47. E. V. Mashburn read a resolution regarding the Muskogee Hospital and moved its adoption. A rising vote followed with 398 for and none against. The resolution is as follows:

C. C. MORRIS

President of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma.

I, Secretary of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, do hereby certify that the foregoing resolution was duly passed by vote of 398 to 0 of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma in Convention assembled on November 15, 1933.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal of said Convention at Tulsa, Oklahoma, this 15th day of November, 1933.

JOHN T. DANIEL

Secretary of the Baptist General Convention
of the State of Oklahoma.

48. President announced the committee on nominations as follows: T. L. Holcomb, A. D. Muse, Lum Hall, Ernest Quick, J. E. Hampton.

49. W. O. Leach read the report on Religious Literature and moved its adoption.

W. O. Leach and Editor E. C. Routh spoke to the report after which it was adopted. The report is as follows:

REPORT ON RELIGIOUS LITERATURE

Religious Literature had its beginning with God in giving to man a Divine Revelation. The Bible, the revealed Word of God, is the fountain head from which all streams of religious literature flow. All religious literature that is worthy of the name has received its inspiration from the Bible. The Bible is to all religious books and religious literature what Christ was and is among men. Jesus Christ, God's own Son, is deity incarnate, the Word made flesh, and is the true source of inspiration for all Christian living. The Bible is God's written revelation, inspired by the Holy Spirit, and is the true source of inspiration from which all religious literature comes.

This report on religious literature, therefore, would lay first emphasis on the reading and study of the Bible, God's Holy Word. We would urge upon our people that they read and study more the Word of God. In the Bible we find the strongest reasons for this exhortation:

"Thy Word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path"—Psalms 119:105.

"For the commandment is a lamp; and the law is light; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life."—Proverbs 6:23.

"Thou through thy commandments hast made me wiser than mine enemies; for they are ever with me."

"I have more understanding than all my teachers; for thy testimonies are my meditation."

"I understand more than the ancients, because I kept thy precepts."—Psalms 119:98-100.

We believe that the Bible should have a wider use than it now has, both in individual and church life. We, therefore, urge that more time be given to the study and the use of God's Word.

Religious Literature Other Than the Bible

But there is religious literature other than the Bible which deserves a larger use by Christian people than that which it usually receives. We refer particularly to the many good religious books. Many of these books should be found in the homes of our people and should find a more generous use than what they now have. Books on devotional life, books on Bible Study, books on Baptist doctrine and denominational life, if placed in our homes within reach of our boys and girls might produce a better generation of Baptists in days ahead than what we now have.

We wish to call attention, therefore, to three of our denominational agencies for furnishing religious literature to our people.

Our Baptist Book Store

We mention first our Baptist Book Store, Oklahoma City, Mr. H. Killingsworth, Manager. This Book Store is owned and operated jointly by the Baptist Sunday School Board, Nashville, and our Baptist General Convention. According to Mr. Killingsworth, the Book Store has lost money for the past two years but, beginning May 1st of this year overhead expenses have been reduced until losses have ceased. The business outlook is better for this year than last. The total sales of the Book Store for the past year, closing April 30th, amount to $27,910.35. This is much less than the greatest sales year of the Book Store but, nevertheless, makes a fair showing of business. The net loss of our Book Store for the past year was $4,489.53. Much of this loss was due to bad accounts. It should be stated further that none of this loss comes from the funds of the Convention but was taken from the Book Store's surplus which has accumulated during the more prosperous years. To quote Mr. Killingsworth's own words: "The great difficulty of the Book Store is in the matter of collection of accounts. If all the past due accounts were paid, the Book Store would be in fine financial condition." We suggest that much of the financial burden and worry of the management of the Store could be relieved, and should be, by individuals and churches who have accounts with the Store. Why not make these accounts one of the preferred items and plan to take care of this matter at the earliest time possible?

Baptist Sunday School Board

Our own Baptist Sunday School Board of Nashville continues to render a great service in our State and throughout the Southland. Its many field workers give much time and effort to our local church work and to our denominational cause throughout the South with little or no financial cost either to the Church or the denomination. Besides this, the Sunday School Board makes other large contributions each year to different departments of our denominational work. Salaries in our teaching and training departments in state work are freely and generously helped from the funds of the Sunday School Board.

We wish particularly to commend to our people the religious books and publications of the Sunday School Board. The Sunday School literature published by our Baptist Sunday School Board is unquestionably the best literature published for Baptist Sunday Schools. Its place in our Sunday School is not to displace the Word of God. It is a human production to be used as a help to the study of God's Word. Like all other human literature and human helps to the study of the Bible, it may sometimes contain errors in doctrinal statements, for nothing that man ever produced is perfect. But we insist that the literature published by our Sunday School Board is the freest from doctrinal errors of any literature to be found. We, therefore, commend its use in our Sunday Schools and Churches as a help to the study of God's Word.

The Baptist Messenger

The "Baptist Messenger" is our state denominational paper and is a particular concern of this report. For its existence we are responsible. We feel, therefore, that this report should especially deal with this publication.

About a decade ago, we came to a transition period in the life of the denominational paper. At that time, there came a conviction to many of our denominational leaders and pastors that the time had come when denominational papers should be owned by the denomination instead of individuals. That is to say many felt that our papers should pass from individual ownership and control to denominational. As a result of this, within a few years' time practically all of our denominational papers passed from individual ownership and control to ownership and control of the denomination.

We do not raise the question here as to whether such step was wise or unwise. We only deal with the facts with which we are now faced. We believe that the time has come when we face another transition period in the life of the denominational paper. As we see it, if the denomination is to own the paper, it should also control entirely its policies and direct its publication. We mean by this that the state denominational paper should not only be an official organ in name, but should actually become the official voice of the denomination. It is the conviction, therefore, of your committee that the publication of the "Baptist Messenger" should head up in the State Secretary's office and should be under the supervision and direction of the Secretary of the Convention on the same basis as the other departments of our work. The Convention owns the "Baptist Messenger," pays the editor's salary, and is responsible for the debts and obligations incurred in the publication of the same. Since the Baptist Messenger is owned by the denomination and is dependent on the denomination for its existence and support, we believe it should be made the official voice of all the departments and institutions of the denomination and the medium of communication for all religious propaganda for the Baptists of Oklahoma.

Your committee here wishes to commend Dr. E. C. Routh for his able services as Editor of the Messenger, for his noble Christian spirit, for his great heart of brotherly love and for the fine service he has rendered and is rendering the Baptist cause in our state. Your committee feels that no finer Christian spirit lives in our midst than Dr. E. C. Routh. He is a man of wide experience as a denominational editor and is recognized as one of the outstanding religious editors among Southern Baptists.

Your committee, in making this report on the "Messenger," simply voices its conviction that we believe another transition period has come and must come in the life of the denominational paper. We, therefore, submit the following recommendations which are fully concurred in by both Secretary Potter and Dr. Routh:

1. That the "Baptist Messenger" be under the direct supervision of the State Secretary. That the authority of the State Secretary be recognized as final in all policies pursued by the paper and in all financial obligations incurred by the same.

2. That the Editor of the "Baptist Messenger" shall sustain the same relation to the denomination and to the Secretary's office as all other employees of the Convention.

3. We further recommend that all advertising and denominational propaganda sent out to our people during the year be sent through the "Baptist Messenger." We believe that if our departments of work and our institutions will use the "Baptist Messenger" as the medium to communicate whatever they wish to get over to the people, that it will effect a saving of several thousand dollars to the Lord's work during the year.

The purpose of this recommendation is that the "Baptist Messenger" shall become the medium for all possible communication from our departments and institutions to the people and shall take the place of tracts, circular letters and individual publications.

4. We further recommend that all expenses in the publication and distribution of the "Baptist Messenger" be shared jointly by the State Mission Department, the Baptist University, the Hospitals, the Orphans' Home, the Sunday School, the B. Y. P. U. and W. M. U. Departments. That a just proration of the entire expense as outlined above be prorated to the different institutions and departments.

5. We further recommend that plans be outlined during this convention, if possible, to put on a campaign to increase the circulation of the "Baptist Messenger" to at least 15,000 copies. Such a campaign is absolutely necessary to the success of the foregoing plans.

6. We further recommend that the Board of Directors of the Convention be and is hereby directed to outline whatever plans necessary to carry into effect the above recommendations.

52. T. W. Medearis read the report on B. Y. P. U. and moved its adoption. The report is as follows:

THE REPORT OF THE EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT OF THE BAPTIST GENERAL CONVENTION, 1933

As we come to the close of the year that has occupied us from December 1st, 1932 to October 31st, 1933, we have passed many mile-stones that at times have been trying and at other times encouraging. Every worthwhile undertaking possesses a hearthrob that forces us to take the stumbling block and make stepping stones. If we are to ascend at the controls, we must look forward and not backward, we must look up and not down. The heights of great men reached and kept, were not attained by sudden flight; but they, while their companions slept, were toiling upward in the night.

Our Combined Task

Our State Executive Board in its quarterly meeting last June authorized the combining of the State B. Y. P. U. and Sunday School Departments. It grieved our heart to see our comrade in the service, Fred A. McCaulley, leave the forces. It is hard to understand God's Divine Will in the changes that come, but in this He has raised one who has been faithful to higher ground to a larger door that opens at our great Baptist University at Shawnee. We pledge our best to McCaulley in his new found task and to the great university that he represents, and we bow in humble submission to the Lord as we recognize that "all things work together for good to them that are called according to His purpose." In the combination we doubt the wisdom of the plan, but as we coordinate the work we see the leadership was wise.

Our Coordinated Plan

In accepting the challenge of the new work it was our purpose to thoroughly, as nearly as possible, analyze the situation by tabulation of the Associations, the Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. work as it exists through the State Department. We learn in this analysis that there are 690 Sunday Schools with a membership of 124,190 in the 32 associations that co-operate with the State Convention. There were seven Sunday School enlargement campaigns conducted with 2,961 awards given. The Department also shows a gain of five newly organized Sunday Schools during the year. Our records show 339 conversions and 386 dedications of lives to service which came about through the workers of this department.

Our B. Y. P. U. records show that we now have 2,140 organizations with membership of 41,734. There were 14 training schools conducted through this office. We have given a total of 11,782 awards through the Department this year. The Department also reports: new unions organized, 41; conversions, 116; dedications, 75; persons pledging to read the Bible daily, 2000; and 229 volunteers for service.

Talent Tour and Rural Church Conference

On January 18 to March 5th, Miss Blanch Linthicum, representing the B. Y. P. U. Department, conducted a series of Associational talent meetings in the churches. Each church conducted conferences on Associational work, Junior and Intermediate work, sword drills, and State Programs, using the talent of the people in the various churches. Meetings were held in thirty-eight different churches throughout the state. This tour has proved a great benefit and will be continued with new arrangements which will be found in this report under recommendations.

Miss Mona Breeding and Fred A. McCaulley conducted the Rural Church Conferences, reaching and inspiring many of our country churches. In each conference great inspirational messages were brought by special speakers and many conversions and Baptisms were the result. These conferences will also be continued with new arrangements.

District Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. Conventions

The District B. Y. P. U. and Sunday School Conventions, which convened during the month of June had a large attendance this year—larger than two years ago. A number of outstanding speakers and southwide workers were here to assist in these meetings in presenting the real task of our departments, pointing out the opportunities and advantages that are before us. These meetings will be continued with some changes.

State B. Y. P. U. Convention

The State B. Y. P. U. convention was held with the First Baptist Church, Oklahoma City, in arch, with the best attendance and the most enthusiastic crowd yet. Great messages were brought by outstanding speakers over the State, as well as the South. These messages will linger long with the host of young people who heard them. One of the outstanding features of the Convention was the banquet, with some 700 young people in attendance. The message of Dr. Dodd on Friday following the banquet climaxed the entire program. Our 1934 Convention will meet with the First Baptist Church of Shawnee. Plans are now under way for the greatest convention yet, as it meets in this great college center where we can contact our own Oklahoma Baptist University.

Falls Creek Assembly in the Arbuckles

The Falls Creek Assembly which took place August 8 to 18 was pronounced the greatest assembly yet. The Secretary reported the class enrollment of 2,568 in one day which exceeds all records. Sixty-four came forward, definitely dedicating their lives for service, and several conversions were reported through the various services.

53. T. H. Farmer introduced Mrs. Farmer, Mrs. Barron, Mrs. Peterson, and Miss Linthicum as South-wide and State-wide approved Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. workers.

54. T. H. Farmer read the following paper:

CHINS UP—FORWARD MARCH, BAPTISTS

Southern Baptists have the greatest machinery among men. We have a few engineers in our churches that understand how to operate it. We need more possessed with that art.

WE RECOMMEND:

1. That we set ourselves to the task of a ten year "Progressive Program of Doubling our Agencies," for the reach into the homes of our communities with the "Gospel Message" the "Taached Word," the "Training Effort," the "Summer D. V. B. S. Plans," and with tract distribution.

- a. This plan calls for a religious census in each church community that we may intelligently know our responsibilities.
- b. A visitation systematically worked by a checking of our church rolls, B. Y. P. U. rolls and our census tabulations.
- c. Our tracts may be had in abundance just for the asking. We should secure a supply for our visitors to carry along with them on these visitations.

2. It is our aim to lead to greater heights in a "Ten Years' Goal" of state operation for the department of "Educational Activities" which God in His divine providence has called us to lead.

- a. Our Sunday Schools shall be doubled.

1. This calls for more teachers, more officers, more effort, more enthusiasm, more work among our forces.

2. We have charged the departmental leaders with this task: Mrs. E. W. Peterson, State approved cradle roll and beginners' Superintendent; Mrs. T. H. Farmer, Primary and B. Y. P. U. Story Hour Superintendent and Leader; Mrs. J. W. Barron, Junior B. Y. P. U. Leader and Sunday School approved Superintendent; Miss Blanche Linthicum, Intermediate approved B. Y. P. U. and Sunday School Superintendent; Secretary T. H. Farmer, Senior and Adult B. Y. P. U. and Young People and Adult, as well as the general promotion and oversight of the State activities. Miss Lorell Coffman has been secured for our office and I charge her with the task of mailing out promptly all materials.

3. Our B. Y. P. U. Department must reach greater heights if we are to win in this day of social chaos. Our psychologists say, "The church leader needs only to look around him to see the evidence of hereditary influences." The facial expressions, manner of walk, likes and dislikes, moral and religious habits of the young people, mirror very clearly the lives of the parents. Surely there is no greater agency among Southern Baptists for handling the training of our regenerated forces. Let's pull together a more proficient B. Y. P. U. Let the membership at least reach every converted member of your church. Let's double up our B. Y. P. U. Effort.

3. Our Daily Vacation Bible School Shall be Doubled.

a. The spring quarter is dedicated to D. V. B. S. in Oklahoma. The district conventions for the next two years shall major on this very important work. Our approved workers shall major during this quarter in doubling the D. V. B. S. It will be our policy to assign a district to each worker, and it will be the worker's obligation to bring the churches to a cooperative program of D. V. B. S. A Convention in each district shall major this important phase of our program and minor the B. Y. P. U. elimination in the Junior Memory, the Intermediate Sword Drill and the Senior Oratorical Contests.

4. Our Falls Creek Assembly shall be doubled.

a. The 3,300 registered messengers for 1933 was quite an advance over the 505 of 1924, but satisfaction should not be countenanced when there are thousands that should be reached with the Baptist Assembly spirit. We must double our efforts and go forward, with departmental leaders being responsible for doubling their departmental attendance. Our physical equipment is practically doubled now, provided we can take advantage of the $30,000.00 worth of buildings built by the Government to house the 413 boys now stationed on our grounds.

WE RECOMMEND FOR 1934-1935:

1. That we approve and encourage the new plan to coordinate our Associational Talent Tours and our Associational Rural Church Conferences by allowing two full days at our General Associational meetings in the fall.

a. The Rural Church Conference occupying the day before the association.

b. The Talent Tour occupying the day following the General Association. Two days must be allowed if we are to accomplish our task of edifying and utilizing our force of talented young people.

2. We recommend the hearty approval of the General Associational B. Y. P. U. directors in attending the First State Associational Leaders Planning Conference. This Conference will convene in the First Baptist Church, Oklahoma City, January 7-13, 1934. Plans will be worked out for a State Wide Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. Program through the Associations of Oklahoma.

3. We recommend an alternating of the State Sunday School Convention and the Twenty-third Annual State B. Y. P. U. Convention, with the B. Y. P. U. Convention meeting in Shawnee, March 22, 23, 24, 25, 1934, and the State Sunday School Convention convening in Tulsa, March 21, 22, 23, 24, 1935.

4. We further recommend a church census in each church of the state to determine the tangible possibilities; then a weekly program for visitation in each department under direction of the church in our effort to contact the homes that need our visits in these times; need our prayers for the establishment of family altars in these homes and the winning to Christ of those we visit.

5. We desire every Baptist who can possibly do so to go with us on the trip to the Southwide B. Y. P. U. conference, Nashville, Tenn., December 27-29, 1933. A special rate of one cent per mile has been arranged. It is our purpose to direct the forces of B. Y. P. U. into closer cooperation with our great Sunday School Board and its agencies. Our great university at O. B. U. and its efforts and with our own denominational agencies as we follow the leadership of Dr. Andrew Potter in his efforts to coordinate the working forces of our State Work.

55. A State B. Y. P. U. Sword Drill was conducted by four Intermediate girls: June Merritt, Thelma Scantlin, Martha Rose Jones, all of Exchange Avenue Church, competing.

June Merritt was declared the winner to represent Oklahoma at the South-wide B. Y. P. U. Conference in Nashville December 27-29, 1933.

56. The B. Y. P. U. report was adopted.

57. A telegram was read from the Mississippi Baptist Convention now in session at Tupelo.

58. J. M. Jones moved that the secretary send message to the Mississippi Convention now in session in Tupelo, Mississippi.

59. The O. B. U. girls' quartette sang "Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty."

60. Hale V. Davis took charge of the Foreign Missions hour. Miss Blanche Rose Walker of China led in prayer.

61. J. E. Hampton read a report on Foreign Missions and moved its adoption, then yielded the floor to Chesterfield Turner.

62. Chesterfield Turner introduced missionaries, Rev. and Mrs. Spurgeon Richardson of Africa, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Smith, South America, and Miss Blanche Rose Walker, China.

The report is as follows:

REPORT ON FOREIGN MISSIONS, 1933

There are two things about Foreign Missions in which all of us are very much interested: How well is the cause being supported by the churches here at home, and how well is the work prospering in the foreign field?

What churches put into the spread of the gospel in the uttermost parts of the earth in money and heart power means life or death not only to the cause abroad but also to the churches here at home. The success of our work abroad demonstrates that God is not failing us.

Our budget for the present year is 25 per cent lower than that of last year, and comparing it with the budget of 1930 we find that it is less than half of the appropriations for that year. The Board has made heroic efforts to bring its expenditures within its income.

A phase of the work which has been most drastically reduced is the Board's inability to return to their fields thirty missionaries who were on furlough. This reduction of our missionary force is more serious because for several years we have been suffering losses in our missionary force. During this year we have lost 17 missionaries by resignation, two by death.

Not a single recruit has been sent out this year, despite the fact that many of our finest young people trained in college and Seminary are begging to be sent.

Our debt situation is serious. We are paying $65,000 this year for interest on borrowed money. Our debt on January 1, 1933 was $1,115,177.17. We have not increased this any but have been able to lower it a little during the past year. The Board's great hope is in the success of the 100,000 club.

Yet in the face of these difficulties and discouragements a great wave of evangelistic fervor is sweeping through our churches. In spite of wars, pestilence and famine in many of our mission fields there is felt a rising tide of evangelism. A great revival is sweeping over China.

During the last year there were reported 17,284 baptisms. The largest number ever reported in any one year. We have now 192,978 church members gathered into 2,698 churches. There are also 2,352 out stations which some day may be developed into churches.

Due to the falling off of our income, the number of our schools have been greatly reduced, yet we have splendid theological training schools, training schools for women, and others which furnish us with trained leaders. These are necessary in our effort to spread the Gospel.

"The glorious achievement of the past inspires us, the challenge of the world's need calls us, and the command of a risen and enthroned Lord compels us."

"Therefore put on the complete armour of God so that ye may be able to stand your ground in the evil day," and,

"Having fought to the end, remain Victor on the field." Ephesians 6:13 (Weymouth's translation).

74. Auguie Henry read the Report on Christian Education and moved its adoption. It was adopted. The report is as follows:

REPORT ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The objective of Christian Education, so far as a College of Arts and Sciences is concerned, is to provide a proper atmosphere and other efficient means for teaching the Arts and Sciences in the light of God's revealed word, the Holy Bible.

Strictly speaking, Christian Education, from a Baptist standpoint, means education under Baptist auspices.

The reasons for this objective are as follows: First, the personality of the student to be taught. One is spiritual as well as physical and mental. In fact, the spiritual constituent is the very hub or center of one's personality.

Second, the need for a college-trained church and denominational leadership and constituency.

Third, the need for a college-trained citizenship.

Oklahoma Baptists own and control one senior college in this state, the Oklahoma Baptist University located at Shawnee. If the above objective is correctly stated, then there is one general and fundamental question that Oklahoma Baptists have the right to ask concerning their school: Is the Oklahoma Baptist University endeavoring to reach this objective?

This question can be answered: First, by the success of the more than seven hundred alumni; second, by the present program that is being carried out under the able leadership of our president, Dr. Hale V. Davis, and your board of trustees; and, third, by a program that could be carried out with a more loyal support of the one hundred sixty-five thousand white and Indian Baptists, which comprise the constituency of this Convention.

How may Oklahoma Baptists definitely support their Oklahoma Baptist University?

1st. By praying for her leadership just like they pray for their missionaries and other denominational workers.

2nd. By sending their sons and daughters to O. B. U. for their college training.

3rd. By supporting the institution with their money through the Cooperative Program, the special annual Christian Education Day offering, the buying of O. B. U. Bonds, and special gifts.

4th. Personal Propaganda.

79. President Davis read the report of the Board of Trustees and moved its adoption. The report is as follows:

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT, O. B. U.

To the Oklahoma Baptist General Convention:
Brethren:

Internal Conditions

The president is happy to be able to report that internal conditions of the university are highly satisfactory. Our fine faculty is working uncomplainingly in a spirit of harmony and good will, under extra work, and on drastically cut incomes, with salaries paid irregularly. The student morale has never been higher in the history of the school, and the type of students is considerably above last year as to educational capacity and financial ability, as well as cooperative attitude. Fourteen students enrolled last year were asked not to enroll this year. All standards have been lifted and catalogue regulations are more strictly enforced. This is building a higher respect for all our work.

The enrollment, at present 423, is exactly ten above last year as of the same date, with some ten or fifteen who have not yet completed enrollment. It will be remembered that O. B. U. was the only college in Oklahoma last year to show increased attendance. Our goal for the full term is an enrollment of 600, and will come close to this figure.

Quite important additional requirements are being made in the curriculum of the Fine Arts College. The entire university has been strengthened by the constructive suggestions of the committee on higher education which inspected our work last May on invitation of the president.

All student activities will be presented by the students themselves in the Christian education hour; hence, will not be repeated in this report.

We are planning improvements for the summer school, May 29 to July 28, and expect a larger enrollment than last summer.

The second semester of this term begins January 22, 1934.

There is the largest number in the girls' dormitory and eating in the dining hall that we have ever had.

In the planning committee meeting in Oklahoma City, July 7th last, Dr. H. G. Bennett made the motion that we ask the churches to donate from one to two thousand dollars as a Christmas Library Offering, asking $5.00 to $10.00 a church.

We urgently request that April be designated as Christian Education month this next year and until we shall have caught up the most pressing of our obligations. The planning committee recommends that we set our objective for April, 1934, at $40,000, half to be used to catch up salaries and accounts payable, and the other half to be reserved to take up bonds maturing next fall. Dr. Potter made the statement in our last university board meeting that we needed $50,000 a year for the next ten years to properly establish O. B. U. He is eminently correct.

The alumni, now numbering 763, and some 3,000 former students are becoming a rapidly increasing influence and power. They have always been loyal in personal support, and are beginning now to be a factor in the financial plans of the university.

General Financial Conditions

It is gratifying, for the first time in a number of years, to report an operating surplus although it is only $667.86, for, in addition to this amount, reserves of $5,029.69 were set up for losses on accounts (more than 10%), and we do not anticipate ultimate loss in excess of 5% on $40,159.58 of current assets including warrants, accounts, building and loan stock, etc., which we now hold. Financial figures, not otherwise designated, are given as of August 31, 1933.

The peak of our liabilities and indebtedness June 1, 1933, was $169,568.07. August 31, 1933, this was reduced to $156,773.82 with current accounts due us of $40,159.58 plus $4,482.30 cash. These, when paid, will leave a net indebtedness of $112,131.94 which is approximately the same amount we owed on June 1, 1930, just before we began plans for refinancing through the bond campaign. At that time, we owed $87,086.76 on obligations which were pressing. Now we owe $48,182.44 on pressing obligations. There is a reduction of $38,904.32, but the difference in urgency of need is in loss of operating bank credit. A $200,000 a year business like ours needs a borrowing capital two or more times each year of $20,000 to $30,000 for ninety day periods.

Another point, easily overlooked by immediate financial pressure, is that our net worth has increased since June, 1930, from $357,807.21 to $460,999.20 this fall, amounting to a net gain of $103,191.99. We are accumulating all the time. The physical property is right now in as good a condition of repair as it has ever been. The surplus fund, or net worth of the university, has been increased by $7,693.90 during the year and now stands, in addition to endowment, at $442,899.08.

The university has given, during the last year, $8,188.95 beneficiary tuition to ministerial students and other religious workers. Beneficiary tuition of $3,776.40 has been given to athletes, making a total of $11,965.35.

The educational cost per student during the past year has been reduced from $222.00 to $194.01, exclusive of board, room, and incidentals. Of this amount, the students paid $130.95, leaving $63.06 to be made up by contributions, profits on the O. B. U. Press, dining hall, etc. This low cost cannot be maintained.

Profit of $2553 was shown on the O. B. U. Press on a $19,000 year's business. The press, now operating in two shifts and employing over forty student helpers, is printing the largest volume of work we have ever had.

Bond sales of approximately $22,000 have been made during this hard year. The exact amount paid for and now outstanding (November 6, 1933) totals $91,575.00 and there is $58,425.00 worth of bonds yet unissued, which should be sold, during 1933-1934, on the basis of present valuation of the university property, the safeguards thrown around them, and in view of the fact that we have been able, under divine leadership, fine cooperation, and business management to make such an encouraging report as is herein contained with a record of no defaults on principal or interest.

Present Financial Problems Explained

The chief financial difficulties, much of the time overwhelming, with which this administration has had to deal, have been due to the fact that only about $70,000 had been realized on bond sales when Dr. Neal resigned, which, followed by the resignation of Dr. Boone, the crisis of the depression, and the closing of the university's two banks a few weeks later, has left us without operating capital during the whole past year. Some operating capital must be provided within the next few months.

The following quotations are taken from an article by the president, published in the Baptist Messenger, May 4, 1933. The frank statements therein contained are still true; however, a changed public attitude of mind did make possible the opening of school with confidence that our worst needs could be met during 1934 if we lived within our income, which we are doing. Also, the coming of Dr. Andrew Potter as State Secretary, and his reception by the state, has assured us that we are now headed out, for he is informed of our needs and is thoroughly sympathetic:

Quotation begins:

"Not less than $50,000 is needed in the June Christian Education Campaign to help off-set deficits of $58,000 which have accrued during the last four years.

"$26,000 is needed for salaries

15,000 is needed for bonds due this fall

5,700 is needed for interest on loans

5,000 is needed for bank loan

16,600 is needed for accounts payable

$68,300

"It is not safe to put off more than $18,300 of this.

"Pay day for O. B. U. obligations has arrived.

"The present administration inherited this condition and all the debts. In the last five and one-half months we have cut expenses at least $5,000 for this year.

"We have effected many adjustments and economies inside, and we are just now able to know and present the full picture to our people. Following are the actual deficits for four years and efforts to check them:

Session Operating Deficit	Expenses Cut
1929-30—$16,000.00 -----	None
1930-31—$15,000.00 -----	None
1931-32—$11,000.00 -----	Cut $12,000.00
1932-33—$16,000.00 -----	Cut $35,000.00"

Quotation ends.

These needs have been reduced this summer by the following amounts: June Christian Education offering, $18,480.86, raised in spite of divided interests due to the prohibition fight on at the time, the hottest June in years, and the resignation of our state secretary. Specials for the period amounted to $1,636.70, making a total of $20,117.56, which is the largest summer offering O. B. U. has ever had. Special credit should be given the Shawnee Chamber of Commerce, the First Baptist Church of Shawnee, and the sacrificial faculty of O. B. U. who gave slightly over half of this amount.

Subtract $20,117.56 from the $68,300 listed on May 4 and there is still $48,182.44 needed to catch up on our obligations.

The Cooperative Program used to, and will again, pay one-half our salaries; however, last year it paid slightly more than enough to pay interest on the debt.

Endowment and Sustained Fund Raising Plans

The endowment fund amounts to $18,100.12, which amount, according to Dr. E. P. Aldredge, is smaller than that of any other Southern Baptist college. The University of Richmond has $2,969,667.39, and Wake Forest is next with $2,322,006.00. Surely some one or several could raise $1900 and make ours at least $20,000 before the close of the year. It is urged that all friends of the school use their influence to have wills, life insurance, annuities and special gifts of money, bonds, oil royalties, equipment, land, etc., made to the university. Endowment funds were increased during the year by $50.00.

After working out a twenty-five year program for the university, the president expects to give considerable time and effort to a "Sustained Fund Raising Program." Two trips east during the past year have revealed that a college with a program, with well defined objectives, and with one continuous administration covering a period of twenty years or more, has in every instance resulted in a well endowed institution, a continuing, capable faculty, and all the students for which such institution could care. If O. B. U. could accumulate $103,199.99 additional capital in four years of depression with the changes of three administrations, what can O. B. U. do with a twenty-five year effort under stabilized conditions?

American people are wonderful contributors. Giving to humanity at the rate of $6,000,000 a day, $2,000,000,000 a year, was their record during disastrous 1930. Though this shrank one-fourth in 1931, and even more in 1932, it was only because of the absence of means to give. Educational institutions have keenly felt this decreased giving. Benefactions to our colleges of $130,000,000 in 1927 were down to $60,000,000 in 1932. Philanthropy is just now engaged in saving life. It will again turn, in fact now is turning, to the permanency of the type of education we offer at O. B. U. National income will probably go higher than ever before, but it will include fewer vast fortunes than during the boom period. O. B. U. could have been endowed in Shawnee alone in 1927, 1928, and 1929. We must profit next time by our past mistakes. Now is the time to make future plans.

Old methods are obsolete. High pressure salesmanship cannot in the long run compete with fundamental education. Public spirited men and women will still give to colleges as their means allow, but their benefactions will be more carefully considered.

The requirements of a sustained fund raising program look far ahead and plan a challenging program. Its immediate objective is to set in motion forces that will yield rich returns in the future.

"Bite off more than you can chew and chew it,
Attempt more than you can do and do it,
Hitch your wagon to a star,
Just keep your seat, and there you are."

On a smaller scale the president has tried this slogan successfully in a local church.

This complete university program contemplates the creation of a steady income, deriving from the receipt of small gifts, many of them periodically from the same benefactors, rather than the speedy collection of a great fund resulting mainly from a few gifts of impressive size.

The ideal of such a program is to enlist every alumnus and friend. Every Oklahoma Baptist pastor should be enlisted. There are two or three to a dozen men in every church to which such a program, properly presented, will appeal. But there must be compelling reasons. We have them, but we have not analyzed and persistently presented them heretofore. To realize these objectives, a definite program is necessary. The chief part of this report is a program.

A Twenty-five Year Program

What does O. B. U. want to do? Where is it headed? Why should we be enabled to reach this goal? Once there, what can we do that some other college in Oklahoma is not doing already or can do as well? Can we guarantee dividends in terms of service to humanity? Do Oklahoma Baptists need a school of their own? These are fundamental questions we must consider if we are to build a great scholarly Christian college at O. B. U.

The president, in conjunction with the planning committee of the Board of Trustees, has tried to make such a survey this year. We have studied the educational set up in Oklahoma and have visited sixteen other colleges all over the country. This survey would indicate the wisdom of suggesting the following program:

That we plan to care for a student body to be limited to 1000 students, such student body to be divided as follows:

600 in a College of Liberal Arts;

200 in a School of Education, attached to the College of Liberal Arts, for the purpose of broader cultural training than is offered in the regular teachers' college, in addition to the highest quality of specialized instruction;

200 in a standard Fine Arts College.

It is recommended that we stay out of the expensive and complicated graduate field, and that we ultimately dispense with the preparatory school, substituting tutoring by upper classmen for those making up special subjects, and that, to carry out these objectives, we use all our resources to build up a faculty and equipment second to none.

Educational trends are definitely toward the liberal arts and a broader cultural foundation, with developed appreciation for life itself, and the preparation of the student to live with others.

Then, in this great new state, only twenty-five years of age, we have been so busy making a living we have not given sufficient emphasis to the cultural; the development of a love for good music, an appreciation for fine paintings and the masterpieces of sculpture. Our Fine Arts College will attempt to develop such appreciation.

Finally, in the school of education, as in the Colleges of Liberal Arts and Fine Arts, our great opportunity as a Christian college is to do what state institutions cannot do because of their secular nature, their political control, and their heterogeneous mass enrollment: to surround a selected student body with a homogeneous, idealistic Christian culture which will enable them to integrate their personalities.

Let us develop a plant and program which will withdraw the student for a time during his most impressionable years, intellectually speaking, from the rush and strain of modern business life to the recesses of a beautiful and simple environment. Here, with the frank sincerity of our fine Christian faculty and student body of the present, let us imbue our students with such an appreciation for the aesthetic, the idealistic, the spiritual, as well as the intellectual, that they can go into life trained with definite convictions, yet with broad sympathies and understandings, and with inner resources not available to those who live too close to the materialistic problems of production, distribution, and acquisition which have so dominated our American civilization.

If we carry out these ideals, we not only will train our Baptist ministers and missionaries, and thus safeguard our denominational future, but we will send into the life-streams of Oklahoma and the entire world a refining influence which will help to save and usher in a higher civilization than we have known. Let us keep the dominant note of O. B. U. intellectual, cultural, and spiritual as distinguished from the vocational and industrial. A four year foundational course here will then result in ultimate success in every walk of life later.

Let us devote ourselves to the training of those select and rare few who possess the brilliance of intellect, the perseverance of will, and the philosophic temperament for dealing with the fundamental problems of society, whether of religious conviction, temporal civilization, or of political philosophy, and when trained they will solve the problems of the world's tomorrow.

To carry out these objectives, a complete campus plan calling for five more buildings (to be built without further indebtedness and as funds are provided) is recommended, including, in the order of their importance, a new library, a fine arts building, a science hall, a power plant, a field house, the re-location of the athletic field, and the re-location of the president's home on the campus.

The library and fine arts buildings are badly needed now. The class of '34 is giving the first $1,000 for the new library. When the Fine Arts Building and Field House are built, the present Fine Arts Building is adequate for and needed as a dormitory for married couples, and the removal of the "gym" will make possible the enlarging and improving of the mens' dormitory.

Before the plan is completed, the campus will be re-landscaped with the two entrances to the oval being on Kickapoo instead of on University Street as at present. The new library will be just south and east of the administration building, with the science hall south of that, while the president's home will be farther south across the entrance to the oval. The new Fine Arts Building will be at the south of the oval, facing the Administration Building on the north. Hurt Field will be moved to the west side of the sixty acre campus, and the present athletic field will be landscaped as a sunken garden. The present practice field will be made into a park. Two of the five future buildings will cost very little. The library, fine arts building, and the science hall will cost $400,000 or more. This, with the million dollar endowment fund, gives us a challenging twenty-five year program, and a two million dollar university plan.

We submit this report and program, after a year of study, with the conviction that it will more fully emphasize the scope of our Oklahoma Baptist educational opportunities and responsibilities than has recently been done.

G. A. Goss and John T. Daniel spoke regarding John L. Dickson.

The report is as follows:

MEMORIALS

Many times we come to lament the departure of our friends, as did Martha and Mary at the tomb of their brother. This seems to be true of human nature, and Jesus thus recognized it and wept with His friends.

But let us change from the physical eyes for a moment, and take just one look through the spiritual, and spirit filled eyes that have been given us and rejoice that our departed have gone to a better land.

Many of them have fought a good fight, have finished their course, and have kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for them a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give them at that day: and not to them only but to all them that love His appearing.

Out of the gratitude of our hearts let us pause for a moment and thank God for their lives and be grateful in our hearts that the Lord shall bless the day when we shall be re-united in the fellowship of our great God around His throne.

We would like to mention in name all of our departed, but time will not permit. Therefore in our hearts and minds let us remember them.

Since it has been the custom of this convention to name only those who have taken active part in the leadership of the great cause of our Master, we mention the following names: Fred Clark, Okeene, John L. Dickson, Weatherford, P. R. Ewing, Eufaula, J. L. Fenter, Antlers, S. H. Pollard, Shawnee, and R. A. Rushing, Mooreland.

After the reading of this report and following whatever remarks that may be made, let us therefore stand for a moment of silence and then be led in prayer by the presiding officer of this convention.

GEO. C. BOSTON
JOHN R. KELLY

91. The report was adopted.

92. Motion carried for the Secretary to write letters to the widows of deceased mentioned in the report on Obituaries.

93. W. Lee Rector read the report on Temperance and Social Service, moved its adoption, and spoke to it.

94. Motion carried that the time be extended five minutes that W. J. Losinger, president of the Anti-Saloon League of Oklahoma might speak on Temperance.

95. The report was adopted. It is as follows:

TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE REPORT

Our present temperance situation outrages God. The threat of hard liquor imperils every worthy interest of our hearts. Blind selfishness outlaws sobriety. Carnal desires welcome the return of John Barleycorn. This monster enemy of our hearthstones re-invades municipalities under the guise of respectability. Justice cries out against the outrage of using virgin life to peddle beer. Dark forebodings abound. No day has ever had thrust upon it a graver problem than ours.

On November 7th, 1933, the last state required by our Constitution to guarantee the legal return of liquor so registered itself. The 18th Amendment is gone, and with its going the greatest moral achievement ever attained by our people passed into oblivion. Distress and selfishness push God aside while our land moves to extricate itself from financial chaos by levying a tribute upon human vices and weaknesses. Such sin, unrepented of, can but be a forerunner of national death. "Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?"

Facing the dread problems the return of hard liquor thrusts upon us, we can't escape enquiring, "Where are we headed and what are we going to do about it?" Frankly, brethren, in order to save ourselves from the re-invasion of legalized liquor, it is too late now to pile up figures showing the waste and the misery which attends rum, and it is too late now to save our country from a season of suffering and sorrow. America has legalized the Devil's brew and we must pay the price. This arch-enemy of the heart has been given legal standing, and John Barley-corn will continue his battle to filch the weak and unwary of the earnings they cannot spare.

Brethren, we have lost the battle to save the 18th Amendment. What can we do? Shall we throw up our hands in defeat and cry, "Nothing can be done now!" No, let's shift the plan of battle from the defensive to the offensive. Let's begin at the bottom, manning our schools, and our homes, and our churches in a mighty crusade against liquor and its evil. Let's commandeer the righteous forces from coast to coast and move to undermine and destroy this wicked institution that our neglect and indulgences and sin has thrust upon us again.

"WE MUST FIGHT, AND APPEAL TO THE GOD OF BATTLES, AND THAT IS ALL THAT IS LEFT US."

In our next battle, a long and arduous battle, let's stay close to the Lord. Let's pray for conviction and courage and power to save our homes from the mighty avalanches of crime and sorrow which follow in the wake of strong drink. O, let's contest every step of the Devil's march. To battle, brethren! Let's not fold our arms and supinely cry, "O, it's too late now to fight an enemy so firmly entrenched in our borders." For shame! All know that such a cry is just what the Devil would set up. Let's buckle on the armor of God and challenge the rule of the flesh among the sons of men; challenge the rule of the blind in our present-day life; challenge the rule of the politicians who sell us out for gold; and challenge the rule of the Devil in both high and low places.

Facing the future, we recommend that our Baptist hosts, providing the Holy Spirit leads:

1. Register aggressive and positive resistance against the flow of rum.
2. Utilize every agency and opportunity to discredit hard drink as a means of character building.
3. Arraign the wickedness of a nation attempting to finance itself by levying tributes upon human vices and weaknesses.
4. Encourage our constituency to trade only with institutions which spurn the privilege of earning gold at the price of honor.
5. Gird on the armor of God and give battle against John Barley-corn, an arch-enemy of the heart and the home.

Humbly submitted,

W. LEE RECTOR
O. G. MATTHEWS
D. L. RILEY
A. A. DUNCAN

96. The committee on Order of Business for next year was announced as follows:

W. O. Leach, chairman; C. E. Wilbanks, E. W. Westmoreland.

97. Dr. John L. Hill, of Nashville, Tennessee, spoke for the Sunday School Board on Sunday School work.

98. Motion carried that a letter of sympathy be sent by the secretary to Mrs. W. O. Anderson in Long Beach, Dr. W. O. Anderson, formerly pastor of Tulsa First Church having passed away.

99. The hour for State Missions having arrived C. E. Wilbanks read the report and moved its adoption.

The report is as follows:

STATE MISSIONS REPORT

The servant cannot be above his lord. Baptists have a Lord, who is Lord of the harvest. We seek to follow Him. He paid much attention, primary and persistent, to his own State. He gave his life's energies to His State. He spent His life within its confines. He said, "I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel." It was said of Him, "He came unto His own." His successor, who was most like Him in Israel cried, "Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved." Also, "I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart. For I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh."

Thus should we feel and thus should we behave toward our state and her peoples. All extra-church activities in the state are regarded as State Missions. This term covers the benevolences of our hospitals and orphans' home. It propagates the developmental work of our B. Y. P. U. and W. M. U. departments. It entails the teaching done in Oklahoma Baptist University. It compels the evangelism sought through the Sunday School Department and the combined efforts of general evangelists and pastors whose salaries are supplemented by State Mission funds.

There is a two-fold purpose in State Missions:

First, to spread the gospel over the state; to knit-up the forces in the state, and to develop and conserve them.

Second, to turn all these forces on the wider fields beyond.

There is a trinity of agencies in State Missions, outside the local churches. We shall call them three propagandists, namely:

The state Baptist paper, The Baptist Messenger.

The state Baptist College, Oklahoma Baptist University.

The state Mission Board.

There are three by-products of State Missions: Hospitals, Orphanages, and Missions outside the state.

There are definite auxiliary departments: Sunday school department, B. Y. P. U. department, W. M. U. department, Brotherhood department, and Evangelism.

There are three personalities leading: State Missions Secretary, the Holy Spirit in the churches, and Jesus Christ, Lord of the harvest and head over all things unto the churches.

No opposer of missions can be at home within this state. Oklahoma was not even named by a white man. Rev. Allen Wright, Choctaw, historian, commissioner and author, named it "Okla," people, and "homma," red. It is the land of the red people, at the end of their trail of tears.

Oklahoma's first Baptist church was organized by an itinerant missionary. It was composed of Rev. Wm. Lewis and wife, white; John Davis, Creek Indian; Quash, Bob and Ned, negro slaves. This combination is still our supreme challenge. To these nationalities others have come from the ends of the earth.

A partial survey, based upon associational letters this year, reveals in Oklahoma:

32 Associations

26 returning questionnaires, showing:

576 churches

10,522 Baptisms

8,551 additions otherwise

136 pastorless churches

290 idle preachers

329 communities needing our message

68 churches needed.

We would urge that special effort be made in two directions:

That plans be worked out for church-supported evangelists in each of the ten districts, and that these ten men be employed by the State Mission Board as soon as funds are available or in prospect.

That a Brotherhood and Enlistment Secretary be employed, when, and if, the State Mission Board can devise ways and means of his support.

We commend our new Executive Secretary-Treasurer for his spirit and his well-defined program: Of living within our income; of paying all possible on debts; of doing more evangelistic work with funds available.

Respectfully,

C. E. WILBANKS

100. Secretary Andrew Potter read the report of the Board of Directors, and it was moved to adopt.

The report is as follows:

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS TO THE BAPTIST GENERAL CONVENTION

There are no bounds to our gratitude for God's unceasing favor upon our work during the year just closed. We have made substantial progress though we have carried on under what is likely the most trying conditions the world has faced in the past two generations. It has been a time of widespread unemployment; the cheapest wheat, cotton, and oil in decades; unparalleled over-production; fluctuating commodity prices; and the nervous discontent which follows such conditions. Our national government has loaned and spent billions of dollars to stabilize affairs that are not yet stabilized. We have had a bank holiday, a season of government price-fixing and wage-adjustments; we have deserted the gold standard, and have seen a transformation of our entire national, political, and economic life. We are now in the midst of untried and revolutionary schemes of high finance and the United States, and the world at large, is staggering in abject economic helplessness. We are in a time of political upheaval, bewilderment, and cataclysmic changes. We have seen a moral decline more precipitous than living men have ever witnessed.

Surely if God's people ever faced a time to sober them and call them to earnest prayer and unusual service, that day has arrived. These conditions must be accepted as a challenge to those who believe in God. The world today is not the world of yesterday, but amid all these changes there is one thing which has not changed: namely, the need of the human heart for regeneration by the power of God.

In spite of these times we are happy to announce that reports of the various departments of our work will show gratifying results. We have made a decided advancement in every particular save in the total amount of money received. But let us remember that the most precious things in life cannot be bought with money. While our material values have shrunk, our spiritual values have multiplied by a hundred-fold.

The Spirit

The spirit of the business, social and religious world has been very restless. There have been an unprecedented number of resignations and changes with a large increase of ministerial unemployment, but the attitude and spirit toward our Board and its missionary work has been remarkably sympathetic and astoundingly harmonious. The response during the last few days of October to our appeal for State Missions was exceedingly gratifying and heartening. We raised $9,647.87 on our State Mission specials, and reduced our overdraft last year from $41,265.56 to $30,914.39. Three thousand dollars since November 1st has cut our overdraft to $27,914.39.

Right Direction

We have started in the right direction. We must live within our income and reduce our indebtedness. We are happy to announce that practically all of our agencies and institutions did live within their income the past year, and some of them made substantial reductions on indebtedness.

The Muskogee Hospital made this year $7,224.93 above operating expense, which is an average of $602.08 per month.

The Baptist Messenger made $304.79 more than it spent.

The Orphans' Home had a balance of $3,279.79 on deposit.

Oklahoma Baptist University had an excess of income over expenses of $667.86.

The Woman's Missionary Union reduced its outstanding obligations $11,298.48.

The B. Y. P. U. and Sunday School and Assembly Departments increased their indebtedness $18.44 after the departments were combined and old Sunday School Department debts had been assumed in the amount of $678.08.

The Miami Hospital increased its indebtedness $2,919.48.

The Baptist Book Store increased its debt $2,119.94.

Dr. Rounds Resigns

After eleven years of successful service as Secretary, Dr. J. B. Rounds retired September 1st. During these years Dr. Rounds gave himself unstintedly to all of our work. He wrought well for the Kingdom during the most stressful times in the history of our denomination. Quietly and with patient perseverance he addressed himself to the arduous duties placed upon his shoulders. By his noble character, his consistent Christian life, and his fine qualities of leadership he has come to take a big place in the affections of his fellow Baptists in Oklahoma. This Convention thanks God for the fine service rendered by Dr. Rounds for the past thirty-five years in Oklahoma.

The Baptist Messenger

The Baptist Messenger has rendered signal service to all the work of the denomination, but especially to the work of the Executive Board.

It is most gratifying to your Board that the Baptist Messenger increased materially its circulation, paid all current expenses, and made a small gain. Seven thousand, two hundred fifteen copies of our paper, blazing with missionary inspiration and information, were sent forth last week to Baptist homes in Oklahoma. This is the largest circulation that the paper has ever had except in the high days of the Seventy-five Million Campaign when it was sent free to many thousands for a short time.

Wider publicity is absolutely essential to the successful prosecution of our missionary work. We suggest that the Convention address itself with whole-hearted enthusiasm to the vitally important matter of increasing the circulation of the paper to at least fifteen thousand. Dr. E. C. Routh, the capable editor, has been working without stint or reserve at the almost impossible task of making brick without straw. Let us get back of the paper with serious determination to double its circulation by April 1st.

Orphans' Home

The Orphans' Home has made a marvelous record for the past year, in fact, the past ten years, under the capable leadership of Rev. E. A. Howard, superintendent. They have fed and clothed one hundred seventy orphans during these stressful times and have a balance of $3,279.79 in the treasury.

Since the emergency which created the special Orphans' Home Board has long ago passed, and since the Institution makes its report each quarter to the Board of Directors, and in the interest of economy and with the hearty approval of the superintendent, Mr. E. A. Howard, we recommend the discontinuance of the special Orphans' Home Board.

O. B. U.

Oklahoma Baptist University has wrought well the past year in spite of the financial difficulties through which we have passed. Their only problem is financial. We heartily approve their effort to raise $40,000.00 in a special campaign in April and pledge to Dr. Hale V. Davis and the Board of Trustees every power we possess to bring this campaign through to a glorious and successful consummation. Oklahoma Baptist University must have more money with which to operate and we must help them get it.

B. Y. P. U. and Sunday School

For the sake of economy in administration, the B. Y. P. U. and Sunday School Departments were merged under the leadership of Mr. T. H. Farmer. These departments have become great soul-winning agencies—as the report will show. They have become great missionary and evangelistic forces as well as teaching and training agencies.

Mr. Fred McCaulley, who had served as Sunday School Secretary for fifteen years, made an enviable record. The growth of the department had kept pace with the general progress of other state and southwide agencies. The Board of Directors were loath to dispense with Mr. McCaulley's valuable service, but financial conditions made it necessary. We are glad that he found a place with Oklahoma Baptist University.

The Baptist Assembly

The Baptist Assembly at Falls Creek broke all attendance records the past year. It is a mighty institution for good, bringing together thousands of our people for study and training in Christian service as well as recreation and fellowship.

The Baptist Book Store

The Baptist Book Store is owned jointly by the Baptist General Convention and the Baptist Sunday School Board of Nashville, Tenn. Mr. H. Killingsworth, the manager, has done well with the business despite the stressful times through which we are passing. Collections have been difficult but in the main our people have been loyal to our own Baptist Book House. We urge our pastors and people to patronize our own Book Store.

The Indian Work

Our Indian work has for many years been carried on by Rev. G. Lee Phelps. In addition to the employment of Brother Phelps the Board has supplemented the salaries of quite a group of Indian pastors. The work has been difficult and slow, but steady progress has been made. We have developed some outstanding Indian preachers in Oklahoma.

W. M. U.

The Woman's Missionary Union, led by Mrs. Berta K. Spooner, works in cooperation with the Baptist General Convention and remits all its funds to the various causes through our treasury. The W. M. U. of Oklahoma has the past year achieved the greatest triumph of its noble history. They have stirred the missionary fires all over the State. They have paid $10,000.00 and interest on the Memorial Dormitory bonds.

Laymen's Work

Some progress has been made in the development of Laymen's organizations in churches and Associations throughout the State. Mr. J. E. George of Enid is chairman of the Oklahoma Brotherhood. Mr. L. A. Ellison of Ada worked as secretary for a few months this year. For lack of funds we have not been able to continue this fine work.

It is the opinion of your Board that these brotherhood organizations should be encouraged both in Churches and Associations. We recommend that the Convention look with favor upon a more aggressive policy of work among our laymen, and that the Board of Directors be instructed to form a policy in this matter.

Hospitals

The hospital situation has greatly improved. The emergency created by the Muskogee Hospital preceding the Convention last year has passed, and the situation is well in hand. All operating expense was paid and the local indebtedness reduced $7,224.93. The institution is doing as good work as it has ever done in its history. Miss Gracia Tarman is due much credit for the successful administration of the institution. The new financing plan for Muskogee Hospital adopted by the Convention has been carried out in its entirety and every payment has been promptly met.

The Miami Hospital has made substantial progress. While they had an operating deficit of $3,505.64, new plans and policies put into effect about May 1st give promise of bringing the institution within the limit of its receipts. We commend Dr. J. E. Hampton, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Miami, and acting manager of the institution, for the faithful service rendered to the institution during the year, without money and without price.

With the hearty approval of Dr. Hampton, we recommend that the Miami institution be brought into the same relationship to the General Board as the Muskogee Hospital now occupies.

The Enid Baptist Hospital owned and operated by a group of local Baptists has rendered a fine type of Christian service the past year. It has paid all operating expense and made several thousand dollars in addition thereto. Mr. J. E. George of Enid, is the newly elected manager.

We recommend that the Convention continue a fraternal relationship with this hospital and give every sympathy and help possible to assist the local people in their endeavor. The Convention is in no way responsible for its operation nor obligations.

Associational and Pastor-Missionaries

For many years we have been helping Associations employ missionaries and helping weaker churches in strategic centers employ their pastors by supplementing their salaries. Under the head of "State Mission Supplements" we have spent multiplied thousands of dollars in the past ten years. The noble men carrying on this work have wrought worthily.

It is the opinion of your Board that the District plan offers the most effective way to carry on our work at the present time, and we recommend that this Convention look with favor upon the growing sentiment for District Missionaries, and instruct the Board to form a policy in this matter.

Our Policies

When taking over the heavy responsibilities of executive secretary September 1, the secretary announced three guiding principles or policies:

- 1st. To live within our income.
- 2nd. To reduce our indebtedness.
- 3rd. To enlarge our mission work.

We have reiterated these policies in most of the Associations of the State and response thereto was wholehearted. This is what our Baptist people want, both preachers and laymen. They have endorsed these policies with overwhelming enthusiasm. The Board of Directors re-emphasizes these guiding principles and asks that the Convention endorse these policies for the coming year.

We, THEREFORE, recommend that every agency and institution owned and operated by the Baptist General Convention be, and are hereby instructed to live within their income, and that all contracts with employees be made provisional to the end that the will of the Convention may be made effective.

Debts

We believe that a Christian denomination should pay its debts. We have been trusted by brothers, banks, and bondholders, when we had no security save our honor and good name. They believed in us. We must keep faith with them. Our creditors have been exceedingly patient and generous. We must not fail them now.

WE, THEREFORE, recommend a policy of gradual debt retirement. We should not attempt to pay all our debts in one year, but should pay some of our debts each year.

Mission Work

Missions is vital and fundamental. When we lose our missionary spirit and stop the prosecution of our missionary work, we will be on the road to spiritual suicide. We must "march for the Master;" we must "achieve our destiny;" we must "possess our possessions." A strong, aggressive, missionary policy will save our denomination. Without this we are not worth saving.

WE, THEREFORE, recommend that the coming year we go afield and proclaim the gospel of the Son of God in school houses, under tents, in weak and run-down churches, in country places, villages, towns, and cities. Missions is our mission. A regenerated people, fired with missionary zeal and evangelistic fervor, will conquer the earth and bring in the Kingdom. There are vast stretches of destitute territory within the bounds of our commonwealth and the Macedonian call, "Come over and help us," comes from every section of our fair State.

To the end that we may make effective these major objectives of our people, we therefore recommend:

1st. That we have a committee of five, of whom the president of this Convention shall be chairman, to organize and direct a state-wide evangelistic campaign. Revival meetings should be held in every place possible, striving to increase the number of baptisms next year by twenty-five percent.

2nd. That we hold a great missionary conference in each of the ten Districts of our State with the purpose of firing our people with a heart-wrenching passion to preach the gospel to earth's last man. To these conferences we should bring our missionary-minded pastors and returned missionaries to pour out their hearts on the needs of a lost world. Our people love God and a lost world, and, with missionary information and inspiration brought to them from red hot hearts, they will respond and their liberality be increased tenfold.

Future Plans and Policies

It is our conviction that missions should be kept at the center of all our work, local and denominational. We are sure that a cash basis, with monthly reduction of debts, meets the approval of all thinking Baptists, and that they want such a policy continued.

The budget is our meat and bread. It is the main hope of our work, local and denominational. It is the conviction of your Board that the most aggressive campaign for the budget should be waged for 1934 with an intensive effort from now to February 1st. It is the hope that hundreds will volunteer to reach every unbudgeted church in the State. This campaign, in our judgment, should move along the lines of the thirty-two Associations. Each Association should set for itself a goal, both in numbers of churches and weekly amounts to be raised. We suggest a wider use of the Associational organization in the promotion of our missionary work. Your Board recommends that we set as an objective for 1933-34:

- 1st. To double the number of weekly contributing churches.
- 2nd. To double the number of monthly contributing churches.
- 3rd. To get at least seventy-five percent of our churches to give something to the Cooperative Program during the year.
- 4th. That we seek to enlist each Association in this goal for itself.

Conclusion

We re-affirm our faith in the Cooperative Program as the best method Baptists have yet devised for carrying on a balanced denominational work. We face a time when we need to exercise the sanest sort of Christian statesmanship. We are today hearing insistent calls from worthy causes. We do not want any of them to die. So, we should seek to enlist every individual and church cooperating with this Convention to give something regularly to the causes of the Kingdom, urging the tithe as a minimum.

The grace of God and the generosity of the Brotherhood have brought us to a rift in the clouds and the smile of God falls upon our faces, challenging us to the most heroic loyalty in our history.

We call this Convention to prayer. We summon you to lift up your eyes and see, to dedicate head, heart and hand to the spread of the Kingdom of God, that

"Jesus shall reign where'er the Sun
Doth his successive journeys run."

Respectfully submitted,
ANDREW POTTER, Executive Secretary.

113. J. M. Jones offered the following resolution which was adopted by rising vote:

"Resolved that the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma now go on record as unalterably opposed to the repeal of the prohibition plank of the Constitution of Oklahoma."

114. Lum H. Hall read the report on Benevolence and it was adopted as follows:

REPORT ON SYSTEMATIC BENEVOLENCES

In this report we, your Committee, are not making a financial or statistical statement of our Benevolent work, which will no doubt be made in the reports from the three major interests herein represented, namely: Old Ministers' Relief, Orphans' Home, and Hospitals.

OLD MINISTERS' RELIEF

The Relief and Annuity Board is located at Dallas, Texas, with Thomas J. Watts, Executive Secretary. The Board paid to Relief Beneficiaries some $132,356.41 during the past year. The Relief and Annuity plans are the only means we have as a denomination to care for our aged and dependent ministers. It is worthy of our support.

ORPHANS' HOME

The Oklahoma Baptist Orphans' Home, located at Oklahoma City, superintended by Brother E. A. Howard, is one of our major institutions. We are justly proud of the accomplishments of our Orphanage and its management. Brother Dan Curb is rendering a very inspiring as well as profitable service in behalf of our home. He inspires the churches to a more loyal support as he visits them with the children. The food, clothing, and cash received by him has greatly aided in the caring for our Orphans. It is gratifying to observe from Brother Howards' report that not only is the Home in first class condition, but more than $3,000.00 ahead in cash.

HOSPITALS

Oklahoma Baptists are endeavoring to maintain two Hospitals, one at Miami and one at Muskogee. From all information the Hospital work is showing a marked improvement this year. The Financial status of our Hospitals may be noted from the report of our Secretary, Dr. Andrew Potter.

Jesus, while on earth, healed the sick in body, as well as in soul and likewise admonished his followers to do so.

If we are faithful in our Benevolent work, namely: Caring for the Aged Ministers and their widows, the Orphan children in our midst, and the sick and afflicted who are helpless without our aid, truly the scripture may be applied to Oklahoma Baptists, Matthew 25:34-40, "Then shall the King say unto them on His right hand, 'Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: For I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in: naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.' Then shall the righteous answer Him, saying, 'Lord, when saw we thee an hungered, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink? When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee? Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?' And the King shall answer and say unto them, 'Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me'."

Respectfully, your committee,

LUM H. HALL
J. M. JONES
T. GRADY NANNEY
W. A. BRYAN

123. Secretary read the Orphan's Home report which was adopted. Report is as follows:

BAPTIST ORPHANS HOME REPORT

To the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, meeting in session at Tulsa, November 14, 1933:—

We are just now closing our ninth year as Superintendent of the Oklahoma Baptist Orphans Home. During all of these years, I have never brought you a report with greater pleasure and more delight than the one I am bringing to you this year. In many ways conditions have been unlike those of any other year, but somehow with God's help we have been able to master every obstacle, meet every condition and close the year of our work and activity in a most remarkable way. I am pleased to report that notwithstanding the stress of the times, our children have been well cared for and today I can truthfully say we are better clothed, housed, and cared for than we have been at any time for the last three years. In addition to this, I am most happy to say that although our financial support has fallen off considerably from what it was in 1932, yet we have managed to feed our children well, keep our bills paid, wipe out the small over-draft of last year and come before you at this time with absolutely a clean slate. When we make a survey of all of these facts and see the healthy condition that your Orphans Home is in today, we should give thanks to Almighty God for His blessings upon us.

During the past year, we have had very little sickness and no epidemics of any kind. We lost one boy by death, namely Asa Leon Blain, sixteen years of age. Again, we wish to express our thanks to the Oklahoma General Hospital and especially to Dr. J. E. Harbison and his son, Dr. Frank Harbison, and other physicians connected with this fine institution for the splendid service they have rendered our Home. They have given our children every consideration necessary, all without cost. Also, we are grateful to Dr. Eastland and Dr. John T. Miller for the fine services they have rendered to our Home and to our children.

We are very proud of the record our children are making in school. We have at this time 48 girls and boys in High and Junior High School. We are very proud to report that last spring we had two very fine boys from our Home to graduate from High School, namely Cecil Kincaid and Earl Eslinger. These were the first boys to ever graduate from the Orphans Home. We now have one boy and three girls in college. In addition to this, one of our girls who graduated from college last year received her life certificate and is now teaching and helping to keep her brother and sister in College. Because of some special arrangements that I have been able to make, the schooling of these young people is costing the Home practically nothing.

I would not overlook saying a word concerning the religious training of our children. We maintain our Sunday School in a very efficient way. In this particular phase of the work, Brother and Sister Mansfield are rendering a very valuable service. In addition to the Sunday School, we have preaching as often as possible and also maintain two B. Y. P. U's. During the past year, a number of our boys and girls have made professions of faith in Christ and followed their Lord in baptism, and we now have 77 who are members of the Hudson Avenue Baptist Church of Oklahoma City.

Our contributions the past year have decreased until it has seemed almost impossible for us to keep going. We thought in 1932 we had reached the bottom, but this year our contributions are much less than they were last year and a little more than half way what they were three years ago. This, of course, has made it necessary for us to practice the most rigid economy possible. This we have done. We have reduced our force of employees to the minimum. We cannot operate with less help than we now have. The sending of our big truck over the state to gather up food supplies and other articles for the Home has been a tremendous help to us. While our contributions in cash have been less, our children have had plenty to eat. This, of course, is due to the fact that the Baptist people in every section of the state have been liberal in giving us food supplies of every kind. During the past year, our field man, Brother Dan Curb, has brought in $5,727.27 in food supplies of various kinds.

During the past year we have made considerable improvements. We have painted the outside of all the main buildings. Some of these buildings have not had any paint put on them since they were erected. We felt we were forced to do this to protect the buildings. Also, we have had to spend considerable money in patching and re-plastering and in patching and repairing roofs, etc., until we now have our buildings all in good condition.

Our great problem the past year has been to keep out of debt and this, by the help of God and the Baptists of this state, we have accomplished. We began the year of 1932-33 with a small over-draft. This has been entirely cleaned up and we have lived within our income, kept our bills paid and I am happy to say up to the first day of this month, we do not owe one dollar for anything.

124. Secretary read the report on Indian work which was adopted as follows:

REPORT OF INDIAN WORK

G. Lee Phelps, General Missionary to Indians

To the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma in Annual session in Tulsa, November 14, 1933:—

From the earliest history of this state the Indian Mission work has been a most important phase of our mission work in the development of our commonwealth.

One hundred and fifty thousand Indians comprise an important element in our citizenship, these were the original settlers and it was through the Indian people that the first churches, Associations and Conventions had their beginning in what is now the State of Oklahoma.

All honor to the pioneer missionaries who laid the foundation and planted the fundamentals of the Christian religion among these original Aborigines. The mission work among the Indians is different from work among white people and peculiarly difficult. A back ground of unnumbered generations of paganism, with a communistic government, traditional education and numerous cults of religious beliefs. These produce intricate problems.

With most of the Indian tribes our Baptist work is progressing very satisfactory, the Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. work is growing rapidly with marked improvement each year. The Indian pastors are doing the best work of their life with a deeper spirituality than I have seen.

The Choctaw tribe is an exception to the above, their work is not prospering, alarming decline. In a conference with some of their leaders a few days ago it was revealed that their young people who have been sent away to schools have drifted away from their people when through school and found employment in other parts and consequently they are without young leadership. The Choctaws have not a native minister under the age of fifty years. We are making every effort to revive the churches and to enlist young people. If our Board had means to employ some young man who feels called of God to go among these people and give his entire time to Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. work we would be able to revive the work.

Respectfully submitted,

G. LEE PHELPS, General Missionary.

125. Secretary read report on W. M. U. work which was adopted as follows:

W. M. U. REPORT

The achievements wrought through W. M. U. under the direction of Mrs. Berta K. Spooner during the past twelve months are an inspiration for those of us who labor together in our Lord's cause. In spite of handicaps and difficulties much progress has been made in all lines of endeavor, as shown by the information received from Mrs. Spooner's office.

The W. M. U. has reached out into many heretofore unenlisted churches, organizing 264 new societies. With proper regard for future years, 238 of these new organizations were among young people: 52 Y. W. A., 73 G. A., 35 R. A., 78 Sunbeam Bands. There are yet 277 churches without missionary organizations.

Of the churches partly enlisted, there are 163 W. M. S. with no auxiliaries, there are 86 with only one missionary organization for their young people, 89 with two, 60 with three, 7 with four, but still do not have full-graded W. M. U., 54 with five and 37 with six. Nine churches have seven missionary organizations for their young people and one church has nine. Indeed we are gratified by our 144 churches having full-graded W. M. U. and especially proud of those having A-1 full-graded W. M. U. organization, namely: Lawton, First; Sapulpa, First; Idabel; Bristow, and Spiro. The efficiency of all our organized work is checked by the Standard of Excellence which wisely comprehends all that should be included in an active missionary society. Of Oklahoma's total of 1,844 W. M. U. organizations only 146 rated A-1, of these 42 were W. M. S., 18 Y. W. A., 26 G. A., 22 R. A., and 38 Sunbeam Bands.

In the ten districts in Oklahoma capable vice-presidents have served and other consecrated women have led in associational activities. The District Meetings in April this year reached by actual count 3,700 women from 30 Associations, only two Associations not being represented. Sixty-eight per cent of the societies were touched by the inspiration of these meetings. Miss Juliette Mather, Young People's Leader of the South, was one of the party, which also included Miss F. Catherine Bryan, one of our splendid missionaries from China, who with her charming manner and charts of cold facts made the needs of China stand out vividly.

The Associational quarterly meetings and rallies have been characterized by a spirit of work and worship. The secretary has attended twenty-six of these meetings.

There were 1,330 classes held among W. M. U. organizations. Much real mission study was done at the Assembly at Falls Creek. There was the largest attendance in the history of the Assembly. We had seven classes taught during the W. M. U. hour with 496 enrolled. Miss Pearle Bourne, Associate Young People's Leader of the South, was our out-of-state guest and taught a large and enthusiastic group of young women that most interesting book, "The Young Revolutionist." Miss Hessie Smith taught, "The Desire of All Nations," to a large class of both men and women. Other members of our faculty were: Mrs. C. A. Gibson of Wanette; Mrs. John Woodruff of Oklahoma City; Miss Eva Inlow of Oklahoma City, and Rev. R. E. Stephens of St. Louis, Oklahoma. To all we express our grateful thanks for the splendid service rendered.

In the State G. A. and Y. W. A. Houseparties at Shawnee and in many Associational Y. W. A. Houseparties, mission study has received impetus. Miss Bourne was also our guest speaker and conference leader in these meetings and surely won her place in the hearts of our girls.

In personal service souls have been led into the Kingdom of God, relief has been given to needy through garments, trays, etc. Good Will Centers have been maintained, Daily Vacation Bible Schools have been conducted and many deeds of Christian service directed and planned by Personal Service Committees.

But W. M. U. has desired to reach beyond her own physical touch and has done so in one way by her gifts to the Cooperative Program amounting to $23,729.30; State Missions $3,315.95; Home Missions $2,072.55; Foreign Missions $7,596.00; Scholarship $910.02; Dormitory $10,421.33; White Cross $476.29; Margaret Fund $290.31; Clothes and school books for the children of our Home $5,601.68; reported from 326 societies $9,332.43 contributed to local work; nursery at Fort Worth $42.33. Total cash contributions $63,788.28. Chickens, eggs, linens, quilts, fruit, etc., $4,439.00; boxes to Indian preachers (22) valued at $1,468.00.

The building of the Dormitory stands as a real proof of W. M. U. laboring together. Many young women are living happily, and profitably in the W. M. U. Memorial Dormitory this year. It is of appreciable value to the institution to have this building and certainly to the young women to be there with cultured women. Through the long years of the future, our dormitory will remain useful to the King, "That our daughters may be fashioned after the similitude of a palace." Many societies have done well, others manifested what seemed but half-hearted interest, still others have yet to share in this glorious endeavor.

Through the year, W. M. U. of Oklahoma has also "made our prayers unto God" observing the Prayer Calendar in Royal Service and the Window of Y. W. A. Oklahoma women to the number of 2,070 have subscribed to Royal Service. There have been 272 subscriptions to the Window of Y. W. A. and 524 to World Comrades, yet many more should be subscribing and using these valuable magazines as well as the Baptist Messenger, our very own denominational paper. There is much rubbish in today's literature avoided by having these magazines and publications in our homes.

Appeals from the world field call us to more fervent prayer, more faithful work in the coming months. A debt of gratitude is due all of the officers, departmental, chairmen and members of the Executive Board for their splendid support and cooperation, to Mrs. McMillan for her ever ready helpfulness, to Mrs. Wells for her thoughtful care of the work in the office, to Miss Eva Inlow who has worked with us for the past three years as Young People's Leader. Sincere thanks are also due the many hostesses and others who so beautifully contributed to every need and comfort of the secretary while she was on the field.

A. L. GOODWIN.

129. Rupert Naney read the report on Home Missions and moved its adoption. The motion carried.

The report is as follows:

REPORT FOR HOME MISSIONS

The Mission program of Jesus is outlined in the eighth verse of the first chapter of the Acts. In these last words of Jesus, we are shown our equipment, our task, and our field. We are to witness to Christ "both in" and "unto"—in Jerusalem, Judea, Samaria and unto the uttermost parts of the earth.

In between "Judea" and the "uttermost parts of the earth" lies "Samaria." Our Samaria is the peoples, places and spiritual destitution lying between the normal reach of the State and local forces and the boundary line where the "uttermost parts of the earth" begin. In this field the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention is at work.

Administration

During the past Convention year the Board was forced to carry on its work and meet its obligations on a greatly reduced budget. It did, however, balance its budget, live within its income and pay $89,357.61 on the principal of its debt. Since October, 1928, the Board has paid $690,378.11 on the principal of its debt, reducing the debt from $2,364,380.91 as of October 1, 1928, to $1,674,002.80 as of May 1, 1933. If the receipts of the Board could be maintained at $450,000 a year, the Board would be able to materially increase its mission work and would at the same time be able to retire its indebtedness within ten years.

At the annual meeting of the Board in June, the budget of operation for the ensuing year was reduced by $11,000, but such adjustments were made in overhead and other operating expenses that the Board will be able to maintain its missionary work without the loss of a single missionary.

The Lord Blessing the Work

The Mission work of the Home Mission Board has been greatly blessed during the past year. There was a total in all fields of 2,544 baptisms.

Work Among the Foreigners

Among the foreigners the Board has 38 workers supplying 157 churches and mission stations. There were 19 new missions opened up last year.

Work Among the Indians

The work among the Indians is very fruitful. There are 21 workers and 40 churches and missions. Last year the missionaries reported 493 additions.

Work Among the Negroes

During the past year the eight workers among the Negroes reported 591 additions to the churches. There are in the South approximately 10,000,000 Negroes. Southern Baptists should greatly enlarge their work among our colored brethren.

Good Will Centers

The good-will centers and rescue missions are doing an excellent work. Their combined reports show 2,837 religious services held, with 62,735 in attendance and 538 conversions.

Work in Cuba

Dr. M. N. McCall, the Superintendent of the work in Cuba, reports 44 churches and 39 missions. There are 8 American missionaries. The rest are natives. These workers baptized 336 people. There are 3,421 members of Baptist churches and 4,135 enrolled in Sunday School. There is no richer field in all the world for the Gospel than Cuba.

Work in Panama

In Panama we have seven mission churches and one self-supporting church. The seven mission churches are colored churches—Jamaicans who came to the Zone to build the Canal. They are pastored by two preachers. The eight churches have a combined membership of about 800.

Field Work

We have six special field workers: Dr. J. W. Beagle, Rev. Jacob Gartenhaus, Miss Emma Leachman, Mrs. Una Roberts Lawrence, and Dr. J. W. Michaels and Rev. A. O. Wilson. These are all very busy, giving the Gospel to the lost and carrying information about our work to Southern Baptists.

Home Missions in the Future

The Home Mission task is larger, more difficult and more important than ever before. The work that ought to be done today is more vitally related to the whole task of the denomination than it has ever been at any period in our history.

The frontiers have changed, but the work remains. There are now at least eleven fields of labor challenging us and calling to the Board with their needs.

The fields now open to Home Mission work are: Evangelism, Enlistment and Stewardship, City Missions, Missions to the Foreigners, Missions to the Indians, Missions to the Jews, Missions to the Mountain folk, Missions to our brother in black, Missions in Cuba, Missions in Panama and Central America, and a revitalizing enlistment and church building program for our country churches carried on in cooperation with State Mission Boards in connection with our Church Building Loan Fund.

What a mighty opportunity we have in these fields of Kingdom work, and how important the work to be done. We must evangelize and marshal the evangelized forces in the homeland for world-conquest for Christ. The Home Mission Board is set for this very thing.

J. E. HAMPTON.

131. Rupert Naney moved that we adjourn. Motion carried.

132. George P. Drake led in the closing prayer.

Thursday Night, 7:30 P.M.

133. Special music was furnished by the "A Capella Choir" of the Tulsa High School.

134. The congregation stood singing "Amazing Grace." Russell Boud led, Lee Baum at the piano.

135. H. E. Dana led in prayer.

136. J. W. Storer read the report on Cooperative Program and moved its adoption.

The report is as follows:

SOUTHWIDE CO-OPERATIVE MISSIONS

Your committee has been asked again to call to your attention the plan now used to gather and distribute the funds for the ten objects included in our Co-Operative Program for Southwide Mission objects.

The address by Dr. L. R. Scarborough, to follow this report, will bring to us the need, necessity and dynamic of co-operative missions.

Your committee is, however, of the opinion that for purposes of record, it is entirely within its province to call attention to what is peculiarly germane to Oklahoma Baptists.

If the tendency to put preferred items in our financial program continues to grow, and the list of states which no longer adhere to an equal distribution of mission funds between State and Southwide causes continues, we shall soon have no Co-Operative Program. Only two or three states now divide 50-50, and in January the most consistent and avowed advocate of the original idea leaves that slender group.

The genesis of this plan was to provide a method whereby with the minimum of machinery and clashing of competitive appeals, all our work might be advanced. Critical situations in state conventions have made a seeming imperative for designations until the whole plan is endangered. Why keep on saying that the Co-Operative Program is the best thing yet devised when in all but these two or three states it has utterly broken down? Perhaps that sentence may sound too pessimistic, but why deny an obvious fact?

In Oklahoma we divide our mission funds 60% for State and 40% for Southwide, and recommend continuance of same for this convention year. And yet, in spite of all this as an effective method usable day in and day out, not dependent on the ability of the presenter irrespective of the actual value of the work presented, what better thing has been evolved?

Much fault has been found with the so-called "harness" or "machinery" of this plan, and with some of the objects included.

This latter is largely governed by the territory in which the objector lives, it ought to be said. But the trouble is not so much with the harness or with the machinery. If a horse is just naturally balky, the harness doesn't matter, and if the battery is dead, the co-ordination of differential and engine will not move the machine.

Let us remember that "operate" comes from a Latin word which means to work, and translate it into action, thanking God for the prefix "co" which means together.

At the last Southern Baptist Convention in May, the Baptist One Hundred Thousand Club was set in motion as an emergency measure to relieve the present indebtedness situation of our denominational agencies, all of the proceeds to be applied on the debts for work already done, the expenses of collection to be paid by the Sunday School Board. The time designated by the Southern Baptist Convention was August, but on account of that being such an unfavorable month, and the organization being unable to get to the people, the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention recommended the campaign be renewed through January, and we recommend that Oklahoma Baptists accept such recommendation and that the churches be urged to cooperate in pressing the campaign to completion.

In keeping with the request of Dr. Frank Tripp, we recommend the following organization for pressing this campaign in January.

Reports and Addresses

ADDRESS OF MRS. GEORGE McMILLAN, W. M. U. PRESIDENT

"Work With Your Courage High—Sing of the Daybreak Night"

These familiar words are taken from the Woman's Hymn, written by Miss Fannie E. S. Heck, through the years the honored President of Woman's Missionary Union, who "being dead, yet speaketh." Only in a courageous heart could be born sentiment so lofty, an exhortation so challenging. Timely as though uttered for the peculiar need of her sisters of this day, when the world is permeated with the pessimism of an economic depression, she would have those engaged in the great work to which she gave her life, to "look up, look forth, and on!"

A Chinese scholar who was a profound student of the life of Christ, was asked what he deemed the most striking quality in Jesus—the most appealing trait in his personality, and his reply was: "His courage in the face of danger, discouragement and seeming failure; the courage which could undertake a work so constructive; the valor which made and asked of others such sacrifice."

With divine optimism Jesus had no less vision than the sure conquest of the world. Dr. Babcock says: "To Jesus the outside rim of the earth was the first horizon and the last." This is the most thrilling thought that can engage the mind of man, that the love of Christ is world-compassing, his plan of redemption world-inclusive, and the range of his commission world-wide.

It was the cry of the world without Christ that brought into being our beloved organization, the Woman's Missionary Union. Again quoting Miss Heck, "Women felt within themselves the power to answer the cry God has opened their ears to hear." The very atmosphere into which the Union was born was one of courage. Out of the travail of prayer, of need, and of the urgency of Christ's command, we came to be laborers together with the dauntless Christ, partners in the great cooperative task of missions. It has been said that the spirit of courage and sacrifice which has ever characterized the Union, owes its life and strength to a realization of this partnership with God.

Individual effort in Kingdom building has ever been recognized and blessed. A woman at a wayside well was given to drink of the waters of life, and through her joyous response there opened up a stream of evangelism, the story and the glory of which shall live throughout all time; but in a larger way does organized effort bring success in every phase of human affairs.

An instance of the success of concerted action, growing out of vision and leadership, recently thrilled the world. The crowning marvel of the scientific age, and at once the most spectacular, was the feat of Gen. Balboa and his companions in bringing 24 airships from southern Italy over Europe and across the Atlantic to Chicago. This unparalleled feat stirred the imagination of the world and, as a current journal comments, tipped in glory the theme of the Exposition they came to honor—A Century of Progress. Particularly significant was the statement made by their leader, "My men do not represent any exceptional qualities in Italian aviation. They have come from normal personal circles. I have merely imposed on them a necessary period of preparation." And there you have it, comments the journal. The feat of flying over the Atlantic en masse was not the achievement of supermen, but the work of ordinary men trained for the task and inspired by leadership and the desire to demonstrate to a credible world the possibilities of aviation.

For forty-five years the Woman's Missionary Union has been upon a March of Progress. Through preceding years God blessed the efforts of isolated groups of women, gathered together in small mite societies, as they sought with plied needle and other work of consecrated hands to alleviate the sorrow and degradation of their sisters in heathen lands; but so signally blest has been the larger vision, the multiplied effort of the organized Union, so apparent the stamp of divine approval, we can but thank God and take courage.

Statistics from the report of 1932 show a phenomenal growth over our beginnings. Our membership has grown into hundreds of thousands. our gifts into millions. Past successes, however, should serve only as a stimulus to larger effort. Many gains came during the past year through the Enlistment and Extension work, but this phase of our work is by no means finished. Reports from churches in associational meetings recently held in our own state show a situation with regard to the support of missions far from creditable, and these conditions, we are confident, obtain in other states. A non-missionary church makes void the highest purposes of God, and so long as there remains one unenlisted, there is need for W. M. U. work. Also, there is current a sentiment that the time is ripe for withdrawal of missionaries from foreign fields; that more and more the burden of work should be put upon the native Christian. This belief is not shared by our missionaries, nor by those in foreign lands who have been won to Christ and love his cause. From the mission fields of the world comes the call of increased opportunity, of wider fields. From China, Japan, Latin America, from Europe the voices are insistent. From dark Africa came recently this plea, quaintly expressed by a native Christian: "Christ is walking up and down our streets, knocking at many doors; it is terribly sad if he passes your door." We have been called and have undertaken great and holy tasks. It is not a time to falter for "it's not the load that weighs us down, it's the way we carry it." Our plan for re-thinking missions should be to face the future with fresh courage, a gladness and exhilaration that will recognize nothing short of victory. A story is told of George Mueller, who crossed the ocean to speak at a convention in Canada. While off the banks of Newfoundland, the ship was enveloped by one of the fearful fogs, characteristic of that part of the sea, and it seemed as if they would be so delayed that the captain doubted if they could reach port on time. Mr. Mueller quietly remarked that he had been praying God to lift the fog. The captain incredulously said: "Do you know what a dense fog this is?" To which Mr. Mueller replied: "Captain, do you know what a great God we have?" Anyway, the fog lifted and the great man made his engagement. If we have been befogged by debts, depression, and sorrow, may we remember just now that we have a great God and that his power all sufficient may be ours, that we may "sing of the day break nigh."

Do you know of anything which so inspires as the dawn of a new day? Courage is born anew. Hope paints with roseate hues the clouds which linger on the horizon. In the new day toward which our Union is facing, Youth holds central place. These boys and girls are truly our greatest asset; about them cluster our fondest hopes. Margaret Slattery, in a recent address, used for her subject the words of Chanticleer demanding to be King of the feathered flock: "The rest of you sing when the sun is high, but I demand the right to lead because I greet the sun while it is yet dark; while it is yet dark I call the sun, for I know that nothing can stop its arising." "While it is yet dark," said Miss Slattery, "I see Youth greeting the sun, while we wait for the dawn!" Is this our attitude, dear women of the Union? Certainly, our young people are turning, with confidence and the assurance characteristic of youth, to claim their heritage. The new day is theirs; but with what preparation shall they meet its responsibilities? The world seems full of foreboding lest they be unequal to the conditions, so full of chaos, about to be thrust upon them. Who will say that the situation is not one to be reckoned with, one wherein opportunity is not particularly ours? Though it is the duty of each generation to cooperate with God in the making of men, to the mothers of men is given in a peculiar way the holy privilege of moulding their spiritual vision.

Someone has said that there is no room for experiment in living. Youth comes twice to none. Life is like an arrow which flies as it is directed on the bow-string. If it be aimed west, it cannot fly eastward. For heroic leadership, Youth has no greater need than the need of Christ. If, through the ideals of our organized life, the spiritual vision may be given them, there need be no fear of the future. Moffit spoke but twenty words on one occasion, but they were sufficient to give a life vision to him who "sleeps with kings and statesmen, chief and sage."—David Livingston.

We are in a work, great and large. In the Union's departments of work, so fine in their correlation, there is a place, moreover a need, for every talent, great or small, where every woman may make her contribution to the beauty and symmetry of the whole. In the stewardship of life, there is no more compelling slogan than "to have is to owe, not to own."

The violinist cannot alone make the orchestral music; the conductor sees the drum, the flute, the cello, the horn, the cymbals, all equally indispensable to the harmony. No less does the Great Conductor of our lives expect us to make, with joyous lips and courageous hearts, our contribution to the eternal harmony of his work.

WE LABOR IN THE WORK

Report of Berta K. Spooner, Corresponding Secretary

Nehemiah's words, "So we labor in the work" comes to mind as we look back over the past year's activities. Nehemiah was called to lead in the restoration of the wall around Jerusalem. Many were his obstacles. People ridiculed the workers, mocking their efforts. Enemies conspired to fight and cause confusion, but the faithful labored on. So, in our twelve months since we rendered reports, there have been difficulties to overcome. Some have queried, "Why try?" Others have openly or subtly opposed missionary effort, but faithfully we have labored on. Nehemiah organized his workers that no energy might be wasted. Oklahoma W. M. U. has reached out into many heretofore untouched churches, organizing 264 new societies. With proper regard for future years, 238 of these new organizations were among young people; 52 Y. W. A., 73 G. A., 35 R. A., 78 Sunbeam Bands. There are yet 277 churches without missionary organizations. Of the churches partly enlisted, there are 163 W. M. S. with no auxiliaries, not even a Sunbeam Band, there are 86 with only one missionary organization for their young people, 89 with two, 60 Missionary Societies have three, 74 have four, but still do not have full graded W. M. U., 54 have five, 37 have six. Nine churches have families of seven Missionary organizations for their young people and one church has nine. Indeed we are gratified by our 144 churches having full-graded W. M. U. families and especially proud of those having A-1 full-graded W. M. U. organization, namely: Lawton, First; Sapulpa, First; Idabel; Bristow; and Spiro, First. The efficiency of all our organized work is checked by the Standard of Excellence which wisely comprehends all that should be included in an active Missionary Society. Of Oklahoma's total of 1,844 W. M. U. organizations only 146 rated A-1, of these 42 were W. M. S., 18 Y. W. A., 26 G. A., 22 R. A., and 38 Sunbeam Bands. Some were engrossed in local affairs and missed the blessing of participation in Kingdom building that would have been brought by stimulating mission study classes, yet there were 1330 classes held among W. M. U. organizations. Much real mission study was done at the Assembly at Falls Creek. There was the largest attendance in the history of the Assembly. We had seven classes taught during the W. M. U. hour with 496 enrolled. Miss Pearl Bourne, Associate Young People's Leader of the South, was our out-of-state guest and taught a large and enthusiastic group of young women that most interesting book, "The Young Revolutionist." Miss Hattie Smith taught "The Desire of All Nations" to a large class of both men and women. Other members of our faculty were: Mrs. C. A. Gibson of Wauwate; Mrs. John Woodruff of Oklahoma City; Miss Eva Inlow of Oklahoma City and Rev. R. E. Stephens of St. Louis, Oklahoma. To all we express our grateful thanks for the splendid and painstaking service rendered.

In the State G. A. and Y. W. A. Houseparties at Shawnee and in many Associational Y. W. A. Houseparties, mission study has received impetus. Miss Bourne was also our guest speaker and conference leader in these meetings and surely won her place in the hearts of our girls. We greatly appreciate the splendid service she rendered.

In the days of Nehemiah, different leaders directed the building of the various sections of the wall, one by the sheep gate, another the fishgate or the valley or fountain gate. So, in Oklahoma capable vice-presidents have served in our ten Districts and other consecrated women have led in Associational activities. The District Meetings in April this year reached by actual count 3,700 women from 30 Associations, only two Associations not being represented. Sixty-eight per cent of the societies were touched by the inspiration of these meetings. Miss Juliette Mather, Young People's Leader of the South, was one of our party and always her messages thrill our hearts and make us want to do better service for the Master. We also had the joy and honor of having Miss F. Catherine Bryan, one of our splendid missionaries from China, who with her charming manner and charts of cold facts made the needs of China stand out vividly before us.

The Associational quarterly meetings and rallies have been characterized by a spirit of work and worship. Your Secretary has attended twenty-six of these meetings. Many times these Associations arrange for methods or mission study institutes to which your secretary goes when possible to fit her schedule. These days of fellowship and consideration of work are a real asset in Kingdom progress proving that in truth now as in Nehemiah's day "the people have a mind to work."

In personal service souls have been led into the Kingdom of God, relief has been given to needy through garments, trays, etc. Good Will Centers have been maintained. Daily Vacation Bible Schools have been conducted and many deeds of Christian service directed and planned by Personal Service Committees.

But W. M. U. has desired to reach beyond her own physical touch and has done so in one way by her gifts to the Cooperative Program $23,729.30, State Missions $3,315.95, Foreign Missions $7,596.09, Home Missions $2,072.55, Scholarship $910.02, and Dormitory $10,421.23, White Cross $450.40, Margaret Fund $97.97, Nursery Fund 18.65, Clothes and school books for the children of our Home 5,601.68, reported from 326 Societies $9,332.43 contributed to local work. Total Cash Contributions $63,546.27. Chickens, eggs, linens, quilts, fruit, etc., $4,439.00, boxes to Indian Preachers (22) valued at $1,468.00.

The building of the Dormitory stands as a real proof of W. M. U. laboring together. There was opposition indeed but that passed as we showed by our determined faith that it would stand, would go on to completion. Now we have but to complete the doing. Many young women are living happily, and profitably in the W. M. U. Memorial Dormitory this year. It is of appreciable value to the institution to have this building and certainly to the young women to be there with cultured women. Through the long years of the future, our Dormitory will remain useful to the King, "That our daughters may be fashioned after the similitude of a palace." Many societies have done well, others manifested what seemed but half-hearted interest, still others have yet to share in this glorious endeavor. The plan now is with our courage high and faith more determined to complete the task so well begun.

Through the year, W. M. U. of Oklahoma has also "made our prayers unto God" observing the Prayer Calendar in Royal Service and The Window of Y. W. A. coupled with missionary intelligence gained through programs in all our missionary education system gives cause for prayer. Oklahoma women to the number of 2,070 have subscribed to Royal Service. There have been 272 subscriptions to The Window of Y. W. A. and 524 to World Comrades, yet many more should be subscribing and using these valuable magazines as well as the Baptist Messenger, our very own de-nominal paper. There is much rubbish in today's literature avoided by having these magazines and publications in our homes. One of the builders of Nehemiah's day reported "The strength of the bearers of burdens is destroyed, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build." It is true today. The rubbish of trivial or even harmful things win attention of many while the strength of the bearers of burdens is depleted. Urgings from the world field call us to more fervent prayer, more faithful work in the coming months. A debt of gratitude is due all of the officers, departmental chairmen and members of the Executive Board for their splendid support and cooperation, to Mrs. McMillan for her ever ready helpfulness, to Mrs. Wells for her thoughtful care of the work in the office, to Miss Eva Inlow who has worked with us for the past three years as Young People's Leader. Due to conditions and a greatly reduced W. M. U. budget much to our regret we are forced to discontinue her services. Miss Inlow has done a large and telling work with our young people. And I would not fail to register my sincere thanks to my many hostesses and others who so beautifully contributed to my every need and comfort while on the field. What a joy and privilege is mine as we labor together in the work.

MARGARET FUND REPORT

The Margaret Fund work of our State has progressed in a steady, substantial way.

Each District and Association, also some local organizations, have reported Margaret Fund Chairmen at work.

The most encouraging feature of progress made is the fact that greater interest has been manifested in the welfare of our Margaret Fund Students this year than any previous one.

This is largely due to the plan of "mothering" our five students by districts, which has brought about the personal touch and loving response of our women in associational and local organizations, although we have not yet reached our goal by having each Association participate in the work, yet we rejoice to know that eighteen Associations have supported the work this year.

Although adverse conditions have continued, our women have gladly and lovingly remembered our students from time to time with boxes of "eats," etc., which only mother hands can prepare.

Numerous letters of counsel and cheer have been sent besides love gifts on birthdays and other special days throughout the year, which have amounted to $125.50.

In addition to these manifestations of love and interest, we have given a cash love gift of $100.00 to Margaret Fund Scholarship, which was made possible by the cash love offering of $1.00 or more per year, asked from each W. M. S. and Y. W. A. for general support of the work.

Truly we are doing much toward Kingdom Extension in helping prepare these young women to tell the "glad tidings," as many of them are volunteers for service.

With the motto "Love in Action" and loyalty stamped upon the banner of our Margaret Fund Committee, also since each Association will have a month of "special mothering," the time and association to be arranged by District Margaret Fund Chairman, we shall expect great things, and attempt great things for the Margaret Fund cause this college year, for—

"Love shall be our token,

Love be yours, and love be mine,

Love to God and Missionaries' children,

Love, the Margaret Fund Mother's sign."

We thank God for gratifying progress, the privilege, pleasure, and blessings this ministry of mother love has brought to us.

In loving service given

To our Missionaries' Children dear,

To the ones who need our counsel

Since their mothers are not near.

We must love, watch, and guide them,

Train them for God's work of love,

Leaving blessings for our Father

Who watches from His throne above.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. D. H. BELL,
Margaret Fund Chairman.

DILIGENCE IN KNOWLEDGE

Report of Mrs. A. L. Aulick, Mission Study Chairman

"Christian men and women have not performed to the fullest extent their missionary obligation when they have given sacrificially to send missionaries to mission fields, have continued to furnish their needed equipment and have prayed for the success of their work." It is the Christian's duty to contribute to public sentiment in the home-land and to see that this public sentiment finds expression in laws and treaties which are "consistent with the high ideals of Christianity." The lack of so-called Christian nations to live up to the Gospel teaching of love, unselfishness and forgiveness is one of the greatest hindrances missionaries have in reaching the hearts of non-Christian people. In other words, Christianity should not tolerate a Christian nation to commit deeds which would not be tolerated by an individual. If Christians are to realize this larger conception of their obligation to the world, there must be a widespread educational movement toward that end. Conditions must be studied from the standpoint of those who see like Jesus sees and feel like Jesus feels.

There can be no doubt as to the agency whose duty it is to place the claim of all men upon the hearts of Christian people. It is the duty that belongs to the Christian churches. It was for this purpose that Christ left his church on earth. It is true that colleges are offering courses in modern languages and international relationships. While these courses have a broadening effect upon those who study them, the real purpose of the courses is to bring material good to those who study while very little emphasis is placed upon good that may come to those people about whom the study was made. It is plain that if Christians are to be true to their high calling, they must offer opportunity to study other peoples from a distinctly unselfish viewpoint and the churches are the logical agencies through which this study is to be given.

Therefore, it is the duty of every church to see that no person passes through her ranks without receiving missionary instruction and inspiration.

Such a study is outlined by our Mission Boards and is found in the well-known Mission Study Courses which are fostered by the Woman's Missionary Union of the South. These Mission Study Courses are growing in the hearts of the people until in Oklahoma during the past year 20,061 awards have been granted to the women and young people for the study of mission text-books.

This will result, not only in greater gifts to missions, deepened spiritual life, but will create public sentiment which will bear fruit in International justice and be an agent in bringing about world brotherhood.

PERSONAL SERVICE REPORT

Mrs. R. D. Sheldon, Chairman

"Laborers Together With God"

The theme of this report is "Showing Faith by Works." As we think of Personal Service let us use this motto: "With the Gospel as its motive, and Salvation as its Aim." We will not give statistics, but we hope to bring some information and inspiration for this phase of our work; for

"Information leads to inspiration,
Inspiration leads to worship,
Worship leads to service."

First let us settle on a correct definition according to Webster. "Personal" is direct from one person to another. "Service" is the performance of labor for the benefit of another; it is also spiritual obedience and love. It is, then, the direct act of one person for another because of spiritual obedience and love. At the close of my report last year, Dr. Rounds summed up the words this way: "Presenting a personal Savior to a personal sinner by a personal servant."

We are using new report blanks which have been sent out to district and associational chairmen who should send them on to each local society. They should fill out one report for the society and one for each auxiliary, returning them through the regular channels at the close of the quarter.

The idea of Personal Service is, or should be, more along the line of Local Missions. Soul winning is the supreme task; all that we do in this department should lead to enlistment or winning the lost. "Laborers Together with God." When and where He leads, He always prepares the way—as in the case of Peter and Cornelius, also Philip and the Ethiopian; and we today ought to work under the leadership of the Spirit.

Let us cease to think of Personal Service as expressing love for family or friends, our gifts to our Dormitory, or to the causes listed in our Co-operative Program. Beautifying our pulpit for Sunday is not Personal Service. We are not saying that these things ought not to be done; but we will quote the Master who said, "These ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone." We wonder sometimes if our reports do not resemble in some ways the grounds for the charges brought against the Pharisees.

The book of James, from which my subject is taken, "Showing Faith by Works," needs some study and meditation. James also speaks of the tongue as unruly, etc. Dr. Maclaren and Matthew Henry, to whom I went for help in this, make strong implication that we talk too much about what we do, without doing it. James is not talking about salvation by works, but of works as the result or fruit of that deep-rooted and abounding faith which overflows with the desire for the enlistment and salvation of others. James, to my way of thinking, is following the teaching of Jesus, who says, "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly."

May we not do less because we do not make a detailed report, but more because of the "Abundant life," and make Personal Service a matter of more prayer for enlistment and salvation, instead of simply fellowship.

Let us take our new Watchword for this next year—"Be strong and of good courage; for Jehovah thy God is with thee."

LABOR NOT TO BE RICH

Report of Mrs. J. C. Ballard, Stewardship Chairman

"There is a tide in the affairs of men which taken at its flood leads on to victory." On the high spiritual tide of last year's State Convention, we, your Stewardship Chairmen, launched out into the deep and let down our nets for a draught of the women and young people in our societies and churches who had not yet realized and recognized God's ownership of them and theirs, or their oweship of self and substance to Him who created us, watches over us and purchased us with His own life blood. It is not enough to sing "Jesus paid it all, all to Him I owe; Sin had left a crimson stain, He washed it white as snow." We must also acknowledge the debt.

The nets let down are strong nets, woven of stewardship literature distributed, of stewardship doctrines studied from God's word, and from recommended books written by Christian stewards for our edification—nets reinforced by inspirational talks, posters, plays, pageants, and last, but not least, the Stewardship Declamation Contest. Our hearts rejoice at the ever growing interest in this interesting and richly productive feature of our work—so helpful in the present—so promising for the future—when our churches shall be in the hands of these informed stewards now in training.

Spring months found stewardship chairmen helpfully cooperating with young people's leaders in this contest. Some have already written in for material for next year's contest.

At District and Association rallies, clinics were held when chart, compass and sailing orders were explained, so that local Stewardship Chairmen might carry on their work more effectively. The two Year Books were the texts used in these clinics. Some Chairmen reported meeting adverse winds. Some presidents through lack of vision, or time, failed to provide a place on their programs for the monthly four-minute stewardship talks that were recommended and accepted at our meeting in Ponca City. Since "missions wait on stewardship," not only were their societies the losers, but world missions were retarded by their failure to use this method in promulgating the doctrine of Stewardship and of enlisting their unenlisted in its practice. The wise ones who did follow the recommendations received a rich reward in lives surrendered to the Master —time, talents and possessions dedicated to His service by those who were enlisted as Stewards of the riches of His Grace.

Helping hands reached out to help the colored people, through plays promoted by women of the missionary societies in Wewoka Baptist Church and a training school fostered by the women of Kelham Avenue Church in Oklahoma City. May this future find us doing more of this kind of work among our under-privileged colored sisters.

The added leisure of vacation days was utilized in planning for the larger success of our work. A backward look over the first half of 1933, with its neglected opportunities, reminded chairmen that while these were irreparably lost, the future offered equal opportunities and privileges, making a note of things not yet undertaken or accomplished; stewardship chairmen stressed these latter features during this last quarter.

Happy autumn days are here again. Busy days of preparation for Stewardship Chairmen, getting ready for the Every Member Canvass, thru an intensive education and enlistment stewardship campaign. If we would be workmen that need not to be ashamed, let us get out our Year Books and study anew the duties of the Stewardship Chairman in regard to this most important canvass. Then let us enter into it with diligence and enthusiasm, laboring together in seeking pledges for local and world-wide missionary causes in a thorough, intelligent and unselfish Every Member Canvass. Grateful indeed are we to all of those who have loyally and efficiently cooperated with us in this and other years of happy, profitable service. With your help and the Lord's blessings, last year Oklahoma Baptist women led the south in the number of tithers, and Oklahoma was one of the eight states showing tithing gains among both women and young people. As we face the new year, with its new objectives, let us not rest on our laurels, but go forward to greater achievements. The appointment of Mrs. Carter Wright, of Roanoke, Alabama, as Southwide Stewardship Chairman, guarantees trained, capable, consecrated leadership. Both Mrs. Wright and your new State Chairmen will be expecting great things of you. I am sure you will not disappoint them as you answer the challenge of God's command, "Be strong and of good courage," "Go forward," "Labor not to be rich" in this world's goods, but rich in service, rich in love to God and to our fellowman, for—

"When we count our gold at the end of the day,
And have filtered the dross that has cumbered the way,
Oh, what were the hold of our treasury then
Save the love we have shown to the children of men?"

LABORS OF LOVE THROUGH WHITE CROSS

Mrs. J. D. McGovern, Chairman

In the ninth chapter of Luke's gospel, we have the account of Jesus calling his twelve disciples together and giving them power and authority over all devils, and then sending them out to preach the kingdom of God, "and to heal the sick."

Then again when He called the seventy together, He said to them, "heal the sick." And today, Jesus is calling to Woman's Missionary Union through White Cross to heal the sick in the foreign lands as an avenue through which to give them the message of Christ who alone can save their souls. Someone has said "Christianity never ignored any part of man's nature. It is a gospel to the whole man, body and soul."

Medical missions is the gospel in its most complete and powerful form. In reading the New Testament, we are impressed with the manifestation of sympathy of our Saviour for those afflicted. Twenty-six of his recorded miracles were for the direct object of healing the sick and in nine instances He is recorded as being moved with compassion when He beheld physical suffering.

In "labors of love" through White Cross, Woman's Missionary Union has looked with compassion upon the suffering of other nations and has sought to carry out the command of Christ. In Pingtu, China, Southern Baptists have the only hospital in a country of a million and a half people. Another of our hospitals in China is almost wholly dependent upon White Cross gifts. We are indeed happy over the great work being done by our hospital at Ogbomoso, Africa. And we are truly grateful to those who contributed to this phase of the Lord's work this year and regret very much more did not receive the blessing for having had a part.

The reports show only $476.79 given to White Cross work, with only twenty-seven Associations reporting. May this report stir the hearts of White Cross chairmen of Oklahoma, first to better inform themselves, and then seek to inspire the women through a definitely planned program in February (White Cross month) to render a greater service in this important work. And may the one who said "Heal the sick" lead us in witnessing for Him through White Cross during the coming year.

REPORT OF W. M. U. TRAINING SCHOOL, LOUISVILLE, KY.

At 334 East Broadway, Louisville, Kentucky, stands "House Beautiful." Truly it is beautiful because of the things for which it stands. Training new and consecrated leaders is truly a worthwhile task, and should inspire us all to pray for, and give to the support of our W. M. U. Training School at Louisville.

This year 46 boarding students, and 19 day students, many of whom are preachers wives, are receiving training there. All of these 65 young women will be as "Lights set upon a hill" to lead men and women, boys and girls to give themselves more completely to the task of carrying the gospel around the world.

Fifteen States and two foreign countries are represented in these 46 day students.

During the past year two of the founders of the School were called home, namely, Mrs. S. E. Woody and Mrs. George B. Eager. Their going is our loss, but their eternal gain.

I would like as your state trustee, to recommend that every local society give time and space in their program, sometime during the year, that our women may learn more about the School, and that they be urged to give to its needs.

Oklahoma has for many years past given the money to buy the Thanksgiving and Christmas turkeys, and I feel sure that they will not fail this year.

MRS. J. E. KIRK, Trustee.

W. M. U. District Reports*REPORT OF EAST CENTRAL DISTRICT

"Thou crownest the year with thy goodness; and thy paths drop fatness."—Psalms 65:11.

This is our song of praise for a year of mercies manifold and all answered prayers; of losses and crosses, yet also of gains and crowns of victory to God's glory.

The Woman's Missionary Union of East Central District accepted the challenge to launch out in the deep, and we are happy to report progress; not primarily from a statistical standpoint but from a point of view of a general co-operation among our women. To secure the interest of the new Societies in all phases of the work is a problem; to keep the old one's zeal from flagging and losing interest is a complex problem; while to arouse the cold and indifferent is the greatest task of all. Yet, through a spirit of hearty co-operation of the Associated Presidents, chairmen of Departments, and young people's Leaders, this has been accomplished to a certain extent.

In every phase of our work there has been a sustained interest. Stewardship is claiming our interest just now, and our young people are greatly interested in Stewardship contests.

Mission study has gone forward with a widespread and deeper interest that is worthy of mention. Mission study Institutes and church school of missions. Reverend Spurgeon Richardson, Miss Pearl Bourne and Miss Inlow were teachers and inspirational speakers at one school of missions.

Our Scholarship to O. B. U. was awarded to Miss Frances Denton last year.

Our annual meeting which was held with Central Baptist Church was outstanding in attendance. Four associations, twenty-two societies, seven Y. W. A.'s, five G. A.'s, were represented. Eighteen pastors were in attendance. We are always interested in the progress of the Cherokee Indian Association. Their president brought a splendid report.

Our guest speakers, Miss Juliette Mather and Miss F. Catherine Bryan contributed much to the meeting through their inspirational addresses and pictures of Home and Foreign work. We are grateful to our Southern W. M. U. for sending us these two speakers.

There are two Associational Y. W. A.'s and their Rallies and house parties are to be commended. They promote a much needed Christian fellowship and deepen their spirituality.

In the face of past difficulties, and future problems, we do not lose the vision of our Heavenly Father, looking to Him for guidance throughout the years that, as we are "Laborers together with God" we will ever "Be strong and of good courage—for Jehovah, they God is with thee."

MRS. T. W. STEVENS, District President.

REPORT OF CENTRAL DISTRICT

Encouraging features have come that seem to manifest a steady growth in the work of Central District this past year. Chief among these has been the Declamation contests that were held in four associations: North Canadian, Oklahoma County, Caddo, and Central. It is our hope this year that all of the six associations in this District will have these Declamation Contests among the young people to emphasize the teaching of Stewardship.

Also we are glad to note an interest in Stewardship posters. Mrs. Sarah Liston of Kingfisher presented at Central District annual meeting in Oklahoma City in April the only original Stewardship poster presented in the State. This poster was sent to Washington, D. C., in May to be displayed before the W. M. U. of the South in annual meeting.

Regular quarterly rallies are held in each of the six well organized associations and at least five Missionary Societies have been held.

How happy we are to promote Christian Education by again furnishing scholarships to two fine young women who are in their sophomore year at O. B. U.: Miss Betty Balduff and Miss Nadine Hawkins, both of Oklahoma City.

It is our privilege this year to have as our Margaret Fund girl Miss Eloise Glass of Seminary Hill, Ft. Worth, Texas.

Central Association has an associational library which is proving of much benefit. Our aim is a mission study library in every association.

Each association is also urged to make a year book which will prove of inestimable value in making reports. The giving of attendance banners has been helpful in the quarterly rallies.

We are grateful for the splendid co-operation of the Associational presidents with whom we have worked.

MRS. C. A. RICHARDS, District President.

REPORT OF NORTHEAST DISTRICT

"Among those things which are most surely believed among us," is the blessed fact that "the Word of God is not bound" and Northeastern Association reports with joy that God's work has grown and flourished during the twelve months just closing.

Many souls have been won to Christ through personal service.

Three mission study institutes have been held.

The largest Mexican work in the state was recently organized in this district and is largely supported by our Woman's Missionary Union.

The second year of our O. B. U. scholarship has been successfully underwritten.

Rallies have been regularly held with good attendance.

The White Cross work has benefited from numerous linen showers.

Our Stewardship Declamation contest created wide interest and yielded both inspiration and education.

Special attention has been given W. M. U. work among our colored Baptists.

Our district meeting was outstanding—made so by our speakers, Miss Kathrine Bryant of China, Mrs. Alice Bagby Smith of Brazil and our own Miss Juliette Mather.

MRS. S. E. KEEN, District President.

REPORT OF NORTHWEST DISTRICT

Northwest District is composed of two associations, Northwest and Salt Fork Valley. Each of these associations covers a large territory. Mrs. C. Lex Shelby is the capable president of Salt Fork Valley and Mrs. J. W. Appleton is president of Northwest Association. With these faithful women as leaders and with the unlimited opportunities for service, we are hopeful of another splendid year of service.

We close our year's work grateful for the progress we have made. God has marvelously blessed us this year, perhaps not in material things, but in greater service and greater consecration. Our annual meeting was held with the First Baptist Church of Woodward in April. We were happy to have at this meeting our beloved Mrs. Spooner whose inspiring words are always a joy. Also at the annual meeting were Miss Juliet Mather, our Southwide Young People's Leader, and Miss Catherine Bryan, of Shanghai, China, whose devotion to the Master is always a great inspiration. The Stewardship Declamation Contest for Junior G. A.'s was also held at this meeting. Miss Pauline Bircher, of Alva, was awarded first place.

We are facing another year with hope and great plans for the finest year's work we have experienced. Our aim for the coming year is to enlist more women in active missionary endeavor. We feel the need of the prayers of the women of the state, and may we, as women of Oklahoma, face the new year with utmost faith in Him.

MRS. J. W. ANDERSON, District President.

REPORT OF NORTH CENTRAL DISTRICT

The year 1933 with its many opportunities and responsibilities is fast drawing to a close. Lengthening our cords and strengthening our stakes has been the spirit of North Central District as we have launched out into the deep and let down our nets.

Our District Meeting held at Perry in April was a real inspiration to the great number who attended. Miss Catherine Bryan of China, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Smith, of Brazil, together with Miss Juliette Mather of Birmingham, and our own beloved State workers, Miss Eva Inlow and Dr. J. B. Rounds, lifted us to the mountain peaks with their messages. It has been our happy privilege as a District to have, as our scholarship girl in O. B. U. again this year, Miss Mary Patterson of Enid. Miss Earle, the Dean of Women in O. B. U. writes that our money is well invested in Miss Patterson. We found, after all expenses were paid that we had a balance in the treasury, and $25.00 of this was voted to be given to the Dormitory Fund, trusting that it would cheer the heart of our beloved State Secretary, who was ill and unable to be with us in our meeting, as well as help to pay the indebtedness which was pressing at that time.

We desire to express our thanks to the Associational Presidents, Mrs. J. M. Jones of Perry and Mrs. S. L. McReynolds of Pawnee-Creek, for their untiring devotion to the work which has devolved upon them. Their women have been meeting regularly through the year, thereby keeping them eager to press forward in the Lord's cause, even through this financial depression. May each woman of our District during this next year "Be strong and of good courage for Jehovah, thy God, is with thee."

MRS. J. W. HOLLUMS, District President.

REPORT OF WEST CENTRAL DISTRICT

West Central District is composed of six counties, namely: Beckham, Washita, Custer, Kiowa, Roger Mills and Dewey. We have three Associations: Beckham, Mills and Concord-Kiowa. Much credit is due the three Associational Presidents: Mrs. W. A. Darden, Mrs. John Daniel and Mrs. W. B. Smith.

There are 49 churches in the District. 35 W. M. U.'s and 60 Auxiliaries with four full-graded W. M. U.'s. We were grateful and happy to have as our guests at the District Meeting in Hobart, Miss Catharine Bryan, Shanghai, China; Miss Juliette Mather, Birmingham, Alabama, and our own dearly beloved Mrs. Berta K. Spooner. The inspirations of that meeting still linger in our hearts. We have had one District Young People's Rally in which God's approval seemed to rest upon the meeting, as one boy of R. A. age was saved.

Our outstanding endeavor is an O. B. U. Scholarship for Miss Maxine Potter of Thomas. It is also our privilege and pleasure to "Mother" a Margaret Fund Student, Miss Maribelle McCrea of Redland University, California.

Our aim is to draw our women and young people into a closer fellowship with each other, that through a united effort of prayer, Bible and Mission Study and Personal Service we may enlist the great host of unenlisted to join us as we "Launch out into the deep." Believing that as we "Go," we have the promise, "Lo, I am with you always."

MRS. B. ARMSTRONG, District President.

REPORT OF SOUTHEAST DISTRICT

Coming to the close of the year of 1933, we want to hear our Master say, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant," but instead we are afraid He might say to Southeast District, "Be ye doers of the Word and not hearers only."

In some of our work we feel that we have advanced. First in associational quarterly rallies. Each of the three associations are organized and striving hard to reach the associational standard of excellence. They all try to meet the first Thursday after the close of each quarter.

They have Departmental Conferences and Board Meetings separate from the general meeting.

Two of these churches have a full graded A1 W. M. U.; Spiro First Church and Idabel First Church. We are conducting Mission Study Classes in W. M. S. where they have never had one. This is being made possible by the circulating Library plan. One W. M. S. had loaned three sets of books for Mission study classes who had never had Mission Study before.

We promote extension work to many places where they never hear the Gospel otherwise.

Knowing one of the chief aims of W. M. U. is training women and young people in extending the Gospel and winning souls, we are going to study more, work harder and pray for extension work throughout Oklahoma. Knowing we are "Laborers together with God."

We mean to "Be strong and of good courage" for Jehovah, our God is with us, and let Him reign supremely.

MRS. GUY R. OLD, District President.

REPORT OF SOUTHWEST DISTRICT

There is an awakened sense of loyalty in Southwest District; loyalty of those intrusted with tasks, loyalty to the tremendous responsibility intrusted to them. The officers elected to District or Associational duties have with very few exceptions taken seriously Paul's declaration in I. Thess. 2:4—"But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the Gospel, even so we speak, not as pleasing men, but God which trieth our hearts."

The four Associational presidents have adopted the full plan of work recommended by the state W. M. U. and have unassumingly but determinedly set themselves to the task of carrying it out in their fields of service. Added to their co-operation in the payments on the Memorial Dormitory and other phases of the state program they have paid in full the scholarship fee for a girl from the district, to O. B. U., Miss Vina Mae Harris.

"Launching out into the deep" they have organized a number of societies and auxiliaries, have held quarterly rallies regularly in all but two instances, have arranged for W. M. U. programs in monthly Workers' Conferences and have endeavored to sow seeds of missions in the hearts of the people whenever the opportunity was available. Three district board meetings have been held and a district meeting in April that have proven of great benefit to a great number. With the feeling that there is nothing so impelling as a trust there is an awakened sense of consciousness of what we are entrusted with we must do. We join our hearts and prayers with those of our sisters of the districts in a great missionary program for Oklahoma.

MRS. S. W. HOPKINS, District President.

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE BOARD

As we bring to you this report of the Executive Board of the W. M. U. of Oklahoma for the past year our hearts are grateful that he has led and blessed us and we look forward to the coming tasks with the words of our watchword ringing in our ears: "Be Strong and of good courage—for Jehovah, thy God, is with thee." Josh. 1:19.

Because of a desire to curtail expenses as much as possible there were only three meetings of the Executive Board during the year.

Faced with a slashed budget it became necessary for the Corresponding Secretary to call a meeting of the Advisory Committee on December 10, 1932. After very careful, prayerful consideration it was voted that our field worker be employed for only nine months of the year at a salary of $75.00 per month. Later, because of further drastic cuts in the Co-operative program and in accordance with an action of the Board in the February meeting, it was found necessary to dispense entirely with the services of our field worker and she remained with us only until the month of April.

The first regular meeting of the Board was held February 17, 1933. The regular reports of the various W. M. U. Chairmen were presented and adopted. In addition to the regular work we had as guest, Dr. Rounds, who came before us and spoke to us of the Co-operative Program and the Crucible campaign.

The second meeting was held August 25, 1933. Regular W. M. U. Departmental reports were presented and adopted. Mrs. Spooner in bringing her report said that O. B. U. scholarships are being given this year by the following Districts: North Central, South Central, West Central, Northeast, Southwest and Central giving two.

Plans for refinancing the Dormitory were suggested and discussed and a motion made by Mrs. McGovern prevailed that this body authorize Mrs. Spooner to further investigate this proposition and use her judgment with the assurance that the Board will give her full co-operation.

Mrs. Spooner spoke of the Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions and Mrs. McMillan stressed the Day of Prayer around the World.

The Hundred Thousand Club was explained by the Corresponding Secretary who presented suggested Apportionments for the Associational Presidents based on an apportionment of 2500 women for that State.

Motion made by Mrs. Armstrong that we pledge our co-operation as an official body to Mrs. F. W. Armstrong as president of the W. M. U. of the South was unanimously carried.

Motion by Mrs. Hoover prevailed that a note of appreciation be sent to Dr. Rounds.

In the meeting of the Executive Board just prior to the annual meeting, Mrs. Spooner reported having investigated the insurance propositions presented in regard to the Dormitory and having decided that it will be best to go on in the plan we have.

In this meeting the report of the recommendations committee was presented and discussed and upon motion by Mrs. Daniel, it was voted that a recommendation be added to this report that we turn our attention again to scholarships for the Training Schools. It was also voted that some plan for awards for Sewardship declamation winners be referred to the Stewardship Conference.

Mrs. Spooner spoke of hearing from Dr. Scarborough in reference to the nursery at Southwestern Seminary and brought a plea for the support of this worth while task.

Upon motion by Mrs. Stevens it was voted to send a message to Mrs. Lockett, expressing our sympathy in the sudden bereavement of her beloved companion and co-laborer, Dr. B. L. Lockett of Africa.

Motion by Mrs. Daniel prevailed that we send a message of love to Mrs. Aulick—kept away because of an accident.

Mrs. Spooner announced conferences to be held each morning at 8 o'clock.

Respectfully Submitted,

MRS. C. A. RICHARDS, Recording Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RECOMMENDATIONS

II. Prayer

That we emphasize the prayer life of the individual and that in all meetings we may be more spiritual.

That we place much emphasis on the establishment and maintenance of family altars. Let our slogan be: "A Family Altar in Every Baptist Home in Oklahoma."

III. Mission Study

That the Mission Study Chairman of Woman's Missionary Societies shall report quarterly to the Associational Mission Study Chairmen not later than the fifth of the month following the close of the quarter.

That the District Mission Study Chairman shall report quarterly to the State Mission Study Chairman not later than the fifteenth of the month following the close of the quarter.

That Mission Study Institutes be held in each Association and District annually.

That Woman's Missionary Societies co-operate with the church in supporting the Church School of Missions.

That Missionary libraries be established wherever possible in the local church and association.

That at least one program on World Peace be given every year in the circles of the Woman's Missionary Society.

That credit be given on the W. M. S. certificate courses for the study of books published in the State Year Book.

That members of the Woman's Missionary Society who have completed Certificate Courses I and II enroll for the advanced course in Mission Study.

That every effort be intensified to teach missions to our young people.

REPORT OF OBITUARY COMMITTEE

"They Rest From Their Labors"

Yesterday and today as we have looked on the fields we have been thrilled by the harvest that God has given as a result of our labor together with Him—we have been stilled by the challenge of fields ripened and waiting with no one to reap. So now with tender hearts and subdued spirits we pause to pay tribute to the memory of those of our number who, during the past year, at the close of life's day, have gone to the Father's home "bringing in their sheaves." For their work is ended—they rest from their labors. Isn't God good to his children? Nothing is more satisfying than the sweet rest of evening that follows a day of arduous labor, when aching muscles and tired mind are soothed by sleep. Our sisters have toiled arduously in God's field. They have been wearied by the greatness of the harvest and the scarcity of laborers, many times their hearts have ached at the burden of it all, but God has called them to rest in the quiet of His heavenly home.

Passing out of the shadow, into a purer light,
Stepping behind the curtain, getting a clearer sight.
Passing out of the shadow, into eternal day—
Why do we call it dying—this sweet going away?

As we call the roll of names how many would like to speak a word of praise, would like to give a word of thanks for inspiration and encouragement received from their lives, how many could tell of a Savior found because of some word from these! That their names were on the roll of the Womans Missionary Union speaks of a life that sought to share in the labor of the harvest.

There is an old story that tells of the dying of a king. A courier ran throughout the empire crying "the king is dead." As the last words of the message fell an herald came with blare of trumpet shouting "Long live the king." The business of the kingdom could not wait, even as the old king died a new king was crowned. To those who have lost some loved one by death there is perhaps no harder thought than that things must move on as if the loved one still lived. In that first hour of grief it would seem that surely all activity must cease. But the days move on as if they had never lived. So year after year as we scan the list of beloved laborers who have entered into rest, we cannot wait to single out each separate deed, recall each act of special kindness done, for the business of the kingdom cannot wait.

We cannot speak a greater tribute to these our sisters than to say the work that they were doing was of such moment that it must be finished. And though we would wait with bowed heads in loving remembrance of them, we must barely pause, and then with lifted heads press on until all the nations shall crown Him Lord of all.

The associations reported 86 deaths from the Woman's Missionary Union. The following were officers or past officers of local W. M. S.: Mrs. W. O. Bohnfield, Tulsa; Mrs. Amanda Wells, Guthrie; Mrs. R. N. Higgins, Sayre; Mrs. J. W. Kiehl, Okmulgee.

MRS. N. B. SHOUSE.
MRS. EULA GRUBBS.

That we express our sincere thanks and appreciation:

1. To Tulsa for its fine hospitality and to the newspapers for favorable comment.

3. To the Woman's Missionary Union of the South for sending to our convention our south-wide Corresponding Secretary, Miss Kathleen Mallory, who has been such an inspiration and help to us.

4. To one and all who assisted in any way to make this convention an outstanding one in the annals of Oklahoma history.

5. To our State Officers and their co-workers, for their untiring work and co-operation in leading the Baptist Women of our state in all phases of our Denominational Work, in the great task of winning Oklahoma to Christ.
