Appreciating the object and value of the Unified program as a convenient and systematic way of distributing funds, we at the same time realize that there are multitudes of Baptists, just as conscientious as any, who do not feel that the great commission includes, directly, all of the objects we have for convenience or otherwise placed in the budget. This conviction will have a tendency to lessen the interest in the support of the program. We believe that our distinctly missionary enterprises would be benefitted, and in no instance suffer loss, if our people are made to understand they are not considered disloyal when they follow their hearts' inclination and what they regard as the Holy Spirit's leading by designating funds.

Therefore be it resolved; That churches and individuals designating contributions to any work fostered by us shall be regarded as co-operating Baptists and such sums as they may designate shall be forwarded as requested by church or individual.

79. The following resolution was offered by E. C. Routh and unanimously adopted:

The Baptist General Convention in session November 5-7, 1930, expresses its appreciation for the hospitality of the Baptist sand others of Oklahoma City who graciously entertained the Convention during this session; especially to the First Baptist Church for the use of their building and its equipment; to those who furnished and arranged he beautiful flowers each day; to those who furnished cars for the accommodation of delegates and to the committee who so faithfully looked after transporation maters each day.

We are grateful to those who directed the music, others who played the piano, and to those who furnished special vocal numbers, all of whom helped to make the Convention pleasant and inspirational.

We appreciate the work of the ushers who looked after the seating of the congregation, to those who assisted in he registration of messengers and visitors, and any others who helped to make the Convention a success.

- 79b. Motion prevailed that we thank President W. O. Leach for his faithful service.
- 80. Motion prevailed to adjourn until November 11, 1931, at 9:30 o'clock in Okmulgee, Oklahoma. Being Wednesday after the second Tuesday in November.

W. O. LEACH, President.

ARTICLES OF FAITH

God

We believe that there is but one, and only one, true and living God, that He is perfect in nature, inexpressibly glorious in attributes, the maker and supreme ruler of heaven and earth; that He sums up in His glorious person absolute understanding, power, and love; that He unites in Himself the Almighty Three-God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit, each one equal in divine perfection and each one executing distinct but harmonious offices in the great work of kingdom building.

The Virgin Birth

We believe that God the Son is the God-Man, the Very God; that He has God the Holy Spirit for His Father, the Virgin Mary for His mother, and the dual nature for His inheritance; that God was actually and literally His Father and Virgin Mary His mother; and that as a consequence He partakes of both the nature of God and the nature of man.

The Holy Spirit

We believe that God the Spirit is a Person; that He is co-equal with God the Father and the Son; and that He in harmony with His divine office convicts, regenerates, sanctifies, teaches and comforts.

Creation

We believe in the Genesis account of creation; that God created the heavens and the earth; that He brought forth all original matter out of nothing; that He fashioned all organic forms as specific creation subject to changes within limits of species; that He formed man out of the dust of the ground, as recorded in Genesis 2.7, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life and man became immediately, a living soul; that His every creative act was complete and good in itself; and that not one of His creations was conditioned upon antecedent changes in previously created forms of life.

Holy Bible

We believe that the Holy Bible, indited, born of oGd's own gracious heatr was given as "light from above" to reveal the highway of life leading out of earth' night; that it is the full, final, and complete revelation of God's will to man; that it is inerrant, verbally inspired, and a perfect treasure of heavenly instruction; that it was written by the holy men of old, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and has God for its author; salvation for its end, and truth without mixture of error for its matter; that it reveals the principles by which God will judge us, and is herefore, the true center of Christian union and the supreme standard by which all human conduct, creeds, and opinions shall be tried.

Heaven and Hell

We believe that two eternities await mankind; the one Heaven and the other Hell; that Heaven is the eternal home of the blood-washed redeemed, and that hell is the eternal home of the rebels unto God and unbelievers in Christ, the Lord.

Fall of Man

We believe that man, originally created in holiness and actually associated with God in innocence, did, by voluntary transgression of God's law, fall from the high and holy state in which he was created, and did, as a consequence, bring upon all mankind a just condemnation; that every individual is a sinner, first by nature and eventually through experiece; that he is by nature utterly void of holiness, positively inclined to evil and actually condemned to eternal ruin, without defense or excuse.

The Way of Salvation

We believe that the salvation of sinners is wholly by grace and not by works or culture; that it is through the mediatorial office of the Son of God who by the appointment of the Father, freely took upon Himself our naure, yet without sin; that He honored the divine law by His personal obedience; that by His death, he offered a full and complete atonement for our sins; and that it is through this sacrificial death of His alone that we have forgiveness and pardon.

Grace

We believe that grace comprehends the great heart and life of the Almighty, expended in the interest of righteousnss and His glorious kingdom; that it embraces foreknowledge, foreordination and predestination, and provides the only means of salvation for the lost through the atoning blood of the Lamb of God.

Church

We believe that a New Testament Church is a visible congregation of baptized believers voluntarily associated together to carry the gospel of the Son of God into all the world.

Baptism and the Lord's Supper

We believe that Baptism and the Lord's Supper are ordinances set in the church; that baptism is the immersion of a believer in water by a proper administrator and that the Lord's Supper in its observance symbolizes the broken body and the shed blood of the Son of God.

Finance

We believe that the Lord's plan of financing His kingdom comprehends the use of tithes and offerings.

The Resurection

We believe in the personal and bodily resurrection of individuals.

Repentance and Faith

We believe that repentance and faith are solemn obligations and also inseparable graces wrought in the soul by the Holy Spirit; that being convicted by the Spirit of our guilt and our understanding enlightened so that we can see the way of salvation through Christ we do actually turn to God with unfeigned contrition, confession, and supplication for mercy; and that at the same time we do heartly receive the oLrd Jesus as a personal Savior and openly confess Him before men.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON AUXILIARIES

The work of our departments namely, Woman's Missionary Union, Baptist Young People's Union, Sunday School, Baptist Students' Union, and Laymen is of such scope that it is difficult to keep within the grounds of proper space and give anything like a resume of their work. Let us remark in a general way about the work through the departments of our general state office the past year has enjoyed the blessings of God in splendid success.

Laymen

Our Laymen are without any secretarial leadership or any financial budget and their work is all voluntary. Professor J. E. George of Enid, has headed up this work, through the year, and has been an active force in developing a finer spirit of service among our men. In a very large measure we must look to them for money with which to develop all of our religious life. We rejoice in the new day of interest our laymen are manifesting in our University at Shawnee, and in the various other phases of our Baptist life in Oklahoma. Let us give to them every encouragement and assure them of our prayers, as they carry on for the Lord.

Sunday School Department

Fred A. McCaulley, Secretary. The Sunday School has come to be that department of our church life in which we express ourselves as to teaching, standardizing, evangelizing, and enlisting more than through any other single department. We rejoice in the continued blessings of God upon our Sunday School work in the state. Secretary McCaulley has led us through another auspicious Sunday School year. The Secretary, himself, in the prosecution of his work, submits to us a fine example of unflagging zeal. Here are some figures illustrating the varied and extensive work and achievements of our Secretary.

He held 220 meetings in 119 individual churches.

Delivered 694 sermons and addresses and taught 120 class periods.

Directed 5 training schools and 8 enlargement campaigns.

Prepared 105 articles fo rpublication.

Aided in organizing 2 Sunday Schools, 27 Sunday School Departments, 86 Sunday School Classes and 130 Training Classes, Graded 9 Sunday Schools, recognized 60 Standard Classes, 27 Standard Departments, and 24 Standard Schools.

Sold 824 books, Bibles and Testaments.

Traveled 34.164 miles.

The evangelistic and enlistment results from his services were 232 professions, 181 Baptisms. 97 Additions by letter and statement, Totaling 278.

There were 162 surrenders for special service, 17 of whom were for the ministry, and 133 tithers were enlisted.

It is very probable that there were not half a dozen churches in the state, with a better record of Evangelistic and Enlistment results than hose achieved by Secretary McCaulley, through his department. Other facts indicating the comprehensive work of the Sunday School department, include the mailing out of 318 packages of free literature, 717 Wall standards, 5,317 Wall Posters, 28,449 Letters, 1,682 Sunday School diplomas, and 5,586 Diploma seals. Through the Sunday School Department there were conducted last year 35 Daily Vacation Bible Schools.

NEXT YEAR

The program set up by the department next year upon which your approval is asked is tentatively the following:

Southwide Sunday School Conference, January 13-16.

Intermediate Department Tour for Oklahoma, February 15-28.

Association Sunday School and Daily Vacation Bible School Tour, March and April.

Southern Baptist Conference and Field Workers Conference. Birmingham, Alabama, May 11-16,

District Sunday School and Baptist Young Peoples Union meetings

the month of June.

Falls Creek Assembly, August 4-14.

Panhandle Assembly, August 17-21. State Sunday School Convention, October 6-9.

Objective for the Year

52 Additional churches and Sunday Schools.

2,600 Additional Sunday School officers and teachers.

26,000 Additional Sunday School members enroled. 260 Additional Sunday School Classes registered. 104 Standard Sunday School Classes recorded. 26 Standard Sunday School Departments obtained.

52 Daily Vacation Bible Schools conducted.

7,800 Awards.

204 Attending Southwide Conference, Jackson, Mississippi. 1,140 State Sunday School Convention at Ada, Oklahoma.

2,600 Attending District Sunday School and Baptist Young Peoples Union Convention.

10,400 Conversions among those enrolled in Sunday Schools.

Recommendations

First—That as soon as it is financially feasible the appropriations for Sunday School work be increased.

Second-That we cooperate with the workers of every church in endeavoring to conduct at least two Sunday School Training Schools this year, one to be held in the local church and the other in a neighboring church.

Third—That through all of our teaching we stress the evengelastic and missionary note.

The Department of Baptist Young Peoples Union

In looking over the general reports of Secretary Farmer, we can hardly be less than amazed at the remarkable progress the Baptist Young Peoples Union work has made within the last decade in our state. The training of our church youth can be overlooked only at our future peril. There is nothing more needful in the kingdom of Christ today than divinely appointed, especially trained leadership. The Baptist Young Peoples Union is set for the training of Christians, particularly young Christians, hence the department of Baptist Young Peoples Union is maintained. That the department has succeeded in its responsibility, can easily be seen from the following statements of fact and statistics gleaned from the books of Secretary Farmer.

First—There has been approximately 6% increase in A-1 work.

Second—The campaign of last February to establish family altars on the basis of Daily Baptist Young Peoples Union Bible Readers Course, was very effective, there being some 2,000 pledges the past year on the part of individuals, thus to establish the family altar and read the Bible daily.

Third—The most successful state B. Y. P. U. Convention in the history of our B. Y. P. U. work was held last March in Oklahoma City. This is the largest of our Oklahoma Baptist Convocations. The type of program put on by our secretary cannot be excelled.

Fourth—There were 957 Young People who dedicated themselves to the Lord for special service in the Kingdom of God.

Fifth-An associated expansion service was put on in numbers of our associations with good success.

Sixth—Study Courses. The growth of Baptist Young Peoples Union work in the state may be fairly figured on the basis of the growth of Study Course work. To make this unusual development more graphic, let us compare the work of the year now closing, with the work of ten years ago. Ten years ago the convention issued 2,759 awards in study courses, while last year there were issued 10,666 or an approximate 400% increase. And in comparison with last year, there were 2,105 awards or approximate 25% increase.

Seventh—The Assembly at Falls Creek last August was splendidly attended, and the work done was never of higher order. It would be hard to have assembled a better faculty and likewise hard to imagine better fellowship. The annual assembly goes from strength to strength.

Eighth—While the Baptist Young Peoples Union Department is not a money raising organization, Secretary Farmer should be felicitated on the fact that last year, with all forms of Baptist Young Peoples Union work he received $13,162.83 and disbursed $13,15.58. Thus the B. Y. P. U. finances are balanced for the year. All of us thank God for such a splendid year's work.

Ninth—There are now 612 of our Oklahoma Churches maintaining Baptist Young Peoples Union work, and Oklahoma has worked up to eighth place among the 18 Southern Baptist States, of churches with B. Y. P. U. work.

The Department of Baptist Students Union

This department functions in the Colleges and Universities of the State among the Baptist boys and girls who are attending these schools. There are now nine organizations in Oklahoma. The Baptist Students Union Southwide conference has just concluded a session in Atlanta, Georgia. There were 2,000 college Students from over the South in that great meeting. To look after our Baptist young life in our Colleges is of primary importance. Great upheavals, such as the Renaissance, the Crusades and the Reformation, within the last several centuries, have been wrought by students. Student movements are on with terrific force throughout the world now. Happy are we that our Baptist people, several years ago, recognized the Baptist Students Union necessity and opportunity and thus set in motion this organized activity.

The Department of Womans Missionary Union

To quote Mrs. Spooner, "25 years ago the Baptist women of Oklahoma began to pray, give and work together that the Kingdom might come". Since that time the growth and achievements of a Womans Missionary Union in Oklahoma reads like a chapter in the rarest work of romance. The Pioneer Women laid foundations as solid as granite mountains. Upon these foundations our Baptist Women of Oklahoma of today are establishing a notable structure. Let us make prominent in this report that Mrs. Berta K. Spooner is finishing her tenth official year. We should regard it as an inexcusable oversight if in this report we did not recite something of the growth of the work of the Womans Missionary Union under her leadership.

First-In this decade the women have given Scholarships for Christian training to 18 Oklahoma girls, who are serving the Kingdom of God in every avenue of Christian expression.

Second-Since the beginning of Mrs. Spooner's leadership there has been a gain of 186 societies in the churches. The total at present being 586. This organization gain has not been confined merely to the organizing of new societies but has extended into the circle of efficiency, for ten years ago there were only 26 societies in the state of A-1 standard accomplishments, while today there are 76, a gain of 50 or approximately 300% and in addition there are more than 100 other societies which by the slightest expanding of the standard requirements could be rated accordingly, Third-Organization is not to be confined to the local church, for within the decade of the present Secretary's leadership, 9 of the districts have been organized. The Associational Units have been carried on magnificently and the whole plane of Missionary study program and interest. Our women serve in so many fields and in such varied ways that it is impossible in this short report to detail their work.

Fourth-One field in which they will not be denied is the Orphans $1,334.56. There has been an all around increase in Missionary gifts of Home. While ten years ago there were 76 children in the home, clothed by the women's societies, today there are 180 so clothed. The total gifts to the home ten years ago were $8,600 as against $15,851.21 for the closing year.

Fifth-Gifts. The gifts of our women are a cause of increasing joy. In this day of diminishing Missionary interest and ferver, and offerings, our women have stepped forward and have blessed the Kingdom with Mission study, prayer, and money in a Godly way. When within these ten years our churches have generally decreased their missionary offerings, our women have increased their Christmas prayer offerings standard Foreign Missions from $1,400.00 to $8,040.00; their thank offerings for Home Missions of $800.00 to $3,432.00, State Missions from $242.00 to $334.56.

Sixth-Dormitory. Three years ago the Oklahoma Woman's Missionary Union undertook a thrilling piece of adventure, that of building a home for Oklahoma girls on the campus of Oklahoma Baptist University. Today there stands, in splendid, magnificent welcome to our daughters who go to our own school for training, a home representing an approximate $200,000.00 investment. Its appointments are not to be surpassed for convenience and comfort, or for beauty. Our women are now in their annual struggle to take care of their loan obligation, which approximates $14,000.00 per year.

This report should not be closed without a reference to the work led by that charming young woman, Miss Eva Inlow. She is Young People's Leader in the Women's Missionary Union Department. She works tirelessly, endlessly and brilliantly. Under her leadership last year there was an increase of Young Peoples societies of 109 and in all other respects has the young people's work been enhanced and blessed by her ministry.

To all these departments and their leaders we extend our gratitude, the hand of fellowship and our prayers.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The year 1930 will go down in history as a year of severe financial depression and one of the most serious moment to the cause of Jesus Christ. We are faced with matchless opportunities and overdrawn treasuries. The depression has projected itself into the programs for 1931 very materially. We supplemented the salaries of four white Associational Missionaries this year, but at this writing two of them have been retired by their Associations. We have also supplemented the salaries of 7 Indian Missionaries. This has followed associational gatherings in several instances where they had practically no indebtedness. In other years it would have been considered very encouraging. But fearing the immediate future rather than the failure of the past, associations have dispensed with missionary work. They look out into 1931 with much misgiving and distrust.

But with all that Oklahoma seems to be less seriously hit than most Southern States. The monthly financial statement of the Foreign Mission Board shows that Oklahoma is the seventh largest contributor to her treasuries this year. We are only exceeded by Virginia, Texas, Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina and Kentucky. We have given more actual cash to the Foreign Mission Board from May 1st to October 1st, 1930, than Alabama, Georgia, Maryland, Mississippi or Missouri. Of the 19 contributing states, Oklahoma stands seventh from the top. So with our discouraging depression, we have a ray of encouraging hope.

Attendance at the Associations this year, generally, exceeds anything in ten years. More baptisms reported and more churches revived and in attendance at the Associations also. Oklahoma County Association reported 1344 baptisms this year, which will make its report one of the very finest in the entire Southland. My estimate is made after visiting personally 23 of the 34 white Associations in the state this year. Pottawatomie and Lincoln County Associations consolidated into the Potta watomie-Lincoln Association, and Chickasaw and Union into the Chickasaw-Union Association. So we thus have at this time only 32 white and six Indian Associations in the State.

1. Our Receipts and Results

1. Our State Mission Work. This year we have moved along without any general or district missionaries, except Rev. G. Lee Phelps among the Indians. Because of an increasing indebtedness on the State Mission funds we were instructed to reduce so as to live within our income. Thus this field force was eliminated. We hope to return to it at a very early date.

Our Departmental organizations in Sunday School, B. Y. P. U., and Woman's Missionary Union work have had a very gratifying year and report splendid progress. Rev. Fred A. McCaulley continues as Sunday School Secretary, Mr. T. H. Farmer as B. Y. P. U. Secretary and Mrs. Berta K. Spooner as W. M. U. Secretary. No State has a more efficient group of departmental heads than Oklahoma. The following report will show the actual work done by our State Mission forces as reported to this Board by the persons employed:

2. Oklahoma Baptist University. Our school has passed through a hectic year but we come to our Convention with the brightest prospects and most optimistic outlook we have faced in many years. The student body is smaller than the previous years, but this reflects the general condition in the educational world. Their report as of August 29th, 1930, when the official audit was made, showed $95,101.89 as their total indebtedness. This indicates a small reduction of $3,823.13 over last year. The Women owe the Whitney Company in New Orleans $80,000.00 and Mr. W. L. Scott, the contractor, $3,500.00. This is a reduction in their indebtedness of $17,500.00 during the year just closing. Dr. William Cooke Boone, the newly elected president, was installed on October 10th in one of the most highly intellectual and gratifyingly spiritual occasions in the history of the State. His coming to us is the most significant educational advance we have made in our educational work for a long time.

On March 27th the Educational Commission asked your Corresponding Secretary to take over the tasks for the raising of Indebtedness and Endowment and put on the campaign, especially with the offering in June in mind. But all the functions committed to them were transferred to him till such time as they might wish to take them back or up to the meeting of this Convention. The results of the campaign in June were not as much as we anticipated. The cash to date has reached $17,342.92 and the First Baptist Church of Ponca City have given their negotiable note for $1,000.00 to be paid in two years. This is the largest special June offering we have taken, however, in our state, and the gifts to the Cooperative Program during July and August exceed the same two months of the previous year. His especial responsibility with the Commission terminates at this Convention.

3. Our Two Hospitals. We have two hospitals at Muskogee and Miami respectively. Muskogee has recently completed a splendid addition, greatly increasing their capacity but they have an indebtedness as per audit of September 30th, 1930, of $174,590.16. This includes $140,000.00 of bonded indebtedness and $34,590.16 current liabilities.

The Miami Hospital is making splendid progress and reported accounts payable of $1,888.22 when the audit was made on September 30th, 1930. Thus they are in a very fine condition. Their current accounts receivable are $12,010.76.

We need to pray for and aid the Muskogee Hospital till they get their obligations reduced to the payment of only their bonded indebtedness.

4. Oklahoma Baptist Assembly. The Oklahoma Baptist Assembly

had a very satisfying session in August of this year. The attendance was slightly smaller than formerly but those who came stayed through better and the records indicated probably the best class in the history of the Assembly. A concrete retaining wall about 150 feet long, and two feet thick and of varying height from one to four feet has been built South and West of the dining room, providing flower beds space facing toward the cafeteria.

5. The Oklahoma Baptist Orphans' Home. Our Orphans' Home is borrowing the first money Supt. Howard has had to borrow since being superintendent. This is due to a very noticeable decline in offerings from the Sunday Schools' once a month offerings. We sincerely hope the coming months may show a very noticeable increase from this same source.

6. The Baptist Messenger. Denominational papers have faced one of the most discouraging years in Southern Baptist History. Last year the Messenger showed $938.02 deficit with the promise of the editor to live within anticipated receipts and take up the deficit. A peculiar thing has happened. While the paper has shown increased receipts from advertising, it shows a decrease in subscriptions. What was gained in advertisements was lost in subscriptions. The present indebtedness is $2,082.66, which is an increase of $1,144.64 over the previous year. We must some way stop this mounting indebtedness and save our paper and editor from disastrous embarrassment.

7. The Baptist Book Store. Oklahoma still holds the enviable position of first place for per capita sales in our Southland and third for actual business transacted, being surpassed only by Texas and Kentucky. This is the tenth anniversary of the purchase of this Book Store, for which we paid $2,150.00 actual cash out of mission funds, the remainder being paid out of the business. When we sold the Sunday School Board a half interest they gave us $8036.90 cash for the same and our half interest is now valued at $15,000.00.

8. Southwide Causes. Some very serious facts have developed from a study made by Dr. W. J. McGlothlin, the president of the Southern Baptist Convention. Baptists are raising practically as much money now as they have raised through the period of the 75 million campaign. But the proportion going to Southwide causes has steadily declined from 12% in 1925 to 5% in 1930. Or Southwide objects received $4,686,951.00 in 1925 and only $2,227,290.00 in 1929. That is $2,459,661.00 less in actual cash in 1929 than they received in 1925 and that in the face of the fact that we raised $310,139.00 more in actual cash in 1929 than in 1925. We need to increase the percentage that goes to out-of-the-State objects. Oklahoma should look to a 50-50 basis inside of five years. That would be at the rate of 2% per year.

II. Our Responsibility

1. Revising the Convention Order of Business. It became apparent that through several years we have accumulated a number of standing committees whose functions have ceased, they having served their day of usefulness and are now liabilities rather than assets, encumbering the minutes with too much material and taking much valuable time unnecessarily. Your committee operated as per instructions and will report to this Convention. The order of business this year was revised by them in accordance with these instructions.

2. The Changing Order. Many small town and especially country churches are going out of existence. That is not necessarily a bad thing for the Baptist church membership is increasing with a healthful growth. But a study of the situation so as to properly meet this changing order must not be overlooked. A study of the churched and unchurched sections of each Association ought to be made so as to apprise the brother-hood of facts that they might take steps to meet the changing order. The old type of Associational missionary is passing out. But there are many more conversions and additions to the churches through the departmental endeavors than formerly reported by evangelists in revival meetings. Have we come to the place where the departments shall displace the told type evangelism or should they supplement its endeavors? It appears to us that the old style missionary and evangelist ought not to pass, but ought to increase in efficiency and his evangelist endeavors be supplemented and not supplanted by the departmental endeavors. But the final word must be said by the churches and pastors here.

III. Our Recommendations

1. Southwide Causes. Of the funds on the Cooperative Program, we have given 40% to oSuthwide causes. This has been pro rated definitely each year but we have been asked by the Executive Committee to change percentages in the middle of our Convention yar. They had good and sufficient reasons for such changes to meet pressing emergencies. We, therefore, recommend that Southwide funds be pro rated from time to time as recommended by the Southern Baptist Convention through its authorized agency.

2. Relating to Overhead Expenses. The following recommendation is made at the request of the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention in which we heartily concur:

3. Our Decrease on Co-operative Program Receipts. It was a joy to carry to the Association the heartening news that we were about $1,500.00 ahead of last year on the Co-operative Program receipts while the Associations were in session, but a remarkable slump of over $4,000.00 in October turned a small increase into a decrease of $2,323.73. The Program totals for the year ending October 28, 1929, were $145,869.59, while the totals for the year ending October 28, 1930, were $143,545.86. Was this due to the fact that some thought because we were slightly ahead hey could slacken their pace or was it due to other causes?

Expenses Chargeable to the Whole Program

For clearness and better understanding among our people, we suggest that these expenses be cared for as follows:

(1) Administrative Expenses shall consist of office rent, stationery, and postage, the salary and expenses of the General Secretary, salaries of bookkeeper and stenographer, telegrams, etc., insofar as these are used for the whole Program.

(2) Promotional Expenses shall consist of the salary and expenses of field men employed to work exclusively for the whole Program, advertising and literature used to promote the whole Program (which in our judgment would not include the salaries of editors or subsidies to the state paper) the expenses of the W. M. U., and any other expenses incurred in promoting the whole Program, such as special rallies, etc.

(3) That these expenses be taken out before the funds are divided, which automatically prorates the expense on the basis of percentage as adopted by the states.

3. Direct Approach to Churches for Offerings. Realizing the necessity of unity in organization we recommend that all direct approach to the churches for money offerings, so far as the endorsement of this Convention goes, shall be through its Board of Directors. No institution, organization, committee of any other creature forming an organic part of our State Convention shall approach the churches without the consent and approval of the Board of Directors except upon the specific instructions of the Convention in session. This, of course, does not refer to any object or endeavor, except such as form an integral part of our State Convention, for beyond this our authority can not and should not extend.

- 4. Extent of Authority Invested in the Trustees of Oklahoma Baptist University. Since the educational problem has become so complicated and intricate, and the expense of maintaining schools so enormous, we believe one educational institution is all we can support and all we ought to endeavor to carry. So we recommend that this one Board shall hereby be constituted the Board of Trustees for Oklahoma Baptist University and any and all other educational institutions for which this Convention shall become responsible. The state of Mississippi has been considering one Board of Trustees for all their schools.
- 5. Oklahoma Baptist Centennary for 1932. The first Baptist Church in the territory now embraced in the State of Oklahoma was organized by Rev. Isaac McCoy in September, 1832. Its membership consisted of David Lewis and wife, Missionaries who had just come to the field, John Davis, an Indian preacher, and three negro slaves. Thus it was composed of Whites, Indians and Negroes. We recommend that 1932 be made Oklahoma Baptist Centennial year with a great celebration culminating in 1932 Convention. We recommend that the Committee on Order of Business for 1931 provide for one full hour for this Centennial at one of its best sessions and that we recommend a full half day in the 1932 Convention for a great climax service to the Centennial Year. We recommend that a Committee be appointed to present to the 1931 Convention the definite line of procedure and the definite task to present to our 1931 Convention for our Centennial year task.
- 6. We recommend that our goal be set at $150,000.00 for the oC-operative Program receipts for the ensuing year. We face a year of financial depression but God may get glory out of the present slump which is sure to produce a returning prosperity.

We further recommend that the funds be divided 60 per cent in the State and 40 per cent out, the same as this year just closing. Based on $100.00 the division would be as follows:

State Missions	26.00
Oklahoma Baptist University
Orphans' Home
Hospitals in Oklahoma

Total .....$60.00

We recommend that the pro rating of the 40 per cent of the Southern Baptist Convention and its Executive Board be accepted by this State for Southwide causes.

7. We recommend budget week to be observed November 30th to December 7th, and all churches not previously budgeted are asked to adopt this date. More churches are gradually coming to the Budget basis, but it shall be understood with the churches that the Budget does not exclude but rather requires at least two round-ups for cash—one in the spring and another in the fall. At this time those who have scruples against pledges and budgets may make their offering. Those who have pledged and are behind in payments may then catch up and thus the double purpose of allowing a way for those who oppose budgeting to give, and calling attention to those who through carelessness or otherwise have allowed their payments to lag, is served.

S. In harmony with the policy of the outhern Baptist Convention we recommend four special days' offerings in the Sunday Schools over the state as follows: Home and Foreign Mission Day in March; Christian Education Day in June; State Mission Day in October; to go to the credit of the Program; and Orphans' Home Day in December. The latter and all other specials do not go to the credit of the Program, but are over and above the same.

- 9. In harmony with our policy for several years we further recommend that the Boards of Trustees of the various institutions over the State be authorized to borrow any monies required to meet their emergencies, only after approval is granted by the Board of Directors of this Convention. This money is to be borrowed by and over the signature of the Trustees of the institution for which borrowed.
- 10. We recommend that the Board of Directors employ an auditor to audit all the books of the various institutions of the Convention as well as the Convention's own books. The expenses of these audits shall be borne by the institution, as is now their custom.
- 11. Each Convention interest is requested to make their budgets for the ensuing year so as to live within an amount equal to the receipts of this year just closing. They are requested to furnish the Board of Directors a quarterly statement showing their condition financially at the end of the quarter just preceding the Board meeting. These quarterly statements should show the amount of decrease in the indebtedness, at the time of making the report.

J. B. ROUNDS, Cor.-Sec'y-Treas., of the Board.

REPORT ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The term "Christian Education" is a very comprehensive one. Education itself is not a mere matter of a few years in the grades and high school climaxed with a brief period in college or university. Education begins when life begins, and a "finished "education is really finished only by death. It is a lifelong process. It is comprehensive in that it applies to every part of the individual—head, and hand, and heart. The fingers of the accomplished musician are educated fingers: The eye and hand, and foot of the athlete are educated members of his body. The mind of the true scientist is an educated mind. The heart, soul, spirit of the true follower of Christ is an educated heart, soul, spirit. To be truly and thoroughly educated therefore, the body should be trained to function at its best, the mind trained to function at its best, and inner, unseen, spiritual to function at its best.

The world long has erred in defining education as a mere matter of mental training, and as a result there are many who pass as educated, and even as educators, whose training is in the realm of the mind only, and who are grossly ignorant and uneducated in the things which have to do with the spirit. In spiritual things they are blind and, "not able to see afar off." The realities that are spiritually discerned are as unreal to them as if they did not exist. Or if they are able to discern them at all, it is only in the most partial and distorted manner.

For this reason it is utmost folly, however, popular it may be, to interview skeptical scientists and inventors and lawyers and others, about spiritual things, and to regard their opinions as the last word in, or even as any real contribution to, the cause of truth. Their opinions have no special weight or authority. They grant interviews and express opinions in a field in which they are totally uneducated.

Dr. E. Y. Mullins rendered a great service to the world and to the cause of real science and truth when he pointed out the fact, and wrote his great treatise on "The Christian Religion in its Doctrinal Expression" upon the Fundamental Proposition, that Christianity, and all things spiritual in human life, are based ultimately upon experience. He who has not experienced God, and Salvation, and Divine Companionship, is utterly unqualified to write or speak with any authority regarding them, and when he does so he is like a blind man lost at midnight in the depths of a wide wilderness denying the existence of sunshine, and flowers and light and beauty.

Based upon the age-long contention of Baptists for "a free church in a free State" is the provision in our Constitution that church and state shall be separate, and that neither shall function in the field of the other. For this reason the tax-supported state school cannot teach by text book—cannot include in its curricula—courses that advocate the Christian, or any other constructive religion. For the same reason the negative religions of skepticism and atheism should be kept out of the state school.

By the very nature of the case the state school cannot offer a complete education. Those shining examples of Christian character and accomplishment that are the products of state schools are partly, that is spiritually, self-educated.

Here, then, is the convincing argument for the Christian school. It schould function as the state school in the fields in which the state school does function, and in addition, and particularly, in the realm of things spiritual and Christian where the state school cannot function. The crowning glory of man is his sipirtual nature, and the crowning glory of the Christian school is its opportunity to deal constructively with that spiritual nature, and the denominational school which fails at this point has no right to wear the name Christian, nor to appeal to a great Christian denomination for support. If this be true, then there are no words strong enough to condemn sufficiently the denominational school or teacher which or who negatives the great principles of the faith or distinguishing tenets of the supporting denomination.

Oklahoma Baptists are exceedingly happily situated with reference to Christian education. They have but one school, and it is located strategically near the center of the state—but one educational Jerusalem about which to rally the tribes of our Baptist Israel. Its faculty is definitely committed to the Faith once for all delivered to the saints. No taint of heresy attaches to the school at any point. Every wise precaution should be made for the continuance of this happy state of affairs in our one great school.

President W. C. Boone has fully satisfied the expectations of all in his clearcut and outspoken orthodoxy, and his virile and statesmanlike grasp of the problems of Christian education in general, and of our Baptist educational situation in Oklahoma in particular. Added to all this is the fact that we have a large student body of promising young men and women, and a growing group of alumni who are more and more filling places of prominence in religion and in business, both at home and afar.

It would seem that now the one outstanding need of Oklahoma Baptist University is adequate financing. The debt of about a hundred thousand dollars should be retired at once. A million dollars for endowment should be raised at once. The actual and potential wealt hof the Baptists of Oklahoma amply justify the effort to reach these two objectives shortly.

We recommend that every pastor and church in Oklahoma take a definite stand for Christian education as represented by Oklahoma Baptist University, and support its expanding program by sending their young men and women there for training, and by giving generously and sacrificially of their means for its support.

REPORT OF OKLAHOMA BAPTIST UNIVERSITY ENDOWMENT COMMISSION

The Endowment Commission reports and is sorry to do so that we have made very little progress.

There were several factors that made it impossible for us to do so.

First: Economic depression that has existed generally since the last Convention has made it hard to interest large givers.

Second: The fact that the University was in a transitory period in so far as the Presidency was concerned, making it almost impossible to create the proper impression among prospective givers as to the permanency of the institution, each prospective giver deferring action until the new President and new policies of the institution had been proclaimed.

Third: The continued illness and final death of the wife of the Chairman of the Commission, making it impossible for him to give the necessary time and thought to the matter.

Fourth: The fact that the Convention imposed upon the Commission the raising of more than $100,000.00 deficit in operating expenses which we found to be an insurmountable obstacle to getting funds for Endowment.

Fifth: The fact that the Convention required us to raise the expenses and have them on hand before beginning the campaign. This constituted another obstacle which we could not overcome.

Sixth: The fact that we were confronted at the beginning with a division of the members of the Board as to the best policy to pursue. We could not proceed with a program unanimously adopted and to proceed without it might create a division of forces which would hamper the work in after years and the prospect of success did not warrant us in creating such a division by arbitrary action of the majority of the Commission.

Seventh: The fact that we were confronted from the beginning with a division of opinion both in the Commission and out of it among the brotherhood as to the advisability of the action of the Convention in creating the Commission, by those who profess to believe that the work of raising of he Endowment should have been left to the Board of Trustees. This led to an effort to have the State Board do away with the Commission which it promptly decided it could not do.

These conflicting opinions appeared to the Commission to be so serious and impaired our efforts to such an extent that it has limited its efforts largely to an effort during the month of June to raise as much as possible for debt paying and deferred further action until the new President had assumed his duties, which did not occur until just before this Convention leaving us no time to do anything constructive thereafter in the way of raising our Endowment.

We have fostered and created a healthy sentiment for it, which will bear fruit in the future. In the debt paying campaign in June, the Commission prevailed upon Dr. Rounds, our corresponding secretary, to lead as our representative as well as the representative of the State Board and the results obtained by him were gratifying and are contained in the report of the Board of Trustees filed with the Convention.

We have held several meetings of the Commission, done considerable solicitation and correspondence, each of the members paying his own expenses, and the Commission therefore owes nothing.

Since the wisdom of the action of the Convention at Shawnee creating the Endowment Commission has assumed such proportions as to make it wise for the Convention to decide whether or not the Commission shall be continued, or whether its functions shall be performed by the regular Board of Trustees we submit this question to the Convention with the recommendation that it act on this question at this session but without a specific recommendation as to whether the Commission shall be continued or discontinued. On that question we are willing to abide the action of the Convention.

Respectfully submitted,

J. W. HARRELD, Chairman.

REPORT OF INDIAN WORK By G. Lee Phelps

Dear Brethren of the Convention.—I am delighted to report that the past year has been the most fruitful and progressive year of all my twenty-nine years in the Indian service.

Nine camp meetings have been held during the past summer, the Evangelistic fervor and zeal excelled all past years, each of these big camp meetings closed with Baptisms except one and this one exception several candidates preferred to be baptized at their home churches.

In past years there has been more or less contentions and frictions among the native ministers and workers. During the past year the harmony and fellowship has been delightful and all seemed bent on doing the will of the Master.

There has been marked increase in inter-tribal co-operation and visitation between the tribes and we are looking forward to the time when we can have an inter-tribal gathering of all the Indian church problems to-

The Indians are not giving money for church and benevolent work as they did a few years ago for the simple reason that most of them have no money and no source of income. Many are desperately poor. I can not see how many of them can get through this winter without help. A few of the Seminole Indians are growing rich in oil royalties; these would give liberally of their riches if they were permtted to do so by the Interior Department at Washington, D. C.

The Home Board's work among the several tribes in north central Oklahoma is prospering and each field is now supplied with efficient workers whose salaries are paid in full by our Home Board at Atlanta.

What to do about the Indians that are leaving their home church and moving to the towns and cities is still an unsolved problem. The only solution I know is for the pastors and workers in the city churches to give the Indians in their communities special attention and enlist them in the city church work.

The B. Y. P. U. and Sunday School work is growing by leaps and bounds in some of the tribes; with others, these departments are having a mighty struggle to even have a name to live.

The Nuyaka school has opened again this year with a larger enrollment than ever before.

Respectfully submitted, yours to serve, G. LEE PHELPS.

Dr. Wallace reports that we have more than double the number of young ministerial students that we had last year. This will mean a still better report for next year.

What is hoped will prove the beginning of a new epoch of prosperity and enlargement for O.B.U. was marked by the inauguration of our new president, Dr. W. C. Boone, on October 9-10. Some of the ablest men of the denomination throughout the southland were in attendance and delivered splendid addresses. Another high-water mark of enthusiasm for O.B.U. and Christian education was reached during the inauguration. This augurs well for the university for the coming years. Dr. Boone has made a fine impression upon our people, and great hopes are being entertained for the success of his administration.

It goes almost without saying that the three immediate and pressing needs of O.B.U. are (1) a large enrollment, (2) payment of indebtedness, and (3) the raising of at least one million dollars of endowment. We must be constantly reminded of the fact that O.B.U. is fast becoming the only denominational college of consequence in the south which does not have an endowment. It is an unenviable distinction and one that spells ultimate failure if it is not soon removed. We must "endow or die." Herewith is given data on the endowment of the leading colleges of our denomination:

Q pe	rations
Total cost for year	$193,071.75
Receipts from college
	$ 45.543.30
Operating deficit	3 40.045.50

Contributions for operations	40,627.61
Net Operating Deficit	4,915.69 14,000.00
Net addition to Capital $	9.084.31

Some very necessary repairs have been made to the administration building. More repairs are needed. We cannot afford to allow our buildings to fall to pieces and thereby dissipate the investment of the Baptist people of the state. Five hundred dollars spent in repair work will save thousands in the long run.

Under the terms of our contract with our new president we were to furnish him with a home. After mature deliberation the Building Committee decided to remodel the old Bright House into a president's home. This has been done at an expense of something over $5,000.00. This amount represents an investment in plant equipment. The house was useless as it stood. It is now a modernized home which will serve its purpose very well.

Perhaps our greatest equipment need is library books. Our library is antiquated and but few books have been added from year to year. To meet our actual needs an investment of a minimum of $2,000.00 per year should be made in library books.

We need new buildings, of course, but we can worry along with what we have until the debt is lifted and at least a million dollars is raised for endowment.

Our financial condition is a little better than at the same time last year. As shown by the report of the business manager there has been a net addition to our capital of $9,084.31. However, we still have a total indebtedness of $95,101.89. This indebtedness must be lifted. It constitutes a mill-stone around the neck of the institution which will sink the institution if the debt is no eliminaed.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT

Conributions

It is a pleasure to report that the total income for all purposes amounted to $9,084.31 more than the total expenses. In other words Oklahoma Baptist University is $9,084.31 better off than at this time last year. The contributions were as follows:

W.M.U. payment on new dormitory Co-operative Program Christian Education Special	25,883.55
Total contributions	$55.127.61

Operating Cost

The total cost of operating the college for the year was $193,071.75. The direct receipts from all college departments, including tuition, fees, room, meals, etc., was $147,528.45 which leaves an operating deficit of $45,543.30. To off-set this deficit, contributions of $40,627.61 were received, leaving only $4,915.69 in operating expenses unprovided.

June Campaign

Since the audit on September first $3,042.30 additional on the Christian Education Campaign, which was begun in June, has been received. This makes a total of $18,286.36 for the special effort which is the largest amount ever received from a June Campaign. This special collection is mainly responsible for the reduction of the operating deficit from $16,358.59 last year to $4,915.69 for this year.

W.M.U. Building

The $14,000.00 contribution of the W.M.U. went into the building fund of the university and increased the assets by that amount. The net loss on operations was $4,915.69 which leaves a net gain in value of $9,084.31.

Indebtedness

The total debt of O.B.U. is $95,101.89. The debt a year ago was $98,925.02, a decrease of $3,823.13.

A summary statement of the audit report follows:

REPORT OF MISSIONS

Your Committee is instructed to present to this Convention a report on Missions, the report to include State Missions, Home Missions and Foreign Missions. Since this is a departure from the method used for so many years, the Committee is not sure that its report shall be, in every particular, what was contemplated in the change. Be that as it may, the Committee submits herewith the report.

Looking back across the centuries today we may behold the most wonderful scene human eyes ever gazed upon. A little group of disciples are huddled together upon the summit of a Gallilean Mountain and Jesus the risen Lord, stands in their midst. The cloud-chariot, with a retinue of Holy Angels, is about to bear Him away to the Father's right hand. He is delivering His parting message. "Full authority," says He, "has been given unto me in Heaven and on earth; Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit; and teach them to obey all the commandments I have laid on you; and I will be with you all the time, to the very end of the world." (Moffatt).

In these words the blessed Lord unburdens His heart of the great load pressing upon it—the salvation of men and the reign of God upon earth. "All the World."—This is the field which He designates; and this command, from that day, has moved the hearts of His people and sent them forth into the heavenly conquest which has expanded with the discovery, in later times, of new portions of the inhabited earth, and which must ever be coextensive with geographic discovery. "All the World" and "Every Creature" set the limits and determine the bounds of Baptist Missionary endeavor.

For convenience and to simplify and increase efficiency in Missionary work, Baptists have divided their work into what they call State Missions, Home Missions and Foreign Missions. It should be borne in mind that, though these distinctions are made for reasons just stated, there is to be no discrimination in our interest, our prayers or our contributions. Proper emphasis must be placed upon every phase of our Missionary work, and no one phase is to be stressed to the disadvantage of any other phase. In other words, our interest and our support should be fairly and equitably related to every department of Baptist Missionary work.

State Missions

State Mission work in Oklahoma embraces its departments as follows: The Executive Department, with Dr. J. B. Rounds as Secretary, the Sunday School Department, the B. Y. P. U. Department and the W. M. U. Department, with their respective secretaries, Indian work, the Baptist Book Store, the Oklahoma Baptist Assembly and the Baptist Messenger. These departments are to aid in promoting, either directly or indirectly, the whole Missionary program of Oklahoma Baptists.

The Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma fosters the Oklahoma-Baptist University at Shawnee, the Oklahoma Baptist Orphanage at Oklahoma City and two hospitals at Muskogee and Miami.

State Mission work in Oklahoma has been greatly curtailed during recent years. To quote our Secretary: "We seem to be passing through a period of dearth in this important matter." No State Evangelists were employed during the past year, and the extent of strictly State Mission work done in Oklahoma is that the salaries of eleven Associational Missionaries and fifty-six pastors have been supplemented. These Missionaries and pastors reported 687 baptisms for the first six months of this year. While deeply grateful to God for the State Mission work that has been done the past year, your Committee believes, and would express such belief in this report with all due emphasis, that the work now being done is far too small and is unworthy of the 150,000 Baptists who, ostensibly. are cooperating with this Convention. Large groups of Churches and great numbers of our Baptist people remain unenlisted and are giving no Great stretches of the State, especially in certain support to our work. rural districts, are being over-run by various cults and off-shoots of religion, and are rapidly being lost to the Baptist faith. In view of this alarming condition, your Committee would urge that a new and greater emphasis be placed upon State Missions in Oklahoma. If this is not done, we may not be surprised to see the foundations slipping from under every institution and cause we have. Missions is our Mission. Missions is fundamental. Missions is the soil out of which schools, orphanges, hospitals. etc., must grow. To curtail Mission work is to weaken the very foundations.

Home Missions

Home Missions embrace Mission work done by the Southern Baptist Convention through the Home Mission Board, located at Atlanta, Georgia. Its field of work includes all the States affiliating with the Southern Baptist Convention, Cuba and Panama. Its departments are Independent and Direct Missions, Mission Work in Cuba, Mountain Missions and Schools, Mission Work in Panama, Church Extension Work among the Jews, Mission Study Work, etc.

For reasons well known to all informed Baptists the work of the Home Mission Board has been very difficult and trying for several years. In the first place, the Board has had to work itself out of a very complex and difficult situation arising out of the dafalcation of its treasurer. Added to this, the Board has been menaced by a large debt, and provisions had to be made to pay it. To solve the many vexing problems, and make necessary readjustments, the Missionary work has proven a very delicate and difficult task. Considering the whole situation, your Committee believes that the wise adjustments that have been made and the efficient manner in which our entire Home Mission Work is being conducted at present merit our most sympathetic consideration and our united and earnest prayers.

The Home Board in all of its plans and policies has adhered implicitly to the instructions of the Convention. The receipts for the current work for 1928 and 1929 were $415,870.21. Of this amount, $240,000 were used for Mission work and $175,000 for interest and debt . Through the several agencies of the Home Board, more than 4,000 conversions and additions to the Churches have resulted. Time will not permit us to give a detailed report of each department of Southern Baptist Missionary endeavor. But your Committee would call especial attention to the outstanding and farreaching work being done by the Baptist Bible Institute and the Southern Baptist Hospital at New Orleans, Louisiana, the greatest Papal center and stronghold in Southern Baptist territory. These institutions richly deserve and by all means should have our profoundest sympathy and most loyal support.

To conclude its report on this phase of our Mission work, your Committee would urge this Convention and, through the Convention, the Oklahoma brotherhood generally, to give more earnest and more substantial consideration to the highly meritorious work of the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. A new and brighter day is dawning for this phase of work and a new interest is being awakened among Southern aBptists generally. To falter for one moment at this time would be disastrous.

Foreign Missions

Southern Baptists have had the blessing of God upon their Foreign Mission work during the past year. Splendid progress has been made in reducing the large and menacing debt which has burdened the Foreign Board for several years. During the year closing May 1st, 1930, this debt was reduced by $187,423.56. This is most gratifying.

The past year has been marked by great revivals in many of our Foreign fields. During the year 13,250 baptisms were reported, more than were ever reported before in a single year. At present, there are 1.407 Churches with a membership of 161,059 on foreign fields. Gratifying reports come that progress along all lines has been made in all Missions. For this let us devoutedly thank God.

Your Committee directs special attention to the advancement which is being made on some of the Foreign Fields.

In Africa, splendid progress is reported everywhere. A revival meeting was held in the Lagos School which resulted in the conversion of over one hundred students in the upper grades. The hospital and College at Ogbomoso had the greatest year in their history. The Nigerian Baptist Convention has 200 Churches in its membership practically all of which are self-supporting.

Reports indicate that great blessing has attended Southern Baptist Missionary work in South America. In Argentina there are 59 Churches with 4,059 members. These Churches had 380 baptisms last year and gave for all purposes $41,083.00. During the last decade the Churches in North Brazil have grown from 120 Churches with 6,203 members to 149 Churches and 8,348 members. There were 510 students in the College and Seminary at Pernambuco. In South Brazil, 1930 marks the fiftieth anniversary of Dr. and Mrs. W. B. Bagby. Their half century's work in that strategic and important field has been monumental and glorious. Chili is our newest field in South America and the outlook is encouraging.

China. From all fields in China come assuring reports of progress and growth which should evoke thanksgiving to God. The Central China field has had one of the most encouraging years it has ever experienced. The work in North China has been hindered by warring conditions, but our loyal workers are at their posts and many conversions are being reported. Interior China is also torn by war, but thanks to the Heavenly Father, our cause moves forward. In South China, there were 600 baptisms last year.

Europe. In Hungary there were 763 baptisms last year and Baptists have grown from 7,000 to 12,000 during the last ten years. It Italy 1929 was the best year in Italian Mission work. There was an increase of 49 per cent in baptisms. In Jugo Slavia Baptists have grown from 600 in 1922 to 1,148. In Spain a Baptist Convention has been organized at Barcelona and and 107 baptisms were reported. In Romania there were 4,925 baptisms, the largest number ever reported to the Foreign Mission Board from any field in one year.

Mexico. The work in Mexico has experienced progress though in some sections hindrances have occurred owing to National disturbances, revolutionary agitations, etc.

Japan. Special attention is directed to the record of our Publishing House in Japan. During the past year it published 1,750,000 tracts and 250,000 books, a total of 66,576,000 pages. The promise is, "My Work shall not return unto me void." Hundreds of students are in our schools and there were 67 converts among these students last year.

Your Committee is loathe to conclude this report without calling the attention of the Convention to certain conditions and tendencies now existing among our Southern Baptist people. The President of the Southern Baptist Convention recently published some statistics which stagger the mind and sicken the heart. From these statistics it is revealed that contributions from Southern Baptists to South-wide and world-wide causes have decreased from $4,686,951 in 1925 to 2,227,290.00 in 1929. In other words, there has been an actual decrease of $2,459,661.00 for 1929 as compared with 1925. If contributions to these causes continue to decrease at this ratio for the next five years Southern Baptists will find themselves doing less than nothing. This condition is appalling. It is overwhelming.

The Committee has no specific recommendations to offer, but it does feel that some definite steps should be taken at once to arouse our Baptist people and to awaken a renewed interest in Missionary work.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE REVISING ORDER OF BUSINESS

During the last Convention it appeared that many useless reports unnecessarily absorbing time was dissipating the strength and energy of the Convention. And after some discussion it was decided that a revision of the entire committee program would be beneficial to the work of the Convention. Paragraph 104 of the minutes of 1929 says, "On motion of J. W. Hodges, it was carried that Andrew Potter, J. W. Hodges, and J. B. Rounds be authorized to revise the schedule on the Order of Business for the 1930 Convention."

This Committee met in Oklahoma City and outlined what appeared to them a feasible and practical plan. We then met again with the Committee on Order of Business and together arranged the program in consultation. We felt that many of the present committees were useless and expensive in taking up much valuable time and printing much useless material in the minutes. Therefore we grouped committees as follows:

1. Committee on Missions embracing what was formerly given in reports on Foreign, Home and State Missions. Then provision was made for discussion on each of these phases by their chosen representatives.

2. Committee on Auxiliaries embracing the work of Sunday School, B. Y. P. U., Laymen's work and Women's work. Provision was made for discussion by each department to follow the report.

3. Committee on Religious Literature to embrace the Baptist Messenger, the Baptist Book Store and the Baptist Sunday School Board with provision for discussion for each phase.

4. Committee on Christian Education caring for the Seminaries and the Oklahoma Baptist University.

5. Committee on Benevolences embracing the Orphans' Home, the Hospitals and the Old Ministers' Relief.

The purpose was to reduce to the minimum the number of written reports thus saving a considerable sum of money in printing the minutes of the Convention and give the maximum amount of time to discussion on all the phases of the work. Therefore the work of the committee on Order of Business was planned in harmony with these suggestions and we present this plan to you for your consideration in behalf of the conservation of time and the development of Kingdom work,

Respectfully submitted, (Committee)

ANDREW POTTER

J. W. HODGES

J. B. ROUNDS.

BAPTIST ORPHANS HOME REPORT

To the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma meeting in session at Oklahoma City, November 5, 1930:

As Superintendent of the Oklahoma Baptist Orphans Home, it is my pleasure to bring before you at this time a brief report of the activities together with the financial statement of the Orphans Home for the year ending October 31, 1930.

We wish to record our thanks to God for His blessings which have been upon us for the past year. Every department of our work has gone steadily forward. Notwithstanding the tremendous falling off in our current receipts during the past year, we have been enabled to maintain our Home in the usual way. We have had very little sickness, no epidemics of any kind. With the exception of one serious accident by automobile in which one of our little boys was struck by a passing car while he was crossing the highway in front of the school building, we have had no serious accidents. This little fellow was seriously injured and was kept in the Oklahoma City General Hospital for four months. This was an unavoidable accident. The man who was driving the car placed the little fellow in the hospital and paid all his bills. I am happy to report that he is now well and going to school every day.

Again, we wish to express our thanks to the Oklahoma City General Hospital, of this city, and Dr. J. E. Harbison, and his son, Dr. Frank Harbison, and other members of our staff of physicians and surgeons who have rendered very valuable and very fine service to our Home. They have given our children every consideration necessary. Also, we are grateful to Dr. W. E. Eastland for the fine service he has rendered during the past year. He makes a visit to our Home almost every week. Also, our thanks go to Dr. John T. Miller, dentist of this city, who has been very kind in looking after the dental work of all of our children.

Our children are doing exceedingly fine work in school. On the opening date of school, every boy and every girl in our Home entered school except one that was too young. We are very proud to report that three of our fine girls will graduate from the High Schools of this city at the end of this school term. They are Misses Virgie Kinchloe, Ruth Eslinger, and Edna Williams. These three fine girls have been with us since they were little tots and as their records show, have done exceedingly fine work in school. We are very proud of the records that these and other boys and girls are making.

We would not overlook saying a word concerning the religious training of our children. We maintain our Sunday School in an efficient way, and two B. Y. P. U.'s. In addition to these, we have a Sunbeam Band, G. A., R. A., and Y. W. A. During the past year, we had Brother Charley Curb to hold a revival meeting in which there were quite a number of our older boys and girls who made a profession of faith and gave their hearts to the Lord.

In a financial way, this has been, by far, the hardest year that we have experienced in the last six years of our work. There has been a tremendous falling off in our receipts, especially from the Sunday Schools of the state. This year, we received $2,407.53 less from the Sunday Schools than we received during the year of 1929. During the year 1929 we received $3,318.49 less than during the year 1928. Thus, there has been a falling off from this source of income in two years from $16,690.74 to $10,969.72, making a deficit from the Sunday Schools of $5,726.02. cannot explain this tremendous falling away in our collections from the Sunday Schools except on the theory that when many churches adopt the budget, they overlook sending their Sunday School collection to the Home. If this condition continues throughout the state, it will make it practically impossible for us to carry on the work of our Home. In this connection, I wish to say that it would have been impossible for us to have fed and cared for our children by supplying them with wholesome and healthful food, had it not been for our big truck which we have been sending out over the state during the past summer. For the past six months that this truck has operated, it has gathered in and brought to our children in edibles, clothing, feed, and other things very essential in maintaining our Home.

Because of the financial stringency, we have reduced our force of employees out at the Home to the minimum. We cannot operate with less help than we are now maintaining.

We believe the Baptist people of Oklahoma love the Orphans Home and orphan children. We also believe that when they become aware of the real need of our Home, that in some way or another, they will arrange to supply the necessary money to care for our children in the proper way.

Our financial condition has made it impossible for us to make the improvements and keep up the repairs this year we have in other years. Last year, we started to build our hospital building. This building is greatly needed. Perhaps we have no greater need at the present time, but we were forced to cease operations on this building or go in debt for the same. We hope that in some way we may receive sufficient funds during this winter that we can finish this building. It will take approximately three thousand dollars to finish and furnish this building.

We wish to express our appreciation to the good people over the state, especially the W. M. U. and the Sunday Schools for the fine cooperation they have given us in helping us to clothe our children and for the vast amount of things they have sent the Home, such as canned fruit, chickens, eggs, and many other things, all of which have been a great help to us.

I now submit to you the financial report from November 1, 1929, to November 1, 1930, which is as follows:

A motion prevailed that the paper be published in the Baptist Messenger.

Again we were led in song and prayer.

REPORT OF RELIGIOUS LITERATURE

To the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma November 6, 1930

According to instructions our report embraces former reports on the Baptist Messenger, Baptist Book Store, and the Sunday School Board.

I. Baptist Messenger

There is a varied range of opinion relative to editorial policies, material used, the number of denominational papers needed, the general make-up the number of departments featured, and how best to promote a denominational paper. However, there is no longer any argument over the imperative need of a denominational paper.

Most of our state denominational papers are facing a decline in the number of subscriptions. A loss of 16,433 subscriptions were reported to the 1930 session of the Southern Baptist Convention over the previous twelve months. Therefore, we feel special effort should be given by all churches and pastors to increase the circulation of the Baptist Messenger.

Some of our editors look with apprehension on the publication of expensive and attractive church bulletins. Whether such publication is a hindrance or a help to the circulation of our denominational paper should be seriously considered.

We most heartily commend the Baptist Messenger to every Baptist home in the state. Its circulation will greatly augment the effort of our churches in evangelism, religious instruction, denominational information, and Christian Missions.

One of the most comprehensive, illuminating, and helpful reports on denominational papers ever brought before the Southern Baptist Convention was made by our own editor, Dr. E. C. Routh, last year at New Orleans. We are fortunate to have him as editor of our state paper. He deserves our very best support.

II. Baptist Book Store

Under the management of Mr. H. Killingsworth we have a Book Store representing an investment of $30,000 plus; jointly owned by the Sunday School Board and the Baptist General Convention. It would be a fine practice for our pastors and members to give a few minutes in looking through our book store on each visit to Oklahoma City. New books will speak out in such a manner as to cry for a place in your library; and, if given a place there, might mean the remaking of a pastor or religious worker, or the church.

The management of our book store is to be commended for prompt and courteous service. Mr. Killingsworth is well acquainted with the book business, and is able to advise in matters of book selection.

We would urge our churches and membership to order your books through the Baptist Book Store. Any book published may be secured at the same price secured elsewhere, and all profit is returned to the Baptist Program. Just as important it is to purchase supplies for all church auxiliaries from the Book Store. Not only so, but we commend to your consideration the patronage of our Book Store along the line of specials as greeting cards, invitations, season greetings, etc.

It should be a matter of pride to Oklahoma Baptists that our book store ranks near the top among all such stores among Southern Baptists.

III. Baptist Book Store Our Baptist Book Store now has been in operation exactly 10 years. Established by the Convention in 1920 for the purpose of distributing literature and supplies to our churches and people with greater promptness and convenience, the ownership was changed five years later by the sale of a one-half interest to the Sunday School Board of Nashville, in order that it might be included in the group of Associated Baptist Book Stores and thereby receive better financial standing and buying power.

Since this change in the business the annual sales have increased steadily. The total sales for the past year were the greatest in its history, amounting to slightly more than $50,000.00. Our Book Store stands third in amount of business done in the entire group of 17 stores.

Following is the aBlance Sheet taken from the comprehensive report of the Convention Auditors for the year ending April 30, 1930.

IV. Sunday School Board . The Sunday School Board has been a wonderful financial, evangelizing, training, indoctrinating, and denominational building asset to Southern Baptists. Under the able, and devoutly Christian, leadership of Dr. I. J. Van Ness, together with his capable associates, we have an agency deserving our most prayerful and hearty support. Last year the Sunday School Board's receipts amounted to $1,873,823.38.

The Sunday School Board conducts a many-sided business: student work, rural work, publication of many periodicals, books, tracts, general field work, state co-operative work, south-wide W. M. U., and Brotherhood work, together with a number of other worthy enterprises. From the income last year the Sunday School Board put back into denominational work $519,051.79 through more than twenty-two different agencies and phases of our denominational work some of which are above enumerated.

Since every cent of profit made by the Board is returned to our Baptist work through various channels of Christian endeavor it would seem wise that our churches, together with their auxiliaries, purchase all supplies for church use through our Sunday School Board, and its associated book stores.

We commend the Sunday School Board for its report to the Southern Baptist Convention this year relative to certain articles which crept into its publications causing anxiety among some of our brethren who are close guardians of Baptist Orthodoxy. The pledge of Dr. Van Ness, and his associates, to diligently guard against such recurrance—as set forth on page 303 of the 1930 Southern Baptist Convention Annual—assures us of the conservative and Orthodox position of those who compose the editorial staff of the Sunday School Board.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON OBITUARIES

During our last Convention year a number of our preachers have been called to their Heavenly home. We miss them from our ranks, but we rejoice that God has assured us in His Word of their triumph into that eternal inheritance that fadeth not away.

Among those are the following named ministers:

Rev. Ogle, Boswell, Oklahoma

Rev. S. F. Skaggs, Washington, Oklahoma Rev. Job Ingram, Kingfisher, Oklahoma Rev. J. W. Soloman, Mangum, Oklahoma Rev. C. Stubblefield, Miami, Oklahoma

We commend the loved ones who are left to weep, to the mercies of God, and ask them to remember that ere long we, too, shall go and meet our loved ones, with our Savior who shall wipe away all tears from our eyes and there shall be no more death.

Signed,

G. R. NAYLOR H. T. WILES E. L. WATSON

REPORT ON BENEVOLENCES

Combining Orphanage, Hospitals and Old Ministers' Relief

Your committee is pleased to report something of our work in the field known as "BENEVOLENCE."

Let us first urge the necessity of this kind of work—if Christianity is to grow and prosper among us. Jesus said: "I come not to be ministered unto but to minister." In that word He sets a new standard for greatness. "Let him who would be first among you be your servant." James said: "Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this: To visit the fatherless and the widows in their affliction and keep himself unspotted from the world." Such words as these if there were no others would be sufficient warrant for our enlarged plans and effort in the fields noted in this report.

Let us notice first our efforts in the field of HEALING. It is unnecessary to further urge the place of this work. We have passed that milestone and are pressing on in the progress of our task.

In this state we have two institutions dedicated to such service—The Oklahoma Baptist Hospital at Muskogee and the Miami Baptist Hospital at Miami.

Great blessings have attended these institutions this year.

At Miami they had the opportunity of ministering to 1,033 patients, Among these were some who had no funds. These are known as "Charity patients." Let us think of them here as "Love patients" for their needs were met by the love of Christ through the medium of this institution.

The amount of such service thus given by this hospital in dollars and cents was $5,057.08.

The expenses of the Miami Baptist Hospital for the past year were $38,545.85. This money was provided from donations from the Baptist State Convention, friendly citizens of Miami, and from patients who could pay part or all of their expenses. Among these patients were members from the Baptist, Methodist, Christian, Friends, Presbyterian and Catholic Churches. Thus we see the wide field they covered in this work.

Your committee regrets to report that the Training School for Nurses in this institution has been discontinued. May such needed work as that soon be resumed there.

The members of this Convention have great joy in this work as carried forward by the Oklahoma Baptist Hospital at Muskogee. This institution was founded more than twenty years ago. Its doors have ever been open to all who needed their service. Within that period this hospital has given more than a hundred thousand dollars worth of free service. This went to those "Love patients," many of whom would otherwise have suffered and perhaps died for want of this needed aid and help. During the past year this institution admitted 1373 patients. The fact that only 48 out of this number were called by death shows the fine service rendered, both by the hospital and the staff of physicians and surgeons. The report of this institution will show that in round numbers they gave $5,000 of free service during the past year.

This hospital which is just now in the midst of its greatest service is sadly and fearfully handicapped by debt. They need $100,000 now to free them so they can minister in a more splendid way to those in need. This debt was incurred because of needed buildings. If this Convention can offer this institution aid in this respect, great service will be done there. Let us pray together that God will put it into the heart of some soul who has sufficient of this world's goods to lead out in giving largely to the freeing of these institutions of debt.

This committee would commend the superintendents of these hospitals to the love and prayerful support of the Baptists of this state. Too much cannot be said for these good people who thus give their lives to others in such need. We would include in this the nurses, both on the wards and those in official positions. Many of these people take it as their opportunity to do valiant service for Christ.

Your committee feels deepest gratitude that the time has a last come when the old and enfeebled preacher of the Gospel of Christ has a good provision made for him. We all take pride in the Ministerial Relief and Annuity Board at Dallas, Texas. This great work of caring for the ministers and missionaries and their widows and dependent orphans deserves and shall receive favorable consideration from our people. This great work has ever proven in favor with our churches.

God seems to have set His approval upon their financial plans and efforts. This Board reported last May their assets to be $3,698,554.75. Since $670,049.81 of that amount came in last year, we do not know what may have come in since then. This sum sounds adequate to do all that may be needed in that field of service, but such is far from the facts. Let us continue to both pray and work for this great organization. Its growth for the period of its short existence is absolutely phenomenal, but the growing needs are still far in excess of our provision made for them.

During the year which closed May 30th, last, this Board aided in the support of 1,447 persons. Of these, 680 were ministers, 617 were widows of deceased ministers. In the homes of these widowed mothers were 150 dependent children. If you will add to this number the 145 annuity beneficiaries the total number comes to 1,592 persons who were helped. There are more than 100 applicants now pending. This number is increasing every month. Only increased receipts by the Boards can make it possible to help this worthy and needy group. This serious matter can only be May this be done promptly and adequately.

relieved by the state conventions and the churches of these various states. This report would commend the "Service Annuity" plan of this Board. Let every minister and missionary inform himself as to this. Write the Board for full information and act upon it—it is good Christian foresight.

We would close this report by bringing before us an institution near the heart of every civilized person, to say nothing of the saints of God.

The Oklahoma Orphans' Home rests its burdens upon the heart of this denomination. Not to love a child and have time to care for him is to lose step with Jesus. He had both the taste and time for children. Blighted childhood is a blast at the foundation of our civilization. We Baptists of Oklahoma have accepted the task of caring for at least SOME of our children.

The Baptist Orphans' Home is our answer to this challenge. We have begun well. We have this hour in that home 183 children. During the closing year the administration has had to turn from 750 to 1,000 children away for want of room and money to support them. If our home had in it today all who in consideration of heir need should be there, our budget would be $300,000 instead of $36,000 as it is now. There has been a tremendous falling off in receipts, especially from the Sunday Schools of the state. This year, the home received $2,407.53 less from the Sunday schools than it received during the year of 1929. During the year 1929, it received $3,318.49 less than during the year of 1928. Thus, there has been a falling off from this source of income in two years from $16,695.74 to $10,-969.72, making a deficit from the Sunday schools of $5,726.02. This cannot be explained except on the theory that when many churches adopt the budget, they overlook sending their Sunday school collections to the Home. If this condition continues throughout the state, it will make it practically impossible to carry on the work. It would have been impossible to have fed and cared for the children by supplying them with wholesome and healthful food, had it not been for the big truck which the Home has been sending out over the state during the past summer. For the past six months that the truck operated, it gathered in and brought to the children edibles, clothing, feed, and other things essenial in maintaining the Home.

It is obvious that the increasing needs of this institution makes it necessary to increase the support in some way or continue to turn them away, which we should not have to do. The Delaware Association passed a resolution requesting the Convention to authorize a "Thank Offering" at Thanksgiving time for the Orphanage. Your committee can see nothing but good to come from such a custom, and hopes the Convention will authorize such an effort for our Orphans' Home.

In concluding this report your committee could press against your hearts these institutions. They represent we believe, in their work, the genius and spirit of Jesus. If we close these springs the verdant fields of our spiritual growth will wither and cease to flourish. If these be widely opened, they will irrigate these arid hearts of ours. The reflex will be more for home support, more for state evangelism, more for Christian Education, and morde for Missions to the end of the earth.

Respectfully submitted,
COMMITTEE ON BENEVOLENCE.
R. J. BATEMAN.

TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE

The front page of the average newspaper today condemns us and our boasted civilization. This page reveals the base and wicked activities of the underworld, discloses untimely and defiant reigns of iniquity in places high up, and records an all but engulfing wave of crime sweeping our borders. The ever-present and recurrent notices of tradegies wrought by organized wickedness, notices of crime wrought by the vicious plunderings of agents of justice, and notices of vice wrought by the brutal philanderings of moral parasites evidence in thundering tones the mighty moral break-down now going on. Present-day outlawry surely importunes an awakening for Oklahoma Baptists and for all Christendom.

Facing these affronts to justice, we are led to inquire, "Is our trouble today due to the presence of poor laws or due to the operation of bad people, called upon to enforce good laws? What is the matter, anyway?" The lawless would say that our trouble grows out of ur attempts to operate poor laws. The informed, however, know that much of the blame for our crime ave must be laid at the feet of crooked agents of law and a disinterested populace.

Laws created for the purpose of effecting and preserving justice are not in and themselves bad. The Eighteenth Amendment is a product of years and years of heart-energy and mind-energy expended in an effort to bring into existence an instrument for the protection of mothers, helpless babes, and immature youth against the diabolical influences of liquor and liquor forces. This instrument is unique and obviously one of the greatest of ts kind ever struck off by the pen of man. The thoughtful will agree that the Eighteenth Amendment is needed. Our present offenses grow out of the failure of officers of law, whether police, sheriff, judge or otherwise, to enforce the Eighteenth Amendment.

Now, since penal laws represent honest attempts on the part of our people to protect society against the depredations of moral leeches and social oulaws, since the Eighteenth Amendment was written to safeguard the hearts and the homes of the American people and to further happiness, sobriety, prosperity, and civic righteousness in our land, and since our churches, denominational organizations, and Christian agences best qualify to further a program of resistance against the unholy tides of our day, we, your committee recommend:

(1) That we urge the messengers of this convention to return to the several churches and encourage home folk to demand law enforcement, to stand unwaveringly for the operation of justice, and to apply disciplinary measures when members themselves become offenders.

(2) That we urge our pastors to lend added effort to the propagation of facts bearing upon the spread and the hazard of present-day law-violation.

(3) That we go on record as being unalterably opposed to change being made in the Eighteenth Amendment except such be to add to it.

(4) That we pledge our allegiance to any and all forces of righteousness, whether political, civic or otherwise, which set themselves to the task of breaking down the power and the influence of the "wet" forces of America.

(5) That we register our belief in the necessity of political parties as such, but condemn any and all tendencies to substitute "partisanism" for the principles of the Prince of Peace.

(6) That we extol party leaders, judges, and all agents of law-enforcement whose integrity is beyond reproach, and whose conscience and courage can be depended upon to enforce the laws of our government.

(7) That we cry out and spare not against the self-interested demagogue, the spineless agent of law-enforcement, and the ease-loving and self-seeking judge of the bench, who betray the interest of our hearts, and our homes, and our communities into the hands of moral reprobates, and thus deprive our children of the environment they deserve in Christ's name.

W. LEE RECTOR, Chairman, HARVIE L. JONES, P. J. CONKWRIGHT.

OKLAHOMA BAPTIST UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION REPORT

From the standpoint of administration, the session of 1929-30 was quiet and peaceful. After the state convention met in November, 1929, it was known that the Board of Trustees of Oklahoma Baptist University were seeking a new president. Notwithstanding this, the incumbent president continued to function faithfully until the last day of his administration, May 31, 1930.

On June 1, 1930, Dr. R. E. Crump, who had been elected acting President by the Board of Trustees, took charge of the university and conducted a very successful summer session. The college administration co-operated with Dr. J. B. Rounds in conducting the June campaign in which something like $20,000.00 was raised in cash and pledges for O.B.U. This is the largest amount ever received from a June campaign. During and following the June campaign, strong efforts were made to advertise the university and to secure a large enrollment for the 1930-31 session. In the face of the greatest financial depressino seen in many years and in spite of the largest drouth for years, the enrollment has been boosted to well over 400. Our enrollment to date is almost exactly 15% below that of last year. If we can secure a goodly number of additional students for the second semester, our final enrollment figures for the year need not be much, if any, under those for last year.

After all, mere enrollment figures do not indicate success or failure. A small number of high quality students is more desirable than large numbers, if the latter contain many who are undesirable morally or intellectually. It is the opinion of the faculty that our students this year are of high quality.

There is, however, one aspect of a smaller enrollment that should not be overlooked. A smaller enrollment means a smaller income from tuition fees. Instead of a reduced income, we stand in need of a considerable increase. It behooves every sincere friend of O.B.U. to do what he can to increase attendance. We can handle a considerably larger number of students with but small increase of expenses. Since our overhead expenses remain practically constant, an increased enrollment amounts to an increase of net income.

In this connection it will be interesting to study the growth of O.B.U. in terms of enrollment figures for the fifteen years since its reopennig in 1915.

It is noteworthy that there has been a fairly and rapid increase up to 1928-29 which year was our banner year for attendance. The past school year 1929-30 we suffered a decrease over the preceding year of 226. This was 18% of the 1928-29 enrollment. The enrollment for the present year 1930-31 shows a small decrease as compared to last year, but we may be able to overcome this by an increased enrollment for the second semester and for the summer session.

All organizations of the university are functioning in a commendable manner. The Ministerial Alliance under the able sponsorship of Dr. L. T. Wallace has done a fine work during the past year. A report of the activities is given herewith:

MESSAGE OF W M. U. PRESIDENT, MRS. GEORGE McMILLAN "Come, Women, Wide Proclaim"

The response of women to the call of missions has ever been a ready and faithful one, from that far day when our pioneer mothers followed the simple method of the mite society to the present with its large and efficient organizations, of which the Woman's Missionary Union is a type.

A recent article on missions carried a description of a wonderful painting on display in an eastern city, which in a striking way showed the various methods by which, through the centuries, men have communicated with each other.

The scene was a lovely landscape in the foreground of which a storm was raging. In the midst of the torrents of rain beating down upon the earth was a man at work upon the wires of a telegraph pole, while another worked below held to his ear a receiver, that he might catch the first indication of restored connection. In the background of the painting was a phantom procession: a runner straining every nerve, a chariot with eager horses leaping at the driver's lash, a lone rider—the pony express of a century ago, the stagecoach and the fast mail train.

Certainly, to complete the picture and to set forh the results of science and invention, there should be added in the very foreground, the airplane and the radio.

Below the picture were these arresting words: "In all ages heroic men have defied hardships, dangers and obstacles of every kind in order that the message entrusted to them might be delivered to those for whom it was intended and who were waiting to receive it."

it was intended and who were waiting to receive it."

Then the writer calls to our minds how truly is this scene symbolic of the missionary enterprise, for all missionary history is but the story of heroic messengers who have delivered the message of the Gospel to those to whom they were sent, regardless of the dangers to be overcome on the way—a story of high adventure, of an infinite variety of methods, but a story of but one purpose—to get the message through.

As we read this record of achievement, our hearts are thrilled because down through the ages women have dared the dangers of the lonely road, not counting their lives dear unto themselves, that the message might reach those to whom it was sent.

In the vanguard of this long procession of the brave are our own Baptist mothers, whose memory is worthy of honor and whose example challenges emulation.

Because the needs of the kingdom are so overwhelmingly urgent, a clarion call comes to the forces of Christ today. It is the call of the unfinished task. Startling figures tell us of the millions of pagan lives yet untouched by the Gospel of Christ, and of those unnumbered thousands in our own land who have disregarded His message of love.

It is the call of the open door. Dr. Mott, who recently returned from a trip around the world, has said that the doors of opportunity for Christ are wide open. The barriers of age-old custom and prejudice are down. Faith and expectation on the part of Christians are all that are necessary for the evangelization of the world. But the call is of far deeper import when we remember that it is the voice of the World's Redeemer, who, in His great intercessory prayer, fervently asked "that the world may know that Thou hast sent me."

The call comes to you and me, who are stewards of His grace, to "wide proclaim life through the Savior slain;" this message must reach those to whom it was sent. How missionary in their content, and how perfectly do the words of the world's greatest poet fit into the teaching, that we are our brother's keeper:

"Heaven doth with us
As we with torches do—
Not light them for themselves.
For if our virtues
Did not go forth of us
"Twere all alike
As if we had them not."

How alive are we to the spiritual needs of the world? Are our hearts responsive to our sisters from many lands, these women of every race and color?

What contribution are we making that they too might know and adore our Lord? Are we concerned about the growing indifference that is manifest in the lives of Christians? Are our hearts stirred by the fact that during the past year over 13,000 Southern Baptist churches gave nothing to missions, and that 300 of this number are our own Oklahoma churches? Here in this young state where life should be buoyant and zeal unflagging, are we becoming self centered and complacent?

The need of the hour is for a great spiritual advance, a fresh enthusiasm to give Christ to the world. Such an advance calls for prepared service. Just as the runner and the pony express of pioneer days are relics of that early civilization, the demand is now for a more efficient means of broadcasting the message of life.

In the evening newspapers of last January 21st, a short Associated Press Dispatch told of a young radio engineer who, his arms twitching with shocks from electric current, literally spliced with his own body a broken length in the vast hookup and made it possible for listeners-in on fifty-nine American radio stations to hear King George of England speak.

Just before the King began his address, someone in the control room of the Columbia Broadcasting Company tripped over the wires to the generator which energizes the entire network. The young operator grasped the wires together in his hands to restore the circuit. Leakage of current shook his arms with spasms, but he held on without a break for twenty minutes until new wires could be connected. Few people, comparatively, heard of this deed of heroism, which was at once one of loyalty and preparedness; the important question was: "Did you hear the King speak."

A greater King, the King of Kings, speaks today. His message, the sweetest story ever told; but the circuit is broken. Who is ready to stand in the breach that the world may hear the King speak?

There is a wealth of undeveloped power in the life of every Christian woman which may be made serviceable to our Lord. As a guide to the development of this latent power, our Union offers the chief aims in the Plan of Work.

Through Prayer, Bible and Mission Study, through Personal Service and Stewardship shall come a deepened fellowship with God, a wider vision of the world need for Christ and a stronger consciousness of our privileges and responsibilities of telling the world of the Savior.

Also, we shall "come clasping children's hands" through Missionary

Education if our work have an abiding quality.

President Hoover recently said:

"We can give to the succeeding generation a vast equipment in plant and machinery, a great storeof knowledge of how to run it, and we can leave for their stimulation centuries of art and literature, but the world will march forward only as far as we give our children strength of body, integrity of character, training of mind and the inspiration of religion."

In this connection, it is not digressing to call your minds back to a

In this connection, it is not digressing to call your minds back to a day not far distant when one among us dreamed. And because "dreams grow fair when put in action," we have our House Beautiful at O. B. U. where our daughters are being trained to serve as messengers of the King. But, remember also that in the heart of our dreamer was a hope, a faith and a trust that her co-laborers would be loyal to the completion of the great task.

Then, let us with determined hearts carry on until the shackles of debt are removed from our Dormitory and it is free to fulfil lthe dream of use and beauty.

Dear missionary hearted women, we are in the supreme business of life, but we shall fail unless, underlying all preparation for the task, all loyalty, be the "love that never faileth." The psamist said: "I will run the way of Thy commandments when Thou shalt enlarge my heart."

Let this heart power move us to pray, work yet more that the message of life may reach those to whom it was sent and who are waiting to receive it.

Eternal God, whose power upholds
Both flower and flaming star,
To whom there is no here nor there,
No time, no near nor far,
No alien race, no foreign shore,
No child unsought, unknown,
Oh! send us forth, Thy prophets true,
To make all lands Thine own!

O God of love, whose spirit wakes
In every human breast,
Whom love, and love alone can know,
In whom all hearts find rest,
Help us to spread Thy gracious reign
Till greed and hate shall cease,
And kindness dwell in human hearts,
And all the earth find peace.

WORLD REACH OF OKLAHOMA W. M. U.

Twenty-five years ago, the Baptist women of Oklahoma began to pray, give and work together that His Kingdom might come. Paul loved to think of himself as a builder. We love to think of ourselves as builders and of our work as a great palace on which we are building day by day. It has been said that the Egyptians of old wrote over the portals of their palaces, "we build like giants, we finish like jewelers," Certainly those pioneer builders who laid the foundations for Oklahoma W. M. U. did build like giants. They put stones into the foundation that will stand until the King comes to dwell in this palace. To those of us who have followed in their train what a joy it has been to build on such a foundation.

Today, I come to try to give an account of my stewardship in the service to which you called me ten years ago. In preparing this report, I have been much interested in going back over reports and statistics of each succeeding year to find that the progress along every line of our work has been remarkably uniform and regular. So we have gone forward step by step. In January, 1921, the records indicated that we had four hundred Women's Missionary Societies, 29 Y. W. A.'s, 14 G. A.'s, 3 R. A.'s and 204 Sunbeam Bands, a total of 640 Missionary Societies and about 1,000 Baptist churches. You will readily see that we were in the beginning of our task of enlistment. Since it is incumbent upon the Woman's Missionary Society to help lead our young people into paths of joyous responsibility and to train them for world-wide service, we placed the emphasis on the organizing of our young people. Hence it is a joy indeed to think of the young people gained through the many organizations and find them loyally and faithfully at work, many of them leaders in the missionary activities of their home church. Today we have 1,110 Societies among our young people and children—a gain of 860—Y. W. A.'s 226, G. A.'s 377, R. A.'s 207, Sunbeam Bands 300. With these our responsibility increases, for in these young people are the responsibilities of the future churches. We rejoice especially in the splendid increase of Royal Ambassador Chapters. God speed the day when every mother-society and every church shall realize the importance of missionary training for our boys

In this decade, the women have given scholarships for Christian training to eighteen splendid Oklahoma girls. They are now serving as W. M. U., Corresponding Secretaries, B. Y. P. U., State and Associational workers, pastors' wives, church secretaries, and two have gone as foreign missionaries.

We have 586 Women's Missionary Societies, a gain of 186 with 954 churches, leaving 368 churches without any kind of missionary organization. We have 1,110 Auxiliaries and 586 Woman Missionary Socities, making a total of missionary organizations of 1,696. Ten years ago, we had 640 Auxiliaries and W. M. S., therefore we have made a gain of 1,056 misionary organizations in the past ten years. We give thanks for these organizations which are in the most strategic places as to population, and realize that when other pastors and churches catch the worldwide vision in spirit and in truth, they, too, will recognize the absolute necessity of missionary training, not only for adults, but particularly for our young people if we are ta hasten the coming of the Kingdom .

We have gained in quality as well as quantity. Ten years ago, we reported 26 Societies attaining all points on the Standard of Excellence. Today we have 76 A-1, 63 making all points save one, and 42 making 7 points. The women have realized the great need of missionary information that they might give intelligently to the great missionary program. So year by year, their zeal for such information has grown. Mission Study is truly a foundation stone in our work and one upon which we can build with great certainty and we are not simply studying facts about Missions, but cultivating a fellowship with Jesus.

Our Union is not only interested in the lost of far away lands, but through personal service in our own communities, we try to let others see Jesus in us. Closely related to personal service is White Cross, that of helping to supply the needs of the Foreign Hospitals. These departments were practically new in 1921, but have grown with the years. Last year, we sent to Dr. Green of Ogbomoso, Nigeria, Africa, three thousand dollars to install electric lights and running water in their hospital. 176 Societies from 30 Associations contributed $974.11 in cash and $448.10 in supplies this year.

In this decade, nine of the Districts have been organized and each year have held their annual meetings for the inspiration and information which they give to hundreds of women who cannot attend the general meetings. The districts were organized some years before, but in connection with the Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. Departments which proved to be impractical, hence all save one, Northeastern, passed into inactivity. Great progress in our work has been made through the organized district and much praise is due the splendid Presidents for their faithfulness in carrying on. We would not fail to mention the splendid House Parties which are the Y. W. A. units of the District.

In Associations, we have decreased in number from forty-six to thirty-six—thirty-one white and five Indian. In so doing, we have increased in efficiency. The emphasis being placed on the quarterly rally. Such meetings afford the best opportunity for the leaders to know their women and for mutual help to be given. Ten years ago, only three Associations had their Rally meetings. This year, only three of them did NOT have their meetings and we have a number of well-organized Associational Y. W. A. units, also Royal Ambassador Conclaves. Others are looking with interest toward such organizations among their young people.

The women of Oklahoma have a unique way of clothing the children in our Orphans Home. A Society adopts a child to clothe and twice each year the measurements of the child with a list of needs is sent to the Society. Pretty soon the children receive lovely boxes of clothes made to fit. Ten years ago, there were 76 children in the Home clothed in this way. Today the Home has grown until we have 180, and always you will find a Society waiting to adopt one of the children. Total gifts to the Home above any pledge made in 1921 was $8,600.00. During the years as the Home has grown and opportunity has been given, our love increased and thus the gifts in our report this year are $7,535.41 for food, including chickens, eggs, fruit, etc., and for clothes and linens $8,315.80, making a total of $15.851.21, above the co-operative program.

It has been a joy for Woman's Missionary Union to cooperate with the Baptist General Convention in its every program. Thus we feel that in our small way we have had a worthy part in every phase of the work. In 1921, our gifts to all causes totalled $56,425. 1928 celebrating the fortieth birthday of W. M. U. of the South was our greatest year in many respects. Special gifts plus our gifts to the cooperative program amounted to $154,115

—a red letter year for Oklahoma W. M. U.

Steadily have we increased our gifts as we observed the special seasons of prayer to the Christmas offering from $1,400 to $8,040; Thank Offering for Home Missions from $800 to $3,432; State Missions from $242 to $1,134.56; total gifts this year to all causes $93,802.26.

The supreme financial task during the past three years has been the securing of funds to build the Memorial Dormitory at O. B. U. This building stands out in bold relief among the group of University buildings. It was completed at a cost of $175,000.00, four htousand dollars less than the contract price. We have placed $17,000 worth o ffurniture in the building, making a total cost of $192,000.00. We owe $80,000.00, ten thousand dollars of which is due December 15. In this undertaking we have received only three gifts from individuals that exceed $500.00. We lift our hearts in thankfulness to our Heavenly Father for the success attending our efforts, but most of all are we grateful for the lessons learned from experience.

Our sympathies have been quickened, our love has been strengthened, our faith made firmer, and our vision has been broadened until we can say from the depths of our hearts, "Let the whole earth be filled with

His glory."

BERTA K. SPOONER, Corresponding Sec'y-Treas.

THE WORLD REACH OF OKLAHOMA W. M. U.

The slogan "See America First" has gained such wide-spread publicity during recent years, that many Americans are actually acting upon its advice. Cars travel thousands of miles annually, simply for the joy and experience of seeing America. The sights that lure them would naturally einfluenced by the individuality of the traveler—whether he is more interested in the creations of God or the achievements of man.

With just this one remark recognizing the unsurpassable beauty and perfection of what God created, and our sincere belief in Him as the creator of all things, let us pass on to consider some of the human achievements of the past.

Here in Oklahoma, we do not make a habit of talking about our ancestors, but nevertheless we are all interested in them, and most of us have a certain pride in them. We are proud to feel the influence of the feats they accomplished, and to recognize them as preparing the way for much that we have today that is good.

To the pioneers—men, women, and children, we would acknowledge a debt of gratitude. If, in our efforts to "se eAmeriac first" we were to take time to go to visit one of the old fortresses of the east, we would be impressed all over again with the fact that our ancestor sactually suffered in order that we might have prosperity. They had absolutely nothing that would make life comfortable. The most ordinary household articles of today were either unknown or cut by hand with great difficulty out of wood. A nail or a saw did not exist, and instead of going into a warm room and turning on an electric light, they went into a sparsely furnished room and lighted a candle that they had made for themselves with their own hands. At night, tired out by hard, hard work they did not lie down to rest on comfortable beds, sure of protection from enemies, as we do. Their beds were made of rough wood, and for slats they had small limbs of trees (frequently crooked) and over these, instead of a thick mattress, and springs, they placed some covers that they had woven for themselves—and while they slept they had no assurance that they would not be attacked by treacherous enemies. With them, when they saw that difficult work was absolutely necessary, they did it, regardless of the strain or hardships. Their courage was unfaltering—and they achieved little for themselves, in spite of all the work. It was their children, and their children's children who reaped the benefit of our fearless and peerless ancestors.

It is a conspicuous fact that great care was given in the training of their children. Though the days were crowded and the nights perilous, they realized the supreme importance of teaching their boys and girls the right code of living and the right attitude toward God and their fellow man. It is significant that they never neglected this important task, regardless of circumstances.

Many things that we learned from them we use today, the often unconsciously. We pride ourselves that we are courageous, that they would not be ashamed of us along that score. We would deny that we are afraid to undertake a difficult task, and no one would dare to call us "quitters." So, knowing that we have the same courage that they had, and the same God that they had, we know that we can undertake a difficult task and succeed.

The greatest task before us is world-evangelization—and we owe it to our God to undertake it with courage and determination. As women, we can study and give and pray and win souls, and we glory in doing it. It is in so doing that we walk hand in hand with God, and are actually conscious of His fellowship, and approval. But in such a very few years, our time of service will be over, and then to whom shall we leave the heritage that has meant so much to us?

Passing by schools and through the streets, it seems as though this world is full to overflowing with young people. The eyes of the world are on them more than ever before in history. Youth and education, youth and athlettes, youth and crime, youth and religion—always we hear and read and talk about the young people of the world. We find varied opinions as to the results of their freedom—some are optimistic and others are pessimistic. Those of us who love them and love Jesus Christ, pray for them and believe in them and make plans to help them on to manhood and womanhood worthy of the name of Christian.

The one outstanding characteristic of the W. M. U. is its consciousness of our duty to evangelize the world. Closely linked with that is a love for the young people, and a protecting, loving arm thrown around them to gently lead them in the path of service. No one would question the fact that the responsibility is frequently difficult, and that it seems almost impossible at times to find leaders. On the other hand, no one would accuse God of creating a need and then not supplying a worker to Somewhere, in every church, is the woman or man who is carry on! capable of leading the young people in a missionary organization. your church is in need of leaders, why no thave an all-day prayer meeting. and plead for the leadership of the Holy Spirit in the selection of your leaders? If He guides in the selection, and if He impresses someone to accept, then it will be true that the right leader has been selected. Let us beware of using our own judgment too much, and let us wait upon the Holy Spirit to guide.

The Oklahoma W. M. U., through fellowship with God, has been able to make splendid records during the last 25 years. From a small beginning, we have grown until our influence is felt practically all over this state. That does not indicate that there is no more need for pioneering in Oklahoma, for there are whole counties in this state with practically no missionary organizations at all. But if we have done so much in the last 25 years, only God knows what fields may be open to us in the next 25! And it is our privilege to pray most humbly that we may always follow the way He leads, and keep ourselves (as individuals) in the background.

Much attention is being paid in our state to developing our young people through the missionary organizations, but we have a great untouched field still ahead of us. We are justly proud of the 1110 young people's organizations, an increase of 109 during the past year. That is a little better than a ten per cent increase, and this year we hope to do far better than that. We say we are proud of them—and we are, but how can we explain that we have only 1110 auxiliaries in 954 churches? Is it because of a lack of children? Is it due to lack of leaders, or interest? Whatever the reason that we do not have more, God will remove, because we know that He would not have told us to train up a child in the way he should go unless He was willing to guide and help.

We would plead for higher ideals in our organizations—more Standards of Excellence in evidence, and more A-1 Societies. Surely if it is true that "whatever is worth doing at all is worth doing well," there is no excuse for not having the auxiliaries for our boys and girls as nearly perfect as possible. Their ambitions will follow the influence of their leaders—so again we feel the need of leaning on the Holy Spirit.

Sometimes the question of how to best serve comes into our minds. We want to win souls, we want to help the missionaries, we want to help our church—and the days are not long enough—there aren't enough years in our lives for it. So, if it seems impossible to accomplish all the love of Jesus impels us to want to accomplish, no finer workman could be found to succeed where we will fail through lack of means or ability or time than the swarming young people who are tossing about so restlessly, waiting for the future to open for some kind of activity.

They are here, these boys and girls. They were sent by God—and He sent the women of Oklahoma on ahead of them to gain experience that would enable us to lead and help them. He is depending on us! The plea of your young people's leader today is that there will be a missionary organization in your church for every boy and girl there, from the Sunbeams straight on through the Y. W. A.'s. If they don't have these societies, WHERE will they get the missionary training so necessary if we are to win the world to Jesus? And if you do have such training for them, don't you know the Savior will know and say "Well done."

EVA R. INLOW,

Oklahoma Young People's Leader.

REPORT OF W. M. U. TRAINING SCHOOL AT LOUISVILLE. KY.

In reviewing the history of the past few years of "House Beauitful" we find that this year our prospects are brighter for a greater and more successful year than in the past. In spite of the financial depression that is keenly felt all over our country we have enrolled this year almost as many students as at any time during the history of our school. We now have 31 day students and 77 boarding students, making a total of 108 at present. There are 17 states and 2 foreign countries represented. More than half of these are college graduates. Our acting principal, Miss Little-john, writes that they are indede proud of the two fine girls sent by Oklahoma, namely: Miss Mattie Bland of Jenks, scholarship furnished by Delaware Association, and Miss Cleopal Evans of Oklahoma City, scholarship furnished by Central District.

A KINGDOM INVESTMENT

"Where is the kingdom? asked the pompous priest, Weighted with lore and spent with fast and feast; The lowly Christ on his pretensions smiled And simply said: In the heart of a child,"

Long centuries ago the mothers of Galilee brought their children to Jesus that he might lay his hands in blessing upon them. The disciples disapproved but Jesus said: "Let the children alone, do not stop them from coming to me for the kingdom of God is with "such as these."

"He put his arms about them and blessed them," as if to say: "See these who are nearest the heart of the King of heaven." "Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, "That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven."

God has chosen his highest angels, those nearest His presence, to be special sponsors for the children. If God places such great value upon them, then we also should esteem them highly.

Children are the special objects of divine solocitude; they too have their share in the privileges of the kingdom.

Christ's attitude toward children emphasises the tremendous responsibility of parents and society in the proper training of them! since the fuure work of bringing in the kingdom lies with the children of today. Of the agencies in training the children there abide these three—the school; the church; the home; the greatest of these is the home, where hrough a genial and religious atmosphere, they may be reared in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, thereby, better fitted for development in the service of the church. The supreme value of childhood, its spirit, possibilities and needs reveal our responsibilities and imposes a sacred duty upon us. Childhood's rights are to be well born, to enter into a heritage of physical, mental and spiritual attainments, the right to an education, he chance to find his or her place and fill same to the best of their ability.

The child has a right to moral and spiritual growth, for, "of such is"

-"to such belongeth" the kingdom of heaven.

"Jesus said unto them: "Whosoever shall receive this child in my name, receiveth me; and whosoever shall receive me, recivth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great."

Twenty-five years ago this November, our Woman's Missionary Union opened the doors of the Margaret Home in cheerful loving welcome to receive our missionaries and their children. Fifteen years ago the home was sold. The amount invested and the first scholarship under the Margaret Fund was granted.

"Let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us; establish Thou the work of our hands." Our Women's Missionary Union has performed with consecrated hands many sacred duties in the name of the Lord our God, preceded by the light of faith, guarded by hopeand love, but one outstanding and far-reaching in its influence is the investment of our money in the education of the children of our beloved missionaries, who are willing to sever the home ties the companionship of their children, "that the world may know" the "glad tidings" of God's redeeming love."

Our Missionary Union not only invests our money in these young lives, but also throws around them her arms of "motherly" love, protection and prayers that they may be better trained for kingdom service. Many of these students are leaders in literary and religious life of their respective colleges and the dollars invested in their education will bring many rich returns. Perhaps no money invested in kingdom work will bring greater dividends than the money given through our Margaret Scholarship Fund, for a vast majority of these students find greatest joy and happiness in serving our King in countries that know not our Lord and Saviour, while many of them will become leaders in our denominational work in our home-land, teachers in our colleges and seminaries.

Some of our graduates have returned this summer to the mission fields to assist their parents in holding up the banner of Peace and Righteousness. As we "lift up" our eyes and look on the fields we see our beloved missionaries—the parents of our Margaret Fund students—enduring many hardships, waiting for financial aid and human assistance, realizing that—

"Many are lost in the darkness
With spirits whose sorrow o'erflows;
They know not of Christ or salvation,
Some one must tell them who knows.
Some one must tell them who knows
The mercy that Jesus bestows,
Oh, let the light shine
Tell the message divine.

Tell the message divine, For some one must tell them who knows."

Truly the dollars of the Margaret Scholarship Fund are a kingdom investment, and we rejoice to know that seventy-six have been beneficiaries this past year, and seventy scholarships were granted at the annual meeting for the session of 1930-31. Your trustee rejoices that this work is appealing more and more to the women of our own state, and that three students, Maribelle McCrea located in University of California, Arthur Elder, re-assigned, Eltham College, London, England, Herbert Pierce, Seminary Hill, Texas, Southwest Theological Seminary, Box 276, shall be our own this year to guard, guide, comfort and cheer by "motherly" love, gifts and prayers. The Margaret Fund Committee in annual session in New Orleans recommended: That certain pages in our Margaret Fund Book of Remembrance be dedicated to the Margarets of our Southland, who through a love gift themselves or by others in their honor link their names to our Margaret Fund. The minimum gift to enroll a name is to be $2.00; one dollar in honor of your Margaret and one dollar in honor of the Margaret Fund. The maximum gift limit as much as one whiches to give. Also at our annual meeting special recognition will be given the state which securues the largest enrollment of "Margarets" for our beautiful Book of Remembrance. Many are honoring the memories of "Margarets" of their friends and relatives, who have joined the saints invisible, and rejoice to enroll their precious names, and again have these names live in W. M. U. activities for a cause that is so laden with great possibilities for our King. Our Margaret Fund demands grow greater, and may the expansion of the cause be met with greater interest, larger gifts, more publicity and more earnest prayers. May our slogan be—every society a contributor to the Margaret Fund work. May our own state rejoice in enrolling the largest numbers of Margarets in this beautiful Book of Remembrance, that this kingdom investment may continue to bring dividends for our Lord and Master.

"Many the names, the souls, the faces dear, Of Margarets to enroll in the Book this year; With souls as tender as the sunset sky, With lofty dreams in days gone by; Enroll these names—the love gifts bestow In this kingdom investment—
"That the world may know."

MRS. D. H. BELL, Margaret Fund Trustee.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE BOARD

Standing at the portal of another year may we hear the words of our Father bidding us walk on in Faith, leaning upon his promises, believing that step by step our Lor dis leading onward.

The first regular meeting of the Executive Board of the W. M. U. of Oklahoma, was held in the Assembly room of the Baptist Building in Oklahoma City on Wednesday, Feb. 19th, 1930.

The regular quarterly reports were presented and adopted.

Mrs. Spooner announced $3,400.00 as the goal for the Home Mission Offering during the week of prayer in March, to be used for the Indian work in our own state.

In regard to the $50.00 which our women accepted in the Board meeting preceding the Annual meeting as their pro rata share toword paying the treveling expenses of Miss Lila Watson of Shanghai, Mrs. Spooner reported having received a letter from Miss Watson expressing her appreciation for this gift.

Mrs, J. W. Hollums, Associational President of Pawnee-Creek Association, presented from the women of her association the large likeness of Mrs. Spooner which now hangs in the Spooner Hall of the Memorial Dormitory at Shawnee.

Upon motion by Mrs. J. E. Kirk it was voted that the Executive Board thank the women of Pawnee-Creek Association for this excellent likeness of our beloved Corresponding Secretary-Treasurer who has led us in this great task of building a home for the girls at O. B. U.

We had with us in this meeting Miss Hundley, missionary to China, who has been connected with the Eliza Yates school at Shanghai, who brought us a message on the needs of China.

After the report of the Dormitory Chairman, Miss Nichols, a motion prevailed that we make as our goal for this year the amount of $30,000.00 and that we adopt the weekly gathering in of funds, at least the monthly payment to W. M. U. headquarters of funds so gathered.

In her report as Margaret Fund chairman, Mrs. D. H. Bell reported $40.50 as the amount given to this cause since May 1929, reporting also that we have only two children this year since Paul Marriott is still in China.

In presenting her report as Training School Trustee, Mrs. J. E. Kirk told of one room in House Beautiful having been dedicated as the Lottie Moon prayer room, out of which came more than a thousand dollars for the Christmas offering. Two of the Training School girls have been appointed to foreign work, one to India and one to China, being sent out by the Foreign Mission Board of the Northern Baptist Convention. Mrs. Kirk also spoke of the opening of the James Memorial Training School at Bucharest, Roumania, which opened January 6th with 13 girls. A very interesting letter from Miss Earl Hester, Dean of the School, was read.

Our Corresponding Secretary spoke of the District meetings and after discussion it was voted that the matter of setting the dates for these meetings be left in the hands of the Corresponding Secretary and that the meetings begin in April this year.

Mrs. King, President of North Central District, moved that we use the Plan of Work as outlined by the W. M. U. of the South for the program in the District Meetings. Carried.

The President stated that the W. M. U. of the South recommends that the book "Why and How of W. M. U." be used in place of the W. M. U. Manual.

The second meeting was held on September 4th, 1930.

In this meeting the regular quarterly reports were presented and adopted. After the presentation of Mrs. Spooner's report on the Dormitory Miss Daisy Nichols spoke to this report and then after discussion Miss Nichols moved that the chair appoint a committee to visit certain gentlemen who have made money and ask for a contribution for the dormitory.

Motion by Mrs. Ballard prevailed to pay Mr. Scott, the contractor, $3,500.00 at once and trust the Lord that the rest may come in.

Mrs. D. H. Bell presented her report as Margaret Fund Trustee, reporting $95.24 cash receipts.

Mrs. J. E. Kirk presented her report as Trustee for the W. M. U. Training School at Louisville. Only two girls are going this year: Cleopal Evans of Oklahoma City, scholarship furnished by Central District, and Mattie Bland of Jenks, scholarship furnished by Delaware Association.

Mrs. Spooner reported that Charley Mae Anderson may go to the Training School at Southwestern Seminary, Ft. Worth, this scholarship to be furnished by North Central District.

Mrs. McMillan stated that the portrait of Miss Lottie Moon, painted by a converted Russian Jew and presented to the women of Texas, had been presented by them to the W. M. U. of the South to be placed in the W. M. U. Training School at Louisville in the Lottie Moon Prayer Room. Miss Lottie Moon's desk, which had been bought by Mr. Daniel and given to his bride, had been brought from China and presented to the W. M. U. for this prayer room, as well as her chair. This desk is made of wood that had been floated down from Manchuria, painted with pigs blood and carved by hand.

Mrs. Spooner, who is the newly appointed Southwestern Training School trustee, spoke of the need of gifts for the nursery at the Southwestern Seminary.

Mrs Kirk spoke of receiving a letter from Miss Hester who is now getting ready to open the W. M. U. Training School in Bucharest, Roumania, and hopes to have forty girls, this increase in student body is due to an appropriation made by the W. M. U. Convention at New Orleans for the maintenance of this school.

Mrs. McMillan announced that the fund for the Chair of Missions at B. B. I. amounted to $5,100.00 ,Oklahoma being fourth in gifts with $375.00.

Mrs. McMillan also made the announcement that we are requested by the W. M. U. of the South to ask every local society to hold, sometime during the year, a program on law enforcement and temperance and ask every Baptist woman to attend.

Our Corresponding Secretary spoke of the registration work done at the Annual meeting of the South by Mrs. W. A. Everett of Tulsa. Thanks for the faithful service rendered were expressed by the Board to Mrs. Everett.

Motion by Mrs. Knoblock prevailed that this body send a msesage of condolence to Mrs. P. B. Lowrance of Ponca City, formerly a member of this board, expressing our sympathy in her bereavement.

Mrs. McMillan announced the committee on the Dormitory matter as follows: Miss Nichols, Mrs. Spooner and Mrs. Merrill.

In the meeting preceding the annual meeting it was voted to dispense with the reading of the statistical reports of the Corresponding Secretary-Treasurer, since they will be incorporated in the report of the Annual meeting. The reports of Chairmen of Departments were presented and adopted.

Motion prevailed that we make some provision for hearing reports in the Board meeting from the associational presidents. The President appointed on this committee: Mrs. Denton and Mrs. Spooner.

In making a report on the Dormitory Mrs. Spooner stated that she must have in the office by December 1st the amount of $9,000.00 and then January 1st there will be due $3,500.00, which will be the final payment of the amount which we owe Mr. Scott, the contractor.

Upon motion by Mrs. Brower, it was voted that we ask 200 churches to furnish 10 women from each church who will be responsible for $5.00 each, to be paid in by December 1st.

Motion by Miss Inlow prevailed that the chair appoint five persons to be 3 minute speakers in the five sessions of the annual meeting.

Upon motion by Mrs. Denton it was voted that an offering for the Memorial Dormitory be taken in the annual meeting.

The Board voted to remember those who are ill and absent from this session.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS, C. A. RICHARDS, Rec. Sec'y.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RECOMMENDATIONS

Recognizing the truth of the slogan "In union there is strength," we recommend that our state follow and cooperate with the plans laid out by the W. M. U. auxiliary to the Southern Baptsit Convention, we submit the following recommendations:

I. PLAN OF WORK

That we follow in all essentials the plan of work as published in the 1930 year book of the Southern W. M. U.

Watchword-"That the world may know"-John 17:23.

Hymn-"Joy to the World."

Personal Service _____1086

That each Socity adopt the circle plan as the most efficient means of enlistment and development

That three seasons of prayer be observed by each Society,—one each for Foreign, Home and State Missions.

That special emphasis be placed on the study of Stewardship and the giving of the tithe.

That our sincere attention be given to a study of the need of Christian education.

That the payment of our Dormitory indebtedness be a definite and important part of our plan of work

II. MORAL STANDARDS.

We declare ourselves on the side of all the forces of righteousness; international and interracial justice; world peace; law observance; Christian Americanization and education; Sabbath observanve; sacredness of the home; the family altar, child welfare and public health.

III. PRAYER.

That we urge the establishment and maintenance of family altars, and use regularly of the Calendar of Prayer as given in Royal Service.

That we lose no opportunity to have prayer meetings in homes, hospitals, or any other place where we can thus glorify the name of God.

That we do not fail to throw our influence toward having helpful and instructive weeks of prayer for Foreign, Home and State Missions.

That we definitely hunt and study the missionary messages in the Bible.

That there be two missions study classes each year in each Society one for Home Missions and one for Foreign Missions.

That the missionary programs shall be conducted according to the plan in Royal Service, the Window and World Comrades.

That the members of the Societies be urged to read Home and Foreign Fields and The Messenger.

That we encourage the observance of Church Schools of Missions. That we emphasize the study of our own Bible Study Course, "The ingdom Bible Study Course" using books recommended by the Eexecutive Committee.

V. PERSONAL SERVICE.

That we stress Soul-winning and Enlistment as a great part of our Personal Service work.

That we stress the organization of Y. W. A.'s, R. A.'s, G. A.'s, and Sunbeams as never before.

That we strive to live the Christ-like life, rendering service to those in any sort of spiritual or physical need.

VI. FIELD WORK.

That Associations desiring the service of the Field worker shall send in requests to the state office at least three weeks before she is wanted.

That the Associational President plan a schedule whereby the Field Worker may reach all Societies of each Association while she is in that particular territory with the least traveling expense.

That the Associational Young People's Leader help i norganizing Y.

W. A.'s and that a quarterly rally be held in each Association.

VII. MISSION OFFERINGS.

That we sympathize with the great need of the Foreign Mission Board, and that we urge that special emphasis be placed on the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering, and that we enlist all women and young people in giving to this offering.

VIII. WHITE CROSS—ORPHANS HOME.

That we realize more fully the opportunity of real service in helping the White Cross work and that we cooperate with our State Chairman in every way.

İX. :ORPHANS HOME:

That we always continue to remember our Home and the children as we have done in the past.

X. MEORIAL DORMITORY.

Since our women have wrought so well thus far in the building of this beautiful and spacious dormitory we urge that we will use our greatest efforts to complete the payment of our indebtedness.

That we realize that money expended in furnishing a place where girls may be able to receive religious training is money spent for real missions.

MRS. O. K. WEBB
MRS. E. M. EDWARDS
MRS. W. C. BAKER.

REPORT OF OBITUARY COMMITTEE

1 Samuel 15:17 "Number now and see who is gone from us"

It is but fitting that we pause and pay loving tribute to those of our ranks who have during the past year gone on to their reward. "They are no really gone, those dear hearts and true, they are only gone into the next room." (Thackary) What Belfrage says of John is true of the departure of every believer. It is not like the evening star sinking into the darkness of night, but like the morning star lost to our view in the brightness of the day.

The life and immortality laid up in store for God's people are not of earth. Death is their path to life. Mortality, cloud darkened and stormy, was only the vestibule of their glorious immortality. With what feelings should we who survive these, our sisters in Chrsit, resign them to their home on high? We grieve because we have not their splendid fellowship as individuals. We regret their going from the Churches because the churches will henceforth lack their labors,

We who remain should so live that when we die Christians shall have reason to lament our going. How humiliating a thing to die unmissed and unmourned by Zion.

We should increase our efforts and fill up the void left by our departed sisters—be busier and more untiring in our service. We should pray God to raise up others to take the places made vacant by those who have gone "into the next room,"

MRS. JOHN T. DANIEL, Sayre, Chairman MRS. J. B. McCLURE, Norman MRS. J. M. ROBARDS, Miami

WIDENING OUR HORIZON

Systematic missionary education was originated in America in 1894. Mission study classes were introduced for the first time among Southern Baptist women in 1907, and from then until now the study has grown by leaps and bounds. Have we as Christians grown along with our study? Has our mental vision widened until our prayers, our interest and our gifts enrich the whole wide world? If not, then why not? In this busy world today there is no room for any undertaking among Christian women that does not contribute to progress and permanent value to all concerned and to the entire world. Have you studied Missions that you might have a world vision? To secure this world vision is the supreme duty of every follower of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Jesus says the hope of the world is tied up in Christians' interpretations of him. Christians on the job. Have you prepared yourself for this job? Every Christian should be conversant with the missionary work of Christ that they may comprehend the missionary obligation laid upon His followers. Today we need that missionary knowledge and missionary zeal and missionary enthusiasm and missionary prayer and missionary study and missionary earnestness and missionary enterprise shall possess all of Christ's people, to the end that Missions will be the moving power behind all church work, not merely ONE of the activities of the church.

We get our orders from the Bible in the words of Jesus: "Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations" (Matt. 28:19). "Ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judeau, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth." (Acts 1:8). When some narrow minded Christian says: "I do not believe in missions" tell them to read their orders. We are Christian soldiers and supposed to obey. We have studied our Bible, the greatest of all Mission study books, and have our orders, what next?

Had you realized that one's horizon is circular? No beginning or end designated? No limit set? Applied to Mission Study it would surely mean study the whole round world, or let Mission Study take you around the world, which it can certainly do in a most delightful way. How thrilled we are when some one talks of a trip around the world and how we listen entranced as they tell us about it an dshow us the wonderful views they have obtained. In our study book today we can go around the world and visit every nation, know their history and their needs, religiously, industrially, socially and politically. We must study other nations from their own view point as much as possible. We must study them in the light of their dangers also, thinking in this respect of the results of atheism in Japan and Mexico, and over the dangers to the Chinese arising from the breaking up of their social organization and so forth.

To the less privileged nations we owe a distinct obligation because of our superior advantages. We should ever be mindful of the fact, which Israel overlooked, that God has chosen us and blessed us because of his love for other races. (Romans 1:16). We should study other races in the light of the lives of and achievements of the highest type which those races have produced. We should study all the peoples of the earth as being object of the same care and solicitude of the Heavenly Father as we ourselves are. We complacently sing of lands

"Where every prospect pleases and only man is vile" and with equal

calmness ask ourselves

"Shall we whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high
Shall we, to men benighted,
The lamp of life deny?"

The spirit of patronage toward people of other races or classes is not infrequent here and is very hurtful. Mission Study helps one to be a true internationalist in spirit. It is the supreme unslefish undertaking of the world today. It pushes back the horizon of prayer. It evokes a more loyal attachment to the church as God's chief agent for the spread of His Kingdom.

"'I am the Mission Study class. Since the time of my birth I have helped others. I was born of the craving for wider knowledge, more efficient work and deeper spirituality. My footprints are found in many churches. I am often in some homes. I even enter colleges. I am glad when I mingle with the members of the Young People's societies, for I help them to reach the highest standard of efficiency. I delight in the company of the Young Woman's Auxiliary. I serve at men's clubs and help them to know world affairs. I pass wonderful hours in conversation with the women of the W. M. S. I dispel ignorance, remove prejudice, overcome indifference and arouse interest. I encourage benevolence. I increase and vitalize prayer. I develop strong, active Christia ncharacter and provide missionaries. I present for study a literature which excells "in truth, in pathos, in dignity, in simplicity, in its contribution to scientific research, n its direct bearing on great world problems." And yet there are some who say they have no time for me. I am of the "worthwhile" things and you should learn to "put first things first." I can be fused into the I will do you good." the church.

Jesus told his disciples to "look on the fields." How else can we "look" except thru Mission Study and our current magazines. Some one has said "If I might control the literature of the household, I would guarantee the well being of church and state." If our Christian people would spend much time and thought on Mission Study text books, with the research in history and biography and geography that is necessary to make such a study complete, you would be amazed at the widening of their mental vision and the opening of their hearts and purses. A new era of Christian thinking would begin that would mean more for the world than we had fondly hoped from the League of Nations and will mean more for the safety of our country than all the navies we could create.

STEWARDSHIP REPORT

We have come to end of a year of joyous service. Handicapped by our inexperience, part of this year was spent in blind groping for our bearings, until our Southwide Stewardship Chairman, Mrs. Martin, sent us a chart "The Stewardship Chairman" which clearly defines the duties of Local, Association, District and State Chairman. This leaflet was sent on to District and Associational Chairmen and that part pertaining to the duties of the Local Chairman was published in the Baptist Messenger of September 30th, along with some suggestions from your State Chairman.

One of the most disappointing features of the work had been the poor response to our appeals for reports of the work that I feel sure has been done by the Chairmen all along the line. Dear sisters, when we fail to give to others the inspiration of a good report have we been altogether faithful stewards of the responsibilities entrusted to us? Have we used our office well? May we this day resolve not only to inform and enlist our group in Stewardship, but to report the results to those to whom reports are due.

In regard to Stewardship Education, Mrs. Martin says, "To put the promotion of Stewardship on an educational basis is to take the long look. Jesus spent a great deal of time helping his disciples to know God's will—instructing them. The members of W. M. U. must know the wil lof God, share his view, His vision, His purposes in order that they may work according to His plan and use his means according to his methods. Every Society should work out a well-founded graded program of Stewardship education. To be really constructive an dprogressive such a program must cover a longer period than one year."

The Church School of Stewardship and Missions preferably just before the Every Member Canvas, is considered one of the ideal plans. The Tithing Story Contest and a Stewardship Poster Contest will enlist our young people and lead them to dedicate their powers and possessions to the Lord Jesus. If these stories are read at the prayer meeting or church hour and postrs are placed in prominent places on the platform or in the church building, their messages will reach all ages, both thru the ear and the eye.

Having learned of God's plan and our part in the carrying out of His plan, let us give ourselves, with all of our powers, our possessions, and our prayers, to be used of Him in a definite service that others may know Him.

STEWARDSHIP REPORT

"Stir me, oh, stir me hard, I care not how,
But stir my heart in passion for the world.
Stir me to give, to go, but most to pray
Stir till the blood red banner be unfurled
O'er lands that still in heathen darkness life,
O'er deserts where no cross is lifted high.
Stir me, oh, stir me, Lord, till all my heart

Is filled with strong compassion for these souls,

Till Thy compelling musts drive me to prayer, Till Thy constraining love reach to the poles

Far North and South in burning deep desire, Till East and West are caught in love's great fire.

Stir me, oh Lord, Thy heart was stirred

By loves intensest fire, Till Thou didst give

Thine only Son, Thy best beloved One,

E'en to the dreadful cross that I might live. Stir me to give myself so back to Thee

That Thou canst give Thyself again through me. Stir me, oh, stir me, Lord, for I can see Thy glorious

Triumph day begin to break,

The dawn already gilds the Eastern sky, Oh, church of Christ, awake, awake.

Oh, stir us, Lord, as heralds of that day The night is past, our King is on His way.
