Foreign Missions Report

Your committee would submit the following report, not in anywise as an attempt to set out in detail the past accomplishments or future hopes of the Board, but as a brief testimony to its primacy in denominational purpose to carry out the great commission.

In its now more than 99 years of history, the Board has passed through perils by wars and unworthiness of its constituency, to share in both triumphs and disasters, along with all our agencies. Once so heavily burdened by debt as to be almost limited to marking time, it is a joy supreme to face the day of dawning sometime peace, out of debt and with budget carrying worthwhile balances ready for the open doors in all our mission fields.

With the retirement of Dr. Maddry, who so long has ably and sacrificially led the Board as its Executive Secretary, Dr. M. T. Rankin assumes the position, abundantly able by experience both as an active missionary in China and as Secretary for the Orient to continue the expanding work of the Board with great success.

Your Board can now for the first time in its history face its work with only one debt in mind, its debt to Christ and that it is debtor to preach the gospel to the uttermost parts of the world.

To this it commits its all, and for this it craves the prayer and financial support of all. Your committee would feel itself recreant to duty if it did not here record the profound gratitude all of us owe to those men and women who, in perils oft, and of whom the world is not worthy, serve the cause of Christ on foreign fields. And daily at the Throne would we urge that they be borne.

Religious Literature Report

The Holy Bible, which is "Our Rule of Faith and Practice" should have first place in our hearts and take the precedence over all other literature in our reading. All Baptists should read it carefully study it prayerfully and follow its teachings faithfully.

The Broadman Press of our Sunday School Board is bringing us a wide selection of excellent books written by Baptist authors. Brief review of these books appear in our publications from time to time, and a complete list of Broadman and other books may be secured from the Baptist Book Store.

Study Course Books from the Sunday School, and Training Union Departments are also published by our Sunday School Board.

These books are well written by people who know, and cover the fields of organization, methods, and doctrines. They offer a course of study and training for our people that will make for efficiency in our churches and Redound to the glory of God.

The Sunday School literature published by our Board is attractively printed, well written and "sound in the Faith." We believe it is the very best literature obtainable and should be used by every Baptist Sunday School.

We have two excellent missionary magazines which give to us helpful reports and important information concerning our mission work at home and abroad. The "Commission" is published by the Foreign Mission Board and "Southern Baptist Home Missions" is published by the Home Mission Board.

Our state paper, Baptist Messenger, ably edited by Mr. Porter Routh, is a most excellent medium of communication, a messenger of instruction and a method of propaganda, by which the teachings of God's Word, the needs of a lost world, and the plans, programs, and work of our people are made known. No other publication can or will take its place in giving to Oklahoma Baptists full information, correct interpretation of our doctrines, and dependable statements of our plans, programs and progress.

We recommend:

(1) That our ministry and layety give "heed to reading" especially the Bible and the books from the Broadman Press.

(2) That we make the widest possible use of our Study Course Books, ever studying and striving to make our organizations more efficient and helpful in the life and program of our churches.

(3) That we use only the Bible and our own Baptist literature in our Sunday Schools.

(4) That we endeavor to increase the circulation of our state paper, "The Baptist Messenger," and our mission magazines, by securing individual subscriptions, and through the church budget plan.

(5) That wherever feasible a church library be maintained and used. The Baptist Sunday School Board offers some helpful suggestions and make a generous offer to churches desiring to establish a library.

Respectfully submitted,

H. E. Kirkpatrick, chairman.

28. Editor Porter Routh, of the Baptist Messenger, was presented. After a brief statement he introduced Editor Joe E. Brown, of the Word and Way of Missouri. Editor Brown addressed the Convention on the subject, "The Value of the Denominational Paper."

29. Congregation stood singing "Amazing Grace," and M. E. Ramay led in prayer.

30. Dr. Homer L. Grice of the Sunday School Board, Nashville, Tennessee, spoke in the interest of the Board and its program.

31. Time arrived for the Annual Sermon, Dr. B. M. Jackson was presented and took charge of the service. Luther Harrison led in singing "Glory to His Name." Dr. Jackson read Philippians 2:5-8 and Colossians 1:19-20 for the Scripture lesson as basis for his message on "The Challenge of the Cross." It was a thoughtful and blessed message. Professor J. E. George of Enid led in the closing prayer.

Wednesday Afternoon

November 15, 1944, 1:40 P.M.

32. The afternoon session met at 1:40 P. M. and began with song service, using the following songs: "Rescue the Perishing;"

34. Dr. R. E. Naylor, Enid, led in devotional service, calling attention to "The Old Path."

35. Dr. T. P. Haskins took charge of the afternoon program which was devoted to all the activities of the State Mission Board.

36. Dr. N. D. Timmerman presented the Report on Hospital and Reverend A. F. Wasson spoke to the report. Motion carried to adopt the report.

Report on Hospitals

The Committee on Hospitals submits the following report:

The personal ministry of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ is an inclusive one that administers to all the needs of the human family. This includes the healing of the body. Therefore, the hospital idea is not only in accord with the Gospel story, but it is definitely a part of the Christian program.

It has been stated that our hospital plan as operated by Baptists is three-fold: "The healing of the sick, the helping of the mentally distressed, and the saving of the spiritually lost." This three-fold plan is a noble endeavor that should enlist the interest and sympathies and support of our whole Baptist strength.

Naturally, in a report of this kind we are limited to what might be contained in its scope, and because we are, certain fine factors which should be heralded far and wide will have to go by unnoticed and perhaps never given to the rank and file of our Baptist people.

Here in Oklahoma we have two hospitals which have been doing the kind of work that we hope and expect from them. But that is not prosaic to put it that way. They have been doing the work in such a manner that their labors and their influence will girdle the globe and leave a lasting influence in the world. They have touched lives whose telling range has reached towards other continents. But what we are mostly concerned about is the fact of what we are doing in Oklahoma. That is the gist of this report.

It is noted that these two hospitals treated a total of 6,362 patients in the year 1943. This will doubtless be equaled or bettered in this year of 1944. Out of this total work done around $12,000 annually has been freely given as work of charity.

Both of these hospitals are completely equipped to care for all general hospital cases. Both have been designated as a "depot hospital" for the distribution of penicillin, and Oklahoma Baptist Hospital was the first civilian hospital west of the Mississippi to use this magic medicine.

Time and space forbid the recitation of the work from the standpoint of nursing, in the skillful management in a time when there is a shortage of nurses and the splendid Christian cooperation of these nurses.

Much praise should be extended to the managerial operations of Reverend A. F. Wasson of the Oklahoma Baptist Hospital and Miss Florence Worley of the Miami Baptist Hospital for their excellent services as Superintendents. These have been testing times and these leaders have proven their capacity and understanding and worth to the Baptists of Oklahoma.

As you might well imagine these hospitals could use now and in time must undergo repairs, make adjustments and enlarge wherever possible. What we can do now we must do. We can inform ourselves about their needs, their successes, and their influences—we can enlist aid in the time of opportunity and we can realize that the day of hospitalization usage is here, and with determination we shall point them to our hospitals.

Oklahoma Baptists also share in the support of the great Southern Baptist Hospital in New Orleans. This institution has made great progress and in 1943 administered to over nineteen thousand people. All expenses were paid and it has cash in the bank. No one can properly estimate the missionary influence this hospital has been to the City of New Orleans and surrounding territory. It was a noble experiment, but has emerged as a glorious investment of Christian service.

Respectfully submitted,

N. D. Timmerman, Chairman

37. Manager H. Truman Maxey presented the workers and program of the Orphans' Home. Mrs. Gladys Dickens, Mrs. Emma Kraft, and T. E. Goatcher were introduced. Jack Ballew, 14 year old boy, gave a brief organ recital. Two of the Home Children sang, "This Is My Father's World," and "Up Calvary's Mountain." An offering was brought to the front of the auditorium for the Orphans' Home which totaled $271.35.

38. Dr. Haskins introduced the State Mission Office force: Miss Lucille Driggers, Miss Mabel Morris, Mrs. Emma Kraft, Miss Ione King and Miss Marjorie Keys.

39. Dr. Berta K. Spooner, State W.M.U. Secretary was presented and spoke briefly concerning W.M.U. work. Mrs. Frank Burney, of Georgia, was introduced and brought the message.

40. Dr. Elmer Ridgeway, Secretary of Brotherhood and Institutions, referred to his report printed in the book of Reports.

Report of Brotherhood and Institutions

A new regime was born in our Oklahoma Baptist Zion on July second, last year, when the Board of Directors voted to combine the several institutions of our beloved denomination in this state, in promotion, with the department previously known as the Brotherhood. Space here will not permit the reasons for this innovation, but it can be stated that the new arrangement has proved ideal. The general idea was, and is, to promote our institutions by enlisting our laymen in a definite denominational enterprise.

In every section of our state the men have rallied behind a campaign to secure a fund for the various institutions of our convention. We have completed a challenging crusade for our Baptist Orphans' Home, and the sum of more than $250,000 in cash was raised in four months. This amount was augmented by a special contribution of $100,000 from the Frank Phillips Foundation, thus making a total of approximately $350,000 in cash to be used for building, when the war is over, the finest Orphans' Home of its kind on the American continent. Our Baptist laymen, throughout the state, led in this huge task. Immediately, we take up a campaign to raise $750,000 for a Brotherhood Memorial Dormitory and other majestic buildings at Oklahoma Baptist University. The dormitory, dedicated to our Baptist laymen in this state, will cost at least $250,000. It will be a perpetual pillar of praise to our Brotherhoods! The Baptist men of this century have indeed a rendezvous with destiny. They are given the unbounded opportunity of marching with, and magnifying the Master. The meek and lowly Nazarene, the glorious Son of God, who loved men, and sought for them happy horizons in the earnest endeavor to enlist their souls, had an incomparable vision of the potentialities and power of their work. There is an immortality about our institutions that cannot be questioned. God has always called MEN when He was ready to begin a benedictive enterprise. The day has dawned for the laymen in our churches to arise and build!

In this day of unbounded and unprecedented prosperity, we have an opportunity to enlist our Baptist laymen in the high matter of rallying behind our institutions in a way they have not known or dreamed before. The fine men of our Brotherhood organizations can lead and lure untold thousands of dollars into the coffers of our unfinished and incomplete institutions and agencies, thus releasing the floodgates of liberality, wherein the golden stream will vitalize, enrich, refresh, and invigorate our constituency from every section of this fair state.

The Brotherhood will never reach the blessed goal which God has in mind for our men, if there is a tendency to centralize and localize their work. The commanding note in their battle cry must be, "Others, yes, others for Christ, everywhere!" When the Brotherhood becomes satisfied to confine their activities to the local front alone, the inertia of their inevitable state will prevent their doing the will of God. Those organizations that have died perished largely because their horizons were entirely too limited for God's sky. There is no desire to discount the glorious history of our Brotherhood movement. They have done well in the past. However, with this new idea propounded by Doctor Andrew Potter, our far-sighted and enterprising State Secretary of the Baptist General Convention, and so heartily approved by the entire State Board, that of merging the Brotherhood and the institutions, we now have a new channel through which definite blessings of delight will flow, and a generation as yet unborn will rise up to see the wisdom of the plan. What a fine opportunity for service presents itself now to the Brotherhood, in building and equipping the several institutions, so close and dear to the hearts of our people in this empire of the golden West. Many of our fine Baptist laymen in Oklahoma have it in their hearts to make a worthy and enduring offering for the preservation of our institutions, and if large and substantial gifts are ever made to our Cause, the laymen themselves will lead the way.

The eyes of the Southland are upon us as they study the reaction of our laymen to this momentous matter of our institutions, in which this state now pioneers. Our people are in for some grand thrills in the near future. Sums of money, far larger than we have ever known in our Baptist work in this state, will be announced from time to time. Our men are truly marching with the Master. We look down the road where the darkness will salute the dawn! A high noon is on the horizon of our endeavors, and we are going forward—just as our Lord would have us do.

We would like to recommend to our Baptist Brotherhood in this state that we fall in line with every movement fostered by those noble leaders of our men throughout the Southern Baptist Convention. Special attention should be given to the observance of Laymen's Day.

All of our laymen are definitely behind the Centennial Crusade and many of our Brotherhoods are winning now scores of souls to the Lord.

We have had three general state meetings, including the Brotherhood Convention last November, and the attendance of our men upon those sessions has been glorious to behold. Great associational meetings for men have been held all over Oklahoma during the past twelve months. At least one Brotherhood organization was born a week during the year. Men will respond to a real challenge, and the promotion, building, and destiny of our Baptist institutions found our laymen everywhere doing their best. They are behind this movement to make safe and secure those immortal enterprises that are held dear by the Baptists of this state.

The leadership in our associational and local Brotherhoods will be found aggressive in the highest sense of the word. Several other things have had the concern of our Baptist men during the past year. They are sponsoring a strong effort to enlist our churches and pastors in the Ministers' Retirement Plan, also to promote the largest possible attendance upon the midweek prayer services in our churches, and they have definite plans for keeping spiritually in touch with service men at home and overseas. Great stress is being laid upon practical Christianity in the local church, where men lead the way in enlisting those within the fold, as well as that teeming multitude of unchurched men who live on the rim of revelation, but, somehow, have never attended the house of God. We can truthfully say that prospects for our work were never brighter than now.

We urge that every Brotherhood loyally support the superb leadership of our State Secretary, Doctor Andrew Potter, and that we give unstinted devotion to that colossal task which is paramount in our esteem, the building of the several institutions in this state by prayer, purse, and power, looking forward to the time when the beneficent influence of our institutions will be so far extended that every human being within the domain shall be lifted, inspired, and blessed thereby. To this holy task we ask our Brotherhoods to dedicate their lives, ever looking unto God to crown our humble efforts with success, to the end that our joy may be known in the light of a new—and a more glorious day!

ELMER RIDGEWAY, Brotherhood and Institutional Secretary, Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma.

41. Educational Director, Virgil Mott, Shawnee, sang a solo, "In Shady Green Pastures."

Report of Centennial Program CommitteeOKLAHOMA BAPTISTS FORWARD*Dr. J. Howard Williams

Tulsa seems to be the place for epochal meetings of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma. In Tulsa, in 1933, our beloved Secretary made his first report and started the present program. In Tulsa, in 1940, a jubilee convention was held when it was announced that the burden of the debt was gone. And now, in Tulsa, in 1944, we have met in the hope of launching a program which will be historic in all the triumphant chapters of Oklahoma Baptist history. Victory in this program would make possible our returning to Tulsa in 1947 to celebrate the realization of the dream set out by Secretary Potter in 1940 in that marvelous address, "Seven Golden Years in Prospect".

In 1933 our Convention was in debt $500,000.00. The total income from all sources in that depression year was $120,000.00. During the ten years that followed, such progress was made that in the year 1943 our people gave the magnificent sum of $678,000.00 through Doctor Potter's office.

Southern Baptists are facing their Centennial year of 1945. In their Convention last May they suggested a greatly enlarged state and Southwide program of soul-winning, missions and benevolences, and stabilization and enlargement of our institutions during 1945. In view of this request the Board of Directors of our Convention authorized the appointment of a committee to set out a program by which Oklahoma Baptists could participate worthily in the Centennial Crusade launched by Southern Baptists. The Board requested that the Committee on the Unified Budget, of which Doctor Harold Graves is chairman, work with this committee and that its report be a part of and merged with this report.

Oklahoma Baptists are intensely evangelistic. Without any hesitation or reservation we recommend that we go into this Evangelistic Crusade of the Southern Baptist Convention in which Southern Baptists are challenged to win one million souls to Christ during 1945. Our beloved Doctor T. P. Haskins, on whose soul the fires of evangelism burn constantly, has been asked to lead in this evangelistic crusade in Oklahoma. This selection will meet with the instant approval of the entire state. We do not know our rightful portion of this great objective, but we are certain Oklahoma Baptists not only ought, but with eagerness will go full length in the great movement. It is a foregone conclusion that revivals will be held in all of the churches and we believe that every pastor and all other preachers within our Convention fellowship should be called upon to hold revivals in churchless communities, school houses, under brush arbors, and anywhere opportunity is afforded to preach.

After consultation with many brethren and in the consciousness that we live in a day of overwhelming opportunities we, your committee, prayerfully, but deliberately and in faith, recommend that Oklahoma Baptists set themselves to the raising of one million dollars in 1945. Our past experience in this state heartens us. Our present position of prevailing goodwill, fellowship and unity of purpose inspires us. The staggering obligation resting upon the shoulders of Christians in this tragic hour challenges us to do the unusual today.

We issue this challenge and offer this program because it will enable us to enlarge our current program of missions at home and abroad and to complete a million dollar building program for our institutions, suggested by our Secretary in 1940 in his historic address, "Seven Golden Years in Prospect".

Our Suggestion is that the over all financial goal be divided as follows:

I—For the Unified Budget $355,000.00

Three years ago we set as our goal for the Unified Budget $200,000.00 and actually raised several thousand more than that. Two years with a goal of $250,000.00 we raised $317,000.00. For 1944 our goal was raised to $308,000.00 and we believe we are going to overpay that. It is our belief that we can, and ought, to raise $355,000.00 for the Unified Budget to be distributed on the same plan as for the past several years.

II—Designated Gifts $245,000.00

Each year there are large numbers of designations to various items of our denominational program: Foreign Missions and Lottie Moon, Annie W. Armstrong, the Orphans' Home, the University, and Seminaries, etc. All of these designations, of course, go as designated and there is to be no deduction from any one of them, not for as much as postage.

III—Centennial Crusade $400,000.00

As indicated above, Southern Baptists have entered in a Centennial Crusade and suggest that a fund be raised for both state and Southwide causes. With a view to participating adequately in this movement, we recommend that a special offering be taken in the spring of 1945 to be divided one third for Southwide causes and two-thirds for building expansion at Oklahoma Baptist University.

The Centennial Evangelistic Crusade will be discussed at length in other papers and on other occasions in this Convention. The Southern Baptist portion of the special thank offering at the completion of one hundred years of glorious Southern Baptist history is to be divided on the basis of the present Southwide percentages—50% for foreign missions, 23½% for home missions, etc. This fund will greatly help in rehabilitating destroyed mission property on the foreign fields and in the general enlargement of our Southern Baptist work.

Secretary Potter in 1940, in his great message, "Seven Golden Years in Prospect", specified a number of things that should be done with and for our institutions. The buildings he suggested would cost about one million dollars and included the rebuilding of our Children's Home and the construction of three additional buildings on the campus at Oklahoma Baptist University. The Children's City is now under construction. Three buildings have been completed. The money is in hand to carry on that work to glorious completion. Doctor Potter envisioned, at Oklahoma Baptist University, a library building, a boys' dormitory to match the beautiful one constructed under the leadership of the women and chapel and fine arts building. From various friends and sources of income, money has been accumulating to provide all the buildings on the University campus at Shawnee. It is our belief that Oklahoma's part of the $400,000.00 plus the accumulated funds and monies expected from regular sources of income will enable us to complete this million dollar building program suggested by our Secretary four years ago.

A $400,000.00 Centennial Thank Offering presents a commanding challenge to Oklahoma Baptists. Through our regular processes we may, with confidence, expect the $355,000.00 for the Unified Budget, and the $245,000.00 in designations. The task on which we must center is the raising of $400,000.00 extra next spring. Though we are well able to do this, it will not be an easy task. It can be done if we leave this Convention with our hearts fixed on an all-out campaign to arouse Oklahoma Baptists in the spring of 1945. Our people will respond with joy in gratitude for one hundred years of glorious achievements in the realization that victory here will enable us to raise the million dollars in one year, thereby carrying on all of our regular work, re-enforcing our Southern Baptist program at home and to the ends of the earth, and providing funds to complete our million dollar construction program for our own Oklahoma institutions. That we may do this, we recommend:

1. The adoption of such a program by this Convention.
2. That the president of the Convention be authorized and instructed to appoint a committee of twenty-seven—nine pastors, nine laymen, nine women to carry out this program, it being understood that Governor Kerr shall serve as a member of the committee.
3. That Doctor Andrew Potter be requested to lead this movement, mobilizing all the agencies, institutions, and employees of the Convention to work with this committee, giving their fullest co-operation personally and focusing the work of all their departments and agencies toward the victorious completion of this commanding program. All the pastors and other church leaders and all the departments of our more than one thousand churches throughout the state will be needed in this great forward movement. It is our belief that we are well able to do this and there is deep confidence in our hearts that the time has arrived when Oklahoma Baptists will respond to an all-out and challenging program.

Surely there never has been a time when the world was more poignantly in need of the full orb'd Gospel of our Saviour. Evangelism and stewardship are the twin rails over which freight of the Kingdom of God must move. Both are in this program in bold relief. Victory in this enlarged program will assure larger participation in the full rounded work of the Kingdom and in the stabilization of all of our work, state and Southwide and world-wide for even greater victories in the future.

56. Mrs. H. B. Wilhoite, President of the State W. M. U., presented the following resolution: "Resolved, that we, the Woman's Missionary Union of Oklahoma, endorse the Centennial Program presented by Dr. Potter and pledge our whole hearted support toward the accomplishment of this goal."

57. Judge W. R. Wallace, Chairman of Special Laymen's Committee, presented the following resolution:

72. Reverend P. Boyd Smith, Central Church, Lawton, presented the Report of the Committee on Social Service and moved its adoption. Motion carried.

Social Service Report

Many and varied changes have taken place since Baptists met in 1943. The words of the hymn writer, "change and decay in all around I see," are not altogether applicable to our social structure but they are far more applicable than we could desire them to be. We make four observations for your consideration.

I. RACE RELATIONS

Christian Social Service embodies the matter of race relations. Peace and good-will among the races is the Christian ideal toward which Baptists should strive. The great crisis through which we are now passing in this global war makes it imperative for Baptists of all races to join hands for the reestablishment of good-will among some, and the continuance of good-will among all races.

It is encouraging to note the spirit of helpfulness existing between our pastors and Negro Baptist Pastors. Through the same spirit of helpfulness our people can, and should, help the Negro Race in their program of evangelism and aid them in giving their potential religious leaders a Christian education.

II. LOWERED STANDARDS OF CHRISTIAN LIVING

For several years special efforts have been made to lower standards of Christian living. The organized liquor traffic, modern methods of advertising, obscene reading material, moving pictures untrue to life and the appeal of tobacco dealers have made large contributions to lowering standards of Christian living.

The war in which we are now engaged has provided opportunity for many professors to lay aside standards of Christian living as a result of which they engage in orgies purely pagan. Not a few professors have lowered their standards of living in the name of patriotism and have justified themselves on the grounds of our country being in war.

Baptist people must rethink the matter of Christian standards, and pray as they think, that they shall rediscover them and give them place in daily living and make them a part of their church life.

III. DELINQUENT ADULTS AND GROWING CRIMINALITY OF YOUTH

We call attention to the sad plight of delinquency among adults. The present status of the American home is unstable. Fathers and mothers are going to beer taverns and attending cocktail parties while maids or neighbors keep their children or else they lock their small children in their cars while they attend such places and parties.

Moreover, there are fathers and mothers who are leaving the teaching and training of their children to school teachers. We thank God for our Christian school teachers and for their good work but not all school teachers are Christians. We believe that parents, who leave the training of their children to school teachers, are acting unwisely and are quite unfair to both teacher and child.

Crime is growing among the youth of our land. Those of us who care cannot help feeling tenderly with our young people. They have been overtaken with a multitude of evil influences that have misrepresented life.

Modern methods of advertising and trashy literature, both making appeals to the sex instinct, moving pictures with a false interpretation of life, and the appeal of liquor and tobacco dealers have been more than many immature untrained youth could withstand. We fear that we have lost a large part of one generation. Our people will do well to provide a greater program for the social life of our young people in our churches.

IV. LIQUOR

Our nation took a backward step in 1933 in the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment to our constitution. There is no greater foe to our economic, social, intellectual and religious life than the liquor traffic. Our Baptist people could learn a lesson on persistent effort by the example of liquor dealers in their advertising campaigns. We should be as persistent in teaching the deadly effects of liquor on those who drink, and just as persistent in marshalling our forces to outlaw the sale of liquor, as liquor dealers are to sell their products.

Boys and girls of teen age are forming the drink habit in drinking beer. The manufacture and sale of beer is only a feeder for the hard liquor industries. Baptist fathers and mothers are furnishing some of these boys and girls. We should set ourselves with unwavering determination to the task of outlawing the sale of 3.2 beer in Oklahoma.

In conclusion we suggest that our Baptist people establish family altars in their homes, that we declare afresh our unalterable opposition to the whole liquor traffic, whiskey, wine and beer, that we provide religious and other wholesome literature for our children. That we magnify the sanctity of home and the sacredness of the marriage vow. That we read our Bibles daily and pray God to lead us to greater achievements in the spread of His gospel.

73. Dr. N. D. Timmerman, Bartlesville, presented the report on World Peace.

74. Dr. Auguie Henry, First Baptist Church, McAlester, presented the report on Home Missions, and moved its adoption. Motion carried.

Home Mission Report

The Home Mission Board reports the greatest year in its long history for the amount of missionary work accomplished. At this time there are 514 missionaries in all departments of work. During the first nine months of 1944 the total receipts of the Home Mission Board amounted to $943,831.39, or an increase of $241,193.65 over the same period of 1943. Dr. J. B. Lawrence, our great Executive Secretary, has been ably assisted in the general executive work by the election of Dr. Courts Redford, an Oklahoman, as assistant executive secretary.

The great city mission program, inaugurated in 1942, has grown to where there are 36 of our cities participating, with every state of the Southern Baptist Convention territory represented. Eight states are co-operating with the rural mission program, which was inaugurated at the annual meeting of the Board in November 1943. The rural mission program is a co-operative program with state mission boards. Oklahoma has the distinction of being the first state to officially enter this program and during 1944 the Home Mission Board will have contributed $8,250.00 to this work.

In keeping with the action of the Southern Baptist Convention at Atlanta last May, the Home Board is doing city mission and rural mission work in California. Los Angeles, San Francisco, and San Diego are participating in the city mission program.

After the retirement of Dr. J. W. Beagle, who was field secretary for many years of Missions to the Indians, foreigners, and language groups, the Board has made a policy of electing a superintendent for each of the several departments of work with the Indians, foreigners, and language groups. Oklahoma's own Dr. J. B. Rounds was elected superintendent of the Indian work in July 1943. The program of the above mentioned groups has been enlarged during the past year.

There are over 1,000 Southern Baptist Chaplains in the armed forces of our country. Dr. Alfred Carpenter, another Oklahoman, heads the department of Chaplains. Southern Baptists have been asked to furnish a hundred additional Chaplains for the Navy, and fifty for the army, during this calendar year.

In addition to the work that is being done in the homeland, the Home Mission Board has 125 missionaries serving in Cuba and Central America.

The Home Mission Board is co-operating with all agencies of the Southern Baptist Convention in a great Centennial program in 1945. This Board has been given the responsibility by the Convention of promoting the Centennial evangelistic crusade. Dr. M. E. Dodd, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Shreveport, has been selected as director for the crusade. The church was not only gracious enough to give Dr. Dodd to the Denomination for the Centennial, but in addition they are paying his salary.

As the Board of Directors will make recommendations to this Convention relative to a comprehensive program of Oklahoma Baptists for the Centennial year, including the Home Mission Board, we will not offer any recommendations with this report.

75. The report was spoken to by Dr. Courts Redford, Assistant Executive Secretary, Home Mission Board.

76. The Committee on Historical Data was appointed as follows:

Porter Routh, Chairman
John T. Daniel
Anson Justice
J. B. Rounds

77. Dr. T. P. Haskins, State leader of the 1945 Centennial Evangelistic Campaign read the following telegram from Dr. M. E. Dodd:

Dr. T. P. Haskins:

May God give grace, guidance, and glory in your Convention with power and inspiration to win more souls during Centennial Year than ever. One Million souls is a titanic task challenging utmost consecration of everyone and every interest. Returning soldiers, spiritual life, Kingdom enterprises, our future requires that we win souls. M. Report of Oklahoma Baptist University

John W. Raley, President

As in all institutions of higher learning, events incident to the war have largely dominated the program at Oklahoma Baptist University during the past year. We have every reason for satisfaction in being one of the institutions selected for full participation in training personnel of the Army Air Forces, for in this way we have materially contributed to the war effort while maintaining a standard curricula for civilian students.

In enumerating the benefits accruing to the University from the military program the following may be listed:

1. Satisfaction in the knowledge that we have done our part in the war effort.

2. We have received wide and favorable advertising through the approximately 2,000 cadets, from all over the nation, trained on our campus.

3. We have been able to maintain a strong faculty.

4. Our plant has been enlarged and kept in good condition.

5. We have passed through, with no deficit, what will probably prove to be the most difficult period for colleges.

Now that the army program has closed all efforts are centered in strengthening the regular Christian Education program and in developing plans for the larger enrollment anticipated in the post war period.

REPORTS FOR THE PAST YEAR

I. Financial

No deficit, operating surplus sufficient to reconvert to civilian program including complete redecoration of Memorial Dormitory for occupancy by our girls in September. A detailed statement appears at the close of this report.

II. Enrollment

Regular session of 1943-44, 379; summer school, regular students, 135; Summer School for Preachers, 52; Workshop for Teachers, 7—total of 573 taking work for college credit; 1119 army students, making a grand total of 1692. Our enrollment at present is 410, a 30% increase over the first semester last year. From present indications we shall have a decided increase as soon as the war situation permits, and housing facilities for both men and women will become a serious problem.

III. Religious Activity Report

We had 111 ministerial students enrolled during the regular session with 25 enrolled during the summer, or a total of 136. The report of the Ministerial Alliance for the school year shows 524 conversions with 910 additions to the churches as a result of their efforts as pastors and evangelists, and 249,176 miles traveled in line of duty. Under the direction of the Baptist Student Union the students have secured 100% enlistment in local church membership for the past two years. The highlights for the past year have been the revival; the Training Union study course in which the goal of 200 was passed; and the Mission study course in which over 100 were enrolled. The standard requirements for First Magnitude B. S. U. were maintained.

IV. Plant Improvement

Among the plant improvements may be listed the purchase of three-fourths of a block on the corner of University and Kickapoo streets southeast of the campus. The tourist camp which was located on this area was moved to the campus proper and remodeled into efficiency apartments for married students. All units are now occupied.

The University acquired a building on Kickapoo Street to house the University Press. It became necessary to purchase additional equipment for the Press because of the multiplied increase in the circulation of the Baptist Messenger. We faced the issue of either giving up the Messenger or caring for it satisfactorily. We were able to purchase an automatic 5.0 Miehle press with Cross feeder. This press will guarantee increased service for the Baptist Messenger regardless of its growth in the future.

Other improvements of a minor nature have been made on the campus and plant.

V. Post War Plans

(1) We must re-state our aims. The purpose of the University is to provide a thoroughly trained leadership through sound educational methods.

Its College of Liberal Arts is organized to give the full content of the term liberal arts, embracing in its curriculum such courses as will provide the student with an understanding of the fields covered. By special arrangement with the Convention, provision has been made to guarantee sufficient library and laboratory facilities to give solid background for each course offered.

The College of Fine Arts is organized to discover and develop all those who have artistic talent or the desire for improvement in the artistic field. It has expanded its scope of activities to include every student who is interested in this field by making available class instruction in all the applied arts on the same financial basis as instruction in the College of Liberal Arts.

The University interprets its duty to prepare leadership for the cultural, scientific, and religious realms. Its methods and techniques are tested regularly with an effort to discard the obsolete and to accent those techniques which have proved effective in reaching the desired end.

(2) We must expand and revitalize our curriculum. During the war we were forced to alternate many courses, but now we must return to a full curriculum and maintain a complete schedule at all times. This will be particularly true in the immediate post war period because of the speed-up process introduced in education for the returning veterans.

(3) We must increase our staff. Several members of our faculty are on leave of absence in war work or in the armed services. It is likely that a number of these will be released by the beginning of the next school year. Also we may find it necessary to increase the total number in some departments; for example, at the present time the College of Fine Arts is in need of two additional instructors.

(4) We must complete the basic library and laboratory equipment program. Our physics department is now exceptionally well equipped because of the purchase of supplies and equipment used by the Army Air Forces. This will release funds for the biology laboratory and for additional library books. Our library is rapidly meeting requirements established for liberal arts colleges. The equipment in our laboratories will soon match the improved conditions of the library. One decided improvement is the greenhouse provided by the 1944 senior class as their memorial.

(5) We must construct three units proposed for the greater B. B. U. as rapidly as possible. These include: the library and art center, the dormitory for men, and the fine arts center and chapel. Money is on hand for the construction of the library and art center. It is expected that the Convention in this session provide money for the men's dormitory and launch a campaign for funds to construct the fine arts center and chapel. Given these buildings, Oklahoma Baptist University will be in a position to serve the needs of a student body of approximately 1200.

(6) We must inaugurate a permanent system of maintaining contact with prospective students. In addition to the work of the pastor in continually holding the ideal of Christian Education before his group and the service of others closely associated with him in church organizations, we have felt that our program would be strengthened if we had an outstanding leader in each church, man or woman, to serve as O. B. U. consultant. This consultant will work with the pastor, the Christian Education chairman of the Woman's Missionary Union, the directors of the Intermediate and Senior B. T. U. groups, and with the superintendents of the Intermediate and Senior departments of the Sunday school in keeping O. B. U. before all the young people of the church. We expect these consultants to secure prospect lists for the University and to serve as consultant or advisor to these young people regarding their college career. In cases where worthy students may be found with insufficient funds, we shall expect the consultant to help find funds locally to provide scholarships. We hope to secure a consultant in every church in Oklahoma who will take this responsibility as a major Kingdom task.

The task is to establish Christian Education as a basic need for post war leaders in the thinking of every pastor, every Baptist church, and every Baptist father and mother. Our conviction is that O. B. U. was founded and will succeed because of that need. To arouse our churches to a full realization of their importance is our main job. The responsibility of the University is to provide complete and adequate education and training; the responsibility of the churches is to provide the students. The opportunity is her. The obligation is ours.

Minco, Oklahoma, November 16, 1944

Members of the Convention:

I am indebted to the program committee for an opportunity to address a brief message on our mission work. Our Lord states to the disciples shortly before he left the world, "On this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hell shall not prevail against it". The closing words of Matthew's Gospel commissioned His disciples to propagate the Gospel among all nations. Baptists have taken special interest in executing this commission. Virgil says in the Aeneid, "Forsan et heick meminissa juvavet". Translated it means, "Perhaps it will be pleasant to remember these things hereafter". It is chiefly of memories of observation and experiences during the past century about which I must speak. Modern missions were opened by a meeting of Baptists at Kettering, England, when Andrew Fuller preached the sermon which awakened special interest in mission work. In an impassioned utterance Fuller said, "We seem to have discovered a gold mine down in India. Who will go down and open it up for us?" William Carey, a devout Bible student, arose in his place and said, "I will go down if you will hold the ropes". The mission was undertaken and Carey's service was remarkably fruitful in opening Gospel work in India.

A few years later, Adoniram Judson offered his services to the American Baptist Missionary Union and he was sent to Burma, where he planted Gospel seed which has revolutionized that great heathen empire. All our churches along the Atlantic coast shared in the Judson mission. In 1845 the South organized the Southern Baptist Convention with boards at Richmond, Atlanta, and Nashville. We have thus enlarged and extended our missionary service to the greater part of the world.

Dr. Clough was home for a brief rest in 1873 and returning to his field took with him Mr. Drake, one of my classmates who had just graduated in Chicago. Drake was assigned to the work of directing the native Tellegon Christians, and soon after reported ten thousand converts as the result of a single year's work.

In 1876, President Cook of La Grange College was in the East, and as acting president, I sent out a fine class of students of which Flora Lightfoot was a graduate. Flora desired to enter foreign mission service and sought my aid in obtaining her appointment by the Richmond board. She was sent to China where she became a popular teacher. Later she became the wife of Dr. Lord, then head of the China Mission and they carried on our mission enterprises with success in that Oriental empire until the doctor's death. In 1879 I was sent as Baptist representative to Europe for the celebration of the International Sunday School work and the dedication of a bronze statue in honor of Robert Raikes as the founder of modern Sunday schools.

Returning from London, I was chosen president of a college in Colorado, and had for a time associated with the institution Dr. Palmer, former president of Franklin College of Indiana. The doctor had accepted the general missionary work of the mission board at New York in the West and was carrying on successfully for a time, but his health again calling for a change of climate, he resigned and went out to California. The home board asked the Rocky Mountain Union to look after their interests until a successor could be secured for Palmer's work. As president of our convention, I took up the work and during several years I preached Sundays over the field covering Colorado, Wyoming, Utah, and New Mexico. Churches were built and dedicated to the worship of God. Mission stations were planted in various parts of our field and occasional revival meetings held. This work, added to my duties as college president, overtaxed my physical strength and I took a leave of absence, traveling and serving as guest preacher in Bay City and Matquette.

Meanwhile I found it to the interests of my family to return to St. Louis, and devoted the Sabbaths to preaching while I served as Treasurer of the Home and Foreign Mission Board of Missouri. Dr. Breaker, our Corresponding Solicitor, held office with me in the city, and he traveled constantly over the state, preaching and collecting funds for all our national boards. We were meeting with gratifying results when wars began to invade our foreign mission fields and interrupted much of our work. The centennial of our foreign work of the Missionary Society occurring at this time, a Centennial Committee was appointed to prepare a program of service for the year 1891 and undertake a large collection of funds. The committee met in the Judson Memorial Church in New York and planned an active campaign with Dr. Mabie of the Missionary Society as leader. Some one suggested the raising of a million dollars. The motto of Carey came to our assistance, and we wrote down a million as our goal, appointed Dr. Mabie leader of the Centennial Campaign, and took up our task. Before adjournment, I thought it opportune for a joint meeting of the representatives of the two Conventions to meet in Washington during the year in a fraternal meeting, as all our churches were in the original Judson mission. I moved the appointment of a courteous session. Dr. Boardman, stepson of Judson, was made chairman and myself secretary. The doctor requested me to take up the correspondence at once. The meeting was held and Dr. Mabie reported to me that it was a very pleasant and profitable gathering of the people of our common purposes to glorify God.

The Convention met in Denver the following May. Our Centennial Committee made their report, which was enthusiastically accepted. We had raised the million dollars and an additional sum of ten thousand dollars.

The Spanish War broke in upon us and that altruistic war caused serious trouble in Mexico, Cuba, and the Philippine Islands. Then came the World War with agencies to destroy our civilization and overthrow the activities of the church. Circumstances made it seem necessary for my family to come out into the West on land I had purchased from the government and rest awhile from the strenuous years of life's labor. Less than a decade ago I transferred my church membership from the Second Church of St. Louis to the First Church of Chickasha. Here I have been associated with two of the noblest missionary pastors I have known. Dr. Criswell sponsored the election of Charles W. Knight, a fine young man just graduated from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and under appointment by the Richmond Board to our mission in Nigeria, Africa. Knight became our church missionary receiving his salary from our church. His work has been very creditable to the church and fruitful in the salvation of the people on the field of his labor. During Dr. Graves' pastorate, he has sponsored the election of Joe and Oleta Townsend, under appointment by the Richmond Board to our mission in China. They go abroad as our church missionaries and will receive their support from our mission fund. Besides these, there has been a growing interest in the support of our whole mission program.

This war is near the end, and when its clouds lift over that oriental nation, our missionaries will be there to preach Christ to the people. Just as surely as the storm over Galilee silences under the command of the Lord, so will this storm of war be silenced when Jesus, who has all power in Heaven and earth, commands peace. I seem almost to hear a voice now speaking, "Let the war drums cease their throbbing, and the battle flags be furled, on the parliament of nations, the federation of the world".

Honorary Associate Pastor, First Baptist Church, Chickasha, Okla., and 100 years old December 18, 1943

87. Motion made by Dr. Potter, that the Secretary of the Convention be instructed to send a fitting message to Dr. Sawyer. Carried by common consent.

88. Report of American Bible Society given by Dr. J. W. Storer. Moved and adopted.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY REPORT

Southern Baptist gifts to the American Bible Society for its work of translation, publication and worldwide distribution of the Scriptures, help to supply the Word of God for every man in his own native language.

As a missionary non-profit organization, the Bible Society regularly sells at less than cost the Scriptures used on Foreign Mission fields because most people living on the low income levels prevailing in mission lands are not able to pay even the production cost of a Gospel portion. In case of a special need the Scriptures are given without charge. But they are usually sold because people appreciate and read with greater interest the books in which they make a personal investment, even though they are not able to pay more than a small fraction of the cost. The difference is met by continual gifts to the Bible Society from Bible-loving and missionary-minded Christian people.

Last year the American Bible Society distribution reached almost 10 million volumes. Although war conditions have restricted circulation in many lands, the total work done by the American Bible Society has increased. The Society is carrying on for the war-crippled Bible societies of Europe some regular work which they could not continue and war emergency projects which they could not attempt.

Gifts to the regular work have helped to supply Scriptures in many languages without profit and often below cost, for mission work around the globe, including Scriptures for the blind in systems of raised letters which are read with the fingers.

Gifts to the war emergency work have helped to: (1) Provide New Testaments and other Scriptures for the Armed Forces, including Testaments in waterproof containers for liferafts and lifeboats; (2) Send Scriptures in more than 38 languages for War Prisoners and Refugees; (3) Prepare large quantities of Scriptures, in languages of various countries, for immediate post-war distribution to needy people in the war areas before publication in those countries can be resumed to any extent.

The American Bible Society is grateful for steadily increasing contributions from Southern Baptist churches which demonstrate that they recognize this work as an integral part of their own regular program of world-wide missions. In several states, Baptist churches have made contributions in accordance with plans arranged by the state conventions. An increasing number of churches have included the Society in their regular budgets.

These needs which Southern Baptist gifts have helped to supply can be expected to continue and to increase. As one by one the closed doors of Europe and Asia swing open and our government sends food and other relief supplies, Bible-loving Christians in America dare not fail to send to those same people the Bread of Life to satisfy the hunger of men's souls. Supplying these emergency needs for Scriptures is a necessary first step for missionary advance in the post-war world.

Because Southern Baptists so strongly believe in the necessity of Scripture distribution, the American Bible Society confidently looks to Southern Baptists for whatever increased support may be required to meet the demands and opportunities for missionary advance in the post-war world.

WHEREAS, this Convention has already recognized the essential world-wide service rendered by the American Bible Society in its missionary non-profit work of translation, publication and distribution of the Scriptures without note or comment, and has commended this work to the interest and financial support of our churches and our people, and

WHEREAS, the American Bible Society today, in addition to the regular work of supplying Scriptures for World-wide Missions, is also (1) providing New Testaments and other Scriptures for our Armed Forces, (2) supplying the Word of God in many languages for War Prisoners and Refugees and (3) preparing now to send large quantities of Scriptures to needy people in the war areas as soon as those lands are set free,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that we earnestly request our churches and our people to make contributions to the work of the American Bible Society and to provide for the continued support of this essential missionary work by gifts which will adequately represent our historic Baptist convictions regarding the primary importance of the Scriptures and the necessity for their widespread circulation throughout the world.

Adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in session at Atlanta, Georgia, May 17, 1944.

92. The time allotted to the Seminaries was placed in charge of Dr. Ray Summers, Southwestern Seminary of Fort Worth, Texas. Dr. A. E. Tibbs, Baptist Bible Institute, New Orleans, was introduced. Dr. Summers addressed the Convention.

93. Dr. N. M. Stigler, Blackwell, conducted the Memorial Service calling attention to some of our brethren who have passed to their reward during the past year.

Our Honored Dead

Since the last meeting of our Convention, one year ago, a large number of our members have silently slipped away from us to be at home with the Lord.

"What must it be to step on shore and find it heaven—
To take hold of a hand and find it God's hand?
To breathe a new air and find it celestial air—
To feel invigorated and find it immortality—
To arise from the care and turmoil of life into one unbroken calm,
To wake up and find it glory!"

It is not possible to call the roll and give the names of them all, though many of us feel a deep personal loss. Some of them were as dear to some of us as life itself.

We mention by name only the following: Dr. R. C. Miller, who served faithfully and efficiently for three years as President of our General Convention. He was pastor for many years of some of our greatest churches. Dr. Miller was a mighty preacher of God's Word, a leader in denominational life, a friend of man and a true servant of God. Also Rev. G. H. Stigler, who recently passed on to his reward after more than fifty years in the Baptist ministry and some seventeen years as pastor in Sand Springs.

Of the 94 Oklahoma men serving as chaplains in the present war, two of them have given their lives to their country and to God. These are Reverend Percy E. Haley of Walters, and Reverend A. E. Teem of Oklahoma. We truly thank God for their lives of devotion, even unto death.

May the God of heaven comfort our hearts and encourage us all to be faithful to Him who loved us and redeemed us.

"What are they doing in heaven today,
Where sin and its sorrow are all washed away,
There peace like a river flows ever, they say,
O what are they doing today?"

Report of Resolutions Committee

The committee on resolutions appointed by Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma meeting at Tulsa, Oklahoma, November 14-16, 1944, wishes to bring the report:

Two resolutions have been brought to the committee. The first has to do with a memorial to the legislature asking for a change in the present law relating to common law marriages. We refer this to the committee on social service for further study. The second resolution has to do with a proposal for a standing committee on social service with a request that funds be allocated by the Board of Directors. Since this proposal does not comply with Article VI of the By-Laws and Constitution regarding the introduction of new agencies and the expenditure of funds, we suggest that it be submitted at later date to comply with these By-Laws.

We do desire to make the following recommendations:

(1) That we express our gratitude to God for His goodness to us and for the privilege we have to be His servants and to carry on His work.

(2) That we express our thanks to Dr. J. W. Storer and the First Baptist Church of Tulsa for the use of the facilities of the church during the Convention period. We are especially thankful to Mr. Wyatt, the efficient caretaker of the First Baptist Church for the service he has unselfishly given.

(3) That we express appreciation to all of the churches of Tulsa for providing homes and to the hotels for providing as many rooms as possible.

(4) That we express appreciation to the Tulsa Tribune and the Tulsa World for the excellent publicity given the meeting.

(5) That we express appreciation to the program committee and those who appeared on the program; to Dr. Andrew Potter, the executive secretary; and to Governor Robert S. Kerr, the president of the Convention, for their part in keeping the program on time.

(6) That we look forward to the Centennial Program with prevailing prayer and a genuine and humble repentance for our many short comings; that we immediately call the Baptists of Oklahoma to a great evangelistic effort with the realization that peace will come on this earth only when men know the "Prince of Peace".

(7) That we express confidence in all of our Baptist institutions in Oklahoma and around the world and in those men who are giving of their time and talents in the leadership of these institutions.

(8) That we express our thanks to Mr. R. A. Lemen for his challenging gift to Foreign Missions made during the past few weeks; and to Judge R. A. Billups for his unselfish service without material compensation in serving as attorney for the Baptist General Convention and representing the Convention in the probating of wills and estates. More than $10,000 has come to the Baptist Orphans Home through the work of Judge Billups during the past few weeks and many thousands have been realized in the years he has served.

JOHN T. DANIEL, Recording Secretary

Report of the Board of Directors

"Blessed be the Lord, who daily loadeth us with benefits, even the God of our salvation"—Ps. 68:19.

"Bless the Lord, O my souls, and forget not all his benefits"—Ps. 103:2.

"What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me?"—Ps. 116:12.

There are no bounds to our gratitude for God's increasing favor upon our work. We have made steady and substantial progress. Eleven years ago in Tulsa we began to throw off the shackles of debt and depression. We have come a long way since the Convention which met in Tulsa in 1933. Our Baptist work has gone forward during this period under the most trying conditions the world has faced in two generations. It has been a time of great anxiety and discontent, as well as a time of preparation for War, which finally plunged the civilized world into the most terrible and bloody conflict in the history of mankind. Surely, if Oklahoma Baptists ever faced a day when we need clear thinking, it is now. The world is in turmoil, the future is most uncertain, hearts are heavy as casualty lists grow daily. Death is striking at almost every home and heart; the world is full of sin and sorrow, and needs salvation. These dark days of discouragement should be accepted as a challenge to all who believe in the God of our fathers.

Our world today is not the world of yesterday, but amid all the changes there is one thing which has not been changed; namely, the need of the human heart for regeneration by the power of God. "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever."

In spite of the tumult and turmoil of the world, we are happy to report that the Associations show decided increases in both gifts and baptisms over the previous year. The churches are in a healthy and prosperous condition. Our institutions are making progress. The increase in baptisms has been the most heartening sign of the time. More money is not real success unless it is attended by an increase in moral and spiritual results. Offerings have increased in practically every church, but we must remember that the most precious things in life cannot be bought with money. We must keep our spiritual lives aglow in this day of greed, hate, selfishness, and sin.

The Great Commission is our marching order. The message of Christ and the spirit of Christ is needed the world around. The doors of opportunity will open soon on every continent and isle of the sea. Men of every race, kindred, and tongue will, like Macedonia, beckon us to come over and help. This is the day to look ahead and plan for the future progress of the Kingdom of Christ. Surely, this is the day for Baptists: a day in which to build strong institutions, revitalize our churches, call our membership to prayer and faithfulness, and seek to preach the Gospel to the people everywhere. Especially, should we set our hands to the task of proclaiming the Gospel of Christ within the bounds of our own commonwealth.

UNIFIED BUDGET

One of the surest ways to get members of the churches interested in the work of the Kingdom of God is to lead them to see the bigness of the task of missions around the world. Service and soul winning are Siamese twins; they march together. In its essence, the Unified Budget is merely a means provided for us to express our interest and concern, and to make our contributions toward pointing the world to Christ.

The Unified Budget means feeding, clothing, and sheltering orphan children; it means preaching the Gospel to the uttermost parts of the earth; it means providing Christian education for young people; it means furnishing Christian hospitals in which doctors and nurses can perform their ministry of healing; it means supporting a war against Satan and Sin to the ends of the earth.

The Unified Budget goal set up by the Convention last year was $308,575, which was the sum total of all the goals adopted by the thirty-three associations. The cash receipts from January 1, 1944, to October 31, 1944, are $302,230.49. It would seem, therefore, at the present rate of giving through the Unified Budget that the next two months will bring us well beyond the amount set out as our objective for the next year. This is the largest amount ever given to missions in one year by Oklahoma Baptists.

We recommend a Unified Budget of $355,000 for 1945, the funds to be divided on the following basis:

1. To the Co-operative program, as a first preferred item on the same percentage as heretofore, $96,000: (This $96,000 is our working budget out of which all expenses will be paid. This amount to be divided on a sixty-forty basis):

2. That $34,000 go to Oklahoma Baptist University (in lieu of endowment) and Ministers Retirement Plan:
3. That $25,000 go to the building of the boys' dormitory at Oklahoma Baptist University:
4. That the balance of $200,000, if raised, be divided fifty-fifty between State and Southwide causes with nothing deducted therefrom.

The above plan would provide a substantial amount for State and Southwide causes from the $96,000; would provide the current expenses for the University which has no endowment; would furnish $25,000 for building the boys' dormitory; and would, in addition, provide $100,000 each for State and Southwide causes.

STATE MISSIONS

The State of Oklahoma covers 69,414 square miles. There are seventy-seven counties which are grouped into thirty-three associations for convenience and efficiency in our Baptist work. In 1940 there were 2,336,434 people living in Oklahoma; a cosmopolitan population, a melting pot of the nation. Out of this heterogeneous citizenship is growing a great Baptist empire. Within the past decade our membership has increased approximately 100,000—today Oklahoma Baptists are 265,000 strong. Figures provided by the Government reveal Baptist constituency in round numbers to be one third the church membership of Oklahoma. What a responsibility this places upon the Baptist people! The commonwealth of Oklahoma will in a large measure become what the Baptists make it. How important that we have a vital religious faith! Progress is being made each year in enlisting our churches in world-wide missionary endeavor.

Our Lord and Master said, "Go ye therefore and teach all nations baptizing them in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Ghost; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world."

Every activity of Oklahoma Baptists should be centered around winning the lost. Christ came to seek and to save that which was lost. Let us join Southern Baptists in the holy task of winning a million souls for Christ in 1945. If we win our proportionate share of this million souls it will mean Oklahoma Baptists will win three times as many in one year as ever before in our history. This is a glorious task and a challenge worthy of our best effort. "He that winneth souls is wise."

RURAL WORK

Never have Oklahoma Baptists had a greater challenge to serve and help country churches than they have today. The rural church is, in a very real sense, a problem of the whole denomination. Oklahoma Baptists, in co-operation with the Home Mission Board, have begun an extensive Rural Church program. Sam W. Scantlan is Superintendent of Rural Missions, and working with him are six other fine men located in strategic places throughout the State. These missionaries are jointly supported by the State and Home Mission Boards. All of these men are doing most excellent work with the Rural Churches of Oklahoma.

Oklahoma Baptists also have twenty-three associational missionaries who are doing a great work in the rural communities in the State. These men are due much credit for the spiritual progress of Oklahoma churches. They assist in erecting church buildings, conducting revivals, and baptizing multitudes of people each year.

There is a great field open to those who wish to consecrate their lives to the development of the rural church. Soil erosion and the breaking up of many country community centers have wrought havoc with our country churches. The State and Home Mission Boards should in dead earnestness set their hands to the holy task of revitalizing the multitude of country churches that are living at a poor dying rate.

Oklahoma Baptists have an obligation to the rural churches. The greatest need in this field is trained resident pastors. Our Baptist colleges and seminaries should devote more attention to this great problem that is vitally affecting our spiritual life. We sincerely urge our people to give serious concern to the problem of the country church. Most of our leadership comes from the country. Let us put the country church on our prayer list.

We should, as soon as practical, set aside a substantial amount from State Missions funds for the purpose of assisting country churches in erecting suitable houses of worship. We should give every encouragement and help to our consecrated Superintendent of Rural Missions, Brother Sam W. Scantlan, to his corps of district missionaries, and to the large group of associational missionaries who are rendering such a vital service to our denomination.

ASSOCIATIONAL MODERATORS

The district association is a vital unit in our State work. We have thirty-three associations, most of them well organized and doing effective work under the direction of the moderators and missionaries. The moderators give their time and energy to the great task of enlisting the churches in every kingdom enterprise. To all intents and purposes, the moderators of the various associations become an assistant to the Executive Secretary in promoting the work of Oklahoma Baptists. The annual associational meetings and the monthly workers conferences are general meetings of great effectiveness and force in the promotion of the work of the State and Southern Baptist Convention.

OUR CHURCHES

The Great Commission was given to the churches—not to the State Convention nor to the Southern Baptist Convention. It is the business of every church to help spread the Gospel to the ends of the earth. No church can carry out the Great Commission alone. Churches must work together. We have long since learned "As go the churches, so goes the work of our Convention". We are happy to report that a multitude of our churches are getting out of debt. Many of them are creating a post-war building fund by purchase of bonds. Scores of them are having increases in baptisms. Some have increased their gifts to missions and a few are reaching a fifty-fifty division of funds between local and missionary enterprises.

DEPARTMENT LEADERS

The teaching and training department of the Baptist General Convention, under the leadership of E. W. Westmoreland, General Secretary, works with all the Sunday schools and Training Unions of the State in an effort to help reach more people and to do better teaching. The Sunday school and Training Union organizations form a miniature Christian college in every church with Christ as the center of the curriculum.

Brother Westmoreland's corps of full time workers are: Jack Gritz, Assistant Secretary; Sophia Duerksen, Young People's Leader; Mrs. J. W. Barron, Junior Leader; and Dorothy Sneed, Office Secretary.

Approved workers are: Mrs. C. E. Wilbanks, Intermediate; Mrs. Waymen Hiner, Primary Sunday School and Intermediate B. T. U.; Mrs. Walter Crowder, Beginner; and Mrs. G. H. Caudill, Cradle Roll.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

We have 1019 Sunday schools with an enrollment of 156,652. From April 1, 1943, to April 1, 1944, 9,171 Teacher Training Awards were earned by Sunday school workers, which ranks Oklahoma fifth among the Southern states in the number of awards issued during the last year. No state in the Southern Baptist Convention with a membership of less than 429,000 had more awards than Oklahoma.

Oklahoma stands high in Sunday school standardization: Fifth in number of Standard Adult classes with a total number of 17 classes; Fifteen standard Young People's classes ties us with Texas for first place; Third place in Standard Intermediate departments with a total number of 9, and third in number of standard Intermediate classes with 85; Second in standard Junior departments with 14, and second to Texas in standard Junior classes, with a total number of 41; Second to Texas in standard Primary departments with a total number of 9; and a tie for first place with Florida and Georgia with 4 standard Cradle Roll departments.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

Our country's call to the young men and women has not only taken thousands of our finest students, but also many of our most faithful student secretaries leaving a number of vacancies. Because of the accelerated courses and the quick turn-over of student bodies, it has been exceedingly difficult to maintain effective student leadership on the campuses, but despite these difficulties, we have been able to maintain an aggressive B. S. U. on practically all of our college campuses. The Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma is helping to pay the salaries of five full time Student Secretaries, one on each of the following campuses: University of Oklahoma, Norman; Oklahoma A. & M., Stillwater; Central State Teachers, Edmond; Baptist Hospital, Muskogee; and Northeastern State Teachers College, Tahlequah. Despite gasoline rationing and the difficulties of travel, our State Baptist Student Union Retreat and State Baptist Union Convention were well attended.

BROTHERHOOD AND INSTITUTIONAL WORK

Dr. Elmer Ridgeway, Brotherhood and Institutional Secretary, is making a fine contribution as leader of our men. There is an awakened interest among the laymen. Brotherhood meetings, both in churches and associations, bring together large groups of men to pray and plan their work. Such meetings as these, together with increased activities among our men in the local churches foretell a new and better day in the advancement of Kingdom interests.

Dr. Ridgeway is responsible also for the enlistment of donors for the buildings so sorely needed by our own institutions. Those who are interested in giving money for memorial buildings should get in touch with Dr. Ridgeway. He has traveled thousands of miles in the interest of our institutions.

Let us pray for our men, and their Secretary, that their contribution to Christ's cause may be greater in the next decade than ever before.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

The women of Oklahoma were honored by being hostesses to the first annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union, auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention, held separate from the Convention itself. Mrs. Berta K. Spooner and Mrs. H. B. Wilhoite led Oklahoma women in the arrangements and praise was heard on every hand for their work.

The W. M. U. has always remained true to the cause of missions. Multitudes of women have been led into a larger life of service through the organized work of the W. M. U. Giving has always been stressed and Oklahoma Baptist women have given freely to all causes, but especially have their gifts been liberal to the Lottie Moon Christmas offering and to the Annie W. Armstrong offering.

It is with a deep sense of gratitude that we acknowledge our obligations to the missionary-minded women of Oklahoma, who have been so generous in their contributions. Woman's Missionary Union has rendered an invaluable service to the work of Oklahoma Baptists and we express to them our gratitude for their fine work.

BAPTIST MESSENGER

The year 1944 marks the one hundredth anniversary of the publication of the first Baptist paper in the territory now known as "Oklahoma". The Cherokee Messenger was first published in 1844. Since that time many Baptist papers have been printed; from the list has grown our own state paper, the Baptist Messenger.

No doubt much credit for the outstanding success Oklahoma Baptists have had this year is due to the Baptist Messenger. The circulation has been increased to more than 32,500, which means more Baptists are informed on denominational activities than ever before. We are proud of the record Mr. Routh has made during this, his first year, as Editor.

Mr. Routh is well trained in the field of religious journalism and has shown exceptional ability in editorial writing and in the promotion of every phase of the paper. The high standard set by Dr. E. C. Routh has been maintained and even enhanced by his son, Porter, to the degree that our Editor this year received Southwide recognition, having been elected Secretary-Treasurer of the Southern Baptist Press Association.

The Baptist Messenger acquaints its readers with every phase dear to Baptists: missions, Christian education, and benevolent institutions, as well as denominational information and spiritual guidance. Every Baptist should have the Messenger on the "must read" list.

Many churches are using the Messenger as a church paper with from one to four pages of local news. The Messenger can be placed in the church budget and sent to every home for only two cents per copy per week. To those churches taking advantage of this low budget rate, the Baptist Messenger has become a welcome member of each home. I would earnestly urge every church in our State to include the Baptist Messenger in your church budget. It is being proved over and over again that the churches where the Messenger is read, are, without exception, liberal supporters of every phase of our denominational life because they are the best informed.

BAPTIST BOOK STORE

The Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention owns and operates the Baptist Book Store located at 223 West First Street, Oklahoma City, with Mr. H. Killingsworth, Manager. The store is rendering great service in furnishing all types of valuable books and helps for every phase of church work. The Baptist Book Store in Oklahoma City is one of the best book stores in the South. Get in touch with the Baptist Book Store for good books and literature.

BAPTIST ORPHANS' HOME

The Baptist Orphans' Home is an institution close to the heart of Oklahoma Baptists. It was founded by J. A. Scott forty-two years ago and has grown in affection and favor of our people from the beginning. Even in the remote corners of the state, the people know about and love the Orphans' Home.

1944 has been the big year for the Baptist Orphans's Home. The Frank Phillips gift of $100,000, conditioned upon our raising $150,000, gave inspiration and enthusiasm to the Orphans' Home campaign and created an atmosphere conducive of success.

We raised the $150,000 to match the Phillips gift. To date we have received approximately $350,000, including the Phillips gift, and most of this money is in Government War Bonds to be used in the erection of the new buildings when priorities are lifted and a construction program is possible. Preliminary plans are being studied by a committee and we are anxiously looking forward to the day when this great modern plant can be erected, adequate for the care of almost twice the number now in our home.

In 1940 we purchased 160 acres of land on which to put our dairy. We have since purchased three additional quarters, and this gives us a section on which to expand our farm project. C. E. Goatcher has been employed as farm supervisor, and he is outlining a program that will make the farm profitable and productive.

Already our home population is increasing due to casualties in this war. It is our earnest hope to build soon so we may be ready to take care of the helpless, homeless, children whose fathers may not return from the battlefield.

The management of the home is superb. H. Truman Maxey, resident manager, is growing daily in the affection of the people of the state. He is doing an excellent job of guiding the destiny of this institution. Associated with him in this great work is Mrs. Gladys Dicken, head matron, whose background of culture and whose charming personality fits and qualifies her for the important position she occupies. All the workers at the home are above the average in the positions they fill. The orphanage has a real home atmosphere, and its management and direction creates ambition in the children to make the most out of their lives.

We are proud of the products of our home. Sixty-two of our boys and one girl are now serving in the armed forces; two, Albert Steele and Harry Scott, have sacrificed their lives for their country; another, Lt. Ben McInturff, was shot down over Roumania and for five months was a prisoner of Germany, but has recently been liberated and returned home. We are proud of the contribution made to the war effort by our Orphans' Home.

OKLAHOMA BAPTIST UNIVERSITY

Oklahoma Baptist University is the center of Christian Education in Oklahoma Education, to meet the demands of this hour of crisis, needs to be Christ-centered to be complete. Christ must be elevated in the science and economics classroom, as well as in the chapel. Dr. John W. Raley has won the confidence of Oklahoma Baptists through his constructive leadership, and the entire program at the University has been stabilized under his administration. The Convention continues to supply $34,000 each year for the operating expenses of the school. This is equivalent to more than a million dollars endowment, and is, I think, the largest amount designated for one school by the Baptist convention of any state in the Southern Baptist Convention.

Education is the process by which we learn to interpret life. It is the development of personality for complete living. In the broad sense, education includes all the knowledge and culture we acquire from the cradle to the grave. In the more limited and more frequently used sense, it is the knowledge and culture acquired in school. In either sense it is essential that education be broad and deep if life is to be lived at its highest and best. Ignorance is everywhere and always the ally of vice and not virtue. Education is necessary to good citizenship, either in the kingdom of this world, or in the Kingdom of God. If education is of the right type it sends men and women out into the world to assume the responsibility of life with broader sympathies and kindlier dispositions, with quickened understanding, and readier hands to serve those about them.

If O. B. U. is to be continued and make a worthwhile contribution to our denominational life, and to the on-going of the Kingdom of God, it must be given adequate financial support, provided with buildings, and equipment, kept free from the strangulation of excessive debt, and finally adequately endowed.

FALLS CREEK

Our Falls Creek Baptist Assembly has been a war casualty for the last two years. It has been impossible to conduct our annual Assembly. However, the grounds have been used almost continuously throughout the summer months.

Sam W. Scantlan has been named Manager, and, with the splendid work of caretaker, E. P. Edwards, the grounds and buildings are in fairly good condition.

In the not too far distant future Oklahoma Baptists must spend some money at the Assembly grounds. A new hotel should be built and a new water system installed in order that all of our buildings can be made modern and up to date. Falls Creek has become an institution among Oklahoma Baptists and we must take pride in building a bigger and better Assembly each year.

We plan to have a great assembly in 1945, and recommend that each cottage be put in good repair as soon as possible.

OKLAHOMA BAPTIST CHAPLAINS

Ninety-two of our Oklahoma Baptist pastors have answered the call to the colors and are now serving around the world in every theater of war. Thousands of soldiers have accepted Christ as Savior on the battlefronts as these brave chaplains have preached the Gospel. Two of our pastors, A. E. Teem and Percy E. Haley, have paid the supreme price. They died at the post of duty.

Eternity alone will tell the real value of our Service chaplains. Those of us who are not privileged to go into the service of our country must give a good account of our stewardship at home, and pray that God will use these fine chaplains to extend His Kingdom around the world.

MINISTERS RETIREMENT PLAN

One of the most important decisions Oklahoma Baptists have made in many years has been arranging for their pastors, missionaries, and chaplains to enter the Ministers Retirement Plan.

This year the Board of Directors also agreed for Oklahoma to participate in the acceptance of unordained assistant pastors and educational directors as members of the Ministers Retirement Plan on the same basis as regular pastors of the churches, provided that such workers are full time salaried employees of the churches. However, many more such workers and pastors should enter the plan immediately. It will be sad for the preacher who postpones entering the Plan until it is too late. One never sees an elderly preacher without support that he does not thank God that Baptists have made arrangements whereby their preachers need not be in that condition if they will only grasp the opportunity while they have it within their reach. Some of the happiest preachers in our midst are the pastors who have retired with enough income to keep the "wolf away from the door."

GENERAL RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That it will be our policy to operate on a cash basis.
2. That we exercise the strictest economy consistent with the best administration and promotion of our work.
3. That we instruct all agencies provided for in the budget not to incur any debts not authorized by the Board of Directors during 1945.
4. That the 1945 State Mission budget be projected on a basis that will insure no deficits at the close of the year.
5. That we continue the ten per cent contingency fund from in-the-state objects as a safeguard against possible deficits.
6. That the Board of Directors be authorized and instructed to re-adjust the figures of the United Budget if receipts do not justify the suggested distribution. We solemnly renew our pledge to the Baptists of Oklahoma that there will be no debt debacles during this administration.
7. We further recommend that the undesignated receipts of the special Centennial Fund be divided on a basis of 66 2/3 for State and 33 1/3 for Southwide.

We are happy to announce the largest total receipts, $676,365.94, in the history of the Baptist General Convention for 1943. Of this amount $317,372.05 was given to the Unified Budget.

CONCLUSION

At this Convention I have served eleven years and two and one-half months in the twelfth year. In 1933 at Tulsa I attended my first State Convention as Executive Secretary. Those first years were most trying and strenuous. We have come a long way since we met here in 1933. At that time we owed approximately a half million dollars—today, we “owe no man anything”. In 1933 the total cash receipts were $120,000; in 1943, they were $676,365.94.

The total number of Baptists in Oklahoma in 1933 was 165,000; today it is 265,000, a gain of 100,000, despite a loss of population during that same period.

Sunday schools and Training Unions have grown. The Baptist Student Union has been enlarged. The W. M. U. and its auxiliaries have increased. The subscription list to the “Baptist Messenger” has grown from approximately 5,000 to more than 32,500. Oklahoma Baptist University has enlarged its student body and made many needed improvements on the campus. The Brotherhood organization has taken on new life and our great Baptist laymen have demonstrated new devotion to the Kingdom enterprises.

Your State Secretary does not claim credit for all this progress. I am mindful of the foundations which were laid strong and well in the years past. I am mindful of the faithful corps of workers who have traveled thousands of miles with me to all parts of the State in the interest of the work. No secretary ever had a finer group of assistants and helpers.

For nine years my able and beloved assistant, Dr. T. P. Haskins has served with me. Day and night he has given himself without stint or reserve for the promotion of the Kingdom of Christ. No man is more beloved by Oklahoma Baptists than Dr. Haskins. With the increasing years he has rendered more valuable and effective service. To him I owe a boundless debt of gratitude for the good influences he has set in motion and the faithful service he has rendered to me and to the denomination at large.

I am mindful of the general, district, and associational missionaries who have labored sacrificially and without complaint for the Cause in Oklahoma. I am mindful of the hundreds of loyal Oklahoma Baptist pastors who have toiled long hours, written many letters, and made personal contacts in order that the work may go on. I am mindful of the hundreds of devoted deacons, sympathetic teachers, and tireless Training Union workers, who have spread the missionary spirit.

I am mindful of the Oklahoma Baptist women and laymen who have asked only for the privilege of showing their love for Christ through unselfish service and sacrificial giving.

Above all, I am mindful of a good and loving Saviour who has bountifully blessed us in the carrying on of His work. We may sow and we may cultivate, but it is God who giveth the increase. Let us be thankful then to Him who is the giver of every good and perfect gift. Let us dedicate anew our best to Him. Let us unfurl the banner of Christ and march on with great faith in God, saying “Where He leads me, I will follow”.

Future prospects are as bright as the promises of God. Let us envision a million souls for Christ in 1945. Let us hear the challenge of Nehemiah when he said, “Let us arise and build”.

“Onward, Christian soldiers!
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus,
Going on before.

“Christ, the Royal Master,
Leads against the foe,
Forward, into battle

COMMENTS

Organization

The "Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma" is incorporated under the laws of the State of Oklahoma, without authorized capital stock. Its first articles of incorporation were filed on or about May, 1917, for a term of twenty years and its amended articles of incorporation providing for an organization in perpetuity were placed on record March 6, 1928. Its purpose is to foster Baptist denominational activities in the State of Oklahoma and to receive and disburse funds as provided by the various members of the denomination in accordance with the instructions of such contributors.

Since November 1, 1935, the convention has had direct supervision of the Baptist Orphans' Home, located in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. The "Baptist Orphans' Home" was organized in March, 1904, for the purpose of providing protection and care for needy orphans and is incorporated under the laws of the State of Oklahoma as a charitable institution without authorized capital. Assets, liabilities, income and expenses of the Baptist Orphans' Home are treated as a separate "fund", both on the convention books and in this report.

Cash

The account with The First National Bank and Trust Company, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, amounting to $59,277.08, was reconciled and verified by certification obtained from the depository. This cash is applicable to the various funds as shown in the balance sheet, Exhibit "A". All recorded receipts were traced to deposit in the bank. The daily recapitulations of cash received were compared with their recording in the cash book, and tests were made of the individual receipts from which the recapitulations were prepared. Paid checks were compared with the record of checks drawn and the signatures and endorsements were scrutinized.

The remaining cash of $1.59 (A petty cash fund at the Baptist Orphans' Home) is shown according to the records maintained at the convention office, making a total of $59,278.67 cash on hand and on deposit at the date of the balance sheet.

MRS. H. B. WILHOYTE, President

MRS. C. A. RICHARDS, Recording Secretary

Message of W. M. U. President

Mrs. H. B. Wilhoyte

"Each age is a dream that is dying, or a dream that is coming to birth." This Oklahoma, that you and I love and enjoy was scarcely a dream a century ago. Then cattle trails marked the way for covered wagons as the pioneers sought fortune in this Indian country.

These courageous pioneers lived under trying circumstances of poverty and hardship. There were no communications of highways, wire or radio.

Two things were highly important to these early settlers, namely education and religion. Before the organization of the Southern Baptist Convention in 1845, the first Baptist church had been organized in the territory in 1832. Its original membership was composed of three races—white, black, and red. The "Trail of Tears" brought numerous other Indian tribes into the territory before 1845. Some missionary heroes of these early days were Joseph Islands, Buckner, Murrow, Holt, McIntosh and others.

In 1876 at a meeting of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Association twelve miles from McAlester the first Woman's Missionary Society was organized to enlist these Indian women to give the Gospel to their people and the wild Indians beyond.

Mrs. Sallie Holston was the president and here was begun the work of the Home Mission Society. These early missionaries endured hardships and persecutions to preach the everlasting Gospel.

It was their heritage. They were "allowed of God to be put in trust with the Gospel," a Gospel that is not limited to an age, race, culture or a century.

It was the message the first century needed, it is the message for this century, and will be the message for all centuries to come.

It is the living Gospel, it is spirit, it is life in its fullest and highest sense, and not until men cease caring for life will it be out of date.

"We enter this Centennial year with a desire to win a million souls to Christ. Will we do it? On the basis of our past performance, frankly, no. But if in this centennial year we can come to the realization that a stewardship of the Gospel has been committed to us, we can share it with a million souls. We must know the Gospel, "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free". Yet freedom is sought in every other source. We must have concern for the lost about us. We need a concern comparable to that of Esther when she cried, "How can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?" Comparable to that of the brothers of Benjamin, who said, "How can we go up to our father and the lad be not with us?"

Unwanted, neglected children are becoming Chicago's biggest headache, as they are in many cities. Yet in hearts too young for enmity, here lies the way to freedom.

We must also pray the Gospel. When God intends great mercies for his people, he sets them praying.

A great missionary statesman said, "It is important that men should know the Gospel, but it is more important that men should pray the Gospel." When men pray, the Gospel proceeds. When men cease praying, the Gospel halts. Twenty centuries ago they prayed in the upper room and Pentecost came. One hundred and twenty souls totally devoid of worldly influences, wisdom, power or wealth. Their enemies said they were unlearned and ignorant. Persecution could not silence them. It scattered them and they went everywhere preaching the Word. By the end of the first century Justin Martyr said, "There is not a nation either Greek or barbarian, or any other name, even those who wander in tribes or live in tents among whom prayer and thanksgivings are not offered to the Father and Creator of the universe in the name of the crucified Christ". We have made the woeful mistake of thinking Pentecost was a miracle never to be repeated.

Two centuries ago at Herrnhut they prayed and under the leadership of Count Zinzendorf within three decades the Moravians had carried the Gospel to nearly every country of Europe and to pagan races in North and South America, Asia and Africa. This small group of Christians, three hundred of them, in twenty years called into being more missions than the whole Evangelical Church had done in two centuries. Their motto was:

Urged by love, to every nation
Of the fallen human race,
We will publish Christ's salvation
And declare His blood-bought grace.
To display Him, and portray Him,
In His dying form and beauty
Be our aim and joyful duty.

What is our attitude toward the century just beginning?

When a new age in human history is dawning, it is important that the church shall speak for God to all the people of the world, to the leaders and to the expectant multitudes of all countries. When we celebrate 2045, shall it be the centennial of another Pentecost? Today is yours. No power can take it away. If you have nothing else to call your own, you have this magnificent, meaningful now. No thoughtful person can witness a sunrise without being conscious of the importance of today. Today is big with the fate of nations and the moments are mighty in God's kingdom. Millions await the everlasting Gospel.

We face a broken humanity that is too precious to neglect. We know a remedy for the ills of the world too wonderful to withhold, we have a Christ too glorious to hide, we have an adventure that is too thrilling to miss.

Report of Executive Secretary

Mrs. Berta K. Spooner

In the days when Jesus walked and talked with men in the flesh, there were marching armies, oppressing powers who held weaker peoples in submission, yet the Lord of life gave his attention to the ministry of the Kingdom.

In our day with the might of the merchants of death released in a world where people are stricken with terror and faced with destruction and loss, we do well to keep our attention on unshaken things of the Kingdom of God.

In our 643 Woman's Missionary Societies, members have been more or less faithful in their activities for Christ. The zeal that organized new societies is to be doubly commended. The difficulties of transportation, of increased home duties, of busy work in connection with war, might be discouraging if we forget that other women in the other parts of the world have no homes to keep. They are reduced to rubble—they have the necessity of flight on foot to safety and they are in the midst of wounded and dying who need their care.

By contrast our privileged condition loses its difficulties and our gratitude prompts us to deeper loyalty to the progress of missions.

Associational meetings have been continued with fine attendance and spirit but in many instances not enough time is given to the real work of the association.

The district meetings were successful in reaching 384 societies from 31 associations with an attendance of 2838. We had the privilege at these meetings of having 136 of our pastors. The guest speakers were: Miss Juliette Mather, Southwide Young People's secretary of Birmingham, Alabama; Miss Martha Linda Franks, from China; and Dr. Eugene Hill of China, now serving at Oklahoma Baptist University. In hearing their messages, our hearts were thrilled and we were encouraged to go forward.

The number of mission study classes, as compared with 1943, we note with delight is 3724, an increase of 1429 classes. All of us realize that in formulating opinions of a just and desirable peace, women must be intelligent in understanding the grievous problems of international relationship. By mission study, through which we see our neglect in sending the Gospel, we prepare our hearts to rebuild a broken world. Jesus was frequently pointing out the dangers of materialism as he preached. Our gadget age puts a premium on THINGS, measures success by possession rather than rightly by the manifest spirit of devotion. Now with money circulating more freely than in years, the record of our gifts shows increases, yet one questions whether this increase is in proportion to the profit which war has brought to most of our members.

We report a great increase in our tithers as you will see from the report of our Stewardship chairman.

The Seasons of Prayer, observed by a large number of societies, showed a large increase in gifts.

From our Scholarship Fund we have eight splendid young women in special religious training—four in Louisville and four in our Southwestern Seminary. We also have two colored students in the Nashville Training School and Seminary. Then we have in Oklahoma Baptist University, two fine Indian girls—Miss Olelah Mae Cornell in her second year and Miss Leota Black, a freshman. There too we have Miss Helen Ige, an American of Japanese ancestry—a very fine young woman who is a sophomore this year.

The Gospels, recording the life of Christ for us, have presented reports of His community missions. He constantly relieved suffering, cared for the sick and sad, the needy and the lost. Our following of this seeking Christ demands that we be busy in deeds of mercy and in winning the lost. Our reports show that 521 societies have been busy in Community Missions. In Oklahoma we still have hosts of unsaved people who await the preaching of God's Word—not only from the pulpit but by individual women filled with the spirit, witnessing unto salvation.

We rejoice in the work of White Cross in sending the many necessary supplies to our Oklahoma hospitals and in reaching financial goals for the hospital in Africa.

We were more than delighted when we exceeded our goal of 10,000 Kits for Russia. This project was made a church project and every department of the church had a part in filling these kits.

The first quarter of this year we received reports from 28 of the 33 associations—seven of these associations were 100% in receiving reports from societies in their association. They were Beckham, Bryan, Chickasaw, Harmon, Mullins, Northwest and Pittsburg.

The second quarter, 27 associations reported with five 100%: Beckham, Caddo, Central, Chickasaw and Pittsburg.

The third quarter 27 associations reported and again five were 100%. They were Beckham, Central, Chickasaw, Comanche-Cotton and Harmon.

The fourth quarter reports were received from 29 associations with eight 100%. They were Beckham, Banner, Central, Chickasaw, Frisco, Harmon, Pittsburg and Salt Fork.

Thus for the entire year only two associations, Beckham and Chickasaw, were 100% in reporting, with Harmon, Central and Pittsburg missing only one quarter each.

From these reports we have gathered the following information:

Sunbeam babies enrolled during year -----419

During year new organizations:

Sunbeam Bands -----	21
R. A. -----	19
G. A. -----	44
Y. W. A. -----	15
W. M. S. -----	20

There are 114 full-graded W. M. U.'s with 50 other churches having five and six organizations—some lack a Sunbeam or Y.W.A. organization.

Two thousand years have come and gone since Christ spoke in Galilee. There are unlimited opportunities for Christian women to enter more largely into His plan, to partake more fully of His spirit. A Million Souls for Christ in 1945 should be a great challenge to our hearts. We must enter whole-heartedly into all Southwide Centennial plans.

We close a year with gratitude for your co-laboring, with appreciation for your hospitality when I have been among you, with thanksgiving for the work of the other officers, but with earnest prayer and expectation in faith that another year will lead us out into service with zeal and compassion more like His who went everywhere preaching the Gospel.

Report of Young People's Secretary

Mrs. Bill V. Carden

Amid the utter destructions of war and mindful of the tremendous price youth is paying now to make this a better world, we turn to see what the Woman's Missionary Union of Oklahoma has done in 1944 toward the planting of vital missionary education in tender hearts. Some statistics are indeed encouraging.

Summer camp enrollment increased 400%. In 1943 only 98 enrolled in the G. A. camp at Falls Creek. In 1944, 525 enrolled. The boys' camp increased from 85 in 1942 to 275 in 1944. Other visible results of the camps are:

	R. A.	G. A.
Mission Study Awards -----	274	484
Conversions -----	14	26
Rededications -----	13	33
Calls to Missionary Service -----	9	26
Calls to Ministry -----	8	---

Attending Ridgecrest Y. W. A. Camp were 31 girls from Oklahoma. Only 17 attended in 1943.

We were represented at the first Young Men's Missionary Conference at Ridgecrest by Victor Kaneuubbe, chaperone; Gene Douthit, Jr. of Konawa; Bobby Brown, Trinity, Oklahoma City; and Ralph Daniel and Bob Noakes of Amber.

New organizations in 1944 were as follows:

Sunbeam Bands -----	21
R. A. -----	19
G. A. -----	44
Y. W. A. -----	15

giving us totals of

Sunbeam Bands -----	302
R. A. -----	272
G. A. -----	453
Y. W. A. -----	226

The securing of Missionary information is a primary object of Missionary auxiliaries. In 1944, 223 mission study classes were held for Sunbeams, 272 for G. A., 108 for R. A., and 216 for Y. W. A. The awards requested from the W. M. U. office were as follows: Sunbeams 875, G. A. 1522, R. A. 558, Y. W. A. 377.

A second source of Missionary information is through our magazines. In 1944, 2158 "World Comrades" and 734 subscriptions to "The Window of Y. W. A." came to Oklahoma.

A third method for receiving missionary information is through missionary reading. In 1944, 2512 Reading Stamps were issued to auxiliary members indicating they had read a like number of books.

Marked increase is shown in interest in Ranking System and Forward Steps. A great impetus to this phase of work was given Oklahoma youth and their leaders by the effective demonstration at the Southern W. M. U. meeting in Oklahoma City.

There are 114 full Graded Unions in Oklahoma. These churches are to be commended for having plans for the Missionary education of all their youth.

Report of Executive Board

The ways of the world are full of haste and turmoil and many hearts are hungering for the truth. As servants of our Lord we have the privilege of witnessing for Him and bearing the "everlasting gospel unto them that dwell on the earth and to every nation and kindred and tongue and people." How blessed to know that His presence satisfies the longing soul and that "He cannot fail for He is God, He cannot fail, He has pledged His word."

On the morning of February 15th, 1944, the Executive Board of the Woman's Missionary Union of Oklahoma met in the Assembly Room of the Baptist Building in Oklahoma City for a two-day session, Mrs. H. B. Wilhoyte, president, in the chair.

There were 42 members present and 31 visitors from the various associations in the state.

Word had been received that Mrs. Wm. Holbert, president of the Tulsa District, had lost a son-in-law in action and it was voted to send a message of sympathy to her.

The reports of the Departmental Chairmen were presented and adopted. When the report of the White Cross was presented by Mrs. T. G. Nanney, Chairman, Mrs. Wilhoyte spoke to this report stating that in response to a plea made at the 1943 Convention by Miss Amanda Tinkle, missionary to Africa, Oklahoma W. M. U. has sent an Electrolux to be paid for out of the over and above Lottie Moon Offering. We also sent $500.00 to take care of the operation of the electrolux since it is necessary to use kerosene in its operation in Africa and kerosene costs 90c a gallon there.

In the afternoon session the reports of the Executive Secretary-Treasurer and of the Young People's Secretary were presented and adopted.

A report of the Southwide W. M. U. mid-year meeting at Birmingham was given by Mrs. Wilhoyte.

The new State Year book was explained by Mrs. Carden who also presented a new leaflet and new Standard of Excellence for the R. A.'s and G. A.'s.

In the evening session after the banquet which was given for members of the Executive Board Dr. Eugene Hill, missionary to China, brought an appealing message on China.

On the following morning the session was devoted to conferences conducted by the chairmen of departments on the different phases of W. M. U. work.

Mrs. Wilhoyte spoke of the increase of our office expenses and stated that in response to our request for an increase in our apportionment the Baptist General Convention has granted us a thousand dollars, thus making our apportionment $8500.00.

At this time Mrs. Spooner presented the budget for the year 1944 to the amount of $8500.00 and it was voted to adopt this budget.

The new Associational presidents were recognized by Mrs. Wilhoyte.

Because the Southwide W. M. U. Annual Meeting was held in Oklahoma City on September 19th to 21st it became necessary to cancel the scheduled meeting of the Executive Board.

On November 13th prior to the Annual Meeting the Executive Board convened in the Educational Building of the First Baptist Church of Tulsa.

After routine business the chairman of departments gave brief reports.

Dr. Potter, Executive Secretary of the Baptist General Convention, came before the Board and explained the Centennial Program which was to be presented to the Baptist General Convention in regular session on Wednesday evening.

On motion by Mrs. Stevens it was voted to endorse this program as presented and make every effort to have a part in it.

The president asked the secretary to prepare a resolution to present to the General Convention approving this program.

In the absence of Mrs. Hope Owen, Chairman, the report of the Committee on Recommendations was presented for the consideration of the Board by Mrs. George Boston, member of the committee.

On motion of Mrs. Carden it was voted that in lieu of the January meeting our next Board meeting be held in Oklahoma City on December 18th and 19th, beginning at one o'clock on the 18th.

After a closing prayer by Mrs. B. F. Sanderson the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. C. A. RICHARDS, Recording Secretary.

Report of Stewardship Chairman

Mrs. A. F. Crittendon

We are aware that no department of our work has suffered as much this year as the Stewardship Department,—because of the death of Mrs. Carter Wright, South-wide Chairman for many years. The deep desire of her heart was that Christ's messengers might go "everywhere, preaching the Word." We are preaching the Word in the places where we are today, because some have been faithful in their stewardship of life and in rendering unto God the things that were God's. Faithful in self and substance.

With all of our rejoicing about being a debtless denomination, if we face the facts we know that we were shamefully slow in paying our debts, and that we were paying debts with money which should have been used in "Preaching the Word everywhere." Statistics show that American church members contribute only two cents out of each dollar of their income to the Lord's work, in spite of the fact that the government suggests 15% and that the Bible teaches tithing and making offerings.

But we Southern Baptists (quoting Dr. Dillard) do worse than the average. Our income in 1942 was 5,000,000,000, and one-tenth of this would have been 500,000,000. But we gave only $52,000,000, or an average of a little over one cent out of every $1.00. No wonder we were slow getting out of debt, and that all of our causes suffer, with less than 1,000 missionaries, or one to every 5,000 church members, or that it required 10,000 Southern Baptists to support one Foreign Missionary,—while our government estimates that for every soldier in the service it requires something like only twenty-five of us back home for his support.

For the first one hundred years of our denominational life we averaged sending to the other lands each year about ten of these soldiers of the Cross, often poorly equipped. Could that be called a great missionary program? We have no answer, no alibi, we need no accuser, these facts and figures do that.

Dr. Ellis Fuller in a radio address, said "To withhold tithes and offerings produces a 'double' paralysis, a spiritual paralysis of those who thus rob God, and a paralysis of the program to go "Everywhere preaching the Word."

Over the increasing tumult of the years, the voice of the patient Christ has been calling us from the worship of this vain world's golden store. Today, the days of recompense are here. Because we would not pay the tithe God is collecting it by the billions. We are paying,—individuals and nations are paying. Because we did not go "everywhere preaching the Word," we send bombs and battleships to fight where Bibles would have cost far less and have been more effective. There are only two programs for the world,— the Missionary or the military. We made the choice. The missionary enterprise did not fail, we failed to put on an adequate missionary program. Your sons and mine by the millions are fighting for the life of our nation, when they might have been bearing the glorious message of salvation.

In San Antonio in 1942 our leaders, believing that we would be 'debt free in '43', changed our slogan to "out of debt for a world program". This world program is no new plan. The Bible, from start to finish, teaches that all the world is in all the Word.

We can ignore our obligations as stewards, and it seems a majority of church members do, and because we are "trusted stewards" and not driven slaves Christ will not co-erce us, though He no doubt weeps over our unfaithfulness in producing the double paralysis I have mentioned. Dr. Horace Bushnell said a few years ago, "One more revival, only one more is needed, the revival of Christian Stewardship, and when that comes, the Kingdom of God will come in a day".

Report of Mission Study Chairman

Mrs. O. F. Fahnestock

In these unusual days, days when individual hearts are heavy-laden, days fraught with anxieties, days that are perilous because of an all out global war, days that are testing our spiritual strength, and yet withal, days that are crowded with countless opportunities to serve our Master, we as Christians need, as never before, to look unto God, who can supply abundantly every need. We need a stronger faith in God, increased hope in the future, renewed courage to go forward, greater strength for our daily tasks and a broader vision of our individual responsibility in God's world plan. These things can come only from the Giver of "every good and perfect gift". In return our Lord expects the giving of ourselves to Him, a deeper consecration of our all on the altar and a more faithful service in His name. We need to put first things first. We need to place the proper evaluation on the countless duties before us. "First they gave their own selves to the Lord." "I seek not yours but you."

The panacea for our own anxious cares is to be busy for the Lord. What is our main business? "Everywhere preaching the Word." Some preach from the pulpit, some in the class room, others through the printed page. The most powerful preaching is done by example. All of us agree with the poet who wrote, "I'd rather see a sermon than hear one any day, I'd rather one should walk with me than merely show the way". As we face the task of winning a million souls to Christ in 1945 we need to recall the words of Jesus when He said, "As the Father hath sent me, even so send I you". Yes, the responsibility of soul winning rests heavily upon the shoulders of every Christian today. Christ said in no uncertain terms, "Ye shall be my witnesses". Are we prepared physically, mentally and spiritually for this task of winning souls? Do others see Jesus in our words, our deeds, our lives? We have the Gospel—the only hope for a war torn, sin sick, lost world. The Gospel is "medicine for the sick, bread for the hungry, sight for the blind, healing for the wounded, consolation for the sorrowing, and life for the dead. It is hope for the youth, strength for the adolescent, joy for the aged and confidence for the dying". The Gospel is ours to share with those who do not know its power.

It costs to be a soul winner but the reward is far beyond the cost. I mention four costs:

1. We must cleanse our lives of known sin. Thoughtless words, questionable acts and sinful lives greatly mar our influence in soul winning.

2. We must be powerful pray-ers. Not "now I lay me down" but the prayer in which we pour out our souls to God in secret each day. When we get on our knees and ask God to burden us for lost souls our hearts will catch fire and tears will stream from our eyes. Then we can speak boldly. "They that sow in tears shall reap in joy."

3. We must possess a working knowledge of the Bible. "The Gospel of Jesus Christ is the power of God unto salvation." The "sword of the Spirit" is the only weapon to use in approaching a lost soul.

4. We must work at the task. Careful living, prayer and study of God's Word must result in putting forth effort to win and evangelize.

The task of soul winning stands out before us as our greatest responsibility in 1945. How fortunate, we as W. M. U. members, are in that we have our splendid Mission Study Courses which offer us our basic training in evangelism. Those of us who have had intensive mission study for years are now well prepared to go out into "the fields white unto harvest". It is our privilege to enlist every woman in intensive mission study. Mission study is interesting, informative, and inspirational. Mission study pleases God and obeys 2 Tim. 2:15. Mission study enlarges vision and insures growth. Mission study increases understanding and breaks down racial prejudice. Mission study produces thinking and thinking is the beginning of action. The ultimate aim of action is evangelism. Mission study not only furnishes the inspiration but the information in every phase of soul winning.

I suggest we endeavor to have effective mission study in the entire W. M. U. family the year around. May we go a second mile and enlist our W. M. U. members in Missionary Reading Circles. Use the reading cards and stamps to mark progress. Any book not credited on Certificates but found in our adopted book list "The World in Books" will give its reader a reading stamp. Let us enlist those who desire still further reading in our new Missionary Round Tables.

May we as "Laborers together with God", "having the everlasting Gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth and to every nation and kindred and tongue and people" look unto the King Eternal for guidance and use every God-given faculty to the end that souls may be won to Christ to glorify our Heavenly Father.

Report of Community Missions Chairman

Mrs. L. W. Anderson

"Everywhere Preaching the Word" is the definite responsibility of this committee because the purpose of Community Missions is: "To win souls and gain other spiritual results through enlistment of all women and young people". We have the opportunity to carry the Gospel because the job of this committee is to give self instead of money, and to send women and young people instead of supplies. In every contact our aim is to win souls and strengthen Christian character in our own communities.

As our objectives for the coming year are formulated we should remember the goal of Southern Baptists for 1945 is one million souls won. The reports of our work show plainly that the number engaged in definite soul winning is too few. One of our leaders has asked, "If some one should offer us a thousand dollars for every soul that we might earnestly try to lead to Christ, would we endeavor to lead any more souls to Him than we are endeavoring to do now?" Is it possible that we would attempt to do for money, even at the risk of blunders or ridicule what we hesitate or shrink from doing now in obedience to God's command? Is our love of money stronger than our love of God or of souls? How feeble then is our love of God!

Perhaps this explains why we are not soul winners. "Lovest thou me more than these?" John 21:15. Dr. Dodd tells us that no Southern Baptist has a right to SEND anyone else to an individual.

As we assume the responsibility for all the lost in our community, and as we make continual efforts to win them, let us plan:

I. TO STUDY A BOOK ON SOUL WINNING. The book recommended is, "Personal Work," by Torrey.

II. TO HOLD COTTAGE PRAYER MEETINGS, especially in homes of the lost. Since Lydia and the prayer meeting by the river-side, women have led in prayer before great movements.

The secret of the success of the Crusade of 1945 will be found in the promise, "That if two of you agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven." Hence the Crusade Sign: Two-Win-One. We are utterly helpless to win a single soul to Christ in our own strength or through our own wisdom. But in answer to concerted, importunate, persistent prayer the Lord will enable us to lead souls in penitence and faith to accept the Saviour as Lord of their lives. Agreement in prayer is the key to the power house of God. There is absolutely no substitute for prayer in the winning of souls. Let us begin right now to lay hold upon this key to the treasure house of God. With God's convicting and converting power made available by prayer the task of winning a million souls to Christ this year is not an impossible or unreasonable one for Southern Baptists.

III. TO ESTABLISH FAMILY ALTARS. The stability and strength of religion should be felt in the home. How better can a family unit be fortified than by coming to God in prayer together? Parents can lead a child to God in a way no one else has the privilege of doing. Children have faith in their parents; when the parents have faith in God it is an easy matter for them to learn to have faith in God, too. A child should learn to pray at home and will if he hears his mother and father talk of God. Let us strive to make our homes Christian homes in every sense of the word.

IV. TO KEEP PRAYER LISTS. As we come in prayer let us remember other nationalities in our midst, our Jewish neighbors, our service men and their families, and our friends who are lost. Marking the lists as a prayer is answered will do much to strengthen our faith as we thank God for answered prayer.

If we ask our Father, earnestly, He will show each one of us our place of service in our own community.

When once I knelt to pray
For work all o'er the South
I found the Lord made answer
Ere the words had left my mouth.

I prayed for one to minister
To sinners everywhere.
I heard the Master whisper,
"My child, why don't you dare?"

I prayed for gifts to increase
That the work enlarged might be,
Twas then I saw my Savior's hands
Were reaching out my gifts to see.

I prayed that all might seek
The meaning of His will.
An answer came as He revealed
The place that I should fill.

Report of Margaret Fund Chairman

Mrs. D. H. Bell.

Amid the perils and ravages of global war, there still stands that ancient affirmation, "The Lord God omnipotent reigneth".

That affirmation of faith is justified in the light and glory of God which has been given us in Jesus the Saviour of the world, in whom there is security and glorious opportunity forever and forever.

Today, there is a voice that sounds above the tumult to herald this message from our Lord, "These things have I spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace" John 16:33.

Military leaders tell us today that we are in sight of victorious peace.

The cessation of hostilities in Europe and Asia will be the beginning of a greater missionary enterprise than Southern Baptists and the world have ever known. God will provide the strength and courage adequate to demands made upon us, as we shall strive to carry the Gospel to the war-torn world that seeks a lasting peace.

The only world peace that will be permanent, will be that which will aim at nothing short of a change of heart of the nations.

In the message of missions rests our surest self-defense. Only upon His Name shall the nations rest their hopes for world peace.

Passion for the establishment of world righteousness by those who have become recipients of the peace which Christ bequeathed, is the only answer to the world's problems.

Let us take the view of Isaiah, 32:1-17, "Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness . . . and the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness, quietness, and assurance forever". Missionaries are the foremost Apostles of Christ's glorious Gospel for a new world order, because a just and durable peace and a righteous world order can arise only as men and nations are transformed by the "blood of Jesus that whispers peace within".

Woman's Missionary Union as "laborers together with God" for world righteousness seals anew her love and zeal for world-wide missions in her year's Watchword: "Having the everlasting Gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth and to every nation and kindred and tongue and people" Rev. 14:6.

"How to reach the masses, men of every birth,
For the answer, Jesus gave the key:
And I, if I be lifted up from the earth,
Will draw all men unto me".

Woman's Missionary Union, through her great system of education, the Margaret Fund, provides a college education for the sons and daughters of Southern Baptist missionaries.

The high ideal of Woman's Missionary Union is to train and inspire students to love and serve God in Kingdom work.

We rejoice and praise God today, that the work of the Margaret Fund is missions in action; ministering to missionaries, training new missionaries—recruits for tomorrow.

Many former students have been volunteers for service on foreign fields; others for definite Christain work on the home fields, and have rendered inestimable service to our denomination.

Today, in the colleges of our Southland are many Margaret Fund students studying to be approved workmen; as preachers, teachers, medical missionaries and leaders in Christian work.

When God opens the mission fields again to Southern Baptists, many Margaret Fund students will be ready for a stirring challenge to heroic Christian service, and will joyfully contribute their share to the great missionary program that lies ahead.

Let us renew our devotion and loyalty to the Margaret Fund; "keep the trust committed" to us through advisory care of students and prayer that God will bless, protect and lead them into joyous Kingdom service.

Oh, Margaret Fund, dear Margaret Fund,
You've been the helping hand
That cheered their hearts and fired their souls
With love and zeal, to be
A Messenger of Christ our King
From sea to shining sea.

Oh, Margaret Fund, dear Margaret Fund,
God's blessings rest on you,
Your students crown with righteousness,
Is the prayer of W. M. U.

Oklahoma Margaret Fund student for 1944-45: Lois Richardson, W. M. U. Memorial Dormitory, O. B. U., Shawnee, Oklahoma.

Report of White Cross Chairman

Mrs. T. Grady Nanney

John 5:2-17

"Wilt thou be made whole?" John 5:6. The condition of man without Christ is pictured in the impotent man at the Pool of Bethesda. He was diseased, he was defective, depressed, and dejected, impotent and imperfect. The concern of Christ for the helpless is evident, always and everywhere. All who want to be whole have only to come to Christ and "be made whole". Christ is interested in our bodies and he has the power to heal our broken bodies but He is most interested in our souls. Later in the same Scripture He told this man to "go and sin no more"—He will have mercy on our souls.

The capacity through Christ is guaranteed to those who believe on Him and act on His word. When He says, "Rise," it is time to get up from our laziness, impotence and sin. When He commends a paralytic to shoulder his pallet and go on his way, he qualifies for the act and empowers the effort.

Another year is ending and it has been the busiest year in the history of our hospitals. The hospitals have been a vital service station as a mercy pool for sick people at all times but for the past year they have filled a large place in the lives of many people. During the past twelve months the Miami Hospital has admitted 1924 patients, an average of 160 per month. More than half of this number have stated that they belong to no church. What an opportunity this has afforded them for personal work. Never in the life of a person is he as eager and willing to receive the Gospel as when he is ill.

Both in Miami and Muskogee have the local ministers, Y. W. A.'s and others done a good part by visiting the patients in our hospitals. We have no accurate report of the number of conversions, but we are assured there were many.

The greatest need this year seems to be sheets and blankets, especially blankets. No one can ever tell how much good these linens do in the hospital but the greatest blessing comes to everyone of you who give to White Cross from the Sunbeam to the W. M. S.

So again, I thank you for the cash and linens. Blessings on every patient, nurse, doctor, and giver.

Report of Courtesy Committee

How happy and privileged we are to again enjoy the hospitality of the First Baptist Church of Tulsa. The many gracious and thoughtful courtesies extended to us by Mrs. Paul Guiles and her committee have indeed added to our enjoyment. The wholehearted welcome by Mrs. J. W. Storer, so beautifully given, warmed our hearts.

The lovely stage setting with flowers of W. M. U. colors, the flags representing the nations of the world against the background of the Holy Bible, the World linked to a lighted Cross by a golden chain, gives us a new realization of Christ's command to go everywhere preaching the Word.

We are indebted to Mrs. Frank Burney, representative of South-wide W. M. U., and other guest speakers for their challenging and inspiring messages. To the soloists, the trio and the O. B. U. quartette we express our appreciation. Especially are we grateful for the privilege of having so many missionaries in our midst who brought us appealing messages of the saving power of the Gospel.

We go away to our respective homes and churches feeling that we have been spiritually inspired to a higher plane of living and determined to be more faithful servants of our Lord in carrying out His Great Commission.

Report of W. M. U. Training School

Mrs. James C. Hering, Trustee

At the beginning of this year Miss Littlejohn, principal of the Woman's Missionary Union Training School, said, "We should be using our school to capacity during this fateful year". This was almost a prediction as early in 1944 the enrollment was 201 students, and this fall for the 1944-45 school year there are even more students and the new building is completely filled. Weeks ahead of opening every place was taken and applications continued to come in—the latter forming a goodly waiting list.

A very profitable Board Meeting was held in later March at the School, which your Trustee attended. It was delightful to be greeted there by our four Oklahoma girls—Minta Mae Drake, senior; Hazel Smith, Katherine Tiefel, and Gordie Vaughtner, juniors.

Forty-six graduated from the School in May, among them Minta Mae Drake with the degree of Master of Religious Education. In the late summer Minta Mae was called to Maryland to serve as their Young People's Secretary.

Misses Smith, Tiefel and Vaughtner returned to Louisville in September as seniors and one new student was added to the group as a junior, Miss Louise Tadlock of Tahlequah—making us four in the School again this year.

This fall found several fine new teachers on the campus—Miss Miriam Robinson in the speech department and Miss Mary Ellen Wooten, supervisor of field work. Also the Department of Church Music of the Seminary in the beautiful new colonial home of the School of Music was off to a good start. Here Training School students, as well as Seminary men, may study all phases of church music, under a splendid group of artists. Miss Claudia Edwards, long head of the Training School music department, is on this faculty also.

Our newest Oklahoma student writes: "I want you to know what a joyful privilege these weeks at the Training School have been. The classes have challenged me; the association with faculty members and fellow students has inspired me; and I have been grateful for the opportunity presented in our field work assignments. I am thankful for such an institution".

Miss Josephine Jones, executive secretary of Illinois Woman's Missionary Union, speaking during Commencement days last May reminded the group that "the world is still hungering for a knowledge of Jesus, and that is what matters most". That the world may better know Him, and have this hunger quenched, hundreds of graduates of our Training School, in this land and wherever the Gospel may be preached in these war days, are witnessing for our Lord and Redeemer.

Report of Southwestern Seminary

Berta K. Spooner, Trustee

The Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary was chartered in 1907. Its purpose is to train leaders in all phases of church and Kingdom Work. Emphasis is made on reverent scholarship; devout fellowship; world-wide missions; New Testament evangelism; unshakable loyalty to Christ, His Word, His work; denominational-wide co-operation; balanced, aggressive efficiency in all forms of leadership.

Dr. Floy Barnard, Dean of Women of the Training School, also professor in the School of Education, teaches religious drama, and all courses connected with the W. M. S. program of the Southern Baptist Convention. Dr. Barnard is qualified completely for her task; first in importance she is a woman of deep spiritual power. She knows the Lord and relies on Him daily for His guidance. She is a woman of culture and physical attractiveness. She is a woman of deep intellect.

There are 91 in the Training School this year with an enrollment of 858 in the Seminary. Three hundred and twenty-six of this number are women with four Oklahoma girls in the Training School. They are: Misses Roberta Cochran, Vivian Cochran, Rubye Teague and Dorothea Grubbs.

The one hundred and twelve missionaries who have gone out from the training school are serving in 17 foreign countries.

REPORTS FROM THE DISTRICTS

CENTRAL DISTRICT

The annual meeting of Central District Woman's Missionary Union was held in the Olivet Church of Oklahoma City on April 20. It was our happy privilege to have inspirational messages brought by Miss Martha Linda Franks, missionary to China, and by Miss Juliette Mather, Southwide Young People's Secretary. We were also glad to have with us Mrs. A. F. Wasson, wife of the Superintendent of the Baptist Hospital at Muskogee. In this meeting an offering was taken for World Relief which amounted to $65.85.

Trinity Church was hostess in the evening to the young people of the District when our fine Young People's Leader, Mrs. W. E. Steelman, had charge of the program and our guest speakers for the day also appeared on this evening program. After the program delicious refreshments were served in the parlors of the church.

Excellent work is being done in the associations under the capable leadership of Mrs. Tom Earp in Oklahoma County, Mrs. E. A. Jackson of Central, Mrs. Henry J. Conn of Chickasaw, and Mrs. C. S. Box of Union.

How fine it is to be able to report that in this district there are 23 churches 100% in resident women members missionary givers.

These churches are: Hennessey, Kingfisher, Okeene, and Yukon in Central Association; Cox City, Lindsay, Michigan Avenue, Chickasha, Pocasset, Sharon, and Tuttle in Chickasaw Association; Crestwood, Crown Heights, Dixon, Downtown, Lawrence Avenue, Putnam City, Southside and Washington Avenue in Oklahoma County Association; Blanchard, Noble, Purcell, Newcastle, and Norman Trinity in Union Association.

May we, through the help of our Master, "Lay up each year the Harvest of Well-doing".—MRS. C. A. RICHARDS, District President.

LAWTON DISTRICT

We are thankful for many increases this year. Last year our young peoples' work was pitifully weak—often the young peoples' leaders not reporting. This year our young peoples' leaders reported regularly, and we have an increase of at least 20 auxiliaries over last year. Subscriptions to our literature have increased 600 over last year. Mission study classes have increased 60 over last year. Our offerings have more than doubled, with Comanche-Cotton leading in state missions, Mullins leading in home missions, and Caddo leading in gifts to other projects. Caddo leads the other two associations in reporting. Mullins leads in mission study classes. Comanche-Cotton leads in subscriptions to our mission periodicals, while Mullins leads in subscriptions to the Baptist Messenger.

We are proud of an extra gift of $500.00 from Mullins for our Negro Baptist Seminary library in Nashville, Tennessee.

May we enter into 1945 with greater goals, and more increased effort than ever before.—MRS. W. A. CARLETON, District President.

NORTHEAST DISTRICT

We, as a district, have carried on this year in a very wonderful way, considering all the difficulties that have been thrown in our way. Too many of our women have gone into war work and W. M. U. work has suffered. We pray that God will speed the day when this war-torn world will return to normalcy and Christian women will turn back to the call of their church responsibilities. We held our annual meeting with the First Baptist Church of Bartlesville, with a very nice attendance and a most helpful and inspiring program.—MRS. WADE ZUMWALT, District President.

NORTHWEST DISTRICT

In a recent article written by M. T. Rankin we read, "The greatness of Southern Baptists is not measured by what we have accomplished, but by our unfulfilled potentialities. Even a small vision of our possibilities, as compared with what we are actually doing, calls us to earnest prayer that God will move deep within our hearts and souls with His might and power. The possibilities within us will be released in their full measure only as we associate our hearts and will with God's will for men and as we are able to follow His way of achieving that will".

As our heart was moved with the reading of these truths we were able to see afresh the possibilities and privileges that are ours in the field of missions here at our own Jerusalem.

Much has already been accomplished but there is a great need for gleaning. As Ruth went out to glean, picking up the loose fallen wheat or grain that was precious to the owner—so we need to be gathering up the ones who are precious to our Saviour.

For a heart that is full of love for Christ to see a person in need, means only this, that one must be given a helping hand. For an anxious heart in God's Kingdom to see one athirst for righteousness, means that one will be taught.

For a willing heart warmed by God's Grace to see one seeking knowledge, means that ones desire shall be fulfilled.

As women in Woman's Missionary Union of Northwest Association and District, have put their hands to the plow, we dare NOT look back, but must go forward. Let us be ever found at the feet of Jesus seeking after His teachings.

But one thing is needful: "and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her" Luke 10:42.—MRS. EARL L. STARK, District President.

SOUTH CENTRAL DISTRICT

Considering transportation difficulties, a very splendid attendance marked the annual meeting of South Central District, held in Wilson, April 8, 1944.

It was a privilege to have as inspirational speakers: Miss Martha Franks, China; Dr. Eugene Hill, China; Miss Juliette Mather, Birmingham; Mrs. Wasson, Muskogee; and our executive secretary, Mrs. Berta K. Spooner. Helpful indeed were messages they brought to us.

The district gave an offering of $55.00 for World Relief.

Our societies have shown some increase in young peoples' organizations, also increased interest in mission study classes.

While we have not attained the standard of perfection, we have through our leaders tried to make known His mighty acts and the glorious majesty of His Kingdom.—Mrs. V. A. GRISSOM, District President.

SOUTHEAST DISTRICT

With great gratitude in our hearts, we praise God for the faithful work that has been done in W. M. U. work in the Southeast District this past year.

Our district is composed of the Frisco and Bryan associations. Mrs. Guy Old, Idabel, president of the Frisco Association, and Mrs.

James Coker, Durant, president of the Bryan Association. These two presidents have done excellent work in their associations this past year.

The Seasons of Prayer and The Calendar of Prayer have had prominent places. Our Bible study has increased.

We placed special emphasis on soul winning and promoting more auxiliaries in our district. We have several new auxiliaries functioning nicely. Several girls went to our Young People's camp at Talihina.

Our district has met their appointments, although most of our churches are small, but all of us wanted to have a part in the Lord's work.

We had a very spiritual district meeting in April at Antlers, with Miss Martha Franks, missionary from China, Miss Juliette Mather, Southwide Young People's Leader, Dr. Eugene Hill, and our beloved executive secretary, Mrs. Spooner.

In May Mrs. Bill Carden taught the Counselor's Course to 20 women in the Hugo First Baptist Church. Miss Lucy Smith, missionary to China, came with Mrs. Carden and spoke twice for us. Mrs. Carden also taught the Counselor's Course at Idabel, accompanied by Miss Lucy Smith. Thus the year was closed with a greater determination on the part of women to increase their efforts to have a larger share in the work, especially in winning 1,000,000 souls for Christ in a challenge we must put forth our best. "Having the everlasting Gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth and to every nation and kindred and tongue, and people" (Rev. 14:6). "For we are laborers together with God" (1 Cor. 8:9). —MRS. R. L. KUHNE, District President.

SOUTHWEST DISTRICT

During the year of 1944, the missionary societies of the Southwest District have shown their faithfulness in their share of God's Kingdom work. A great deal of interest has been shown in all of our meetings over the district. Our women have given graciously of their time and money.

Our district meeting was held with the First Baptist Church of Mangum. The meeting was a great inspiration to all who attended and there was a good representation considering conditions. The offering for magazines for missionaries was $25.35.

We have had two schools of Missions and one Mission Study Institute when Mrs. O. F. Fahnestock was with us. Considering world conditions of the past year, the work in Southwest District has been very gratifying. Our aim is to do more and better work for the Master.—MRS. R. S. JAMES, District President.

SHAWNEE DISTRICT

As we review the reports of Shawnee District and consider the gas and tire shortage we rejoice over the progress made this year.

First of all, we are glad to see that our gifts during the three seasons of prayer have been greatly increased.

Mrs. Leroy Taylor, president of Pottawatomie-Lincoln Association reports having had all quarterly rallies, a school of instruction and Mission Institute with splendid attendance.

North Canadian Association, under the leadership of Mrs. J. E. Kirk, also has had a very good attendance at the rallies and Mission Institute, and an average of 27 out of 29 societies reporting. There were four 100% churches.

Both associations have met their apportionments for state and Southwide causes. And a noticeable increase in subscriptions to W. M. U. periodicals.

Our annual meeting was held in the Immanuel Church at Shawnee, April 10.

We were greatly inspired by the wonderful messages brought by Miss Martha Linda Franks and Dr. Eugene Hill on our work in China. Also by our Southwide Young People's Secretary, Miss Juliette Mather, and executive secretary, Mrs. Spooner.

Our love offering for World Emergency Relief was $37.89.

Our aim for the coming year is better work with our young people and Community Missions with special emphasis on soul winning, co-operating in the 1945 Crusade.—Mrs. J. D. McGOVERN, District President.

TULSA DISTRICT

Tulsa District covers Tulsa-Rogers Association and Pawnee-Creek Association. The missionary work in these associations has gone forward in spite of the gas rationing. Through 1944 God's work has INCREASED over 1943, in organizations, community mission work, mission classes, and Commission and Home Mission magazine subscriptions with a DECREASE in Royal Service and Baptist Missions as well as in membership. So many of our women are working in war work, that means those who have been working in W. M. S. are doing double work.

Our meetings have been spiritual and inspirational throughout the year in district and associations. Sunday, April 2, our district young people met at First Baptist Church, Tulsa. A splendid program was rendered by our young people. Our special guest speakers were Dr. Eugene Hill, Martha Franks, Mrs. Berta K. Spooner and Juliette Mather, Southwide Young People's Secretary. Monday, the W. M. U. met all-day for a very full day of fellowship together. At noon conferences were held and well attended. The conferences were young people's leaders, mission study, stewardship, White Cross, community missions and secretaries. The attendance for Sunday and Monday was around 550, the best we could count. Offering was taken for our China Relief, which was $39.78.

In June, 1944, our annual district Y. W. A. House party was held at Pawnee Bill's ranch, near Pawnee, with 65 girls attending. We are expecting 100 or more girls to attend next year;

We are looking forward to 1945 annual meeting and expecting great things in our Master's name.—MRS. WILLIAM HOLBERT, District President.

IN MEMORIAM

"THE ROSE BEYOND THE WALL"

This a sweet and sacred hour when our thoughts are turned to Heavenly places.

According to the beautiful custom of this group, we now pause to pay tribute to our comrades who have gone on ahead.

As their lives unfolded into full blossom in service for Him, the Great Gardener plucked them one by one and gathered them into Heaven.

That their names were on the roll of the Woman's Missionary Union speaks of a life that sought to share in the labor of the harvest of souls for Christ.

There is an old story that tells of the dying of a king. A courier ran throughout the empire crying, "The king is dead." As the last word of the message fell, an herald came with the blare of trumpet shouting, "Long live the king!" The business of the kingdom could not wait; even as an old king died a new king was crowned.

So today as we scan the list of beloved laborers who have entered into rest, we cannot wait to dwell upon each separate deed, recall each act of special kindness done, for the business of the kingdom cannot wait.

We cannot speak a greater tribute to these our sisters than to say the work that they were doing was of such moment that it must be finished. And though we would wait with bowed heads in loving remembrance of them, we must barely pause and then with lifted hearts press on until all the nations shall crown Him Lord of all.

THE ROSE STILL GROWS BEYOND THE WALL

"Near shady wall a rose once grew,
Budded and blossomed in God's free light,
Watered and fed by morning dew,
Shedding its sweetness day and night.

As it grew and blossomed fair and tall,
Slowly rising to loftier height,
It came to a crevice in the wall,
Through which there shone a beam of light.

Onward it crept with added strength,
With never a thought of fear or pride
It followed the light through the crevice's length
And unfolded itself on the other side.

The light, the dew, the broadening view
Were found the same as they were before;
And it lost itself in beauties new,
Breathing its fragrance more and more.

Shall claim of death cause us to grieve,
And make our courage faint or fail?
Nay! Let us faith and hope receive;
That rose still grows beyond the wall.

Scattering fragrance far and wide,
Just as it did in days of yore,
Just as it did on the other side,
Just as it will for evermore."
