REPORT ON MISSIONS

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." John 3:16. God's love embraces all humanity. His Son died for all. Our obligation extends to the last human being in the farthest corner of darkest Africa. "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature," remains forever the command and commission of Christ to His Churches.

"Ye shall be witnesses unto me in Jerusalem, and Judea, and Samaria, and unto the uttermost parts of the earth." Home Missions, beginning in the local community and extending throughout the borders of the home land, is fundamental to all other mission work. A strong base of supplies is essential to the success of our far-flung foreign work. Facts and figures about Home Missions could be extended indefinitely but suffice it to say, our Home Mission Board under the capable leadership of Dr. J. B. Lawrence, reports another year of gratifying achievements. The budget for the new year is $530,000.00 of which $180,000.00 is for debt retirement.

"Our Foreign Mission work around the earth has never faced greater problems. The long invasion of China by Japan, and the threat now of rupture of diplomatic relations between the United States and Japan, necessitating the evacuation of at least the women and children of our mission forces in the Orient, constitutes appalling problems there. However, the past year has been the most successful from the standpoint of soul winning in the history of our work in China.

Our work in Europe and the Near East, and even in Africa, is sorely suffering from the great World War, and it is exceedingly difficult to know exactly what is transpiring from hour to hour, and no one knows what a day may bring forth in these fields.

South America is the open door and challenging opportunity of Southern Baptists at this hour. With the new bonds that bind the Americas together more and more closely, we should speed up our efforts to win the lost multitudes of our Southern neighbors to our Saviour.

The debt on our Foreign Mission Board, which stood seven years ago $1,110,000, now stands at approximately $225,000. The budget covering all the expenses and work of the Board for the new year is $860,000.00.

We urge all pastors and all leaders in our Churches to subscribe for and to read the official publications of our great missionary boards, "Home Missions" and "The Commission." Both magazines are filled with missionary statistics and inspiration, and should be widely read in every Church in Oklahoma.

We, also, urge our churches to participate as fully as possible in the special weeks of prayer observed by our women for the various missionary causes, and in the special love offerings for the support of these causes so close to the hearts of us all."

Respectfully submitted,
T. W. Medearis
Augie Henry
Ralph Hill
Spurgeon Richardson
R. C. Miller

24. Rev. M. F. Langley, Chairman of the Committee on Religious Literature and Baptist Messenger, read the report of the Committee and moved its adoption. Motion carried.

25. Dr. A. A. Duncan, addressed the convention regarding the importance of our Denominational Paper: The Baptist Messenger.

REPORT ON RELIGIOUS LITERATURE AND BAPTIST MESSENGER

Baptists believe that the Bible is their final authority for their faith and practice. What the Bible says we must do. We urge that more emphasis be placed upon the reading and study of God's Word, both in the family worship, the Sunday School, worship services, and other church programs, and that we strive more fully to follow its teachings.

Next to the Bible to Oklahoma Baptists comes our own Baptist Messenger. New emphasis is being placed upon our denominational papers all over the Southern Baptist Convention. At the Baltimore meeting of the Convention, Dr. George W. Truett said in a statement regarding denominational papers, "the whole world is suffering from the wrong done by propaganda. I can see no substitute for the weekly denominational paper. The antidote for a bad press is a good press. These weekly Baptist papers have not hesitated to speak out against the wrong tendencies in the nation. We should put the right literature in the place of evil literature. We should place these weekly Baptist papers in every Baptist home in the land. The denominational paper is an absolute essential in our Baptist life."

An effort is being made to increase the circulation of Southern Baptist papers to half a million. Our own paper, The Baptist Messenger, is owned, controlled, and published by the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma. Our able and esteemed editor, Dr. E. C. Routh, is rendering faithful and efficient service in editing and publishing our great paper. The Baptist Messenger is absolutely essential for our information, indoctrination, and inspiration. Our work will move forward along every line as our people read The Messenger.

The circulation of the paper has reached 14,000. There should not be fewer than 20,000 subscribers. It is up to the pastors, and workers in all our churches to see to it that it reaches that number. The best way to reach it is to put the paper in the budget of the church and send it to every family represented in the church membership. Many of our churches are doing that with fine results. We recommend that each church adopt this plan as soon as possible, and thus give a larger place, and a wider reading to our denominational paper.

Other religious literature of outstanding rank includes such publications by the Sunday School Board as The Teacher, Sunday School Builder, Young People and Adults, The Training Union Magazine, and The Baptist Student; Royal Service, Window of Y.W.A., and World Comrades, by the Southern W.M.U.; The Commission, by our Foreign Mission Board; and Home Missions, by the Home Mission Board. Besides these periodicals, these agencies publish numerous books on every phase of our work. These publications should have a wider reading, and the Boards that publish them are to be commended for providing such a fine list of really worthwhile literature.

M. F. Langley, Chairman
Leo B. Golden
Earl Stark

26. Ladies Quartet of the First Baptist Church, Miami, sang "Speak to My Heart Lord Jesus."

27. The hour having arrived for the Annual Sermon, Rev. Oren C. Reid, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Lawton, took charge of service.

28. Rev. P. Boyd Smith, pastor at Okemah, selected as an alternate for the annual sermon, read the Scripture lesson from Jeremiah 37:12-17, and led in prayer.

29. Brother Oren C. Reid preached the Annual Sermon using for his subject a part of the Scripture just read, "Is There Any Word from the Lord?"

30. Rev. Earl Stark of Woodward led in closing prayer.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

NOVEMBER 13, 1940, 1:30 P. M.

31. Vice-President H. T. Wiles opened the afternoon session and

Music Director Donald L. McCollum led in singing "He's the Lily of the Valley," "I Love to Tell the Story," "He Leadeth Me."

32. Dr. A. F. Crittendon led in prayer.

33. Devotional services continued with singing "Take Time to be Holy," and "At the Cross."

34. Rev. James Gore, pastor of Temple Church in Tulsa, led in prayer.

35. Rev. Anson Justice brought the report of the Committee on State Missions.

STATE MISSION REPORT

Does God have any word for Oklahoma Baptists? It is found in Acts 1:8 "Ye shall be my witnesses both in Jerusalem and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth." In obedience to this word Oklahoma Baptists are endeavoring to carry the redeeming message of the crucified, buried and risen Saviour to the entire world, and especially to our Judea, the state of Oklahoma.

The Lord has blessed us this past year in a remarkable way. Doctor Alldredge reports a total of 234,676 white and Indian Baptists in Oklahoma for 1939, or an increase of 14,795 over 1938. There were 17,883 baptisms reported last year, or an increase of 2,593 over the preceding year. Surely we should give thanks to God for this increase.

However, our increase calls attention to our possibilities. More than 65 per cent of all the people in Oklahoma are not members of any church. These are Baptist responsibilities. These are Baptist opportunities. They are to be found in our large cities, in our small villages, on the rolling farms, and in the beautiful mountain sections. They are to be found in oil field and factory, in mansions and slums. We must lift our eyes and see the fields that are white already unto harvest.

Heeding God's word to go into our Judea and preach the gospel of Christ we have:

Our General Missionary, Brother T. B. Lackey, working in the interest of evangelism and enlistment. There are three state evangelists: Brother Marvin Cole, Brother Charley Curb, and Brother T. B. Hart, and six district missionaries. Besides these there are 11 Associational Missionaries who are working in close cooperation with our state mission forces in the witnessing to every cross road and hamlet. In addition to these workers, our state mission force includes our W.M.U., Sunday School, B.T.U., B.S.U. workers, and our Baptist Messenger.

Your committee humbly recommends:

1. That we launch out in an aggressive evangelistic and missionary effort to witness to every nook and corner in this state.
2. That we seek to enlist every member of our churches in stewardship and missions.
3. That we utilize every possible means to encourage each one of these causes promoted by this program.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS, 1940

In a day when world foundations seem to crumble under the continued pounding of materialistic forces, it is well to rethink our denominational organization and properly relate all our work in the light of Him whose we are and whom we serve. It is not a waste of time to consider the strength of the foundation when the superstructure is wavering in the crashing din of present day crisis.

What is our religion? Where is our power? What is our doctrine? The answer is simple and dynamic; comprehensive and singularly compelling. The answer is truth. Our religion, our power, our doctrine are the revelation of God in and through Jesus Christ. Christ is our starting point. We must start from Christ and go with Christ if we are to be true to our faith. This is true for the individual, for the church, and for the denomination.

It is well to be reminded in this day of regimentation that Christ magnified and transformed the individual. A historic Baptist principle has been the right of the individual to worship God in accordance with the dictates of his own conscience. The individual is the basic unit in the Baptist faith, but the transformed individual is constrained by the Spirit and by the Word of God to co-operate with fellow Christians in the church.

A second principle which Baptists find to be consistent with the teachings of God's Word is the sovereignty of the local church. Baptists cannot accept an ecclesiasticism as the will of our Father in the promulgation of His Word. The local church is central in the thinking of Baptists; but we must hasten to add—no Baptist church worthy of the name Baptist which professes to follow faithfully the commands of our Lord, Jesus Christ, can live wholly unto itself. "But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth," (Acts 1:8); "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost." (Matthew 28:19) Our message is a dynamic and cannot be compressed within the limits of a single individual or church. We must be missionary Baptists.

Paul gives us the example of the early Christian churches co-operating in the spread of the Gospel. The Christian dynamic which motivated the early Christian church is the foundation for all of our co-operative work today—in the Association, in the State, in the Southland, and throughout the world. In State Missions, Oklahoma Baptist University, the Baptist Messenger, the Baptist Children's Home, Baptist hospitals, Sunday School, Baptist Training Union, Baptist Student Union, Brotherhood, Women's Missionary Union, the denominational organization, is not set up for the purpose or pleasure of the organization, but rather for the projection and the service of each sovereign church, made up of regenerated individuals.

It is difficult to catalog the functions of these organizations because all of them have the same objective, namely; the revelation of God through Jesus Christ to a lost and needy world. However, for the purpose of this report we have divided this projection of the local church into four divisions: (1) Evangelism; (2) Benevolence; (3) Education; and (4) Promotion.

I. EVANGELISM

In the final analysis, every activity of Oklahoma Baptists should be centered around evangelism. Jesus came into the world to seek and to save those who are lost. We are not doing what we ought to do or what we would like to do in the way of reaching out into the highways and hedges in Oklahoma but we are making progress in that direction.

STATE MISSIONS: The following have served in the State Mission program during the past year: Andrew Potter, executive secretary; T. P. Haskins, assistant executive secretary; T. B. Lackey, general missionary; Sam Scantlan, general missionary; Marvin Cole, state evangelist; C. M. Curb, state evangelist; T. B. Hart, state evangelist.

STATE EVANGELISTS: We cannot say too much about the fine work being done by these state evangelists. Brother Charley Curb has preached nearly every day during the past year and reports 395 additions with 301 of these for baptism. Brother Curb also directed the evangelistic forces at Falls Creek in carrying the Gospel message out into the highways and hedges.

Thomas B. Hart held 20 revival meetings during the past year and has preached nearly 600 times during the twelve months. He reports a total of 475 additions with 363 for baptism.

At the Muskogee Convention, Marvin Cole was asked by the Board of Directors to join the forces as a state evangelist. The Lord has used Brother Cole in a great way during the ten months he has served. In the sixteen meetings he has held there have been more than 1,000 additions, with 542 for baptism. Brother Cole has raised more than enough money to pay his salary during this period and more than $700 in addition for the Unified Budget. In addition to the meetings held, he has spent several weeks in general denominational promotion work for all causes.

DISTRICT MISSIONS: The district missionary does more than hold revival meetings. He promotes the entire Kingdom program. He helps coordinate all of the work of the denomination within his district. We commend the district mission plan to Baptists wherever it is impossible or impractical to have an associational missionary. Those who have served during the past year as district missionaries for all or part of the year are: Southwest district, E. V. Brownlow, George C. Hutto; East Central district, J. A. Pennington; Southeast district, Ben F. Bland; Western district, B. N. Lummus; Kiamichi Valley, H. J. Ballew; and Panhandle district, E. Ray Lansdown.

The reports of these district missionaries are inspiring. They have preached more than 1400 sermons during the year and reported more than 500 baptisms. Nearly 300 have been received by letter through their ministry. They have obtained a number of subscriptions to the Messenger, have helped to reopen "dead" churches, and have distributed thousands of tracts of various kinds.

ASSOCIATIONAL MISSIONS: Many associations have missionaries who are doing an exceptionally fine job, especially with the rural churches. These men often make great personal sacrifices in order to carry the message of Christ to a lost and needy world. Men who have served as associational missionaries during the past year are: Banner, E. O. Wright; Bryan, J. Millard Thomas; Delaware-Osage, E. V. Brownlow; Haskell, C. H. Peaden (resigned March 1, 1940), H. E. Simpson, Keota, and T. H. Holt, Stigler; Leflore, Albert Moore, Panama; Northeastern, Clyde Foster, Miami; Perry, W. R. King, Red Rock; Pawnee-Creek, Deyo Jeter, Cushing; Tulsa-Rogers, Jerry Cox, Tulsa; and Union, J. G. Heard, Noble.

CHURCH MISSIONS: One of the most remarkable mission activities being promoted in Oklahoma at the present time is through the mission stations supported by local churches. The First Baptist Church of Miami has a mission director in the church who works with the well equipped mission stations; Kelham Avenue Baptist Church in Oklahoma City has gained Southwide fame for pioneering in this field. We could go on to mention many other churches taking the financial responsibility for carrying the redeeming message to lost men and women through mission stations.

II. BENEVOLENCE

Under benevolence, we have grouped the Baptist Orphans' Home, Baptist Hospitals, and the Ministers' Retirement Plan. The Christian's interest in human suffering must go beyond platitudes.

BAPTIST ORPHANS' HOME: Our gifts through the Unified Budget have been inadequate for the maintenance of our Orphans' Home. It has been necessary to supplement this income with Birthday offerings and special offerings at Thanksgiving and Christmas. If there is any object which should appeal to Oklahoma Baptists for an "over and above" gift, it should be the needy children at the Baptist Home. During the past year, bequests in the wills of the late J. S. Hodge of Pond Creek and Sam Apple of Ardmore have brought more than $26,000 to the Home. Our prayer is that God will lay it on the hearts of other Baptists who have been blessed with material things to follow the example of these consecrated Christian friends in making investments which will pay living dividends for years to come. Suggestions for the use of this money and other contributions will be made by the Future Plans and Policies Committee.

We need to build more room for the children and beautify the Home in every possible way. Oklahoma City Baptists could well raise $25,000, and Baptists outside of Oklahoma City could match this amount during the coming year to make needed additions. Rev. Truman Maxey, the resident manager, and Mrs. Gladys Dicken, the head matron, have the Christian ideal for the Home, but they are hampered by lack of equipment. Churches should utilize the birthday "Home" boxes supplied. A moving picture has been made of the children and their activities and is now being shown as the truck makes its tour of the state.

BAPTIST HOSPITALS: Oklahoma Baptists own and operate hospitals at Miami and Muskogee, with Miss Florence Worley and Miss Gracia Tarmen as superintendents. Both of these hospitals are paying their way and are performing a worthwhile ministry. Last year, the Miami Hospital showed a $4,000 deficit because of needed improvements made during the year. However, this amount has been paid and both hospitals are now operating on a cash basis.

MINISTERS' RETIREMENT PLAN: Seventeen veterans of the Cross have retired in Oklahoma during the past year under the Minister's Retirement Plan voted by the convention in Shawnee. Those who have retired are S. B. Barnett, J. T. Bowling, J. R. Eldridge, G. M. Ford, R. C. Miller, B. F. Smith, Thomas M. Smith, J. M. Wiley, E. D. Jeter, A. M. Brown, H. P. Haley, W. R. Trent, G. R. Naylor, G. F. Colston, J. R. Plunkett, W. G. Lucas, and N. Keller. These men have all performed a heroic Christian service in Oklahoma. There are now 302 Baptist ministers in the plan.

III. EDUCATION

All of our agencies are educational to the degree that they furnish information, but we think of some of our work primarily in the field of education.

OKLAHOMA BAPTIST UNIVERSITY: O. B. U. is the center of Christian Education in Oklahoma. Education, to meet the demands of this hour of crisis, needs to be Christ-centered to be complete. Christ must be elevated in the science and economics classroom as well as in the chapel. Dr. John W. Raley has won the confidence of Oklahoma Baptists through his constructive leadership, and the entire program at the University has been stabilized under his administration. The Convention continues to supply $34,000 each year for the operating expenses of the school. This is equivalent to more than a million dollars endowment, and is, I think, the largest amount designated for one school by the Baptist convention of any state in the Southern Baptist Convention.

Last year, the Convention adopted the report of the Future Plans and Policies Committee that the next major building project through the Unified Budget would be the building of a much needed Men's Dormitory at Oklahoma Baptist University. In line with this vote of the convention, we recommend that $25,000 be set aside as a preferred item in the Unified Budget for this project. Also, in accordance with our desire to keep out of debt, we recommend that actual construction on the dormitory be deferred for a year and until such a time when the Woman's Missionary Union and the Unified Budget will have raised $50,000 cash on this $100,000 project.

SUNDAY SCHOOL: The Sunday school is a miniature Christian college in every church. Its curriculum, too, is Christ-centered. Our state Sunday School department, under the leadership of Robert S. Bazzell, secretary, works with all of the Sunday schools in Oklahoma in an effort to help them reach more people and do better teaching. Approved departmental workers are provided for each department. They are Porter Routh, adult; Miss Sophia Duerksen, young people; Mrs. W. W. Hibbert, intermediate; Mrs. J. W. Barron, junior and vacation Bible school; Miss Jewel Kirkpatrick, primary; Mrs. W. H. Crowder, beginners and cradle roll; and Mrs. Alice Bazzell, extension.

TRAINING UNION: On December 9, the Training Union forces of Oklahoma will launch a program to be projected into every association in Oklahoma. During the week, December 9-13, the Training Union forces of the state, working with Southwide Training Union leaders, will visit every association. This program has been projected by the Sunday School Board and deserves the best co-operation.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION: The Baptist Student Union forms an integral link between college students and the local Baptist churches. We have around 8,000 Baptist college students in Oklahoma. We need to keep these young people enlisted and interested in the Baptist program during their college life. Many of them will go out into positions of responsibility and leadership in all parts of Oklahoma after graduation.

FALLS CREEK ASSEMBLY: Falls Creek Assembly offers a great opportunity for teaching as well as inspiration. Next summer, we will celebrate the Silver Jubilee of the founding of the Assembly. Great strides have been made since the Assembly was started by Doctor Rounds. Improvements are continually being made and we are looking for 10,000 Baptists on the Assembly grounds next summer.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION: The Woman's Missionary Union has done an outstanding work both as an educational and promotional organization. The Woman's Missionary Union makes its study meaningful because it motivates action. Their study of state, southwide, and world missions results in increased gifts to these causes. Their study of Christian Education results in their taking the leadership in such activities as the construction of the lovely W.M.U. Dormitory and the proposed Men's Dormitory at O.B.U. Their study of the Children's Home results in active support through the provision of clothing for the children. Their study of the hospitals results in assistance. Under the leadership of Mrs. Berta K. Spooner, the Woman's Missionary Union has been completely sympathetic and whole-heartedly co-operative in the promotion of the Unified Budget.

BAPTIST BROTHERHOOD: Recent figures released by Dr. E. P. Aldredge reveal the startling fact that very few men are enlisted in the church program. Our pastors have been aware of this fact for a long time. Women perform a splendid service, but it has been my observation that the growth of a church is almost in proportion to the number of men who are really enlisted. This is the Brotherhood's job. The big job of the Brotherhood is to enlist the men in all of the activities of the church. The Brotherhood should work with the pastor in putting over the every-member canvass. The Brotherhood should work with the Sunday school to see that more men are enlisted in Bible study. The Brotherhood should work with the Training Union to see that more men are enlisted in definite training.

The time has come in Oklahoma when we need to coordinate Brotherhood work behind these main objectives. We recommend that the Board of Directors be authorized to take such steps as are necessary to bring about this coordination and to utilize effectively our Baptist manpower in Oklahoma.

IV. PROMOTION

Promotion is evangelism as well as benevolence and education. It takes a sharp pencil to draw the dividing line, but we think of certain of our agencies as promoting all of our work. These agencies are necessary for a well balanced and continuous program.

BAPTIST MESSENGER: At the Southern Baptist Convention in Baltimore, our Southern Baptist papers received the best hearing they have ever had. Dr. George W. Truett presented the case for the Baptist papers and our own beloved editor, Dr. E. C. Routh, presented the recommendation concerning a proposed Southwide campaign. As a result of this presentation a Southwide committee was appointed with Louie D. Newton, Atlanta, as chairman. On the ratio of Baptist families, Oklahoma was given a goal of 23,714 by 1945. We are anxious to reach the 15,000 mark in Oklahoma before the end of this year. The Baptist Messenger reports all obligations paid with a small cash balance. The circulation, October 31, was 14,000.

The committee recommended that the Baptist state paper be included in the church budget and we enthusiastically add our endorsement to this proposal. Two dollars per week in the church budget will send the Baptist Messenger to one hundred families.

Oklahoma pastors have found that the Baptist Messenger plays a big part in helping them put over their local church program as well as obtain interest in outside causes. An informed people will act. Our pastors should take definite steps during this coming year to place the Baptist Messenger in their budgets.

BAPTIST BOOK STORE: The Baptist Book Store is no longer owned by the Oklahoma Baptist General Convention. However, the Book Store and the Sunday School Board co-operate in every possible way for promotion of all work in Oklahoma. Numerous free tracts are furnished. We appreciate this splendid service.

ASSOCIATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS: During the past few years, there has been a renewed emphasis on the associational organization. The associational organization feels the pulse of our Baptist men and women. We have utilized the associational organization in the promotion of the Unified Budget in Oklahoma and have found it not wanting. We need to recognize our tireless moderators who work extra hours and many times spend their own money in the promotion of associational work. All of the associational committees and officers perform an invaluable work. We list here the associational moderators in Oklahoma for this coming year. They are:

UNIFIED BUDGET

The Unified Budget has been accepted by Oklahoma Baptists as a logical and fair way to promote all of our work. As it is with members of our family, so it is with the Unified Budget. Some members require more money than others. There are times when emergencies arise. We need to be careful to see that each child gets his rightful share. So it is with the Unified Budget. It is flexible enough to take care of emergencies yet it is rigid enough to insure each agency getting its rightful share.

One gratifying thing has been the reception given the Unified Budget by the associations and the churches. All of the associations set goals for the Unified Budget last year and an increasing number of churches set their local goal for the Unified Budget before making out their associational letters. We recommend this plan to all of our churches.

The Unified Budget is not a high pressure campaign but insures a steady healthy growth. It is a plan that fits the Baptists because it depends on co-operation. The first year of the Unified Budget, receipts were $136,537. Last year the receipts were $140,852 and this year the receipts were $145,045.05.

We cannot stress too much the fact that we do not give TO the Unified Budget but rather THROUGH the Unified Budget to State Missions, Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Christian Education, Orphan's Home, Hospitals, the old ministers, and other causes which are dear to the hearts of Baptists and dear to the heart of Christ.

TOTAL RECEIPTS: We are happy to announce the largest total receipts in the last seven years for 1939-40. A total of $363,962.38 was received during the year. Out of this amount, $145,045.05 was for the Unified Budget. No charge is made for the handling of the other designated items.

RECEIPTS OVER TWO MILLION SINCE 1933: During the past seven years, a total of $2,115,787.14 has been received through the executive secretary's office. With the exception of one year, total receipts have shown a steady and consistent increase year by year.

RECOMMENDATIONS

- ✓ 1. That it be our policy to operate on a cash basis.
- ✓ 2. That we exercise the strictest economy consistent with the best administration and promotion of our work.
- ✓ 3. That we instruct all agencies provided for in the budget not to incur any debts not authorized by the Board of Directors during 1940-41.
- ✓ 4. That the 1940-41 State Mission budget be projected on a basis that will insure no deficits at the close of the year.
5. That we continue the ten per cent contingency fund from

In-the-State objects as a safeguard against possible deficits ~~and with~~ which to retire debts.

6. We recommend the Unified Budget for 1940-41 be $170,000, distributed in the following manner.

CO-OPERATIVE PROGRAM	$111,000.00
($96,000 Preferred Item)
O. B. U. and M. R. P.	34,000.00
BUILDING PROGRAM	25,000.00
TOTAL UNIFIED BUDGET	$170,000.00

7. We further recommend that the Board of Directors be authorized and instructed to re-adjust these figures, if receipts do not justify the above distribution. We solemnly renew our pledge to the Baptists of Oklahoma that there will be no debt debacles during this administration.

CONCLUSION

The Tulsa Convention will mark a seven-year cycle in Oklahoma Baptist history. In 1933, at Tulsa, I attended my first state convention as executive secretary. Those were hard strenuous years. We were nearly a half million dollars in debt. Economic conditions were none too encouraging. These seven years have been trying but happy years. I feel that I have in some measure learned to know Oklahoma Baptists and to understand their ambitions and their interests.

During these seven years, we have seen Baptist ranks increase from 165,000 to 235,000, a gain of 70,000, despite a loss in population during that same period. Total cash receipts have increased from $120,000 in 1933 to more than $363,000 reported this year. We have seen baptisms increase more than 3,000 per year. Sunday schools and Training Unions have grown. The Baptist Student Union program has been enlarged. Our Woman's Missionary Union and its auxiliaries have grown. The subscription list to the Baptist Messenger has been nearly trebled. The student body at O.B.U. has been enlarged and needed improvements have been made on the campus. Brotherhood organizations have shown new life and our laymen have demonstrated new zeal.

Your state secretary does not claim credit for this progress. I am mindful of the foundations which were laid strong and well in the years past. I am mindful of the faithful corps of workers who have traveled thousands of miles with me to all parts of the state in the interest of the work. I am mindful of the general, district, and associational missionaries who have labored sacrificially and without complaint for the cause of Christ in Oklahoma. I am mindful of the hundreds of loyal Oklahoma Baptist pastors who have toiled long hours, written many letters, and made personal contacts in order that the work might go on. I am mindful of the devoted deacons, sympathetic Sunday school teachers and tireless Training Union workers who have spread the missionary spirit. I am mindful of the many thousands of Oklahoma Baptist women and laymen who have asked only for the privilege of showing their love for Christ through unselfish service and sacrificial giving. Above all, I am mindful of a good and loving Saviour who has bountifully blessed us in the carrying on of His work. We may sow and we may cultivate, but it is God who giveth the increase.

Let us be thankful then to Him who is the giver of every good and perfect gift. Let us dedicate anew our best to Him. Let us launch out for Him to carry His saving message to every individual in Oklahoma. That is our main business. Let's be up and doing!

53. Dr. Rupert Naney presented the Report of the Plans and Policies Committee and motion carried to adopt it.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FUTURE PLANS AND POLICIES.

On November 16, 1938 the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma decided to constitute a committee on plans and policies for the future. The purpose of the establishment of such a committee was:

(1) To safeguard the Convention against going again into debt. We should count it a travesty almost, if not quite, beyond repair if now, after these years of struggle to relieve the Convention and its agencies of debt, we take any step—or any of its agencies or institutions take any step—that would be calculated to laden the Baptists of Oklahoma with debt again.

(2) To promote on a sound financial basis the work of the institutions and agencies of the Convention. It was thought at the time this committee was inaugurated that a stated committee constantly studying and planning the work of the Convention should be in a position to reach conclusions and make recommendations of the highest importance.

The Committee therefore makes its third report to this Convention which is as follows:

1. Last year you approved a recommendation that the Convention's next major project should be building a Boy's Dormitory so greatly needed at Oklahoma Baptist University. Pursuant to that action of the Convention, and after another year of study and observation, we recommend:

(1) That this dormitory be erected;

(2) But that it shall be delayed for twelve months;

(3) We further recommend regarding the dormitory that in any case it be not started until $50,000 (one-half of the total cost) is cash in hand. It seems to the Committee that this is the best place to say that Mrs. Berta K. Spooner for the Woman's Missionary Union, auxiliary to this Convention, recently handed to Secretary Potter a check for $15,000 as the beginning of the dormitory fund. For this very substantial gift we are deeply grateful and we wish to make this public acknowledgement of our obligation to our ever faithful women for this work. We bespeak also their future blessed cooperation and the Committee takes the liberty to express the hope that they shall continue in this good work until the dormitory is built and paid for.

(4) In order that the present policy of deepening in every way we can the affection and trust in which Oklahoma Baptist University and its dynamic President are held by all our people, and in the light of our reiterated pronouncements relative to the debts on all our Oklahoma Baptist institutions, we recommend that Oklahoma Baptist University be instructed to retire its current indebtedness before any beginning is made on the Boy's Dormitory or any other building program at Shawnee involving Convention money, and that when the present University indebtedness be paid, if any further current deficit be incurred it shall be deducted from the $34,000.00 allotted to Oklahoma Baptist University as an operating fund.

(5) We further recommend to this Convention that since it is no longer incumbent upon us to provide for debts in our Unified Budget, we now place into the Unified Budget $25,000 per year to be applied on the construction of this dormitory.

At a joint meeting of the Board of Trustees of Oklahoma Baptist University and the Board of Directors of the Baptist General Convention on October 10, 1940, a proposal came from the Chamber of Commerce of Shawnee to erect at no cost to the Convention a $50,000 Gymnasium at Oklahoma Baptist University. The Board of Trustees acted favorably upon the Shawnee proposition and requested permission of the Board of Directors to begin this enterprise. The Board of Directors thoroughly discussed the proposal and approved it with the following understanding with the Board of Trustees; that the project might be begun and continued so long as there was money available specifically given to pay for its construction; and when and if money was not in hand to pay material, labor, and other bills incident to the construction of the building, it should be stopped at once until further funds for this purpose were received.

This recommendation is made in order to secure this Convention against the creation of additional debts.

II. Your Committee has studied the needs of the Baptist Orphans' Home and reports to you that they are large and acute. The buildings are old and, while not in the state of dilapidation, they are rapidly becoming unfit for the housing of our children. The Executive Secretary has made an extensive study of housing methods in various orphanages over the Southern Baptist Convention and elsewhere. It is his opinion, and therefore becomes the recommendation of this Committee, that the following things be done at the Orphans' Home:

(1) The purchase of a farm near by Oklahoma City to which all live stock shall be removed.

(2) That the present site of the Orphans' Home remain as its permanent location, and that the property be landscaped and otherwise beautified to give the atmosphere of a home.

(3) We are broadly studying a $250,000 improvement program which will include the construction of suitably buildings to house two hundred or more children and provide for their general welfare.

(4) Your Committee recommends that this program be started this year. Recently there were received legacies from the Sam Apple and J. S. Hodge estates approximating $25,000. This money is now available to begin this much needed building operation. We therefore recommend that the Convention launch a campaign for an additional $25,000 in the State as an "Over-and-above" offering in order to complete the first units of this proposed building plan.

It is the hope of your Committee that in addition to this, the citizens of Oklahoma City may be enlisted in this great humanitarian enterprise and possibly provide an additional $25,000, making a total of $75,000 for this holy cause. Your Committee recommends that the Convention authorize the beginning of this building program with the understanding and agreement that the money now in hand may be used and that the building program proceed only so far as funds are made available for this purpose.

III. We further recommend that all building operations for all our institutions and agencies, for which this Convention is financially responsible, shall be contracted for and under the supervision and direction of the Board of Directors and the Executive Secretary.

Conclusion

By way of conclusion we return to the thought expressed in the preamble of this report, namely that this Committee was established in order that all of our work might be sensibly and soundly promoted and that our agencies and institutions should be definitely safeguarded against deficits and debts. Your Committee greatly desires that Oklahoma Baptists shall progress and that their advance shall be symmetrical; that is, that all of our institutions and agencies may be carried forward on the basis of sound economics, careful planning, and in complete harmony based upon the needs of all. At the risk of what might seem a repetition we want to say that progress can and will be made within the realm of financial safety and without the calamitous results from inordinant involvement of our Convention in disastrous debt.

Respectfully submitted,
COMMITTEE ON FUTURE
PLANS AND POLICIES.

55. Dr. Elmer Ridgeway, who has been chairman of the Debt Completion Campaign this fall, was presented and spoke on the subject, "Seven Golden Years", giving a resume of the glorious achievements of the past seven years during which Dr. Andrew Potter has been Executive Secretary.

56. Motion by Chaplain Leroy Raley "That we extend to Dr. Elmer Ridgeway a rising vote of thanks for the splendid service he has rendered to this convention during the past three months, and that the President of our Convention be instructed to convey our gratitude to the Immanuel Baptist Church of Oklahoma City for the loan of their pastor during this period." Motion carried.

57. The O.B.U. male quartet furnished some more inspiring music.

58. Dr. Andrew Potter spoke on the subject: "Seven Golden Years in Prospect," emphasizing the objectives set forth in the Report of the Board of Directors and the Report of the Plans and Policies Committee.

59. Congregation stood to sing "Onward Christian Soldiers."

60. Following the singing of this song, Dr. Andrew Potter announced that he lacked $319.81 being able to complete our Unified Budget Debt Completion Program. An old fashioned offering amounting to $332.00 was laid on the altar and Doctor Potter presented Dr. J. W. Raley a check for $7,184.94, as the final amount necessary to complete the payment of the University's outstanding obligations.

61. Resolution presented by President John W. Raley:

In keeping with the spirit of this happy climactic hour in the life of Oklahoma Baptists it becomes fitting that we as a Convention should express a word of appreciation to the leadership which has made possible our triumphant rejoicing. I submit, therefore, the following resolution:

1. That this Convention acknowledge the conquering leadership of its great Executive Secretary, Dr. Andrew Potter, who has given to himself untiringly to this tedious and difficult task of debt liquidation for seven long years, and that we pledge to him the same responsive following in his far visioned program of the future in the building of our great denomination in Oklahoma.

2. That we express our deep admiration and gratitude to the Debt Liquidation Committee which initiated the campaign, the associational leadership which kept the fires burning and the host of pastors and local church leaders who responded which such sacrificial spirit as to make possible this glorious achievement.

3. That we take special recognition of the services performed by the Campaign Completion Committee, composed of Dr. A. F. Crittendon, Reverend J. T. Jones, Dr. W. O. Leach, Reverend Winston Borum, Dr. T. W. Medearis, Dr. H. W. Stigler, and Dr. A. A. Duncan, with Dr. Elmer Ridgeway, the noble pastor of the Immanuel Baptist Church, as leader. Oklahoma Baptists have a debt of gratitude which they can never pay to Doctor Ridgeway and to his great hearted church for the contribution which they made in the completion of this campaign. All of us should know that Doctor Ridgeway left his pulpit and his church and for the past three months has campaigned Oklahoma in the interest of debt liquidation. The importance of his inspiring appeal and the sacrificial example given by his church are beautifully witnessed to in the triumph of this hour.

John W. Raley.

62. Motion by Charley Curb that Doctor Potter's address be printed. Carried.

63. Dr. Charles Daniel of Eldorado, Arkansas led in the closing prayer of adjournment.

66. Dr. A. F. Crittendon made motion that the personnel of the Future Plans and Policies Committee be continued and that the President of the Convention fill vacancies and add others as need arises. Motion carried.

67. Dr. W. A. Criswell presented The Report of the Committee on Social Service and motion carried for its adoption.

REPORT ON SOCIAL SERVICE

The torn and troubled times in which the life and ministry of Jeremiah were cast wrung from the bleeding heart of the ancient prophet this plaintive lament: "We looked for peace, but no good came, and for a time of health, and behold trouble! When I would comfort myself against sorrow, my heart is faint in me. For the hurt of the daughter of my people am I hurt; astonishment hath taken hold on me. Oh, that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughted of my people."

It seems that our ministry today is cast in no less a turbulent and terrible time. Even those among us who are young may go down to our graves having never seen the world restored to universal peace and brotherhood, for if nations and kingdoms can violate God's principles of love and justice as do the peoples of this modern world and therein reap no evil reward for their iniquities, then there is no God in heaven, no judgment upon sin, and no truth in the demonstrable law of cause and effect. But God is not mocked. They who sow to the wind shall reap the whirlwind. We cannot murder and destroy and cheat and rob and blaspheme and get away with it. The red horseman is always followed by the black horseman with a pair of balances in his hand, and he in turn is always followed by a pale horse whose rider is named Death and Hell.

What shall be our message and way of life in this hour of coming judgment? This is it: That we warn men to flee the wrath to come and do works meet for repentance. Our hope lies in the virility of the Christian message, in the moral stamina inculcated through its proclamation, in the repentance-righteousness of John the Baptist, in the citizenship of the kingdom of God as preached by Jesus Christ. In this scheme of things there is no place for the inflammation of youth with pornographic publications, no place for the sale to human beings of beer-slop and alcoholic poison, no place for the suggestive and salacious motion picture, no place for the vices that lead to the broken home and the desecrated Lord's Day, no place for war and hate and injustice. Our weapons against these pernicious evils lie in the power of the gospel to transform human life and society. Realizing such, we ought vigorously to propagate our Christian message and live the faith we preach.

In pursuing this task, God has not withheld His blessings from us. We have just defeated the repeal movement that would have swept away our dry laws and flooded our State with the miserable evils attendant upon the open and advertized and glorified modern saloon. In Oklahoma at least we still have sense enough to see through the chimerical promise of the brewers and distillers who avow that any people can drink themselves out of taxes and into prosperity. As our Baptist pastors and people have done a notable part in achieving this worthy victory, let us press on in every other moral arena of life and there set the banner of the cross to wave over a citizenship devoted to the Christian causes of temperance and righteousness and purity of life. In any situation the side of Christ is our side. When the world fumbles the ball it is anybody's game.

Let us be on our toes, each man in his place, ready to run, to vote, to preach, to sacrifice, to do anything to bring victory to the Lord of Life and the Prince of Peace.

68. Dr. A. F. Crittendon gave a verbal report concerning our Falls Creek Assembly.

69. Mrs. Rachael Price brought a message in song, "A Way-faring Stranger."

70. Reverend Harry Hamblen presented the following report about Our Baptist Hospitals and motion carried for its adoption.

REPORT ON HOSPITALS

Oklahoma Baptists own and operate two hospitals. One is located at Miami and the other is located at Muskogee. Both of these hospitals make it possible for Oklahoma Baptist churches to project themselves in the blessed ministry of healing.

It is unusual for a hospital to show a balance at the end of the year, but we are happy to announce that both of our hospitals have ended the year without a deficit. Last year, the Miami hospital had a $4,000 deficit but this has been wiped out during this convention year. We are especially grateful to Brother John Robinson of Miami for the assistance he has given in clearing the hospital of debt and making possible needed improvements.

One of the fundamental reasons for Baptist hospitals is that it offers an opportunity to make the Great Physician real to those who are sick in heart as well as body. The church at Miami cooperates with the Baptist hospital there in visiting and witnessing for Christ. The nurses also have an opportunity to witness for Jesus.

In Muskogee, we have heard of example after example where patients have accepted Christ through the help of a fine nurse or through a visitor from one of the Muskogee Baptist churches. Certainly, this is a worthwhile ministry.

We, also, have a training school for nurses at the Muskogee Hospital. Miss Gracia Tarman is doing a splendid work as the superintendent of the Muskogee Hospital. Miss Florence Worley is doing a fine work as superintendent of the Miami Hospital.

We heartily recommend these two hospitals to Oklahoma Baptists. We ask your prayers for the doctors and nurses who minister to those in these Baptist Hospitals—that they might through their ministry—lead those who are lost to a saving knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Respectfully submitted—
W. O. Leach, Chairman

71. Dr. Chesterfield Turner presented the Report on Our Baptist Orphans' Home and motion carried for its adoption.

THE ORPHANAGE TASK

No one has ever made an adequate survey of this all important social and humanitarian challenge. We wonder why. In the presentation of this report we shall mention just a few of the more important reasons which we trust will challenge us to greater effort in meeting the demands of this task.

First. - The care of orphan children is an inescapable obligation. When civilization emerged from the distant past sufficient to be seen we note great interest in caring for helpless and dependent parentless children. Before the thought of special buildings and colonization ever entered the consciousness of man, godly fathers and mothers opened their homes to children left orphans. In the providence of God our country went through what we speak of as Civil War. After this the big plantations of our Southland were broken up. This did a great deal to break up the old neighborly method of taking homeless children into other homes. Some new way must be found. Then the idea of institutions supported and maintained by the whole brotherhood was conceived. This idea has grown among us until now we can say that no task among Southern Baptists lies closer to the heart of the average member than the adequate care of orphan children. All of us can hear in the words of the past: "A child is crying beyond our door,

In the cold and the wind and the wild down-pour,
A child is calling outside our gate
Starving and stark and desolate."

"How may we sit content and warm
When a child is lost in the night and storm?
How may we break our bread in ease
Hearing the cry of the 'least of these'?"

Second. - The care of orphan children is a fast developing task. Once under way the idea of adequate provision for the care of these little ones gripped the very soul of our people and immediately marvelous development followed. By the year 1900 Southern Baptists had eleven institutions scattered throughout our territory to care for parentless children. Today we have eighteen such institutions with a property valuation of $6,429,877.48, caring for 4,147 children, with a capacity for only 3,903. How overcrowded! In 1937 we turned away from our doors 741 children, because we had no room for them. How tragic! How long shall we continue to fail to heed the Master's call when He said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." We rejoice at all that has been done, but hang our heads in shame when we see our failure to make adequate provision for all of them. How long shall we permit the dangerous overcrowding of these institutions, and the heart-breaking turning away each year of as many as we are caring for? We must double our capacity or continue to turn this army of children away, or leave them to their fate, or else seem them go to the Roman Catholics for shelter and their teaching.

Third. - The orphanage task is an enlarged and complicated task. It grows faster than our capacity to take care of it grows. We not only face the challenge to enlarge what we already have but also the challenge of building new and better quarters for these "little ones."

Today there are three well-defined systems of caring for the orphan child. We have the boarding house system, the placing out system, and the cottage system. Thus far we have considered four classes of children: defectives, motherless, but father able to pay if he could find a place for the child, divorce or desertion, and that ever increasing number of little babies cast upon the world, born out of wedlock, and doomed to degradation unless the love of Christ constrains us to care for them. Shall we turn a deaf ear to any of these? A thousand times, no! It is challenging but God's redeemed children can and will accept the challenge.

Fourth. - The orphanage task is distinctly a Baptist task. Our members make it so. We cannot escape the obligation by either leaving these little ones to their fate or to complacently turn them over to Roman Catholics. There are one million more white Baptists in the South than Roman Catholics. If we count all varieties of Baptists, white and colored, we have three Baptists to one Roman Catholic counting all the Catholic population. We have no right to escape this obligation. It is ours. The world expects us to do it. The Lord expects us to do it. If God ever put His favor on any task of Southern Baptists it is the orphanage task.

Yes, and our emphasis upon the individual makes this our task. We cannot say: "Master send them away." Listen to the voice of the Master when He says, "Give ye them to eat." They keep on coming to our doors. Shall we continue to turn them away at the rate of 2,000 or more each year? They will come knocking at our doors again. Are we going to slam the doors in their faces, and then face God upon that record?

We rejoice at the part Oklahoma Baptists have had in doing what we have done. We thank God for every child we have taken. We are proud of the competent, consecrated leadership in the internal affairs of our Home. They, under cramped and inadequate quarters, are doing a marvelous piece of work. We thank God for all of them and what they are doing. With all that we are doing we can no longer content ourselves when we know that we must supply an adequate physical plant to care for this inescapable, developing, enlarging, challenging, Baptist task.

In the judgment of your committee the time has come for Oklahoma Baptists to set their faces toward an adequate care of the children who knocked at our doors. We, therefore, recommend that steps be taken toward this end. It is our judgment that the cottage system be adopted and pursued to a successful and adequate conclusion.

Respectfully submitted

Chesterfield Turner, Chairman.

REPORT OF OKLAHOMA BAPTIST UNIVERSITY

Seven years ago it was my privilege to speak to the report of Oklahoma Baptist University in Tulsa at the Baptist General Convention. At that time I was pastor of the First Baptist Church at Bartlesville with no idea of ever having any relationship other than that of an interested pastor in Oklahoma Baptist University. The ways of life are strange, however, and it is with a deep sense of gratitude that I am honored in presenting today my seventh annual report to the Board of Trustees and the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma.

I. THE FACULTY

Full-time additions to the faculty of Oklahoma Baptist University this year were:

Mr. Norman E. Green, B.M., Syracuse University, as associate professor in voice to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Mrs. George Roesch.

Miss Josephine Sheldon, B.S. in Educ., O.B.U., B. Lib. Sci., O.U., acting librarian in the absence of Mr. Lee B. Spencer who is doing graduate work at the University of Oklahoma.

Mr. James Ralph Scales, A.B., O.B.U., as publicity director, debate coach and instructor in English.

Miss Ruth Turner, M.A., Okla. A. & M. College, as instructor in secretarial science, substituting for Miss Carol Marie Steward, who is on leave of absence.

II THE STUDENTS

Our enrollment for the school year 1939-40 was 758, the largest enrollment we have had since 1929. Including the summer school the enrollment for the year was 970, an increase of 68 over that of the preceding year.

A comparative study of enrollment for the past few years indicates a substantial increase, as shown by the following:

1935-36	-----	767
1936-37	-----	769
1937-38	-----	797
1938-39	-----	908
1939-40	-----	970

Our enrollment at the present time is 628 as compared with 683 for the first semester of last year. This decrease is attributable to concern over the military situation and other unsettled factors in national economy. The trend towards increased enrollment which has been noticeable in all universities over the country for the past few years has been reversed this fall. Fifteen states and sixty-one counties in Oklahoma are represented in our present student body.

Through co-operation with the Civil Aeronautics Authority we have been able to include in our program a course in aviation, with 30 students enrolled last year, 30 students during the summer term, and 30 students at the present time.

The notable scholastic improvement of last year, which is indicated by the fact that with an increased enrollment of 77 students the first semester we had a decrease of 92 students making unsatisfactory grades, may be partially attributed to the increase in class and chapel attendance.

The increased space for the library with additional equipment has added much to the scholastic improvement of the University. This is also true with regard to the provision of five additional classrooms made possible by removal of the printing press from the basement of the Administration Building. It is worthy of notice that our classrooms are used for at least one-third more classes than the classrooms in the University of Oklahoma. Mr. Short, who has charge of scheduling of classes, says that the addition of these rooms has been worth $25,000 in teaching facilities this year.

The effectiveness of the personnel department is apparent in the improved attitude of the student body and the rarity of discipline cases. As yet we have had no serious disciplinary problems this year. Our guidance program with improved teaching facilities is doubtless responsible in a large measure for this situation. I think that I can state truthfully that this represents the best year we have had since I have been in O.B.U.

III. PUBLIC RELATIONS PROGRAM

The regular features of our Public Relations program for the past year has been various representatives at denominational meetings, such as faculty and administrative speakers, the quartets, glee club, and student speakers. An outstanding phase of our program has been a new emphasis upon contact with the high schools, especially the senior classes, utilizing a program of visual education and vocational guidance under the direction of Mr. John Hall Jones. Our contact with alumni and former students has been continued through the regular publications, reunion at Homecoming, and was made particularly vital last summer by a series of twenty sectional meetings in the state called "Bison Round-ups." The University has been kept before the general public by a steady stream of releases through the press, radio, and motion pictures. Important public functions on the campus have drawn hundreds of people to O.B.U. Personal letters by the thousands and vast amounts of literature have been sent out from our offices to patrons, prospective students, employers of our graduates, pastors, school men, and denominational leaders.

The increasing demand for faculty talent as pulpit supply, commencement speakers, and program personalities at all sorts of gatherings has increased during the past year, but our faculty happily responds to this additional call for service, and the University is proud of the impression they make. Our students are making creditable impressions wherever they represent us. Our athletic teams, debate squads, special service groups, singers, and preachers are extending the influence and prestige of O.B.U. during their student days, and our alumni continue to enhance this reputation by their success after graduation. The president and personnel secretary have averaged more than one outside engagement per day in addition to inside duties.

Aside from the regular representations at denominational gatherings and church services, the University was represented last spring by Mr. Jones, who made the tour of W.M.U. district meetings with Mrs. Spooner and her party. On the state tour a different high school assembly was addressed by Mr. Jones every morning. He spoke to the W.M.U. meeting in the afternoon and to the young people's rally at night. The churches all over the state were cooperative in the promotion of the banquets for seniors of the various high schools, where Mr. Jones and the quartet presented the claims of O.B.U. upon the choicest of Baptist youth by the use of music, movies of campus life, and inspirational addresses.

The radio has been utilized for the development of student talent and for the extension of Christian culture and entertainment to the people of this section of the country through the facilities of KGFF and KADA. One special broadcast of the glee club and the president was carried by WKY. Under the leadership of Director Ralph Matthews, we have developed a radio studio and have organized students and faculty in the production of over fifty programs per month. Aside from the usual home audiences, there are many schools which tune in to our educational broadcasts. The press of Oklahoma has been very cordial in the reception of news articles and features sent out by our news bureau under the supervision of our publicity director, James Ralph Scales.

School groups and great youth organizations are being interested in O.B.U. through such meetings as the speech and debate tournament, Future Homemakers of Oklahoma convention, and special guest days at the football games this fall. The annual band festival, visitors' day, and Bison Relays are popular meetings each spring. A new feature which has met with enthusiastic response is our New Citizens' Week," which is being sponsored this week by the freshmen class. They are to invite their parents and high school chums as their special guests to join in climaxing the observation November 15, when special activities including a football game will be enjoyed.

One of the most amazingly successful items in our Public Relations program has been the use of a vocation guidance sound movie which has been presented to nearly fifty high schools this fall. The University purchased this picture from the National Vocational Guidance Films, Incorporated. It has been combined with a colored movie of campus life at O.B.U. and constitutes a forty minute feature of excellent educational and entertainment value. Wherever Mr. John Hall Jones, our personnel secretary, has shown it, there has been an enthusiastic response on the part of students, teachers, and the administrative officials. Following the picture, Mr. Jones holds a conference with the senior class, in which vocations and future education are discussed. Where time permits, private interviews are held with those who are particularly interested in attending O.B.U.

During the year we had 140 ministerial students enrolled. A report on the work of the ministerial students shows that during the year these students delivered a total of 4,374 sermons, had 1,011 conversions, and traveled 239,121 miles.

The ten day summer school for preachers, held at the close of the regular session, was the best attended, the best in fellowship and spirit of all that we have had heretofore. Forty-two were enrolled in this special course.

The Y.W.A. has been reorganized under the direction of Mrs. John Hall Jones and is looking forward to the best year in its history.

A report from our B.S.U. indicates that we had 86% of our Baptist students enlisted in local Baptist churches; 14 commuters went to their home churches; 44 student pastors had membership in their own churches; and 51 students were in other denominations. During the year the three noonday prayer meetings had an average total daily attendance exceeding 100.

IV. FINANCIAL REPORT

The financial report of Oklahoma Baptist University is as follows:

CONDENSED BALANCE SHEET

June 30, 1940

Assets
Cash	$ 14,104.13
Receivables Net, Less Reserve	18,169.01
Inventories of supplies	9,777.92
Prepaid Expenses	3,259.49
Investments	24,419.20
Plant	703,449.72
Total Assets	$773,179.47
Liabilities and Capital
Accounts Payable	$ 11,981.52
Deposit Accounts	2,949.97
Released mortgage bonds—
Sinking Fund provided	500.00
Notes Payable:
Assumed by Convention	21,000.00
Covered by Sinking Fund	400.00
Generator Plant—
Self-liquidating	9,660.00
Current Funds	1,500.00
Unearned Income	11,120.51
Capital—Net Worth	714,067.47
Total Liabilities and Capital	$773,179.47

A statement of operation from June 1, 1934 to November 1, 1940—the period of the present administration—would doubtless be of interest to our constituency.

This period can be rightly called a period of stabilization and expansion. The stabilization can be seen in the reduction of indebtedness, the guarantee of a definite appropriation for operating expenses by the Convention, and the noticeable improvement of both the physical plant and the academic structure.

The total indebtedness on university property in 1934 included the following:

Bonds and Notes Payable	$112,226.13
Accounts Payable	31,220.55
W.M.U. Hall Indebtedness	45,000.00
Total	188,446.68

Of this original amount the Convention and the W.M.U. assumed $179,358.55, and at the present time have reduced the figure to approximately $19,000. In 1937, the University assumed $9,088.13 to be absorbed out of its operating expenses over a period of years. This figure has now been reduced to $6,532.39 and will be liquidated during the next 12 months. Thus, on the debt question we can safely say that Oklahoma Baptist University has been definitely stabilized. Moreover, in 1936 the Convention approved a request of the University Board of Trustees to make an annual appropriation to care for the deficit in operating expenses. The amount of this appropriation was arrived at by financial study of the operation of the University for a ten-year cycle—1926-1936—and it was noted that the average deficit was $32,000 per year. Due to the enlarged plant and the enlarged student body's demanding additional equipment and teaching staff the request was made for $34,000, and with the request for the money an additional request that instructions be given the administration and Board of Trustees to operate the University without deficit. It might be well to call attention to the fact that the appropriation requested is not as large as the requirement the North Central Association demands and that the University is adhering to the principle that we shall get along with what the Convention feels it can afford to provide us.

With regard to improvement of the plant, I submit the following:

Improvements provided by special gifts and management to the University plant have amounted to $99,917.27. It is only fair to emphasize the fact that these gifts came from other than Convention sources and represent the interest of special friends of the University. They are, therefore, an additional earning by the administration, improving the efficiency of the University, and special contribution to the Convention for which the Convention has not been called upon to make provision.

In this connection it is well to call attention also to the items now in process of becoming University property, namely the Faculty Building Association property amounting to $33,167.25, and the gymnasium valued at $50,000 which will bring the grand total of improvements provided for the University without cost to the Convention, to $183,084.52. Included in these improvements are three self-liquidating projects—the generating plant which will be amortized over a period of 46 1-4 months, the printing plant and the venetian blind plant which will be amortized over a period of three years, and the Faculty Building Association property which has already accrued $4,983.66, balance to be amortized in nine years. The gymnasium represents an outright gift from the city of Shawnee without any cost to the Convention. The only requirement is that the University construct the building out of the funds made available by the Shawnee Chamber of Commerce. This figure then, $183,084.52, constitutes the provision by the administration in securing gifts and in special management of more than $30,000 a year, from other than Convention sources. While we cannot promise to continue such an ambitious program permanently, the administration is pledged to a continuous improvement of plant and equipment and will lose no opportunity to secure special gifts that the Convention not be burdened with anything except the absolutely essential building units and the annual operating expense.

The campus improvements since 1934 may be summarized as follows:

The frame pergola rebuilt of stone, Memorial of Class of 1922

A whiteway, Memorial of Class of 1934.

Total debt at October 10, 1940, to be provided for $23,593.81

It is proposed that this shall be amortized or liquidated as follows—

Electrical Generator Plant $9,250.00

1,263.34 17,061.42

On the basis of last year's operating expenses this can be paid out of profits of the next three years.

To be provided out of current general funds
or from other sources

$6,532.39

In connection with this statement Mr. O. R. Davis, auditor, says:

"You will note that this statement sets out a total debt at October 10, 1940, of $23,593.81. Of this amount $9,250.00 arose from the construction of the Electrical Generator Plant and $6,548.08 arose from the erection of the Printing Plant Building after the application of the proceeds received from Apple Estate. These two items might be termed self-liquidating. We are informed that the Electrical Generator Plant is operating at a profit of approximately $200.00 per month, determined through the procedure of charging the various department or units of the University with electrical current consumed, at the rates charged by a public utility, and by offsetting against these total charges the cost of operating the plant. If this rate is maintained it will be possible to repay the $9,250.00 cost of erecting this plant over a period of 46½ months. Thus the University would be able to pay for its Electrical Generator Plant over a period of approximately four years with money that would otherwise have gone to public utilities.

"For the past several years the printing plant has been charged with $200.00 per month for rent and overhead. At that same rate the $6,548.08 applicable to Printing Plant building cost will be amortized over approximately 32½ months. The chief advantage arising from the construction of the Printing Plant Building is that a sizeable area in the Administration Building has been released for classroom or instruction use.

"The liquidation of the cost of the Venetian Blind Plant will be dependent upon the profitable operation of the plant. I believe that this plant showed a profit of approximately $400.00 during the last year's operation which if the same ratio is maintained, would provide sufficient profit during the next three years to offset the building costs.

"After deducting these three items, the Electrical Generator Plant, the Printing Plant Building and the Venetian Blind Plant, from the total debt at October 10, 1940, there remains $6,532.39 to be paid out of current general funds or from other sources. This is approximately one-half of the sum that was applied toward the cost of new buildings and improvements and debt reduction during the twelve months ended June 30, 1940."

V. PLANS FOR THE FUTURE

Although much has been accomplished in the past six years, much remains yet to be done before Oklahoma Baptist University can be definitely considered as arriving in the field of higher education as an equivalent institution.

1. Completion of needed plant. Plant equipment essential to effective teaching and training is as follows:

- a. A gymnasium, provided for, to be constructed and ready for use in the fall of 1941.
- b. A men's dormitory, to be constructed and ready for use by the fall of 1942.
- c. Library and teachers' office building, to be remodeled from the present men's dormitory and gymnasium, ready for use by the fall of 1943.
- d. Memorial chapel and fine arts building, a special project which should not be charged to Convention sources of income, but which, we believe, can be provided by a quiet appeal to individuals.

While this does not become a "must" unit in the plant development it is certainly a needed unit and its provision will complete the requirements for effective teaching and training. In connection with the provision of the chapel and fine arts building, the present fine arts building can be converted into a student union center, and Oklahoma Baptist University can then boast of all plant needs being completely satisfied.

Such a plant would accommodate from 1200 to 1500 students, as many as O.B.U. will probably ever have. It is my hope and ambition that this plant can be realized within the next five years. Such a program constitutes the preview of Oklahoma Baptist University's teaching and training plant.

already provided for and that provision automatically carries with it the provision for the library, and that the provision of a chapel and fine arts building will carry with it the provision of a student union building, and the remodeling of the present administration building into a science building devoted completely to classroom teaching. Such a plant as envisioned means a total of 14 buildings tailored to suit the needs. Such a program is not impossible but entirely within our reach. We are dedicating ourselves to its achievement.

2. Proposed Academic Improvement.

Every division and department will continue to be strengthened by urging and aiding faculty members to complete requirements for graduate degrees, by bringing to the staff as needed persons holding graduate degrees, and by developing each department according to the standards as set forth by the North Central Association with the view to applying for accredited rating by 1944.

3. Religious Expression.

We now have 44 student preachers holding pastorates in Oklahoma. We are interpreting our task as that of training leaders for the local churches and shall constantly improve our approach to the churches in order to be more helpful and recruit our student body from the churches.

As a concluding statement may I say, that after seven years I am more convinced with each passing day of the absolute necessity of institutions such as Oklahoma Baptist University. Christian education as we interpret it is the only hope of modern society. I am proud of the record made thus far by the Baptists of Oklahoma in this regard and pledge to them a continued program of education in which the student may receive opportunity for capacity growth and the Nation and Kingdom of God receive a worthy citizen.

Respectfully submitted,
John Wesley Raley,
President.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON

NOVEMBER 14, 1940, 1:30 P.M.

77. The afternoon session opened with a motion picture presentation of the objects included in the Unified Budget and the work being done through the Unified Budget.

78. Brother Jerry Cox sang a solo: "Lift Him Up."

79. Dr. E. C. Routh, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, recommended that the following resolutions be passed. Motion carried.

79a. Whereas, lewd and lascivious literature is displayed on news stands throughout our state; and,

Whereas, such literature undoubtedly contributes to evil thinking and evil living, and affects the social and spiritual welfare of all communities; and,

Whereas, the laws of our state probably are not clear enough and strong enough to forbid the distribution of obscene books and magazines and pictures; therefore,

Be it resolved, that Oklahoma Baptists in Convention, respectfully petition the Governor and Legislature of Oklahoma to provide for the enactment of such legislation as will effectively prohibit the printing and distribution of obscene literature and pictures;

Be it further resolved, that we call upon officers of the law to enforce such laws as are now in force, as will prohibit the distribution of evil literature and pictures.

Third, we would also express to the various committees our thanks for the splendid manner in which they have functioned.

Fourth, for all who have contributed by their presence, prayers, and addresses to the success of this annual meeting, we record our thanks.

1. We are in sympathetic accord with every provision that can be made for assisting every worthy Baptist preacher in preparing himself for the work to which God has called him.

2. We recommend that this whole question be referred by the Convention to the Board of Trustees of Oklahoma Baptist University, which board is conversant with all the financial problems of the University.

THE RESOLUTION

Whereas; The best guarantee that Baptists have of the continued successful proclamation of the gospel story lies in the calling and training of young men to the gospel ministry, and

Whereas; We recognize the Lord as the agent doing the calling, we none-the-less recognize it to be our duty to pray for the calling of our young men and our lasting obligation to encourage and assist in their training for future service and,

Whereas; Many of our young men are answering the call to the ministry and are struggling in their efforts to equip themselves for the work to which they have been called and,

Whereas; Many who have been called are poor in this world's goods and are confronted with hardships because of limited funds with which to prosecute an effective educational program and,

Whereas; The only training school we have in this state for candidates for the gospel ministry is our University at Shawnee to which these young men must go, in that all other adequate means of training are closed to them, Therefore, be it resolved:

First. That we earnestly pray for the Lord to call many more of our young men into His work, and that we encourage and co-operate in every reasonable way with them in making their preparation for the work to which they have been called.

Second. That we urge our sister churches when desirable to make full use of these brethren as pastors and special workers, and

Be it further resolved that the Oklahoma Baptist General Convention in its annual meeting assembled, do hereby instruct and order the Board of Trustees and the Administration of Oklahoma Baptist University to admit all Baptist ministerial students without requiring them to pay literary tuition.

Be it further resolved:

First. That this action shall become effective not later than the opening date of school in September, 1941.

Second. That the administration shall take necessary steps and exercise due safeguards to keep the institution from being imposed upon by students who might be led to seek an education as a ministerial student, and never applying themselves to that calling.

MESSAGE OF W.M.U. PRESIDENT

Mrs. H. B. Wilhoyte

Yesterday, November 11th, we observed Armistice Day. Many of us recall the unspeakable joy that welled up in our hearts on that memorable day. All other difficulties melted away in the thought that peace at last had come. That we had found the way to a warless world.

Deluded creatures we were for the way to that peace was not His way but ours. It was based on our own selfish principles of greed and revenge, and not on the principles which He said must rule His Kingdom on this earth.

So today, instead of a world at peace, of which we so fondly dreamed that day, we find ourselves in a world where greed, hate, horror more devastating than before glare at us from the pages of our daily papers or invade the privacy of our homes and speak to us over air waves their message of hate, an unseen, unwanted guest.

As God looks down upon His world today He sees men whom He created, destroying His world, destroying His beauty that He created for their enjoyment by instruments of their own designing. A great scientist has said that the tragedy of this mechanical age is that our character has not kept pace with our intelligence. The race is committing suicide by better methods of killing.

Man's intelligence could make serums yet he makes poison gas instead. Our airships carry bombs to destroy life, they could carry Bibles to give life; they could carry food to starving humanity but they carry incendiary flame instead. Nations have not found the way to peace, freedom, security, they are still asking, "Where find these things?"

William Frederick Bigelow said, "Stripped to its elementals, life has only one basic principle—hunger, only one need to be supplied—hunger. In his soul, man hungers after God; in his mind man hungers for freedom; in his body, for food and shelter,—in all, for peace."

Yet these elemental needs are denied many. On a whole continent, the simple question of daily bread becomes more pressing every day. Clothing and shelter are not to be found. To many the will of God in their lives has become a mystery. Stunned, bewildered Christians are asking, Is it God's will that I should die on the roadside by the hand of a machine gunner? Is it God's will that I should waste away in a Siberian concentration camp?

Who or what is powerful enough to take hold of this catastrophe and turn it into victory? Who can show us the way? Down through the ages God had guided His people in preparing a way. Centuries had re-echoed with the cry, "Prepare ye the way of the Lord" "Make straight in the desert a highway for our God." From the lips of Christ Himself came the answer: "I am the way." There is no other.

Today, beautiful highways built at tremendous cost traverse our country. All who wish, whether rich or poor, learned or unlearned, young or old, may travel them without cost—they are free. This highway of the soul is, too, a beautiful way. It is a King's highway built at tremendous cost.

You will know this highway, for it is marked by a cross, the price of its building. It, too, is free. One may walk this highway. It is a happy way for "the redeemed walk there."

This King's highway is to be shared, yet too often selfishness occupies the center of the road and crowds others off who would walk thereon. If you seek a thing for yourself alone, you never reach the fulness of it. Evidence of this unwillingness to share may be found in a survey of our young people's organizations for the past year. But no such indifference is manifest by those who deny our God.

To every man there openeth,
A way, and Ways and a Way,
And the High Soul climbs the High Way,
And the Low Soul gropes the Low,
And in between on the misty flats,
The rest drift to and fro.
But to every man there openeth
A High Way and a Low,
And every man decideth
The Way his soul shall go.

—John Oxenham

Guide posts along the way repeatedly remind us, "This is the way, walk ye in it." Yet they are often ignored.

Essential to progress on this highway is a knowledge of God's word. Our way becomes obscure if we fail to observe this signpost. In many countries this sign has been removed. In Spain, government police gathered from Bible depots, 120,000 copies of the Bible furnished to British Bible Society and destroyed them.

Prayer is another sign post to be observed. Soon comes the observance of the season of prayer and gifts for Foreign Missions. Surely it shall be observed in no ordinary, routine manner. The agony of the world needs more than perfunctory prayer. It needs hourly prayer in order that "His way may be known upon earth, His salvation among all nations."

The psalmist said, "Blessed is the man in whose heart is the highway to Zion—They go from strength to strength." This observance should strengthen us, our prayers should engender such confidence that it becomes contagious, that we do have the assurance that the kingdoms of this world shall become the Kingdom of our Lord and Christ. Dr. Robert E. Speer said, "The world has lost its way and it will never find it until it hunts for it on its knees before God."

Through our generous gifts to this Christmas offering, may we make it possible for His way to be known to countless millions who are groping after Him. Often in traveling the highways, we come upon this sign "closed for repairs." This way that we would make known among all nations has no such sign, it needs no repair for it is an everlasting way. It is paved with justice, righteousness, wisdom, power and the love of God. On this way there is room for all who follow the cross of Christ, yet millions have never heard of the way of salvation.

A missionary statesman said recently, "When I was regenerated, when I came to know the love of God, my one desire was to put my arms around the world and share it with them,—that desire is still elemental."

May we as members of Woman's Missionary Union have that elemental desire to put our arms, our prayers, our gifts around this war-born world that has lost the way and share this salvation with them.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY-TREASURER

Berta K. Spooner

THE WAY IN WHICH THE LORD LED

With the passing of another year, a twelve months fraught with so many sudden changes in the life of the peoples of the world, there is gratitude to the Heavenly Father for His innumerable blessings to us. We are grateful for the cooperation of the faithful officers of our State, Districts and Associations, and appreciate every effort for advancement that has been made by the members of Woman's Missionary Union. And yet there is regret that we fail so often to do our best; that we were indifferent to opportunities that presented themselves each day; that we lacked vision to see the whole world and its needs; that we were selfish with our time, talents, money and service and so failed to reach the maximum in achievements.

We have in Oklahoma 925 cooperating missionary Baptist churches, and only 641 missionary societies. Hence there are 284 Baptist churches with no missionary organizations.

We have tried to walk according to the leadership of the Lord and are gratified to see the blessing of growth which He has granted to us. There are 22 new Woman's Missionary Societies organized by faithful women. Handicapped by not having a State W.M.U. Young People's Leader, the district, associational and local leaders have been mindful of the necessity of organization for our young people which will major on missions. They have brought about 15 new Young Woman's Auxiliaries, 29 Girls Auxiliaries, 21 Sunbeam Bands and 10 new Royal Ambassador Chapters, bringing our total W.M.U. organizations to 2,017. The mere fact of organization and existence is by no means as valuable as the assurance of activity reaching at least the minimum of service outlined in our Standard of Excellence. We are glad for 51 A-1 W.M.S., 32 A-1 Y.W.A.'s, 36 A-1 Girls Auxiliaries, 21 A-1 Royal Ambassador Chapters and 34 Sunbeam Bands. Total 174. Did you know that we have 205 societies with no missionary organizations for young people, and that we have 101 Full W.M.U. Families with only three being A-1 Standard—Fair; Kelham Avenue, Oklahoma City; and Talihina.

As our young people's leadership stabilizes under the capable direction of Miss Susan Adams who took up her work energetically at the Falls Creek Assembly, more organizations will be A-1, and there will be more organizations in existence to become A-1. We are profoundly grateful for Miss Adams' coming, knowing that this is the way in which the Lord led, also.

Many helped with the field work over the state, one person being unable to do it all. Mrs. Aulick, Mrs. Seale, Mrs. Sheldon and Mrs. Wilhoyte have graciously answered many calls to service. And we are not unmindful of the fine work done by the Associational and District Presidents in their respective fields. How grateful we are for the beautiful cooperation in all of our work! Miss Jack Keys, from the W.M.U. Training School, Louisville, Ky. spent almost the entire summer vacation in camps and houseparties and conclaves, directing the State Houseparty for Intermediate G.A.'s and the State Intermediate R.A. Conclave held at Oklahoma Baptist University. These were successful in spirit with 170 attending. Twelve of our fine girls were crowned Queen in the impressive Coronation Service held at the State Houseparty. We are grateful to Mrs. Wells, our office secretary, for without her help in the office, the difficulties of the year would have seemed insurmountable.

Ann Hasseltine Y.W.A. activities in the college at Stillwater and Chickasha had the inspiration and encouragement of a visit from Miss Juliette Mather, the gifted leader of the Young People of Southern W.M.U. We believe Miss Adams with her fine spirit will accelerate the Y.W.A. interest in the colleges and hospitals in the future.

Along the Christian way, the hand stretched out in immediate nearby service is necessary as well as the gift of money which goes far away, so our women and young people have been busy in deeds of Personal Service.

The mission study records as given by your state leader, Mrs. A. L. Aulick, show that we are learning the actual conditions on the mission fields. At Falls Creek this summer there were eight classes in the W.M.U. Department with eight hundred enrolled in classes and 402 awards presented to those who took written tests. During the past year a total of 24,234 awards were given for mission study work.

The prayers during the three seasons of prayer were not merely lip prayers because gifts of $23,636.55 are proof of their earnestness. Women and young people are learning that "to pray and not to pay is mockery" and as missionary knowledge deepens desire for the winning of the lost, our gifts enlarge to help speed the message of salvation.

Through the Hundred Thousand Club, $4,350.00 has been given. But in the coming months and years, it is our great hope that we can double, yes, treble, our memberships. The Southwide goal of a million dollars toward lifting the debt, helping to achieve the Debtless Denomination by 1945, will mean far more gifts to this cause from Oklahoma Woman's Missionary Union. The gifts this year indicate 362½ Memberships. We should have nine hundred.

Surely there has never been a time in the history of the world when we needed more to study God's Word, to learn His will, than at the present time. God's plan for world redemption has never changed. His plan for stewardship has never changed. When the Israelites asked God how they might return to Him, He reminded them that they had robbed Him in tithes and offerings. Beloved, He has the same answer for us today. We have failed just as conspicuously in the matter of stewardship of possessions as God's children did in the days of Malachi. The trend of the times demand a greater emphasis on the study of the doctrine of stewardship. Developing the stewardships of possessions plans for the education of our young people will rear up a generation of tithers, whose honest tithes and offerings will greatly help to further the Kingdom of God.

We ever rejoice to have even a small part in helping to promote the work in Ogbomoshu, Africa, through White Cross. This year, we sent another $300.00 on the station wagon to be used by the Seminary students in getting out to their preaching places and $1,000.00 to Dr. Green for new equipment for the hospital. 365 societies have sent supplies to the hospitals here at home—Muskogee and Miami—valued at $2,221.25.

The scholarship fund is providing special Christian training for five splendid young women—three in Louisville and two in Southwestern, also a Foreign Student, Mr. Theodore Boushey, who finishes his work at O.B.U. this semester and goes to the Seminary for further training.

With a small investment of State Missions funds, we have been able to help our Indian sisters to understand better the great missionary program that is ours as Christians.

Mrs. T. W. Stevens, of Muskogee, with Mrs. Leader of Sapulpa, has visited every society in the Muskogee-Seminole-Wichita Association talking methods, teaching stewardship, and helping in a general way. Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Gambrell for some months had all of the auxiliaries—Y.W.A., G.A., R.A., and Sunbeam Band going fine in the Indian school at Pawnee, and on Sunday helping in the church and visiting in the hospital.

We have also helped in a material way the negro women of our state and faith. Many are the thrills that have come to our hearts when we have had reports of successful Schools of Missions, Vacation Bible Schools, classes in methods and stewardship. We also have two splendid negro girls training for larger work in Nashville, Tenn. What an opportunity we have right here in our own state to serve.

I am persuaded that the Baptist women of Oklahoma love the cause of our Orphans Home. They have proven it through all the years that have past and are proving it today in their generous gifts. They love it because it serves children. They love it because it serves destitute orphan children, and because it provides a home, moral and religious instruction, education, evangelism and practical training for such children. You have given this year as an expression of your love $15,934.85 in clothes, school books, linens, quilts, chickens, eggs, fruits and vegetabels, jellies and jams. And so you have helped to make them a very happy family.

From all reports the usual meetings of the year have been held, every Association having their quarterly rallies, some taking the form of Schools of Instruction which have been most helpful to new officers. The fourteen annual District Meetings held in early April were representative, as women from many societies of every Association came for the inspiration and fellowship that come to our hearts in such gatherings. It was indeed a joy and privilege to have as guest speakers Miss Kathleen Mallory, Executive Secretary of W.M.U. of the South; Mrs. Clem D. Hardy, missionary to Brazil; and Mr. John Hall Jones of the Personnel Department of O.B.U., each contributed much to the program. We take at each of these meetings a love offering to send magazines to women missionaries going out from Oklahoma. This year, the offering was divided, half going to Mrs. Hardy to provide some of the necessities for enlarging His work on the mission field. The gift for magazines was $111.19. This year, we sent 27 magazines to fifteen missionaries and next year there are new names to be added: Miss Ruby Howse, Chile; Mrs. Louise Doyle Brantley, and Mrs. Jewel Conway Lunsford, Africa.

Our general interest in Christian Education has been manifest in the gifts which have come in along the "Silver Trails to Christian Education." These gifts were for the new building of the W.M.U. Training School at Louisville, Ky., and for the Boys' Dormitory at our own Oklahoma Baptist University. A total of $13,913.88 has been received and divided, the check for $6,530 going to Mrs. W. J. Cox, the Treasurer of Woman's Missionary Union in June before the Baltimore meeting, leaving $7,383.88 for the Boys' Dormitory, and we still have November and December in which to reach our goal. If every missionary society will pay its apportionment, the goal will be reached. If every member of a missionary society had given one foot of dimes, to be exact 17 dimes in the past ten months, we would have been over the goal today. I find that the following Associations are 100 per cent in enlisting societies to give to Silver Trails—that does not mean they have reached their goals, but it does mean that each society has given something—Atoka, Beckham and Mullens; Central and Frisco lack only one each. But Delaware-Osage is 100 per cent in enlisting every society to give to each cause—Silver Trails, White Cross, Scholarships, Margaret Fund and Nursery.

Meanwhile, our gifts through the regular channels of the Co-operative Program have been $48,498.45.

So together we have been seeking to follow Him as we prepared the way for His larger entrance into our own hearts and into the world. In the awfulness of world agony we know that His way will yet be made known to the nations and there shall come a day when the whole earth will know Him and every knee bow before Him in adoration and worship. To this cause we give our lives as best we know how, as devotedly and loyally as we can.

REPORT OF STATE W.M.U. YOUNG PEOPLE'S LEADERSusan Adams

"And thine ears shall hear a word behind thee saying, 'This is the way, walk ye in it' " Isa. 30:21.

What abundant joy has been mine since I heard God's voice calling me to serve in Oklahoma! I had experienced such quantities of happiness in the four years I worked in Florida, I did not believe my heart could hold more—and yet the eager, enthusiastic attitude of the leaders with whom it is my joy to labor in Oklahoma has caused my life to overflow with deepest gratitude for the privilege that has been mine in the brief three months I have been in Oklahoma.

Not being qualified to give a detailed and accurate report of the present condition of auxiliary work in the state, I must confine my remarks to the outstanding needs I have observed thus far. These are some essentials we are duty-bound to provide for our youth if we are to be true to our bold declaration of our own interest in the progress of the Kingdom of God to the ends of the earth.

How can we say we love the Kingdom unless we provide for the missionary education of those who are its potential promoters! How can we provide missionary information for mature women through missionary magazines and mission books, and neglect such provision for impressionable youth of our homes and churches! How can we fail to train embryo men and women in faithful missionary giving when we face the failure of Southern Baptists in the stewardship of possessions! How can we choose for our adult mission groups our best qualified leaders, our most consecrated women and leave our young people without leadership! Dare we come to offer ourselves to our Father for service without bringing our own young people with us!

Let us examine our reports to see if we have done our best for the missionary education of the young people. To provide a Sunbeam Band, a G.A., an R.A., and a Y.W.A. in every church that has a Woman's Missionary Society we would have 2,564 auxiliaries as compared to our present 1,376. In every missionary society surely there are four women who will accept the joyous responsibility of passing on to children the thrilling message of missions. 205 of the 641 societies of the state have neglected to provide for the missionary training of any of their young people. To build strong missionary societies without providing corresponding auxiliaries is like building a house without a foundation, wrote Miss Fannie E. S. Heck. Surely such a truth is obvious to us if we stop to think at all about it. Mrs. W. J. Cox comes to verify this fact by writing "The young people's organizations are a part of the Woman's Missionary Union, and not an appendage."

Our two chief aims of Woman's Missionary Union have always been the securing of missionary information and the bringing of mission gifts. Our two sources of missionary information are through our magazines and through the study of mission books. For our 1,376 auxiliaries, enrolling approximately 20,000 boys and girls, we have provided less than 2,000 missionary magazines. The 641 Woman's Missionary Societies enrolling approximately 18,000 women are reading about 4,000 copies of ROYAL

SERVICE. The fostering Societies need to concern themselves about the missionary reading of their young people. Of the 24,234 mission study awards only 3,815 are the result of missionary inquiry of young people. What an opportunity we are ignoring when we fail to plant in the plastic being of youthful souls the penetrating, life-changing messages of our mission books. Mrs. Cox quotes Matthew Arnold's lines:

"Rigorous teachers seized my youth
And purged its faith and trimmed its fire;
Showed me the high white star of truth,
There bade me gaze and there aspire."

Who among us will "seize the youth" of our state and set their feet in the paths of missionary thinking and its resultant missionary endeavor?

A woeful lack is found in our training of young people in stewardship. Little attempt is made in the missionary society to receive and report accurately the gifts of their auxiliaries to missions. Do we not see in our ardent lads, the business men, the money earners of tomorrow? Do we not see in our winsome lassies the young business women, the dispensers of the salaries of another generation? Are we content with the current stewardship habits of today's children—bringing their pennies for the missionary offerings and weekly or daily giving their nickels and dimes for sweets, for amusements, for selfish indulgence? Do we consider the gifts of children of no great importance? Sunbeam and Junior hearts are futile soil for the reception of the teachings of the Bible concerning giving. Gifts of children will rarely be large, but the proportion of their giving may be significant indeed. The meagerness of the total amount of money they bring should not blind us to the fact that we have said as the "mothers" in W.M.U. that we will be responsible for the attitudes and practices of Baptist youth toward missionary giving. Auxiliary members of the south gave last year more than 10 per cent of the two and one-half million dollars contributed by Woman's Missionary Union to missionary causes.

From the ranks of "those who know" we may expect to find "those who'll go." In the ranks of those who love, we may expect to find those who'll pray and those who'll give. It is at once the joyous privilege and the urgent responsibility of the women of the Woman's Missionary Societies to form from the yielding clay of youth those who know and those who love.

"He built a house, time laid it in the dust;
He wrote a book, its title now forgot;
He ruled a city, but his name is not on any graven tablet.
He took a child
And reared him in the Christian's hope and trust.
The boy, to manhood grown, became a light
To many souls and preached to human need
The wondrous love of the Omnipotent.
The work has multiplied like stars at night
When darkness deepens; to mold a child lasts longer than a granite monument."

REPORT OF MARGARET FUND CHAIRMAN

"Thou hast also given me the shield of Thy Salvation; and Thy right hand hath held me up." Psalm 18:35

Surely as Woman's Missionary Union, in her many phases of work, goes to the ends of the earth—that His way may be known. . . . His salvation among all nations, no work that the Union does can be more far-reaching than that of the Margaret Fund. Its service and support are offered to the sons and daughters of all regularly appointed Southern Baptist Convention missionaries.

From the time that the "multitude of the heavenly host" sang the song of peace—goodwill to men, it was the purpose of our Heavenly Father to reach the ear and heart of the lost world by apostle, prophet, preacher, teacher and missionaries with the message of His Gospel—the ultimate aim of which is peace.

The missionary movement is a youth movement. It originated in the heart of our Heavenly Father—the author of missions. Jesus, in his youth, gave the "Great Commission" to His disciples. At the foundation of all missionary work lies knowledge. The disciples had to know the "Great Commission" before they could obey it. They were not sent out until they had learned their Master's purpose and possessed His Spirit and power. The first missionary to the Gentiles was Paul, a young man with youth's courage, youth's enthusiasm, youth's faith and education for service.

The demand for skilled leadership of youth in Kingdom work is not less, but if anything greater today than in that far-off time. No more efficient and far-reaching missionary youth movement can be found in all the world than that fostered by Woman's Missionary Union through the Margaret Fund. In this work of love, Woman's Missionary Union has joined hands with God in the education of the children of our missionaries for the salvation of tomorrow's world. The education of these children is a means of making loyal, efficient disciples by helping them to prepare themselves both spiritually and intellectually for Kingdom service.

Many former students are trained, active missionaries on foreign fields. While others are pastors, teachers, doctors and leaders here in America rendering inestimable service to our denomination. The Margaret Fund is missions in action; ministering to missionaries, training new missionaries—recruits for service. Eternal are the values, the permanent ideals and realities that have gone into this living memorial through the lives that have been blessed for the glory of God through the Margaret Fund.

In the message of missions rests our surest self-defense. Upon His name shall the nations rest their hopes. Only upon His name rests our hopes for world peace.

"That Thy way may be known upon earth; Thy salvation among all nations" is a message urgent enough to demand our every resource.

More strongly is the Margaret Fund linked to missions now by the scholarships largely financed through the December and March Seasons of Prayer offerings. We rejoice that gifts have multiplied for both home and foreign missions in the Seasons of Prayer Offerings. It is gloriously true that in the work of the Margaret Fund, we can go into all the world with our gifts. We can broadcast our gifts, sending them out to touch many lives in many places to bring many blessings. Wherever our money goes, we ourselves go.

Our dollars become magic ships on which we sail the seas to reach unknown shores with the Gospel of Jesus.

"That Thy way may be known upon earth; Thy salvation among all nations"

Let us give in our Seasons of Prayer
And remember by our gifts, that we
May go to lands across the sea
And through our missionaries there,
In loving service have a share
As dying people learn to live—
Because we give.

The permanent Margaret Fund Watchword: "Guard that which is committed to thy trust" (I Timothy 6:20), was adopted at the annual meeting in Baltimore. We would guard the lives of Margaret Fund students committed to our trust in all ways—through prayer, asking the Lord to preserve their lives in service to Him.

The 1941 Watchword: "Wisdom is better than weapons of war" (Eccles. 9:19), expresses our aim in Margaret Fund especially and in all our work generally, that it is wiser to give Youth wisdom in Christian education—a foundation that no man can displace, rather than the training that so much of the youth receives today in the use of the "weapons of war."

May we covenant anew to pray for the safety of our missionaries, and that students now in training may be given wisdom in choosing courses for college life as well as wisdom in decisions for their lives, whether they remain in this country, or hear their Saviour's call to go "to the ends of the earth."

In this war-torn world today, Christian hearts everywhere echo and re-echo the message of peace. While our nation is equipping itself with materials for national defense and training youth for military service, Woman's Missionary Union is training and equipping the youth of our missionaries with the "whole armor of God" for spiritual defense—their "loins girt with truth, having on the breastplate of righteousness; their feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; with the shield of faith, the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God"—that through the Margaret Fund "Thy way may be known upon earth; Thy salvation among all nations."

"That Thy way may be known — O haste to tell the message

The world is dying for the Word of God.
Send out the light that Christ may see the fruitage,
The world redeemed—that His own feet have trod.

Respectfully submitted
Mrs. D. H. Bell

REPORT OF WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION TRAINING SCHOOL

We read in Isa. 11:9 "The earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea." This is the scriptural motto of the Alumnae Association of the Woman's Missionary Union Training School at Louisville, Ky., long since chosen by the early graduates who realized that their greatest aim in having studied in the school was that they could better make His way known.

The very purpose of the Training School is and always has been to train women for efficient service in Foreign and Home Missions and in all departments of denominational work. Here they gain an understanding of the needs of the mission fields and acquire the knowledge of how best to meet such needs—all to the end" that thy way may be known upon the earth, Thy salvation among all nations." They study that they may better obey the command to "go and make disciples of all nations."

Over 200 graduates have gone from the Training School to foreign fields and may I say that the very latest of these is one of our own state girls—a scholarship student who graduated in May, 1939—Miss Ruby Howse of Hugo. She was under appointment to go to Africa but conditions prohibited going there at present. A few weeks ago the call came asking: would she go to Chile? In her own words her answer was "Who am I to say where I shall work? The next time you hear from me I hope I shall be in South America learning to hold my mouth just right so that I can make those beautiful, musical sounds that those who live there call talking." She sailed from New Orleans ten days ago, on November 1st.

In addition to large numbers in foreign fields hundreds of other graduates are busy in the homeland as missionaries, executive secretaries, young people's secretaries, W.M.U. field workers and leaders in Good Will centers. They also fill responsible places in churches, Sunday Schools and Baptist Training Unions throughout the South.

The School opened this year on September 17th and Miss Littlejohn's report said "with every space taken, including the second floor apartment next door (in a house owned by the school)." There were then 103 boarding students and 60 day students, a total of 163.

We have three state girls there this year:

Miss Jack Keys, Oklahoma City

Miss Hazel Russ, Stillwater

Miss Helen Lloyd, Tulsa

Joy Chow of China is a senior this year as is Giavonna Arbanasich of Italy. The number also includes daughters of five present or former missionaries.

Because we have the great privilege and joy of having Miss Littlejohn, honored Principal of the Training School, with us, who will shortly speak to us I am not mentioning that grand new building where my heart has been these many months, except to tell you the picture is in the exhibit room. This is the picture which travelled around the State in the District Meetings.

There is much more to report such as the interesting sale of the Good Will Center to the Presbyterian Colored Mission—but time forbids.

But I ask you to pray, Oklahoma women, that our young women will continue in large numbers to seek here the way of understanding that His way may be known in all the earth and His salvation among all nations.

Mrs. J. C. Hering,
Trustee.

REPORT OF SOUTHWESTERN TRAINING SCHOOL, FORT WORTH, TEXAS

In a letter from Mrs. W. A. Johnson, Superintendent of the Southwestern Training School, Fort Worth: "Surely we would send greetings; not only from the Oklahoma students but also the four hundred twenty-one enrolled students, ninety-four of whom are from Oklahoma. Twelve of these are girls, twenty-four pastors' wives.

The students, this year, have served from the Panhandle to the Gulf of Mexico, from El Paso to Texarkana, from Brownsville to Denison. Out of state, they have been used in New Mexico, Oklahoma, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana and Missouri.

On the foreign field, three of our choicest are studying the language and twenty of these daughters belong to the Volunteer and ready to go when the Board feels that it is wise to appoint them. We are quite a large but happy family this year."

"The nursery is surely being used," the Superintendent says: "so many as forty babies at one time—some are not so happy, others very jubilant. Wish you could see them, and hear them, too."

REPORT OF MISSION STUDY CHAIRMAN

Woman's Missionary Union Watchword for 1941, "That Thy way may be known upon earth, Thy salvation among all nations" is a prayer that the Gentiles might come to God. The psalmist did not know to what extent the light would come, but his yearning was a precast of the Christian religion which desires all men to be saved.

God uses many methods to make His name known upon earth.

One method is persecution. The sentence "They stoned Stephen" is full of significance. He died for his belief that the gospel should be read beyond the Jewish race. A young man stood by and watched the stoning. In him, Stephen's dying prayer was answered. It has been said, "If Stephen had not so prayed, the world would not have had Paul." Through the persecution of Stephen, the man, Paul, was raised up who preached Christ to "the uttermost parts of the earth" known at that time.

"Stoned to his death by those for whom

His soul's last prayer was sped

Unto his god, 'Avert the doom

That gathers o'er their head;

And the stones that bruised him and struck him down,

Shone dazzling gems on the victor's crown,

And as his spirit fled,

A light from the land where the angels dwell,

Lingered saintly and grand where the martyrs fell."

(F. C. Ainsworth, POEMS AND SONNETS)

God uses money in the spread of His Gospel. "Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in certain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate" (I Tim. 6:17-18).

Prayer is the supreme power to carry on Kingdom work.

Just before Jesus ascended to the Father, He entrusted to disciples the task of making Christ-worshippers of all nations. It seemed a superhuman undertaking for the little band of laborers to win the mighty cultured Rome to Christianity. But Jesus knew best. He had equipped his disciples for their mission. He had given them prayer. He had taught them and commanded them to pray.

Again, in God's great economy he has given men books. Best of all, He has given men the Bible in which God's way for the world is taught. On one occasion, Helen Keller was speaking to a large crowd of people. Following her address, the audience was given the privilege of asking Miss Keller questions. One man said, "What is your favorite sport?— the answer came, "Horse-back riding." Another question, "Do you like to play golf?" "No," replied Miss Keller, "It is ze lazy man's game." "Do you like to read?" was asked. "Yes, all ze time." "What is your favorite book?" was the next question. Without a moment's hesitation the answer came, "Ze Bi-bule." What the Bible means to blinded Helen Keller, by circumstance of nature isolated from the world of men and things, it means to thousands of souls cut off from spiritual light until they see the revelation of God, the Light of the World, in its pages.

We are told that a mariner must look up to a "Pole Star" in the sky if he is to guide his ship in safety across the sea. The Bible is the spiritual "Pole Star" to which humanity must look if the eternal landing is made in safety.

There are other books that help to spread His story around the world. There are books on world missions. When a captain sails a boat on the water, he not only looks up at the "Pole Star"—he looks around. He must know which way the tide is running and the effect the wind and wave will have upon his ship. Books on world missions enable the student to look around at his state, his nation and the world.

A look around the world through the eyes of mission study is particularly necessary because of present world conditions. The world is seen largely through newspaper headlines. They tell of vice and crime abounding; of idle men who will not work and of men who would work but no one will give them a chance. The headlines feature youth degenerate, debauched and the government going to pieces. There is domestic and commercial scandal. Car wrecks and drunkenness run riot while nations war with nations. It must be admitted that there is much evil in the world. Some pessimism is warranted. We cannot and must not lull ourselves into thinking that all is well with the world. This would be foolish optimism. There is a danger, however, of dwelling so constantly on the evil that it grows larger and larger until finally the good is all but forgotten.

It is here that books on world missions meet an urgent need. They cheer the heart and refresh the soul. They are a tonic to faith. As the student of missions reads of the victories on mission fields, of the steadfast purpose and sacrificial life of missionaries and native Christians, a new realization that God is in his heaven and things, with our help, will be right with the world, is the result.

" 'Tis but a history in these days
The cruel and final test
Of those who went life's rugged ways
For faith they had confessed;
Yet the God who spoke to the saints of old
Looks not today in the mystic fold
Doers of his behest.

ANNUAL OF THE OKLAHOMA

There are servants of men and saints of God
Who will follow, as then, where the Master trod."

—P. G. Ainsworth

There are various ways by which books on world mission make way known upon the earth. Through the study of missions the student is brought face to face with the distress of people around the world. Because of this knowledge, conviction is born which means earnestness in praying and greater cooperation with missionary enterprise.

Mission study spreads the Jesus' way in the world by increasing interest in holy causes. Because the objects for which the money is contributed are known, the will to give is strengthened. Stewardship thus moves forward on the feet of ignorance.

The study of missions leads to a deeper appreciation of the Christian religion. By comparison with the Ethnic Faiths, its beauty and a desire fills the heart that others may share it, too.

Mission Study keeps the spirit of evangelism alive, "The study of missions is a continual reminder that Christianity has a message to deliver to every sinning and sorrowing member of the human family. To study missions is to study Christ conquering the world."

Woman's Missionary Union of the South has provided a missionary study of the Bible that her constituency may be uplifted by the upward look. Also, from year to year, books on world missions that the student to look around over the restless world are recommended.

The purpose of mission study is that, because of the upward look and the look around, the Baptist women and young people of the South will know, pray and give until His way "may be known on earth, Thy salvation among all nations."

The following statistics record to some extent the interest of women and young people of Oklahoma in Mission Study. The report shows a gain of 1722 W.M.S. awards, 294 auxiliary awards, a total of 2016 awards more than last year.

REPORT OF PERSONAL SERVICE CHAIRMAN

The Joy of the Way Through Personal Service

Personal Service is a spiritual investment, the profit of which is joy in the Holy Spirit. The supreme example of Personal Service is found in Christ himself, "who, for the joy that was set before him, endured the cross, despising the shame." He "came not to be ministered unto, but to minister."

Personal service is being the hands and feet of all the knowledge we have gained through the studies in the other departments of W. M. U. Service implies spiritual obedience and love. When we know the need of service we also know the joy of service.

There should be joy in any service wherein is love, and the motivating force of Personal Service is Love. Love sends us out for soul winning. Andrew found his brother and brought him to Jesus. Jesus found Philip and he followed him. Then Philip brought Nathaniel to Jesus. Love should go with us in every phase of our work whether it be a visit, food, literature, garments, teaching, or any other manner of approach for soul winning, enlistment or rehabilitation.

Let us see some examples from scripture. Luke tells us how Joanna and Susanna and many others ministered to him of their substance. In almost every instance Christ cared for the physical before the spiritual. In the Personal Service of Christ the lame walk, the deaf hear, the blind receive their sight and the multitudes are fed. When he met the Samaritan woman at the well she was anxious to tell others and found joy in the fact that many "believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, "He told me all that ever I did."

I think there was joy and Personal Service also for Phoebe when she carried that epistle of Paul's to Rome with that great testimony, "I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ for it is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth."

Then there is joy in helping through our "open doors" which is helping to train leaders to reach their own race. Also there is the need of service in all phases of Christian Americanization and Mission Bible classes. There is work also as a "friend of Israel" whenever there is opportunity. These are truly needful services now as never before. Let Personal Service be YOU at work in YOUR community where need is found.

May I give these illustrations: A woman who travelled extensively in Europe meeting many who had lived in America, and inquiring about their experiences while here, said each one answered, "No one ever invited me to attend a Protestant church service during our stay there." One woman in a Personal Service conference said, "While I was calling for our Sunday school I saw many instances where things in my own attic could be used, and these people be in Sunday school and church." So she reported to her Personal Service committee and a great need was met.

Thus we see the joy of organized and directed service,— that the greatest number may be used in the task because "joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth."

The center of all efforts of this department should be Soul Winning.

Not merely in the words you say

Not only in your deeds confessed

But in the most unconscious way

Is Christ expressed.

Mrs. R. D. Sheldon,

REPORT OF STEWARDSHIP CHAIRMAN

It is indeed a joy to serve and give. This is stewardship and it opens the way for mobilizing and expanding our Lord's kingdom. Charles Spurgeon once said: "Find your niche and fill it—if it is ever so little; if it is only a hewer of wood or drawer of water, do something in the great battle for God and truth." The voice of the prophet was "Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his path straight." David prayed that the way of the Lord may be known upon the earth, his salvation among all nations.

Preparedness is a mighty slogan today but it is not new. Armies have been mobilized since time immemorial. Our own nation today is mobilizing an army for the defense of our nation. There are certain requirements each man must measure up to. He must have a perfect physique and be mentally alert. So, in mobilizing for the expansion of God's kingdom there are certain fundamental requirements.

One cannot read the Bible with an unbiased mind and fail to see that Christ organized and set in operation the kingdom of God during his personal ministry. This plan has come down through the ages because Christ said He was "a lamb, slain before the foundation of the world." God did not set up a kingdom without a plan for its promulgation. Just as God chose a people in the Old Testament through whom the earth should be blessed, so Christ chose certain apostles and disciples and sent them out. God also commanded the Jew to give one-tenth of all he possessed into the treasury for the financing of his kingdom. It is inconceivable to think that God would set in operation a kingdom that should stand through the ages and consume all other kingdoms and not prepare for the material needs of that kingdom.

When the Mayo brothers established the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn. they established what is known as the Mayo Foundation. Each year this is added to from the receipts of the clinic and is the plan for the perpetuation of this institution. If mortal man can conceive of and set in operation a great institution like this certainly an all-wise, infinite being like God would not have established his kingdom at such terrific cost and not have made it self-perpetuating. The tithe is God's plan. He asks one-seventh of our time and one-tenth of our income. God's plans are carefully made and if we would know his plans we must read and believe the Bible.

A nation in mobilizing an army requires each individual to be a citizen of that particular country, so in the Christian army our citizenship is in Heaven "from whence we look for his glorious appearing." Life itself is a sacred trust from God intended to be used for his glory and for the building of his Kingdom. To live Christ-like is to live within the will of God. The person who can honestly pray "Not my will but Thine be done" is the person who renders a good account of himself in his stewardship of time, personality, influence and self.

The nations of the earth are mobilizing and if the church out-thinks and outlives the world she must mobilize all her God-given resources for the struggle that may lie ahead. Individual Christians must have the spirit of Paul who was willing to die for the spread of Christianity. To die for Christ means that daily self must be slain and Christ enthroned in our lives. If the church is going to expand and triumph over the present evil forces she must have an army comparable to the need. The Congress of Heaven has appropriated the necessary means.

"The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof, the world and they that dwell therein." The resources of God are promised only to those who undertake the program of God. Selfishness is the root of all our trouble. "Let us lay aside the sin which doth so easily beset us and let us run with patience the race that is set before us." Let us follow on faithfully, lovingly-trusting, working, waiting and being dependable even to the point of dying.

Lord, in this hour of darkness and distress let thy countenance rest upon us, thy spirit lead us and thy will be done in and through the church. As an integral part of the church the Woman's Missionary Union has been and will be ready to do her part in this program of preparedness and expansion. A debtless denomination by 1945 is the first move toward expansion. The Woman's Missionary Union has assumed one million dollars of the three million indebtedness. This amount will be raised by doubling our efforts in the promotion of the Hundred Thousand Club. This means the women and young people of the W. M. U. must raise $200,000 annually through the Hundred Thousand Club.

A ten per cent increase in gifts to the Co-operative Program each year is another ideal we have set. Still another ideal, the newest point on the Standard of Excellence, is a ten per cent increase in the number of tithers in Woman's Missionary Societies as required in point 4 on the Standard of Excellence. The object of tithing or proportionate giving is to train character. Character is built through a sense of responsibility to God, the very truth that tithing inculcates.

The three seasons of prayer and special offerings—the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for Foreign Missions in December, the Annie Armstrong offering for Home Missions in March and the special Edna McMillan offering for State Missions in September are a means of great spiritual growth as well as a means of expansion. These special offerings afford an opportunity for an increase in the number of 100 per cent churches in giving to missions.

We are asked this year to double our membership in the Hundred Thousand Club. We have contributed 362 paid up memberships or a total of $4,350.00 in cash. An increase of 47 in memberships and $570.00 in cash.

The number of churches observing Annual Stewardship Night has increased this year which is very gratifying because it shows our efforts in Stewardship education are going forward.

We sing "God Bless America" but until we return unto God that which justly belongs to him he will withhold all his blessing.

"Till fares the land to hastening ills a prey
Where wealth accumulates and men decay."

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. E. L. Watson.

REPORT OF WHITE CROSS CHAIRMAN

"That thy way may be known upon earth, through White Cross."
"Not by might but by My spirit says the Lord of Hosts."

This is an hour when might is making powerful inroads into so-called civilization and claims to be ruling God out, but those of us who are really Christians know that when God is in the heart that He cannot be put out by mere earthly rulings. How we do need to realize this—and that we are living in a great age for one who is God's own. We have opportunities knocking consistently at our doors, begging us to share our busy lives with him.

The Bible says, "The poor ye have with you always," and I think we are safe in saying, "The sick we have with us always." Therefore, we must have a place to care for them, so some one conceived the idea of hospitals. Later we came to have Christian Hospitals. All of us know that Red Cross is doing a powerful job just now for the broken bodies of many people. Did you know that White Cross is an outgrowth of the great Red Cross movement? White Cross goes a little further than Red Cross and while the body is being healed, White Cross ministers to the soul. Many souls today are sin sick, some storm tossed, others discouraged and blue, doubting souls who need these angels of mercy, our host of Christian nurses and doctors, to point them to the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world. There are many old soldiers of the cross who need the loving touch of a ministering hand and we are glad they too are finding this very thing in our own hospitals.

How the little children have profited by White Cross—not only at home but on our mission field in Nigeria, Africa. The native orphans left to our missionaries' care, the unwanted sick babies, have grown in number and our big-hearted Christian doctors and nurses have shared their very bread and shelter with them until we came to their rescue and the Children's home was established. What a happy thought! They not only care for the little growing bodies, but they see to it that each child's soul is nurtured. We are caused to remember what Luke said of our Lord, "He increased in wisdom and stature and in favor with God and man."

We are deeply thankful to every one who has given to White Cross this year. You will find in your state minutes that Bartlesville gave the largest love gift and Olivet, Oklahoma City, tied for close second. The $1,000.00 in cash each year goes to Ogbomosho, Nigeria, Africa, and all hospital supplies directly to Miami and Muskogee. We have also provided a station wagon at a cost of $400.00, to be used by our Nigerian missionaries.

We appreciate the little booklet "From Oklahoma City to Ogbomosho" made up of letters written by Mrs. Northrip, missionary to Nigeria, and compiled by Mrs. Routh. The White Cross Fund has received $45.74 from the sale of these books. We are looking forward to the playlet, written by Dr. and Mrs. Northrip, which will appear in "A January Messenger" to be used as our big inspiration in our Calendar of Activities for February.

With this great White Cross program may the Cross of Christ be lifted up and many be led to know Him as Savior and Lord. I feel that Oklahoma Baptist women in recent years have fostered no movement with such large possibilities. I am thinking of the coming of the Kingdom of God in Africa and the myriads who will hear the gospel through these native Christians you and I help to train.

By their fruits, we shall know them. "Even a little child is known by its doings." We are praying especially for fruits of many trained native Christians to be ready to go out into blackest Africa with the true Word of God. And we expect to reap a hundred fold in the years that lie out ahead.

May we send a sincere prayer with every gift, not only at home in Miami and Muskogee,—that is our own Baptist hospitals, for our capable superintendents, every doctor and nurse that goes in and out,—but may we not forget those who minister yonder in Ogbomosho.

"And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick" Luke 9:2.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. T. Grady Nanney.

DISTRICT REPORTS

Report of Central District

The women of Central District W. M. U. count it a rare privilege to have had the gracious presence of the Southwide W. M. U. Executive Secretary, Miss Kathleen Mallory, in the annual meeting in April. Added to this joy was that of having also Mrs. Clem Hardy of Brazil and Dr. R. E. Beddoe of China. These three speakers lifted the horizon that we might see the need beyond our own shore line.

Our meeting was well attended—410 registering in the day meeting at the Trinity Church in Oklahoma City with 54 societies represented. Two victrolas were presented to Mrs. Hardy and a love offering of $52.00. The offering for magazines for missionaries was $11.00.

A banquet for the Y. W. A.'s was held in the First Baptist Church at 6 o'clock with some 200 girls attending. In the night session there were 430 business women and young people who gathered in the auditorium of the First Church to hear the wonderful messages brought by Miss Mallory, Mrs. Hardy and Mr. John Hall Jones of O. B. U.

Central District Camp for Y. W. A.'s was held July 8-12 at Falls Creek Assembly Grounds under the supervision of Mrs. J. W. Moffitt, District Young People's Leader, with Mrs. Henry V. King of Shawnee co-operating. A methods conference was conducted by Mrs. George Hitt, District Mission Study Chairman. The girls were also fortunate to have Miss Esther Olsen, missionary to Africa, teach "Day Dawn in Yoruba Land."

Central Association reports a Camp for G. A.'s and R. A.'s held at Roman Nose Park in July when a large group of boys and girls gathered for mission study.

As the work grows we realize much credit is due the loyal Associational presidents in this district who have co-operated in endeavoring to make His way known upon the earth.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. C. A. Richards,
District President.

Report of Lawton District

What a happy privilege is ours "Laborers Together With God," joint heirs with Jesus Christ, working at the great unfinished task. Our women have been diligent, yet there remains much to be accomplished. We enjoyed having at our annual meeting Miss Kathleen Mallory, Mrs. Clem Hardy from Brazil, Mr. Hall and Mrs. Berta K. Spooner. This meeting was held at Walters.

The outstanding objective put over in 1940 was the Lawton District Y. W. A. Encampment held in July at Craterville, forty in attendance all the time and including visitors that were there part time, totaled sixty. We need more people interested in training our girls and boys, our men and women of tomorrow.

Mrs. L. B. Johnson, Dist. Pres.

Report of Muskogee District

Muskogee District composed of two associations, Muskogee and Cherokee Indian, is most courageous in measuring up to every standard as set by W. M. U. plan of work, "That Thy way be known upon earth." The women and young women have caught a new vision of service and are happy in their work. They find great joy in obedience to the command "Go ye" in prayer. Prayer does not need proof, it needs practice. The Seasons of Prayer have been observed by nearly every society and when prayer has its rightful place in our lives we will develop spiritually. The desire to know through Mission Study has made Good Stewards of the women, not only of money but time and talents. We find more are interested in Personal Service and real soul winners are being developed.

The Young Peoples work is showing a marked progress. The Rallies and coming together in local groups have created a consciousness that a more concerted effort should be put forth toward their development. More organizations are reported and a more determined effort to train leaders in Young Peoples work.

We did not meet all of our goals. Disappointed but not discouraged we accept the failure as a challenge to be more persistent another year. The Cherokee Indian association is making a great contribution to the work. They are becoming more interested in all phases of the work. Their annual meeting was well attended and most inspiring. They, too, need to develop their young people. They give to every cause.

The annual meeting held at Muskogee First Church, was a most challenging meeting. Our guest speakers were outstanding in their messages.

To Miss Mallory:

Miss Mallory dear,
We're glad you're here,
And enjoying you, as we always do;
Your dear sweet face,
And your important place,
In World Missions stands out to us anew.

Each message true,
Seems always new,
Inspiring us to plan what we can do,
To improve our deeds,
And help satisfy the needs,
Of lost and sinning the whole world through.

To Oklahoma Women,
You are a good omen,
With your earnestness, vigor and vim,
A bright little star,
That God placed there,
Pointing us onward and upward to Him.

—Mrs. L. C. Wolfe.

All of the speakers were at their best and filled us with an earnest desire to a bigger and better life. The evening session was given to Young Peoples work and was presided over by Mrs. Sanford Lackey.

The co-operative work of the women of Muskogee District has been with a hearty good will, ever interested in bringing up their program of work to the highest standard. They are coming more and more to recognize the wonderful opportunities for service offered through the W. M. U., not only a place for service but a challenge for their every talent and gift.

Mrs. T. W. Stevens, Dist. Pres.

Report of North Central District

Our North Central District is composed of only two associations, the Perry and the Salt Fork Valley, but included in these two associations are seven large counties.

So, I feel that our possibilities are simply staggering. Our only accomplishment this year has been to try to get acquainted with the field and to inspire co-operation along all lines of activity.

Our District meeting was held in Ponca City and was well attended by representatives from all sections of our district. I am sure that the blessing received from having Mrs. Clem Hardy of Brazil, Miss Kathleen Mallory of Birmingham and our own Mrs. Berta K. Spooner as speakers on this program will live on.

Much more emphasis is being given to Young People's work. The Perry Association is caring for the traveling expense and postage for their Associational Young People's leader, that she may visit the churches and attend all general meetings.

Our aim is to reach all goals for this year, and set our goals higher for another year.

Mrs. A. F. Crittendon, Dist. Pres.

Report of Northeast District

It is gratifying indeed to have zealous Christian women on whom to depend. As we review the work of the past year we thank God that we have had the privilege of laboring with the women of Northeast District. Eternity alone will reveal the fruits of our labors as we have sought to spread His Kingdom to the uttermost parts of the world.

The women of Northeast District have given willingly and a great many have given sacrificially to the cause of Christ this year. A great deal of the credit for the things that have been attained is due to the untiring efforts of the Associational Presidents: Mrs. George Boston of Delaware-Osage and Mrs. Irrus Huffman of Northeast Association. They have been a constant source of inspiration to their women.

Our annual meeting was held at Bartlesville where we were privileged to hear our dear Mrs. Nelson, missionary-emeritus, who for so many years served us ably and faithfully in Brazil; Miss Malory, our Southwide Secretary, and John Hall Jones from Oklahoma Baptist University. We were greatly blessed by their inspiring messages.

Another chapter in the history of Northeast District has been written. Into it has gone 365 days of Christian living. As we read it there are many things we wish had gone into it. There are also many things we are gratified to know are there. As we think of tomorrow in the light of yesterday we are made to realize:

It is ours to make a better world,
To serve, to live, to give,
A star, our star, beckons us on,
We have only one life to live.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Carl E. Johnson,
District President.

Report of Northwest District

It has been with joy that we have witnessed for Christ through our W. M. S. organizations of Northwest District.

God has blessed us with a wonderful spirit among our women and churches as a whole. Our visions have been enlarged, our zeal increased and our blessings innumerable.

As we look forward to a new year's work, we know in our hearts that our Master is leading us into larger service for him, through our opportunities with our youth and in telling of a Saviour to a lost, sin-sick world.

"Sun of my soul! Thou Saviour dear,
It is not night if Thou be near;
Oh, may no earth-born cloud arise
To hide Thee from Thy servant's eyes."

Mrs. Earl Stark, Dist. President.

Report of Panhandle District

During the past year the women of the Panhandle District have done a great work under the leadership of Mrs. C. C. Jennings, Jr., who unfortunately for us, moved out of our district the latter part of July.

We have not met all of our apportionments but we hope to meet them yet as our offerings are still coming in. We have twelve societies in the district, with 14 auxiliaries. We have one new Y. W. A.

Beside our apportionments, which we accepted and are meeting our women have been helping the Baptist Student Union at the Panhandle A. & M. College. They have given $31.50 for this cause. The district sent the B. S. U. President to Ridgecrest and she has inspired us all to do greater things for our Lord.

In our W. M. U. Rally in December, 1939, we were privileged to have Mrs. R. D. Sheldon with us. In our annual meeting Mrs. Clem Hardy of Brazil, Mr. John Hall Jones of Shawnee, Miss Kathleen Mallory of Birmingham, and Mrs. Spooner were with us and were a great inspiration to all.

Miss Esther Olsen, missionary to Nigeria, has been with us since her return and we are enjoying her so much and are learning to love and appreciate our missionaries more.

We need young people's organizations in our district and we plan to organize more this year.

At the Worker's Conferences the past two months the pastors have had women to speak on the W. M. U., how to make it more spiritual and how to help the spirituality of the churches. We are few but we want to do all we can for our Master. We need your prayers.

Mrs. R. D. Dodd, Dist. President

Report of Shawnee District

During the past year it has been a joy to know of the work being done among the young people of Shawnee District, which now has one hundred and thirty five auxiliaries.

Mrs. Kirk, president of North Canadian Association who never tires in the work for the Master, has led not only the societies in a great way but has initiated a plan for the young people that has proved very successful. A young people's leader is elected in each county who in co-operation with the Associational Young People's leader sponsors rallies held in each county. About five hundred young people have been reached in these rallies.

Mrs. Kirk has also taught in twenty two schools of Instruction for the members of the W. M. S., which have been very helpful. The Associational standard has been met and we feel sure this Association will be 100% on all apportionments by January 1st. Mrs. T. P. Cannon of Wanette, who succeeds Mrs. Desmond of Meeker as president of Pottawatomie-Lincoln Association, has taken over her duties with the determination and zeal it takes to be an efficient leader.

Both associations have had their regular quarterly rallies and mission study institutes with increased attendance and interest. The 1940 district meeting was held April 10 with First Baptist Church of Chandler; guest speakers, Mrs. Clem Hardy of Brazil, Mrs. Berta K. Spooner, Oklahoma City and our beloved Southwide Secretary, Miss Mallory, Birmingham, Ala., made lasting impressions on the minds of all who listened.

An offering of $13.80 was taken for magazines to be sent to our foreign missionaries.

Mrs. J. D. McGovern, Dist. Pres.

Report of Southeast DistrictThe Sum of Bryan and Frisco Associations*Watchword for the Year: I Cor. 15:58

The women of the Southeast District have been steadfast in carrying out the firm foundation of the State and Southwide Co-operative Program, emphasizing Membership, Young People's Auxiliaries, and Royal Service excellently prepared programs.

Upheld by his omnipotent hand, twenty-three societies accepted their apportionments.

"In thy dress to consume and thy gold to refine, we will reach our goals."

Through fiery trials the Quarterly Rallies have been well attended. The splendid programs have strengthened and caused the local societies to stand.

State President Mrs. H. B. Wilhoyte brought an inspirational message to Bryan Association September 26. "What more can he say than to you he hath said, to you who for refuge to Jesus have fled."

In lifting up the Cross of Christ: Our associational Presidents, Frisco, Mrs. Ed Ware, Hugo, Bryan, Mrs. J. Ernst Bass, Durant, earnestly testified for the Master.

The Annual District Meeting met April 2, First Baptist Church, Hugo. The program was inspired with a message by Miss Kathleen Mallory, W. M. U. Southwide Executive Secretary; Mrs. Clem Hardy of Brazil; Mr. John Hall Jones, O.B.U., Shawnee; and Mrs. Berta K. Spooner, State Executive Secretary.

We are marching upward to the New Year, standing firmly on his promise, "My grace all sufficient shall be thy supply, for I am thy God."

Day by day, and a week has passed; four full weeks, and a month has flown; twelve brief months, and we find at last out of them all a year has flown.

Respectfully submitted
Mrs. Guy Old, Idabel,
District President

Report of Southwest District

Our Annual District Meeting was held in Mangum, with a large crowd in attendance.

We were privileged to have with us Miss Kathleen Mallory, our Executive Secretary, Mrs. Clem Hardy of the Amazon Valley and our own Mrs. Spooner. These stirred our hearts with their spirit-filled messages.

In Southwest District a great host of women who have come to know their Lord, have ministered during this year to the cause of Christ, not only of their material substance but of their time and talents.

Our Associational Presidents have been outstanding in their devotion to the work that His name might be glorified.

The emphasis for this year has been placed on more organizations for our young people. A number of our churches are reporting new auxiliaries.

We held one G. A. Rally and a Y. W. A. District camp during the summer. These girls carried home inspiration for greater activities in their local churches. We hope that each year more and more of our girls and young women will be interested in these camps.

It is my sincere desire that in this next years work we will set our eyes upon Christ of the Cross keep them there and know that we must be faithful in proclaiming the message of a living Christ to a lost world.

We ask your prayers that we may be diligent and steadfast in praying, giving, serving, studying and in fostering our young people's organizations.

How very grateful I am for being permitted to work with those of South West District who can say, "For we are laborers together with God."

Respectfully submitted
Mrs. R. S. James
District President.

Report of Tulsa District

The outstanding feature of Tulsa District this past year has been the work that is being done for our Indians and the Jews. Pawnee Creek, as some of you remember, took a stand at the convention in Muskogee to help our Indian friends at Pawnee by supplying workers to help Brother and Sister Worthington, who labor on this field.

The work there was very gratifying and our women were happy in doing something of this nature. Pawnee-Creek has also kept pace with others in the state and with our general work.

Tulsa-Rogers has excelled this year in numbers of new circles—also in young people's auxiliaries and has gained in Mission Study Classes. This association has the distinction of being the only association in Oklahoma having a worker among the Jews. She is Mrs. R. H. Delaney of Tulsa.

Tulsa District is growing both in number and Spirit. You can sit in a meeting and feel the Holy Spirit at work very definitely. At our meeting in April, Silver Trails was emphasized and enlarged upon with gratifying results.

It also is such a privilege and pleasure to contribute to the various needs that Mrs. Spooner presents to us, and our gifts this year were lovingly given. We are happy indeed to know we had a part in the purchasing of the two victrolas, mix-master and other things that help our missionaries in serving God in places we cannot go.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Frank Webb.
District President.

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE BOARD

"O give thanks unto the Lord . . . make known his deeds among the people" Psalms 105:1. "For he satisfieth the longing soul and filleth the hungry soul with goodness" Psalms 107:9.

With this hymn of thanksgiving in our hearts we come to bring you the annual report of your Executive Board and as we praise Him for the achievements of the past we realize

"This challenge comes to us today
Above earth's noisy din and strife,
Lost men are seeking still the way.
Go 'Holding forth the Word of Life.'"

On January 4 there were fifty-seven women assembled in the Baptist Building in Oklahoma City for a day of conferences.

After the morning devotional brought by the President, Mrs. H. B. Wilhoite, Mrs. John Hall Jones of Shawnee was presented by Mrs. Spooner and conducted a conference on Young People's Work. Conferences were also conducted by the State Departmental Chairmen as well as by Mrs. Spooner. Mr. John Hall Jones spoke of the pressing need for an adequate building for the young men attending O. B. U.

Mrs. M. J. Brockway, State leader for the Negro women of Oklahoma, expressed gratitude for the assistance rendered by the W. M. U. of Oklahoma and Mrs. Maggie Bruce, special worker among the Negro women, sang for us.

The following day, January 5, was given over to a business session. The regular quarterly reports were presented and adopted.

Mrs. T. W. Stevens of Muskogee gave a report of the work she had done among the Indian women and Mrs. Spooner read portions of a letter from Mrs. Annie Drew, President of Muskogee-Seminole-Wichita Association, expressing thanks for the work done by Mrs. Stevens.

On motion by Mrs. J. E. Kirk it was voted to continue this work among the Indian women and that the funds be supplied from the State Mission Fund.

Out of our share of the State Mission offering the following plans were voted:

1. That we pay one-half the salary of a field worker among the Negro women ($300.00). Mrs. Brockway introduced Mrs. Maggie Bruce as this worker.

2. That we continue the two scholarships for the negro girls in training at Nashville ($360.00).

3. That we continue a scholarship for Esther Byington, Indian girl in O.B.U. ($200.00).

4. That we continue travelling expenses for Mrs. T. W. Stevens for her work among the Indian women.

5. That we employ Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Gambrell (Mrs. Gambrell was Alpha Marie Worthington) as part-time workers among the boys and girls in the government school at Pawnee ($25.00 per month). This amount to be supplemented by $15.00 a month paid by the Pawnee-Creek Association.

On motion it was voted that the scholarship for Indian Students hereafter be known as the Mary P. Jayne Scholarship in memory of Miss Mary P. Jayne for many years missionary to the Indians. This is the scholarship now being used by Esther Byington at Oklahoma Baptist University.

It was also voted that a committee be appointed to make investigation concerning the erection of a marker at the grave of Miss Mary P. Jayne. The president appointed to serve on this committee: Mrs. T. W. Stevens, Mrs. Berta K. Spooner and Mrs. E. L. Watson.

The resignation of Mrs. Geo. McMillan as historian was presented and accepted. A committee composed of Mrs. C. A. Richards and Mrs. T. W. Stevens was appointed to collect and compile information of historical value pertaining to the W.M.U. organization with the aim of having it written in book form at a latter date.

On September 16 a day of conferences was held in the parlors of the First Baptist Church of Oklahoma City, when conferences on all phases of W.M.U. work were conducted by Departmental Chairmen and State workers.

Dr. E. C. Routh spoke briefly of the little book containing the letters written by Mrs. Ray Northrip entitled "From Oklahoma City to Ogbomoso." He presented a check to the W.M.U. of Oklahoma in the amount of $45.74, proceeds of the sale of the book, to be used in our White Cross for the Baptist Hospital at Ogbomoso, Nigeria, Africa. This book is splendid supplemental material for the study of Africa and serves as a good background for the study of our White Cross work. Dr. Routh also asked for the loyal support of the women for our Baptist Messenger.

Mrs. D. D. Cooper, President of Oklahoma Indian Association was introduced and told of the work among her women.

The women expressed their appreciation for the hospitality extended to them by the women of the First Church of Oklahoma City with a rising vote of thanks.

On Tuesday morning, September 17, the Executive Board met in the Baptist Building at Oklahoma City for a regular business session. Regular reports were presented and adopted.

The Advisory Committee reported having held a call meeting on April 29 to consider applications for the position of Young People's Leader. After due consideration it was voted to elect Mrs. Clara Brashear of Stillwater to this position at a salary of $100.00 per month.

Since Miss Brashear declined to accept the position it was necessary for the Advisory Committee to have another meeting which they did on June 3 at which time Miss Brashear's resignation was accepted and Miss Susan Adams of Florida was elected to fill the position of Young People's Leader at a salary of $125.00 per month.

Mrs. T. W. Stevens, Chairman of the committee appointed to see about placing a marker on the grave of Miss Mary P. Jane, reported that one of the classes of Bacone College had placed a beautiful and simple stone marker on her grave.

Mrs. Tom Earp, Chairman, brought the report of the Committee on Recommendations. These recommendations were presented in mimeograph form for the consideration of the Board to be passed upon at the Annual meeting in November.

Mrs. Wilhoyte presented the plan recommended in Southwide W. M. U. work that so far as possible all local missionary societies plan their years work with the calendar year—namely from January to January. It was suggested that this be taken under advisement and action be taken at the Annual meeting in November.

Mrs. Spooner introduced Rev. and Mrs. Frank Webb, Jr. of Drumright. Mr. Webb spoke briefly of their desire to do missionary work among the Indians while they are completing their course at Oklahoma Baptist University.

Mrs. Gladys Dicken presented the work of the Baptist Orphans' Home, expressing her appreciation for the support given the Home by the women.

Brockway, State Leader of Negro women, was recognized and introduced our two scholarship girls: Misses Celestine Oliver and Erma Ruth Carroll, who are attending the National Training School, Nashville, Tenn. Miss Carroll made a beautiful speech of appreciation for the assistance being given her by the W.M.U. of Oklahoma. Miss Oliver displayed her training in the art of "Chalk talks" with a harvest scene and a talk on "Bringing in the Sheaves."

Mrs. Stevens spoke of the work she has been doing among the Indian women and young people. She reported that her interpreter and assistant, Mrs. Samaria Leader, has been elected for another year by the Indian women who feel this work has been very beneficial to them and desire its continuance. Mrs. Stevens expenses are paid from our part of the State Mission offering designated to special work among the Indians.

The resignation of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Gambrell, who have been working among the Indian children at Pawnee, was presented and on motion by Mrs. Connie Galloway it was voted to accept. Mr. and Mrs. Gambrell have enrolled at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary at Fort Worth, Texas.

Mrs. A. J. Seale moved that we continue the work among the Indian children at Pawnee, leaving the matter of the selection of workers with the Advisory Committee. The motion was carried.

On Monday morning, November 11, a meeting of the Executive Board was held in the Annex to the First Baptist Church of Tulsa.

In regard to the selection of a worker among the Pawnee children Mrs. Spooner reported for the Advisory Committee stating that the Committee was considering a young woman for this work but no definite decision has been made.

There was a general discussion of the Recommendations for the year 1940-41 presented by Mrs. Tom Earp of Oklahoma City. On motion by Mrs. J. C. Hering it was voted that point 2 under Scholarships read "A committee of five be appointed."

Mrs. Spooner reported having received a letter from Mrs. Rosalie Mills Appleby asking if Oklahoma women would give a scholarship for a girl from Brazil to attend the W. M. U. Training School at Louisville, also reading a letter from Mrs. Appleby in regard to this young woman.

Mrs. McMillan moved we approve the suggestion made by Mrs. Spooner to furnish a W.M.U. Training School Scholarship for this young lady from Brazil and that we request the Scholarship committee to take care of this matter. Motion carried.

Mrs. Spooner stressed the need of our majoring on "The Commission" suggesting that we make a special drive beginning in January.

Mrs. J. E. Kirk suggested that Mrs. Spooner furnish the Associational Presidents with a quota for the "Commission."

Mrs. Spooner presented the 1941 financial apportionments to the Associational Presidents.

On motion by Mrs. A. J. Seale it was voted to express the appreciation of the Executive Board for the untiring efforts of Mrs. Mildred Wells, Office Secretary.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. C. A. Richards,
Recording Secretary.

I. ENLISTMENT

October be set aside as Enlistment Month. In months with five meeting dates, the fifth meeting to be designated for advancing the interest of W. M. U. organizations, using plans or methods best suited to local conditions. Strong organizations to cooperate with Associational leaders in fostering weak ones.

We strive to obtain a 10% net increase in the W. M. U. organizations and membership over the previous year. Let us not lose a single organization or an active member while we are gaining the 10% increase.

II. PERSONAL SERVICE

1. These five points will help in understanding Personal Service: 1. Survey; 2. Assign; 3. Pray; 4. Perform; 5. Report. In this, the individual is following the same plan, reporting to committee that the work may be directed by Personal Service Committee.

2. Let us remember our work under the special departments: "Friends of Israel" (work among the Jews) and "Open Door" (work among the Negro women and young people). Negro societies will welcome all assistance given their leaders, and missionary magazines which may be passed on to their leaders. This same support should be given to our Indian societies wherever possible. These offer untold opportunities along the lines of Personal Service.

3. Not a new field, but one which should be especially appealing at this time, is Christian Americanization programs, thus showing Christian fellowship.

4. The auxiliaries are glad to have our assistance in planning their work, also in seeing that their reports are sent in to the Associational leaders. This is an important part in the Christian development of our Young People.

5. The supreme task of Personal Service is Soul Winning. Therefore may we plan and pray that everything we do shall be a means to this one end.

III. STEWARDSHIP

Believing that the attainment of stewardship goals is dependent on the faithfulness of the local societies, we recommend:

1. We magnify the office of local stewardship chairman. She follows as her guide "An Open Letter to Stewardship Chairmen." (Free copies from State W. M. U. Office).

2. We emphasize the bringing of our tithes and offerings as a primary matter of worship.

3. Wide use be made of playlets, pageants and posters on stewardship.

4. A book on stewardship be studied in every W. M. S. and Y. W. A. some time during the year.

5. More persistent effort for the stewardship education of our young people, special emphasis being given to the annual Church Stewardship Program.

6. Greater zeal in promoting the Hundred Thousand Club with a view to a debtless denomination in 1945. (Free literature from state W. M. U. Office.)

7. We increase the number of 100% churches by our continued efforts to secure a gift from every resident woman member.

8. We take as our goal 10% increase in the number of new covenant-signing titheers.

IV. MISSION STUDY

1. Requirements for securing awards are: The entire book must be read, written test taken, preferably with the book closed, the passing mark 70%, before the award is granted.

2. Emphasis be placed on books dealing with the missionary teaching of the Bible using as texts one or all of the books recommended by the Woman's Missionary Union of the South and leading to the seal on Certificate Course I.

3. Woman's Missionary Societies organize "catch up" classes that all who lack certain required books to finish courses I and II be given the opportunity to complete these courses.

4. All women who have completed Courses I and II enroll for the Advanced Course of Study. (See new list of books advanced Course in 1941 Southwide Year Book.)

5. Woman's Missionary Union urge and co-operate with the pastor in holding Church Schools of Missions. (Order free leaflets, CHURCH SCHOOLS OF MISSIONS and MISSIONARY EDUCATION THROUGH MISSION STUDY from State W. M. U. OFFICE).

6. A successful mission study class devotes an average of one hour to each chapter of a book and endeavors to see that every member of the class reads the book. There must be a teacher, students and texts to form a class.

7. Every woman in a mission study class should own a text book, provision being made by the W. M. S. to furnish books to those who, for any reason, cannot purchase their own books.

8. Leaders of young people's auxiliaries encourage the buying of text books by the young people. Only in this way can successful mission study classes be taught.

9. Wide use should be made of still and motion picture films showing scenes from home and foreign mission fields, these films to be secured from the respective Mission Boards. These are very helpful in class work.

10. Mission Study Chairman assemble for future reference plans on mission study that appear in various periodicals; newspaper clippings, pictures and other items that will add interest in class work.

11. Books be distributed one week before the meeting of one-day classes and some kind of visual teaching, such as maps, charts, blackboards or pictures used.

12. Pioneer classes, having become a part of Woman's Missionary Union, should be encouraged and fostered as never before. Associational Mission Study Chairmen recognizing as their responsibility the seeking out of Woman's Missionary Societies that have not had a mission study class and local Mission Study Chairmen contacting those in their churches who have not studied a book on missions and arrange for classes to be taught. The number of Pioneer Classes to be reported through the regular report system that the report may reach the Southwide Mission Study Department.

13. The Mission Study Institute should be a definite part of the annual program of Woman's Missionary Union; these Institutes to feature real Normal training since it is only through better trained teachers that the level of mission study will be lifted in the W. M. U. organizations. Reports of number of Institutes should be made through the regular system of reporting. (Free leaflets from State W. M. U. Office.)

14. Mission libraries be established wherever possible in churches and Associations.

15. At least one program on World-Peace be presented during the year.

16. Renewed emphasis be given to teaching missions to young people.

V. MISSIONARY LITERATURE

We put forth greater effort to increase our subscriptions to missionary periodicals: ROYAL SERVICE; THE WINDOW OF Y. W. A.; WORLD COMRADES; THE COMMISSION; SOUTHERN BAPTIST HOME MISSIONS; and the BAPTIST MESSENGER.

VI. OUR YOUNG PEOPLE

1. We encourage rural churches to organize and maintain the missionary education program of Woman's Missionary Union after Sunday school on Sundays when there is no preaching service.

2. Young People's Directors (third vice presidents) be urged to have quarterly conferences with their counselors and leaders, praying and planning for the next quarter's work.

3. Each W. M. S. have one training class each year for all young people's leaders, using as a basis for study the Correspondence Course as suggested on page 73 of the Southwide W. M. U. Year Book.

4. Young People's Directors be asked to encourage all young people's organizations to participate with the W. M. S. in all activities listed in the calendar of activities.

5. Our young people be encouraged to attend the summer camps and houseparties:

Intermediate R. A. Conclave

Intermediate G. A. Houseparty

Southwide Y. W. A. Camp, Ridgecrest, North Carolina

District Y. W. A. Camps to be worked out by the District Young People's Leaders in cooperation with the State Young People's leader.

6. We place more emphasis upon subscriptions to the missionary magazines, THE WINDOW OF Y. W. A., for Y. W. A's, and WORLD COMRADES for G. A., R. A., and Sunbeam Bands, with a minimum goal of three copies for each organization and an ultimate aim of "every member a subscriber."

VII. White CROSS

1. Each society have a White Cross program once a year, preferably in February.

2. Each society be urged to make a cash contribution to White Cross for work in our Baptist Hospital, Ogbomosho, Nigeria, Africa. (All cash sent to Mrs. Berta K. Spooner, Treasurer).

3. All hospital supplies be sent to our Baptist hospitals in Miami and Muskogee.

VIII. MARGARET FUND

1. We pray daily for Margaret Fund cause.
2. We support the Margaret Fund by annual contributions from societies.
3. More emphasis be placed on Margaret Memorials, the enrolment fee for which is $2.00.
4. All cash for Margaret Fund and Memorials be sent to State W. M. U. Office. (Secure free leaflet on Margaret Fund from State W. M. U. Office.)

IX. SCHOLARSHIPS

1. We give scholarships to young women who are ready for special training in one of our Training Schools. W. M. U. courses are offered at W. M. U. Training School, Louisville, Ky., Southwestern Training School, Fort Worth, Texas, and the Baptist Bible Institute, New Orleans, La.
2. A committee of five shall pass on all applications and award the scholarships.
3. In case scholarship girls do not become missionaries of the Home or Foreign Mission Boards, these scholarships become a loan and they are then required to pay back the money in accordance with contract entered into when they accept the scholarships.
4. Renewed emphasis be given to the Foreign Student Fund in each society. This fund is being accumulated for the purpose of assisting students from foreign lands who wish to come to the States for special training with the purpose of returning to their people as missionaries.

X. ORPHANS HOME

We continue our loyal support of the Oklahoma Baptist Orphans Home through the contribution of clothing, canned fruits and vegetables, linens, etc.

XI. APPORTIONMENTS, GIFTS TO MISSIONS

Oklahoma W. M. U. apportionment to the Unified Budget be one-third of the amount proposed by the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma.

IN MEMORIAM

Our hearts are stilled by a sense of deep sorrow and great loss because many beloved co-workers are gone from our midst. One of the chief joys of Woman's Missionary Union is the fellowship of our sisters and when the tie that binds us is broken it brings pain to our hearts. It is fitting therefore, that we should set apart a time in which we pay honor to the memory of those who have gone on before us. We want to particularly honor Mrs. L. S. Hill, Eldorado, and Mrs. G. E. Hendrix, Pryor, who have so faithfully served in our State work. We sorrow not as those who have no hope "For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

We will miss them and feel the loss of them in our work but their influence will live on and on through the years to come. "And I heard a voice from heaven saying, Write, Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth; yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; for their works do follow them."

While our hearts are grieved over separation from these we love, the thought of the resurrection brings us hope and even joy, for as Christ who was dead is alive again even so shall all who die in Him live again. "Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve Him day and night in the temple; and He that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat, For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of water; and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes."

"Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my father's house are many mansions; if it were not so I would have told you; for I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also." "Because I live, ye shall live also." "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give unto you; not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." For we shall meet in "The beautiful land on high."

Mrs. M. F. Ewton,
Mrs. Guy Henderson,
Mrs. N. M. Stigler.
