43. H. H. Boston read the report on Religious Literature and moved its adoption. He spoke to the report. The report is as follows:

REPORT ON RELIGIOUS LITERATURE

One of the most deadly enemies of any nation, class or religious denomination of people is to think crookedly. It seems that a great number of people today in the commercial, political, and spiritual realms have their minds distorted because of crooked thinking. Yet we should not place the blame on the individual for the conditions that exist but upon the yellow press and other channels of communication that have been used to promote the interests of Satan. After a careful survey of the present conditions of our people and a diagnosis has been made of the causes, it should be one of the greatest challenges of our great denomination to set itself to the task of giving to the people the proper information to set the people to thinking aright. There are three agencies of our denomination: namely, the Sunday School Board, Baptist Book Store, and The Baptist Messenger, that have been established for the purpose of giving the people the proper information and to promoting the interest of Christ in our church life.

As we turn our attention to the power of the printed page and think of it as another tool for the propagation of Christian principles and for the promotion of denominational loyalty and solidarity, the following quotations constitute fertile soil for our claim. The Apostle Paul advises: "Give heed to reading." Francis Bacon observes: "Reading maketh a full man; conference a ready man; and writing an exact man." General Pershing writes: "We were always concerned that the morale of the troops should be kept up to a high pitch. As an aid in this direction it seemed to me that a publication of some sort that would be available to all the troops would be useful. By my direction, the question was taken up by Colonel Nolan and the result was the "Stars and Stripes," the official newspaper of the A. E. F. There was possibly no other factor that contributed as much to the morale of the A. E. F. as the 'Stars and Stripes'." May we remember that in the army of God, His church, which is the mightiest army that ever marched across any continent with unlimited power, the "Stars and Stripes" is God's Holy Word. If we will use the Bible as a text book for our pulpit, church school, and life, we will have our people well on the way to a unified effort and a worthy program. We have other literature that has received its birth and inspiration from the Bible that should be used along with the text book to direct the thinking of our people in the right direction. The three agencies that we have to furnish this literature should be considered by our own people as outstanding in our denominational life.

1. The Sunday School Board

Our own Baptist Sunday School Board of Nashville continues to render a noble service in our state as well as in other states of our Southland. It does not receive gifts from the churches, but it contributes largely to the financial program of the denomination. The work of the board in all its departments, is worthy of our praise and our support. It does a great work in distribution of religious, denominational, and evangelistic tracts free of cost to our churches.

We, therefore, commend to our people the religious books and publications of the Sunday School Board. The Sunday School literature published by the Baptist Sunday School Board is unquestionably the best literature for our Baptist Sunday Schools. May we say that the literature is not to displace the Text Book of all Baptist Sunday Schools, the Bible, the Word of God. It is helps given by the best scholars of our denomination to give to us a clearer understanding of the Bible. May we remember that it is impossible to have human helps without an error creeping in here and yonder but as a whole we will find that it is the safest and sanest literature that can be found anywhere. We, therefore, commend its use in our Sunday Schools and Churches as a help to the study of God's Word

2. The Baptist Book Store

Mr. H. Killingsworth is manager of our Book Store in this state, which is owned and operated jointly by the Baptist Sunday School Board, Nashville, Tennessee, and our Baptist General Convention. You are able to buy through our Book Store any kind of book that relates to our denominational life, devotional, doctrinal, or missionary. These books deal with the organized life of the denomination, clear the vision, loyalty and keep our people from thinking crookedly. For the past two years, the store has shown a decline in sales and a loss in profits due to the distressed conditions of our people. The last year however gives us a brighter outlook for the future because there was an increase of sales for the past year and a profit on the sales. The amount of sales for the past year closing December 31st, amounted to $31,043.37, showing a profit of $51.10. Our gain in sales this year over the same period last year was approximately 25%. Our store would be able to show a greater profit if the people and churches of our state would be more prompt in paying the accounts past due. We would, therefore, suggest that the individuals and churches having accounts with the store be prompt in the payment of their accounts and that we purchase through the Book Store in Oklahoma City, so that our Baptist Book Store would be strengthened and that in doing so we would enable the Sunday School Board to contribute more largely to the work of the denomination, and to help the mission work in our state.

3. Baptist Messenger

The Baptist Messenger is our state denominational paper and plays a great part in the denominational life of our people in this state. It is more than a sort of "trade journal" for its constituency, even more than a channel for information about the progress and the needs upon the various fields of labor. It is to be more than a medium of exchange of opinion by means of essays and articles. It is to be all of these, of course, but the resultant of its activity should be denominational loyalty and solidarity. It is to make our people increasingly denominationally minded. The reader of our state paper preserves his balance and optimism when the tides of worldly thought and opinions are running in the opposite direction. The kingdom and government of our Lord are kept to the fore-front in the midst of falling and changing ones of this earth. If at any time in the history of the earth we need a message to keep the morale of our people at a high rate it is now. Seeing the need of the Baptist Messenger we, therefore, recommend:

1. That we continue the plans as outlined by our editor, Dr. E. C. Routh, to have at least fifteen thousand subscribers.

2. That we accomplish this task by organizing clubs in our churches or by putting the Messenger in our budget and send it to every home in our church.

3. That we put the Baptist Messenger on the desk of every pastor and on the library table of every Baptist home in the State of Oklahoma.

Your committee here also wishes to commend Dr. E. C. Routh, for his able service as editor of the Messenger, for his noble Christian spirit, and the fine service that he has rendered to the denomination at his post of duty. We feel that he is one of the ablest editors in the whole Southland. Our Messenger has the greatest number of subscribers this year than at any time in the history of the publication.

Respectfully submitted:

BAPTIST GENERAL CONVENTION

44. E. C. Routh read a report on the Baptist Messenger. This report is as follows:

THE BAPTIST MESSENGER

The Baptist Messenger is able to report one of the best years in its history. Notwithstanding the testing times through which we have passed, we are able to report an average weekly circulation of 10,128 through the Convention year, with 9,025 circulation the last issue published. This is twice the number published two years ago last summer and is 2,000 more than a year ago. In proportion to the number of Baptists, it is probably the largest average circulation for the year of any State Baptist paper in the South.

Last year, for six months we published the paper every other week and were able to report a small operating surplus for the year. This year we have published at least sixteen pages every week, except for the usual three or four issues omitted each year for years; yet, in spite of the fact that printing costs are almost as large as they were seven years ago, and our subscription price is practically one-half of what it was then the Baptist Messenger makes a good financial showing and reports more money received than at any time in recent years.

This gratifying increase in circulation began with the reduction in price and the adoption of the church club plan. After all there is no need of publishing the Baptist Messenger unless it reaches, in a large measure, the constituency of this Convention. Its primary purpose is to inform, indoctrinate, inspire, and enlist the Baptists of Oklahoma in the great task which our Lord has committed to us. Its value as an enlistment and unifying agent has been demonstrated beyond question. It is much easier to enlist the support of Baptists for their missionary, training, and benevolent causes, when they are informed about such causes through the reading of the denominational paper. If every Baptist home in this state were to receive the Baptist Messenger, the offerings to the interests and institutions so necessary to the promotion of Christ's cause, would, beyond all doubt, be greatly increased.

The church club rate of two cents a copy per week, where five or more copies are mailed to individual addresses, and the account is carried in the name of the church, and paid weekly or monthly, has placed the Baptist Messenger within reach of every church however small it may be. Many country and small town churches have adopted this plan and are pleased with the results. What they do, other churches can do,—not for the sake of the Baptist Messenger, but for the sake of Christ's cause.

We most earnestly urge that especial emphasis be given the next ninety days to an effort to increase the circulation of the Baptist Messenger to the 15,000 mark so that every co-operative task, whether missions, evangelism, Oklahoma Baptist University, or benevolence will meet with immediate and unanimous response. What say our fellow workers to this Convention?

Respectfully submitted:

E. C. Routh

45. Motion to adopt report on Religious Literature carried.

46. George P. Drake moved to grant E. C. Routh a two weeks vacation with full pay as an annual affair. Carried.

47. Hollis Burge read the report of Committee on Auxiliaries and moved its adoption. Carried. The report is as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON AUXILIARIES

The Auxiliaries of the Oklahoma State Baptist Convention include the following named state organizations: The Baptist Training Union, The Sunday School, Baptist Student Union, Woman's Missionary Union and Laymen's Work. It is impossible in this report to give a fair resume of the splendid work of the departments. Therefore, we shall deal only with the high points of this year's work, leaving the detailed reports to be made throughout the year through the Baptist Messenger and other agencies.

The Sunday School, The Baptist Training Union and Baptist Student Union Work

The Sunday School, The B. T. U. and B. S. U. Work under the able leadership of Secretary T. H. Farmer, has made marvelous progress.

The field of larger Sunday School and B. T. U. endeavor is comprised of ten districts, 32 associations, and 77 counties. It has been the policy of this department to promote a higher type of teacher training, the standardization of classes, departments, and Sunday Schools and for B. T. U. departments and unions making regular quarterly reports to the State office working toward standardization. An effort is now being made to perfect 32 associational Sunday school units that shall parallel the 32 operating B. T. U. associational units in monthly meetings, alternating bi-monthly between Sunday school and B. T. U. work, thus enabling us to reach effectively the churches, the Sunday schools, and the B. T. U.s of Oklahoma.

Sunday School Opportunity

In Oklahoma we have 994 reporting churches which have a total membership of 176,498 as revealed on page 260 of the 1934 Southern Baptist Handbook. We are having approximately 13,974 conversions per year. An analysis reveals that there are 889 Sunday Schools in Oklahoma. Thus the figures show that 105 churches in the state do not have Sunday Schools. Since 25% of the membership of the Sunday Schools of Oklahoma are in the Cradle Roll, Beginner, Primary and Junior Departments, we estimate that 36,850 of the Sunday School enrollment are unconverted. We find that we are reaching only 110,551 of our church members with our Sunday Schools, thus we lack 65,947 individual living breathing souls, of having our church members enlisted in the Sunday Schools.

B. T. U. Opportunity

A similar analysis indicates that we lack 131,365 of having our church members enrolled in the B. T. U. services of the churches. These figures should challenge us to our best efforts if we are to assimilate those who are passing through the waters of baptism annually.

In order to meet the emergency in the enlistment program we have elected leaders and set up departments in our state work.

Revamped Activities

It became wise for our Secretary to revamp the activities of this department since our financial ability and our physical energies would not permit the carrying out of all the programs as were set up under the separate departments, therefore, the B. T. U. Convention and the Sunday School Convention were made to alternate by years with the date placed in March. The District Conventions were fixed in June as the major operation for the second quarter; the Falls Creek Assembly and the Panhandle Assembly were fixed as the major operations for the third quarter. The Talent Tour and Rural Church Conferences were fixed in the associational meetings so that we may have in our setup meetings where our Southwide workers could contact the urban, village and open country church leadership for a progressive program in Sunday School enlargement, B. T. U. endeavor, Vacation Bible School activities, etc.

What We Did This Year

Thirteen enlargement campaigns were conducted in local churches employing 20 Southwide workers who gave 1180 hours into the work. These workers came from outside of Oklahoma into the territory.

The record for state workers gives the following results:

Miles traveled	28,775
Training Schools and Enlargement Campaigns.....	37
Associational-wide schools	4
Sunday School awards issued	4,372
B. T. U. awards issued	10,820
State-wide meetings held	5
State Tours (this included the ten district conventions)	3
Number of conversions reported	19
Additions by letter	26
Number of dedications	171
Paid to O.B.U. Press for special issues of Messenger	$1,315.11
Paid to Orphans' Home (Falls Creek collection)	$117.60
120 weeks spent on field by state workers or 10,730 hours
38 weeks spent on field by S. S. Board workers or 2,204 hours
31 other out-of-state workers spending 54 weeks or 3,132 hours
The Vacation Bible schools greatly increased over those of last year. The records show 64 schools reported in 1934 against 43 schools reported in 1933.

The department is responsible for the Falls Creek Assembly which is owned in fee simple by the B. T. U. with valuation of $37,626.56. That you might see what those figures represent, let us ask you to compare them with the valuation of the Baptist Building as given on page 44 of the 1932 state annual which is $37,527.77. It is only by the volume of attendance and registration contributions that we are able to report the assembly in splendid financial condition. It is clear of debt this year (with the exception of a note to Mrs. Maude M. Abner for $300.00 on a piece of property purchased from her.). The annual rent of the property meets the annual interest requirement. This year we were able to lay aside $250.00 to meet the caretaker's salary monthly. Mr. H. L. Dupree is caretaker for the current year of August 15, 1934 to August 15, 1935. The Assembly this year with an attendance of 5,332 was the best we have had in many respects.

Recommendations "Working Objectives For Year 1934-1935"

1. The organization of 32 associational functioning Sunday School units.
2. The registration of all Sunday Schools, Departments and Classes with the Baptist Sunday School Board, Nashville, Tennessee.
3. Every B. T. U. Department and Union sending in quarterly reports to the State B. T. U. office, by the 10th of each month following the close of each quarter.
4. Strict gradation of our Sunday School and B. T. U. work in harmony with the Sunday School Board's policy.
5. An enthusiastic effective B. T. U. associational organization in each of the 32 associations promoting the Junior Memory, Intermediate Sword Drill, Senior Oratorical and Hymn Contest.
6. The promotion of the Training Course for Sunday School workers and the training in Church Membership course through the B. T. U.'s.
7. Each Sunday School Department, Class and B. Y. P. U., organizing themselves for the attending of the State Sunday School Convention, Tulsa, March 20-21-22-23, 1935, and the Falls Creek Assembly, August 6-16, 1935.
8. That the churches employ the Sunday School and B. T. U. Department "Calendar of Activities" as a working schedule for 1934-1935.

Baptist Student Union

The Oklahoma delegation was the third largest attending the Quadrennial meeting of the Baptist Student Union held in Memphis, Tennessee, in the later part of October of this year. Oklahoma Baptist University had the largest delegation of any school in the South. Ira Peak, head of the Oklahoma Baptist University B. S. U., and also President of the State B. S. U., gives the following brief report of the B. S. U. activities for this year. This department functions in the colleges and universities of the state among the Baptist boys and girls who are attending these schools.

1. State Officers:

President ----- Randall Jones, 713 College Avenue,
Stillwater, Oklahoma

Vice-President ----- Edgar Hallock, 506 Lehoma Street,
Norman, Oklahoma

Secretary ----- Ammie Pruitt, A. & M. College,
Stillwater, Oklahoma

2. Activities: Most of our work has been done in such way that we cannot put it in concrete form, but will mention some of it.

(a) Sponsored some 15 study courses in Missions, Soul-Winning, etc., on the college campuses.

(b) Engaged a large number of our students in helping with study courses, D. V. B. S., and in personal evangelism during the summer months.

(c) Over 100 conversions reported during school year.

(d) Enlisted some 750 college students to their local church (at college centers).

3. The Motive: The entire motive and purpose for our work is to connect the college student to the local church when he comes to college, and to enlist him into active Christian work.

4. Objectives:

(a) To enlist every Baptist student in college with the local church.

(b) To make Christ real to college students by Bible study, Prayer, and Personal soul winning.

(c) To establish a B. S. U. organization on each college campus in the state. (We now have a B. S. U. on nine campuses.)

5. Expenditures:

(a) To the denomination, nothing.

(b) To the colleges, nothing.

(State work sponsored individually above church pledge. Each local campus is included in the regular church budget of the churches near the college.)

6. Recommendation:

(a) Pastors of the state inform themselves to the true nature of the Baptist Student work.

(b) That the pastors over the state give better co-operation to the pastor in college centers by letter, etc., regarding the students coming from their churches.

(c) Pray for the Baptist Students of the South as they strive to "make Christ their Master."

The Department of Woman's Missionary Union

The quotation from the 1932 report of Auxiliaries, the introductory quotation of the Woman's Missionary Union, can surely be repeated this year with great significance. The quotation is as follows:

"In the midst of chaotic, gravely serious world conditions, Woman's Missionary Union has walked through the days with the assurance of the indomitable promise, 'He shall reign' as a beacon to faith and courage."

A brief summary to prove this quotation has been gleaned from Mrs. Spooner's Annual report to the Twenty-Ninth Annual Meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of Oklahoma.

1. There are 586 societies, fostering this year 312 Y. W. A.'s, 441 G. A.'s, 274 R. A.'s, and 347 Sunbeam Bands, a total of 1,374 missionary organizations for the young people of our state. 221 new auxiliaries and 32 W. M. S.'s make a total of 253 new organizations this year.
2. In 184 churches we have maintained full W. M. U. families, many having six and seven auxiliaries. Of this splendid group, we have thus far 6 standard A-1, W. M. U. families.
3. Twenty-eight associations have had a rally each quarter during the year.
4. In 1,690 mission study classes we have been learning about every kindred, every tribe on this terrestrial ball. Surely this is a day of mission study. I believe with my whole heart that mission study is the most significant fundamental in our plan of work for the reason that through the influence of a stimulating book many women have come to put prayer, Bible study and gifts into their rightful places.
5. At the W. M. U. Training School, Louisville, and Southwestern Training School at Fort Worth, choice young women are preparing for definite service.
6. White Cross, this year, becomes more vital to us since one of our very own daughters, Elizabeth Routh, goes to represent us in Ogbomoso Hospital, Nigeria, Africa. Let us not forget to increase our prayers for her and her work as well as our gifts for her support. We must support others who were appointed at the same time through the Christmas offering. This year, Oklahoma W. M. U. gave $6,176.78. Another year, we must surely increase.
7. This year 686 young people's organizations and 534 W. M. S. gave $3,882.25 for Home Missions. A ten per cent increase has been added for the 1935 goal.
8. Clothing valued at $4,169.45, cash for shoes, hats and books, $1,565.00, 82 quilts, $328.00, 591 cases of eggs, $2,364.00, 33 coops of chickens, $418.50, soap, linens, and miscellaneous, $439.50, produce of every kind, chickens, eggs, fruits, vegetables and groceries coming by truck, $6,597.80, making a total of $15,882.25, were contributed by the societies of this state.
9. From November 1, 1933, to November 1, 1934, we have received $12,624.21, on the dormitory fund.
10. This year the total cash contributions going to the Co-operative program, state missions, home missions, Lottie Moon Christmas offering, dormitory fund, Scholarship, White Cross, Margaret Fund, Nursery Fund at Southwestern Training School, the Orphans' Home and to local work amount to $73,515.25. The other contributions besides cash given to these institutions and objects make a total of $11,834.75, making a grand total of cash and other contributions of $85,350.00.

Words cannot express our appreciation to Mrs. Spooner and the women of Oklahoma, for their wonderful work during these hours of uncertainty. Surely they have "carried on."

The Laymen's Work

Our Laymen are without paid secretarial leadership or any financial budget. The state chairman, J. E. George of Enid, Oklahoma, the president, secretary and ten district chairmen serve voluntarily. The objectives of the laymen's program are to teach a fuller stewardship, encourage weekly offerings, support the pastor, fill the pews, foster missionary endeavors, encourage the brethren and win souls.

Almost all work that has been done in this department has been of local dimensions. Many churches foster a brotherhood. Some of the associations have organizations which meet quarterly. Many of them have splendid programs of great inspiration and fellowship.

It is recommended that the local pastors be active in promoting a laymen's organization in their local churches and that the laymen be urged to organize for the promotion of the objectives of the organizations as fostered by the State and Southern Baptist Convention.

It is further recommended that as soon as possible a paid secretary or other means, be devised to give the laymen's work its proper place among the Baptists of Oklahoma.

Professor J. E. George of Enid should be commended for the faithful work in this department.

To all these departments and their leaders we extend our gratitude, our support and our prayers.

48. J. E. George, State Chairman of Laymen's Organization, spoke on the Brotherhood work in Oklahoma.

49. Dr. George Green, Texas, was allowed ten minutes as representative of the Relief and Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention.

50. President Morris appointed a committee of five laymen to nominate state and district leaders of the Laymen's Organization.

A. L. Crable, Stillwater; Ray Evans, Shawnee; Homer Grimmett, Anadarko; W. C. Duncan, Ada; E. V. Mashburn, Oklahoma City.

51. J. W. Storer read the report of Committee on Missions and moved its adoption. Carried. The report is as follows:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MISSIONS

To this Committee has been delegated the writing of the report on Missions, a sort of covering statement which is to serve as an introduction to the specific reports.

We are taught in the Great Commission that ours is a world-wide mission. If our Baptist churches are to remain in the Light of the World there must be a new dedication of our people to the call of our Master, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world."

We have been saved by His blood, and are therefore debtors, both to God and humanity.

"We may not know, we cannot tell
What pains He had to bear;
But we believe it was for us
He hung and suffered there."

That ought to rekindle a holy enthusiasm in our hearts, for to us has been committed the Gospel, the good news, that through His suffering and death we have forgiveness and life.

The world has become satirical and cynical, hopeless and hard. Its first need is a new birth within the spiritual and moral realm. And that will never come until the world finds God, and it will never find God until it finds Christ.

In so many words, Jesus said, "You are to bring the world to God through me, as the Father sent me to manifest Him, so send I you to manifest Him. As the Father sent me not to manifest Him alone but to bring the world back to Him by the way of reconciliation, so send I you."

"Out from the realm of glory light,
Into the far away land of night,
Out from the bliss of worshipful song
Into the pain of hatred and wrong,
Out from the holy rapture above
Into the grief of rejected love.
Out from the life at the Father's side
Into the death of the Crucified,
Out of high honor into shame
The Master willingly, gladly came.
And now, since He may not suffer anew
As the Father sent Him, so sendeth He you."

Surely it is a strange day if Missionary Baptist Churches must be argued into an acceptance of the plain commands of their Lord. Yet judging by our gifts to this fundamental of Christianity we are giving far more lip service than real obedience.

Your Committee, therefore, would urge your renewal of allegiance to, and fellowship with, Christ.

Moffat's translation of Acts 9:20 contains a thought which it would be well for us to grasp. "And he lost no time" in preaching Christ, that he was the Son of God." So let us "lose no time" for the days are evil, night cometh when no man can work.

52. G. Lee Phelps submitted a report relative to the relationship of the Indian work with the Oklahoma State and Southern Baptist Conventions and moved its adoption. Carried. The report is as follows:

REPORT ON INDIAN WORK

To the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma meeting at Ada, November 14, 1934.

Dear Brethren: You will permit me to make my report this year with some explanations. For many years the Home Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, the Home Mission Society of New York, and the Indian Territory, co-operated in the support of the mission work among the "Five Civilized Tribes" of Indians. Later when Oklahoma became a sovereign state, and all Baptist forces united in the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, this later Convention assumed all support and supervision of the work among the Tribes.

During many years the Indian people have responded, and co-operated in a splendid way, and the White people have been happy in the fellowship of their Indian brethren and sisters.

For some years there has been a growing conviction upon the part of some of us who were close to the work, that all Indian Mission work should be under the supervision of one general agency. This plan is in operation in all other states in our territory, and we believe it should be the plan in Oklahoma, besides we believe that by the very nature of Indian mission work it is a Home Mission project. Therefore, by mutual agreement between the Home Board of the Southern Baptist Convention and the Oklahoma Baptist General Convention, and after due consideration by the Boards representing both Conventions, it was agreed that all Indian mission work in Oklahoma be turned over to the Home Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, and after June 1, 1934, the said Home Board shall supervise and support the work among all Indians in Oklahoma.

This important change was made with a perfect understanding and good will, and it is the hope that the same good will and fellowship shall continue between the Indian Baptists and the white Baptists that has been during all the years—"We are One."

I am profoundly grateful for confidence and good fellowship that has existed between us during my many years of service with you. I believe implicitly in every interest and institution fostered by this Convention. You have believed in me and trusted me with the supervision of a very important phase of the work.

In conclusion, I wish to assure you of my continued co-operation, with every assistance I am capable of giving.

Respectfully submitted:

General Lee Phelps

53. G. Lee Phelps introduced the following Home Board workers in Oklahoma:

Mr. and Mrs. A. Worthington, Pawhuska; A. W. Hancock, Shawnee; Mrs. G. Lee Phelps, Wetumka.

54. Rupert Naney addressed the Convention on the work of the Home Mission Board.

55. T. L. Holcomb moved that the recommendation of last year relative to the changes in Constitution and By-Laws be adopted. Carried. Recommendation is as follows:

"We recommend that the Board of Directors of the Convention be composed of thirty-two regularly elected members. We further recommend that the Convention next year (1934) elect eight members for one year, eight for two years, and eight for three years and eight for four years. Eight members shall retire each year and not be eligible for re-election to this Board for a period of one year.

We recommend that the president and recording secretary of the convention shall be ex-officio members of the Board and shall sustain the same official relationship to the Board as heretofore.

We recommend that the Constitution and By-Laws be made to conform to these changes.

56. Secretary Andrew Potter read the report of the Board of Directors. Motion to adopt it carried. The report is as follows:

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS TO THE BAPTIST
GENERAL CONVENTION OF OKLAHOMA*November 14, 1934

A little more than one hundred years ago the first Baptist Church was planted a few miles west of Muskogee on what is now Oklahoma soil. Momentous things have happened since that far off day. The map of the world has been changed; science and invention have made astounding progress; the population of the earth has practically doubled; and Christianity has gone forward along many lines.

Baptist have made marvellous progress the past century. One hundred years ago we were an insignificant people without prestige and influence in the world. Today we are numbered by the millions, and, among those who embrace the Baptist faith and fellowship, are a great host of leaders of world thought. God has made good His promise that "Upon this rock I will build my church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." He has built His church numerically, financially, and positionally in the world. We have grown in the past century in America from a few scattered churches to "a great multitude that no man can number."

Oklahoma Baptist have made a marvellous gain in numbers. The causes for this phenomenal growth are not difficult to discover. We have gone forth in the country-side, villages, towns, and cities ablaze with the missionary passion and have magnified the preaching of the Gospel of God's dear Son as the primary method of winning souls. Brave and heroic pioneers have laid well the foundation for Baptist life in Oklahoma. Our heritage is a blessed one, rich in its many-sided nature and symmetrical development, and undoubtedly surpassing the fondest hopes of our heroic forefathers. Let us pause in gratitude for the victories of the past, thank God, and take courage.

We have much to be thankful for as a people. There has been no serious rift or schism in our ranks. Our denominational record in Oklahoma does not suffer in comparison with others. Our pastors have been faithful in proclaiming the truth of God and winning souls to Christ. They have labored sacrificially at their task—many of them on starvation salaries—and the results of their labors are written on High and will not be known until the "Books are opened." A faithful pastor may not win plaudits from the world but he gathers to himself a soul-satisfaction which comes by an intimate walk with God and a faithful performance of duty.

The attitude of God's people in present world conditions will determine the future. To follow a policy of defeatism will wreck the churches and lose the battle for Christianity. A heroic and self-sacrificing spirit will remake conditions and guarantee the future. It is time for God's people to seriously contemplate the words of the prophet: "'Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit,' saith the Lord of Hosts." These words point to the only sure way to permanent recovery. There must be spiritual recovery on the part of God's people before we can hope to be lifted out of the chaotic conditions in which the world finds itself today.

We have faced serious problems, made all the more difficult of solution because our churches have had to meet similar problems in seeking to maintain their own existence.

The conditions we have faced have been a challenge, they have called for loyalty and devotion to the cause that has awakened a splendid response all over our State. The very difficulties we face have brought us closer to God and into a finer fellowship with one another. While the world is groping in darkness and struggling in vain to bring about better economic conditions, God's people, with simple faith, look to Him as the source of power that can eventually stabilize the world and bring about a state of peace and prosperity. If these dark days develop in us a greater love for God and a greater compassion for fallen and suffering humanity, a deeper sympathy, and greater forbearance and patience in our dealings with one another, then this period will have provided a means of spiritual development and growth in grace.

In the midst of these chaotic conditions Oklahoma Baptists have carried on with heroism the work of preaching, teaching, and healing begun by our Lord and committed to those who love Him. This annual report represents a year of sacrificial and consecrated service which will bring joy and satisfaction to every Oklahoma Baptist heart and a renewed determination to "Go forward" as we face the future.

Hospitals

Jesus Himself took time to heal the bodies of men. Jesus was the Great Physician. In His name Baptists are carrying on a ministry of healing. There are three Baptists hospitals in Oklahoma, one at Miami, one at Muskogee, and one at Enid. Two of these are operated by the Convention—the Enid institution by a group of local Baptists. The delicate problems of the Muskogee Hospital have been solved. Surely all who are interested in the highest welfare of their fellowmen will rejoice in these records of achievement as we come to the close of the Convention year.

We recommend that both the Miami and Muskogee institutions be operated by the Board of Directors under the same management.

Orphans Home

The Orphans' Home has made an excellent record under the capable leadership of Superintendent E. A. Howard. They are feeding, clothing, educating, and giving religious training to 178 homeless children. We recommend the same policies as the past year in the management of the home.

Baptist Book Store

The Baptist Book Store is owned jointly by the Baptist General Convention and the Baptist Sunday School Board. Mr. H. Killingsworth is the manager. We urge our people to be loyal and patronize our own Book Store.

Indian Work

The Indian work carried on by the Baptist General Convention so effectively through the years has been by mutual agreement turned over to the Home Mission Board. Brother G. Lee Phelps continues in this work. We urge our people to support the Indian work through their gifts to Home Missions.

Brotherhoods

Substantial progress has been made the past year in the organization of both church and associational brotherhoods. A great State-wide meeting was held in Oklahoma last spring. Mr. J. E. George, chairman, and other fine laymen have given generously of their time and effort to promote this good work. We urge every individual agency and institution to promote and encourage more intense activity among the laymen.

Woman's Missionary Union

The Woman's Missionary Union, led by Mrs. Berta K. Spooner, has helped to build the missionary spirit in all our churches. The women of Oklahoma, brought together in their societies, have been faithful in teaching mission history, have created a missionary conscience, and have practiced what they preached by sacrificial giving to missionary causes.

Training Department

Mr. T. H. Farmer has directed the activities of both the B. T. U. and Sunday School Departments, the B. S. U. work, and the Baptist Assembly at Falls Creek. This grouping of departments under one head was affected for the sake of economy. After more than one year of trial and experiment it is found to work very satisfactorily and we recommend the continuance of this department grouping.

We desire in this connection to thank the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention for the help given us the past year. Notwithstanding the fact that we reduced our appropriations to these departments, the Sunday School Board did not cut its appropriations to us. The Sunday School Board gave us last year $4,062.50, our Board supplied $1,740.00 and $7,886.78 was obtained from state and district conventions, assembly registration, rentals, etc., making a grand total of $13,689.28 received by this Department during the year. We earnestly urge our churches throughout the State to show their appreciation of this co-operation on the part of the Sunday School Board by using the literature furnished by them and by paying promptly for any supplies purchased from them.

Baptist Assembly

The Baptist Assembly at Falls Creek had the largest attendance in its noble history. It ranks high among institutions of its kind. It brings together a great multitude of Christian young people for study and training in Christian service, as well as recreation and fellowship. The spiritual tides run high in this Assembly of Baptist people.

Oklahoma Baptist University

Oklahoma Baptist University has made remarkable progress. The change of administration was effected without serious handicap to the school. The enrollment has increased; the morale of the student body and the faculty is better, and the institution is becoming each year more deeply entrenched in the affections of Okianoma Baptists. We heartily approve the plans and policies set out for the school by Dr. J. W. Raley, and pledge our co-oprea-tion to his aggressive program.

Baptist Messenger

Our capable editor, Dr. E. C. Routh, is making a distinct contribution to Oklahoma Baptist life. The Baptist Messenger creates and fosters denominational sentiment. Surely we need some such circulating medium to make and mould sentiment for Baptist causes. The fires of denominational devotion will soon be burning low, and their flames beginning to flicker, unless the proper supply of feul be kept on hand. If our denomination is to live and grow we must keep it actively alive in the minds, hearts, and purposes of our people. Putting the Baptist Messenger in the homes of our constituency will do much toward saving our children for the church.

Our principles must be popularized. The Baptist Messenger is a bond of denominational fellowship. It keeps our churches and pastors in touch with one another. It is the great unifying and socializing medium, welding our people together and thus making possible that denominational coherency in which much of our strength must lie. The Baptist Messenger has lent itself with singular devotion to the futherance of all our enterprises. It has been the spokesman for pastors and churches; in its editorials it has ably interpreted the great movements of our time and vitally related them to our work.

The Baptist Messenger was never so important and necessary to Oklahoma Baptists as today. We need it to conserve those high ideals and unifying traditions that have made our past so glorious. We need it to guide our progress through the changing and challenging crises of the future.

We recommend the same policies and plans for operating and financing the Baptist Messenger as in the past year.

State-Wide Evangelistic Campaign

At the last Convention the Executive Secretary proposed a State-wide Evaneglistic Campaign and Dr. C. C. Morris was made chairman of the committee to promote it. This campaign attained magnificent proportions throughout the summer and the results were most gratifying indeed. Two hundred fifty-six revivals were reported with 4,021 professions of faith, 2,730 received for baptism, and the total number received into the churches through these meetings was 3,768. This report is very incomplete because no special effort was made to tabulate results. In fact, we expect the results to appear in Dr. Alldredge's Hand Book next year.

Many of these meetings were held in out of the way places, under brush arbors, and in schoolhouse communities. Many were won to Christ who did not join the churches. Eternity alone will tell the good that was done through the summer evangelistic campaign.

No funds were available for this revival campaign so we were greatly handicapped in its promotion. After conference with Dr. C. C. Morris, we asked Brother T. B. Holcomb, one of the District Missionaries, to devote such time as was necessary to organizing and promoting these revivals in the various Associations. The success of this work was due in large measure to his efforts.

We got more real missionary work done by this method than all the missionaries we could employ would be able to do in three years. All of this, however, would have been impossible without the unselfish co-operation of a loyal group of pastors. Scores of pastors spent days and weeks preaching and winning souls to Christ, who did not receive enough money for their labors to pay their gas bill to and from the meetings.

One revival was held in a country schoolhouse with 75 conversions ranging in ages from 11 to 83 years of age and a church was organized with 53 members.

It is the conviction of your Board that this fine work should be promoted another year. We recommend that the committee on Plans and Policies make provision for its continuance.

District Missions

The major State Mission enterprise the past year has been the District Mission work. Seven men have been employed for all or part of the year. The results of their labors are as follows:

Number of days labored	1,674
Sermons preached	1,798
Revivals held	92
Training Schools	9
Professions of faith	1,537
Additions by baptism	1,191
Total number of additions	1,711
Churches enlisted in Co-operative Program	25
New churches organized	10
Money raised for State Missions	$564.43
Money raised special for evangelists	$2724.25
Pastors secured for churches	44
Meetings arranged for others	94
S. S. organized	9
B. T. U.'s organized	13
W. M. U.'s organized	2
Students secured for O. B. U.	22
Baptist Messenger subscriptions secured	551
Every member canvass put on in churches	11

These men have promoted all denominational enterprises and have helped to create the fine spirit which now prevails in our State. Practically all the Associations which helped to support district missions voted to continue for another year.

We recommend the continuance of this method wherever it is satisfactory and that the Board be instructed to promote any plan of mission work that is satisfactory to the Board of Directors and the Associations involved. We should not wed ourselves to any one plan, but adopt any method that will get the Gospel preached to the lost multitudes of Oklahoma.

State Mission Debt

When the writer became Executive Secretary September 1, 1933, the State Mission deficit was $42,350.95. The first objective was to cut this down $10,000.00. When the books closed two months later, October 31, 1933, the deficit on State Missions was $30,914.39, or a reduction of $11,436.56.

This policy of debt reduction was continued and when the books closed October 31st this year the deficit was only $9,999.10. We reduced the overdraft the last Convention year $20,915.29, or an average of $1,742.93 per month throughout the entire year.

Co-operative Program

The Co-operative Program receipts for 1933-34 total $74,197.00. This shows an increase over the past year of $5,742.60. We would have had ten or fifteen thousand dollars more if we had not been compelled to have a high pressure campaign for State Missions this fall. It is our earnest hope that we may next year go afield during September and October for all our causes. Our people will support the Co-operative Program if we will present the causes included and not the program itself.

We call attention to the fact that only money contributed to the Co-operative Program can be allocated. All other funds are designated and go directly to the specified objects without the deduction of even the cost of a postage stamp. While recognizing the right of every church and individual Baptist to designate his money, it is our earnest desire that all our churches and all our Baptist people shall support all the causes of the Kingdom. The Co-operative Program undertakes to carry out the Scriptural plan of giving and to make equitable distribution of the funds of all denominational objects. Let us get in the Co-operative Program this year.

Total Receipts

The receipts from all sources, including the Co-operative Program and designations, total $185,968.30. This shows an increase over last year of $38,570.71. It is encouraging to note that our total receipts were ahead every month this year. It indicates that we have at last touched bottom and started up.

Summary of Debt Reduction

For the first time since the completion of the debt-paying movement at Enid in 1926, the Convention agencies and institutions show a substantial decrease in indebtedness. The decreases for the year 1933-34 are as follows:

Executive offices (including State Missions, Messenger, B. T. U., and S. S., decrease -----	$27,576.80
O. B. U., decrease -----	13,334.92
Oklahoma Baptist Hospital, Muskogee, decrease--	4,015.56

Miami Hospital, decrease -----	1,255.41
W. M. U., decrease -----	6,411.52
Orphans' Home, decrease -----	1,150.66
Book Store, increase -----	239.35
Net decrease, 1933-34 -----	$53,505.52

One hundred twenty-eight churches failed to make any contribution to any cause during 1933-34. Most of these non-contributing churches are very weak and a large percent of them are moribund.

Debt Diagnosis

Oklahoma Baptists owe entirely too much money. A big part of the income from our churches must go into interest payments. This distressful condition should be remedied just as rapidly as possible. Most of our debts are, it is true, capital investments, and we have them under control; but the fact remains that interest is a constant drain, a serious burden, a regular preferred item which eats up a large part of the income each month.

We therefore recommend that the Board of Directors be authorized and instructed:

1. To continue the policy of gradual debt retirement.
2. That we concentrate upon some item or items of indebtedness each year and strive to liquidate them entirely.
3. That the Board of Directors be given full power to outline and promulgate an aggressive debt-paying program with positive instruction that debts must be reduced.

Future Security

At Enid in 1926, led by Dr. J. W. Bruner, we freed our institutions and agencies from the shackles of debt, but before the ink got dry on the last check that paid us out, we were headed for the offices of banks and bondholders to borrow more money. And four years later we owed dangerously near one-half million dollars. This debt debacle cannot rightfully be charged to either Dr. J. B. Rounds or the Board of Directors. In most cases it was voted in the Convention itself, and, in some instances, over the protest of the Secretary and the Board. It is the opinion of the Board of Directors that we have all been cured of this wild orgy of spending money we do not have. It is our profound conviction that we can exercise as much faith, and more judgment, in first getting money and then spending it, rather than spending it and then trying to get it.

We therefore recommend that every agency and institution owned and operated by the Baptist General Convention be, and are hereby instructed:

1. To exercise the strictest economy consistent with the best interests of the administration and promotion of their work.
2. That we instruct all interests provided for in the budget not to increase their indebtedness during the year 1934-35.
3. That all contracts and appropriations be made provisional to the end that the will of the Convention be made effective. In other words in case of appropriations in excess of receipts it is understood and agreed that the contract is not binding. When we get out of debt let us stay out, and, as a safe-guard, let us write it down as the law of the Medes and Persians.

Constitutional Changes

At the September meeting of the Board of Directors, Dr. J. W. Raley, president of Oklahoma Baptist University, asked that changes be made in the O. B. U. Constitution, changing the number of trustees from twenty-four to thirty-two, and from two to four members from a given place. The motion prevailed that a committee composed of Dr. T. L. Holcomb, Oklahoma City, W. O. Leach, Clinton, Ray Evans, Shawnee, and J. W. Raley, Shawnee, be appointed to make proper presentation of the above matter. The committee prepared resolutions in proper form and published same in the Baptist Messenger two months preceding this Convention, as provided in the Constitution.

Resolutions Committee:

W. O. Leach
J. W. Raley
Ray Evans
T. L. Holcomb

The Board of Directors unanimously recommend to the Convention that the above changes be made.

The Endowment Commission

The Convention should have an Endowment Commission charged with the responsibility of investing and properly safeguarding trust funds of all institutions and agencies. The greatest immediate financial need of Oklahoma Baptist University is endowment. Every senior college not supported by the State should have a minimum endowment of $500,000.00, the income from which would supplement the tuition fees and other normal income of such an institution. There is greater necessity for endowment of a denominational college for the reason that it carries a heavier load of beneficiary tuition.

We now have on hand a small endowment fund for both the University and the Orphans' Home. We therefore recommend:

1. That this convention approve efforts of Oklahoma Baptist University to secure endowment, adopting such plans and procedure in soliciting and securing endowments as may be approved jointly by the Board of that institution and the Board of Directors of this Convention.

2. That all funds now in hand or which may hereafter be received for endowment purposes be held in trust for the institution for which it was given by the Board of Directors of the Baptist General Convention.

3. That this Convention create an Endowment Commission which shall be charged with the responsibility of investing and properly safe-guarding and conserving all endowment funds, and the income derived therefrom, such endowment commission to consist of four men of wide and successful business or professional experience, and the treasurer of this Convention. The treasurer of the Convention shall always be treasurer of the Endowment Commission.

4. That this Endowment Commission be elected this year, one for four years, one for three years, one for two years, and one for one year.

5. That in order that this Endowment Commission may function immediately after the Convention we recommend the election of the following men:

C. C. Hatchett, Durant, four years,
W. R. Wallace, Oklahoma City, three years,
D. B. Ellis, Oklahoma City, two years,
Frank Buck, Shawnee, one year,
Andrew Potter, Oklahoma City.

6. That each year hereafter one member of the Endowment Commission shall be nominated by the nominating committee of the Convention and elected as any other Board. Vacancies on the Commission to be filled by the Board of Directors.

It is the opinion of your Board of Directors that these trust funds should be held inviolate and not invested or paid out except upon the order of this Commission. That every precaution should be taken to see that trust funds for any institution or agency are conserved for the purpose for which they are given.

Recommendations

We recommend to the Convention as follows:

1. That we put more emphasis this year on the State-wide Evangelistic Campaign.

2. That we promote missionary conferences in each of the ten districts of the State.

3. That it be our policy to operate on a cash basis with monthly reduction of debts.

4. That the Board of Directors be authorized and empowered to work out with the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention a new agreement concerning the Hundred Thousand Club. This may or may not be proposed to us.

5. That the 1934-35 State Mission budget be projected on a basis not to exceed the reasonable expectation of receipts for this purpose.

6. That special effort be made through interested Associational leadership, pastors, and laymen to secure support of the causes from the churches not contributing to the Program.

7. That the Convention heartily endorse and co-operate through all of its agencies in the Every Member Canvass movement.

8. That every effort be put forth to assist the Oklahoma Baptist University administration in the promotion of the Silver Anniversary Campaign for Christian Education in 1935. That we urge all of the state forces, together with the Associational moderators, members of the Board of Trustees, and pastors, to unite their efforts in an intensive campaign on the date scheduled for the Christian Education offering.

9. That an intensive State-wide ingathering effort on behalf of the Co-operative Program be put on during the entire year. We urge our churches and leaders to adhere in the main to the budget plan for raising funds for the Baptist Co-operative Program as all told the most satisfactory and successful plan we have ever had.

Auditor's Suggestions

Upon the suggestion of the auditor, and for the protection of the interests, agencies, and institutions of the Baptist General Convention, we make the following recommendations:

1. That Fidelity bonds be carried on all employees having access to Convention funds. Policies reflecting the Fidelity Bond on all department heads should be on file in the office of the Corresponding Secretary.

2. That no notes payable obligations and no open account obligation (except for current operating requirements), wherein the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma might be held liable, should be incurred except with the knowledge and consent of the Corresponding Secretary.

3. That each organization subsidiary to or affiliated with the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma furnish the Corresponding Secretary monthly with a statement reflecting the results of the operations of the institution or organization for the month, the total cash on hand, and the total indebtedness, including all accounts and notes payable as at the close of the month.

4. That the accounting procedure in the Oklahoma City offices be so consolidated as to properly reflect at all times the financial condition of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma.

5. That a survey be made of all insurance coverage in force and that the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma be fully protected from all hazards.

6. That abstracts of title be brought down to date on all Convention real estate and that titles be examined by our attorneys to ascertain definitely where recorded legal title rests.

Conclusion

We appreciate most sincerely the fine co-operation given to us through the year by the pastors, general workers, and our constituency everywhere. They have stood by us nobly. We depend upon their prayers and suggestions. We believe we have a worthy goal. It is to tell the story of Jesus to every soul on earth. It may be difficult to attain but a worthy objective is a blessing to those who seek to realize it.

As we face the future, we re-commit ourselves to kingdom principles, to the spread of Christian culture, to the enthronement of Jesus Christ with all His ideals and principles in the hearts of individuals the world around. We re-affirm our faith in Christ as fully adequate for every need of man and nations.

If our Lord is satisfied with the record of 1933-34 we are glad and encouraged. We face the new year praying that in our aims and activities faith in God and faithfulness in performing the task He lays upon us will be our highest ambition. To this end and for this purpose we dedicate our all and in this spirit we will serve till

"Every kindred, every tribe
On this terrestrial ball,
Brings forth the royal diadem
And crowns Him Lord of all."

Report is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SYSTEMATIC BENEVOLENCES TO BAPTIST GENERAL CONVENTION OF OKLAHOMA

There are three major interests of our Denomination concerned in this report, namely: Hospitals, The Orphans' Home, and The Relief and Annuity Board. In as much as each of these institutions have made their own financial and statistical reports, we will not discuss here that phase of their work.

The word "Benevolence" means to have a will to do well. The Good Samaritan showed such a will when he found the man wounded and dying and ministered to his needs. Baptists have had such a spirit since the days of the earthly ministry of our Lord. This spirit finds expression in many ways, only three of which are mentioned in this report:

Hospitals

Baptists have two hospitals in this state under the direct control of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma; one at Miami and the other at Muskogee. These have rendered valuable service in each of these places.

In addition to these two hospitals there is one under the control of local groups of Baptists at Enid. We would commend these for the service they have rendered.

Orphans' Home

The Oklahoma Baptist Orphans' Home, located at Oklahoma City, with Rev. E. A. Howard as Superintendent, and controlled by the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, is providing for the spiritual as well as the mental and physical lives of the children there in a very fine way.

Old Minister's Relief

The Relief and Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention is located at Dallas, Texas, with Rev. T. J. Watts as Executive Secretary. Oklahoma Baptists are glad to have a part in supporting such a worthy cause. Thus far, however, we have been helped about as much as we have helped. The New Service Annuity plan of this Board is attracting more attention all the time, and we commend it to the preachers and churches.

Respectfully,

Your Committee:

B. I. Cherry, Chairman
D. D. Barber
O. G. Matthews

79. Dan Curb read the report on Obituaries and moved its adoption. R. C. Miller led in prayer.

MEMORIAL

We find that since the meeting of the Convention in 1933 that the following named brethren have passed on to be with the Lord:

C. W. Morrison, Hinton
J. E. Hampton, Miami
T. H. Cardin, Henryetta
John Williams, Okemah

J. J. Pulsifer, Braman
J. E. Akins, Shawnee
C. M. Powell, Cleveland
J. F. Young, Ardmore

These brethren have fought a good fight and have gone on to receive the "crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give them in that day."

We thank God for their good lives among us and would extend our tenderest sympathy to their loved ones left behind.

Submitted,

Dan Curb,

80. President Morris introduced Brother Times Tull, representing the Church Building and Loan Department of the Home Mission Board.

81. Vice-president T. W. Medearis took charge of the program.

82. William Smith read the report on Christian Education and moved its adoption. He spoke to the report.

The Report was as follows:

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Baptist Education in Oklahoma had its beginning in the romantic days of the early Indian missionaries, who taught in government schools while they preached the unsearchable riches of Jesus Christ to the Indians. It was the dream of a young New Yorker, A. C. Bacone, whose love for adventure lured him to the Indian country as a teacher in the Seminary at Tahlequah, that the Indians needed a school under Christian influence. In 1880 he resigned and opened the Indian University of Tahlequah with three pupils. This came out of his own savings. At the close of the second year he had more than thirty pupils enrolled in his classes. In 1882 he realized the need for larger quarters, and by the aid of a committee composed of Uncle Billy Maccomb, Dr. J. S. Murrow, Dr. Daniel Rogers, and Dr. A. C. Bacone, the present site of Bacone Indian University near Muskogee was selected and moved there in 1883. This school continues to serve the Indians of Oklahoma under the direction of Northern Baptists.

In recent years Brethren J. M. and W. S. Wiley opened the Nuyaka Indian School near Okmulgee for a service to the Indians of Oklahoma in the name of Southern Baptists.

Soon after the organization of the Oklahoma Territory Convention a project to locate a Baptist College was launched in the fall of 1898 at the meeting of the Convention at Lexington. At a meeting of the Board December 2, 1899, the college was located at Blackwell. On December 4, 1899 a building committee was appointed and on October 13, 1900 the corner stone for the college building was laid. Dr. James A. Beauchamp was elected president and on February 21, 1901 a faculty was elected, and on September 4, 1901, the first Baptist school under the control of an Oklahoma Convention was opened. Through a period of twelve years the Oklahoma Baptist College continued its service to the Baptist young people of Oklahoma. Its career was marked by frequent changes of presidents and much borrowing of money for operating expenses, and the construction of new buildings. In 1913 the school was closed and sold for DEBT.

During the spring of 1911 friction developed in the Board of Trustees at Oklahoma Baptist College over an effort to move the school to Oklahoma City. President J. H. Moore resigned with a number of the board members. During the spring of 1911, they, with a number of other Baptist brethren, organized themselves into a board of trustees for the purpose of founding an independent Baptist College. They accepted a proposition from I. M. Putnam to locate the school at Oklahoma City. They selected the name of Carey College and elected J. H. Moore president. A faculty was selected from former O. B. C. and Epworth University (the Methodist school in Oklahoma City which had closed down the year previous) and school was opened in the fall of 1911. Mr. Putnam was unable because of financial reverses to make good his offer and the school with 31 students and two faculty members, Erdman Smith, Dean, and Mrs. Dana Miller, was taken over by O. B. U. at Shawnee.

Southwest Baptist Academy was founded by the Baptist Church of Hastings and was taken over by the Comanche-Mullins Associations the same year.

In 1912 this school was moved to Mangum and operated in the Baptist Church there for two and one-half years. It became involved in the Hawkins-Nunnery Controversy and debt and closed down in the winter of 1915.

When the Indian territory and Oklahoma Territory Conventions met in Shawnee in the fall of 1906 and formed the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, an Educational Commission was appointed to report to the next Convention at Ardmore. This Commission recommended the establishing of a university at some central place. A board of trustees composed of eleven members was selected to carry out the will of the Convention. After considering propositions from several cities and attempting to locate the school several times, the University was finally located at Shawnee.

On February 10, 1910, the board selected a building committee and instructed them to act. On June 10, 1910, the contract for the administration building was awarded to C. E. Higgins and C. R. Furnas. The building was not completed at the time but school was opened in temporary quarters in the fall of 1911 with Dr. J. M. Carroll as president. After Dr. Carroll had invested his personal fortune to keep the school open through the year it was closed down in the spring of 1912 because of an operating deficit. It remained closed until the fall of 1915 when the building was completed and school opened with F. M. Masters as president. Since that date the Oklahoma Baptist University has given an uninterrupted service to the Baptist young people. Its career has been marked by frequent changes in presidents and a continual struggle with debt.

We wish at this time to express our appreciation for the services of the presidents of the past—Carroll, Masters, Tolman, Lawrence, Phelan, Boone, Davis—who have all rendered faithful service. To Dr. Hale V. Davis as no other man do we owe thanks for calling our forces from retreat and giving us marching orders. All of these brethren have made great sacrifices and then left with broken hearts because Baptist brethren have not co-operated. We have in our present president, Dr. J. W. Raley, the greatest prospect for a college leader we have ever had. He possesses all the qualities of a really great college president. Shall we make of him the great educator we need, and of O. B. U. the great institution we should have, or shall we feed him to disgruntled doubters and reduce our school to a mediocre place in the educational field?

If O. B. U. is to go forward it must be stabilized. Doubt must be removed. Debts must be paid. An adequate endowment fund must be provided. These provisions must be made at once. We therefore recommend:

1. That we pledge to Dr. J. W. Raley our full hearted co-operation in carrying out a stabilizing program for O. B. U.

2. That we set ourselves to the retirement of the debt on O. B. U. as the next major objective of Oklahoma Baptists.

3. That it shall be the will of this Convention the University property shall not again be mortgaged except by a vote of this Convention in session.

4. That we address ourselves to the task of providing permanent and adequate endowment for the University.

83. President J. W. Raley addressed the Convention about Oklahoma Baptist University.

BAPTIST ORPHANS' HOME REPORT

To the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, meeting in session at Ada, Oklahoma, on November 14-15, 1934:

With this month, we are closing our tenth year as superintendent of the Baptist Orphans' Home. During this decade in which I have been charged with the responsibility of managing and caring for this phase of our denominational work, I have never brought you a report with greater pleasure than the one I am bringing to you today.

Ten years ago, we had eighty children in our Home, a property valuation of ninety-nine thousand dollars plus against which there was an indebtedness of $56,000.00. Today we have 178 children, a property valuation of $207,043.94, against which there is not a dime of indebtedness and I can truthfully say that our Home has never been in better condition financially, morally or spiritually than today. Our children are all happy and contented.

Last December, we organized a church at the Home with 72 members. We now have a membership of 102. We have our own Sunday school and preaching service in our Chapel every Sunday, and also we have two regular B. Y. P. U. organizations.

During the past year, we have had no sickness worthy of mention, no epidemics, no deaths. We wish to express our thanks to the Oklahoma City general hospital and especially to Dr. J. E. Harbison and Dr. F. B. Erwin for the fine services they have rendered to our Home through the past year. Also we are grateful to Dr. John T. Miller and Dr. Fred Hicks for the fine service they have rendered our children in their different capacities.

Our children have made a fine record in school. We have at this time 42 boys and girls in High and Junior High Schools. We had four to graduate from High School last year and have several to graduate this year. Also we have several who are now attending college.

There has been no material increase in contributions for the past year. Our contributions now are running just about one-half what they did five years ago or before the depression. This, of course, has made it necessary for us to practice the most rigid economy possible. We have reduced our force of employees out at the Home to the minimum. We cannot operate with less help than we now have. The sending of our truck over the state to gather up food supplies has been a tremendous help to us. While our contributions in cash have been less, our children have had plenty to eat. This, of course, is largely due to the fact that the Baptist people in every section of the state have been liberal in giving us food supplies of every kind. During the past year, our field man, Brother Dan Curb, has brought in $6,597.80 of food and supplies.

We are now making some very muchly needed improvements at the Home. We are painting and redecorating the inside of most of the buildings and expect to paint up all the outside buildings as far as our money will permit.

Our greatest problem for the past year has been to keep out of debt and this, by the help of God and the good Baptist people of the state and friends of the Home, we have been able to accomplish. Perhaps it will be interesting to know that we have for the first time in many years been able to pay our bills from month to month through the entire year and we have been able to close our books again on November 1st with a clean slate, and a small cash balance on hand, as the following financial statement rendered and audited for the past year will show:

99. E. W. Westmoreland read the report of the Committee on Social Service. He spoke to the report and moved its adoption. Motion carried. The report is as follows:

SOCIAL SERVICE REPORT: OKLAHOMA GENERAL CONVENTION

We divide this report into five sections, touching upon five of the great moral problems of our day.

The Christian Sabbath:

The Christian Sabbath is a holy day, a day of obligation and privileges. The observance of the Christian Sabbath as a day of rest and worship is fundamental in Christian teaching and life. We regret to say many professed Christians forget their obligations and privileges, desert God's house of worship and desecrate the Sabbath day by all manner of worldly and sinful engagements. The "Holy day has become a holiday" by the lawless and immoral forces of our state and the Christian Sabbath is devoted to all manner of commercial ends. Our pastors and Christian leaders everywhere should re-emphasize the divine obligation resting upon all Christians for the proper observance of the Christian Sabbath. A proper observance of the Christian Sabbath is fundamental to our American ideals, morals and civilization. If we destroy the Sabbath, we will go a long way toward the destruction of all that is ideal and worth while in our national life.

Gambling:

One of our outstanding moral problems of the present day is the widespread gambling mania. This mania is growing by leaps and bounds. Many states have legalized gambling recently as a source of revenue for the conduct of the government. Par Mutual machines and lotteries have been adopted by some states as a means of raising revenue. Oklahoma has sufficient legislation covering the problem of gambling, but we regret to say, many of our officers and courts have failed to enforce the law in this matter. Petty gambling, by slot machines, marble boards and similar devices has become common in our state. The daily press has said that "literally thousands of dollars are being wasted by our school boys and girls in these petty gambling machines. We deplore the "education and cultivation of the gambling mania that our youth is receiving by the unlawful use of these machines. The time is at hand when God's people should make themselves heard in clear, ringing protest against this demoralization and violation of law.

The Divorce Evil:

It was said in the Texas Baptist Convention last week that "The most alarming thing confronting this day and generation is the wholesale destruction of our American homes. We have 20,000,000 divorce orphans in this land, three times as many divorces as England, France, Wales and Austria combined. Since 1918 the United States has become the divorce Mecca of the world." One marriage out of every eight in the United States ends in the divorce courts, and in our state one out of every six. As goes the home, so will go our churches, education and civilization. Christian homes are the defence of our nation. As a church we must emphasize the sanctity of the marriage relation and deplore the evil of divorce. Let us go back to family worship, where the Bible was read, prayers were offered, and save our homes.

Moving Picture Shows:

The motion picture show, which could and ought to be a force for good, has become a menace to our civilization by its suggestive presentation of vice, immorality and crime. The attendance upon the exhibitions shown in our theatres in the United States is between sixty and eighty million persons per week. Of this number eleven million are children under the age of 14 years. It becomes apparent at once what a vicious and corrupting influence comes from the motion pictures as now conducted. However, we are glad to report that some improvement has been made in this direction during 1934. The League of Decency initiated by the Catholics, later approved by the council of Jewish Rabbis, and more recently approved by the Federal Council of Churches, and by leading denominational bodies has been a step forward in causing the motion picture producers and distributors to make an effort at house cleaning. The house has not been thoroughly cleaned by any means up to now and we recommend that our pastors and Christian people generally, show themselves alert, and determined to help to suppress one of the most vicious and corrupting influences in American life.

Prohibition and Temperance:

Prohibition has been repealed, which was the greatest backward step we have taken in this generation. Every promise and assurance given by the advocates of repeal has already proved to be false. We were told that after repeal, bootlegging would disappear but as a matter of fact, wild-cat stilling and bootlegging have shown a steady increase, until now, the governments, both Federal and State, have been unable to cope with the situation. The claim of large revenues from the sale of beer, wines and liquors has been misrepresented. The revenues received from the sale of alcoholic beverages has been a disappointment even to the wets themselves.

Under the beer regime in Oklahoma, bootlegging, drunkenness, and automobile accidents have steadily increased. The beer joint has not replaced the bootlegger as was claimed by the advocates of beer, but in many instances the bootlegger and the beer joint have worked hand in hand. We regret to say that the Federal government is now issuing federal licenses to bootleggers in bone dry states. We also deplore the fact that there is an alarming lack of enforcement of the bone dry law, by our officers and courts in Oklahoma.

On Friday, November 9th, an organization called the "Oklahoma Association for Liquor Control" had a meeting in Oklahoma City to formulate plans for the purpose of circulating a petition calling for a state-wide vote to strike the bone dry provision from the Constitution. In states that do not have a bone dry provision in their constitution, the liquor situation is even worse now, than during pre-prohibition days. In that period the sale of alcoholic drinks was limited to the saloon, and the saloon was hedged about with rugged restrictions and regulations, but now in wet states liquor is being sold in saloons, cafes, drug and other stores, and many of our youths are forced to become bar tenders in cafes and stores where alcoholic beverages are sold, or give up their jobs.

We Recommend:

1. That we call upon our people to obey our state prohibition law, and call upon our courts and officers to enforce its provisions.
2. That we make war upon the sale of alcohol beverages of any kind and give ourselves for battle against the Oklahoma Association for Liquor Control and all other organizations that seek to destroy our present prohibition laws.

3. Let us continue a teaching and preaching program in our public schools, Sunday schools, and pulpits concerning the poisonous and destructive nature of all alcoholic beverages.

4. Preachers, the called prophets of God, and churches, the organic units of the Kingdom, must cry aloud and spare not, in demanding that the government shall not sponsor wickedness but shall uphold the cause of sobriety.

5. That no truce be signed or retreat ordered until victory comes to the cause of righteousness and sobriety. The fight is on. Let us put on the whole armor of God and quit ourselves like men.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING-SECRETARY

BERTA K. SPOONER

We, who have walked through this year singing "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name" as our W. M. U. hymn, were truly pleased when the organ at the Baptist World Alliance sounded out its opening chord. Indeed it was inspiring to be caught up with representatives of sixty nations into whose wonderful words: "All Hail . . . Let angels prostrate fall." I thought of my beloved Oklahoma women in their 586 societies, fostering this year 312 Y. W. A.'s, 441 G. A.'s, 274 R. A.'s and 347 Sunbeam Bands—a total of 1,374 missionary organizations for the young people of our state. Working with young people presents many problems, but we believe that the greatest problem is lack of leaders. Many potential counselors have never "put on the whole armor of God" in their attempt to lead the young people in our churches, hence some have fainted by the way—but we have reported this year 221 new auxiliaries and 32 W. M. S.'s making a total of 253 new organizations. In 184 churches, you have maintained full W. M. U. families, many having six and seven auxiliaries. Of this splendid group, we have thus far 6 standard A-1 W. M. U. families: Lawton, First; Bristow; Hugo, First; Tonkawa; Idabel; and Sapulpa, First. Every Woman's Missionary Society should promote the full-graded W. M. U. for there are many more young people yet to come into the missionary educational organizations. So, women of the missionary societies, you must assuredly present to the Baptist youth of our state the banner of Christ Jesus which is to be displayed because of truth. Youth demands sustained leadership, not spasmodic; fostering must be constant.

Our District and Associational officers have co-operated with me in carrying out the program for the year reaching toward victory in every undertaking, planned well for their annual meetings. Twenty-eight associations have had a rally each quarter during the year and it was my privilege to be in 38 of them. The District meetings were well attended and we were very fortunate in having as our out-of-state speakers, Mrs. Carter Wright of Alabama, and Miss Emma Leachman of Atlanta, Georgia, both bringing splendid messages which greatly inspired our women. The District Presidents executed the programs and deserve commendation for their earnest work. There were 3,300 people in attendance at the ten meetings, representing 562 organizations, touching every association save two and that was due largely to heavy rains. The Stewardship Declamation Contest was emphasized in eight of the Districts. Through this contest, which should touch all of our young in all of our churches widening its influence as association, district and state contests are carefully conducted. We believe that hosts of our boys and girls will be indoctrinated and convinced in this most important matter of scriptural giving. I do not have a complete record of tithers this year.

In 1,690 mission study classes we have been learning about every kindred, every tribe on this terrestrial ball. Surely this is a day of mission study. I believe with my whole heart that mission study is the most significant fundamental in our plan of work for the reason that through the influence of a stimulating book, many women have come to put prayer, Bible study, and gifts into their rightful places. May the desire of our hearts be to study prayerfully and diligently every book that will make us more missionary in spirit and more Christ-like in living. May I urge the Mission Study Institutes in the Associations. They are training schools of methods presenting "how to teach" mission text books.

Summer camps and assemblies keep the minds and hearts of our young people growing in concern that nations shall ascribe glory to Christ. The Intermediate G. A. at O. B. U. was well attended by a fine group of earnest girls. Miss El-Loise Fox, First Church, Tulsa, was crowned Queen with Scepter, making only two in the state that we know about. Miss Margaret Simms of First Church, Tulsa, being the first and at this meeting she was crowned Queen Regent, the highest rank in the G. A. organization and the first and only Queen Regent in Oklahoma. The Y. W. A. house-party was not as largely attended this year as we had hoped for, but the girls who attended enjoyed the days of fun and fellowship and were greatly helped by the inspiration and instruction given. At the State Assembly at Falls Creek, much real mission study was done. We had seven classes during the W. M. U. hour with the splendid attendance of 412. We are greatly indebted to Mrs. A. H. Davis and Miss Lucille Smith of Ada, Miss Ruby House, Hugo, Miss Eula Conger, Rush Springs, Mrs. Lina Hoppell, Minco, Miss Bertha Thompson, Sayre, and Rev. Robert Hughes, Norman, who taught the classes and with their splendid co-operation kept W. M. U. up to standard.

We, who know we are saved by His grace, have tried to be busy in personal service sharing that knowledge with others. Through all the varied activities, one method is universally effective. Visiting "in His Name" as the result of all phases of the work, there has come increasingly the deep joy and satisfaction of leading men and women, boys and girls to believe on His name, "For there is none other name under Heaven, given among men, whereby we must be saved." There are no rules to follow in personal service. There can be no fixed program. Let your society make sure that it is service and set about doing it, yourselves working at the big task together, also doing all that you can as individuals. Thus you have directed an individual personal service.

At the W. M. U. Training School, Louisville, and Southwestern Training School at Fort Worth, choice young women are preparing for definite service. I saw Earl Hester, our own Oklahoma girl in Roumania, Dean of James Memorial Training School in Bucaresti, a splendid missionary greatly loved by those people. I met several of the fine girls that have received their religious training at James Memorial, some of them serving in local churches with little or no pay, happy in serving. They also go out on the field with Miss Hester in summer holding schools of missions and otherwise helping to promote Kingdom work. The training of the young people who are called by the Lord for special service is perhaps the greatest contribution that could be made in many foreign countries and Earl Hester is doing a fine type of training and has the confidence of the people. We have Miss Frances Bryan in House Beautiful in Louisville, her scholarship furnished by Central District. Our Union should feel a special responsibility for the young womanhood of our denomination. They are "our daughters" to enlist, to train, to send out on missions of love and mercy.

White Cross, this year, becomes more vital to us since one of our very own daughters, Elizabeth Routh, goes to represent us in Ogbomoso Hospital, Nigeria, Africa. Let us not forget to increase our prayers for her and her work, as well as our gifts for her support. My prayer is that during her stay there, money shall come in advance for her salary that she may not be deprived of one comfort this small amount might give her. Receipts, $729.13.

We must support others who were appointed at the same time through the Christmas Offering. This year, Oklahoma W. M. U. gave $6,176.78. Another year, we must surely increase. I had the joy of seeing James Memorial Training School and the Seminary at Bucaresti, the large First Church of Budapest, some of the native work in Italy, the publication work in Hungary, Roumania, Jugoslavia and Italy, the Good-Will Center work in Jerusalem by Miss Elsie Cor. It would have greatly inspired your hearts to have heard these, in every instance, expressing appreciation to W. M. U. for the gift from the Christmas Offering and explaining what it had meant to their work. Truly, you want to have a worthy part in this love offering, your gift for Christ at Christmas. This year 702 young people's organizations and 508 societies observed the season of prayer.

Having seen far lands, I realize more than ever the necessity for bringing America to a true acknowledgment of the power of Christ's name. Millions of people are lost, and have no well-equipped Christian workers to lead them to the light. They are our own people. Our future welfare and usefulness in the service of Christ are inseparably bound up with them. It is high time that Baptists were considering seriously the need for a more vigorous missionary work among them. We are living in the midst of a world that is undergoing a mighty social convulsion. But America can not be Christian beyond the loyalty of each state. The Thank Offering for Home Missions in March is a challenge. Let us give more time and thought to the study of the fields. Our gifts are often measured by our knowledge. This year 686 young people's organizations and 534 W. M. S. observed this season and gave for Home Missions $3,882.25. A 10 per cent increase has been added for the 1935 goal. Let us encourage every society to observe the three seasons of prayer. Our hearts have been turned toward missions in our own state for the past few weeks, and we have been happy to cooperate in bringing victory in the campaign for funds to pay off the State Mission debt. We do not have an accurate report, of all gifts from the W. M. U., but are glad to report $5,647.54 from our women.

For twenty years, W. M. U. has found great joy in ministering to the sons and daughters of S. B. C. missionaries through the Margaret Fund. The aim and purpose of this fund is to express love for our missionaries and to show our appreciation of their service for the Master by assisting them with the higher education of their children. Oklahoma has been assigned five of these fine girls and boys to mother. May we be truly "mothers" to them.

Royal Service.—Oklahoma's quota is 2,875 subscriptions to the official organ of W. M. U., the most powerful ally of the Society President, and contains many helpful suggestions for leaders of young people's organizations. Nothing can take its place in the Woman's Missionary Societies but the president and other leaders must sell the magazine to themselves before they can sell it to others. If we reach our quota for this year, we must send in before January 1st 686 subscriptions.

May I also urge the importance of putting into the hands of our young people, our own magazines: The Window of Y. W. A. for the young women for every issue brings a wealth of information and knowledge that would be difficult to obtain elsewhere. Our quota is 350 subscriptions and the last report was 260 received so we are 90 short. With 312 Y. W. A. organizations, that is a little more than an average of 1 to an organization.

Every missionary-minded mother should subscribe to World Comrades for its significant value in the intellectual and spiritual development of its young readers. Missionary Societies should provide sufficient working copies for programs—three in number, one to cut, one for use of counselor, and one for permanent file. We have in Oklahoma 1,062 G. A., R. A., and Sunbeams. They should get their program material from this magazine, and yet Oklahoma is asked for only 675 subscriptions to World Comrades and we have sent in only 495. How much more efficient these organizations would be if the boys and girls had access to the wealth of missionary information found in this magazine. No investment of money anywhere could bring in greater returns than the few dollars we invest in the missionary magazines for our young people.

Always the children of the Orphans' Home appeal to our hearts and we have delighted to share with them the blessings as well as the necessities of life. Thus through the year for their joy and comfort you have sent clothing valued at $4,169.45, cash for shoes, hats and books $1,565.00, 82 quilts $328.00, 591 cases of eggs $2,364., 33 coops of chickens $418.50, soap, linens, and miscellaneous $439.50, produce of every kind, chickens, eggs, fruits, vegetables and groceries coming by truck $6,597.80 making a total of $15,882.25.

Dormitory. Many of the societies have cooperated beautifully in discharging their obligations to the debt on the Memorial Dormitory. Some have grown "weary in well-doing" and have withdrawn their help. Perhaps if I tell you that every room on the second and third floors of the building is occupied by choice young women of our own and other states, you will be encouraged to continue to completion the work so well begun. From November 1, 1933, to November 1, 1934, we have received $12,624.21. We must have by December 15, $2,000.00 if we complete the amount promised for this year.

The Co-operative Program includes the denominational causes fostered by Southern Baptists, namely: State Missions, Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Christian Education, Ministerial Relief, Orphanages and Hospitals. While some benevolent work is done through the Co-operative Program, yet its principal purpose is the promulgation of the gospel of Christ throughout the earth. "The field is the world" and the aim is not only to reach every nation, but every individual as well. This year you have given to the Co-operative Program, $25,732.35; State Missions, $5,647.64; Home Missions, $3,882.25; Lottie Moon Christmas offering, $6,176.78; Dormitory, $12,624.21; Scholarship, $797.92; White Cross, $729.13; Margaret Fund, $252.62; Nursery Fund at Southwestern Training School, $72.00; cash to Orphans' Home, $5,734.45; to local work, $11,865.90. Total cash contributions, $73,515.25.

Value of fruit, linens, quilts and produce to Orphans' Home, $10,147.80; boxes to Indian preachers, $1,081.65; White Cross supplies to hospitals, $605.30. Total box value, $11,834.75. Grand total cash and box values, $85,350.00.

Personally, I am greatly indebted to the officers, departmental chairmen and members of the Executive Board for carrying on so splendidly during my long absence from you, to Mrs. Lina Hoppell and Miss Lucille Smith for fine field work, to the office secretary, Mrs. Wells, for her ever ready helpfulness and her thoughtful care of the details of the office.

My vocabulary is quite insufficient to express the gratitude of my heart to you, the women of Oklahoma, for the wonderful trip you so lovingly and generously gave me this summer, and at any time I shall delight to share its joys and blessing with you.

MARGARET FUND REPORT

"O magnify the Lord with me and let us exalt His name together" for His blessings upon our Margaret Fund work done in our state this year.

The reports of District and Associational Chairmen show that this has been our best year's work, accomplished by Divine guidance, systematic plan of mothering and co-operation of our women.

Cash received and valuation of love gifts total $350.00. We have also been enabled by the $1.00 contributions from W.M.S. organizations to give $100.00 love gift to Elizabeth Lowndes Scholarship Fund.

Increased interest has been manifested in our students and the work at large, although there remains much to be done to interest all of our women. In some parts of our state, it is a cause scarcely known. Others are at work and rejoicing in its blessings. We have truly rejoiced in mothering six students this year.

Perla May Johnson, formerly of Brazil, entered O.B.U. the first of the year and was assigned to us for last semester. Our students have been lovingly and joyfully remembered monthly, on special days and birthdays by some associations. The year has brought joy and sorrow to us in the life of our students.

It was our great joy to participate in the graduation needs of Eloise and Lois Glass who graduated from Southwestern Seminary, also later, in the wedding shower for Eloise. Again our hearts rejoiced to know that Lois had decided to return to China to help her parents exalt His banner in that great nation.

In sorrow, we record the passing of William Bagby on July 11, from the ranks of our Margaret Fund Army to his eternal reward, yet we bow in submission to the will of our Heavenly Father.

Since this year marks the twentieth anniversary of the Margaret Fund, there was formed at the May meeting in Fort Worth the Margaret Fund Alumni Association of Woman's Missionary Union, S.B.C. The object of this association is to bind together in love and loyalty all those who are and have been beneficiaries of the Fund. The active members shall consist of all sons and daughters of Southern Baptist missionaries, and those who were the recipients of the comforts of the Margaret Home.

The honorary members shall be all members of the Southwide Margaret Fund Committee, of State, District, Associational and local chairmen who desire to foster the interest of the Association. The membership fee shall be fifty cents per year.

Again in honor of the Twentieth Anniversary Year, it was recommended that each state enroll twenty new "Margarets." The amount for enrollment to be $2.00, one dollar for name and one dollar for Margaret Scholarship Fund.

We rejoice that already during this Twentieth Anniversary Year a number of former Southwide Margaret Fund students have gone to exalt His banner among the nations. Others who could not be sent by our Boards have found definite places of service to exalt His banner in the homeland.

Margaret Fund work is mission work. The dollars invested in the education of our students is invested for our Master. Five students have been assigned to our state to "mother" this college year.

The year's motto for our Margaret Fund Committee is "Whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus," Col. 3:17. As a committee chosen of our state to represent, educate, advertise and magnify this cause, we must work the works of Him that sent us.

May our Lord who said: "Ye have not chosen me but I have chosen you and ordained you that ye should go and bring forth fruit and that your fruit may remain," be a challenging word to our Margaret Fund Committee. How it should inspire us anew to realize not only are we chosen of our state but of our Master to bring forth fruit in this our Margaret Fund work.

May our Master give us a new vision of the future possibilities of this cause. May our mother hearts be set on fire with new resolutions to love, protect and guide these dear ones intrusted to our care, ever praying that God may call many more of our Margaret Fund students to exalt His banner among the nations.

In our state of Oklahoma
Let us tell the story true;
The sweet old story of Mother's love
Of our Southwide W.M.U.

In the language of our motto
In both deed and word,
Let the dear old Margaret Fund story
Throughout our state be heard.

In our state of Oklahoma
The land of deeds and fame,
Tell the Margaret Fund story o'er and o'er,
But tell it in Jesus' name.

Let us love to tell the story
 For 'tis pleasant to repeat,
 Mothers love to tell the story,
 For Mother Love is sweet.

Let us sow the seed of information
 As we mothers pass along,
 Keep the notes of faith and courage
 Always in our song.

Let us love to tell the story
 With no thought of self or fame,
 Only that we in this labor of love,
 May together exalt His name.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. D. H. Bell,

Margaret Fund Chairman

EXALTING HIS BANNER IN OKLAHOMA THROUGH MISSION STUDY

Mrs A. L. Aulick

"There is a widespread conviction among leaders in missionary work in both Europe and America that 'knowledge' is what is needed—knowledge of the obligation to evangelize all men, knowledge of the open doors, the imperative call, the rewarding service.

It is believed that if a method can be found whereby the leaders first, and then the rank and file of the Church membership, shall attain unto an actual knowledge of missions, then a new and corresponding interest will follow."

These words are taken from a report of a committee on missions which was made to a world-wide mission convention which was held a few years ago. Experience and observation prove that they are true.

Missionary zeal depends upon knowledge. It depends upon knowledge of Christ's missionary spirit, and upon knowledge of the need. Christian people are limited by their lack of knowledge of world conditions and by the opportunity accompanying these conditions. They are limited, again, by their meager experience of Christ in their souls. The minute a person permits their heart to be controlled by the Holy Spirit and his mind to be filled with the knowledge of souls astray from God, his spirit will burst forth in compassion for the non-Christians of the world.

The purpose of the department of study fostered in the Woman's Missionary Union is to furnish an adequate program of information that the missionary heart of Christ and the victories of the cross may be known.

There are two types of text books included in the course as outlined by the W. M. U.: the Bible and World Missions.

The Bible:

It is to the Bible that we must turn to understand the missionary heart of God and of His Son. A study of the Bible from the missionary viewpoint is the background of all lasting missionary spirit and endeavor. There may be missionary interest without the missionary spirit. Interest may be aroused by descriptions of the horrors which flourish and are sanctioned by heathen religions or by the glowing successes of missionaries or by a picture of what may follow if we do not seize the opportunity to Christianize the non-Christian people. The danger is that interest created in this way may die out when the appeal is forgotten or faith be weakened when missionary endeavor does not seem to bear fruit. While interest is essential to missionary activities, real lasting zeal is found only in a knowledge of the nature and character of Christ. This knowledge is gained through Bible study and prayer. A study of the Bible from the missionary viewpoint shows God's plan for world redemption running like a golden chain from the first missionary promise in Genesis to the new Jerusalem in Revelation. Sometimes the chain is more prominent than at other times, in fact, at certain places it is lost, almost, from sight. Therefore, while the Bible is missionary from beginning to end, some portions have a more distinct missionary purpose than others. But through it all the heart of Jehovah is seen throbbing for the world and finding expression in the gift of His Son that all might know of Him. The missionary spirit that is founded upon the Spirit of Christ in the soul cannot be quenched.

The Woman's Missionary Union recommends three books which are Bible studies from the missionary viewpoint. These books are "All the World in All the Word," "Missions in the Bible," and "Missionary Lessons from the Bible."

Other books which are recommended are books on Stewardship: "Stewardship in the Life of Women," "Stewardship and Missions," "The Larger Stewardship," "Women and Stewardship," "Stewardship Parables of Jesus."

World Missions:

While we remember that the Bible is the text-book in the theory of missions, we must not forget that it is a preparation for the study of world missions and not the end of missionary knowledge. Bible study teaches us the principles of Christianity. The study of books on world missions reveals these principles in their application to the life of the world. The Bible tells us God's plan for redemption, mission study tells how far He has gotten in carrying out His plan. The Book of Acts tells of the activities of the first foreign missionaries. Modern mission study books contain stories of deeds of bravery and conquest of modern apostles and remind us of the early experiences told by Paul and his companions.

Surely a wide-awake Christian woman wants to know how God's plan for the ages is succeeding in the twentieth century as well as in the second century. Books on world missions give this knowledge.

It is characteristic of human nature that the desire to act is limited by knowledge. Someone has said, "In order to pity, it is necessary to know; in order to work, is it necessary to know." Thus mission study seeks to lead to action by giving knowledge of the world, its needs and opportunities. Again, in mission study, Christ steps forth in all His grace, knowledge and devotion, the great leveler of prejudice, the world's Emancipator from sin. The student who catches this vision of Christ will not only be a master of facts but she will be able to correlate the facts and adjust her personality to the things which she has learned. Her life will be influenced and her will will be led into action.

This year's books on world missions are unusually interesting. These are the series of books on Japan written for children, young people and adults. Of especial interest is the book, "At the Gate of Asia," by Mrs. J. S. Farmer. Miss Mary Alexander's book, "Seedtime and Harvest," is of perpetual value for it is the story of Southern Baptist work in South China. "Where is He," by Mrs. R. K. Redwine meets a need of many years. "Prayer, the Golden Chain," should have a place in the devotional of every Missionary Society.

Mission Study and Young People.

A discussion of mission study is not complete without speaking of its place in the life of youth. The small child manifests its spirit of love and service only in its own family and among its limited number of friends. As the child grows older, its relationships enlarge to include school-mates, neighbors, and friends. As the child comes into contact with new and larger groups, its conduct toward them should be governed by the same motives that controlled his conduct towards the smaller groups. Unless some outside stimulus is provided, there may come a time when the spirit of love and service is arrested. This means the death of the missionary ideal. One outside stimulus to cure this spiritual disease is Bible Study and a knowledge of the world, its needs and opportunities. This information is given in the many fascinating books on world missions provided for young people today. Parents and teachers cannot or do not control the motion pictures, the dance and the drink evil, but they can surround young people with high ideals by upholding noble characters and by helping them to make contacts with books that show how worthwhile life may be. Missionary reading affords this opportunity. It is interesting to note the early influence that moulded the great characters of the world and to see the large place the reading of good books had in forming life's purposes. We wonder what would have been the result if modern movies had played a dominant part in the lives of Livingstone, Moffat, Judson, and Duff. We shudder when we think of a future whose present ideals are wound about such men as Charley Chaplin and others of his type. How shall we counteract these influences which are not wholesome and uplifting? By giving knowledge of the proper kind.

There is a conviction everywhere that knowledge is power in the matter of world evangelism as in everything else; knowledge of the obligation to evangelize; knowledge of open doors; knowledge of the resources at our command; knowledge of the exceeding greatness of God and that He is willing to appropriate His power to us. In a matter as important as this, unorganized, hasty methods will not suffice. The plan that is to succeed must be a part of a definite outlined program providing for systematic missionary instruction from childhood to old age. The Mission Study Department of the Southern Woman's Missionary Union has made this provision in its well-defined study courses which are gaining in popularity from year to year. Through their study coupled with much prayer, missions will win. The Gospel with healing in its wings will spread from shore to shore healing the festering sores of the world.

"His name forever shall endure,

Last like the sun it shall.

Men shall be blessed in Him, and blessed

All nations shall Him call."

PERSONAL SERVICE REPORT

Mrs. R. D. Sheldon, Chairman

"In the name of our God, we will set up our banners." Isaiah says in the 28th chapter and the 10th verse: "Precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little and there a little." Upon this authority I will repeat some of the things I have said before, and quote from other sources for information that is necessary for us to know in order to have the correct knowledge of Personal Service. I hope also that this report will bring inspiration as well as information.

We shall give some definitions:

All Personal Service should be done with the gospel as its motive and salvation as its aim.

Personal—director from one person to another.

Service—performance of labor for the benefit of another. Spiritual obedience and love also enter into this as defined by Webster.

It is presenting a Personal Savior to a Personal Sinner by a Personal Servant.

Many societies are using our new report blanks. All of these questions apply to all of the auxiliaries and their reports should be included on the blanks sent in.

The local chairman sends her reports to the associational chairman who compiles all of these and sends her report to the district chairman, who compiles all of the reports from the associations in her district and sends to the state personal service chairman.

Personal service is in reality only local missions.

It is not expressing love for family or for friends by gifts or service.

"First they gave their own selves to the Lord and unto us by the will of God." II Cor. 2:5.

It is YOU at work in your community.

"Which is Christ in you the hope of glory." Col. 1:27.

It is more than feeding the hungry and clothing the naked. It becomes the throbbing, vital expression of the teaching of Jesus, so translated into gentle, sincere consistent living that others feel its power and know its source.

It must be directed. The individual is not lost in this program; there is co-operation of the whole society through the committee. It must be directed so that it will challenge. It must be individual so that it may serve and go farther than any program can ever go.

Visiting is a method of doing Personal Service rather than an activity itself. Let us not take the machinery for the work itself. Not all we do can be reported, and never should be numerically so; but our society can report that it is doing directed personal service if we are doing our part.

The three-fold aim as given in our year book (page 16) is:

- a. Soul winning;
- b. Manifesting Christian fellowship;
- c. Development in Christian service.

We quote from the year book (page 19) under "Action of the Union, 1929:" "Personal Service gives only number of societies conducting or helping in the various activities, rather than as formerly the number of visits, etc."

A new phase of our work is helping the negro in a definite line of work,—supervising the establishment of "Open Doors" which will be similar to our Good Will centers. These will lead to their education and salvation. This work for the negro should be done by trained negro women and girls. We should assist them in meeting this need of their race.

I am aware that one cannot lead a hungry, cold, sick body to Christ until he has ministered to his needs. We can follow the example of Christ in this also,—use the physical means to reach the soul for the Master either in winning or enlisting.

Mrs. C. D. Creasman gives us a splendid thought in her verse "Personal Service:"

Just see Him as around He went
On deeds of personal service bent
See Him going here and there
To visit those in need of care
See His ministration kind
And how he healed the sick and blind.
How He made the lame to walk
The deaf to hear and the dumb to talk.
See the things He gave away,
Trays, five thousand in one day.
Bibles, books, His every word,
Was a book to those who hear.
Garments, to those who would confess
He gave the robe of righteousness.
Flowers, no need if He was there
The Lily of the Valley fair.
Hear again His conversation
With the lost about salvation
With Nicodemus come by night
With the rich young ruler
Seeking light
With the fishermen by the sea
With Zachaeus in the tree,
With the woman by the well
With all who came their woes to tell
And just remember how He gave
His very life the lost to save.

If we are placing Personal Service as one of the banners in the name of our God, let us see that we follow His plan and do it all for His glory.

May I leave this one thought with you,—“Whatsoever He saith unto you, do it.”

STEWARDSHIP REPORT

Mrs. John S. Vaughan, Stewardship Chairman

Much has been written and said in times past concerning stewardship. Every Christian has some conception of the meaning of the term, each laying stress on some particular phase which makes the strongest appeal to them. To most of us, Stewardship means merely giving a portion of our material substance to the Lord, and we frankly call it “giving.”

But few can be found who make Stewardship a vital, pulsating, living reality in daily life. With our minds we acknowledge His ownership and glibly quote Scripture to verify our statements, while in our deeds we carry out our own desires. With our lips we call Him Master but in life we follow our own selfish wills.

Paul says in I Corinthians 4:1: "We are stewards of the mysteries of God—and it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful." Now read with me John 3:17. "God sent not His son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved," and John 17:18, Jesus says, "As thou hast sent me into the world (to save it) even so have I sent them into the world," for what purpose? That the love of Christ flowing through our lives might bring the lost world to God.

If we accept these statements and live out their implications we will find that it involves not merely the "tithe" but all of our substance as well as time, talents, personality, love and all that goes to make up the sum total of a Christian's existence. Christ's complete surrender to the will of the Father is a truth which never fails to reach down into our hearts and grip our very souls with wonder and admiration and gratitude, yet we fail to see that as the Father sent Him so he sends us on this mission of salvation and that our surrender to His will must be as complete as His was to the Father, for we are not our own but we are bought with a price and that price is the very life blood of Jesus. This blood of Jesus was shed for two purposes: first to cleanse us from all unrighteousness and second to throb and pulsate through our lives to give us strength to carry on the work for which He gave His life. Would we dare use one ounce of the strength thus gained in other than daily service in complete accord with His will.

WHITE CROSS REPORT

Mrs. J. D. McGovern, Chairman

As we look over the reports on White Cross for this past year, we have a mingled feeling of joy and regret.

First, we are glad to know that so many of even our smallest churches have obeyed the command of Jesus, when He said, "Heal the sick." Jesus also said to His disciples, "If ye love me, ye will keep my commandments." One hundred and thirty-three churches obeyed this command and received the blessing.

Then, of course, we regret that even some of our larger churches failed to help in this important work for the Master.

We are also happy to note that the reports show that $729.13 in cash has been received this year, which is $252.34 more than was given to White Cross last year with $605.30 in supplies sent to the Baptist Hospital at Muskogee.

In the ministry of Jesus, he often healed the body and thus opened the way for cleansing the soul. Dr. G. E. Post tells us that in medical missions, there is a language all can understand. The medical missionary is welcomed to the home of the stranger. So it is through our foreign hospitals we have an avenue through which we can carry the message of our Christ who died to save all men everywhere.

Woman's Missionary Union of Oklahoma has for many years helped to supply the needs of the one mission hospital located at Ogbomoso, Nigeria, Africa, a city of 86,000 people. As some of you know this hospital was started about fifteen years ago from a two-room grass covered place, and through the untiring efforts of Dr. Green and Dr. Lockett, it has grown to be an institution of nine buildings, well equipped and fairly modern. God taught Dr. Green to make the blind to see and through the same power, Dr. Lockett saw the leper cleansed. When Dr. Lockett came to the States on furlough last year and told of the great need of another worker in the hospital at Ogbomoso, Oklahoma W. M. U. in prayer sought to know how to meet that need. Then it was that one of our own Oklahoma girls, Miss Elizabeth Routh, answered the call for which she had been waiting so long. She at last was to realize the desire that had been in her heart since she was eleven years of age. Many times she had quoted her favorite verse of Scripture, "If we have hope for that we see not, then do we wait patiently for it." Patiently she waited, joyously and hastily she prepared to go. She sailed the 20th of September and is today serving her Lord among the blacks of Africa.

Now comes the call to Baptist women of Oklahoma as never before to rally to the support of White Cross, for it is through the cash receipts for this phase of our work that Elizabeth Routh shall receive her salary. She is our own missionary. I want to appeal to every White Cross chairman in Oklahoma to see that your church gives White Cross a place on your program. If you follow the service calendar adopted by the State W. M. U. you will have a definitely planned program in February. Pray earnestly for the work and then make a liberal offering, remembering Jesus' words: "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

REPORT OF W. M. U. TRAINING SCHOOL, LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY

Neither time nor space will permit me to give a lengthy report of our own House Beautiful in Louisville, Ky., but I would like to say that nowhere in all the Southland is there such a beautiful home with such marvelous beauty and grandeur where we may place our choice young women to be trained and fitted for their life's work. This year, there are 49 boarding students and 31 day students—an increase of ten per cent over last year at the same time.

Oklahoma is indeed happy to have a very fine representative in the school in the person of Miss Frances Bryan. Central District has the honor of furnishing the scholarship for her this year. In a recent letter from Miss Bryan, she expresses her deep appreciation for this privilege to better equip herself for the Master's work.

It is our happy privilege as well as our inescapable duty to support an institution so glorious as this that our daughters of our beloved Baptist denomination of the Southland may be as corner stones polished after the similitude of a palace.

Oklahoma has for many years past given money to buy the Thanksgiving and Christmas turkeys, and I feel sure that they will not fail this year.

Mrs. J. E. Kirk, Trustee

REPORT OF SOUTHWESTERN TRAINING SCHOOL

Berta K. Spooner

We have 30 Oklahoma students in the Seminary including missionary volunteers, religious educational workers, gospel musicians, preachers, and their wives. In the Training School, there are 37 girls this year representing 8 states and one foreign country. Six of these are foreign missionary volunteers. A survey of last year's activities shows that the Training School girls did 655 pieces of practical church work such as making talks, teaching Sunday school classes, leading B. Y. P. U.'s, etc. They worked in 64 cities and towns, serving 81 churches in this work. Last year, two girls left school to accept positions, one as Student Secretary at Rice Institute, the other to accept work in the general offices of the Baptist headquarters in Dallas. Other girls refused offers of positions as educational directors, church secretaries, etc., to continue their school work. Of the girls here last year, one has gone to China as a missionary and three others contemplate going as foreign missionaries.

W. M. U. DISTRICT REPORTS

Report of East Central District

Whatever the year has brought us, we did not realize in it all of our hopes and expectations. Whatever it taught us, in it we learned more of our own weakness and inability to bring to pass all that we had a vision to perceive and the heart to desire and the courage to attempt.

We have knocked at gates that would not open and marched around uncrumbled walls of Jericho, but defeat in some places has been matched by victories in others, and we can report progress in all phases of our work.

The Women of our District have made continued sacrifices and have given themselves whole-heartedly to every good work. Faithful and loving service has been rendered by many, some in ways that are more obvious, and others in ways that are less in evidence, but just as real.

Our annual meeting was held with the First Baptist Church at McAlester. Our guest speakers were Miss Emma Leachman and Mrs. Carter Wright, whose splendid addresses greatly enriched our program. The reports brought by officers and chairmen of departments covered a wide range of thought and service.

There is a special longing and prayerfulness for more spiritual life and for the lost. Relief work has occupied much of our time, and also afforded a great opportunity to carry the Gospel and administer to the spiritual needs along with the physical.

The Seasons of Prayer have been observed by more societies and a larger group of women and offerings are increasing.

More women have been enrolled in Mission and Bible Study classes with an increased interest along these lines. Circulating libraries in two of our associations have resulted in a decided improvement in the quality of our work and our women and young people recognize the wonderful opportunity through mission study.

Stewardship and Tithing received a great impetus from the addresses of Mrs. Carter Wright although many tithers are reluctant to report. Under the leadership of our Young People's Leader, Mrs. Charles Stinson of McAlester, our young people's organizations are throbbing with zeal and activity. Three camps were held this year, Y. W. A., G. A., and R. A., and plans were made for these to be annual features. Stewardship contests are claiming their interest and we have a larger number of entrants.

We set our faces toward a New Year with a deep and abiding faith.

Mrs. T. W. Stevens, President

Report of Southeast District

The usual activities of the year have met with loyal and enthusiastic co-operation for our women are "laborers together with God." Our work shows healthy gains along all lines. Most gratifying has been the progress of the Young People's work under the wise direction of our new leader, Mrs. John Burrous. The Stewardship Declamation Contest was held for the first time in Southeast District this year. The winner of the Y. W. A. and Intermediate G. A. were sent to the State Houseparty. We rejoice to report five new organizations,—three full-graded A-1 W. M. U. families: Isabel; Hugo, First; and Spiro.

Personal Service grows under the guidance of the new book of Mrs. Lawrence, the Personal Service Guide. This was taught by our Chairman, Mrs. Guy Burrows, and a new vision was given to our Directed Personal Service plans. The three special Weeks of Prayer proved a great spiritual uplift to our societies and the offerings were larger than ever.

We desire to express our gratitude for the helpful and inspiring contribution made by the Southwide and State representatives, Mrs. Carter Wright and Miss Emma Leachman, Mrs. Spooner, Mrs. Lina Beck Hoppell and Miss Lucille Smith.

We will strive to reach our Memorial Dormitory apportionment for next year and stress "Schools of Missions" along with the regular phases of work. So may our motto be:

Look up—not down,
Look out—not in,
Look forward—not backward,
And lend a hand.

Mrs. E. W. Chrestman, Spiro, President

Report of Southwest District

Southwest District is composed of four associations: Comanche-Cotton, Harmon, Jackson-Greer and Tillman. Each of these associations has a zealous, consecrated president at the helm. Capably and with prayerful determination, each has set herself to the task of possessing the land that is her responsibility with the assistance of her faithful forces.

For the first time in the history of the district, all associations have had Mission Study Institutes, quarterly rallies on scheduled time and District-wide Stewardship Declamation contests. Awards were made to all winners in the contests.

In beautiful loyalty, the associational presidents and district officers co-operate in carrying out a full and well-rounded W. M. U. program as outlined in the state year book.

Our scholarship girl for the past two years, Vina Mae Harris, of Jackson-Greer Association, is bringing honor to her district as well as to herself by the splendid record she has made in O. B. U.

In Southwest District we have set ourselves to the great endeavor of serving to assist in reaching the high aim set by our W. M. U. theme for the year, "Prayer in the Progress of Christianity."

Mrs. S. W. Hopkins, Hollis, President

Report of Northwest District

The Northwest District annual meeting was held with the First Baptist Church of Waynoka. We were happy to have with us our beloved Mrs. Spooner, Miss Emma Leachman, whose inspiring messages and devotion to the Master always lifts us near to Him. We also enjoyed the inspirational message of our State Young People's Leader, Mrs. John T. Daniel. The annual meeting was well attended and the program was interesting and helpful. Our district is composed of two associations, Salt Fork Valley and Northwest Association. Mrs. C. Lex Shelby is the capable president of Salt Fork Valley, Mrs. J. W. Appleton, the retiring president of Northwest. These two faithful women are interested in their work and with the unlimited opportunities for service, we are facing the coming years hopefully.

The new president of the Northwest Association is Mrs. Effie Long of Laverne. Mrs. Long, no doubt, will efficiently and faithfully lead the women of her association in the missionary cause.

We are facing the year with great plans for enlistment, both women and young people. Our associational rallies have been well attended, the Lord leading us. We are pressing on to greater victories.

Looking back over last year's record we are conscious of His unmistakable leading. So, in spite of the clouds of material distress, we look with faith and happy expectation because our hope is assured. We shall forget the discouragements in the joy of knowing there is a power that is forever on the side of those who are brave enough to trust him. May we of Northwest District face the new year with utmost faith in Him.

Mrs. W. Anderson, President

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE BOARD

How truly do members of the Executive Board of the W. M. U. of Oklahoma have cause to say "Unto God would I commit my cause which doeth great things and unsearchable, marvelous things without number," for it is under the guidance of His divine hand that mountain peaks of endeavor have been planned this past year.

It was in the first meeting of the Executive Board for the year 1933-34 at Oklahoma City on February 14, 1934, that a step was taken that was to mean much to the missionary spirit of the women of Oklahoma, for it was in this meeting that a motion prevailed that we apply the White Cross funds on hand on the salary and expenses of Miss Elizabeth Routh to become Hospital assistant at Ogbomoso Baptist Hospital, Nigeria, Africa; her yearly salary to be provided through the annual White Cross funds. Truly, this was an epochal day in the history of the W. M. U. of Oklahoma.

It was also in this meeting that plans were set on foot to send our beloved Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Berta K. Spooner, as our representative to the Baptist World Alliance in Berlin, Germany, in August, and on to the Holy Land.

Miss Juliette Mather, Southwide Young People's Secretary, was a welcome guest and brought us echoes of the mid-year conference of the W. M. U. of the South at Birmingham, Alabama, in January. The regular reports were presented and adopted.

The second meeting of the Executive Board for the year was held on June 29.

Mrs. A. L. Aulick, in bringing her report as Mission Study Chairman, presented important recommendations in regard to Mission Study Institutes.

Mrs. Spooner made the announcement that Miss Routh had received her appointment from the Foreign Mission Board for her work in Africa and that she was dedicated to the task at the annual meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention in Fort Worth in May. She also stated that it would be necessary for Miss Routh to carry her housekeeping equipment with her and our societies are asked to help in furnishing this equipment.

Mrs. John T. Daniel, chairman of the Young People's Committee, brought a report of the Houseparties at Shawnee for the Y. W. A.'s and the Intermediate G. A.'s, with recommendations in regard to this work for next year. Those teaching in the classes were Mrs. Lina Beck Hoppell, Mrs. J. W. Jent, Miss Lucille Smith and Mrs. John T. Daniel.

The Young People's Committee referred to is Mrs. John Daniel, chairman, Mrs. Hood Shannon of Tulsa, Mrs. John Burrous of Hugo and Mrs. Myrle Anderson Lane of Alva.

Miss Beth Weaver of Tulsa was the winner of the State Y. W. A. Declamation Contest and Mrs. Spooner reported having contributed $25.00 toward Miss Weaver's expenses to go to Ridgecrest. Upon motion by Mrs. Daniel, it was voted to commend this action of Mrs. Spooner's.

Upon motion it was also voted that we extend to the O. B. U. faculty and to all those connected with the Y. W. A. Houseparty and the Intermediate G. A. Houseparty and the classes, a vote of thanks.

Mrs. Spooner spoke of her appreciation of a scrap book presented to her by Mrs. Wells, Office Secretary.

Mrs. Spooner presented the plans for the week of prayer for Foreign Missions and the prayer cards.

Motion by Mrs. Aulick prevailed that we have mimeographed copies of the prayer plans sent to associational and district presidents.

The advisability of designating part of our State Mission money for the salary of a field worker was discussed and it was moved that a committee be appointed to confer with Dr. Potter to arrange for some of this year's State Mission funds to be designated for an extra worker for our W. M. U. work. Motion carried.

Following committee appointed: Mrs. R. D. Sheldon, Mrs. H. B. Wilhoite, and Mrs. John T. Daniel.

Motion was made that we send an expression of love and sympathy to Mrs. George McMillan, kept at home by the illness of her husband, and to Mrs. J. E. Kirk, who was unable to come because of the illness of her daughter, Dorothy. Carried.

Only one district—Central—reported giving a scholarship to the W. M. U. Training School at Louisville. West Central District reported giving $30.00 above their O. B. U. Scholarship to help some girl to go to the Training School.

Dr. Routh came before the Executive Board and expressed his appreciation of the interest that Oklahoma W. M. U. has manifested in Elizabeth, in making it possible for her to answer the call to Africa.

In the Executive Board Meeting held prior to the annual Convention, Mrs. Sheldon reported that in conference with Dr. Potter, he asked that the women postpone any action in regard to designating State Mission funds for employing a field worker in the W. M. U. Department.

On action of the Executive Board, the President was instructed to appoint a committee to study literature to be printed through the state office such as duties of officers, record book, etc.

Mrs. C. A. Richards, Recording Sec'y

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RECOMMENDATIONS

Your committee on recommendations presents the following suggestions for your endorsement in regard to the work of Woman's Missionary Union of Oklahoma for the year 1935:

PLAN OF WORK

That we adopt the Plan of Work of the W. M. U. of the South as published in the 1935 year book.

That our Watchword be: "In the name of our God, we will set up our banners" Psalms 20:5.

That our song for the year be: "Fling out the Banner."

That all districts, associations and local societies keep complete records of all their meetings.

That an intensive enlistment campaign be put on in all of our churches to enlist the great host of unenlisted women and young people in the work of Missions.

That more time and study be given to plain parliamentary rules in all our meetings.

That one program at the quarterly rallies in the association be a "Clinic" viz: each Associational Chairman of the different departments shall have a conference with the corresponding officers from the local societies.

That the local W. M. S. shall have an annual School of Instruction for all officers, using as a text book, "Why and How," by Miss Bucy.

That Publicity and Educational Chairman be elected in the District, the Association and the local society.

That the Oklahoma Service Calendar for the year 1935 be as follows:

January—Scholarships.

February—White Cross.

March—Home Missions.

April—District Expense and Orphans' Home.

May—Special effort for the Dormitory to meet the June payment of interest.

June—Associational expense; Christian Education.

July—Southwestern Training School Nursery at Fort Worth

August—Scholarship.

September—Special efforts for Dormitory and for securing subscriptions to Baptist Messenger and missionary periodicals; Orphans' Home.

October—State Missions and boxes to frontier preachers and missionaries.

November—Margaret Fund; final annual collection for Dormitory.

December—Lottie Moon offering.

(Suggestion: In order to help our corresponding secretary to keep her records straight we suggest that all money for White Cross, Margaret Fund, Nursery, Scholarship and Dormitory be sent directly to Mrs. Berta K. Spooner, 223½ West First Street, Oklahoma City.)

II. PRAYER

We recommend daily reading of God's Word and prayer in our homes.

Regular use of the Calendar of Prayer found in our "Royal Service."

Observance of the united prayer hour at 9 A.M. for America and Worldwide missions.

We sincerely desire that the new prayer book, "Prayer—the Golden Chain," edited and published by Woman's Missionary Union, be purchased and studied by every Baptist woman in our constituency.

Also, we recommend the Dedication Service that is presented in this book be held in every group of our women and young people. We recommend the use of pledge cards used in connection with this Dedication Service. Book 25 cents, cards free.

III. Mission Study

That Mission Study Institutes, presenting teaching methods, preferably lasting two days, be held in each association annually. A leaflet, "The Mission Study Institute," available from the State W.M.U. Headquarters suggests many plans for real training work.

That books be distributed one week before the meeting of a one-day class and that some kind of visual teaching such as maps, charts, blackboards, or pictures be used.

That mission study chairmen exercise greater diligence than ever before in securing reports of classes taught and the number of awards granted. As diplomas and certificates are valuable in the educational work, we should make much of them in missionary education.

That Woman's Missionary Societies urge and co-operate with the church in supporting the Church School of Missions. Catalogues giving detailed instructions may be secured from the State W.M.U. Headquarters.

That mission libraries be established wherever possible in churches or associations.

That at least one program on World Peace be given in the circles during the year.

That all who have completed Courses I and II enroll for the Advanced Course of Study.

That renewed emphasis be given to teaching missions to the young people.

That classes be organized for women who lack only a few books of finishing Courses I and II.

That Associational Chairmen seek to organize mission study classes in Societies where no mission study work has been done. As never before, let us make every effort to have at least one mission study class in every Society in the state where a class has never been held. The ultimate aim being two classes in these Societies thus meeting the requirements of the Standard of Excellence.

That "Telling You How," by Juliette Mather be adopted as the young people's method book and "Mission Study, Why and How," by Mrs. A. L. Aulick, be adopted as the W. M. S. method book, each receiving credit on Certificate Course II in place of a Home or Foreign Mission Book.

That the ideal of the Woman Missionary Union be to fix an intelligent missionary consciousness in the heart of every woman, young person, boy or girl who may come within the influence of a Woman's Missionary Society.

IV. Personal Service

That we minister faithfully to those in our communities who are in spiritual or physical need, keeping always before us that the aim of all personal service is soul winning.

That since the Southwide plan of reporting personal service has been changed, we recommend that the Associational Chairmen furnish the local societies with personal service blanks which can be secured at W. M. U. Headquarters in Oklahoma City.

Realizing the need of our Negro people for help in leadership and study, we urge our women to co-operate in any way they can to promote their work.

V. Stewardship

That each society, or circle, study a book on stewardship during the year.

That stewardship be given an important place in our programs.

That we co-operate in the Stewardship Declamation Contest and that local societies have this contest not later than December 20th, the associations not later than January, so they may be ready for the District meeting in the spring.

That we display posters often in our churches, the best to be sent to Associations, etc.

That we practice and teach tithes and offerings as God's plan of financing His Kingdom.

That we present stewardship plays and pageants whenever possible.

That we strive for an increase in the number of tithers in each organization.

VI. Missionary Education of Young People

That we be faithful stewards of YOUTH in our churches in enlisting and training them in the missionary spirit by fostering all the missionary auxiliaries: Y. W. A., R. A., G. A., and Sunbeams, not being satisfied until a full family is organized in each church.

That each Society conduct a training class for auxiliary counselors.

VII. White Cross

That each society contribute to the support of the Baptist Hospital at Ogbomoso, Nigeria, West Africa.

That each society put on a White Cross program during the year.

That we think and pray for our own dear Miss Elizabeth Routh.

VIII. Margaret Fund

That Margaret Fund work be given special emphasis on all district and associational programs.

That Margaret Fund chairmen emphasize daily prayers for students, plans, proposals and propaganda for promoting the work.

That local Margaret Fund chairmen strive to interest societies and enlighten and encourage auxiliaries to love and support the Margaret Fund work.

Pray for the parents of Margaret Fund students.

IX. Missionary Literature

That we endeavor to circulate our missionary periodicals: Home and Foreign Fields, Royal Service, The Window of Y. W. A., World Comrades, also the Baptist Messenger, among our membership.

That we urge our women to buy more mission study books.

X. Apportionment and Thank Offering

That Oklahoma W. M. U. apportionment to the Co-operative Program be one-third of the amount proposed by the General Convention.

That we encourage EACH woman in making a liberal offering during the three seasons of prayer: State, Foreign and Home Missions.

XI. Orphans' Home

That we continue our policy of "adopting" the children of the Oklahoma Baptist Orphans' Home and of sending canned fruits, vegetables, etc., to the Home.

XII. W. M. U. Memorial Dormitory

That each society co-operate in completing the good work begun in providing a "House Beautiful" for the young women of O. B. U. by making MONTHLY payments on their apportionment.

XIII. Scholarships

That we turn our attention to scholarships for the training schools beginning with September.

That each loyal society give time and space in their program sometime during the year to information about the Training Schools.

XIV. Gifts to Missions

That every resident member in our churches be urged to contribute to Missions (Co-operative Program, designated and undesignated or Offerings of W.M.U.).

XV. Efficiency

That time, study and prayer be given toward efficiency in our work, searching ourselves for the best, making better members. Better members make better leaders, better programs, and better results. For the Master, give of our best.

Mrs. W. E. Dicken, Chairman of Com.

REPORT OF OBITUARY COMMITTEE

Sixteen associations reported 129 deaths among our ranks during the past year. It is with joy that we present this list of names to our secretary because these are our dear ones who have been promoted to be with our Saviour. Let us rejoice most of all for the example that they have lived for us, these sisters of ours in Christ. How they have toiled for our Master! What a glorious example they have set! They would want us to carry on!

Mrs. H. O. Morris, Atoka

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

We, your committee on resolutions, submit the following:

First, we desire to express our genuine gratitude for and appreciation of this splendid spirit of friendliness and hospitality which Ada has expressed, not only through its aggressive townspeople, but through the newspapers who have thrown open wide the door of publicity for interesting and favorable comment.

Second, to the First Baptist Church as host to the sessions of the W. M. U. of Oklahoma, especially to Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Morris, and Mrs. Jim Burris, chairman of the Woman's Work and her most efficient committees for the generous provisions made for our comfort and enjoyment.

Third, to those of our official staff who have been responsible for the splendid programs of these days. Particularly for those representatives of our various boards whose addresses have challenged and inspired our hearts. We are profoundly grateful to Woman's Missionary Union of the South for sending Mrs. F. W. Armstrong, and to the Foreign Mission Board for sending Mrs. B. L. Lockett, whose presence have graced every occasion.

Fourth, to all who have contributed in any way to the success of this convention in making it a profitable and memorable one in the annals of Oklahoma history.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. T. A. Thurmond
