on the part of each and every member of our churches, do adopt the following Constitution, convinced that in the faithful pursuance of the policy outlined, there will be a close and harmonious cooperation of all the departments of work fostered by the Baptist General Convention, and that "in deed and in truth" the members of Baptist churches in Oklahoma will have in all missionary activities, the same care for one another. REPORT OF NORTHWEST DISTRICT

The Lord is with us in the Northwest District. We miss our former President, Mrs. W. A. Fite, more than we can say for next to the Lord's own help we owe to her efforts and the cooperation of the women much of our success. May God bless her in her chosen work. Our women are not only willing to study the Bible and Missions but are also praying for the lost souls. We shall first seek to give ourselves, then our time and talents, and last but not least, our means. Our desire for this year is that we move forward united in the service for our Master and not forget that our aim is to bring lost souls to the Cross and to interest the new believers in His Service.

The Dormitory must be built and the Northwest District will not only help to erect it but also help to fill it with some of our bright young girls who wish to fit themselves for better service. We have a large territory and our churches are far apart, also the railroad service is not perfect, but with the love of God in our hearts we can overcome that with the co-operation of God's people. We pray that the world may say of us as of the first Christians, "See how they love."

Yours in the work for our Master.

MRS. C. KNOBLOCK, Dist. Pres.

REPORT OF NORTH CENTRAL DISTRICT

We come to the close of another year's work with thankful hearts for the work that has been done in this District. We had four aims and have gained ground on each. Our Scholarship fund was completed and we now have a girl in training; our Dormitory fund is increasing; our societies are reporting more regularly than ever before.

Let us keep praying fervently for the Lord's work.

MRS. L. K. HIGHTOWER, Dist. Pres.

REPORT OF EAST CENTRAL DISTRICT

East Central District is composed of five associations: Pittsburg, Le-flore-Latimer, Haskell, McIntosh, and North Canadian. The last named association has the honor of having the only A-1 graded W. M. U. Family in the state. Holdenville won the banner. Our District Meeting was held at Stigler and was well attended. The money was raised for a scholarship and Miss Earl Hester is in House Beautiful at this time.

Only twelve societies in the district accepted their apportionment on the Memorial Dormitory. There has been increased interest in Mission Study. Pittsburg Association deserves special mention, also North Canadian. I'm sure the other associations have been busy but have failed to report their work. Our next meeting will be held with the First church at McAlester. I believe that with the District organization we have now that this will be a great year for us. We covet the prayers of the entire W. M. U. and promise to cooperate to the extent of our ability.

MRS. J. E. KIRK, Dist. Pres.

REPORT OF NORTHEAST DISTRICT

The closing of another year causes us to cast a glance over the tasks that have been undertaken and also to look ahead with greater faith toward the ideals of the future.

We have one young lady in the training school this year, a daughter of Northeast District, Miss Cora Dell Croft, of Tulsa. This is one ideal for which we have labored and are glad to announce the accomplished task.

This next year holds such great possibilities for us—"The one great task of Oklahoma women, our dormitory at O. B. U." Northeast District should rise to this task, that every society and every member should have a great part in this memorial. I hope every key woman here from the District will carry home the enthusiasm of this convention and strive for the glorious completion of this work.

There are other phases of our work that could be named separately, but I am going to class all under the one head of "Stewardship." A proper vision of this will solve all of our problems. How we have neglected this great Bible teaching. And now as the entire W. M. U. is working to this end let us pray God's leadership and be willing followers to carry on His task as our Lord and Master would have us to do.

When we see our Christian relationship and recognize Jesus Christ not only as Saviour but also as Lord and Master of our lives, then will 'His kingdom spread from shore to shore;' for has He not said: "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things shall be added upon you."

Help me in all the work I do,
To ever be sincere and true,
And know that all I do for you,
Must needs be done for others."

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. D. SHELDON, Dist. Pres.

REPORT OF SOUTHEAST DISTRICT

Southeast District is steadily moving forward, evidenced by the increased attendance at the ten associational rally meetings and the annual District meeting, and the desire on the part of the members to become better informed. It has been our pleasure, together with the District Young People's Leader, Mrs. Guy Burrous, to visit in three of the Associations during the year.

Seasons of prayer have been conscientiously observed throughout the District and were a source of spirituality in the life of the Societies. Boxes of bedding and fruit have been sent to the Orphans' Home and the adopted children have been well cared for by the Societies. Eleven societies sent boxes or contributions to White Cross to the value of $102.05.

Interest and enthusiasm continue to be manifested in Mission Study, Bible Study, Personal Service work and new auxiliaries organized. There has been a spirit of sacrifice in meeting missionary crises. We have 22 W. M. S. and 24 young people's organizations. Several societies have full graded unions.

The annual District meeting held in Durant, June 3-4, was the largest in our history and our hearts were inspired by having Mrs. Frank P. Lide, of China, Miss Juliette Mather, Young People's Secretary of the W. M. U. of the South, and our own Cor. Sec., Mrs. Spooner, to speak to us at that time. They created much enthusiasm and led to more consecrated service.

Special emphasis has been placed on tithing and the O. B. U. Memorial Dormitory has been stressed all over the District. A number of societies have accepted their apportionments; others have sent contributions.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. W. F. LEARD, Dist. Pres.

REPORT OF CENTRAL DISTRICT

The responsibility of living a Christian life in Oklahoma is tremendous when we think of the 74% of our population that is unchurched. I am almost paralyzed when I think how quickly the months go and with them passes our opportunities and responsibilities. A district filled with young life as Central District is, with the three great educational centers, calls for and demands our best. Have you been true to this call? No one has ever had the pleasure of working with a more cooperative, harmonious group of women than we have. As we glance back we see some victories and many failures. We trust there will be many more new societies and especially we will pray and work for more complete W. M. U. families in our District this coming year. I believe every Associational President, yes most every individual W. M. S., realizes that God's work cannot advance as it should unless they keep ever before our women the seven great foundation stones of our W. M. U., namely: prayer, Bible Study, Mission Study, Soul Winning, Enlistment, Organized Personal Service, and Systematic and proportionate giving.

Our supreme task is your great task—the building of our Memorial Dormitory. O, God, may our women in Oklahoma get the vision of what it will mean to the future of our denomination to have 200 girls housed nine months a year in a spirit filled atmosphere of a well equipped Dormitory. I know the building will be completed. What an opportunity will be ours to plant and cultivate the seed in these 200 girls that will produce leaders filled with consecration and service for our Master.

As Christian women of Central District we realize that we are in a race and if we run with credit we must lay aside every weight of worldly, careless and indifferent living.

MRS. J. B. McCLURE, Dist. Pres.

REPORT OF MISSION STUDY

We are told there is might in missions and power in the printed page. Yoke these together and we have our Mission Study books which bring to us truthful information and inspiration that may be used for the purposes of God and in the progress of the Kingdom. You will notice that I said "may be used." Have we grasped this great privilege? Have we sensed our responsibility to read and study these books and to use the wisdom thus gained to enlist and save others? The real underlying purpose of the W. M. U. is to give to the world the knowledge of the saving power of Jesus Christ. Where else could we find such marvelous examples of that saving power than in our Mission Study books? Books written by men and women who have given their lives to be used in His service and their pens to help us to "Go ye into all the world; and we shall be my witnesses."

Do we realize that the greatest, the biggest, the most successful organization of women in the world today is that of Missions? An organization founded on the love and sacrifice of the Lord Jesus Christ. Every W. M. S. is an important unit in this organization, pledged to pray for missions, to study missions, work for missions and give to missions. Mission study is simply the business of spreading the Kingdom and should have a definite place in every church, not only in the organizations of the women and young people but among the men also. We are to love the Lord with all our minds as well as all our souls. "Look on the fields." How are we to look on the fields except as we visualize them through Mission study? This is an implicit command to study missions. It is not optional with us. Not to study is to disobey His command. "Look on the fields."

Every Christian should have the conviction that to be a Christian and to carry on missions is one and the same thing. It is the duty of every Christian to qualify for service in the Kingdom. "Study to show thyself approved unto God. A workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." This was not written just to Timothy, but to you and to me and to every child of God. Only through Bible and Mission study can we see the needs of the world from God's standpoint. Surely we could ask for no greater privilege than to be "laborers together with God" to supply these needs through prayer, study and gifts.

Since this Mission Study is a business it will pay to advertise as in any business. Let us keep Missions ever before the church by means of attractive posters, pageants, maps, and missionary pictures.

As we take up our study work this coming year let us stress the thought that it is essential for each member to impart some of the truths and inspiration she has gained to others, through some form of activity. She may teach a class in a weaker W. M. S. or a rural community, may be counsellor for one of the Auxiliaries. The need for counsellors is outstanding. One generation of boys and girls trained up in the graded W. M. U. family with the knowledge of the onward movements of the church, the splendid lives of our Missionaries and the victories of the cross in heathen lands, would see to it that every available field is manned and that there was money enough to carry on the work as it should be carried on. What a responsibility is ours to see that these young people have the Mission Study best suited to their age and interests that they may be ready for service. Surely this is where our task begins.

There are within the confines of the S. B. C. 17,000 churches with no missionary society. It is not likely there would be a young people's organization with no W. M. S. No doubt some of those churches are in Oklahoma. Is there one in your city? In your Association? They need a Mission Study class. Won't you help them, Mission Study leader? Take to them the W. M. U. perfect plan of work, prayer, individual and united Bible Study and mission study. Give them the free literature from our Boards that is so instructive and interesting, perhaps creating a desire for our Missionary Magazines that are so essential in every Christian home. We only learn well by teaching, giving and telling. Shall we begin with renewed zeal to study our world wide missionary task? May we study to serve, may we study to love and give intelligently of our time and our means.

The following suggestions will surely help us to attain the standard this coming year:

1. Two missionary magazines in every home—to be read.
2. A W. M. S. in every church—to be attended.
3. A Mission Study in every W. M. S.—to be interesting.
4. Knowledge and truth gained in Mission Study—to be broadcast.
5. Mission Study in each Auxiliary—to be fostered.
6. Mission Study conference in each Association—to be profitable.
7. Reports, Reports, Reports—to be sent on time quarterly.

REPORT OF WHITE CROSS

Let us for a few moments—in our minds—take a trip to the Yang Chow Baptist Hospital in China. Here we find a neat building with many modern conveniences, electric lights, steam laundry, pumping and power plant, steam pressure sterilizer, white tiled modern operating room, running water, porcelain bath tubs, surgeons' shower bath, central heating plant, sanitary plumbing, white enameled beds, and many appliances for modern diagnosis, such as electric centrifuge-incubator and fine German microscope, but a much needed appliance is an X-Ray machine. In this well furnished hospital we find two physicians and surgeons, one woman doctor, fourteen men nurses and fifteen women nurses. Does not this object look encouraging for our W. M. U. to continue its work of mercy?

What have we sent this past year? For those pretty white enameled beds we have sent 33 large sheets, 26 draw sheets, 13 yards of rubber sheeting, 135 pairs of pillow cases, 4 pairs of blankets, 13 quilts, 77 quilt tops with 7 linings and 2 spreads.

Is there any wonder that the Chinese do not want to leave these clean beds? The story is told by one of our missionaries that it required three weeks to convince one Chinese mother it was necessary for her to go to the hospital for treatment. It was three weeks after she entered the hospital before she was able to be discharged and it then required three weeks to persuade her to leave her clean bed.

There were eight beautiful rag rugs went to be used in front of that many beds. Only four nurses aprons and caps, 3 kimono's, 15 pairs of pajamas have gone and no doubt as in the past much effort will be required to prevail upon the patients to remain in bed while adorned with these garments instead of parading on the Compound. Thirty-three and one-half yards of toweling, 273 towels, 59 washcloths, 66 bars of soap, 17 cans of talcum and 1 tooth brush will help greatly for the regular morning wash.

On the shelves of the Doctors' supply cabinet will be added 57 pkgs. gauze, 48 rolls adhesive tape, 27 bottles vaseline, 37 jars Vic's Vapo-Rub, 3 jars Mentholatum, 32 lbs. cotton, 28½ oz. quinine, 3 bottles iodine, 2 bottles castor oil, 150 rolls bandages, and one 40-yard bolt gauze.

For the babies we have 2 woolen shirts, 8 bands, 27 gowns and dresses, 3 blankets, 14 diapers, 27 pair bootees and hose, 1 cap, 1 complete layette, and 25 cards of pins, 5 cards of buttons, 2 spools thread and 5 papers needles will help to keep the garments mended. On the shelf containing clean white rags will be placed 37 pounds more of those invaluable supplies, so rarely to be secured in China. 24 pair bedroom sox will add sufficient amount for some time to come.

Now, to amuse the small Chinese children at Christmas time or when convalescing, we find in these boxes bound for China, 20 scrap books, 27 dolls, and 22 other toys.

The total value of these supplies being $1,199.18.

To aid with this ingathering of love gifts it has required 1683 miles of travel, 21 talks on White Cross, 287 letters written, with an expenditure of $28.97, receiving $10.50 besides much joy in rendering service for my Master and the privilege of laboring with the W. M. U. of Oklahoma. Am happy to report an increase in interest for White Cross; more societies and many more auxiliaries contributing this year than last. Oklahoma led all 18 Southern Baptist States in the number of auxiliaries contributing to White Cross. May we continue to enlist a greater number of our W. M. U. organizations in this great service that we may answer the great commission "Go ye into all the world" and claim the promise that "Ye shall be My witnesses."

Truly do we take pleasure in reporting:

PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL MESSAGE

"The Outlook for Our Membership"

After 12 busy, fruitful months, each one loaded with glorious opportunities, we, the members of the Woman's Missionary Union meet in annual convocation.

You will see by the program you hold in your hand, that all events, thoughts, and ideas cluster around the word "Ship." The very first thing that caught your eye on your program was the picture of the Treasure ship. So today, as yesterday, we'll stretch our imagination and carry out the same thought or idea.

Our ship of state—Oklahoma, is in anchor, and we have disembarked to be with friends in this beautiful port of Enid. From time to time other ships will land and a messenger will bring a report of the voyage, of the work accomplished. This is a happy time of year, a time of thanksgiving, of gratitude, and we rejoice to be at rest this short while. We have made a successful journey, the weather has been fair, the winds favorable, the ocean has been calm—no terrible disaster or storm has caused fear, distress or dismay to our hearts. Jesus, our Captain, because of His great love, because of His grace and providence, has brought us safely to haven. What a joy it is to be here—with these good people of Enid. They have been untiring in their efforts for our pleasure and comfort. Then, in addition, there is the deep thrill of joy at meeting guests from other states. Our love for each other has been strengthened, deepened, cemented by the great bond of denominational sisterhood.

The subject for my message to you today is "The Outlook of Our Membership." A great subject and full of meaning. Let us break it up in parts and get at some of the meaning of it. "Membership." MEMBER, now just what is a member? The dictionary tells us that a member is a part or element of an aggregate whole. So, we are parts, or units, or individuals that make up the local societies and these societies in turn, or in a larger sense, make up the Missionary Union of Oklahoma. THE OUTLOOK, this word means the extent of what is seen by an observer—the expanse—the view of present conditions or future prospects of things. The word "Our" makes this extremely personal. This means you and I and all of us together. So, in building up the meaning of our subject we find that we, the parts or units, will view the present condition and future prospects of things that pertain to us and our relation to the Missionary Union. Year after year we come to the annual gathering because of our love and interest in a great Cause, the greatest Cause of all the earth, the Missionary Cause. For our Captain has said "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature." God grant we may go from this annual gathering refreshed, uplifted, strengthened and ready to serve more abundantly.

My desire for you as members of our Missionary Union is that you be faithful.

1. Faithful to God. Follow Him in your heart, in thought, in deed. Follow Him all the time.

2. Be faithful to God's word. He speaks so we may hear, and we must hear with a view to knowledge and action.

"I found God in the Bible
Yes, o'er and o'er again,
In prophecy's fulfillment
Kept promises to men."

3. Be faithful to God's Cause. Spread the news of the gospel; be so happy and radiant about it that you will draw others to Him. Give of your personal service to win others to Him.

4. Be faithful to your Society. Let no other engagement interfere with the time of meeting of your Missionary society. Be on time—lesson prepared. Be faithful in deed. Feel that you are in the center of activities. We must not depend on faithfulness of the past, but be faithful NOW and ready for the future. Let this be the motto of each one: "This one thing I do." I'll be a loyal member of my society, loyal in thought, deed and gift.

My desire for our Missionary Union, for the future prospects, is first a membership of active, working individuals, fitly joined together. A membership, as Miss Blanche Rose Walker so beautifully expressed it, a membership of yielded lives, bringing in the other sheep of our home land and other lands for our Saviour's service. May we honor and pledge anew our love and support to our consecrated leader; our corresponding secretary, Mrs. Spooner, who serves so faithfully and who has such high ideals for us, as she leads us in our special undertaking in our own State of the wonderful Memorial Dormitory at O. B. U., a building that will be complete in the smallest detail and a great blessing to hundreds of girls.

Then may we help "together" the various leaders of the departments of White Cross, of Mission Study, of Personal Service. These women cannot do the work themselves but they do inspire and report what we have done. Beloved, almost the very first call that will come to us after this Convention closes will be a call for the Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions and the Christmas Offering. Oh, may the consecrated women and children truly send the Starlight to the lands of night.

Never were the future prospects brighter or more alluring; never were the calls so pleading; never was the view more inviting; the fields are all white, all ready for harvest. This coming year may we leave no task undone and above all may we do as Jesus has said "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and all these things shall be added unto you."

MRS. R. T. MANSFIELD, President.

EXECUTIVE BOARD REPORT

As we come to the close of another year we pause to review the progress we have made and to give praise to Him who through His boundless mercy has given us the opportunity of serving Him.

In the Board Meeting following the annual meeting at Muskogee, Nov. 9-10, 1925, Mrs. Frank J. Merrill, of Oklahoma City, Mrs. Geo. McMillan, of Bristow, Mrs. J. H. Wells, of Purcell, and Mrs. J. B. Lawrence, of Shawnee were re-elected members of the Advisory Committee. Mrs. E. A. Foster, of Oklahoma City, was elected the fifth member of this committee.

Mrs. A. J. Thrasher, of Enid, was elected Chairman of White Cross; Mrs. I. B. Oldham, of Muskogee, chairman of Personal Service; and Mrs. H. R. Denton, of Tulsa, chairman of Mission Study.

The recommendations for the new year were read by Mrs. H. R. Denton, chairman of this committee.

Upon motion it was voted that our President, Mrs. Mansfield, should be the Vice President of the South for the State of Oklahoma.

Motion carried that we send our Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Berta K. Spooner, to the semi-annual meeting of the Executive Board of the W. M. U. of the South, which meets in Birmingham in January.

Suggestion made by Mrs. Spooner that in our Associations our women hold their business meetings previous to the general association.

Appointment of standing committees for the year by the President as follows:

Recommendations: Mrs. Everett, Mrs. Tolliver, Mrs. King, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Flite, Mrs. Kirk, Mrs. McMillan.

Obituary: Mrs. Sheldon, Mrs. Clayton, Mrs. Leard.

The first quarterly meeting was held in the office of W. M. U. headquarters at Oklahoma City, February 9th.

In regard to the Mission Study records, Mrs. Spooner stated that they should be kept in the office and spoke of the need of someone to help with this phase of the work. Motion made that Mrs. Spooner be instructed to secure some one with adequate remuneration who will help in keeping the mission study records. Carried.

Mrs. Spooner presented the leaflet sent out by Miss Mallory to be distributed before the week of prayer for Home Missions in March. This offering of self-denial for Home Missions to go to the paying of the Home Mission debt with the exception of $3,000 to go to Mr. Gartenhouse for his work among the Jews.

Our Corresponding Secretary stated that the Love Offering for Foreign Missions as reported to date was $14,600 from Oklahoma women. Total offering from the State has gone to over $40,000. In regard to the $10,000 promised by Dr. Van Ness for Rural work, this is to be divided between 17 states. There has already been sent in $400.00 and for every dollar we contribute Dr. Van Ness will give another. Rural work means in towns of 1,000 or less. At the mid-year conference Dr. Van Ness promised that he would raise the amount promised for this work to $15,000 and Mrs. Spooner reported that she had asked the W. M. U. of the South to save another thousand dollars for us, to be used in the new year. Mrs. Spooner also stated that she had decided more satisfactory results would be obtained from putting on two workers instead of one.

Mrs. Spooner introduced Miss Hughey, graduate of Southwest Training School, stating that she had spoken to Miss Hughey about doing rural work. Motion made that we engage Miss May Lee Hughey for this work. Motion to amend that Mrs. Spooner at the earliest possible date engage another rural worker. Report of Recommendations Committee was read and discussed by members of the Board.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. C. A. RICHARDS.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY, 1926

Another year has slipped away and it is again my privilege to render an account of my Stewardship. My desire has been to give you my very best, and when I have failed, it has been no fault of the heart.

The past year has been one of decided progress and steady growth along many lines and to the District Associational Presidents is due much of the credit.

Associations

Thirty of the forty Associations are well organized with capable consecrated leaders who are faithful in presenting every phase of our denominational work. Twenty of the forty are trying to reach the unenlisted through the quarterly meetings even in the rural churches.

These have proven to be a splendid medium for enlistment and efficiency. I trust every Association will hold regularly these educational meetings.

The Associations leading in new organizations this year are as follows: North Canadian and Northeastern, twenty (20) each; Delaware eighteen (18); Mayes sixteen (16); Banner, Pontotoc and Central fifteen (15) each; Muskogee, thirteen (13); Lincoln twelve (12); Pottawatomie, eleven (11); Union and Woodward-Ellis, nine (9) each; Perry and Pittsburg, eight (8) each; and Concord and Kiowa, six (6) each.

Program

A careful survey shows some increase in churches in each association on Budget Plan and enlisted for general program. It also reveals a large number of churches with no W. M. U. organizations. A field where much work must be done. Do you see the imperative need for rural work? That personal touch that means so much.

Rural Work

Having met the challenge of the Sunday School Board to raise this year an equal number of dollars, we were in a position to place on the Field early in March, Miss Mae Lee Hughey to work in rural districts. During the first thirty days of service rendered by this consecrated young woman she had organized eleven Missionary Societies, taught five Mission Study Classes, and assisted in the organization of an Associational W. M. U. A little later two other young women were engaged, Miss Earl Hester and Miss Cecelia Duerschler. Miss Hester continued her work for three months. Miss Duerschler, on account of sickness, worked only one month. Too much can not be said in commendation of these three splendid young women who have placed their lives in the Master's hands to be used of Him anywhere. Much of this work was necessarily seed sowing. Missionary fires must be kindled in the hearts of women before they will respond to the appeal to organize.

The combined reports of these workers show 273 days spent in Service, reaching 93 communities, 35 churches and 25 Associations. Twenty-five (25) organizations were revived and 74 organized. Nineteen (19) Mission Study Classes taught, 85 subscriptions to magazines taken, many conferences held and many house to house visits. This work was done at a total cost of $981.94. Half of this was given as a free will offering from only 60 of our Missionary Societies and the other half by the Sunday School Board. This year we are asking that more of our Societies make a contribution to this fund in order that we may raise $1,000 and thus double our work.

If we raise a thousand dollars the Sunday School Board will give us a thousand and can you realize the great good that could be accomplished in rural work? With even two thousand dollars we could use a worker nine months in the year every day and not answer all the calls that come.

District Meetings

Ten in number were consecutively held last few days of May and first of June. In the main we witnessed a larger attendance than we have ever known, showing clearly the increased interest of our women. Miss Juliette Mather, of Birmingham, was with us bringing many splendid messages that inspired us to greater tasks. And our own Bettie Stevens Lide, of China, told in an interesting and helpful way of her life as a Missionary. The customs of the people, the work of the W. M. U., each of the speakers carrying us right into the heart of their work and instilling in us an earnest desire to go forward.

Assemblies

The influence of W. M. U. was felt in both Assemblies this year. We had mission study classes for all grades. More than three hundred enrolled in classes at Falls Creek. Mrs. Copass, of Fort Worth, Texas, who gave us Travel Talks on her trip abroad, scored highest in enrollment and attendance. Her lectures on the many interesting places visited in the Holy Land were most interesting. Miss Earl Hester, Miss Mae Lee Hughey, Miss Johnnie Bontright and Miss Elizabeth Watkins had large classes of interested boys and girls. Miss Sophia Duerksen was the Social Director, but did double duty by teaching the Intermediate G. A.'s and planning much of our fun.

The Weeks of Prayer

343 Societies observed the Weeks of Prayer.

The crushing debt on the Foreign Mission Board was indeed a challenge to our women to make their gifts to the Love Offering heroic. The Week of Prayer was held early in December and the gifts amounted to fourteen thousand dollars, the state giving a little more than forty thousand dollars. The goal this year for W. M. U. of the South is $300,000 to help relieve the pressure of debt still remaining on the Board. Oh, that our women and young people will make their Christmas gifts to Christ this year!

The offering to Home Missions was only $1,832.99, and to State Missions $647.60. Comparatively speaking so few of our Societies avail themselves of the glorious privilege of talking to the Father about our work. Study the fields that you may be able to pray intelligently. If you know you will do. If you pray you will give. We must first know God, then the needs of the fields.

Mission Study

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed."

One of the most important branches of our W. M. U. work is Mission Study. It is the foundation of effective work. We must know before we are interested and how can we know unless we study?

The doors of all mission fields are opened to us. Our obligations and responsibilities increase in proportion to our blessings. Clearly do we hear the words: "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel."

"Why call ye me Lord, Lord, and do not the things that I have told you." The time grows short and there is so much yet to be done, the outlook challenges us to greater effort, splendid as the record is of our Mission Study this year as given by State Chairman, Mrs. H. R. Denton, and yet I am sure much more has been done and not reported.

Personal Service

With special emphasis being placed on organized methods the Societies seem a little confused about what to report. However, many Societies are undertaking in a systematic way to minister to the needs of the neglected and others in the community and are finding new life and zeal in this direct contact with human need. A detailed report will be given later by Mrs. I. B. Oldham, State Chairman.

Stewardship

Christian Stewardship rests upon the foundation of God's ownership of ourselves and our possessions. "Ye are not your own. Ye have been bought with a price" is the divine declaration. All wealth is to be held in trust as God's gift. It is to be used as He commands. Our financial plan as adopted by W. M. U. is the bringing of the whole tithe into the Lord's Cause. Numbers signing new tithers' cards this year 454, total number of tithers among our W. M. U. forces as reported to me 4,453.

Orphans' Home

It is always a joy for our women to do for our Orphans' Home and I feel that this report should make special mention not only in figures but in words of gratitude for the personal love shown in the boxes of well made, beautiful clothes for the children. Also the linens and nice quilts together with numerous other useful articles. There are 140 children now and each one is cared for by a Society. Boxes of clothing valued at $6,142.60, cash for shoes and hats $2,410.71, fruit, canned and fresh, $2,860.14, linens and other household articles $3,623.28, chickens $1,050.40, eggs $1,105.00, making a total of $17,192.13 as a love gift to the Home.

White Cross

The response to the appeal for White Cross has been splendid as the report from your efficient Chairman will show.

Dormitory

We would be untrue to the dictates of our own hearts if we did not express our deep appreciation of the cooperation and gracious encouragement we have received from the women of our beloved W. M. U. Their prayers, their interest, their gifts have helped and given courage for the great task we have undertaken. The campaign has been carried forward ever as a sacred trust with the one dominant passion in our hearts to be true to the great program of our Master in the larger sense. Feeling, however, that this special work must be consummated if we would be altogether faithful.

In accord with this purpose, no active campaign has been pressed the past year on account of the Debt Paying Campaign, but despite this fact many pledges have come in, bringing our total amount pledged to seventy-five thousand, with $15,775.83 paid in cash. As we enter a new year our hearts are greatly encouraged and our faith is strengthened as we press forward toward the goal of 150 thousand for the Memorial Dormitory, the greatest single task ever undertaken by our Oklahoma Baptist women. It surely appeals to the best there is in us. May we have no shirkers. Let every woman pull to victory!

Progress Made

Last year we reported total organizations of 930. This year we have had 266 new organizations, but having lost 103 by death, gives us a net gain of 163, making our total 1093. I wish I knew what to say to get you to report quarterly and send them on time.

Last week thirty days after the quarter closed I received 33 reports from Missionary Societies. But in spite of these late ones there is an increase in number of Societies reporting this year.

Contributions

This year we have given to the 1926 Program $39,086.15, or $17,487.02 less than we gave last year and $19,248.00 short of the total amount pledged to the program.

The local work, $42,515.90, an increase of $3,564.90 over last year. To miscellaneous, which includes contributions to Associational and District expenses, $15,654.27. To Orphans' Home, not included in church budget, $17,192.13. To State Missions as a result of the Week of Prayer, $647.60, and $14,600.00 to the Love Offering, credited on the Debt Paying Campaign. With $1,832.99 to Home Mission Board as a Thank Offering from Prayer Week in March, cash to White Cross to help relieve the suffering in our Foreign Hospitals, $1,902.76, making a total of $133,431.80, including cash on Dormitory of $15,775.83, gives a grand total of $149,207.63.

MRS. BERTA K. SPOONER.

On September 15th, Miss Elizabeth Watkins, who had been our Young People's Leader for 15 months, decided to give up her work here, finish her degree in Columbia University, with a hope that an opportunity would open for her to do service in Japan.

Miss Watkins has a faithful helper, a consecrated leader of large vision for her young people, and it is with exceeding regret that we lose her leadership.

The service which she rendered can not be overestimated.

THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S LEADER FOR OKLAHOMA WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

In ancient days when knights rode forth to battle, they were careful to first procure a certain little charm to protect them from ill. About the right arm or to the handle of the blade this sprig was carefully fastened that the warrior might be secure "from foul strokes of enemies who had black or secret ways of killing." This powerful charm was none other than a species of clover. It was a sure protection against witches, snakes and other poisonous creatures. Indeed, we are told "many a peasant plucked a leaf before he ventured across the moors and bogs where banshees cried and fairies stole the souls of wayfarers." Why, "it was the power of the shamrock, a species of clover, over poisonous or maleficent things that enabled St. Patrick to drive the snakes from Ireland," says an author, "for he had only to hold it toward them to see them go scuttling into the sea."

Today in Oklahoma there is with us a four-leaf charm of greater power than the lucky clover. It will wonderfully strengthen the Christian youth venturing forth to fight Satan, and it will well protect the one crossing the marshes of this land where snakes of infidelity, indifference, selfishness, worldliness, disobedience toward God, and blindness to world-needs lurk. It will kill the witches of Satan across the seas who are seducing the very souls of men, women and children. The name of this charm is "W. M. U. Auxiliaries." Equally adaptable as the clover are these Auxiliaries, for they, too, are found all over our State in large quantities. One hundred thirty-four (134) Young Woman's Auxiliaries, one hundred eighty-one (181) Girls' Auxiliaries, eighty-one (81) Royal Ambassador Chapters, and two hundred four (204) Sunbeam Bands are living in the cities, towns, hamlets and out in the country places. There are in all six hundred (600) Auxiliaries in churches where missionary fires flame high and in those where the sparks are just smoldering and beginning to catch.

In the clover there are sixty species. The Auxiliary plants are not all alike, either. Why, of the Y. W. A.'s alone we find seven (7) marked College, two (2) in our Baptist Hospitals called Grace McBride Y. W. A.'s; some composed of negro maidens as well as the many in our white churches. R. A.'s and G. A.'s and Sunbeams, too, have sometimes the red tint of the Indian or the black of the negro.

Clover stands in the front of forage plants for good yields. Just so, a little faithful work for the Auxiliaries brings large returns. Because of the excellent work of the three rural workers this summer and of the untiring efforts of scores of faithful, praying counsellors and friends, we can report as new Auxiliaries forty-six (46) Y. W. A.'s, ninety-four (94) G. A.'s, thirty-five (35) R. A.'s, and seventy (70) Sunbeam bands this year.

There are four chief reasons why clover is so valuable: in the first place, the deeply developed root systems soften the soil and prevent it from hardening. What better assistance have we in keeping our churches from becoming congested with self-centeredness, conceit, near-sightedness and disregard of saving the lost of the world than the Auxiliaries? See the churches with the full W. M. U. family and note that they are not the ones crustiest with the cold indifference or anti-missionary spirit, but that these are the ones to whom the Spirit of God, which is the Spirit of Missions can most easily speak. They are: Coalgate, Pauls Valley, Ada First, Church, Caddo, Durant, Anadarko, Oklahoma City Central and Temple Churches, Rush Springs, Lawton First Church, Custer City, Rocky Salem Church, Sentinel, Spring Creek, Hugo First Church and Clayton Avenue, Olustee, Seminole, Wewoka, Cardin, Commerce, Grove, Miami, Picher, Bristow, Cleveland, Oilton, Sapulpa First Church, Enid First Church, Tonkawa, North McAlester, Quinton, Calvary, Draper Street and North Church at Shawnee, Fairview, Purcell, Buffalo, Laverne and Woodward.

The Auxiliaries, likewise, have as one of their missions the helping of those around them. Many are the forms of personal service that are reported although less than a third of the Auxiliaries report at all. The efforts to win to Christ by the girls of the Y. W. A. are seven hundred thirty-three (733), by the girls of the G. A., two hundred ninety-six (296), by the boys of the Order of Royal Ambassadors seventy (70), showing that in many places the true spirit of personal service is found among our young people. Boxes to the needy they have sent, for the Y. W. A.'s gave nineteen, the G. A.'s twenty-two (22), and the Sunbeams gave nine (9). The interest in White Cross seems to be growing. The fund and supplies have been contributed to by thirty-eight (38) Y. W. A.'s, thirteen (13) G. A.'s, nine (9) R. A.'s, and fifteen (15) Sunbeam Bands. A detailed report of personal service done by all Auxiliaries will be given by the State Personal Service Chairman in her report.

There is one peculiar characteristic of clover that makes it exceedingly valuable. It has the ability to appropriate the free nitrogen from the air by its roots. In the soil the nitrogen oxidizes to nitric acid and forms nitrates. In this form the nitrogen is assimilated by growing plants.

In a similar way, the Auxiliaries have the power to transform. The Missionary commands from the Bible, the missionary information and inspiration furnished by the programs from World Comrades, Royal Service and Home and Foreign Fields, the facts from the Mission Study books, and the visions given by the missionary curios and letters are quickly grasped by growing hearts and tender minds. In the depths of the soul with God these truths are transformed and behold they come forth as tithes, gifts, and prayers. One hundred thirty-four (134) Y. W. A.'s, one hundred eighty-one (181) G. A.'s, eighty-one (81) R. A.'s, and two hundred four (204) Sunbeam Bands have reported as tithers, three hundred twenty-seven (327) of these having begun the habit this year.

The following Auxiliaries have contributed to the O. B. U. Dormitory Fund.

Sunbeams: Antioch, Ardmore, Bristow, Buffalo, Carmen, Commerce, Fletcher, Foss, Hobart, Holdenville, Lambert, Miami, Shamrock, Tonkawa, Waynoka, Wewoka, Enid, Muskogee, Sasakwa, Shawnee Draper Street Church, Cardin, Walters, the Emerson Church, Okmulgee First Church, Grandfield, Haileyville.

Royal Ambassadors: Buffalo, Cleveland, Holdenville, Tonkawa, Woodward.

Girls' Auxiliary: Bristow Intermediates, Bristow Juniors, Carmen, Fairview, Haskell Intermediate, Shawnee First Church, Shawnee North Church, Sapulpa First Church, Tonkawa, Wewoka, Hugo First Church, Holdenville Juniors, Roff, Sentinel, Buffalo, Roff, Enid, Shawnee Draper Street Church, Pawhuska, and Haskell.

Y. W. A.'s: Checotah, Chickasha, Custer City, Duncan, Eden Church, Fairview, Haskell, Lindsay, Okeene, Oklahoma City First Church, Poteau, Purcell, Rush Springs, Shawnee First Church, Thomas, Bristow, Holdenville, Muskogee, Oklahoma City Olivet Church, Miami, Sapulpa, Sentinel, Stillwater, Lawton First Church, Sapulpa First Church, Enid First Church, Tulsa Nogales Avenue Church.

Sixty (60) Auxiliaries report that they contribute regularly to the 1926 Missionary Program. The realizations of the world's needs are transformed into earnest prayers as shown by the fact that forty-four (44) Y. W. A.'s, forty-five (45) G. A.'s, eight (8) R. A.'s, and fifty-four (54) Sunbeam Bands observed one or more of the special Prayer Seasons. Their gifts as reported amounted to $477.05. How glorious it is to know that when our young people pray individually and in group, Missionaries are sent, evangelists wax powerful, schools, hospitals, and churches are built, native Christians are strengthened and souls are saved.

The most apparent value of clover is the delicious honey procured from it. But the bees are necessary to make this product. So certain outside influences are necessary to take the sweetness of the love for Jesus from the heart of the saved boy or girl and build with it a missionary program. These outside influences are carefully provided by Woman's Missionary Union. There have been reported sixty-two (62) Mission Study Classes among the Y. W. A.'s, fifty-one (51) among the G. A.'s, eleven (11) among the R. A.'s, and ninety-seven (97) among the Sunbeams. Only seven hundred thirty-two (732) subscriptions to World Comrades have been indicated although every member of every Auxiliary should be a subscriber. Heart searching, soul saving devotionals are given, missionary plays are presented, and, lo, souls are won in the Auxiliary and to the uttermost part of the world.

Sad to say, diseases often creep into the field, spoiling much of the clover. Chief among these diseases are rot, rust and leaf spot disease. The best cure for these is to cover the infected plants with hay and burn them.

Yes, Auxiliaries are bothered by the disease of "rot," alias "indifference," or "We'll manage without it." Standards of Excellence and Stars, a sufficient number of missionary magazines, spicy informational rallies, the sending in of reports, the doing of any worth while organized personal service, fascinating mission study classes, special efforts to pray and give are all done without. Soon the ugly body, "indifference" gnawing at the heart of the plant has done its deadly work and the Auxiliary functions no more.

The "Rust" comes from the W. M. S. that refuses to foster the young people, selfishly content to procure her own supplies and to make her own program attractive, vaguely conscious, or sometimes ignorant of "having" an Auxiliary, but never attempting to "foster it." The small black speck appearing in the leaf spot disease and extending through the leaf until it is destroyed is the cold leader. Her coldness penetrates. She is often absent. She is ignorant. She has literature sent her from headquarters, but she never reads it, although she intends to some day. She received letters from the Young People's Leader to the Auxiliary but she scarcely pays any attention to them herself and never reads them to the children. She continues ignorant, regardless of literature, helps, correspondence courses, or the power found in prayer. She moves away without procuring or training anyone to take her place. She is visionless.

Those infected with these diseases should be covered with love and prayers and burned with the fire of Christ-like passion for souls. We are thankful to say that these diseases have not spread very badly in our State and that hundreds of earnest women and young people are joyfully striving to be real missionary Baptists.

Through Oklahoma there works one happily weaving clover chains. Our Heavenly Father makes the Auxiliary plants to grow. Mrs. Spooner has heretofore done most of the weaving. Now your State Young People's Leader has the joy of seeing the chain become longer and longer as one by one new Auxiliaries take their places as additional links. To strengthen the chain and to help add more links, the Young People's Leader has visited O. B. U., Stillwater, Nuyaka, has been present at 28 rallies and special meetings, has visited 20 other churches, has attended 2 Y. W. A. House parties, one G. A. Rally, one Grace McBride Y. W. A.,

1 Indian Association, and has taught in one (1) B. Y. P. U. Training School She has made 70 talks, organized 10 Y. W. A.'s, 13 G. A.'s, 8 R. A.'s, and 2 Sunbeam Bands. Taught 5 Mission Study Classes, these being in O. B. U., A. & M. at Stillwater, Oklahoma City, and at the two Assemblies. In doing this she has spent $176.93. Surely no happier task is there than that of the clover chain weaver.

Those wise in visions say that it is fortunate to even dream of clover. Hence, be wise, O ye, women and dream of having the Auxiliaries in your churches, Sunbeams, R. A.'s, G. A.'s, and Y. W. A.'s. Yea, dream constantly. If you do, you will enter more prosperous days for your church. Offer yourselves as leaders.

Better than merely dreaming, though, it is to be in clover. Happy that animal that finds himself placed so. Yes, and happy the woman, happy the W. M. S., and happy the church that finds herself in constant association with the W. M. U. Auxiliaries.

Once again. Today, although clover is valuable, only one kind is "lucky." Never is a searcher satisfied until he finds the four leaf kind. So although the combination of the four Auxiliaries, Sunbeams, R. A.'s, G. A.'s, and Y. W. A.'s in any one church is somewhat rare in parts of our State, see that not one of you shall rest until your church, too, is in "clover" and that that clover has the Four Leaves!

ELIZABETH WATKINS.

REPORT OF OBITUARY COMMITTEE

This report is one that brings to the minds of many of us the sorrow that has been ours this past year when the grim reaper has passed our way. It is fitting that we should pause and give thought to those who have gone on to the mansions which have been prepared. leaving their unfinished work in our hands. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

God reveals to us through the seasons the promise of life after death. Just as the fruit matures and the leaves fall in the autumn and the earth passes through the winter of coldness and seeming death only to emerge in the spring with the warmth of sunshine when the earth breaks forth in glorious beauty and loveliness; so those who have passed through the winter of death to their eternal home have now put on immortality and are surrounded by His love and the beauty of that Eternal City about which we are told. "For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

REPORT ON W. M. U. TRAINING SCHOOL, LOUISVILLE, KY.

It is again my happy privilege to bring you the annual report from the Woman's Missionary Training School at Louisville, Ky. The session of 1926-27 opened on Sept. 21st, with 75 interesting boarding students matriculating. Mrs. Janie Cree Bose, Principal, after a delightful and helpful vacation, took charge with earnestness and a new sense of fitness after her past year of experience.

Miss Littlejohn, Associate Principal, and Miss Johnson are again busy with Good Will activities after a successful summer in Daily Vacation Bible School and playground work.

The chief event of the opening session was the installing of Dr. C. L. McGinty, former Dean of Bible School at Mercer University, as Professor of Old and New Testament in the Training School. He gives six hours a week to these important departments; Dr. J. R. Sampey contributing a lecture each month in Old Testament, and Dr. A. T. Robertson in New Testament. Truly God is continuing His rich blessings upon the School in the services of these three great scholars. Other courses are taught, as usual, by the Seminary Professors but in the Training School's class rooms. After the return of Dr. E. Y. Mullins from his World Alliance journeyings, it is expected that he will give several lectures to the Training School students.

The change occasioned by the removal of the Seminary to the Beeches has been made most pleasantly; the students appreciate the longer hours for study, recreation and home life since the long walks to and fro are eliminated. During the summer the annex was remodeled to provide a class room which is proving adaptable and admirable. Dr. McGinty also has a study in the annex.

At the first meeting of the Board of Managers on Oct. 11th, through Dr. McGinty, a handsome gift of $800.00 was made to the school by one of his former members at Hampton, Ga. With great appreciation it was accepted and a resolution passed to make it the nucleus of an Endowed Scholarship of $4000.00 for Georgia girls. The Kentucky Endowed Scholarship, named for Mrs. Geo. B. Eager, is proving indeed helpful.

It is with a happy heart that I am able to report to you that Oklahoma has five splendid young women in training this year. They are:

Miss Lucy Smith, Oklahoma City, supported by Central District W. M. U. Scholarship; Miss Earl Hester, of Holdenville, East Central District Scholarship; Miss Jewel Kirkpatrick, of Oklahoma City, Delaware Association Scholarship; Miss Buena Vista Morrison, of Norman, North Central District Scholarship; and Miss Cora Dell Croft, of Tulsa, Northeast District Scholarship.

I have this year written 57 letters and have sent out 63 catalogues.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. GEO. McMILLAN,

Trustee for Oklahoma.

REPORT OF MARGARET FUND REPRESENTATIVE

The Margaret Fund representative for Oklahoma submits the following report:

The Woman's Missionary Union of the State of Oklahoma has, at this time, oversight of two Margaret Fund students, Eyleen Nelson, whose parents are missionaries to Brazil, now at home on furlough, and Minnie Lacy, whose father is a professor in the Baptist Seminary at Saltillo, Coahuila, Mexico.

Eyleen Nelson is in her senior year in A. & M. at Stillwater. Minnie Lacy is, this week, entering the freshman class in Oklahoma Baptist University at Shawnee. Both of the girls have done splendid work in the class rooms. Eyleen was seriously ill last spring but was able to take up school duties again in September.

The girls appreciate the words of encouragement, the letters and gifts from the societies and auxiliaries that have remembered them, and send their love and thanks to the Baptist women of Oklahoma.

Their addresses are: Miss Eyleen Nelson, 412 Knoblock St., Stillwater, Okla; Miss Minnie Lacy, University Station, Shawnee, Okla.

Very respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. B. LAWRENCE,

Margaret Fund Representative.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RECOMMENDATIONS

We, your committee, believing that a plan of work applicable to all grades of Woman's Missionary Societies is essential to their growth and development, submit for your consideration the following recommendations:

1. FUNDAMENTALS.

1. Watchword: "Seek ye first the kingdom of God." (Matt. 6:33.)
2. Hymn: "Jesus Shall Reign."
3. Chief Aims:
 - (1) Prayer—Individual and United.
 - (2) Bible Study.
 - (3) Mission Study
 - (4) Soul Winning.
 - (5) Enlistment and Training for Service.
 - (6) Organized Personal Service in His name.
 - (7) Systematic and Proportionate Giving.

4. Moral Standards: We declare ourselves on the side of all the forces for righteousness; international and inter-racial justice; world peace; patriotism; law enforcement; Sabbath observance; sacredness of the home; maintenance of the family altar; high standards of speech, dress and conduct; improved industrial conditions for women and children; public health; Christian Education and Americanization.

2. Prayer—Individual and United:

Our Lord prayed and told us to watch and pray. In order to follow His example and command we especially urge:

1. Maintenance of family altars.
2. Regular use in our homes and society meetings of the Calendar of Prayer in Royal Service.
3. Nine o'clock hour for daily united prayer for victory in the year's program.
4. A season of prayer as suggested in the "Pray Ye" Department in Royal Service.
5. Observance of three special seasons of prayer; for Foreign Missions in December; for Home Missions in March; and for State Missions in October; and that the Lottie Moon offering be made at the meeting for Foreign Missions in December.

III. Bible Study.

Since the Bible is our authority for all missionary endeavor, we recommend emphasis upon its missionary teachings through the use of—

1. Daily Bible Readings and monthly Bible Study in Royal Service.
2. That we emphasize the study of our own Bible courses:

THE KINGDOM STUDY COURSE.

Book 1. Dr. Moorers' Bible Outlines.

Book 2. The Bible Period by Period—by Tidwell.

Book 3. Great Bible Characters, by Sell, and The Ministry of Women, by Robertson.

Book 4. Pendleton's Church Manual.

IV. Mission Study.

In Mission Study we would urge as the chief objectives:

1. At least one book a year studied in each W. M. S., effort being made to have the study of a Foreign Mission book preceding the observance of the December Week of Prayer and of a Home Mission book before the March Week of Prayer.

2. At least one class during the year in each Y. W. A., G. A., and R. A. Awards to be made only after examinations with books closed; and for Sunbeam Band regular study, in story form, of a mission book, oral test for Sunbeams.

3. That the "W. M. S. Plans" be used as an optional book with the "Manual of W. M. U. Methods" and shall be used freely in extension work.

4. That careful thought be given to the reading of the Royal Service, Home and Foreign Fields, World Comrades, and Baptist Messenger.

5. That study books suggested by Program Committee be used; and that there shall be cooperation in church schools of missions and all day institutes for mission study.

V. Soul Winning.

The chief aim of Christian work is the saving of souls. Let us help actively, therefore, in Evangelistic work of our churches and strive individually to win many souls to Christ.

VI. Enlistment and Training for Service.

In view of the fact that large numbers of our women and young people are not fully enlisted in missionary activities of the church, we urge again the effort to enlist them in Service, in cooperation with State Mission forces along with the following enlistment program:

1. The organization and fostering by strong societies in cooperation with the Associational leaders, of societies in neighboring weak churches, emphasizing rural work of W. M. U.

2. That our Districts and Associations be thoroughly organized after the plan of our state work.

3. That the District Presidents and the Associational Presidents cooperate in extending the work of the W. M. U. into Associations having no organizations.

VII. Organized Personal Service.

Personal Service is Christ-like living. To reach the oppressed and unsaved, we particularly encourage:

1. Study of State and Federal laws relating to health, employment of women and children, general public welfare, and report to proper authorities of non-enforcement of law.

2. Cooperation in the promotion of general and local inter-racial committees for the securing of more sympathetic and equitable relations between the races.

3. Establishment and maintenance of Good Will Centers, Home-Makers' Clubs, Industrial Schools, Adult Classes and Daily Vacation Bible Schools.

4. In rural sections: Adult Classes, Mission Sunday Schools, and Neighborhood Bible and Mission Study Classes.

5. Personal Service of Young People's Organizations.

VIII. Systematic and Proportionate Giving (Stewardship).

"Ye are not your own, ye have been bought with a price." All wealth is to be held in trust as God's gift. It is to be used as He commands.

From the beginning of its history the Woman's Missionary Union, S. B. C., has encouraged tithing and has for many years emphasized it by striving to get all W. M. U. tithers to sign the Union's "Stewardship Covenant Card." Therefore be it resolved:

1. That we, the members of the W. M. U. adopt as our financial plan the giving of the whole tithe unto the Lord's Cause.

2. That our slogan shall be "Honor the Lord with our substance and with the first fruits of all our increase."

IX. That White Cross, Hospital supplies and Orphans' Home be remembered as heretofore.

X. That each District, Association, and Local Society appoint a Dormitory Chairman; and that emphasis be placed upon the erection of this building.

XI. That point five on the Standard of Excellence of the W. M. S. be changed to read: "Fifty per cent of the active members taking two of our denominational Missionary periodicals or one of our Missionary periodicals and the Baptist Messenger, the ultimate aim being two in every family."

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. W. A. EVERETT.

MRS. W. H. TOLLIVER,

MRS. J. S. KING.

MRS. J. M. JONES.

MRS. W. A. FITE.

MRS. J. E. KIRK.

MRS. GEO. McMILLAN.

STANDARD OF EXCELLENCE FOR W. M. S.

1. At least twelve regular meetings a year, preferably one each month, each of these twelve meetings having a devotional service and a definitely missionary program.

2. An increase in active membership during the year of at least 10 per cent of the number enrolled at the beginning of the year, until all eligible members are enrolled.

3. Paying pledges made to 1927 Program.
4. Regular reports to state officers, according to the plan outlined by the State.
5. Fifty per cent of the active members taking two of our denominational Missionary periodicals or one of our Missionary periodicals and the Baptist Messenger, the ultimate aim being two in every family.
6. Observance of the special seasons of prayer and gifts for State, Home and Foreign Missions.

9. An average attendance of at least one-half of the active membership at the twelve regular meetings.
10. Fostering in the church of a Sunbeam Band and of at least one other of the graded W. M. U. organizations for the young people.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

In this beautiful city of Enid, the greatest commercial city of the United States, we wish first of all to express our thanks to our Heavenly Father who has so graciously spared our lives that we might meet again in this 20th Annual Meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of Oklahoma, and for the beautiful spirit of unanimity which has been manifested throughout this meeting.

We, your committee, offer the following resolutions:

1. That we extend our thanks to the First Baptist Church for their cordial welcome, their untold courtesies, and their thoughtful kindnesses, especially for so generously using their automobiles in conveying us to and fro.
2. That we thank Dr. Potter and all of his co-laborers for the use of this building and their untiring efforts in making this Convention a success.
3. That we thank the local W. M. S. and all committees for their gracious hospitality and the beautiful flowers.
4. That we express our gratitude to the newspapers of Enid for the publicity given our work.
5. That we express our gratitude to Mrs. Geo. W. Sheafor, who in such a pleasing way led us in lifting our voices in songs of praise and to all who have added special music to our program.
6. We cannot expect to reap a harvest unless we cultivate growing things, so we wish to emphasize our appreciation of the leaders of the Sunbeam, Girls' Auxiliaries, Royal Ambassadors, and Y. W. A.'s and Miss Duerkson, for their splendid program Wednesday evening.
7. That we express our sincere appreciation of Mrs. Berta K. Spooner, our beloved State Corresponding Secretary, and to Mrs. Redwine and Miss Emma Leachman for their presence and helpful and inspiring addresses; to our much-loved President, Mrs. R. T. Mansfield, who is a faithful leader and an inspiration to every W. M. S. in the State.
8. We are so grateful for Miss Nichols, field worker for our W. M.

U. Memorial Dormitory, who has gone from place to place so untiringly creating a sentiment first and receiving gifts for this great building.

9. That we very reverently express our deepest gratitude for Dr. Love, who has given himself so unreservedly to the Great Cause of Foreign Missions and for the message he brought to this Convention and may we pledge ourselves anew to this great work.

10. That we extend our thanks to Mrs. Rawlings for her splendid work as time keeper and our heartiest appreciation to Mrs. C. A. Richards, who so efficiently discharged her duties as our recording secretary.

11. For all and more than these enumerated things we wish to return grateful acknowledgement. May the coming year be filled for each one with the glory of triumphant living for things worth while.

Respectfully submitted,
