Constitution and Bylaws

CONSTITUTION OF THE BAPTIST GENERAL CONVENTION OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA

ARTICLE I—NAME

Section 1. This body shall be known as the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma.

ARTICLE II—CONSTITUENCY

Section 1. This convention shall consist of messengers elected by the Baptist churches co-operating with and contributing to the work of the convention.

Section 2. Each church shall be entitled to three messengers and one additional messenger for every 50 members, provided that no church shall have over 10 messengers.

ARTICLE III—OBJECT

Section 1. This convention shall have no ecclesiastical authority or power whatever and shall never assume to write creeds or to exercise judicial or legislative control over the churches.

Section 2. This convention is a purely co-operative body and its purpose shall be to furnish a means by which the churches of Christ in their sovereign capacity can work together in promoting all denominational enterprises which they deem necessary in carrying out the Great Commission.

ARTICLE IV—OFFICERS

Section 1.

A. The officers of the convention shall be a president, a first vice-president, a second vice-president, a recording secretary, an assistant recording secretary, an executive secretary-treasurer, and a historical secretary.

B. And that in the event of the removal from the state of the president while in office, or should his death make vacant the office, he shall be succeeded for the remainder of his term by the first vice-president.

C. And should either of these contingencies again make the office vacant, the second vice-president shall succeed to the remainder of the term.

Section 2. These officers, with the exception of the executive secretary-treasurer, shall be elected annually and shall hold their respective offices until their successors are elected. The one receiving a majority of all votes shall be declared elected. The executive secretary-treasurer shall be elected by the convention and shall serve until his successor is elected.

Section 3. The duties of these officers shall be those usually required in similar organizations.

ARTICLE V—BOARDS, TRUSTEES, AND COMMITTEES

Section 1. This convention shall have power to elect such boards, trustees and standing committees as shall be necessary for the handling of the affairs of the convention.

Section 2. That these boards, trustees and standing committees shall make annual detailed reports of all transactions fully covering all work committed to them by this convention.

ARTICLE VI—BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. There shall be a Board of Directors elected by this convention through which this convention shall function in its co-operative work.

Section 2. This board of directors shall consist of the president and recording secretary of the convention and 60 other members who shall be chosen by the convention at the annual meeting. The term of office for these members shall be four years. Fifteen of them shall retire annually and shall not be eligible for re-election to this board for a period of one year. The membership of this board shall include not less than 16 persons who are not ordained ministers of the gospel, including at least eight men and at least eight women.

. . . In order to comply with the requirements of the laws of Oklahoma pertaining to corporations organized for religious, charitable, educational and benevolent purposes, the directors of the corporation, hereinafter referred to as corporate directors shall be the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors, including the president and recording secretary of the convention, and the executive secretary-treasurer of the convention; and the acts of said corporate directors of the convention shall be sufficient to bind the convention for all legal purposes, although their actions shall at all times be subject to, and governed by, the acts of the convention, or of the Board of Directors elected by this convention, acting in the convention's place and stead.

Section 3. The board shall, in case of vacancy, elect an executive secretary-treasurer to serve, until such time as the convention meets. He shall be the official superintendent of all the work of the board and shall make full report of all matters committed to it.

Section 4. This board shall elect all department heads, including the editor of the Baptist Messenger and the assistant executive secretary. The executive secretary-treasurer, in consultation with the committees of the Board of Directors which are involved, shall select the workers in the executive division, with the exception of office or similar personnel. The department heads, in counsel with the executive secretary-treasurer and the committees of the Board of Directors which are responsible for their work, shall select their workers, other than office or similar personnel. The executive secretary-treasurer and each department head shall select his office or similar personnel. Those responsible for electing or selecting workers shall fix their salaries.

ARTICLE VII—PROCEEDINGS

Section 1. The proceedings of the convention, the report of the Board of Directors, and such useful information as the secretary may be able to obtain from the proceedings of the convention shall be published and distributed annually among the churches.

ARTICLE VIII—ANNUAL MEETINGS

Section 1. The convention shall hold its meetings annually at such time and place as it may determine. Special meetings may be called and the time and place of meeting may be changed by the officers of the convention with the consent of the Board of Directors, in case of an emergency deemed sufficient to justify.

ARTICLE IX—SPECIAL FUNDS

Section 1. All funds paid into the treasury of the convention for any special object shall be applied according to the designation of donors.

ARTICLE X—CHANGE OF CONSTITUTION

Section 1. This constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any regular annual meeting provided that proposed amendment be submitted in writing one year before action is taken on same, or provided such amendments be recommended and published by the board two months prior to the meeting of the convention in the Oklahoma Baptist state paper.

Section 2. Section 1 of Article III shall not be changed or amended but shall be held inviolate.

BYLAWSARTICLE I

Section 1. The business and property of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma shall be managed and controlled by the Board of Directors.

The number of directors shall be fifty (50) including the president and the recording secretary of the convention.

The president of the convention shall be president of the Board of Directors, and the recording secretary of the convention shall be secretary of the Board of Directors.

Section 2. The Board of Directors shall be elected by a majority vote of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, in its annual convention which meets from year to year as hereinafter provided: the term of office for these members shall be four years. Twelve (12) of them shall retire annually and shall not be eligible for re-election to this board for a period of one year. In electing members of the Board of Directors, due regard shall be given to both geographical and numerical representation.

. . . In order to comply with the requirements of the laws of Oklahoma pertaining to corporations organized for religious, charitable, educational and benevolent purposes, the directors of the corporation, hereinafter referred to as corporate directors, shall be the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors, including the president and recording secretary of the convention, and the executive secretary-treasurer of the convention; and the acts of said corporate directors of the convention shall be sufficient to bind the convention for all legal purposes, although their actions shall at all times be subject to, and governed by, the acts of the convention, or of the Board of Directors elected by this convention, acting in the convention's place and stead.

Section 3. The date and place for the annual meeting of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma shall be set by the convention itself in annual meeting. The Board of Directors for good cause may change the time and place for the annual convention.

Section 4. In case of any vacancy in the directors the remaining directors by an affirmative vote of the majority thereof may elect a successor to hold the office for the unexpired portion of the term.

Section 5. The directors shall hold semiannual meetings at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma and such special meetings as the President in his judgment may call.

Section 6. Sixteen (16) members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE II

Section 1. The Board of Directors shall elect from the directors an executive committee and the president of the convention shall serve as its chairman. The executive committee shall perform such duties as may be referred to it for action by the general Board of Directors from time to time.

Section 2. All actions of the executive committee shall be reported to the Board of Directors at its meeting next succeeding such action, and shall be subject to revision or alteration by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE III

Section 1. The executive officers of the Board of Directors shall be: A president of the Board of Directors, elected by the convention; a recording secretary, elected by the convention; an executive secretary-treasurer, elected by the convention.

Section 2. All officers and agents, other than those elected by the general convention, shall be subject to removal at any time by the affirmative vote of a majority of the whole Board of Directors. All officers, agents, and employees, other than officers elected by the general convention shall hold office at the discretion of the Board of Directors.

Section 3. The president of the Board of Directors shall preside at all meetings of the board and by virtue of his office shall be a member of the executive committee. He shall have general supervision of such matters as may be designated by the Board of Directors.

Section 4. The Board of Directors shall have the power to appoint a general counsel to represent the board in such legal matters as may require legal action or advice.

Section 5. The executive secretary-treasurer shall have custody of all the funds and securities of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, and when necessary or proper shall endorse, on behalf of the convention for collection, checks, notes and other obligations, and shall deposit the same to the credit of the convention in such bank or banks or depository as the Board of Directors may designate. The executive secretary-treasurer shall make annual reports of all funds or securities coming into his hands, to the Board of Directors, who shall audit and check the same and give the same their approval in writing.

Section 6. The recording secretary shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors. He shall attest with the president all contracts authorized by the Board of Directors or by the general convention and shall affix the seal of the convention thereto; and he shall perform all the duties incident to the office of secretary, subject to the control of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IV

Section 1. The bylaws shall be adopted by the general convention and when once adopted the Board of Directors shall have the power to amend the bylaws of the convention by a vote of two-thirds of all the directors at any regular or special meeting of the board, provided that the notice calling the board together shall specify that amendments to the bylaws will be voted upon at that meeting, provided that in case of emergency three-fourths of all the directors voting therefore, the bylaws may be amended at any general or special meeting of the board without notice.

Section 2. Election of officers shall be by standing vote, unless the method of voting is changed by a majority of the messengers present and voting, as it may pertain to the election of any particular officer.

ARTICLE V

Section 1. The bylaws herein adopted shall conform to the constitution of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, which has been adopted, and in case of conflict between the bylaws and the constitution the provisions of the constitution shall prevail.

Section 2. The Board of Directors may provide for auxiliary corporations working in connection with and in harmony with the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, but such auxiliary corporations or associations shall be subject to the general control of the Board of Directors of the convention.

Section 3. No agency or institution belonging to the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma shall incur an indebtedness without the knowledge and consent of the convention or the Board of Directors. This provision shall not apply to short term loans for current operations. Such loans shall not be made without the knowledge of the executive secretary.

Section 4. No bond, mortgage, or other evidence of debt shall be executed by an auxiliary corporation, or association, involving any of the property of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma.

Section 5. The Board of Directors herein provided for shall only execute bonds, mortgages, and other evidence of indebtedness when expressly authorized so to do by the general convention. Except in cases of emergency a three-fourths majority of the board may authorize the incurring of indebtedness, but the same shall be done in cases of emergency which were unforeseen by the general convention at its annual convention.

Section 6. The Board of Directors through the president and secretary thereof shall make a general report of all its accounts at the annual meeting of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma.

ARTICLE VI

Section 1. No existing institution or agency of this convention shall launch any move or enterprise calling for the expenditure of money apart from operating expenses, until same has been approved by the Board of Directors, or by the convention itself, after having been published in the Baptist state paper at least three months prior to the coming of the convention of the same year.

ARTICLE II

The address of its registered office in the State of Oklahoma is Thurmond Hall, Oklahoma Baptist University in the City of Shawnee, County of Pottawatomie, and the name of its registered agent is Paul K. Nance, whose business address is Thurmond Hall, Oklahoma Baptist University, Shawnee, Oklahoma.

ARTICLE III

ARTICLE IV

The purpose or purposes for which the corporation is formed are: to provide opportunities for all departments of higher education to persons of both sexes on equal terms; to establish, conduct and maintain and conduct training schools in connection with such preparatory schools or departments; to establish and maintain one or more colleges and to provide instruction in all collegiate studies; to establish and maintain an institution of higher learning in which all the branches of advanced learning may be taught, and which may comprise separate departments of literature, law, medicine, music, technology theology, the various branches of science, both abstract and applied, the cultivation of the fine arts, and all other branches of professional and technical education which may properly be included within the purpose and object of such an institution; and to provide and maintain courses of instruction in each and all of said departments; to prescribe the course of study, employ instructors and teachers and to maintain and control the government and discipline of said institution and in each of the departments thereof, and to fix rates of tuition and the qualification for admission to the said institution and its various departments; to receive, hold, invest and disburse all moneys and properties, or the income thereof, which may be vested in the said corporation or entrusted to its care, whether by gift, grant bequest, devise or otherwise, for educational purposes; to act as trustees for persons desiring to give or provide money or property or the incomes thereof, for any or more of the departments of said institution, or for any of the objects aforesaid, or for any educational purposes; to grant such literary honors and degrees as are usually granted by like institutions, and to give suitable diplomas; and generally to pursue and to promote all or any of the objects above named, and to do all things necessary or pertaining to the accomplishment of the said objects and purposes or either of them. And such institution or institutions as shall be established hereunder, shall be given such name or names as the Board of Trustees herein after provide for shall designate.

ARTICLE V

This corporation was formed for Charitable, Benevolent, Religious, Educational or Scientific purposes and has no stated capital.

ARTICLE VI

By appropriate resolution of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, a corporation, on the 10th day of September, 1934, authorized an amendment to the Amended Articles of Incorporation of Oklahoma Baptist University so as to provide that the number of Trustees of Oklahoma Baptist University shall be thirty-two (32) Trustees instead of twenty-four (24) Trustees, and said resolution further provided the manner of electing such thirty-two (32) Trustees, but through inadvertence this has not been done. Article Six (6) of the Amended Articles of Incorporation is hereby amended to read as follows:

"That the membership of this corporation shall consist of the several persons who shall be the members of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, and they shall annually elect trustees to fill the places of those whose terms of office expire, and shall have perpetual succession and be elected in the following manner:

That at the next regular meeting of said Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, eight trustees shall be elected for a term of four years, two for a term of three years, two for a term of two years, and two for a term of one year; and thereafter, at the regular annual meeting of each year said Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma shall elect eight such trustees for a term of four years to fill the expiring terms, and the eight trustees whose terms of office expire annually as herein provided, shall not be eligible for re-election for a period of one year. Vacancies occurring by death, resignation, removal or otherwise, shall be filled for the unexpired term at the next regular meeting after such vacancy occurs.

The qualifications of said Board of Trustees and of the presidents of said institution and of all departments thereof shall be as follows: That each member of said Board of Trustees shall be a member of a Baptist Church within the state; that the presidents of said institution and each of its departments shall be members of Baptist churches."

ARTICLE VII

All acts and deeds, including the execution of any and all instruments, heretofore at any time performed and executed by the Board of Trustees and Officers, or those persons acting as the Board of Trustees and Officers, of the Oklahoma Baptist University, be and are ratified and confirmed in all respects. In particular, all actions taken and all resolutions adopted at, and all instruments executed pursuant to the meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Oklahoma Baptist University held on November 29, 1955, including the election of officers, the authorization, issuance and sale of the Oklahoma Baptist University Dormitory Bonds, Series 1955, in the amount of $600,000.00, and the authorization and execution of the indenture and mortgage securing same, and the adoption of parietal rules and rates and charges in connection therewith, be and are hereby ratified and confirmed in all respects.

BYLAWS

Section 1. The Board of Trustees of The Oklahoma Baptist University shall consist of thirty-two trustees who shall be elected by the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma at their annual conventions held in November of each year. Eight trustees of said thirty-two shall be elected at each annual convention of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma. Each trustee shall hold office for a term of four years after he is elected, and no trustee may be elected to immediately succeed himself.

Section 2. The meetings of the Board of Trustees shall be in accordance with and governed by parliamentary law, insofar as is practicable, as laid down in Robert's Rules of Order.

Section 3. All meetings of the Board of Trustees shall be held upon the campus of The Oklahoma Baptist University in Shawnee, Oklahoma. The Board of Trustees shall hold two semiannual meetings each year and such other special meetings as may be called by the Chairman of the Board of Trustees, or, in his absence from the state of Oklahoma, by the Vice-Chairman of the Board of Trustees. The first semiannual meeting shall be held on a date selected by the Chairman of the Board of Trustees within thirty days after the date of the annual convention of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, which is held in November of each year, at which time the Board of Trustees shall organize, elect its officers, appoint committees, receive reports and conduct any and all other business which it may desire to consider concerning the affairs of The Oklahoma Baptist University or its own affairs. The second of the semiannual meetings of the Board of Trustees shall be held on a date selected by the Chairman of the Board of Trustees at some time within the last fifteen days of the month of February of each year, at which time the Board of Trustees shall elect the faculty of The Oklahoma Baptist University, receive reports and consider any and all other business which the Board of Trustees may desire to transact. The dates of both semiannual meetings and of all special meetings and the hour and place thereof shall be selected by the Chairman of the Board of Trustees, and notice thereof shall be given by the Secretary of the Board of Trustees by mail seven days before the hour of the meeting by mailing notice thereof to each trustee at his place of residence or post office address. Notice of the time and place of all special meetings of the Board of Trustees shall be given by the Secretary of the Board of Trustees in such time and manner as the Chairman of the Board of Trustees deems reasonable and proper. Notice of special meetings shall include a brief summary of the purpose of the meeting and the business expected to come before it.

Section 4. The presence of eleven members of the Board of Trustees shall constitute a quorum and be sufficient to enable the Board of Trustees to pass any resolution or motion, receive reports or recommendations and transact any business which may properly come before it.

Section 5. All officers of the Board of Trustees shall hold office as such officer for a period of one year, or until their successors are elected.

Section 6. The officers of the Board of Trustees shall consist of the Chairman of the Board of Trustees, Vice-Chairman and a Secretary, all of whom shall be elected annually by the Board of Trustees at its first semiannual meeting following the annual convention of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma.

Section 7. Vacancies in the office of the trustee shall occur through resignation or death of a trustee, or as the result of his inability or failure to act, and the Board of Trustees shall have the power to fill any vacancies in the office of trustee occurring during the interval between the annual sessions of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, the persons elected to such vacancies by the Board of Trustees to hold office only until the vacancies are filled by the next annual session of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, and also to elect the successor or successors of any trustee or trustees in case the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma fails to elect such successor or successors.

Section 8. The Chairman of the Board of Trustees shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Trustees, sign all deeds, contracts, bonds, mortgages and other papers evidencing the official acts of the Board of Trustees where the signature of a presiding officer is required by these bylaws or by custom or practice, and he shall call all special meetings of the Board of Trustees, give notice of the time and place of all meetings of the Board of Trustees as herein provided, appoint all committees, and exercise generally such authority as is usually exercised by a chairman or president of the Board of Trustees of a religious corporation. He shall also perform any other and further duties as may be determined or assigned to him by the Board of Trustees.

Section 9. The Vice-Chairman of the Board of Trustees shall perform all the duties of the office of Chairman of the Board of Trustees in the absence of the Chairman of the Board of Trustees from the state of Oklahoma, or in the event of the inability of the Chairman of the Board of Trustees to attend a meeting of the Board of Trustees, or as a result of the inability of the Chairman of the Board of Trustees to act because of sickness, misfortune, or casualty.

Section 10. The Secretary of the Board of Trustees shall keep minutes of the meetings of the Board, issue notices of meetings under the direction of the Chairman, have charge of the seal of The Oklahoma Baptist University and affix and attest the same to all instruments which may require the corporate seal of The Oklahoma Baptist University, and shall perform the duties usually performed by a secretary of the Board of Trustees of a religious corporation and any other duties which may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees.

Section 11. The affairs of The Oklahoma Baptist University shall be administered by a President of the University who shall be elected by the Board of Trustees and hold office at the pleasure of the Board of Trustees under the rules of tenure now existing which have been approved by the Board of Trustees. The President of The Oklahoma Baptist University shall be the chief executive officer of the University and shall have the power and authority to appoint officers to assist him in the administration of the affairs of the University, including such officers as Vice-Presidents, Deans, Directors, Treasurers, Registrars and their assistants. The officers so appointed by the President of The Oklahoma Baptist University shall hold office for such periods of time as the President determines and the tenure of office shall be subject to the will of the President.

Section 12. The members of the faculty of The Oklahoma Baptist University shall be recommended by the President of The Oklahoma Baptist University and elected by the Board of Trustees at their semiannual meeting in February of each year, and the members of the faculty, when their election has been confirmed by the Board of Trustees, shall hold office subject to the rules of the existing tenure which have been approved by the Board of Trustees. Nominations of faculty members, however, may be made by the President of The Oklahoma Baptist University and confirmed by the Board of Trustees at any regular or special meeting.

Section 13. These bylaws may be amended by the Board of Trustees at any meeting, regular or special, by a vote to amend constituting two-thirds of the members present at such meeting.

Section 14. The Secretary of the Board of Trustees, with the approval of the Board of Trustees and the President of The Oklahoma Baptist University, may authorize an officer of The Oklahoma Baptist University and a person other than the Secretary of the Board of Trustees to affix the corporate seal to any diploma, transcript or other instrument having to do with the administration of the affairs of The Oklahoma Baptist University, and to exercise the same authority with regard to the affixing of the corporate seal to such instrument as may be exercised by the Secretary of the Board of Trustees.

Section 15. These bylaws shall stand in the place and stead of and shall be substituted for all other former bylaws of the Board of Trustees of The Oklahoma Baptist University which have heretofore been adopted.

Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

That we, whose names are hereunto subscribed, do hereby associate ourselves together for the purpose of forming a private religious corporation, not for profit, until Title 18, O.S. 1941, Sec. 541, of the laws of the State of Oklahoma, and for that purpose state:

ARTICLE I

That the name of said corporation shall be THE BAPTIST FOUNDATION OF OKLAHOMA.

ARTICLE II

The place in this State where the principal office of the corporation is to be located is Oklahoma City, Oklahoma County, State of Oklahoma.

ARTICLE III

The corporation shall be without capital stock and no dividends or pecuniary benefits shall be declared or paid to any member thereof.

ARTICLE IV

The term for which this corporation shall exist shall be perpetual.

ARTICLE V

The purpose for which the corporation is formed is that of a religious association, and one authorized under the above-named Title 18, O.S. 1941, Section #12 of said laws of the State of Oklahoma; and includes the exercise of all the powers authorized by law to be conferred upon or exercised by such a corporation, including those enumerated in all the applicable provisions of Title 18, Sections Nos. 15, 91, 541, 543, and 545, and all applicable laws of the said State; and especially to purchase, control, manage, acquire, hold, barter, sell, convey, exchange, expand, distribute, invest and otherwise dispose of all real, personal or mixed property of whatsoever nature and wheresoever situated, as such corporations are authorized by law to purchase, control, manage, acquire, hold, barter, sell, convey, exchange, expand, distribute, invest or otherwise dispose of said property for church and other religious and charitable purposes, and such purposes as may be necessary for its membership and such worship and exercise of such powers according to the general laws and regulations of the State of Oklahoma and of The Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, and in compliance with all the special laws and regulations of The Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, and of the State of Oklahoma; and all other laws, rules and regulations of duly authorized powers promulgating the same.

ARTICLE VI

To receive by gift, devise, bequest or otherwise any money or property either absolutely or in trust to be used, either the principal or income therefrom, as may be directed in the furtherance of any of the above-mentioned purposes or any other purpose within its corporate powers.

ARTICLE VII

To enter into contracts or trust agreements with individuals, corporations or partnerships for the purpose of furthering the interest of any educational institution or institutions now owned by, or under the control of, The Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, or any other school which The Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, may promote; or the building and acquisition, as well as disposition, of any property adjacent or in connection with any other school where it would be advantageous to carry out the Baptist principles and doctrines; to assist and promote any of the hospitals under the control and ownership of the said Convention; and to acquire and dispose of any property in order to assist and promulgate the furtherance of said Convention; and to promote and assist the Baptist Children's Home, and any other Baptist orphanage or orphanages under the control and supervision of the said The Baptist General Convention; and to aid and assist all Baptist student union centers on campuses of schools other than those of Baptist denomination.

Among the other purposes for which this corporation is formed is to promote Baptist doctrines, evangelism, Christian education, and both home and foreign missionary work.

ARTICLE VIII

ARTICLE IX

To enter into contracts or trust agreements with individuals, corporations or partnerships in order to carry out and promote the purposes of this Foundation.

ARTICLE X

To prosecute or defend any action or suits that said corporation may be involved in.

ARTICLE XI

To exercise any and all powers (including the borrowing of money and securing the same; the holding, administration and disposition of property, the making of conveyances, assignments and contracts and incurring of obligations) which may be conferred by law, or which may be necessary, incidental or convenient to the purposes and object of this corporation.

ARTICLE XII

There shall be sixteen (16) directors of this corporation, all of whom shall be members of a Baptist church affiliated with the Bap-

BYLAWS

Amended (corrected Min.) 1947

Amended 1948

Amended 1961

Amended 1962

ARTICLE IMembership

Membership in this corporation shall consist of the sixteen (16) individual Oklahoma directors, to-wit:

NAMERESIDENCE

who were recommended by the Board of Directors of the Convention to The Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, and ratified and approved by said Convention. Such membership to continue until their successors are elected; and all shall be resident Oklahomans, who are members of accredited Baptist churches in the State of Oklahoma, affiliated with the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma.

ARTICLE IIAnnual Meeting of the Directors

This corporation shall hold a regular meeting at a designated place at the call of the President of the Foundation a short time prior to the meeting of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, and he annual report and recommendation of the Directors shall be presented to and acted upon by the Convention at its regular meeting.

ARTICLE IIIOfficers

Elective officers of this corporation shall consist of a president, one or more vice-presidents, an executive secretary, who shall also be the secretary and the treasurer of the corporation. Such elective officers, with the exception of the executive secretary, shall be chosen at a meeting of the Board of said corporation, to be held at the Baptist Building, or other suitable location, in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, annually at a time to be determined by the Board, at which meeting each member shall be entitled to cast one vote only. The executive secretary shall be elected by the Board of said corporation and shall serve until his successor is elected.

In addition to the above elective officers, the Board of Directors shall designate such additional lessor officers as it deems necessary, or desirable, such as administrative assistants, assistant secretaries, and assistant treasurers, with such powers and duties as may be determined by the Board of Directors from time to time.

ARTICLE IV Duties of Officers

Section 1—President:

The president shall preside over all meetings of the directors; shall be their official spokesman, and perform such other duties as ordinarily pertain to that office.

Section 2—Vice-Presidents:

It shall be the duty of each of the vice-presidents to act for the president in the absence or incapacity of said president; and to perform such designated duties as may be determined by the Board of Directors.

Section 3—Executive Secretary:

The executive secretary shall be the official administrator of all of the work of the Board of Directors and shall make full report of all matters committed to the Board of Directors.

The executive secretary shall perform all normal duties of secretary; shall keep a record of all minutes of each meeting of the Board of Directors and then shall perform such other duties as are usually incident to the office of secretary.

The executive secretary shall perform all normal duties of treasurer; and, subject to the provisions of these bylaws and to such regulations as may from time to time be prescribed by the Board of Directors of The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma, shall have the custody of funds, securities and properties of the corporation and shall deposit all funds belonging to the corporation in such banks or trust companies as may from time to time be designated by the Board of Directors of said Foundation, or by such committee as may be designated by said Board. All funds, including operating and trust accounts, may be withdrawn upon draft or check signed by the executive secretary without any additional signature being required; provided that in time of an emergency occasioned by the illness or inability otherwise of the executive secretary to sign drafts or checks that the assistant executive secretary is authorized to sign drafts or checks, said drafts or checks to be counter-signed by at least one officer of the Board of Directors; and provided further that current and operating funds only may be withdrawn upon draft or check signed by such other elective or designated officer as may be determined by the executive secretary.

The executive secretary shall cause to be published an annual report of all income and disbursements and shall distribute all designated income that is available for distribution at least once each three months and shall furnish any interested institution any information requested concerning the investment of funds for such institution.

The executive secretary shall file with the Board of Directors of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma surety bond for the faithful performances of his duties in such sum as may be fixed by the Board of Directors of The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma, the expense of such bond to be paid by the corporation as an operating expense.

Section 4—Directors:

The affairs of the corporation shall be administered by sixteen (16) directors, each of whom shall be a regular member of a Missionary Baptist Church, which is in active co-operation with the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma.

It shall be the duty of the directors to invest and re-invest all funds delivered to the corporation by gifts, devises, bequests or otherwise, as well as the undistributed income arising from such investment, and to make distribution thereof only when the method of distribution of principal or income is designated by the donor or testator; otherwise, such distribution shall only be made upon the approval and with the authority of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma; and said directors shall transfer direct to the institution named such funds as may be undesignated for endowment. Said directors shall faithfully make an accounting of their administration of all funds so intrusted to them and to the corporation, to the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, at its annual meeting. Said annual report shall bear the certificate of an independent and disinterested auditor.

ARTICLE V

Method of Election and Terms of Office

Section 1—Directors:

The directors for the first year shall be those designated in the charter and as may be approved at the Convention of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, when the charter and these bylaws are submitted for the approval of the board.

The directors shall serve for a term of four (4) years, beginning with the 15th day of November, 1946, and the first sixteen (16) directors shall serve as follows:

for a term of four (4) years;

shall serve for a term of three (3) years;

shall serve for a term of two (2) years;

shall serve for a term of one (1) year.

Each year thereafter the Board of Directors of the Foundation shall recommend four (4) members to the directors of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, and said Board shall then report and recommend to the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma the four (4) members, to be elected, whose tenure shall be for four (4) years, and shall not be eligible for re-election to the Board of Directors for a period of one year.

Section 2—Other Officers:

The directors shall select from among their own number a president, and one or more vice presidents, each of whom shall hold office for one year.

Section 3—Vacancies:

Vacancies on the board of directors arising by reason of death, expiration of term, resignation, removal from state, or for any cause, shall be filled by the remaining directors. If the Baptist General Convention shall fail to confirm any director chosen in the foregoing manner, the remaining directors shall choose another director to succeed the one failing of confirmation. In the event the Convention does not approve the nominations made by the directors, the Convention shall nominate and elect directors of its own selection to fill the vacancies.

ARTICLE VI

Board of Directors

Section 1—Regular Meeting:

The board of directors shall meet and organize as soon as possible after their election, which shall be their organization meeting. Thereafter, they shall hold at least two meetings annually at such time and place as they may determine.

Section 2—Called Meetings:

Called meetings may be had upon call of the president or upon the request of any three members of the board of directors, and the president or secretary shall give sufficient notice of the time and place thereof to enable the directors to attend.

Section 3—Committee:

The board of directors may, at their first meeting, or any subsequent meeting, appoint from their own number such committee, or committees, and delegate to it or them such authority as may be by the directors deemed advisable, so long as the same shall be within the limits of their own authority and discretion.

Section 4—Quorum:

A quorum of the board of directors shall consist of at least five (5) members, and all matters properly coming before them shall be determined by a majority vote of those present.

Section 5—Extent of Authority:

The directors shall have and exercise full authority with reference to the investment, reinstatement and administration of the principal of all funds and property devised, bequeathed, given or transferred to the corporation, and shall have authority to execute proper transfers, assignments, contracts, deeds, oil and gas leases and mineral deeds, releases, receipts, acquittances, and any and all instruments that may be necessary in the administration of the property, and assets of the corporation, and the purchaser or transferee of property, real or personal notes, bonds, or securities, shall not be required to look to the application of proceeds so long as such instrument or instruments so delivered to him or them is executed by the president or vice-president of the board of directors and, in the case of real estate, attested by the secretary under the seal of the corporation; and upon proper resolution of the board of directors. And where funds or property are given or devised to said corporation in accordance with specific conditions and provisions as to how the same shall be administered or distributed, said directors shall have full authority to carry out such specific directions. In the absence of such specific directions, said directors shall have no authority to distribute said funds or property, but only to administer the same in such manner as to realize the best return thereon by way of rental, interest or other income, and make full accounting of all such funds and property so administered by them to the next annual meeting of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, which Convention shall have full and final authority to make distribution of funds on hand and subject to distribution.

ARTICLE VII

Distributees

All funds so received and administered by the corporation and distributed as herein provided, shall be so administered and distributed for the benefit of Baptist institutions and agencies located in the State of Oklahoma, and of causes, agencies and institutions fostered by, and having the official sanction of, the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, or the Southern Baptist Convention, and for no other purpose.

ARTICLE VIII

Seal

The seal of the corporation shall be circular in form, and shall consist of _____, around the outside border of which shall be inscribed the following:

"THE BAPTIST FOUNDATION OF OKLAHOMA."

Amendments

These bylaws may be amended by a three-fourths vote of members present and voting at any annual meeting of this corporation held in connection with the meeting of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma. No amendment shall be voted on until the same has first been presented at a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, nor shall any such amendment become effective until approved by the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma.

5. The report of the Credentials Committee was as follows:

The Committee on Credentials recommends that the 573 persons who have registered as duly elected messengers from the churches co-operating with and contributing to the work of this convention, under the terms set forth in Article II of the Constitution of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, and such other messengers who shall properly register during the convention, constitute this 1966 convention.

6. Motion carried to adopt the report.

7. The Program Committee Report was as follows: "We recommend that the program, as printed in the Book of Reports, be the order of this convention, subject to necessary changes that may appear."

8. Motion carried to adopt the report.

H. E. Alsup, Chairman; N. D. Carver, Richard Moody, James Baldwin, Roy Clayton, Carl Chism, M. H. Oglesby

9. Jack L. Gritz, editor of the Baptist Messenger, brought a devotional message on "The Teachings of Jesus as found in the Beatitudes," Matthew 5:1-12. It was an expository message, with a practical and personal application.

10. Miss Abbie Louise Green, state secretary of the Woman's Missionary Union, brought the WMU report.

Woman's Missionary Union

Miss Abbie Louise Green, Executive Secretary

The theme for 1965-66, "A Church Fulfilling Its Mission Through Proclamation and Witness," was carried out by Woman's Missionary Union work in all phases of its program.

Mission Study

The Mission Study Institute held this year majored on teaching techniques on the home and foreign mission books. The foreign mission graded series was on "New Mission Fields in Asia." The books used were: adult, Beneath the Himalayas by Jasper McPhail; young people, Crosscurrents by Keith Parks; Intermediate, Few Among Many by Marjorie Bennett; Junior, My Island of Sumatra by Ross B. Fryer Jr., and Primary, The Flying Dragon by Marjorie Rowden. The home mission graded series was on "The Great Lakes Area." The books were as follows: adult, Forest Trails to Urban Jungles by L. H. Moore; young people, A Saga Told by Eva R. Inlow; Intermediate, Safari North by James C. Hefley; Junior, A Bugler for Sallateeska by Floyce Moon, and Primary, A Church for Debbie and Dan by Martha Gillespie Lowe.

Teachers at the mission institute were Mrs. Faye Keeter of Claremore, adult; Mrs. Kenneth Bonds of Oklahoma City, young people; Elizabeth Curtis of Oklahoma City, Intermediate; Mrs. David Fry of Kingston, Junior, and Mrs. Roy Clayton of Laverne, Primary.

Lyle Garlow told of his trip to East Pakistan.

Scholarships

Woman's Missionary Union provides scholarships through the Edna McMillan Offering for State Missions for three Indian girls to attend Oklahoma Baptist University. One of these scholarships was used by Rosemary McCombs of Dustin.

Educating Youth in Missions

Educating youth in missions is part of the work of Woman's Missionary Union. Our state youth leaders are Mrs. Roy Clayton, Sunbeam Band director; Elizabeth Curtis, Girls' Auxiliary director, and Nancy Bridges, Young Woman's Auxiliary director.

The theme for the YWA Convention, Oct. 22-23 was "Proclaim to Every People." Missionary speakers for the convention were Dr. and Mrs. Wilbur Lewis, missionaries to Paraguay; Dr. and Mrs. Orby Butcher, missionaries to Thailand; Dr. and Mrs. Robert Lindsey, missionaries to Israel, and Billie Pate, director of field services, Woman's Missionary Union, SBC. Lila Jane Bolton of Enid, was chosen Miss YWA of 1965. Attendance was 441.

The theme for the YWA Retreat at Camp Nunny-Cha-ha, April 29-May 1 was "Share Christ in Today's World." Special speakers were Mrs. Paul Box, missionary to Malaysia; Mrs. Johnnie Pearl Coffey, WMU executive secretary of National Baptists; Mr. and Mrs. Alex Garner, missionaries to Argentina; Mrs. Leslie Gunn, missionary to the deaf; Mrs. J. E. Wallace, Oklahoma City, and Mrs. W. J. Williams, missionary to Nigeria. Attendance was 251.

There were 48 girls who attended the YWA Conference at Ridgecrest, N. C. Forty girls traveled to the conference by a chartered bus and eight girls traveled by cars.

Miss Bridges planned for the Young Woman's Auxiliary meetings.

Six Girls' Auxiliary camps held this summer at Camp Nunny-Cha-ha had 1,340 girls attending. Missionary speakers were Mrs. W. J. Williams, missionary to Nigeria; Sue McDonald, missionary to Malaysia, Mrs. Victor Kaneubee and Mrs. J. V. Gonnson, missionaries to New Mexico, and Mrs. Bruce Conrad, missionary to Utah.

The Girls' Auxiliary Conference was held at Oklahoma Baptist University, April 2-3. The theme for this conference was "Proclaim These Words." Missionary speakers were Mrs. Wilbur Lewis, missionary to Paraguay; John Nance, missionary to Indonesia; Eugene Sloan, missionary to Spanish speaking people of Oklahoma City, and Charles LeClair, missionary to the Indians of Oklahoma City.

Miss Curtis planned for the Girls' Auxiliary work.

Mrs. Clayton secured teachers and assistants for the Beginner and Primary Sunbeam Band classes and for all three Falls Creek Assemblies. She planned and led associational Sunbeam Band workshops in many places in our state.

Falls Creek Assemblies

Every year missionaries are secured to teach mission classes at the Falls Creek Assemblies. The missionaries this year were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Box of Malaysia; Mary Brooner of Rhodesia; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coy of Chile; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Grigg, Home Mission Board, Atlanta, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Claudio Iglesias, Chilocco School, Newkirk; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ricketson of Philippines; Mrs. Loren Turnage of Columbia, and Mrs. W. J. Williams of Nigeria. Ross McLennan, Walter Welch, and Bob Merrill of Sooner-Alcohol-Narcotic Education taught a class of young people using the book, Alcohol and Christian Influence.

WMU Retreat

September 10-11 were the dates of the WMU Retreat held at the College for Continuing Education on the University of Oklahoma campus. "Growing in Grace and Knowledge" was the theme considered by the 152 women attending the retreat. Methods conferences were taught by state WMU officers responsible for promoting the tasks of WMU. Missionary speakers were Frank Coy of Chile; Mr. and Mrs. Urban L. Green of Nigeria; Mr. and Mrs. Billy Keith of Japan; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Muse of Ecuador; Mrs. Mildred Streeter, WMU field worker among the Indians, and Mrs. Johnnie Pearl Coffey, WMU executive secretary of National Baptists. Other special program guests were Mrs. Richard Hopper, Ardmore, who gave the meditation; Margaret Shelton of the Oklahoma University BSU, who brought the Sunday school lesson; David Hopper, student at OBU, who presented slides of his year as a student in France, and Lila Jane Bolton of Enid, Miss YWA of Oklahoma, who gave her testimony.

Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of Woman's Missionary Union was held in First Church, Oklahoma City. The theme for the meeting was "Proclaiming the Everlasting Gospel." Foreign missionaries were Mrs. Edith Humphrey of Philippines; Mrs. Robert Lindsey of Israel; W. J. Roberts of Kenya; Eugene Thomas of Malawi; Josephine Scaggs of Nigeria; Dr. and Mrs. Wilbur Lewis of Paraguay; Dr. and Mrs. Orby Butcher of Thailand; Wanda Ponder of Paraguay, and Everley Hayes of Indonesia. Mrs. J. Winston Pierce of California, spoke on "Our Witness" at the beginning of each session. Mrs. Robert Fling, president, represented Woman's Missionary Union, SBC.

Special Offerings

Woman's Missionary Union promotes three mission offerings each year: the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for Foreign Missions, Annie Armstrong Offering for Home Missions and Edna McMillan Offering for State Missions. The 1965 Lottie Moon Christmas Offering amounted to $542,578.19. The Annie Armstrong Offering amounted to $139,323.84. As of Oct. 18 the Edna McMillan Offering had reached $46,498.58.

Writers of the programs for the State Mission Season of Prayer were Mrs. Al Karcher of Oklahoma City, adults and YWA; Mrs. Floyd Craig of Oklahoma City, Junior and Intermediate GA, and Mrs. Maynard Hadley, Beginner and Primary Sunbeam Band. Publicity ideas were provided by Mrs. J. T. Robison of Tulsa. The theme was "God's Strength . . . for This Generation," based on the Scripture Psalm 71:17-18 (Amplified). "Give of Your Best to the Master" was the suggested hymn. The 1966 goal is $72,000.

11. Motion carried to adopt the report. Mrs. Sam Arnold, State President of WMU, spoke to the report, involving our women in all church and denominational activities.

12. John Bisagno brought the report on Home Mission.

Home Missions

The Home Mission Board is grouping its resources for "a creative approach to meet the near revolutionary changes which dominate life in the United States," according to Executive Secretary Arthur B. Rutledge.

Social changes affecting missions include the urbanization and industrialization of the nation, the population growth, the search for civil justice, and a revolution in morals. Rutledge says the Home Mission Board is seeking to discover the individual's, the church's, and the denomination's mission in a changing society.

High lights in meeting change included the participation by the Home Mission Board in the SBC's program study, improvement in organization, additions to and utilization of staff personnel, record support of missions by all Southern Baptists through participation and finances, and initiation of new ministries.

Changes with the agency included the addition of a Division of Administrative Services, a Department of Work Related to Non-Evangelicals, a Department of Christian Social Ministries, a Department of Special Mission Ministries, art services, mission property services, and emphasis on metropolitan and academic evangelism, an associate director in the Division of Missions, and the Division of Education and Promotion was renamed Division of Communication.

In supporting missions in the United States, Cuba, Puerto Rico and Panama, Southern Baptists channeled more than $7,900,000 through the Home Mission Board. The Cooperative Program provided $4,365,353, including the largest advance section in history, $911,753; and the Annie Armstrong Offering promoted by Woman's Missionary Union provided a record $3,573,146.

Disaster Relief became a permanent ministry of the agency in the Department of Christian Social Ministries, and $50,000 was allocated from the advance section for aid to hurricane stricken areas in Louisiana.

The missionary force of over 2,000 is mostly employed under the co-operative agreements with state Baptist conventions. The lower figure of the number of missionaries is due to a restudy of missionary categories. In addition, 656 students are employed for 10 weeks for the summer of 1966, and the first group of US-2ers (college graduates for two-year terms) and the first of the Christian Service Corps (mature lay persons for short terms of voluntary service) were appointed.

The 12 programs through which the Home Mission Board seeks to bring our land to know Christ are the following:

Evangelism Development	Metropolitan Missions
Establishing New Churches and Church-Type Missions	Christian Social Ministries
Rural-Urban Missions	Church Loans
Work with National Baptists	Pioneer Missions
Chaplaincy Ministries	Language Missions
Associational Administration	Work Related to Non-Evangelicals
Service

Studies in depth continue with ministries to metropolitan areas, in resorts, on the rural-urban fringe, and other points of change. One in-depth study on how churches might minister to ex-prisoners continues under the direction of a seminary professor. Another study, of transitional areas in metropolitan units, was completed and is being implemented into programs of the agency.

Active duty chaplains increased during the year, matching "the increased manpower and readiness" in Viet Nam. Some 50 Southern Baptist chaplains were ordered to duty during the past year, and now 528 serve with the Army, Navy and Air Force, and the figure is expected to reach 600 before the end of 1966.

Seven hundred and eighty-one chaplains, in addition to those in active duty with the military, are commissioned in the reserve, student program, or National Guards with the military services.

Another 233 chaplains serve full-time with the veteran's administration, hospitals, and other institutions and industry, plus 41 part-time chaplains in these categories.

Statistical summary — number of workers, including summer workers, 3,150; professions of faith—57,407; There were 35,523 additions to churches; total professions and additions—92,930. There were 419 new missions started and 244 new churches constituted.

The Home Mission Board is providing ways the individual, the church, and the denomination can meet the needs of people. Your increased support and your sharing Christ, a larger missionary force and staff, the forming of 12 programs with organizational changes to implement them are designed to place God's Word in the hands of people so they will accept it in their hearts.

There is need for 186 home missionaries. Needs in our land are greater today than ever before. There are more people, places and spiritual problems. Evangelism, the starting of new churches and church-type missions, and other traditional work in home missions will receive priority. Special attention will be given to metropolitan areas, the downtown church, and the growing number of unchurched.

Without prayer support your Home Mission Board cannot get along. Prayer is one way everyone can participate in giving God's Word to the people in our land and other lands.

Home Missions Committee, John R. Bisagno, chairman, Kenneth Williams, Archie Rivers, Harry Gootas, Mrs. Hale Dixon, Bill Martin, and Ed Readout.

13. Motion carried to adopt the report.

John Bisagno spoke to the report and urged that more workers volunteer for missionary activities. All home missionaries present came to the platform; also our chaplains. Each introduced himself and told of his field of labor. John Bisagno led in prayer for God's blessings upon each of them in their fields of labor.

14. Gerald Palmer, Southern Baptist associate in the Language Department and group ministries of the Home Mission Board, spoke regarding the board's efforts in the field of our language ministry. He then led in prayer for our two missionaries who are now in prison in Cuba.

15. Eugene Herndon brought the report on Foreign Missions.

Foreign Missions

We rejoice today because the Great Commission is being carried out through preaching, teaching, healing and training by a great force of dedicated men and women. They are individuals as Isaiah, saved by the grace of God, who have heard the call and have dedicated their lives to full-time Christian service.

In 1953 we had 908 missionaries serving in 34 nations of the world. In 1963 the number of missionaries had reached 1,792 serving in 53 countries. At the close of 1965, there were 2,070 missionaries under appointment by the Foreign Mission Board for service in 61 countries, plus Hawaii and the Spanish Baptist Publishing House in El Paso. As of July 1966, we have a total of 2,189 missionaries; included in this number are 2,024 career missionaries, 165 missionary associates, missionary journeymen and the special project nurse.

These missionaries are under appointment to 62 countries where they are involved in general evangelism, educational, medical and publication work. Included also is the operation of book stores and reading rooms in many countries. In 1965 the 4,410 churches and 7,131 mission points reported 571,590 enrolled in Sunday school, with 492,148 church members and 48,080 baptisms. We have 1,095 Baptist schools on the foreign fields with 184,810 students served by 5,703 national and 382 missionary teachers. Along with these are 43 theological institutions with 1,510 students and six women's training schools with 527 students. We have 20 hospitals and 52 clinics and dispensaries which served 504,963 patients last year. We have 21 Publication centers which produced 18,499,307 pieces including periodicals, books and tracts; 16 orphanages with 283 boys and 352 girls, and 17 good will centers with 3,513 children and 1,868 adults enrolled.

Southern Baptists continue to be aware that "the fields are white unto harvest" and that the Cooperative Program is still the best means of reaching the world for Christ. It is the financial foundation of foreign missions. Through the years Southern Baptist churches have done together what they could never have done individually. The Cooperative Program is the solid financial base on which foreign missions advance is projected, overseas budgets are planned, and additional missionaries are appointed. Total contributions of Southern Baptists for foreign missions amounted to $24,367,327 or 61.41 per cent of total gifts to all causes. Last year we received $13,194,357.32 through the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering. The operating budget for 1966 is $19,482,552.65 and our capital budget for 1966 is $5,800,000. A minimum of $2,000,000 increase in the operating budget of the Foreign Mission Board is necessary in order to provide for the appointment of new missionaries and make minimum provision for strengthening work on the fields.

We need to expand our missionary personnel, broaden our geographical areas, increase our evangelism, speed up our church development, encourage our work in Christian education, medical missions and personnel involvement. An important aspect of evangelism is mass communications. Increasing use of all media of mass communication will be made in the days ahead. Radio and television afford remarkable opportunities for preaching the gospel of Christ. Recording studios are being established at strategic centers for program production. More missionaries will be appointed for radio and television ministries where recommended by missions. To meet these needs and to place 5,000 missionaries abroad will demand greatly enlarged financial resources from Southern Baptists. To this urgent and gigantic task, we are deeply committed.

Because more than 1,000 young people have asked the Foreign Mission Board for appointment, because the need is great, and because of the visible success of the crusade in Brazil, and elsewhere, let us pray for God to keep the doors open, and open other doors, that others may hear the gospel of salvation. Pray for the following projected crusades:

Japan—April, 1967
Peru—November, 1966
Chile—1967
Portugal—May, 1967
Greater Americas—1969

This is our day and our greatest hour. May we be found every man in his place during this great hour of crisis. As we ask the question that Isaiah asked, "How long must I continue to go?"; we also hear the same answer, "Until the cities be wasted without inhabitants and the land be utterly desolate before us."

Respectfully submitted, Eugene Herndon, Chairman, Curtis Dixon, Jerry Fielder, Fred Skaggs, Mrs. Joe Skinner, Jim Hall, Herb Masters

16. Motion carried for the adoption of the report.

All foreign missionaries present came to the platform and were introduced. Herndon led in prayer for all of our foreign missionaries and their fields of labor.

17. Special music was given by "The Singing Churchmen" under the direction of James D. Woodward.

This group is composed of the music leaders of our Oklahoma Baptist churches.

18. R. Cal Guy, professor of missions at Southwestern Seminary, brought the closing message of this session. His subject was: "Our Life in Christ and How to Share It."

19. Joe Howard, associational missionary in Enon Association, led in prayer bringing this session to adjournment.

Wednesday Morning November 9, 1966

20. First Vice-president J. W. Wade called the convention to order at 9 a.m.

21. Chuck Hopkins, Harvard Avenue Church, Tulsa, led in "Worship in Song."

Songs used were: "To God Be the Glory" and "'Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus."

22. Robert Haskins, Talihina, led in prayer for divine guidance and blessings upon this session of the convention.

23. John Bisagno brought a devotional message on the subject: "The Teachings of Jesus . . . the Great Commission." Mark 6:7-13 was his text. It was a moving message of challenge to "go." Bisagno has recently visited the new nation of Guyana. During his visit, there were more professions of faith in Jesus than there were members of our Baptist churches, before the campaign began.

24. Auguie Henry brought the report of the Baptist Foundation.

Report of the Board of Directors of the Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma

Presented by Auguie Henry, Executive Secretary

The year 1966 marks the Twentieth Anniversary of the establishment of The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma by the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, and the close of a 10-year program of the Foundation which began with the year 1957.

Ten-Year Program

The 10-year program set out the following objectives:

(1) Have 2,260 living trusts (including gift annuities) and wills in which the Baptist Foundation is named as trustee for institutions and agencies.

(2) Have $5,000,000 invested in current church building loans by the close of 1966.

(3) Have $10,000,000 in endowment.

We will have until Dec. 31, 1966, to complete the 10-year program but as of Sept. 30 we have gone far beyond the objectives of formal trusts and wills, with a total of 2,785. In addition thousands of gifts have been received without formal trust agreements. As of Sept. 30 $3,799,201.69 was outstanding in church building loans. The $10 million objective in endowment has not been reached, but under the circumstances the assets of $7,099,215.72, most of which is endowment, is no small accomplishment. As the 10-year program does not close until Dec. 31, 1966, we expect that the endowment figure will be considerably increased.

Twenty Years of Pioneering

The accomplishments in a pioneering field of denominational endeavor where few trails had been blazed prior to 1946 are too numerous to put in this report. However, we think it is befitting in this 20th annual report to name some of the trails that have been blazed by our Foundation in the work of a state, denominational, incorporated trust agency:

(1) Our Foundation has pioneered in promoting a church-centered program on total "Bible stewardship," including the "stewardship of estates."

(2) We have pioneered in presenting a united agency and institutional program to associations, which was known as a "Baptist Tour with a Forward Look."

(3) It was the first state Baptist foundation to become the sole trust agency for every agency and institution owned and operated by a state convention. It has also served as the trust agency for churches, associations and other Baptist organizations. In addition, it has received and administered trust funds for agencies and institutions of the Southern Baptist Convention.

(4) It was the first state foundation to procure, administer and disburse building funds for institutions as a regular phase of its work. From 1949 to 1954 it majored on the procurement of buildings because of the great need for buildings at the institutions. Some accomplishments in this area of endeavor have been:

A. All of the funds were provided through the Foundation for the locations and construction of buildings as follows: W. S. Kerr and the John D. Rinard buildings at the Orphans' Home; the land and the Jimmy Johnson Memorial Cottage, the Lucia E. Gensman Cottage and the R. C. Howard Cottage at Boys Ranch Town; the location for Southeastern BSU at Durant, and the BSU center at Wilburton, and the location for the Hugo Golden Age Home.

B. Other buildings for which the Foundation has procured and received a portion of the funds were: Mrs. W. S. Kerr Memorial Dormitory, Ford Music Hall, Thurmond Science-Administration building and the John W. Raley Chapel at Oklahoma Baptist University; the BSU centers at Norman and Stillwater; the Maude and James T. George Cottage and the Andrew Potter Cottage at the Orphans' Home; Baptist Memorial Hospital and Baptist Golden Age Homes in Oklahoma City; the B. B. McKinney Chapel at Falls Creek Assembly, and buildings at Camp Hudgens for Royal Ambassadors, McAlester.

(5) It has pioneered in setting up a regular church loan program as a part of its investment program.

(6) It has pioneered in allowing the executive secretary to serve as trustee for minors and other loved ones of donors to the Foundation.

(7) It has pioneered in producing printed material on aspects of the work of a state Baptist Foundation that had not been previously printed.

(8) It has pioneered in administering student scholarship and loan funds, including students at OBU, students at the Baptist schools of nursing, for students attending Southern Baptist seminaries and for colored students.

(9) It has pioneered in the investment of funds. The Investment Committee approves all investments and not one single dollar has ever been paid for professional fees on investments.

Endowment

Realizing that the greatest physical need of the institutions and agencies was an endowment that would adequately supplement allocations from the Cooperative Program, in 1954 the Foundation began majoring on the procurement of endowment, but not to the neglect of buildings and other trust funds. It is a profound conviction of the Board of Directors of the Convention that our institutions must have a perpetual income from substantial endowment in order for them to serve as the founders meant for them to serve when they were established.

Receipts and Disbursements

Beginning with trust assets of $76,000, which were transferred by the convention to the Foundation, receipts have totaled $13,818,834.25 as of Sept. 30, 1966. Disbursements to Baptist causes have been $6,719,618.53, with assets of $7,099,215.72 on Sept. 30, 1966, making it the second largest state Baptist Foundation.

Total receipts from Oct. 1, 1965, through Sept. 30, 1966, have been $1,431,825.01. Disbursements to Baptist causes have been $380,818.09.

Living Trusts and Wills

During the past 12 months a total of 263 formal living trusts and wills have been procured by representatives of the Foundation. In addition, hundreds of gifts have been received without a formal trust agreement. A number of other wills have been written as a result of the Foundation's promotional program.

Insurance

More and more donors are finding that a life insurance policy is one of the best means by which one may contribute endowment and other trust funds through the Foundation for Baptist agencies and institutions. A number of new policies are being written with the Foundation named as trustee for the different causes. Others are being assigned to the Foundation.

Church Loans

Due to the heavy increase in the number of applications for church loans and due to the fact that only 50 per cent of the Foundation's trust assets may be invested in church loans, the church loan committee found it to be necessary at its May 13, 1966, meeting to make what it hopes will be a temporary change in policy regarding the closing of loans committed after May, 1966. All loans committed after that date must have the stipulation that the loans will be closed when funds are available. It is the hope of the Foundation that the increase in receipts will be sufficient to make it possible for committals to be made during the latter part of 1967 as they have been during the past 12 years. During the past 12 months 27 church loans have been committed for $711,950.00. In that year 26 loans have been closed for a total of $808,983.78.

Guy James

The Foundation was shocked by the sudden death of Guy James, one of its most faithful and able directors, on Sept. 8, 1966, in Medellin, Colombia, South America. James was elected by the Board of Directors of the Foundation on Jan. 22, 1963, to fill the unexpired term of Senator Robert S. Kerr. He was a member of the Investment and Church Building Loan Trust Fund Committees. He was a deacon in First Church, Oklahoma City, and a director of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma.

We express our heartfelt sympathy to Mrs. James and to the children, Guy James Jr. and Mary Brett. We pray God's blessings upon them during these days of adjustment occasioned by the passing of their loved one.

Personnel

On Aug. 1, 1966, Raymond J. Hurt became chief accountant, succeeding Wayne Merritt who resigned as administrative assistant, effective June 24, to go with the Internal Revenue Service. The Foundation's accountancy has grown so rapidly during the past few years that it is necessary for the chief accountant to give all of his time to directing that work. Mr. Hurt comes to the Foundation with excellent training and years of experience as an accountant. He was accountant and office manager for the Oklahoma City office of New State Ice from 1948. During the past two years he served as general manager. Mrs. Delbert Marlow has been an assistant in accounting since January, 1963.

Even though the work of the Foundation increases every month no additional personnel has been added since Aug. 1, 1965. At the present time, in addition to the executive secretary, there is a staff of eight people, including: Thomas E. Carter, assistant executive secretary; Marvin H. Hall, field secretary; Raymond J. Hurt, chief accountant; Earl L. Stark, field secretary, and Ednamae White Bennett, Della Kirby, Beatrice Revels, secretaries, and Mrs. Delbert Marlow, assistant in accounting. Two of the staff members have been with the Foundation for more than 10 years. On Feb. 1, 1966 Ednamae White Bennett completed 12 years as secretary to the executive secretary. On Aug. 1, 1966, Earl L. Stark completed 10 years as field secretary.

1967 Promotional Program

(1) In addition to the regular promotional program which has been carried on during the past 17 years, plans have been made to revive the presentation of the "Implementing the Forward Look Program" during 1967. The program will be presented in the Oklahoma County and the Tulsa County Associations, covering a period of approximately 22 weeks.

(2) Continued emphases will be given to church dinner meetings which have been so successful in the past for the discussion of the services of the Foundation to individuals, churches, associations, agencies and institutions.

(3) A new filmstrip, "Generations to Come," has been prepared by the Stewardship Commission in co-operation with the Association of Baptist Foundation Executives and the Public Relations Department of the Texas Baptist Foundation. The Foundation has purchased 65 of these filmstrips for use by the Foundation staff members, superintendents of missions and institutional personnel. This is an excellent filmstrip that should be shown in all of our churches.

Tulsa Foundation Office

The Foundation's office in the Tulsa Baptist Center has proved to be a convenience to the people of Tulsa County and surrounding counties in eastern Oklahoma. A member of the Foundation staff is in the office the first week in each month. Any one from the Tulsa area who would like to talk with a Foundation representative may make arrangements to do so by writing The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma at 710 South College, Tulsa, 74104, or 1141 North Robinson, Oklahoma City, 73103. The telephone number of the Tulsa office is WE 9-2457, and in Oklahoma City the number is CE 6-4341.

We are deeply grateful to Superintendent of Missions Leo Perry, his staff and to pastors of the Tulsa Association for their co-operation with the Foundation in carrying on the work from the Tulsa office.

Recommendations

(1) That Article V, Section I, Paragraph 3 of the Foundation's bylaws be amended by adding the words, "shall not be eligible for re-election to the Board of Directors for a period of one year." Then the paragraph would read,

"Each year thereafter the Board of Directors of the Foundation shall recommend four (4) members to the Directors of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, and said Board shall then report and recommend to the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma the four (4) members, to be elected, whose tenure shall be for four (4) years, and shall not be eligible for re-election to the Board of Directors for a period of one year."

(2) Assuming that this amendment will be approved by the convention, we recommend to the Board of Directors of the convention, who will present the recommendations to the convention, that the following be elected to a four-year term as successors to directors of the Baptist Foundation who will not be eligible to succeed themselves immediately after the annual meeting of the state convention: Hicks Epton, Wewoka; Charles Green, M.D., Lawton; E. W. Claiborne, Bartlesville, and Hubert H. Raborn, Oklahoma City.

(3) At the May meeting of the Foundation's Board of Directors it was decided to change the name "Advisory Council Member" to "Foundation Representative" and that the associational stewardship chairman, who is elected by the associations shall be elected for a term of one year as a Foundation representative, together with the following:

Members of the Foundation staff and board members were introduced. This was the 20th year of the Foundation. Henry called attention to the high points of the past and present of the Foundation.

25. Motion carried to adopt the report.

26. President Richard Hopper brought the annual president's address giving his appreciation for the year of his presidency. He introduced his wife and son, Mark. Mark is state president of Royal Ambassadors and was presented a "gavel" to be used during his tenure of office.

27. Chuck Hopkins led the congregation in singing "I Will Sing of My Redeemer."

28. LeRoy Raley brought the report on Religious Literature, and spoke to the report.

Religious Literature

"Of the making of many books there is no end" so said Solomon in Ecclesiastes 12:12. If this statement were true then, it is doubly true today. Never has there been so many magazines and books published as we have flooding the market today. Some are good while others are deplorable. Some are designed to evangelize men, and build Christian character, while others are damning in nature and destructive to the Christian life. The written word is a barometer of our civilization and a permanent record of each generation. We as Baptists may analyze the situation, deplore the evil and approve the good, but unless and until we do something more concrete about it, the situation will not be improved.

We reaffirm our conviction that the Bible remains the ultimate in Christian literature. It is indispensable in the life of the individual and the denomination. It should be in every home. Its truths should live in every Christian heart. It should be distributed and utilized by Baptists in the promotion of evangelism and all other forms of Christian service. The Bible spirit must be demonstrated in Christian living, and its doctrines proclaimed if we are to be true to the commission which Christ gave to us.

However, the Bible should be accompanied by other forms of Christian literature, and Baptists have always been in the forefront in this field of Christian endeavor. Jesus wrote upon the sand, but Paul and other disciples, inspired by the Holy Spirit, set us an example of writing the Christian message upon more permanent materials. We have wisely followed their example. This literature is imperative in helping man to relate himself properly to God and his fellowman.

Baptist literature is second only to the Bible in religious publications. Our writers and publishers have adhered strictly to certain basic requirements, such as: Christian literature must be true to the Bible. It is the basis of all truth, and any publication which is not in harmony with the Bible teachings is out of place in Baptist circles. Also, it must be factual, historically and scientifically as well as theologically. Half-truths, and exaggerations are as destructive as outright fabrications.

Furthermore, our literature must keep in mind the reader to whom it is directed. We cannot mold the characters of Primary-age children with adult-level materials. Our publishers very wisely adhere to this principle as they produce their materials for instruction and inspiration. We take great pride in the periodicals and other literature published by our Sunday School Board, Home and Foreign Mission Boards, Woman's Missionary Union and Brotherhood Commission. We believe they will continue to provide us with fine periodicals, books and tracts with a twofold objective: to assist the churches in their ministry of Bible teaching and training, and to help the individuals experience personal salvation and growth toward the highest level of Christian maturity and service. Every effort is made by the editors and their staffs to maintain doctrinal soundness, educational effectiveness and general excellence in all publications.

Our people universally have given their hearty endorsement to our publications by their widespread use, for Baptist literature goes around the world today as never before in history. It is used by people in the local churches in the homeland and by our members away in service. Our military men and their dependents abroad are making use of Baptist literature in many ways, and are winning many to Christ in their host countries. The same is true of Baptists in other phases of government service, as well as those in industry. We can help them by making the best Christian literature readily available to them. Churches should see to it that their members away in service receive their church bulletins, the Baptist Messenger, the Sunday school and Training Union quarterlies, as a bare minimum. The Baptist Messenger has been carrying the gospel message into Baptist homes for 54 years. It is now enjoying an all-time high in circulation, going into 80,000 homes every week. We heartily commend Jack Gritz and his fine staff for their outstanding performance in the publication and distribution of a truly topflight magazine.

Baptist leaders at all levels of organization are urged to encourage their people to read the Baptist Messenger and other Baptist periodicals. They can be used effectively in discussion groups, especially in Training Union, WMU and Brotherhood meetings. We must remember that the message they contain is effective only as it is read and incorporated into the lives of our people. We also recommend that attention be given to the religious pages of our secular press. Many daily papers have items of importance in the world of religion which should be noted by Christian people.

The written word is not only ancient in tradition and informative of the progress of the race of mankind, but is also the only means available to man in finding his place in the continuity of that progress, to establish intelligent relationships with his fellowman and to come to grips with the supreme fact of God at the center of the universe, and his own life. From the crude pictures in the cave dwellings of races long since vanished, to the highly stylized and dramatic statements of dedicated minds today, the reader finds one thread of continuity: The awareness of God. From these pages of history expressing man's concern with God, and his inherent demand for worship we can know that God has always walked among men. So he did in the beginning, so he does today. It is for us then, to take these two primary facts of history, man's inherent concern and God's presence and record them in every conceivable manner so that all mankind may read of the presence of God in Christ.

We pray that God will give us the wisdom and consecration to carry on this vital ministry in a manner that is pleasing to him and edifying to mankind.

LeRoy Raley, chairman, Calvin Ussery, J. M. Banther, Richard Waters, Paul B. Clark, Eugene Braley and H. Ray Bowen

29. Motion carried to adopt the report.

Editor Jack L. Gritz stressed the importance of the Baptist Messenger to all of our Baptist programs.

30. Secretary Lyle Garlow addressed the convention regarding the Department of Religious Education. Members of the department were introduced.

Religious Education

Lyle Garlow, Secretary

This has been a year of transition in the Department of Religious Education. We have missed E. W. Westmoreland, who retired Jan. 1, 1966. However, because of his excellent leadership and training of his staff during the past 24 years, we were able to make the transition smoothly.

The work of our department continues to major in three main areas: Sunday school, Baptist Student Union and Training Union. Student work steadily grows under the most capable leadership of Clyde Clayton. Bill Haggard, who has been in the department only one year, is promoting Training Union with a most enthusiastic and energetic program. It is my privilege to carry the Sunday school promotion.

Our department is ably assisted by two other associates: Miss Alga Motychak, director of children's work; and Hugh Willoby, director of youth work.

We will suffer another loss this year in the early retirement of Mrs. Dorothy Sneed, who has served almost 25 years and has been responsible for so much of the work and success of our department, and who has been of immeasurable help to me during this year. Mrs. Herb Collins, presently secretary to Bill Haggard, will succeed Mrs. Sneed on Jan. 1, 1967.

Others in the department are: Mrs. Joan Garrison, secretary to Clyde Clayton; Mrs. Roberta Peck, receptionist and secretary, and Miss Judy Hill, Sunday school records secretary.

Currently the department is involved in One-day Growth Workshops which will take us into every association in the state during a six-month period, September through February. These workshops are accomplishing their design—to stimulate interest and concern for growth.

Sunday School

Enrolment reached a total of 333,675 during 1965, a loss of 2,333. Awards in Category 17, Sunday School Principles and Methods in the Church Study Course, totaled 10,617. Oklahoma ranked seventh in Category 17, and ninth in total awards among the states of the convention. Standard Units totaled 716, placing Oklahoma fourth in the convention.

Vacation Bible Schools, 1965—Enrolment was 136,504, a gain of 10,292 over the previous years. Known schools totaled 1,130, with 776 schools reporting 2,338 professions of faith. Four associations, Arbuckle, Concord-Kiowa, Kay and Oklahoma County had a Vacation Bible School in each church.

Important Sunday School Dates

1. January Bible Study Week, Jan. 2-6, 1967
2. State Vacation Bible School Clinic, Feb. 24, 1967, Trinity Church, Oklahoma City
3. June-July, Operation Home Study
4. July, Glorieta Sunday School Weeks
5. September 8, State Planning Meeting for Associational Sunday School Superintendents
6. Preparation Week, Sept. 18-22, 1967

Baptist Student Union

"The church that does not speak to the student will not speak to tomorrow." This statement from Kenneth Chaffin is a major reason for Oklahoma Baptist's ministry with students. The fall of 1966 witnesses college enrolments which at many institutions are almost overwhelming: 4,000 Baptists at OSU; nearly 3,000 at Central State; over 2,000 at Tahlequah; a total of almost 20,000 at the 24 schools where there are Baptist Student Unions.

A major thrust in 1966, from the convention's student office, has been in the area of endowment. The Baptist Foundation has been active in calling the attention of Oklahoma Baptists to the need for BSU endowment funds. Trusts have been established and wills written which will ultimately benefit student work at several schools.

Dates of importance to student work are:

- December 25, 1966—Student Night at Christmas
- January 7, 1967—Student Summer Missionary Selection
- January 12-13, 1967—Directors' Seminar
- March 10-12, 1967—World Missions Conference
- March 31-April 2, 1967—International Conference
- April 21-23, 1967—Spring Training Conference
- August, 1967—On to College Day
- August 24-30, 1967—Student Week, Glorieta
- September 9, 1967—State BSU Planning Meeting
- October 27-29, 1967—State BSU Convention

I. The Past Year—1965-66

1. Of the 1,357 churches in Oklahoma 1,117 reported a functioning Training Union as of Oct. 1, 1965, or 83 per cent of the churches in the state.

2. Training Union enrolment in the state on Oct. 1, 1965 was 124,351, a loss of 5,654 over the previous year. (A portion of this loss was due to the change in the method of processing the church letters.)

3. "M" (Mobilization) Night, was conducted on Dec. 6, 1965, with every association in the state co-operating. The total attendance was 17,251, an increase of 1,182 over the previous year.

4. Training Union plans, goals and objectives were correlated in the total goal-setting program of the churches.

5. The State Sunday School Convention and Training Union Convention were combined and conducted on Oct. 18-20, 1965, at First Church, Oklahoma City.

6. The Youth Convention was conducted May 15, 1966. Seventeen associations were represented in at least one event: Junior Memory Work, Intermediate Sword Drill, or the Young People's Speakers' Tournament.

7. Four associations now report Training Unions in 100 per cent of their churches.

II. Dates, Goals and Projects—1966-67

1. "An Enlarged Concept of Church Training Program," is the key phrase in Training Union for 1966-67.

(1) New Training Union methods manuals were ready in June of '66.

(2) Life and Work Curriculum materials were available on Oct. 1.

(3) New Member Orientation materials are now available to the churches.

(4) Leadership Training materials for training potential leaders are now available.

2. The date of our State Training Union Convention is Oct. 19-20, 1967.

3. The associational "M" Night program is scheduled for Dec. 5, 1966. The state goal is 20,000. Suggested associational goals are 20 per cent of the Training Union enrolment.

4. An associational Training Union school, teaching the new methods books in each association.

5. A state finalists' tournament in Junior Memory Work, Intermediate Sword Drill and Young People's Speakers.

6. A goal of 25 new Training Unions in the state during the year, with a statewide increase in enrolment of 8,000.

7. Greater emphasis on New Member Orientation Interpretation Clinics, utilizing trained personnel to lead these conferences.

8. A special effort to strengthen the over-all growth of churches through training potential leaders.

31. Motion carried to adopt the report.

32. Dorothy Sneed was presented a plaque in appreciation for 25 years of faithful service.

Bill Haggard of the Training Union and Clyde Clayton of the Student Union and John Scales of the BSU in Stillwater, spoke regarding their activities.

33. Secretary T. B. Lackey brought the report of the Board of Directors.

34. Time arrived for the annual sermon by David G. Hause, First Church, Ada. Robert N. Hammons, Clinton, was the alternate and read from II Corinthians 8:1-9, 24. Gene Bartlett led in singing "Amazing Grace." Hause used as his text II Corinthians 8:9 calling attention to Jesus.

What Jesus was . . . rich.

What Jesus became . . . poor.

Why . . . that you might be rich.

It was a message that exalted Jesus.

Mrs. Pete Butler sang "I'm a Child of the King."

Hause led in the benedictory prayer.

Wednesday Afternoon November 9, 1966

35. President Hopper called the convention to order at 1:30 p.m.

36. John Holmes, Skelly Drive Church, Tulsa, led in "Worship in Song."

Song used was "Glorious Is Thy Name, Oh Lord."

37. T. Hollis Epton led in prayer.

38. Richard Peterson, Stillwater, brought a devotional message on the subject: "The Teachings of Jesus . . . His Coming Again." His text was Luke 17:20.

39. Mrs. O. S. Allen and Bradley Bolin presented the report of the Baptist Book Stores.

Baptist Book Stores

Your Oklahoma Baptist Book Stores have done much to improve their service to you. The Tulsa Book Store was moved to a new location this past year, the present address being 5545 East 41st Street, with a larger store, new equipment and 12 capable employees always ready to serve you. The Oklahoma City Book Store has 21 employees ready to serve you.

Both stores carry a complete line of children's books and recordings, as well as general and religious titles, music and church supplies for all the various organizations.

Our aim is to improve our service, in fact, to give "Service with a Christian Distinction."

Any suggestion you have for improving that service will be gladly received.

We ask your prayers that we might be better servants of Christ, and that together we may reach, teach and win many who do not know our Savior.

The Baptist Film Center is located in the Oklahoma City Store with over 1,500 sound films for your use.

Respectfully submitted, Mrs. O. S. Allen, manager, Baptist Book Store, 5545 East 41st, Tulsa, Okla. 74135 and T. Bradley Bolin, manager, Baptist Book Store, 208 N.W. 11, Oklahoma City, Okla, 73103

40. Motion carried to adopt the report.

41. T. B. Lackey brought the report on Hospitals and Golden Age Homes.

Personnel Changes

William G. Kersh, who has assisted the executive secretary-treasurer in directing the Hospitals and Golden Age Homes work for several years, is presently devoting full time as administrator of the Oklahoma City Golden Age Homes. The rapid growth of this our newest institution demands the best leadership and administration available. Kersh, the Baptist Laymen's Corporation and the executive secretary-treasurer joined in working out this arrangement.

Frank Allee, chaplain of the Cordell Hospital, departed this life March 22, 1966.

C. E. Hendricks, administrator of the Perry Hospital since 1961, passed away July 23. He served as pastor of several churches before entering the hospital ministry. He opened the hospitals at Pryor and Cordell.

Frank Renfro, began as chaplain at Cordell on Aug. 1.

David Foster, administrator at Stillwater, is also serving as administrator at Perry.

I. G. Devine, formerly pastor at Helena, is chaplain at the Oklahoma City Golden Age Homes.

M. D. Gentry, of Clayton began Aug. 1 as chaplain of both the federal and state tuberculosis hospitals at Talihina.

Thomas P. Haskins, asked to be relieved as chaplain at Baptist Memorial Hospital April 1. He was elected by the Convention's Board of Directors as chaplain and evangelist emeritus.

Willis L. Saunders, began as chaplain at Baptist Memorial Hospital July 1. He assists J. V. Porter, who has been chaplain for a number of years. Porter also serves as Director of the Department of Pastoral Care.

H. Alton Webb, assistant administrator of Miami Baptist Hospital, served a short time as acting administrator of the Oklahoma City Baptist Golden Age Homes due to the critical illness of Ralph Hill. Webb returned to Miami on Jan. 15.

Carlos Berry, formerly pastor of Immanuel Church, Davis, became assistant administrator of Grand Valley Hospital, Pryor, Sept. 1.

Truett Haskins, son of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Haskins, accepted the position as assistant administrator of Enid General Hospital on Sept. 15.

Recent Honors

B. A. Hargrave, administrator at Cordell, and Howard Walker, assistant administrator of Baptist Memorial Hospital, Oklahoma City, were admitted to membership in the American College of Hospital Administrators. James Henry, administrator of Baptist Memorial Hospital, received the high honor of fellowship. We congratulate these co-workers. Our hospitals and homes are blessed with good, well-trained, dedicated administrators and chaplains. They are reinforced with hundreds of dedicated workers.

Lackey also brought the report of the Laymen's Corporation.

Baptist Laymen's Corporation

Baptist Laymen's Corporation, a nonprofit organization, was incorporated under the laws of the state of Oklahoma on Feb. 12, 1960. The general purpose of the Corporation, composed of 30 dedicated Baptist laymen, representing 16 churches in the Oklahoma City area, is to engage in, develop, encourage, promote, finance, contribute to or carry on religious, charitable, educational, benevolent or scientific work, endeavors and activities of any and all kinds; particularly those performed or promoted by the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma. The Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Baptist Laymen's Corporation provide for Convention approval of its Board of Directors.

The first project undertaken by the Baptist Laymen's Corporation was financing, constructing and leasing the Doctors Medical Building near Baptist Memorial Hospital in Oklahoma City. Ground-breaking was held on Aug. 28, 1960 and the building was completely occupied in June, 1963.

The Trust Agreement by which the Baptist Laymen's Corporation held the land on which the Doctors Medical Building was located was revoked by the Convention's Board of Directors on Oct. 23, 1963. At this time, the land and building were conveyed to the Baptist General Convention along with the assets and liabilities of Baptist Laymen's Corporation arising from the construction of the building.

In September, 1963, following a request from the Board of Directors of the Baptist General Convention, Baptist Laymen's Corporation agreed to assume the responsibility of financing, constructing and operating the Oklahoma City Baptist Golden Age Homes at Northwest Highway and Council Road on land given to the convention for this purpose. The 35-acre tract of land was deeded to the Baptist Laymen's Corporation in accordance with the same terms and conditions set forth in the resolution regarding the Doctors Medical Building.

This project was financed by the sale of first mortgage real estate bonds and was completed and ready for open house as a part of the program at the Baptist General Convention's annual meeting on Nov. 10, 1965.

The Oklahoma City complex consists of 20 apartments and Lackey Manor, a 62-bed nursing home. In August, 1966, there was an average daily occupancy of 57 residents in Lackey Manor and 12 of the 20 apartments were occupied.

H. Atton Webb continued as the administrator until January, 1966. At this time, both Webb and W. C. Campbell, administrator of Miami Baptist Hospital requested that Webb be allowed to return to his former position as assistant administrator of Miami Baptist Hospital. This transfer was effected immediately and W. G. Kersh, director of Baptist Hospitals and Golden Age Homes, was asked to assume administration of the Golden Age Homes on a temporary basis. This plan was followed until August, 1966, at which time it was agreed that Kersh would give most of his time to the Oklahoma City Golden Age Homes and Lackey Manor and temporarily handle the details of the Department of Hospitals.

The Baptist Golden Age Homes ministry is one of the truly outstanding opportunities for fulfilling the needs of people. It merits the support of all our churches and the loyalty of all Oklahoma Baptists.

Initial plans are already in the talking stage for an enlargement of Lackey Manor. Another 40 beds are desired from the standpoint of practical administration, as well as for the purpose of extending the ministry, to meet the needs of more people.

Officers of the Baptist Laymen's Corporation are: James M. Gregory, president; Hubert H. Raborn, vice-president; George A. Bond, secretary; R. C. Howard, treasurer.

In Memoriam

The Baptist Laymen's Corporation suffered a great loss in the death of two of its most active members, Oscar Davis and Guy James, during the past year. Both of these men were deacons in First Church, Oklahoma City, and active in all of our denominational life.

42. Motion carried to adopt both of these reports.

43. The following student nurses were presented and received their awards from Mrs. Norma Webb.

(1) Oklahoma Baptist University Department of Nursing: Senior honor student—Judith McGlamery, Colorado; Junior honor student—Kay Ballinger, Eufaula.

(2) Enid General Hospital School of Nursing: Senior honor student—Marjorie Stafford, Laverne; Junior honor student—Toni Pepia, Ponca City.

(3) Baptist Memorial Hospital, Oklahoma City: Senior honor student—Jane Williams, Sayre; Junior honor student—Delinda Sneed, Ardmore.

(4) Miss Betty Ware, Director of Nursing, Baptist Memorial Hospital, spoke concerning the great need for more nurses.

(5) Bill Kersh spoke in the interest of the Oklahoma City Golden Age Home.

44. H. Truman Maxey presented the report of the Department of Child Care.

45. Motion carried to adopt the report.

Child Care

H. Truman Maxey, Executive Director

The slogan now current for our benevolent work is "Oklahoma Baptist Child Care is the heartbeat that meets the heartache of Oklahoma children."

Oklahoma Baptists have met the progressive changes that have brought our state from "tepees to towers." They have met the industrial and cultural changes in their churches and in their mission program which includes their child care program.

They were among the first to build on the "cottage plan" and now look forward to completing new buildings on the "family plan" where brothers and sisters are able to live in the same building and experience a more normal family relationship. Oklahoma Baptists were not afraid of problems and we were the first denomination in Oklahoma to begin a work for boys in difficulty.

When new medicines increased the longevity of parents, it reduced the number of full orphan children. We carefully studied the needs of children, and those from broken homes became a challenge for care on a short-time basis, for we became "partners with parents in trouble," and with a trained social work staff and informed workers, children could be re-established in their family and homes could be rehabilitated in many instances for the return of the child. Those who could never return were found permanent homes by adoption or served in our group homes, at the Baptist Children's Home or the Boys Ranch Town, depending upon the age of the child and its needs.

Changes in services to meet children's needs necessitated a larger, better trained, and a more specialized staff. Facilities were also tailored to be current with the need. This means buildings were so arranged or planned with special purposes in mind for the best interest of children who are served.

The programs of training and education for the children of today in our benevolent work, must meet the standards of our schools, our churches and our communities. They compete with other children in the community, school and the local church. They take their normal place in the society of children and young people, and in their maturity will take their place and responsibility in the society of mankind.

These changes also affect our need for financial support from our churches and Baptist people. Forty-five per cent of the child care budget is certain, because it is planned income from endowment, Cooperative Program and regular church gifts. Fifty-five per cent still must come from other sources, mainly special offerings. Baptists must "have a heart" to keep the "ache out of heartache."

In the past 12 months Baptists have been entrusted with the care of 286 children and young people with an average daily load of 190. For this work, we employ 58 workers which gives a total Baptist family of 248.

Our immediate responsibility is the Thanksgiving Love Offering on Nov. 13. In 1965 this hit an all-time low, because some churches didn't observe the offering at all, and some did not feel a deep concern. Many Baptist people did not have an opportunity to make their gift. Some churches gave sacrificially. Child care is the mission work of all the Baptist churches and it takes the combined effort of all. We are praying that each church will feel keenly this responsibility and do its best. May the Lord be able to say to every church and its pastor, "Well done . . ." because they have been faithful in the task of "pushing the ache out of heartache" for Oklahoma children.

Workers in the department were introduced.

Judson Cook, for 17 years a leader in the department, spoke.

46. J. Marvin Gaskin brought the report of the Historical Commission.

47. Motion carried for adoption of the report. George McDow and Vernon Pendleton spoke to the report.

Historical Commission

J. Marvin Gaskin, Secretary

The main project of the Historical Commission the past year has been the publication of the book, Baptist Milestones in Oklahoma by J. M. Gaskin. The commission voted Jan. 28, 1963 to authorize the writing and publication of this book, and the author turned the finished manuscript over to the commission at Lawton Jan. 24, 1966.

An editorial committee composed of John Dowdy, Jack Gritz, and Linton Brister reviewed and advised concerning the format and content of the manuscript, and a special committee composed of C. B. Lewis, Floyd Craig and G. H. Crittendon, directed plans for publication and distribution. The book came from the press in time for distribution at the first week of Falls Creek Assembly in July. A total of 3,000 copies in hard back cover were printed, of which about 2,000 were ordered by pre-publication subscribers. The book is available at the Historical Commission's booth at this convention or by mail at the price of $2.55 per copy.

In the Sept. 13, 1966 meeting of the commission it was voted to give full support to the convention's plans to observe the golden jubilee anniversary of Falls Creek Baptist Assembly in 1967. Special projects of the commission in this respect will include:

1. The publication of a history of Falls Creek entitled The Falls Creek Story by J. M. Gaskin. This book is to be written in a more popular style than the academic type of history and will include many quotes and other items of human interest. An extensive picture section is planned.

2. A history center is to be developed and dedicated during the encampment next summer, and the commission voted to name the center Falls Creek Memorial Park. This park will occupy a lot formerly leased by Downtown Church, Oklahoma City, and is considered one of the first sites where W. D. Moorer and J. B. Rounds held prayer meetings to dedicate these grounds to the future use of Oklahoma Baptists as a summer assembly.

Specific details planned for the park as approved by the commission include the following:

- (1) The erection of 12 stone posts marking the boundary of the lot with the possibility of connecting the posts with short chain lengths.

- (2) Each stone is to be emblematical signifying the 12 tribes of Israel and the 12 apostles of the Judeo-Christian tradition. Each of the posts will also be designated as a memorial to a person who played a vital role in the early history of Falls Creek.

- (3) A small marble slab is planned for each post bearing an appropriate inscription including the name of the person for whom that post has been named.

- (4) Suggested names of persons to be placed on the posts are: J. B. Rounds, W. D. Moorer, F. M. McConnell, Miss Sue Howell, Mrs. Maude Abner, E. E. "Hot Dog" Lee, Blount F. Davidson, Thad H. Farmer, Andrew Potter, Berta K. Spooner, Fred A. McCaulley, Rosalee Mills Appleby.

(5) Erection of a cast-iron historical marker facing the principal street near the site, and caption the marker, FALLS CREEK MEMORIAL PARK.

(6) It is suggested that the convention consider the possibility of putting a small pavilion in the center of the park where a display map of the assembly grounds could be placed in a glass enclosed frame and where a small tract display could be arranged.

(7) It is suggested that two or three casual benches be placed in the park and that these be painted to match the pavilion in attractive colors.

(8) It is recommended that a brief tract be printed entitled "The Falls Creek Story" for free distribution from the tract dispenser in the Memorial Park. This tract could be based on the proposed book, The Falls Creek Story.

In addition to the items above the commission reports that the Oklahoma Baptist Historical Society continues to function as an effective auxiliary to the commission in promoting the history interest of Oklahoma Baptists. There are 98 members of the society, of whom 15 are life members and 83 are annual members. Life membership dues are $25 and annual memberships are $2. All interested persons are invited to membership in the Historical Society during this convention.

48. James Baldwin, Bartlesville, brought the American Bible Society report, and spoke briefly regarding this vital program.

49. Motion carried to adopt the report.

American Bible Society

"God's Word for a New Age" is the theme for the 150th Anniversary of the American Bible Society which is being observed during 1966. It is also the theme of a program of worldwide missionary advance. Bible Societies of many nations are working together to provide greatly increased quantities of Scriptures urgently needed for mission work around the globe.

If the people of the world are to know Jesus Christ the one hope of men and nations, they must have the Bible.

Each person must have the Bible in his own language because it speaks to his heart as no other language can speak.

But, in most countries, people cannot afford even the cost of printing the Scriptures.

The Bible is the essential tool of missions and evangelism. The missionary uses it in all his work. The Bible itself is a missionary. It can go where the human missionary cannot go. It can stay on after he must leave—and keep on speaking to a person's heart.

The American Bible Society is an active partner of Southern Baptists. It serves mission work at home and abroad, helps missionaries translate the Bible, publishes without note or comment and distributes without profit, usually below cost. For the blind, it supplies Scriptures in Braille and other raised-letter systems, Talking Bible records, and tape recordings.

The current goal of the program, "God's Word for a New Age," is to increase total worldwide Scripture distribution to 150 million volumes per year (three times the total of recent years). Half of this (75 million volumes per year) is to be done by the American Bible Society. Long-range goals are:

- A Bible in every Christian home
- A Testament in every Christian's hand
- A Scripture Portion for every reader
- Supplies of Scriptures for Christians to share

During 1965 the American Bible Society—

- rejoiced that some part of the Bible has been published in 1,250 languages; the full Bible in 237, a Testament in 297 more, a Gospel or other complete book in 716 more—but still counted over 1,000 more languages in which not one book of the Bible has yet been published—and continued to expand its service in Bible translation work throughout the world.
- gave over 745,000 Scripture volumes for distribution by Chaplains to our Armed Forces and Veterans' Hospitals, as a vital link between the home churches and men in service.
- continued programs throughout Latin America for training laymen in Scripture distribution in their own communities—and planned for similar work in other areas of the world.
- distributed a record total of over 54 million Scripture volumes in more than 400 languages, in 149 countries—with more than half the total going to other countries—and continued in the task of greatly increasing its annual distribution to meet urgent worldwide needs.

Southern Baptists Support the Work

Because the Bible Society serves mission work—and Southern Baptist missionaries depend on the Society for Scriptures they need for their people—Southern Baptists believe in the missionary importance of giving to the American Bible Society.

In 1965 Southern Baptist churches gave $226,731 to the American Bible Society and ranked first among all denominations. Gifts from all churches in the U.S.A. totaled $1,333,058.

The help of every Southern Baptist church is needed. Southern Baptist churches can continue to lead—if every church will give. Has your church given this year? Here are suggestions, based on what many churches are now giving:

Every church can give at least these amounts each year:

- Smaller churches ----- $10 to $60
- Larger churches ----- $60 to $300
- Great city churches ----- $300 to $600 or more

Please send gifts to your Baptist state office marked "for the American Bible Society."

50. Time arrived for the business session and the following reports were given.

(1) Melvin Moody, Walters, brought the report of the Building Committee and motion carried for its adoption.

Convention Building Committee

Each year a building committee is elected to supervise building projects for several convention institutions and to correlate all building programs. Members of the committee are: Ted Coldiron, George Robbins, D. H. Corwin, Hollis Morris, Ralph Crawford; Robert Denny, Kenneth Romines, Melvin Moody, Kenneth Mullins, Bill Hardage, Lester Barker and M. T. Shelton.

In the Dec. 28, 1965, meeting, Melvin Moody was elected chairman. Sub-committees were elected to serve in connection with building projects under construction and those planned for the immediate future as follows:

Child Care—Hollis Morris, Ralph Crawford, Bob Denny, Ted Coldiron and Melvin Moody.

Camp Hudgens—D. H. Corwin, Ted Coldiron, Kenneth Romines and Lester Barker.

Falls Creek—Melvin Moody, George Robbins, Bill Hardage, M. T. Shelton and Lester Barker.

Enid Hospital—Ted Coldiron, Hollis Morris and M. T. Shelton.

Sayre—Bob Denny.

Falls Creek Sewer

January 14, 1966, bids were opened and contract awarded on construction of a complete, modern sewer system at Falls Creek Assembly. The cost of this project, including additional land for lagoon and engineering fees, will be approximately $125,000. Most of the system was in use during the annual assembly and the job is practically complete.

Camp Hudgens

Early in the year a contract was awarded for the construction of a new dining hall at Camp Hudgens. The building, including furnishings and architect fees, cost approximately $75,000, and was dedicated July 9, 1966, during the Royal Ambassador Camp. Funds for this building were raised by pastors and laymen in Oklahoma County. Over $80,000 was pledged in a drive directed by Bob Banks, Royal Ambassador secretary, with R. C. Howard and James Gregory serving as co-chairmen.

Children's Home

A new laundry building was constructed at the Children's Home at a cost of $75,000. It was dedicated May 1. On the same date ground was broken for a new cottage to be named in honor of Oatley Anderson of Chickasha, who left a substantial gift to the home. When the estate is settled there should be sufficient funds for construction of this cottage.

Miami Baptist Hospital

Miami Baptist Hospital has been in constant enlargement and modernization for several years. A new addition has been made this year at a cost of over $100,000.

Enid General Hospital

Plans for comprehensive enlargement and modernization of Enid Hospital are in the planning stages. Construction depends upon the success of a fund-raising drive considered by the citizens of Enid. Additional information is given in the report of the board.

Baptist Memorial Hospital

We are pleased to report that the expansion of Baptist Memorial Hospital, Oklahoma City, is completed and all of the approximately 400 beds are in service. This is one of the largest and finest hospitals in the Southwest. The administration and special building committees that have worked on this project across the years are to be commended.

(2) Joe Coleman brought the report of the Committee on Nominations and motion carried for its adoption.

51. Ramsey Pollard, Bellview Church, Memphis, Tenn., spoke to the convention on the subject: "His Will for His Church." Texts used were: Matthew 16, "I will build my church," Matthew 28, "Teaching them to observe."

It was an inspirational message, appealing to us to stay by the Bible and its teachings.

52. Gene Bartlett led the congregation in singing "Am I a Soldier of the Cross?"

53. Harold Watson, Healdton, led in the closing prayer.

Wednesday Evening November 9, 1966

54. A pre-session music program was led by Gene Bartlett beginning at 6:30 p.m. singing "Since Jesus Came into My Heart" and "What a Friend We Have in Jesus."

Melvin Rahming of Nassau, president of Baptist Student Union at OBU, sang, "Oh for a Closer Walk with God," "The Wonder that God Loves Me," "Without Him, I Can Do Nothing."

Richard Huggins was at the piano.

55. President Richard Hopper, called the evening session to order at 7 p.m.

56. Robert Webb, Cheyenne, led in prayer.

57. J. W. Storer, former pastor of Tulsa First Church, brought a devotional message on the subject: "The Teachings of Jesus . . . the Good Shepherd" (John 10:14).

He talked about the Shepherd and his leadership.

58. This time was given to the Baptist Foundation on its 20th Anniversary. Secretary Auguie Henry has been with the Foundation for 17 years.

(1) H. H. Hobbs spoke regarding the early years of the Foundation.

(2) R. A. Young spoke regarding the 17 years of the leadership of Secretary Auguie Henry.

(3) Warren C. Hultgren spoke regarding the future of the Foundation.

59. Secretary T. B. Lackey and Joe L. Ingram presented the proposed program for Oklahoma Baptists.

(1) Joe L. Ingram spoke regarding "stewardship."

(2) R. C. Howard presented a watch to Lackey in appreciation of 15 years of leadership as executive secretary-treasurer of the convention. An orchid corsage was given to Mrs. Lackey.

(3) Secretary Lackey spoke on the subject: "Oklahoma Baptists on the March."

60. Speical music was by the Chapel Choir of Oklahoma Baptist University under the direction of James D. Woodward.

61. Charles McKay, executive secretary-treasurer of Arizona Baptist Convention, brought the closing message of this session.

His subject was: "Taking the World for Christ." Matthew 9:36-38 was his text.

62. Bob Evans, Mangum, brought this day's sessions to a close with prayer of thanks and dedication.

Thursday Morning

November 10, 1966

63. Vice-president R. C. Howard called the convention to order at 9 a.m.

64. Troy Harp, Tulsa, led in the "Worship in Song" singing, "There Is Sunshine in My Soul."

65. Edgar E. Hatfield, Tulsa, led in prayer for the blessings of our Lord upon this day's activities.

66. J. W. Storer brought his second devotional message upon the subject: "The Teachings of Jesus . . . the Many Mansions" (John 14:1-7; 25-27).

Parts of his message were:

What of the future? Is all of life in this world?

There are many mansions not made with hands.

This is not speculative.

Jesus is preparing the mansions.

We shall serve him day and night.

We shall know as we are known.

We shall see Jesus and be with him forever.

67. J. A. Pennington brought the report on Brotherhood and Evangelism. Members of the department and staff workers were introduced.

Brotherhood and Royal Ambassadors

J. A. Pennington, Secretary

Brotherhood work in a Baptist church is missionary education and missionary involvement of all men, young men, and boys. This concept and emphasis has been received with a great deal of enthusiasm. Brotherhood is the only unit of a church program which provides missionary education for the men and boys. Unless Brotherhood units are organized and functioning this means the men and boys will miss this vital area of spiritual development and service.

To implement the program of missionary education and involvement, a new organizational structure of Brotherhood has been adopted. Three units of Brotherhood work are now available. They are: "Baptist Men," 25 years of age and up; "Baptist Young Men," 18-24; and "Royal Ambassadors," 9-17. The term "Brotherhood" is used to refer to any and all of these units. The "Baptist Young Men" is a new unit of work.

In addition to the change in the units, there is also a change in the officers. "Baptist Men" will now have five officers, namely, president, vice-president, secretary, mission study leader and mission action leader. The "Baptist Young Men" will have the same officers as "Baptist Men" plus one officer called an advisor.

To implement the new organization an emphasis in Brotherhood work, a program of training has been planned. This started with specialists being trained in a Regional Brotherhood Institute at Mineral Wells, Texas. Four area training sessions were planned to train associational Brotherhood officers for Oklahoma. It is hoped that every association will plan a full leadership course for church Brotherhood officers this fall or next spring.

Baptist Men's Day is becoming more popular. The reports of churches observing Baptist Men's Day, the fourth Sunday in January, are glowing reports. One church got such a blessing from the day that they decided to have the observance twice a year instead of once.

The Brotherhood Department made plans to participate in a laymen's crusade in Nevada, Oct. 3-9, 1966. This is an outstanding contribution to missions both in the state of Nevada and to the lives of Oklahoma men who participated.

This year when the emphasis throughout the convention is on education, every church should examine itself and see if it is providing missionary education for its men and boys. If assistance is needed contact your associational Brotherhood director or your state Brotherhood department.

Royal Ambassador Report

According to preliminary reports, there has been a decline of 18 churches with RA work and 57 chapters, leaving a total of 528 churches with 1,087 chapters. This report indicates that the majority of Oklahoma Baptist churches are not providing missionary education for their boys. Pastors and churches need to awake to the responsibility and possibilities of helping boys become dedicated to the cause of Christ around the world.

With the Brotherhood's new purpose of missionary education, the relationship of RAs to the men's organization, now Baptist Men, has changed. The RA leader and committee are not a part of Baptist Men but are elected by and responsible to the church under the leadership of the Brotherhood director; recognizing, in the true sense, that missionary education is the church's responsibility and not the men's alone.

To assist associations and churches, 20 men from Oklahoma participated in an institute in Mineral Wells, Texas, in 1966 in order to serve as training specialists.

The state RA Congress hit a high attendance peak of 3,000 in 1966.

The Brotherhood Commission, SBC, has announced its selection of Oklahoma City as the meeting place for the National RA Congress, Aug. 13-15, 1968.

Camp Hudgens Report

A total of 793 boys and leaders attended Camp Hudgens during the seven-week season. There were 130 decisions, which included 30 professions of faith, 49 rededications, and 51 for church-related vocations.

A new $68,000 dining hall was completed and used this summer. The dining hall provides feeding for 200, excellent kitchen and storage facilities, and cooks' quarters. It also serves as a worship and meeting place. Being winterized, the building can serve the year around.

The completion of the dining hall was made possible through a fund-raising drive in Oklahoma County. Under the leadership of R. C. Howard Jr. and James Gregory, co-chairmen, $85,000 was raised.

It is anticipated that five cabins and a new sewerage system can be built for 1967 from the fund drives in other counties and the balance of the Oklahoma County drive.

Evangelism

J. A. Pennington, Secretary

Dr. Paul S. Rees quotes from Karl Marx, "Philosophers have only interpreted the world differently; the point is, however, to change it."

Rees then makes this comment, "However unlike they are in fundamental affirmations, the Christian gospel and communism are at this point in agreement. But the agreement goes little further. Distinctively, the church proclaims the changed world as the consequence of changed men. Reflective man produces new philosophies; it is only regenerate man who holds the clue to a society that is really new."

Rees continues, "It is this conviction, grounded in the Good News that, 'God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself,' that makes evangelism immensely more than a theory or a slogan. IT BRINGS IT INTO FOCUS AS A NECESSITY."

Dr. John Havlik has well said, "No denomination has ever killed evangelism, but the lack of evangelism has killed denominations." This is certainly true of a church. A church that is not evangelistic will die of dry rot.

Christ's Plan for His Churches

Christ's program for every church is an evangelistic program. The churches which do not constantly seek to win men to a saving knowledge of the truth and enlist them in Christ's service have missed the mark of the divine purpose and requirement.

The Importance of the Evangelistic Church

The world can never be won to Christ by revivals only. Last year in Oklahoma 42.5 per cent of those won to Christ in our churches were won during revivals. This reveals the need of a perennial effort in evangelism. But it is in evangelistic churches that revivals are most easily held and have the most far-reaching results.

It is in evangelistic churches that the ripest Christian character grows and the richest spiritual leadership develops and comes to usefulness. In evangelistic churches the fellowship of God's people finds its ripest fruitage; the devil cannot grow dissension and discord in a soul-winning church. The soul-winning atmosphere is the best place to grow new Christians into maturity. It is in evangelistic churches that the young people hear most easily the call of God to service and most easily surrender to his will.

The Pastor—Evangelist

"No amount of organization or educational activity can substitute for the pastor in evangelism. He is not the 'key' to evangelistic success, he is the 'heart' of evangelism in the churches. The call of the hour is for the pastor-evangelist, a man of the flaming heart, who will be all things to all men if he may win some for his Lord. The true progress of the church of God and the success of every man's ministry lies in the ability of a church and its pastor to proclaim with eager lips and from a yearning heart an evangelistic message."

Our Greatest Need

Maybe the following statement from John Havlik describes our needs more than anything else. "We get away from God; we become backslidden and cold; our old methods begin to fail; we begin searching for new methods. All of the time what we really need to do and cannot see it, is to return to God and to apostolic simplicity. This has been the history of evangelism. There will be another awakening if Jesus Christ tarries and it will be a reawakening that will come not because of new methods but because we have re-discovered our sinfulness and returned to God and his gospel."

"New Testament evangelism does not depend on any given method, but it does depend on the appeal in a given message. A church that has the message and doesn't use it to bring lost people to Christ can hardly justify its existence, and it certainly cannot prophesy its continuance."

Statewide Evangelistic Conference

This conference will meet Jan. 23-24-25, 1967 in First Church, Norman. Out-of-state program personnel will include: Gray Allison, associate in the Division of Evangelism of the Home Mission Board; Lloyd Householder, director, program of vocational guidance, Sunday School Board; Manual L. Scott, pastor, Calvary Church, Los Angeles, Calif.; Harper Shannon, pastor, First Church, Dothan, Ala.; Claude Rhea, Houston Baptist College, Houston, Texas, and Rubens Lopes, president of the Brazilian Baptist Convention.

The National Baptists of Oklahoma are our invited guests for this conference.

Plan Now for 1969

We have been challenged by the Brazilian Baptists to participate in the Crusade of the Americas. The Southern Baptist Convention and the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma have accepted this challenge. What will you and your church do about it?

Dr. Rubens Lopes in presenting the challenge made this statement, "Imagine the Baptists of the three Americas uniting in a simultaneous evangelistic campaign, summing together all of their material and human resources, forming a long battle line that would begin in Alaska and Canada and extend through Chile and Argentina to the very tip of South America.

"All of us saying to the world with one voice! 'Christ is the only hope!' This will be, without doubt, the greatest event of all time in the history of Christendom."

The Oklahoma dates for this simultaneous crusade are March 16-30 or April 6-20, 1969. All of our churches are urged to participate at the same time and for the full time.

(1) Gene Stockwell spoke regarding the Brotherhood program, and the recent crusade of men in Nevada.

(2) Bob Banks spoke regarding our Royal Ambassador work and presented an award to R. C. Howard for his work in the interest of boys and young men.

(3) Secretary J. A. Pennington reported about the World Congress on Evangelism which he recently attended in Berlin.

(4) Motion carried to adopt the report on Brotherhood and Evangelism.

68. Gene Bartlett brought the report of the Department of Church Music and motion carried for its adoption.

Church Music

Gene Bartlett, Secretary

Festivals, workshops, associational clinics, Falls Creek, and various state conventions—in all these this year the music has been far beyond anything we had ever hoped for. However, the greatest satisfaction comes in knowing that music is not just a performance but a witness for our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

The Singing Churchmen made a most significant trip to the Southern Baptist Convention meeting in Detroit. There are several other groups similar to ours but none quite so dedicated in presenting the gospel in song so powerfully.

The Baptist Sunday School Board continues to amaze us with the marvelous materials that they produce to help strengthen the music program in the local church. For instance, there is a new series of "How To" pamphlets that should be studied by every pastor, music director, and lay director in the field of church music. The titles are: "How to Begin a Music Ministry," "How to Begin a Beginner Music Activity," "How to Begin a Primary Choir," "How to Begin a Junior Choir," "How to Begin an Intermediate Choir," "How to Begin a Young People's Choir," "How to Begin an Adult Choir."

October 1, 1966, also marked the advent of these new music magazines: Music for Primaries, Children's Music Leader and Youth Musician. This means that we have music quarterlies for adults through Primaries.

"Claude Rhea's Favorite Gospel Solos," "Songs of Salvation No. 3," "With Joyful Praise," David H. Williams, "Hast Thou Not Heard?," David H. Williams, "Of Time and Eternity" by Mary E. Caldwell, are but a few of the many usable pieces of material that are available.

Over 30,000 people of all ages meet weekly in our Oklahoma Baptist churches to produce music that glorifies the name of the Lord and draws people into a closer walk with him.

Your state music department desires that every Oklahoma Baptist will "admonish one another in the singing of psalms, hymns and spiritual songs singing with grace in their hearts to the Lord."

(1) Gene Bartlett led in singing "I Will Sing of My Redeemer."

(2) Clayton Tanner, Woodward, gave a review of a music clinic in Northwestern Association.

(3) Delmar Rogers, Arnett, testified to the result of the clinic in the Arnett Church.

69. Raymond Bryan Brown, Dean of Southwestern Seminary, spoke in the interest of all of our seminaries.

70. The Oklahoma Baptist University hour arrived and the procedure was as follows:

(1) Warren Hultgren, chairman of OBU Board of Trustees, introduced Richard T. Hopper, who presented David Hopper with a gavel to be used by him while serving as president of the student body at OBU.

(2) James D. Woodward, of the Department of Music at OBU, led the Bisonettes in a number of delightful and inspiring musical selections.

(3) Warren M. Angell, for 30 years director of the music program in OBU, directed the Bison Glee Club in a musical concert.

(4) Warren Hultgren, chairman of the Board of Trustees, introduced the newly elected and recently installed tenth president of OBU, Grady C. Cothen.

(5) President Grady C. Cothen addressed the convention on the subject: "The Challenge of Christian Education at OBU."

Parts of his message were:

OBU is different by design.

Four purposes in OBU program:

1. First-class education.

2. Defined and limited education.

3. Teacher training.

4. Religious vocational place in life.

(6) H. H. Hobbs called attention to Mrs. Cothen.

71. H. H. Hobbs made motion that President Cothen be requested to submit his message in manuscript form to be published in the Baptist Messenger and for distribution to the convention.

Motion carried.

72. President Cothen led in the closing prayer.

Oklahoma Baptist University

Grady C. Cothen, President

A new administrative era for Oklahoma Baptist University began on July 1, 1966 with the election by the Board of Trustees of Dr. Grady Coulter Cothen as tenth president of the university. Administration of the university during the year following the resignation of Dr. James R. Scales was directed by interim president, Dr. Evans T. Moseley.

Enrolment in the university reached 1,536 for the fall semester and 1,346 during the spring semester of 1965-66 with a total of 174 persons enrolled for extension instruction in religion during the year at centers in Altus, Ardmore, Guymon, McAlester, Oklahoma City and Ponca City. The student body came from 36 states and 17 areas outside the continental United States; 67 Oklahoma counties were represented with largest enrolments from Pottawatomie, Oklahoma and Tulsa counties; every Baptist association in the state had students attending the university. Early registration for the 1966-67 academic year is substantially higher than in previous years, and student housing is at full capacity; both of these factors indicate another year of somewhat increased enrolment.

Requests for campus housing for the first semester, 1965-66 exceeded those of previous years. The women's dormitories were filled to capacity (474) and 20 additional women students were placed in university-supervised or university-approved housing. Brotherhood Dormitory had 373 residents at the beginning of the first semester, the largest number of men this facility has ever accommodated.

During the fiscal year which ended May 31, 1966, the university showed a net increase in assets of $221,000, bringing the total (net of reserves) to $11,500,000. During the year the bonded indebtedness of the university was reduced by $70,000 to a new balance of $2,055,000. The current fund reserve for operations stands at $226,000, an increase in excess of $43,000.

Current fund income received during fiscal 1966 was in excess of $1,900,000, with tuition and fees amounting to $753,000 of this total. Endowment earnings during the same period were $121,000, and gifts and contributions to the university amounted to $388,000, which includes $280,000 for operations from the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma. In addition to that for current operations, the Baptist General Convention allocated $94,500 for building fund and $52,750 for the university's endowment fund.

The endowment fund, held by the Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma, showed an increase of $158,000 during fiscal 1966. Approx-mately: $117,000 in university scholarships was granted to students, and almost $90,000 in outside scholarships from churches, corporations, and individuals was issued to students during the fiscal year.

A total of 1,003 scholarships were given to OBU students during the first semester, 1965-66. Of these 248 were given to ministerial students, missions volunteers and ministers' wives and children. Churches and associations afforded financial assistance to 124 students through the church scholarship program.

The OBU faculty for 1966-67 consists of 119 members, 31 of whom are part-time instructors, 81 are full-time in instruction or administration, and seven are on leave of absence (two of these are serving universities abroad and four are completing requirements for advanced degrees). Thirty-one of the faculty and administration possess doctoral degrees in their teaching fields. New instructors have been added to the instructional staff for the 1966-67 academic year in business, biology, education, English, French, German, mathematics, music, nursing, psychology, sociology and speech; additional professional staff members include personnel in field services, financial aid, the library and student personnel services.

Faculty activities during the year will center on studies for the revision of the baccalaureate degree curricula and long-range planning of the university program. The university will be inspected during the year by North Central Association for review of accreditation as a baccalaureate degree granting institution and will be given a second visitation by Mortar Board, national women's honor society, for possible membership.

The university holds membership in the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education and is accredited by North Central Association, the National League for Nursing, and the National Association of Schools of Music; programs leading to standard certificates in elementary and secondary education are approved by the Oklahoma State Department of Education.

OBU offers degrees in 25 major fields in the College of Liberal Arts and in seven major areas in the College of Fine Arts. OBU is one of only a small number of schools offering degrees in hospital administration and a Bachelor of Science and Registered Nursing certification for completion of a four-year nursing program. OBU's nursing program was the first such accredited degree in Oklahoma, and the first in a Southern Baptist college.

The College of Liberal Arts offers majors in art, business, economics, English, French, German, Spanish, history, hospital administration, mathematics, music, philosophy, physics, religion, biology, chemistry, education, government, home economics, journalism, nursing, physical education, psychology, sociology and speech. In addition programs are offered in pre-professional courses—dentistry, law, medicine, pharmacy, engineering, medical technology, theology, and public health.

The Warren M. Angell College of Fine Arts offers these degrees: Bachelor of Music in vocal music, church music, instrumental music, piano pedagogy, Bachelor of Music Education in vocal music, instrumental music, combined vocal and instrumental music.

The College of Fine Arts in the year 1965-66 has shown an increasing growth along the lines of academic development, promotion of OBU in the state and across the country, and a high level of individual student achievement. This is the culmination of years of encouragement of each faculty member to develop himself as an individual and as a teacher, and to apply the same principles in his dealings with students.

Outstanding productions and programs of the College of Fine Arts in the academic year 1965-66 included the presentation of "The Music Man"; the appearance of an OBU male quartet in Campus '66, a Bell Telephone television production; the Modern Music Festival, featuring several well-known musicians and concluded with the performance of "Vision of Isaiah"; a band workshop; tours of the Bison Chorale, the Bison Glee Club and the Bisonettes. This year marks the beginning of the Department of Church Music within the College of Fine Arts.

Two-thirds of the classes at OBU are for fewer than 20 people. Seven large lecture classes meet in the specially equipped Yarborough Auditorium, which has a seating capacity of 400.

There are 58 campus organizations and activities at OBU, providing a continuous flow of social activity in the atmosphere of a Christian school.

Through the years, OBU's Department of Religion has played a key role in preparing young men and women for responsible positions of leadership in the Southern Baptist Convention. OBU has been the starting point for a great number of pastors, ministers of education and ministers of music. OBU is a world conscious university, with 113 graduates currently serving as foreign missionaries. In the 1965-66 school year 180 students were preparing for the gospel ministry. Through the Ministerial Alliance they reported preaching 3,450 sermons, traveling 285,305 miles, speaking with the unconverted 1,956 times. They witnessed 750 conversions and 388 additions to the churches.

OBU produced two national sports champions during the 1965-66 school year. The basketball team, coached by Bob Bass, became the first Oklahoma NAIA school to win the national basketball championship; and Pat McMahon, freshman from Ireland, won the NAIA national cross-country championship.

In June, 1966, OBU served as host school for the NAIA national championship golf tournament. OBU thus became the first college to conduct two national golf tournaments for the NAIA.

Thursday Afternoon November 10, 1966

73. President Richard T. Hopper called the convention to order at 1:30 p.m. for the final session of the 1966 convention.

74. Truman Gregston, Sand Springs, led in the "Worship in Song." Songs used were: "At Calvary" and "The Banner of the Cross."

75. Leon Sewell, Weatherford, led in prayer.

76. J. W. Storer brought his final devotional message on the subject: "The Teachings of Jesus . . . the Comforter."

77. The report on Public Relations, Radio and Television was presented by Joe L. Ingram and Floyd Craig, and motion carried for its adoption.

Public Relations

Joe L. Ingram, Secretary

Telling the story of what Baptists are doing in Oklahoma means that the Public Relations Department has the unique privilege of existing to serve other departments, agencies and institutions.

Continuous activities of the department include providing newspapers, radio stations, television stations and wire services with comprehensive and objective information concerning all major convention meetings and speaking engagements of convention personnel.

Routine news releases concerning convention activities have been supplemented by a number of interpretative feature stories focusing in greater depth on various facets of work related to the convention. These stories have appeared in state metropolitan dailies and various denominational periodicals.

Upon request the department also acts in an advisory capacity, assisting individual churches and convention departments and agencies with the production of posters, brochures, program folders, direct mail pieces, book jackets and layout design, and, occasionally, the planning of a total public relations program.

"Feel with Your Heart," a new brochure produced by the PR department this year, was designed to provide concise information on the total convention program. The booklet won an award of excellence (first place) in the cover design category of the third annual exhibition of the Oklahoma City Art Directors Club.

The PR department publishes Falls Creek News at the statewide summer assembly. A special edition spotlighting Sam W. Scantlan's retirement as state missions secretary was preprinted and distributed each week during the encampment.

"Sounds of Falls Creek," a 28-minute program taped at the state encampment this year, was broadcast daily during selected weeks over radio stations KGLC, Miami; KBEK, Elk City; KSEO, Durant, and KNED, McAlester.

The program was broadcast one day a week during assembly over KVSQ, Ardmore, and KOMA, Oklahoma City, carried two programs.

"Oklahoma Newsbreak," a year-round, weekly five-minute radio program of local and international religious news, is produced by the PR department and is now in its 176th week of broadcasting over 13 Oklahoma stations. Miss Joan Harvison, assistant director of communications, produces "Newsbreak." The Southern Baptist Radio and Television Commission, Fort Worth, Texas, narrates, records and mails the newscast, which is carried as a public service.

Oklahoma Baptists are greatly indebted to the Radio and TV Commission for the professional and technical assistance which they furnish without charge, not only in the production of "Newsbreak," but also in the planning of other audio and video projects.

Miss Harvison also writes news releases, edits brochures, newsletters, and direct mail, and assists Floyd Craig in serving as the convention's press agent at various statewide Baptist meetings. In addition, she serves as the Oklahoma City area's correspondent for Religious News Service, New York City.

In addition to his convention responsibilities, Craig served as chief photographer and director of all photographic coverage for the World Congress on Evangelism, which met in Berlin, Germany, Oct. 26 to Nov. 4.

The PR department also sponsors annually a public relations conference. The 1967 conference is scheduled for May 15 in Oklahoma City.

The public relations committee is composed of N. N. Antonson, M. J. Lee, John Brill, John Meador, K. Kip Owen, Odell Carpenter, Wallace Roark and Spec Sanders.

78. R. C. Miller presented the report of the Annuity Program and motion carried for its adoption.

Annuity Board

The steady rise in cost of living has caused a pressing need for broader benefits for retirement, disability and death, so much so, the Annuity Board has created a new program to improve them.

The new program will be called the Southern Baptist Protection Program. It will be offered once all state conventions have approved it. The proposed starting date is July, 1967.

The new program will offer substantial increases in retirement, disability and death benefits at no extra cost.

Paradoxically, the same factor which created the need for greater benefits (growth of the economy) has made it possible for the improved coverage without increasing the cost.

Two current benefits will be greatly improved. Disability benefits, previously set at a $900 a year maximum, will be as much as the amount a person would have received if he retired at age 65.

Widow benefits will be the full 40 per cent of the amount a person would have received if he had lived to retire at age 65. This maximum begins with the initial year of participation. Previously, widow benefits have been on a step-up formula taking six years to reach the 40 per cent maximum. Also, there will be no increase in widow dues after age 60 as was required in the basic plan.

Three new benefits will be offered for the first time. These benefits will provide income for minor dependent children, plus a college and educational fund, and income for dependent parents.

The new Southern Baptist Protection Program will use only one certificate, although provision may cover benefits in the basic plan and two supplemental plans. Larger retirement benefits will be possible through the supplemental part.

In addition to the substantial increases in benefits, the new program also will simplify participation. A member will hold only one certificate for all his retirement, widow and disability benefits. Neither will he have to receive a new certificate when he transfers from one state to another as is now required.

Once the state conventions have approved the new program, the individual church will be encouraged to put a minimum of 10 per cent of the minister's total salary into the program for protection for both the member and his family and the church. Dues on the initial $4,000 will be placed in the basic part of the program. Dues on salary above the $4,000 will be placed in one or both supplemental plans as selected by the member. New certificates will be issued to all members currently in the Southern Baptist Protection Plan. New certificates or endorsements will be issued to all members of the Ministers Retirement Plan, Widows Supplemental Annuity Plan and Ministers Security Plan.

79. Johnie Stuckey brought the report of the Christian Life Committee, and motion carried for its adoption.

(1) Ross McLennan, of the SANE organization spoke to the report.

(2) Johnie Stuckey also discussed the report.

Christian Life Committee

By the determination of Jesus Christ himself, Christians are to be the "salt of the earth," the "light of the world" and the "leaven that leaveneth the whole lump" of human society. Certainly we as Baptists do not need to be reminded that our Lord commanded, "Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven."

The Christian Life Commission of our Southern Baptist Convention and the Christian Life Committee of our State Convention have been charged with the responsibility of challenging and assisting our churches and their members in implementing this facet of the Great Commission. We have to keep reminding ourselves that men judge Christ by Christians; and they judge the Kingdom of God by churches.

We live in an age that is increasingly calling upon our churches as well as upon individual Christians to define our place in a secular world. It is a sad commentary on contemporary Christianity that too many have responded with a definition that is only tenuously linked with the New Testament revelation. The ministry of our churches cannot be defined solely or even primarily in terms of social action, human justice and ethical propositions. But if others have erred at this point, it may be that we as Southern Baptists have erred at the point of declining to define. As a result we too often drift aimlessly from Sunday to Sunday, rather than following the Holy Spirit in a ministry of total Christianity to a world "from which the gods have fled," and which "has become man's task and man's responsibility" (Harvey Cox in The Secular City).

We should define our ministry in terms of total reconciliation. This most obviously means that a man must first be reconciled to God. Therefore, even in this kind of world, we must continue to preach the cross and continue to sing, "There is Power in the Blood" because God has clearly taught that "neither is there salvation in any other, for there is none other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved." Evangelism in its narrower connotations must continue to be the spearhead of our ministry. We must continue to plead "as ambassadors for Christ" that men shall be "reconciled to God."

Having done this first (or rather, while continually doing it), we must then insist upon the importance of the company of the reconciled. The place of the Christian in the local church, and the importance of involvement in the ministry of the local church by the Christian will be a continuing emphasis for us. This is an integral part of the definition of our total ministry. The currently popular revolt against "institutional Christianity" must not be allowed to gain a foothold in our Baptist fellowship. We will keep on insisting that there can be no Christianity without the local church, and there can be no widely and fully effective local church ministry without the denominational structure.

We must be certain as Baptists that we go on to add the third dimension to our definition of the local church and its purpose in today's world. It is to leaven and influence society. Gabriel Vahanian's book, The Death of God, claims that God has died because Christianity is no longer "hegemonous." It accommodates itself to its culture. It no longer determines cultural and political patterns. Harvey Cox says that the "gods of traditional religions live on as private fetishes or the patrons of congenial groups, but they play no role whatever in the public life of the secular metropolis." These are crucial indictments that we must face with honesty. Dare any of us claim that Christians seriously affect the ethics of the entertainment world? Is college campus and dormitory life patterned after the life of Christ? Do the newsstands and the publishing business reflect the moral standards of the church? Has Caesar ever been so totally separated from Christ?

It seems obvious that Christians must move more and more into the social, cultural and political spheres of life as Christians. It also seems obvious that our churches must begin to work more and more in these areas as churches. The whole area of Christian morality and Christian concern is expanding at a phenomenal rate. The Christian Life Commission is presently concerning itself with such traditional matters as morality, the home, daily work, alcohol and the race issue. In addition it is attempting to deal intelligently with the larger area of social justice, war and peace, homosexuality, cheating, gambling, the effects of automation, the Christian in politics, narcotics, extremism, and many, many other matters. Whatever affects the Christian's life is the concern of the Commission.

Dr. Foy Valentine stands at the helm of the work of our Southern Baptist Convention Christian Life Commission. He is ably prepared for this job. He is also totally committed to it and to its importance. It is inescapable that a man in his position will become involved in controversy and will alienate some people from him and the program he represents. The commission which he heads, and its counterpart in our state, need and deserve the support of Southern Baptists.

We held our first State Christian Life conference this past March 14. It was highly successful. In the one day allotted, the major areas of work by the commission were covered. A similar conference is planned for 1968.

It is hoped that our churches will seriously consider a greater involvement in the communities which they serve. The booklet, Guide for Church Advance, has been prepared by our convention to give assistance in this area as well as other areas of our total ministry. Give careful study to Area E in this booklet and begin to implement some of the suggestions contained there.

80. H. Tom Wiles, recently returned from Jerusalem, Jordan, spoke concerning his visit to Jerusalem and other mission fields.

81. J. T. Roberts brought the report of Missions and Falls Creek, and motion carried to adopt the report.

Department of Missions

Sam W. Scantlan, Secretary

"But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me, both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth" (Acts 1:8). Our commission is to go, beginning at home, to all people regardless of color or creed. Two associates share the responsibility with the secretary of the department. J. T. Roberts directs the work with National Baptists and Laddie R. Adams directs the work with Language groups.

Sam W. Scantlan will retire as secretary of the Department of Missions after 25 years with the convention. He closes his work on Dec. 31, 1966, and will move to Falls Creek Assembly grounds to become supervisor of buildings and grounds on a retired status.

J. T. Roberts has been elected by the Board of Directors to succeed Scantlan as secretary of the Department of Missions. For the last seven years Roberts has been associate in the department, in charge of the work with National Baptists.

Miss Faye Estlack, who has been secretary to Scantlan for more than 21 years in the Department of Missions, has resigned. This lady has made a wonderful contribution.

Laddie R. Adams was selected to succeed Bailey O. Sewell as associate in the Department of Missions. He will be in charge of Language Missions. He came to the department Aug. 15, 1966, from Calvary Church, Enid, and has already proven himself a diligent worker in the mission fields.

Bailey O. Sewell, born November 13, 1905, died of a sudden heart attack at his home in Oklahoma City June 4, 1966.

Bailey Sewell had served faithfully as associate in the Department of Missions in charge of Language Mission work for seven years and had served with the Home Mission Board as superintendent of Indian work in Oklahoma since May 1, 1954. His loss was felt greatly by those who worked closely with him. "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

Associational Missions

The Baptist associations have a program of practical objectives—a 12-month task that seeks to enlist the churches to co-operate in a worldwide missionary endeavor, set forth by our Lord in Matthew 28:19-20.

Oklahoma Baptists have 37 associations in Oklahoma and each has a full corps of officers and a superintendent of missions. The state convention supplements the salaries of the superintendents of missions in order that the associations may have extra funds with which church assistance may be given where needed. These men promote every department of work in the association, the state and the Southern Baptist Convention.

Leroy Crawford, superintendent of missions in Muskogee Association, passed away March 9, 1966.

One of our superintendents of missions, M. R. Dareing of Northeastern Association, retired April 1. Russell Moudy is the new superintendent of missions in Northeastern Association, Richard N. McClure in Muskogee Association and Cloyce P. Holland in Tillman Association.

Language Missions

The year 1966 saw continued progress in many areas of Language Missions. Seventeen churches received a total of $18,162 in appropriations to assist them in building or remodeling of their facilities. The one major accomplishment was the purchase of a new building to house the Cedardale Indian Mission at Carnegie and James Swain and wife are leading in this new work with its expanded facilities and vision.

David Flick has assumed the work at Seiling and is doing an excellent job. Jessie Willsie has been called to the Canton Indian Mission and is working hard to establish even more progressive results here.

Indian Falls Creek this year had a total registration of 1,410 which came near to fulfilling the theme of "2,000 — 20 YEARS." Tom Muskrat was elected director of Falls Creek Indian Assembly for the coming year. Plans are already under way by a committee that was appointed to direct in the erection of a building at Falls Creek in memory of Brother Sewell. This will be known as the Indian Falls Creek Assembly Bailey Sewell Memorial building.

Our work with the deaf is continuing to show marked progress under the able leadership of Leslie Gunn. We have a part, for the first time, through our Language Missions, of assisting the fine pastor of First Church, Sulphur in ministering to the deaf students reached by this church. Victor Morlan has indicated that they reach approximately 110 students with the gospel each week in their special services held for them in First Church.

Our Spanish work is continuing to progress and expand on an ever widening scale. The fourth Spanish retreat was held again this year at Southwest Assembly grounds. For the first time this was expanded to five days in length. Our Spanish speaking people have able leadership under seasoned veterans like Ramon Medrano at Hollis and young men like Abel Becerra at Frederick.

Work with National Baptists

Our program of work with National Baptists is one of co-operation with them in the field of missions, including evangelism, Christian education and enlistment. This work is projected in co-operation with National and Southern Baptist churches, district associations, state conventions and National conventions throughout the nation. The purpose of the program is to strengthen National Baptist churches as they seek to win the lost, develop Christian leaders, enlist mission volunteers and share with Southern Baptists in world missions here and abroad.

Through this program of work in Oklahoma we are seeking to build a spirit of co-operation and good will between National and Southern Baptists in all areas of church and denominational life.

The Oklahoma Missionary Baptist State Convention has made some very significant accomplishments during the last year under the leadership of F. D. Moon, executive secretary-treasurer, and J. P. Patterson, president.

(1) The number of churches giving through their Cooperative Program has increased as well as the total amount given during its fourth year.

(2) The fourth annual youth assembly at Falls Creek registered 191 with 102 decisions.

(3) The School of Religion, which was adjacent to Langston University, was discontinued and a BSU, with a chair of Bible, was started with the 1964 term. The BSU co-operates with our state program under the direction of Clyde Clayton. The original School of Religion building burned in September, 1964. The BSU has been carrying on its program on the campus. On Sept. 23, 1966 ground was broken for the erection of a BSU building.

(4) The convention is promoting and financing a scholarship program for their young people to attend OBU.

(5) There are two educational centers in the state, Tulsa and Oklahoma City.

(6) A mission center (Good Will Center) was started in Tulsa June 1 of this year.

(7) In co-operation with the Home Mission Board and the WMU of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, the Oklahoma Missionary Baptist State Convention employed an executive secretary for their women's work. She began her work May 1, 1966.

The personnel of this phase of our state mission program is:

State Director -----J. T. Roberts

Center Director, Oklahoma City -----W. T. Watts

Center Director, Tulsa -----

Tulsa Mission Center Director

Secretary -----Mrs. Johnnie Pearl Coffey

Jewish Work

"Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved" (Romans 10:1).

Work among our Jewish friends is a great challenge. It is one of the most needed fields of endeavor and brings great rewards to those who win them to Christ. There are Jewish friends in nearly every community and they need to know our Christ. Most of these people live in our larger cities, and our churches in those areas are working among them. The challenge is to do more in the days ahead.

There are 6,400 Jews in Oklahoma. Nearly 4,800 of these live in four cities: Ardmore, Muskogee, Tulsa and Oklahoma City.

A special effort to win the Jew is made during April of each year as we observe Jewish Fellowship Week. Every church is urged to put April 10-16, 1967, on its calendar and make a special effort to win these friends. Of course, the churches must be concerned about these people at all times. Winning Jews to Christ is not an easy task, therefore, it is necessary for church members to live for Christ before them and continually be on the alert to point them to Jesus.

Schools of Missions

"And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles" (Acts 14:27).

Schools of Missions is a most interesting and helpful program any association can have. In such a campaign each church will have a week of intensive study about the mission fields of Southern Baptists and hear a different missionary speak each night about his field of work.

Schools of Missions were held in three associations with 53 churches participating and 52 missionaries speaking. They reported one conversion during the schools and 66 volunteers for special service.

Three other associations will have schools of missions this fall and others are planned for the next two or three years.

Summer Seminar for Preachers

"Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth" (II Tim. 2:15).

The Summer Seminar for Preachers is a one-week, intensive program of study held at Oklahoma Baptist University each year. This program has proved popular with everyone who attends.

The teachers for 1966 were: Albert McClellan, Robert L. Cargill, Hale Dixon and James R. Scrutchins. Mrs. Hale Dixon and Mrs. H. H. Hobbs led in the seminar for pastor's wives. The enrolment for the seminar was 85.

Officers elected for next year were: George Dannehl, president; Morris Curry, vice-president; Sunny B. Stewart, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. H. J. Jones, assistant secretary-treasurer; Kenneth Barnett, song leader; John Davis, assistant song leader; Mrs. Andrew Bolton, pianist; Mrs. B. J. Ashworth, assistant pianist. The 1967 session will be June 26-July 1.

We appreciate the interest Oklahoma Baptist University shows in the Summer Seminar for Preachers. Oklahoma Baptist University and the Department of Missions co-operate in making the seminar a successful venture.

Summer Student Mission Program

"... Son, go work today in my vineyard" (Matt. 21:28).

The Home Mission Board employs college and seminary students for mission work for 10 weeks each summer and some of these are assigned to work with our missionaries in Vacation Bible Schools, revivals, study courses, surveys, youth camps, etc. This year there were 15 of these students who served in Oklahoma. The following list gives the names of the students, their homes and where they worked:

Student	Home Town	Place of Service
Haddie Askew	McWilliams, Ala.	Baptist Education Center, Oklahoma City

Rural Church Conference

The 1966 Rural Church Conference met with First Church, Vinita, Feb. 17-18. There were 321 registered and this was one of the best conferences we have had.

Charlie L. Curry, pastor, Bethel Hawley Church, Nash, was elected president; Travis Hanna, pastor, Pleasant View Church, Pryor, vice-president, and Faye Estlack, secretary to Scantlan, Department of Missions, was elected secretary.

The 1967 conference will be held with First Church, Weatherford, Feb. 16-17.

Jail Services

Some of our associations have definite plans for jail services. One association has a program in their calendar of activities for churches to take turns in conducting jail services at the county seat.

Some churches over the state conduct such services regularly and we highly recommend that all churches check on the possibilities of preaching to those who are in jail.

Rural Church Development Program

Acts 16:5, "And so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily."

The Rural Church Development Program is a ministry of our Baptist state convention, in co-operation with the Home Mission Board, through the Department of Missions, and is designed to promote the total church program.

The ministry stresses development toward a better church, a better community and a better world. It also includes recognition of outstanding churches by the state and then by the Home Mission Board.

At the heart of the ministry is a concise guidebook which leads each participating church through four phases: (1) a survey of the community, (2) an inventory of the ministry of the church, (3) the adopting of immediate and long-range projects in the areas of a better church, community and world, and (4) the preparation of a record of the church's progress.

Oak Valley Church, Central Association, received the certificate of award in this program for the year Aug. 30, 1964 to Sept. 1, 1965. H. L. Lofgren was pastor during this interim. Alfred Rockwell is the present pastor.

Falls Creek Assembly

The secretary of the Department of Missions serves as business manager of Falls Creek Assembly. Several of our superintendents of missions, as well as laymen and pastors, assist us with all three weeks of the assembly. There was a total registration for the three weeks of 20,998; 13,348 of these were full-time campers. The Indian Assembly reported 1,410 and the Deaf assembly 96. The National Baptist youth camp had 191. All of the personnel in the Department of Missions works during the assemblies helping to see that each person attending has an enjoyable and profitable stay on the assembly grounds.

Summary

The following totals are accumulated from the monthly reports that come to this office from our missionaries; associational, city, language group and National Baptists. The report is from Sept. 1, 1965 to Aug. 31, 1966:

Professions of faith	1,808
Additions by baptism	1,047
Additions by letter and statement	705
Church and mission visits	6,254
Sermon and addresses	11,445
Tracts and scriptures	134,124
New churches constituted	22
New missions and institutional services started	14

The 1966 Department of Missions committee members were Robert C. Helmich, Kenneth Staton, Leon S. Hill, Everett L. Smalts, J. C. Segler, Arnold Long, J. P. Dane and R. Ben Murray.

Falls Creek Assembly

Sam W. Scantlan, Business Manager

The 1966 Falls Creek assemblies were the best we have ever had. The finest of Oklahoma Baptist youth came together in five separate assemblies for information, inspiration and fellowship. The Indian Assembly had 1,410, the Deaf assembly 96, and 20,998 attended the other three assemblies, making a total of 22,504. There were 2,982 decisions; 2,792 in the three assemblies, 187 in the Indian assembly and three in the Deaf assembly. These included 309 professions of faith, 510 for special service and 2,163 other decisions.

The speakers for the five assemblies were excellent and an inspiration to all who heard them. They were:

June 18-24—(Indian Assembly) Eual Lawson, associate, Division of Evangelism, Home Mission Board, Atlanta, Ga.

June 24-26—(Deaf Assembly) David Richardson, missionary to the deaf, Montgomery, Ala.

July 18-24—H. Franklin Paschall, pastor, First Church, Nashville, Tenn.

July 25-30—Winfred Moore, pastor, First Church, Amarillo, Texas

August 1-6—Robert S. Scales, pastor, Trinity Church, Oklahoma City

The Bible study each morning, with an outstanding Bible scholar bringing messages on the book of James, was a high light of the assembly. The teachers were:

July 18-23—Anson Justice, pastor, Crestwood Church, Oklahoma City

July 25-30—Jerold R. McBride, pastor, First Church, Ponca City

August 1-6—David G. Hause, pastor, First Church, Ada

The Bible study has proved a popular part of the Falls Creek program and all agree it is one of the finest additions made to the program in many years.

The National Baptist youth met June 13-16 at Falls Creek for their fourth state youth camp with G. C. McCutchen, pastor, Mt. Zion Church, Tulsa, as speaker. There were 191 registered for full time. There were four professions of faith, 23 for special service and 75 rededications. The 1967 assembly will be held June 12-16 at Falls Creek.

The assembly grounds are used all year. During the past year over 23,000 people have registered on the grounds besides those attending our regular assemblies listed above.

Improvements

A complete sewer system with a large lagoon near the Washita River has been installed during 1966. This modern installation now makes it possible for many more people to use our assembly grounds if they desire to do so.

The system complies with all requirements of the State Health Department.

1967 Dates and Speakers

The dates and speakers for the 1967 assemblies will be:

June 19-24, Indian Assembly, (To be announced)

June 23-25, Deaf Assembly, (To be announced)

July 17-22, Charles F. Taylor, evangelist, California

July 24-29, J. D. Grey, pastor, First Church, New Orleans, La.

July 31-Aug. 5, Sam W. Scantlan, secretary, Department of Missions, Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, Oklahoma City

August 7-12, Grady Cothen, president, Oklahoma Baptist University, Shawnee

Assembly Period Extended

The Missions-Falls Creek Committee of the Board of Directors voted unanimously to extend the assembly from three to four weeks beginning in 1967. This will make it possible for a larger number of churches and approximately 7,000 more people to attend the assemblies.

Fiftieth Anniversary

The 1967 assembly will mark the fiftieth anniversary of Falls Creek. Big plans are being made for the anniversary celebration, including having two of the first preachers back and several others who were there the first year.

Falls Creek Committee members are Robert C. Helmich, chairman, Kenneth Staton, Leon S. Hill, Everett L. Smalts, J. C. Segler, Arnold Long, J. P. Dane and Ben R. Murray.

(1) Charles Curry, Bethel-Hawley, was introduced as the rural pastor of the year, and an award was given to him and the church.

(2) Personnel of the department were introduced.

(3) All district missionaries were introduced.

(4) Retiring secretary of the department, Samuel W. Scantlan, brought his last message as superintendent.

84. Business session.

(1) Robert L. Cargill, Hollis, brought the report of the Committee on Resolutions, and motion carried for its adoption.

Committee on Resolutions

1. Since the crime rate in America is increasing six times faster than the population, and realizing that life and property are increasingly endangered by the mounting wave of lawlessness,

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED

That we encourage our people to seek ways to build respect for law and order and for those who enforce the law; and

That we pray for those in positions of authority; and

That we urge our lawmakers, courts and law enforcement officers to do all within their power to apprehend, convict and punish those who break the laws and disregard the rights and property of others.

2. Whereas it is our earnest desire that all men might have equal opportunity and non-discriminatory treatment, regardless of race, but

Inasmuch as there are those who are attempting to inflame racial hatred and divisions, and create strife and violence,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED

That we urge Christians of all races to seek for peaceful methods to secure opportunities for equality and to apply Christian principles in their personal relations with those of other races.

3. Whereas there is constant need for vigilance against the destructive and morally deteriorating influences of alcoholic beverages, legalized gambling, pornographic literature and illicit use of narcotics, and

Whereas there are insidious, but powerful, forces that work daily to change, evade or break the law in order to promote this traffic for personal greed; and

Whereas the organization known as Sooner Alcohol-Narcotics Education, Incorporated continues to provide effective leadership in fighting these evil forces,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED

That the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma reaffirm its position of supporting this organization; and

That we commend SANE and its efficient secretary, Ross J. McLennan, in their leadership in the battle against these morally corrupting influences in our state; and

That we urge our churches to lend spiritual and financial support to this organization and its educational program of combatting these social evils.

4. Inasmuch as Southern Baptist missionaries Herbert Caudill and David Fite, and more than 30 Cuban pastors, have been imprisoned by the Cuban government since April, 1965, and reports indicate a severe health problem, especially for Caudill; and

Whereas prayer has, in the past, opened prison doors,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED

That we unite in earnest prayer for the early release of these servants of God.

5. Gratefully acknowledging our indebtedness to Joe Ingram, Floyd Craig, Joan Harvison and their associates in the Department of Public Relations for channeling reports to our constituency through the radio, press and television; now

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED

That the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma make known its gratitude and appreciation to the Tulsa World, Tulsa Tribune, Daily Oklahoman, Oklahoma City Times, and the local radio and television stations for their effective coverage of news related to the convention; and

That we commend Editor Jack Gritz and the staff of the Baptist Messenger for news preparatory and pertinent to the convention, and for the excellent coverage of news regarding our churches and denomination during the year.

6. The 61st session of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, meeting with First Baptist Church of Tulsa, is sincerely grateful to those who have made these days a time of fellowship and inspiration; now

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED

That we express our appreciation to Pastor Warren C. Hultgren and First Church, Tulsa for the use of their beautiful building and commodious facilities during the convention sessions:

That our gratitude be expressed to Richard Hopper for his positive leadership throughout the past year and his effective presiding over the sessions, and to First Church, Ardmore for sharing its pastor so that he might render service across the state;

That we also express appreciation to all the convention officers who have served during the year and have shared in convention proceedings, and to the program committee for the excellent program we have enjoyed this year; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED

That we express our appreciation to our dedicated executive secretary-treasurer, T. B. Lackey, and those who have provided inspired leadership in all the areas designed to strengthen our churches and extend their witness during this past year; and

That we express our appreciation to those who have served in all our Baptist institutions during this past year and have extended the outreach and ministry of our local churches.

Respectfully submitted, Robert L. Cargill, chairman, Weldon E. Marcum, Richard Lisk, L. E. Maples, Ted Coldiron, Mrs. Roy V. Lyons, Bill McFatridge

85. T. B. Lackey brought the report of the Board of Directors.
(1) Motion was made for its adoption.

The Convention's Board of Directors is the Governing Board for these hospitals and Golden Age Homes. Since it is impractical for this board to meet regularly in each institution, local Baptists are elected to serve as the Governing Board's Committees. The board is represented by one or more of its members on each committee. T. B. Lackey and William G. Kersh are ex-officio members.

Guy James

Oklahoma Baptists lost one of their most active, dedicated and able laymen in the death of Guy James, Sept. 8. In addition to being a leader in Oklahoma City and First Church, he was also a member of the Convention's Board of Directors, the Foundation Board and the Baptist Laymen's Corporation. He had served on the OBU Board of Trustees and was always ready to assist Oklahoma Baptists anywhere and in any way he could.

Falls Creek Sewer System

The board voted to authorize the Convention Building Committee to proceed immediately with the construction of a modern sewer system at Falls Creek Assembly. Cost of the project was estimated at $125,000, including additional land for lagoon and engineering fees. Funds for the project are to come from an annual increase of $10,000 from Cooperative Program and an increase in registration of full-time campers from $3.75 to $5.00. The system has been installed and assembly property greatly improved.

Camp Hudgens

The board authorized the Camp Hudgens Committee and the Convention Building Committee to proceed with the construction of a dining hall at Camp Hudgens, at a cost of approximately $75,000 including furnishings and equipment. Pastors and laymen in Oklahoma County raised in cash and pledges over $80,000 for this project. The building was completed and dedicated during the Royal Ambassador camp, July 9.

Enid General Hospital

The board adopted the following recommendations presented by the Hospitals and Golden Age Homes Committee and the Governing Board's Committee of Enid General Hospital:

1. That the citizens of Enid and Northwest Oklahoma be encouraged to launch a drive to raise funds for the enlargement and modernization of Enid General Hospital.

2. That the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma assume responsibility for providing $1 for each $2 raised in the campaign, with a maximum of $500,000 from the convention.

3. That the convention's obligation be provided in the following ways:

(1) Use available hospital funds—

$ 83,109.32 Balance from closing of Mangum Hospital

14,489.61 Enid Hospital Emergency Funds

15,000.00 (Approximate) Current capital needs appropriation of Cooperative Program budget

(2) Use the $32,000 (approximate) balance from Muskogee lease-purchase agreement as received.

(3) In addition to the above amounts, the $20,000 contingent capital needs appropriation of Cooperative Program budget be applied each year toward the convention's obligation until $250,000 or one-half of the convention's part is raised.

(4) Authorization be given to the hospital to borrow the balance of the convention's obligation, this to be repaid from hospital receipts and other anticipated gifts.

Chaplain at Talihina

Upon the recommendation of the Hospitals and Golden Age Homes Committee, authorization was given to secure a chaplain for the state and federal Tuberculosis Sanatoriums at Talihina. This work has been carried on for a number of years by churches and associations in the area and by missionaries working with the Home and State Mission boards. Bill Smith served as chaplain for a number of years, Spurgeon Richardson served as interim chaplain, and Reverend and Mrs. Roe Beard, missionaries of the state and Home Mission Board served until recently.

August 1, M. Dewey Gentry of Clayton began as chaplain on a retired basis. The hospitals office and Department of Missions share in providing housing and expenses. A local committee of which Robert Haskins, pastor of First Church, Talihina, is chairman supervises this work.

Sam W. Scantlan Retires

In the May 12 meeting of the board, Sam W. Scantlan announced his desire to retire as secretary of the Department of Missions and business manager of Falls Creek Assembly effective Dec. 31, 1966. The board invited Scantlan to continue serving our convention on a retired basis as supervisor of buildings and grounds at Falls Creek. He and Mrs. Scantlan have agreed to move to the assembly grounds early 1967. John W. Raley, president emeritus, Oklahoma Baptist University, and long-time friend and co-worker, prepared for the board a tribute to Dr. and Mrs. Scantlan which the board proudly presents to the convention in annual session:

Resolution in Honor of Samuel William Scantlan

Whereas, Samuel William Scantlan, Secretary of the Department of Missions of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, has announced his retirement from that position effective Dec. 31, 1966,

Now, therefore be it resolved that the Board of Directors recommend that the convention assembled in annual session in Tulsa, Nov. 8, 1966, take official recognition of his retirement and pay tribute to Dr. Scantlan and his family for his long tenure of service to the Baptists of Oklahoma.

Samuel William Scantlan, son of the Ozark hills of Missouri, truck driver in the oil fields of Oklahoma, academy and college ministerial student in Oklahoma Baptist University from September 1930 to June 1936, earning the Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in Bible and a minor in science, later honored with the Doctor of Divinity degree by his Alma Mater in 1957 in recognition of distinguished service; a minister with pastoral experience ranging from small part-time rural churches to a commanding city pulpit, denominational servant performing with equal dedication menial tasks at Falls Creek Assembly and directing the great field missionary activities throughout the state of Oklahoma, a civic leader exerting influence and providing inspiration for the battle against the liquor interests, and withal a poet, historian and author—such a man is Sam Scantlan, whose life is written in bold letters across the pages of the history of Oklahoma Baptists.

The Board of Directors takes note of the long column of statistics adding up the hours, days and years of work which Scantlan has invested in Oklahoma Baptist life, but feels that the man stands far above the sum total of his activities, and on this occasion prefers to silhouette him and his family as our representatives achieving goals in church and family life worthy of the highest acclaim.

Therefore, we salute you Dr. Scantlan and your lovely wife Naomi among those; who have demonstrated what Christian leaders should do and be;

who have followed biblical injunctions in growing a truly Christian family and thereby enriching mankind for the future;

who have bound to yourselves friends in Christ with bonds stronger than steel because you gave your friendship fully and freely; and who now have earned the right to the quiet enjoyment of the rewards of your Christian discipleship as you enter a new phase of dedicated ministry.

Oklahoma Baptists are richer today because a son of the Ozark hills of Missouri invested his life in the red soil of this state. It is then an honor to the Baptist people whom he has served so faithfully to express in this formal statement through the convention a resolution of appreciation to Samuel William Scantlan with respect to his forthcoming retirement Dec. 31, 1966. We salute you—preacher, administrator, friend.

J. T. Roberts

Following the announcement of Scantlan's intention to retire at the end of 1966 and the death of Bailey Sewell, secretary of language ministries, upon the recommendation of the Missions-Falls Creek Committee the board unanimously elected J. T. Roberts as secretary of the Department of Missions and business manager of Falls Creek effective Jan. 1, 1967.

J. T. Roberts was born April 16, 1916, in Howe, Okla. He was graduated from Monroe High School in 1935, received the A. B. degree from Northeastern State College, Tahlequah in 1940, the M.R.E. degree from Southwestern Seminary in 1951 and was awarded an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from Langston School of Religion, May 18, 1961. He made a profession of faith in Christ and was baptized into the Spring Hill Church, August, 1928, was licensed to preach by Dawson Church, Tulsa, 1943, and was ordained by Travis Avenue Church, Fort Worth, Texas, 1944. Roberts taught school in LeFlore County from 1936-42. He was pastor of Monroe Church in LeFlore County during one year of seminary work, First Church, Roff, 1944-48; Dickson Church, Oklahoma City, 1948-52; First Church, Anadarko, 1952-56, and First Southern Church, Del City, 1956 to Feb. 1, 1960. He has served as an associate in the Department of Missions, Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma since Feb. 1, 1960.

Children's Home Farm

Upon the recommendation of the Child Care Committee and a special committee of Baptist laymen in the Oklahoma City area, the board voted to sell the farm owned by the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma for the Baptist Children's Home based on a 48-page purchase-option contract which is summarized below:

W. P. (Bill) Atkinson Enterprises and Travco Inc. offers to buy from the Baptist Convention the five quarters of land it holds by the Baptist Children's Home in Oklahoma County, on a purchase-option agreement for total surface and all the mineral rights now held by the convention.

The first quarter is to be purchased immediately at the price of $2,500 per acre. Payment for the first quarter section is as follows: one-half of total amount to be paid at closing of sale; the second half to be paid one year from the date of closing. Four option agreements are to be given on the remaining four quarters. The buyer chooses the quarter he wishes to buy each time. The seller grants the buyer the option to purchase the second quarter two years after first purchase at a cost of $2,750 per acre and pay one-half down and the remainder one year following date of sale, without interest. Each option is to be exercised in two-year intervals and the price increases by $250 an acre with each option, so the second option for the third quarter is, $3,000 per acre, and the third option is at $3,250 per acre, and the fourth option is at $3,500 per acre. In each instance only one-half of purchase price is paid at closing of sale and the second half one year later from date of sale, without interest. Each of the options must be exercised when due and all options will be cancelled upon failure to take any one option. All options will be paid out within 10 years from the date of the first sale in the absence of unusual circumstances.

The seller also shall receive an unrecorded, undivided one-tenth (1/10) equitable interest in any commercial or business land. None of which shall be leased for the purpose of operating a liquor store or any place where beer or intoxicating beverages are sold for consumption on the premises.

1. Land to be sold shall be free of all liens, taxes and encumbrances.

2. Acreage to be determined by survey by competent, registered engineers at buyer's expense.

3. Seller may select a five-acre church site from each of two of the five quarters of land and the total purchase price is reduced by the amount per acre paid for the land. In choice of location the seller will be consulted in the master planning as to the church sites.

4. Buyers will have the entire 800 acres laid out in a master plan, planned by a nationally recognized land planning organization at the expense of buyers.

5. Seller will bring to date abstracts at its expense and seller shall be responsible to correct any defects of title.

6. Seller shall retain the use of the land until the option is exercised by buyer. Possession is to be given within 30 days after closing of each sale.

7. Assuming that all the options were exercised there would be an average of $3,000 per acre paid or approximately a total of $2,-400,000 received over a period of 10 years.

Proposed Disposition of Money Received from Sale of Land

1. That the net proceeds from each sale be placed in the Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma for endowment for the Department of Child Care.

2. That the income accrue and be used for capital improvements until such time as the Board of Directors of the Baptist General Convention shall determine otherwise.

3. That the Child Care Committee of the Board of Directors be an Advisory Committee in planning a long-range capital improvement plan.

4. That all building plans be presented to and approved by the Convention Building Committee, who in turn will make recommendation to the Board of Directors of the convention.

Pertinent Facts

1. Receipts from sales will be spread over a period of 10 years providing all options are exercised.

2. Our farming operations will be gradually reduced and there will be ample time to make future plans for the agricultural operations.

3. On the sale of the first quarter it will be necessary to pay the paving assessment expense on May Avenue of $79,015.64. There will be the expense of bringing up the abstracts and the cost of legal work of our lawyer and staff.

4. If placed in endowment and income marked for buildings and capital improvement and earnings were 5 per cent, there would accrue about $100,000 in endowment income the first five years. The total principal in endowment would be a little more than $1,000,000 in five years.

Closing of sale depends upon securing utilities in the area and our ability to provide clear title to the property.

Church Building Consultant

E. W. Westmoreland, who retired as secretary of the Department of Religious Education on Dec. 31, 1965, was invited to serve as church building consultant for the convention. He has done an exceptionally fine job this year. "My work in this field thus far has been one of the most satisfying experiences of my total ministry. More and more I have come to realize that churches never really make permanent progress until they have completed functional and permanent church buildings," Westmoreland says.

During the first eight months of this year, Westmoreland assisted 87 churches in planning new buildings. From Oct. 1, 1965 to Aug. 1, 1966, the Architecture Department of the Sunday School Board worked with 226 churches in Oklahoma. The Architecture Department supplies materials which have to do with church buildings. They also furnish the services of their church building consultants, architects and draftsmen in making a study of the needs of churches and preparing schematics or floor plans upon request.

During the year, the Stewardship Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention has developed a plan for church building fund campaigns called, "Together We Build." Church building fund consultants are being trained across the convention. We have men in Oklahoma who are available at the present time. Because this is a specialized service, it is felt that the expenses and honorarium for the visiting consultant should be cared for by each church. Any church interested in a church fund-raising campaign should consult E. W. Westmoreland in the Baptist Building.

Baptist Memorial Hospital

The expansion of Baptist Memorial Hospital, Oklahoma City, has been completed, and the approximately 400 beds are in service. In order to finish the project without delay, the board voted to increase the original loan in the amount of $950,000 based upon the same terms as approved by the convention in previous years.

The hospital is filled to capacity and has met all obligations promptly. We commend the administration, building committee and Governing Board's Committee upon constructing and operating one of the finest hospitals in the southwest.

Thomas Paul Haskins

April 1, Thomas Paul Haskins asked to be relieved as chaplain at Baptist Memorial Hospital where he has served on a retired basis since the hospital opened in 1959. The board approved the following recommendations of the Hospitals and Golden Age Homes and Brotherhood and Evangelism Committees:

1. That Thomas Paul Haskins be elected evangelist and chaplain emeritus.
2. That the convention pay his hospitalization and John Hancock life insurance premiums the same as other employees.
3. That if his net income does not amount to as much as $1,200 per year, the convention will give him the difference as additional retirement annuity.
4. That we commend Dr. Haskins to our churches as supply minister, interim pastor and evangelist.
5. That Dr. Haskins be encouraged to serve as chaplain at large in hospitals, Golden Age Homes, and other places as he desires.

Annuity

Pertinent Facts about Proposed Recommendations

It is most important that every state convention adopt the Annuity recommendations, presented elsewhere in this report, because the new Southern Baptist Protection Program, with its many added benefits cannot be put into effect without approval from every state convention. If all state conventions approve, then it is hoped the benefits may be put into effect early in 1967. In summary, this new program will

1. Offer substantial increases in benefits at no change in cost to the state convention.

2. Simplify participation on the part of the individual member, since he will hold one certificate regardless of where he serves in the Southern Baptist Convention.

3. Eliminate all state unfunded liability, affording actuarial soundness for the plan. Previous actuarial studies made by the Annuity Board on your plan have revealed a potential liability, or in some cases, a potential asset. The new program will more equitably spread the cost of the plan among all the states. The younger states showing potential assets in their plan is true only because prior service credits given to the ministers serving in those younger states were charged to the older state conventions where these men served when the plan first went into operation in 1938, 1939 and 1940. All state unfunded liability of the various state conventions will be paid by the Annuity Board from its contingency reserves, when the new program is in effect and has been approved by all the state conventions.

4. This new program will allow complete funding of the benefits of the members at retirement, or disability, or for widow, or for children's benefits. This has never been done before.

5. It will not necessarily increase the cost to the churches, since most of our churches now pay the 10 per cent for member and church.

6. It will afford long-range economies of operation of the Annuity Board which will be reflected in future earnings credited to the plan.

7. It will bring benefits into harmony with our changing economy.

What It Will Mean to the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma

1. All of the state convention plans (Southern Baptist Protection Plan, Ministers Retirement Plan, Widows Supplemental Annuity Plan, Ministers Security Plan,) and other plans be merged and that all plans thus merged be administered hereafter on a Southern Baptist Conventionwide basis; that we close the present Southern Baptist Protection Plan as of July 1, 1967 or January 1, 1968 and offer in its stead the new Southern Baptist Protection Program with its new benefits; that after we have merged all the state plans, with their assets and liabilities, that the Annuity Board out of its contingency reserve, fund all the state liabilities as soon after July 1, 1967 as actuarial studies can reveal the amounts; that we also fund the liability of the Southern Baptist Convention Old Annuity Fund.

2. The new Southern Baptist Protection Program will operate as a Southern Baptist Convention Plan in administration, except that collection of dues and promotion of the plan will still be by states. Actuarial studies after such merging of the plans will be made on a southwide basis, but by percentage and average age reference will be made back to the states for purpose of any potential liability that may accrue in the future. Your state convention already has this responsibility in the present retirement program. The new program will be set up to carry its own cost.

3. The state convention cost will be the same as it has been in the past, that is, it will pay no more than 5 per cent on the $4,000 salary basis. In one instance the cost will be less. Currently the state convention is paying more on the man when he reaches age 60. This will be eliminated in the future if this program is accepted.

4. The Annuity Board will continue to promote through the state conventions as it has in the past, but instead of promoting the member it will promote the churches, urging them to put up 10 per cent of the pastor's salary toward his family protection, it being understood, of course, that the convention's pro rata cost will be the same as it is now (5 per cent up to a maximum of $4,000 salary.)

5. It should be readily seen that where we merge all these plans together that we have a large spread of lives which gives you a better mortality experience which results in your cost dollar going farther toward better benefits. By such merging of the plans, with a long-range outlook we can offer the added benefits that are given here.

6. In order for this program to work, however, it will be necessary that each state convention continue to promote even more vigorously the new Protection Program than it has the old one, so that the percentage of participation will be raised and the average age of the members will be lowered. This can be done only by bringing in new members who are young men. Of course, these two responsibilities have been on the state conventions all along. This is nothing new.

7. The recommendation Roman numeral V which states that "each church may, at its own election, pay dues on a $4,000 salary basis even though the pastor's salary is less than $4,000" is one that is not essential that it be passed by every convention. We know at least one state convention which has had this under study for some time and will probably pass it this fall. It may cost the state convention some extra money but even though it may be offered to those churches where the salaries are less than $4,000 many of them will not take advantage of it. This is the one way of helping those men on a small salary.

Added Benefits

There are many added benefits to the new program but only the salient features are given here.

1. Disability: The disability benefit shall equal the potential normal retirement income benefit, calculated as of the date of disability. You will recall that the present disability is for a maximum of $900. This new benefit means that a member who may become permanently disabled, say at age 30, will receive what he would have gotten at age 65 on an age annuity.

2. Children's Benefit: 15 per cent of the potential normal retirement income benefit shall be payable to each dependent child; the total benefit payable to the children of a member shall not exceed 60 per cent of the potential normal retirement income benefit, if there is a widow or dependent parent benefit payable, and 100 per cent if a benefit is payable only to a member's children under 18. This means that if a member retires at 65 and has an age annuity of $2,000, or should that member become disabled at, say, 30 or 35, his disability annuity would be the same as his age annuity, $2,000. Each child would get 15 per cent of that $2,000 or $300 per year up to a maximum of four children, though if the man had four children under 18, there would be this added amount of $1,200 plus his disability annuity. This would also be true if a man died and left a widow. The children's benefit would be payable to the widow.

3. Educational Benefit: There shall be paid to an educational institution providing a member's child with a full-time course of study beyond secondary school $600 for each of the first four years of such study. This benefit shall be payable under the same condition as the children's benefit, except that the child need not be under age 18, and it shall be in addition to and not part of the children's benefit. This will help a member who has become disabled or has retired or has died see that his children receive a college education. The $600 will be paid directly to the institution and we believe that arrangements between the Annuity Board and the institution can be worked out so that this $600 will mean more than if the individual paid it himself.

4. Dependent Parents' Benefit: If there is no widow the amount of the widow benefit shall be payable to a dependent parent of the member. Dependency shall be determined by the board, presumably in accordance with a test similar to that used under the Internal Revenue Code.

5. There shall also be paid a lump sum death benefit to the estate where there are no beneficiaries.

6. There are many other added features to the new plan that are administrative, such as, at the present time it requires six years in the plan before full benefit is paid to the widow in case of death of the member. In the new plan the full benefit is paid after only one year of participation. Also, there is no increase in widow dues after age 60 for the member, whereas at the present time there is an increase in dues after age 60.

Improved Annuitants Benefits

1. Contributions After Age 66: If the payment of dues after age 66 will not improve the member's benefit, the church and member dues may be paid either to Age Security "I," Variable Benefit Fund, as selected by the member instead of to the pooled fund. State convention dues will continue to this fund; however, payment of church and member dues may be continued if they will improve the member's benefits.

2. New Permissible Service for Annuitants: This is a new rule to replace the rules now in existence, if approved by all state secretaries. This refers to retired ministers. There will be two tests concerning the service of retired ministers to Baptist churches: (1) The member must retire from his present employer. Three months must elapse before he can supply or be interim pastor for his former employer. (2) He can supply or be interim pastor for a church with no time limit, so long as that church pays 10 per cent of the former pastor's salary (up to a maximum of $4,000) as listed in the budget to the Annuity Board, which amount will go into the southwide merged fund. When the above is not followed, the annuitant's check will be stopped.

Stewardship-Budget

In 1962, the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma adopted a 12-Year Program of Mission Advance. Briefly stated, the Advance Program is based on three points:

1. Churches increasing their income by at least five per cent each year.

2. Churches increasing their Cooperative Program percentage a minimum of one per cent each year.

3. The Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma increasing its percentage giving to Southern Baptist Convention causes by one per cent each year, or increasing the percentage to Southern Baptist Convention causes by the average per cent of increase (over the preceding year) in undesignated budget receipts contributed by the churches through the Cooperative Program.

How Have We Fared on These Three Points?

Year	Increase in church income	Increase or decrease in percentage of undesignated church receipts to Cooperative Program	Convention increase to SBC
1963	$ 516,788 or 2.3%	+ .02 (2 hundredths of 1%)	.5 (½%)
1964	$ 589,125 or 2.7%	+ .36	5 (½%)
1965	$1,585,686 or 7.1%	+ .16	1%
Total	12.1%	+ .22	2%
Average	4.03%	.07 (7 hundredths of 1%)	.66

We feel that the analysis of giving trends since the inception of the mission advance program calls for a vigorous promotion for 1967 in two major areas:

(1) Continuation of the tithing emphasis,

(2) A redoubled effort to encourage the churches to give a proportionate share of increased income through the Cooperative Program.

I. Stewardship development program for 1967

Effective stewardship development must include more than an annual budget campaign. It must include the development of the individual Christian to fuller growth in serving God and the development of churches to accept trusteeship of the gospel witness. It must involve promotion, education, and giving opportunity to every member to make a definite stewardship commitment.

A concerted effort will be made to accomplish the following objectives:

1. Lead each association to adopt "The Stewardship Development Program for Baptist Associations."

2. Lead each church to elect a Church Stewardship Committee, which will develop and recommend an over-all stewardship information plan, and administer the gifts of church members by using sound principles of financial management.

3. Make available to the churches multiple plans, from which they may choose, to promote church budget support. These include:

(1) A Southern Baptist Program of Stewardship, which includes (a) principles of stewardship development, (b) The Forward Program,

(c) a year-round emphasis, (d) a wills emphasis, and (e) Cooperative Program promotion.

(2) Growth in Christian Stewardship. This program, designed for smaller churches, has been completely revised and now includes three phases (a) growth through a greater missionary vision, (b) growth through church budget development, and (c) growth through tithers' enlistment.

(3) Tithers' Enrolment Week Program.

(4) A Christian Family Emphasis. This is an alternate stewardship plan of activities that includes the year-round approach with the emphasis built around the Christian family.

II. Cooperative Program Promotion

Two factors are involved in the promotion of the Cooperative Program—information and prayer. Information is the only intelligent basis for co-operation. However, the Cooperative Program must be nurtured in prayer, because information alone is not enough. Every church has the responsibility of informing every member about the Cooperative Program—the basic channel of mission support.

We hope to use every available means to lead Oklahoma Baptist churches to have a balanced program of co-operative world missions, which we feel includes the following:

1. Encourage the churches to pray for world missions. A detailed plan for observing October Cooperative Program month will be available to the churches. A feature of this plan is that a church may observe the month without extra meetings.

2. Make materials available to the churches, which will enable them to do a better job of teaching the members about the Cooperative Program. This will involve: (1) a special plan for distribution of mission tracts; (2) bulletins, brochures, posters, for use on Cooperative Program Day in April; and (c) improved and enlarged distribution of visual aids.

3. Encourage the churches to plan to advance in percentage giving through the Cooperative Program.

4. Encourage the churches to give weekly.

total Cooperative Program budget. In the event the budget is not reached, the percentage division will be 57½ per cent state—42½ per cent Southern Baptist Convention, the percentage division of the 1966 budget.

*When $2,526,389.19 is reached, one-starred items will begin receiving proportionate appropriations. Should Cooperative Program receipts reach $2,987,161.15, these items will be paid in full.

Should Cooperative Program receipts reach $2,987,161.15, two-starred items will begin receiving appropriations. Should the receipts reach $3,125,000.00, these items will be paid in full.

2. That the promotional plans detailed in this report be adopted.

3. That we exercise the strictest economy consistent with efficient administration, and that the executive secretary-treasurer and Board of Directors take whatever steps as may be necessary to administer the 1967 budget so as to incur no operating deficits; and

4. That all institutions and agencies of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma be instructed to incur no debts that are not authorized by the Convention or its Board of Directors.

II. Change of Constitution

1. That Article VI, Section 2, of the Constitution of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma be amended so as to increase the number of members of the Board of Directors from 50 directors to 62 directors, and pursuant thereto to amend Article VI, Section 2, by deleting the first paragraph thereof and substituting the following language, to-wit:

"Section 2. This board of directors shall consist of the president and recording secretary of the convention and 60 other members who shall be chosen by the convention at the annual meeting. The term of office for these members shall be four years. Fifteen of them shall retire annually and shall not be eligible for re-election to this board for a period of one year. The membership of this board shall include not less than 16 persons who are not ordained ministers of the gospel, including at least eight men and at least eight women."

2. That this amendment shall not cancel any other provisions of said Section 2 of Article VI, which provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

3. And, in order to effectuate the increase in number of directors in an orderly manner, that each year 15 directors be elected, at least two of whom shall be women and two laymen, until the board is increased to 62 members.

III. Annuity (see pages 33-36 for additional information)

1. That all our state plans be merged with like plans of other states and that all plans thusly merged be administered hereafter on a Southern Baptist conventionwide basis.

2. That the present members of the Southern Baptist Protection Plan be transferred as of July 1, 1967 or Jan. 1, 1968 to the new Southern Baptist Protection Program.

3. That the new program be promoted through the individual churches, urging them to put up 10 per cent of the pastor's salary toward his family protection, it being understood that the convention's pro rata cost will be the same as it is now.

4. That this convention pledge to actively promote this program and that it will seek to maintain and improve as a minimum its present percentage of participation and its present level of average age

(not lower than the Southern Baptist Convention level) and that, in the event it fails to do so, this convention recognize and absorb any actural liability caused by such failure to do so. (The convention already has this obligation.)

5. That each church may, at its own election, pay dues on a $4,000 salary basis even though the pastor's salary is less than $4,000.

IV. The Baptist Foundation

That the following men, nominated by the Baptist Foundation, be elected as members of the Foundation Board of Directors:

Four Years
Charles Green
H. H. Raborn
Hicks Epton
E. W. Claiborne

J. Ray Smith
E. A. Abernethy
William J. (Jack) Bell
H. H. Hobbs

(2) Hugo Lindquist spoke against the change in the constitution regarding additional members of the board.

(3) Hugo Lindquist made motion to table the part of the report concerning the enlargement of the Board of Directors. The motion lost.

(4) The motion to adopt the report carried.

86. Lackey presented a plaque to Samuel W. Scantlan in appreciation of his many years of faithful service to the convention.

Mrs. Lackey pinned an orchid upon Mrs. Scantlan. A resolution on Scantlan prepared by John W. Raley is printed in the Board of Directors report.

87. Time arrived for the election of the officers of the convention, and the results were as follows:

(1) Robert L. Cargill nominated J. Marvin Gaskin for president of the convention.

(2) Jack Carroll nominated J. P. Dane for president of the convention.

(3) H. L. Janes seconded the nomination of J. Marvin Gaskin for president.

(4) A standing vote was taken and J. Marvin Gaskin, Durant, was elected president of the convention.

(5) H. L. Janes nominated J. P. Dane, Oklahoma City, for first vice-president and he was elected.

(6) Joe Hub Collier nominated H. L. Janes for second vice-president.

(7) H. E. Alsup nominated Bob Denny for second vice-president.

(8) A standing vote was taken and Bob Denny, Elk City, was elected second vice-president.

(10) Robert L. Cargill nominated Hale A. Dixon for assistant recording secretary and motion carried for his election.

(11) T. T. Crabtree nominated J. Marvin Gaskin for Historical Secretary and motion carried for his election.

88. T. B. Lackey presented a scroll of appreciation to Richard T. Hopper, in appreciation of his service as president of the convention during the past year.

89. Newly elected president of the convention and Mrs. Gaskin were introduced, and the gavel was presented to President Gaskin by retiring president, Richard T. Hopper.

90. John T. Daniel made the following motion which was carried without a dissenting vote.

"That the Board of Directors of the Baptist General Convention be authorized to transact any unfinished or new business, necessary to the work of the convention, and that the president and recording secretary of the convention be authorized to sign any legal papers of the convention which require signatures."

91. H. E. Alsup led in prayer, bringing to a close the 1966 convention.

John T. Daniel, Recording Secretary

Record of Oklahoma Baptist Churches for 1966

On the following pages appears the 1966 record of co-operating Baptist churches in Oklahoma. Reports are arranged by associations. Statistics concerning church membership, baptisms and enrolment in organizations are given as reported in the 1966 associational letters and were furnished by the associational clerks. Figures in "Oklahoma Baptist Summary" were furnished by the Research and Statistics Department of the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Record of contributions of the churches to missions through the Cooperative Program and special offerings is for the calendar year and was taken from the books of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma. Report of Indian associations follows that of the 37 regular associations. Record of contributions through the Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma is from the foundation's books, and this report appears separately.

1966 Report of the Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma

By Augie Henry, Executive Secretary-Treasurer

Most of the funds received by the Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma come from individuals and estates. Some churches, however, send contributions direct to the Foundation and some individuals prefer to contribute to the Foundation through their churches; therefore, in this report credit is given to churches when the amounts received were sent through their church treasurers, or request was made for credit to the churches.

Board of Directors
Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

We have examined the balance sheets of The Executive Office of Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, including only the funds herein named, as of December 31, 1966, and the related statements of fund reserves and receipts and disbursements for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The Executive Office of Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma represents only one of the segments of the operations of Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma. As stated in Note 3 of notes to the financial statements, this report does not include assets, liabilities, fund reserves, receipts or disbursements of: (1) Hugo and Oklahoma City Golden Age Homes; (2) the ten hospitals operated by the Convention either as owner or lessee; and the following affiliated or associated organizations operating as separate corporations; (3) The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma; (4) Oklahoma Baptist University; (5) Faculty Building Association; (6) Baptist Laymen's Corporation and (7) Baptist Building Federal Credit Union.

In our opinion, with the explanations in the two preceding paragraphs, the accompanying balance sheets and statements of fund reserves and receipts and disbursements present fairly the financial position of The Executive Office of Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma at December 31, 1966, and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

COMMENTS

Organization and Major Activities—Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma was organized for the purpose of fostering Baptist denominational activities in the State of Oklahoma, and to receive and disburse funds as provided by the various contributors. It was incorporated without capital stock under Oklahoma law. Its first Articles of Incorporation were filed in May, 1917, for a term of twenty years. Amended Articles of Incorporation filed in March, 1928 and May, 1961, provide for an organization in perpetuity.

Administrative activities of Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma are conducted by The Executive Office of Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma. Major activities of The Executive Office of Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma are described below:

Collecting and Accounting—Receiving contributions for the Cooperative Program budget and other designated funds, maintaining records therefor by church units and funds, and periodically transmitting portions allocated to Southern Baptist Convention, various Baptist hospitals within the state, the University at Shawnee, Oklahoma, The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma, and other designated donees.

The Baptist Messenger—Printing and publishing a denominational paper known as "The Baptist Messenger."

Department of Child Care—Operation and management of "The Baptist Orphans Home" and "Boys Ranch Town," construction of buildings, and maintenance of buildings and grounds.

Falls Creek Assembly—Providing vacation training at Falls Creek, Oklahoma, and maintenance of Assembly properties.

Department of Religious Education—Providing for advancement and enlargement of educational activities in churches of the state, and coordination of Baptist work in the student union centers at various educational institutions.

Woman's Missionary Union—Promotion of Christian missions through the organizations of Woman's Missionary Union in the churches and missions of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma.

Building Program—Accounting for contributions and appropriations toward a building program of the convention, supervising construction of such projects, and disbursing funds therefor.

Receivable from Baptist Hospitals, and Golden Age Homes—Amounts receivable from various hospitals and Golden Age Homes were as follows:

Oklahoma Baptist Hospital, Muskogee, Oklahoma, ceased operating as a general hospital on September 15, 1962, at the request of the administration and governing board of the hospital.

Under the authority of the Board of Directors of the convention, a lease contract was made with the Board of Education of Independent School District No. 20, Muskogee County on December 17, 1964, providing for rental payments of $4,000.00 annually for the use of the real estate and personal property of Oklahoma Baptist Hospital. The lease is renewable annually at the option of the lessee. The contract also provides that when the rental payments total $40,000.00, Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma shall convey title to the leased real estate and personal property to the lessee.

Funds totaling $23,237.90 were being held for Baptist Hospitals. Of this amount, $10,000.00 received from Stillwater Municipal Hospital is invested with Hugo Golden Age Homes. The remaining $13,237.90 from Bristow Memorial Hospital and Stillwater Municipal Hospital, ($10,535.63 and $2,702.27 respectively) was uninvested at December 31, 1966.

Prepaid Expense (Parking Lot)—On March 16, 1956, Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma and The First Baptist Church of Oklahoma City were parties to a contract providing for the joint use of an automobile parking lot owned by the church. Under the terms of a new contract dated September 3, 1963, the balance ($44,000.00) of a loan to the church by the convention was cancelled.

The new contract provides that the convention shall have full and unrestricted use of the automobile parking lot to be used jointly with the church for a period of 25 years, except that this contract may be terminated by either party upon written notice of one year, unless the party receiving such notice consents to earlier termination.

In the event of termination of this contract by the convention, "the church will pay to the convention a sum which shall be equal to $44,000.00 less 1/25 part of such sum (i.e. $1,760.00) for each full year that this agreement has been in effect prior to discontinuance of use as provided in this agreement." Any fractional portion of a year shall be pro rata part of $1,760.00.

In the event of termination of this contract by the church, the church will pay to the convention the amount as scheduled in the contract by years from date of execution of the contract. The scheduled amounts are reduced from $43,058.62 for the first year to $1,462.04 for the twenty-fourth year from September 3, 1963. The amount to be paid for any fractional portion of a year shall be determined by interpolation of the schedule.

The amount shown as "Prepaid Expense" (Parking Lot) of $38,133.00, represents the balance of $44,000.00 at September 3, 1963, reduced at the rate of $1,760.00 per year to December 31, 1966.

The Sunday School Board of Southern Baptist Convention, which operates the Baptist Book Store, shares with the convention in the expense of this parking area.

Baptist Golden Age Homes of Oklahoma City—On June 10, 1964, land was conveyed to Baptist Laymen's Corporation to be held in trust for the use and benefit of Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma. The value of this land was reduced to the nominal value of $1.00 as shown in this report. See footnotes to the balance sheet for further information relative to this transaction.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the Year Ended December 31, 1966

1. Baptist Laymen's Corporation

Baptist Laymen's Corporation has assumed the responsibility of constructing and operating Oklahoma City Baptist Golden Age Homes, at Northwest Highway and Council Road, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

In 1964, a tract of land with appraised value of $122,500.00 containing 35 acres was conveyed to Baptist Laymen's Corporation, as trustee, subject to encumbrances, easements and restrictive covenants of record. As of December 31, 1966, Baptist Laymen's Corporation had erected and equipped a nursing home, Golden Age Apartments, and related improvements at a total cost of $842,929.95.

Proceeds from the sale of first mortgage real estate bonds of $700,000.00 were used to finance the construction of these improvements. Baptist Laymen's Corporation is authorized to issue $2,000,000.00 of bonds, secured by a first mortgage on the above described land and the improvements constructed thereon.

Baptist General Convention may revoke the trust at any time, and upon revocation, all or any part of the real estate and improvements thereon shall be reconveyed by the trustee to the convention as it may direct subject to such mortgages, liens, and leasehold estates as may have been granted or created by the trustee prior to such conveyance.

The convention is to receive the income and earnings from the real estate annually or at more frequent intervals, after deduction of taxes, debt and operating expenses, and after all debts incurred in the erection and operation of the improvements have been paid.

2. Baptist Memorial Hospital Expansion

The convention's Board of Directors, in session May 10, 1962, agreed to contribute $500,000.00 over a period of years toward expansion of Baptist Memorial Hospital.

1962	25,000.00
1963	49,427.15
1964	60,000.00
1965	60,000.00
1966	60,000.00

"All real and personal property owned by the hospital was subject to a mortgage note to Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company in the amount of $4,758,562.85. Furthermore, "It is agreed that the obligations of this loan are further secured by a pledge as a first charge against the distributable Cooperative Program funds of Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma."

3. General

The balance sheet and various accompanying and supporting exhibits and schedules apply only to the operations of the department of Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma designated as "The Executive Office of Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma."

Assets, liabilities, fund reserves, receipts and disbursements of the following affiliated or associated organizations operated as separate corporations are not included:

1. Hugo Golden Age Home
2. The ten hospitals operated by the convention either as owner or lessee
3. The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma
4. Oklahoma Baptist University
5. Faculty Building Association
6. Baptist Laymen's Corporation
7. Baptist Building Federal Credit Union

The Board of Directors
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

We have examined the fund balance sheet of The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma (a nonprofit corporation) as of December 31, 1966, and the related statement of fund reserves for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

On January 1, 1964, the foundation adjusted the book value of securities held to market value. The net effect of this adjustment was to increase the book value of securities, and the corresponding fund reserves by $92,147.75. Securities acquired since December 31, 1963, have been recorded at cost or appraised value at acquisition date.

No provision has been made for depreciation of rental properties or depletion of mineral properties.

In our opinion, with the explanations in the two preceding paragraphs, the accompanying fund balance sheet and statements of fund operations and reserves present fairly the financial position of The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma at December 31, 1966, and the results of its transactions for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

COMMENTS

Organization

The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma was granted a charter by the State of Oklahoma on October 31, 1946, for perpetual existence without capital stock. It was created by Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma as a private, nonprofit, religious association "to purchase, control, manage, acquire, hold, barter, sell, convey, exchange, expand, distribute, invest and otherwise dispose of all real, personal or mixed property of whatever nature, and wheresoever situated . . . for the church and other religious and charitable purposes . . . necessary for its membership . . . worship and exercise of such powers."

Its duties and powers are to receive by gift, devise, bequest, or otherwise, any money or property to be used as may be directed; to enter into contracts or trust agreements with individuals, corporations, or partnerships, for the purpose of furthering the interest of educational institutions, hospitals, orphanages, student centers, and any other property in order to assist and promulgate the furtherance of the convention and to promote Baptist doctrines, evangelism, Christian education, and both home and foreign mission work, to borrow money, hold, administer and dispose of property; make conveyances and assignments; incur obligations and prosecute or defend any action or suit in which involved.

As interpreted by the directors of the corporation, its responsibilities are to obtain funds for capital improvements and endowments, and to hold, disburse and invest funds according to designation made and as set out in the charter.

Investments

Securities acquired prior to January 1, 1964, are included herein at market value as of January 1, 1964. Investments acquired after December 31, 1963, are shown at cost or appraisal value as of the date of acquisition. The purpose of the revaluation at January 1, 1964, was to place all funds on a more equitable basis at the beginning of a unit value system in the investment pool.

Investments of all funds at December 31, 1966, totaled $7,233,455.75, and are scheduled below by type:

Type of Investment	Amount	% to Total
Church building loans -----	3,796,330.87	52.48

	7,233,455.75	100.00

The ratio of institutional agency trust funds invested in church building loans at December 31, 1966, was as follows:

	Assets	Church Building Loans	Ratio
Totals (Exhibit B) -----	7,356,913.10	3,796,330.87
Less personal trusts serviced by The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma -----	939,349.09	307,627.82
	6,417,564.01	3,488,703.05	54.36%

Church building loans were made with interest at 6% and were secured by first mortgages on the church buildings and individual personal endorsements to total 100% of the original amount of each loan. Most of the loans were on ten-year terms with provision for monthly payments of principal and interest.

The original amounts of church building loans and the balances at December 31, 1966, are summarized by year as follows:

General

Hollums Building—The property which was donated in 1950 by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hollums was sold in 1958 for $55,000.00 with the consent of Mrs. J. W. Hollums, the surviving grantor.

The proceeds from the sale of this building have been applied to establish a "living trust" for the benefit of Mrs. J. W. Hollums.

The Old Baptist Building—A lease was executed on October 20, 1955, with Felix Investment Co., Inc., covering property known as "The Old Baptist Building" located at 223 W. Park Avenue, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, for a period of 99 years from January 1, 1956.

This lease, as amended April 5, 1956, and a supplemental agreement entered into on August 7, 1956, provided for a total consideration of $1,070,000.00 for the 99 year period.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

For the Year Ended December 31, 1966

1. Investments

Securities acquired prior to January 1, 1964, are included herein as market value as of that date. Securities acquired since December 31, 1963, are shown at cost or at an appraised value at acquisition date.

At December 31, 1966, the market value of securities with an available market value was $62,158.70 greater than book value:

Investment pool securities (Schedule 2)	80,314.21
Other trust and endowment funds (Schedule 3)	(18,155.51)
	62,158.70

The investment pool was revised as of January 1, 1964, to provide for periodic revaluation of securities held. These periodic revaluations are for statistical purposes and are used to provide a unit valuation for distribution of income and investment of funds.

The book value of mineral deeds is shown in Exhibit A as $205,414.58, representing the appraised value at date of acquisition. No provision has been made for depletion of these mineral interests.

2. Fund Reserves

Other trust and endowment fund balances of $6,984,369.53 (Exhibit A) included annuity and individual trust fund balances as follows:

Annuities	173,262.98
Individual trusts	848,663.16
	1,021,926.14

Annuities arose from gifts made to the foundation in trust for various Baptist agencies and institutions. The foundation has agreed to pay to such donors substantially the equivalent of interest on the amount of the gift during the lifetime of the donor.

A revolving fund has been established within the operating fund of the foundation for the purpose of receiving income earned from the investment of annuity funds and making periodic payments to annuitants. The revolving fund is also used to pay estate expenses prior to the reimbursement of such expenses.

At December 31, 1966, the balance of this revolving fund was $12,296.37.

In addition to the annuities aforementioned, certain trusts have been created naming individuals as lifetime beneficiaries rather than Baptist agencies and institutions. The net income of these trusts is disbursed to specified individuals during their lifetime, and, upon their death, the trusts are to be administered for the benefit of Baptist agencies or institutions as designated.

Annuity and individual trusts are included herein at the book value of their assets at December 31, 1966. No attempt has been made to compute any liability of these funds for future payments to beneficiaries.

3. Pledged Assets

Real estate included herein at the acquisition cost of $26,500.00 was pledged as security on a real estate mortgage note payable of $19,500.00 at December 31, 1966.

We have examined the fund balance sheets of OKLAHOMA BAPTIST UNIVERSITY as of May 31, 1966, and the related summary of changes in fund balances and statement of income and expenses, current fund, for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the accompanying fund balance sheets and summary of changes in fund balances and statement of income and expenses, current fund, present fairly the financial position of Oklahoma Baptist University at May 31, 1966 and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

COMMENTS

Organization—Oklahoma Baptist University was created by action of Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma in 1909, to function as an operating unit of the convention under supervision of a Board of Trustees elected by that body. On February 9, 1910, Articles of Incorporation were filed with the State of Oklahoma and a charter was granted for a perpetual corporation without capital stock, for the purpose of providing opportunities for all departments of higher education and connected preparatory schooling of persons of both sexes on equal terms.

Current Fund

Relief and Annuity—During the period July 1, 1937, to May 31, 1966, the university has contributed to the Educational Institutions Employes Retirement Plan of the Relief and Annuity Board of Southern Baptist Convention for the benefit of officers and faculty participating in the plan. According to direct confirmation, the university's accumulations at May 31, 1966, were $40,040.43. Amounts contributed on behalf of any employe may be refunded to the university upon the death of the employe before retirement, or upon the employe's withdrawal and demand.

Inventories—On May 31, 1966, inventories on hand of $48,-461.09 consisted of bookstore supplies totaling $34,120.20 and dining hall food supplies totaling $14,340.89.

Deferred Charges—Deferred charges at May 31, 1966, totaled $28,356.74. In addition to maintenance supplies of $15,665.29 and unexpired insurance of $4,619.66, other deferred charges amounted to $8,071.79, as listed below:

Leasehold improvements	2,121.09
Promotional movie	3,500.00
Self-liquidating traffic control equipment	2,450.70
	<hr/> 8,071.79

Deferred Income—Deferred income of $16,000.45 at May 31, 1966, consisted of $18,545.38 scholarship grants being held by the university for future use by qualified students in accordance with grantors' provisions, less $2,544.93 of scholarships committed pending receipt of grants.

Faculty Building Association—Prior to the year under review credits for rent and endowment earnings for Faculty Building Association exceeded the cumulative advances made by Oklahoma Baptist University to Faculty Building Association. At May 31, 1966, the cumulative liability of Oklahoma Baptist University to Faculty Building Association was $15,923.26.

Loan Fund

National Student Loan Programs—On May 31, 1966, the federal government had made net capital contributions to the university of $397,483.44 under the National Defense Student Loan Program. Under this program loans are made to qualified students from funds furnished by the federal government (90%) and the university (10%).

Loan repayments are scheduled over a maximum of 15 years. Any borrower who becomes a full time public elementary school teacher may have 10% of the principal of his loan plus interest forgiven for each year of full time service as a teacher up to a total of five years. During the year under review, $1,742.94 was forgiven under this program. During the previous year the university entered into a similar loan fund program for student nurses. On May 31, 1966, the government had made capital contributions of $14,054.52 to the Nursing Student Loan Program. At May 31, 1966, no principal or interest had been forgiven under the Student Nurses Loan Program.

University Loan Funds—In addition to the revolving funds discussed above, the university has received loan funds totaling $57,-592.40 for loans to qualified students.

Endowment Funds

Grants received in 1956 and 1957 from Ford Foundation amounting to $243,500.00 are included in the endowment fund balance. The income from these grants is to be used for faculty salaries for ten years. After that time the principal of the fund may be used for any purpose designated by the university.

Plant Fund

Plant and Equipment—Land and land improvements and equipment are included herein at cost. The net book value of buildings includes $1,272,453.08 of appraised value.

During the year the following additions were made to plant and equipment:

Item	Total	Acquired Through
		Current Fund	Plant Fund

Bonds Payable—The university is obligor to the Housing and Home Finance Agency of the United States Government under two bond indentures totaling $1,152,000.00 at May 31, 1966.

The first indenture, known as Oklahoma Baptist University Dormitory bonds, Series 1955, consists of $518,000.00 of 2¾ % first mortgage bonds. These bonds mature in amounts increasing from $11,000.00 on November 1, 1966, to $25,000.00 on November 1, 1995, and are secured by a first mortgage on the Mrs. W. S. Kerr Memorial Dormitory. The first $80,000.00 of these bonds were retired on schedule, and $2,000.00 of the bonds, due November 1, 1995, have been retired.

Under the terms of the bond indenture, naming The Federal National Bank and Trust Company, Shawnee, Oklahoma, as trustee, certain income of the university is pledged for the retirement of the bonds, and the university is required to maintain a sinking fund with the trustee of a specified amount.

The trustee reported that on May 31, 1966, the sinking fund requirements had been fulfilled by the university.

The second indenture, known as Oklahoma Baptist University Student Housing bonds, Series of 1957, consists of $634,000.00 of 2 7/8% first mortgage bonds. These bonds mature in amounts increasing from $13,000.00 on October 1, 1966, to $33,000.00 on October 1, 1997, and are secured by a first mortgage on Brotherhood Memorial Dormitory. The first $66,000.00 of these bonds (maturities to date) were retired as schedule.

Under the terms of the indenture, naming The Federal National Bank and Trust Company, Shawnee, Oklahoma, as trustee, certain income of the university is pledged for the retirement of these bonds, and the university is required to maintain a sinking fund with the trustee of a specified amount.

The trustee reported that on May 31, 1966, the sinking fund requirements had been fulfilled by the university.

The university is also obligor under a bond indenture in the amount of $637,000.00 of first mortgage serial bonds, dated March 31, 1961, with semiannual maturities varying from $16,000.00 on September 1, 1966, to $26,000.00 on September 1, 1975, with the remaining $249,000.00 due on March 1, 1976. Interest rates vary from 4 3/4 % to 5.6%. The bonds are secured by a first mortgage on John Wesley Raley Chapel and Thurmond Hall.

Under the terms of the bond indenture, naming American National Bank and Trust Company, Shawnee, Oklahoma, as trustee, the university is required to deposit with the trustee annually the lesser of (1) the apportionment from Baptist General Convention for building program; (2) $67,500.00; or (3) the amount necessary to pay principal and interest during the twelve months next following.

The trustee reported that the university had made the necessary deposits during the year under review.

The university is also obligor under a bond indenture in the amount of $266,000.00 of first mortgage serial bonds, dated June 1, 1962, with semiannual maturities varying from $6,000.00 on December 1, 1966, to $10,000.00 on December 1, 1977, with the remaining $97,000.00 due on June 1, 1978. Interest rates vary from 4 3/4 % to 5.6%. The bonds are secured by a first mortgage on Ford Music Hall and Brittain Library and Arts Center.

Under the terms of the bond indenture, naming American National Bank and Trust Company, Shawnee, Oklahoma, as trustee, the university is required to deposit with the trustee annually the lesser of (1) $27,000.00 from Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma contributions, or (2) the amount necessary to pay principal and interest due during the twelve months next following.

The trustee reported that the university had made the necessary deposits during the year under review.

Building Fund

Fund Balances—During the year $2,500.00 plant fund income for Chapel Debt Service was transferred to building fund in accordance with a resolution by the Board of Trustees to provide a means of liquidating project deficits, and to reimburse the current fund for operating monies advanced on construction. A total transfer of $51,716.83 was authorized. The current year's transfer was applied to the John Wesley Raley Chapel Building Fund deficit.

AUDIT

For Six Months Period Ending

June 30, 1966

By

Champlin, Moak, Hunsaker and Rouse
Certified Public Accountants

The Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma
The Bristow Memorial Hospital
Bristow, Oklahoma

We have examined the balance sheets of the General Fund and Plant Fund of the Bristow Memorial Hospital as of June 30, 1966, and the statements of income and expense for the six months then ended, where applicable. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheets and statements of income and expense present fairly the financial position of the General Fund and Plant Fund at June 30, 1966, and the results of their operations, where applicable, for the six months ended June 30, 1966, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Gentlemen:

We have completed an audit of the books of the Cordell Memorial Hospital at Cordell, Oklahoma, for six months period ending June 30, 1966. Attached, as part of our report thereon, please find exhibits and schedules as follows:

Exhibit A—General Fund balance Sheet, as of June 30, 1966.

Exhibit B—Plant Fund Balance Sheet, as of June 30, 1966.

Exhibit C—Statement of General Fund Income and Expense, January 1 to June 30, 1966.

Schedule C-1—Earnings from Routine and Special Services, January 1 to June 30, 1966.

Schedule C-2—Expenses of Routine and Special Services, January 1 to June 30, 1966.

SCOPE OF AUDIT

A balance-sheet type of audit was made of the accounts, as of June 30, 1966, with spot-check of detail transactions.

We confirmed the accounts receivable by outside correspondence, as of June 15, 1966. There were no significant, unexplained, changes in the receivables from then to closing date. We aged the accounts, as of June 15, with the following results:

Current	$ 5,639.74
30 days past due	11,545.27
60 days past due	3,048.16
90 days and over past due	7,793.20
Total	$28,026.37

In view of the above, and past experience, we believe the reserve for uncollectible receivables of $2,025.27 to be adequate.

We did not witness the actual physical inventory count, but did spot-check a few of the items, which definitely indicated that the hospital is carrying the approximate quantities shown on the physical inventory.

The accounts payable were not confirmed by outside correspondence.

COMMENTS

The average per diem cost of in-patient care was $30.48, and percentage occupancy 48.93%.

We computed the retroactive payment due from Blue Cross to be $186.89.

In one respect, these financial statements are not consistent with prior years. It has been the practice, as is customary in small hospitals not having accounting machines, to book the accounts receivable, and income, when the patient is discharged. The "Work-in-Process" has been consistently ignored. With Medicare starting July 1, however, it was felt that we could no longer ignore this item; so we accrued the income earned from patients on the midnight census, as of June 30, 1966, $3,407.68.

The books were found to be in excellent condition. No recommendations for changes are made.

AUDITORS' OPINION

In our opinion, the attached statements present fairly the financial condition of Cordell Memorial Hospital, as of June 30, 1966, and the results of operations for the six months period then ended, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year, except as noted.

Respectfully submitted,

Scott Quigley

AUDIT

For Six Months Period Ending

June 30, 1966

By

ACCOUNTANTS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors
Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma

We have examined the accompanying balance sheets of the general fund and plant fund of the Enid General Hospital (a hospital owned by the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, see Note 1 to the financial statements), as of June 30, 1966, and the related general fund statement of income for the six-month period then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The financial statement for the year ended December 31, 1965, and prior years were examined by Clarence F. McCubbins, C.P.A. Balances of all asset, liability, and fund balance accounts as of January 1, 1966, are based upon Mr. McCubbins' reports for these prior periods.

In our opinion, the accompanying general and plant fund balance sheets and related general fund statements of income present fairly the financial position of the funds at June 30, 1966, and the results of operations of the general fund for the six-month period then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding period.

THE ENID GENERAL HOSPITAL
Enid, Oklahoma
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

June 30, 1966

1. Organization of the Hospital

The Enid General Hospital is owned and operated by the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma. Although accounted for separately, the Hospital is not a separate legal entity, but operates under the Corporate Chapter of the Convention.

2. Accounts Receivable

An analysis of accounts receivable and the allowance for uncollectible accounts for the six months ended June 30, 1966, is as follows:

	Accounts Receivable	Allowance for Uncollectible Accounts
Balance, January 1, 1966	231,418	90,568
Charges to patients, net of discounts	650,553
Provision for uncollectible accounts		22,700
Accounts charged to the allowance	(23,968)	(23,968)
Collections on account	(583,278)
Collections on accounts previously charged off		6,186
Balance, June 30, 1966	274,725	95,486

The allowance for uncollectible accounts has been provided by charges to income at the rate of 3½% of patient charges. This rate was determined by a review of the Hospital's bad debt experience, and a review of current trends in the accounts.

3. Notes Payable

The notes payable of the Hospital have been classified by fund in accordance with the uses to which the proceeds were applied. The details of these notes are as follows:

	Note Dated	Due Date	Interest Rate	Due Within One Year	Long Term
General Fund
First National Bank Enid, Oklahoma	1- 5-66	Demand	6%	3,000
First National Bank Enid, Oklahoma	3- 9-66	Demand	6%	23,000
First National Bank Enid, Oklahoma	5- 6-66	Demand	5½%	70,000
Total General Fund				96,000
Plant Fund
Community Bank and Trust Enid, Oklahoma	8-31-65	Demand	5½%	25,000
The Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma	11- 1-65	Demand		40,000
Mrs. Pauline Weibel Enid, Oklahoma	8-1958	7-1973		2,235	13,771
Mr. Fred Herrian Enid, Oklahoma	8- 1-65	*	6%	1,600	26,749
Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma	8-20-65	8-20-76	5¼%	1,490	35,010
Total Plant Fund				70,325	75,530

*This note is payable at the rate of $300.00 per month (which includes both principal and interest), until paid, and is secured by a mortgage on land held for expansion having a cost of $50,000.00.

4. Accounts Payable—Baptist General Convention

The account payable to the Baptist General Convention consists of amounts owed for purchase of hospital supplies, insurance premiums, and administrative expense. It is the policy of the Hospital to pay these amounts only when funds are not required for other operating purposes.

5. Due to Plant Fund

The interfund due to and due from accounts were established in 1965 to record interfund transactions. Prior to 1965 these transactions were recorded as increases or decreases in the applicable fund's fund balance. At the time of establishment of the due to and due from accounts, no retroactive adjustment to reflect prior year transactions was made.

6. Hospital Plant and Equipment

The Hospital currently plans to physically inventory all hospital equipment and identify it with its original cost in compliance with requirements of the Medicare program. Management contemplates no material adjustment to the property accounts upon completion of the inventory.

Depreciation is computed on a composite straight-line basis, using the following rates:

Asset	Rate
Building	2%
Fixed equipment	5%
Major movable equipment	10%

Gentlemen:

I have examined the books and related records of the Grove General Hospital for the six months ending June 30, 1966. My examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the account records and such other auditing procedure as I considered necessary in the circumstances.

In my opinion the accompanying statements of income and expenses present fairly the financial position of the Grove General Hospital at June 30, 1966, and the results of their operations for the period then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Exception: Accounts Receivable not verified.

Sincerely,
Carl A. Finke

We have examined the balance sheets of the various funds of The Baptist Memorial Hospital as of June 30, 1966 and the statements of income and expense for the six months then ended, where applicable. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The funds included in this report are as follows:

General Fund—

Balance Sheet—Exhibit A

Income and Expense—Exhibit C and Schedules 1 and 2

Plant Fund—Exhibit B

Expansion Fund—Exhibit D

Endowment Fund—Exhibit E

Education Fund—Exhibit F

Doctors Medical Building—Exhibit G

Womens Auxiliary Fund—Exhibit H

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheets and statements of income and expense present fairly the financial position of these funds at June 30, 1966 and the results of their operations, where applicable, for the six months ended June 30, 1966 in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

AUDIT

For Six Months Period Ending

June 30, 1966

By

Board of Directors
Baptist General Convention
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

Gentlemen:

I have examined the books and related records of the Grand Valley Hospital for the six months ending June 30, 1966. My examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the account records and such other auditing procedure as I considered necessary in the circumstances.

In my opinion the accompanying statements of income and expenses present fairly the financial position of the Grand Valley Hospital at June 30, 1966, and the results of their operations for the six months then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Exception: Accounts Receivable were not verified.

Sincerely,
Carl A. Finke
Certified Public Accountant

AUDIT

 Gentlemen:

We have completed an audit of the Sayre Hospital at Sayre, Oklahoma, for six months period ending June 30, 1966. Attached, as part of our report thereon, please find exhibits and schedules as follows:

Exhibit A—General Fund Balance Sheet, as of June 30, 1966.

Exhibit B—Plant Fund Balance Sheet, as of June 30, 1966.

Exhibit C—Statement of General Fund Income and Expense, January 1 to June 30, 1966.

Schedule C-1—Earnings from Routine and Special Services, January 1 to June 30, 1966.

Schedule C-2—Expenses of Routine and Special Services, January 1 to June 30, 1966.

SCOPE OF AUDIT

A balance-sheet type of audit was made of the accounts, as of June 30, 1966, with spot-check of detail transactions.

We had no opportunity to witness the physical inventory taking, but did spot-check some items to verify that stocks are being maintained at the approximate levels reported.

We confirmed the accounts receivable by outside correspondence, as of June 23, 1966. There were no significant, unexplained, changes in the receivables from then to June 30. We also aged the accounts at that time, with the following results:

Current	-----	$15,644.83
30 days past due	-----	7,202.11
60 days past due	-----	3,016.32
90 days and over past due	-----	17,887.41
Total	-----	$43,750.67

In view of the above, and past experience, we increased the bad debt reserve to approximately one-third of accounts receivable. The accounts are obviously getting older, and collections have not been as good as we anticipated.

The accounts payable were not confirmed by outside correspondence.

COMMENTS

We found the books of account to be in excellent condition. The statistical records are also showing great improvement.

The occupancy rate decreased from 72.39% in 1965 to 70.34% in this six months period. The per diem cost of in-patient service went up from $30.03 in 1965 to $31.38 this period.

AUDITORS' OPINION

In our opinion the attached financial statements present fairly the financial condition of this hospital, as of June 30, 1966, and the results of operations for the six months period then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Respectfully submitted,
Scott Quigley

Exhibit B: Plant Fund Balance Sheet, as of June 30, 1966.

Exhibit C: Statement of General Fund Income and Expense, January 1 to June 30, 1966.

Schedule C-1: Schedule of General Fund Expense, January 1 to June 30, 1966.

SCOPE OF AUDIT

A balance-sheet type of audit was made of the accounts, as of June 30, 1966.

We did not get to witness the physical inventory, however inventories are not a major factor. Neither did we confirm by outside correspondence either the accounts receivable or the accounts payable.

COMMENTS

We have still been unable to get the insurance premiums billed separately for this facility, although we have been trying now for several years.

AUDITORS' OPINION

With the above qualifications and limitations, we believe the attached financial statements present fairly the financial condition of the Sayre Chronic and Convalescent Hospital as of June 30, 1966, and the results of operations for the six months period then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding period.

Gentlemen:

We have examined the records of the General Fund of the Golden Age Home, Hugo, Oklahoma, for the period January 1, 1966 to June 30, 1966. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted Auditing standards and included such tests of the accounting records as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

Our report is submitted herewith in the accompanying exhibits and schedules, prepared from records and information submitted by Bob Bazzell, Administrator.

In our opinion the Balance Sheet and related statement of Income and Expense for the six months ended June 30, 1966 present fairly the financial position of the Golden Age Home, Hugo, Oklahoma, at June 30, 1966 and the results of its operations for period then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding period.

Respectfully Submitted,
Dale Hammons

COMMENTS

Organization

Baptist Laymen's Corporation was incorporated February 12, 1960, under Oklahoma law, with perpetual duration and without capital stock.

The general purpose of the corporation is to engage in, develop, encourage, promote, finance, contribute to or carry on religious, charitable, educational, benevolent or scientific works, endeavors and activities of any and all kinds; and particularly those performed or promoted by Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, and by Southern Baptist Convention.

Oklahoma City Baptist Golden Age Homes

The current project of Baptist Laymen's Corporation is the financing, construction, and operation of Oklahoma City Golden Age Homes on a 35-acre tract of land conveyed to the association, as trustee, by the Board of Directors of Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma. The land, conveyed to Baptist Laymen's Corporation on June 10, 1964, is shown herein at an appraised value of $122,500.00.

Oklahoma City Baptist Golden Age Homes presently consists of a sixty-two bed nursing home known as Lackey Manor, twenty apartments, an administrator's residence and two residences constructed by the occupants with right to full possession and uninterrupted use during their natural lives. The nursing home and apartments have been erected on approximately seven and one-half acres of the 35 acre tract.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Land Held in Trust

On December 3, 1963, the Board of Directors of Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma authorized the conveyance of a tract of land containing 35 acres to Baptist Laymen's Corporation, as trustee, to be held in trust for the use and benefit of Baptist General Convention. The tract was conveyed in June, 1964, at an appraised value of $122,500.00.

The trustee is authorized and empowered to erect one or more buildings for the housing and care of elderly persons, and such other improvements as it deems necessary and advisable.

The trustee is authorized to grant leasehold estates of this real estate or any part thereof for terms of years not to exceed a total of twenty years.

The trustee shall pay annually or at more frequent intervals, to Baptist General Convention the income and earnings from this real estate held in trust, after deduction of taxes, all expenses incurred, and all payments on debts incurred in the erection and operation of the improvements.

The Convention may revoke this trust at any time, and upon revocation, all or any part of the real estate shall be reconveyed by the trustee to the convention as it may direct, subject to such mortgages, liens and leasehold estates as may have been granted or created by the trustee prior to such reconveyance.

2. Bonds Payable

On February 12, 1965, the Board of Directors adopted a resolution authorizing the issuance of real estate first mortgage 6% interest-bearing bonds with a trust indenture providing for a total issuance of $2,000,000.00, in amounts to be paid in 10 years. The bonds are to be issued in series as funds are needed to finance the construction of the apartment houses and nursing home on the 35-acre tract of land adjoining Senior Citizens Village at Northwest Highway and Council Road, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

The trust indenture provides that all bonds issued under its provisions will have identical security rights, liens and privileges. The indenture further provides that whenever the issuance of additional bonds is authorized by the Baptist Laymen's Corporation, such bonds may be issued and their proceeds used for the purpose of refunding or repurchasing the then outstanding bonds.

During the year ended December 31, 1966, the association completed the issuance and sale of Series "A" bonds totaling $700,000.00. Maturity dates of Series "A" bonds vary from July 15, 1967 to July 15, 1975, with $9,000.00 maturing on July 15, 1967. Interest coupons attached to the bonds are payable semiannually.

The bonds issued above are secured by a first mortgage on Blocks 1 and 2 of the Baptist Golden Age Homes addition Number 1 in Oklahoma City, and improvements thereon. Blocks 1 and 2 contain approximately 7 acres of the total tract of land conveyed in trust by Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma to Baptist Laymen's Corporation. The total tract contained 35 acres and was transferred at its appraised value of $122,500.00.

The cost of improvements constructed on real estate subject to the first mortgage is as follows:

Assets	Cost
Land improvements	110,557.06
Building—Lackey Manor	463,919.09
Apartments	174,704.80
Equipment	77,162.24
	<hr/> 826,343.19 <hr/>

3. Mortgage Note Payable

The administrator's residence, shown herein at the construction cost of $16,586.76, less accumulated depreciation of $663.47, was subject to a first mortgage note with an unpaid balance of $15,770.44 at December 31, 1966.

4. Residential Property Subject to Occupancy Agreements

Two residences, included herein at the combined construction costs of $27,500.00 were given to Baptist Laymen's Corporation for the use and benefit of Baptist Golden Age Homes located in Oklahoma City, by the occupants thereof. Under the terms of the gift, occupants shall possess the premises for their lifetime, subject to physical occupancy of the premises by them.

The Board of Directors
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

We have examined the balance sheet of BAPTIST BUILDING FEDERAL CREDIT UNION as of December 31, 1966, and the related statements of income and undivided earnings and reserve for losses for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and statements of income and undivided earnings and reserve for losses present fairly the financial position of Baptist Building Federal Credit Union at December 31, 1966, and the results of its operations for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

COMMENTSOrganization

Federal credit unions are cooperative associations organized in accordance with the Federal Credit Union Act. Federal credit unions are chartered, examined and supervised by the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions. The bureau's operating expenses are borne by the federal credit unions. The bureau receives no direct appropriation of public funds.

Members' shareholdings are not insured by any agency of the government.

Baptist Building Federal Credit Union was organized by the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions on July 11, 1958, with perpetual duration. The par value of each share is $5.00.

The by-laws of the credit union provides as follows:

"The purpose of this credit union is to promote thrift among its members, by affording them an opportunity for accumulating their savings; and to create for them a source of credit for provident or productive purposes.

"The field of memberships shall be limited to those having the following common bond of association, occupation, or residence: Employees of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, Incorporated, the Oklahoma County Baptist Association, the Southern Baptist Convention and the Home Mission Board who work in the Baptist Building in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; employees of the Child Care Department of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, Incorporated who work in Oklahoma County, Oklahoma; employees of this credit union; and members of their immediate families."

Savings and Loan Shares

Local Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma	7,106.33
Capital Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma	5,318.24
Oklahoma City Federal Savings and Loan Association	6,519.76

Certificates of Deposit

Funds were invested in certificates of deposit in the Fidelity National Bank and Trust Co., Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, in the amount of $7,876.03. The certificates were purchased on April 29, 1966, at a cost of $7,692.26 and will mature April 29, 1971, with a redemption value of $10,000.00.

Loans (Notes Receivable)

Loans were receivable from 44 individual members in the total amount of $31,633.09 at December 31, 1966.

Loan protection insurance is provided by the credit union in the form of life insurance on the life of the borrowing member equal to his loan balance up to $5,000.00.

Members' Savings Share Accounts

Deposits were held as savings accounts from 116 members in the total amount of $53,105.77 at December 31, 1966.

Life savings insurance is provided by the credit union which insures the member's life in an amount equal to his savings in shares up to $2,000.00.

Reserve for Losses

The Federal Credit Union Act provides that all entrance fees and charges to members, and 20% of the net earnings of each dividend period, before the declaration of any dividends, shall be set aside as a regular reserve against losses on bad loans until this reserve shall equal 10% of the total members' shareholdings. No further transfer of net earnings is required except such amounts as may be needed to maintain this 10% ratio.

Undivided Earnings
