Section 5. VACANCIES. Any vacancy or vacancies in the Board of Directors may be filled by a majority of the remaining Directors, though less than a quorum, and each Director so chosen shall hold office until his successor is elected at an annual or a regular or special meeting of the members. A vacancy or vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be deemed to exist in case of the death, resignation or removal of any Directors or if the authorized number of Directors be increased or if the members fail at any annual, regular, or special meeting of members to elect the full authorized number of Directors to be voted for at the meeting.

(1) Hugo Lindquist made a motion to amend Article II of the convention's Constitution and Bylaws to read: That no messengers from any churches be seated at convention sessions when they practice any of the following non-Biblical practices: 1) ordination of women or 2) speaking in tongues. If this amendment is adopted this new section would become number two and the present Section 2 would become Section 3. The motion was seconded.

Dr. Cook asked for a personal privilege and read Section I of Article III which says: "This convention shall have no ecclesiastical authority or power whatever and shall never assume to write creeds or to exercise judicial or legislative control over the churches."

Cook stated that the motion did not seem to be appropriate according to the Constitution. There are several choices: 1) present a possible resolution to the Resolutions Committee, 2) the convention could object to the ruling of the President, or 3) they could decide to drop the matter concluding that the Constitution is leaving these matters to the local church.

Roberts Rules of Order states that a part of a constitution cannot be declared unconstitutional. Lindquist withdrew his motion and asked that it be referred to the Resolutions Committee. It was seconded and carried.

(2) Ben Loring, Trinity Church, Oklahoma City, read the following: "Our United States Senator Boren has been waging war on the floor of the Senate against the current legislation on tuition tax credits." He made a motion that the BGCO express appreciation to Senator David Boren for his leadership and opposition to the tuition tax credits legislation currently under consideration on the floor of the United States Senate.

Cook exercised authority to refer the matter to the Resolutions Committee for study.

23. Election of the president.

(1) Bill Hogue, pastor, Eastwood Church, Tulsa, nominated

William H. Cook for a second term as president. There were no other nominations and Cook was elected by acclamation.

24. Mack Roark, pastor, First Church, Ponca City, led in prayer and the convention was adjourned until Tuesday evening.

Tuesday Evening November 15

25. Hayes Wicker, first vice-president, called the convention to order at 6:45 p.m.

29. Wendell Estep, pastor, Council Road Church, Bethany, led in prayer.

30. Lyle Garlow, associate executive director, introduced Cade Garrison, the new director of Video Media for the convention. Garrison made a Video presentation.

31. C. Fred Williams, president of the Baptist Foundation of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, presented the report "Beyond This Time."

Report of the Board of Directors of the Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma

C. Fred Williams, President

The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma was established on Nov. 6, 1946 by the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma. Its Articles of Incorporation as amended on Dec. 20, 1974 and approved by the convention's board of directors on May 27, 1975, sets forth the primary purpose of the Foundation which is to "receive by gift, devise, bequest or otherwise, any money or other property absolutely or in trust to be used, either principal or income therefrom, as may be directed in the furtherance of the gospel of Jesus Christ as represented by the agencies, institutions and departments of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma and of the Southern Baptist Convention." On May 10, 1983 the convention's board of directors voted to transfer to the Foundation the $25 Million Endowment Campaign, consequently, on May 20, 1983 the Foundation's board of directors unanimously accepted the assignment. M. Judson Cook and his secretary, Carol Patric, became a part of the Foundation's staff and Cook was elected vice-president for endowment procurement.

We make this report to the annual meeting of the convention with an awareness of the relationship under which we serve. As the only incorporated trust agency of the convention, the Foundation bears a sacred responsibility to the convention, to its agencies, institutions and departments, and to the hundreds of individuals for whom we manage trust assets.

The report for the year concluded July 31, 1983 shows a total of $43,221,784.50 endowment and capital needs assets. Total receipts for the period were $16,899,292.48 and total earnings from investments were $4,289,335.16. This is the largest income ever earned by the Foundation in one year and reflects an 11.3 percent earnings on average assets held for the period including the non-income producing assets such as life estates.

The business and professional people who comprise the Foundation's board of directors, all active members of Oklahoma Baptist churches, provide general guidelines for management of assets. The Foundation's administrative staff is responsible for the daily application of the guidelines. Current board members are: Don Sullivan, chairman;

Walt Allen, James L. Barham, Bill G. Cantrell, Ralph A. Crawford, Howard J. Doak, Joe F. Gary, George W. Hall, Eugene M. Knight, Frank A. McPherson, Thomas L. Pate, John R. Redwine II, W. Y. Spence, H. Forrest Tennant, Robert M. Wadlow and Barney Ward.

For administrative purposes and distribution of staff responsibilities, the programs of the Foundation are divided into seven sections over which the president provides general supervision and direction: Computer Accounting and Special Investment Services, Church Building Loan Services, Property Management and Mineral Leasing Services, Endowment Procurement Services, Communication and Estate Stewardship Services, Charitable Giving and Estate Planning Services, and Personal Trustee Services.

Computer Accounting and Special Investment Services

Computer Accounting Services:

Progress is excellent in computer accounting. We are still making minor changes in the programs to obtain additional information more quickly. New programs were developed during the year to provide for BEYOND THIS TIME. We now have over 500 programs with over 4,500 separate accounts. In order to handle the additional programs, it became necessary to upgrade our computer hardware.

Special Investment Services:

Investment Pools. To provide a more diversified portfolio, four investment pools have been established. The Equity Investment Pool is composed of blue chip common stocks. The Fixed Income Pool is composed primarily of corporate bonds which provide a guaranteed income at a fixed rate. The Short Term Investment Pool is composed of government securities and certificates of deposit. The Church Building Loan Pool provides funds to churches for new construction, remodeling or upgrading their facilities.

Student Loans and Scholarships

Since 1947 the Foundation has handled student loans and scholarships. These trusts established through bequests in wills and by outright gifts, are primarily for the benefit of students attending Oklahoma Baptist University. The requirements of each trust are determined by the donor.

The Foundation now administers more than $900,000 in scholarship funds and more than $400,000 in loan funds. The loans carry a nominal interest rate payable while the student is in college. Repayment of the principal begins upon graduation or when the student leaves school.

Church Building Loan Services

The Church Building Loan Trust Fund is administered through the Church Building Loan Trust committee composed of members of the Foundation's board of directors. The committee adopted guidelines for obtaining a loan and a "Policies and Regulations" brochure has been prepared which provides pertinent information including eligibility requirements, interest rate, payment schedule, application procedure, etc. Copies of the brochure are available upon request.

The Church Building Loan Fund was established in 1954. Since that time, 731 loans have been made to Oklahoma Baptist churches, local Baptist associations, and Baptist Student Unions. The combined total loans made since the inception of the fund was $34,700,529.33 as of July 31, 1982. During that period $11,256,615.77 in interest has been earned and distributed to Baptist causes. For the year ending July 31, 1983, a total of 44 loans were closed totaling $3,957,500. In addition, the committee made 62 loan commitments to churches, associations or student unions totaling $9,790,000. These loans will be closed at the completion of the building construction projects.

As of July 31, 1983, $21,729,859.07 was invested in the Church Building Loan Trust Fund which is 50 percent of the total funds managed by the Foundation.

The Church Building Loan Trust Fund has been and will continue to be an able supplement to the Cooperative Program. Truly, this service helps Oklahoma Baptists fulfill the task of the Great Commission.

Property Management and Mineral Leasing Services

Property Management Services:

Management of the real property held by the Foundation is supervised by a committee of seven members of the board. The committee meets monthly or on special call. Decisions to sell, lease, rent and repair property are determined by the committee upon recommendation of the vice-president for property management and mineral leasing services.

Real property held by the Foundation consists of houses, farms, commercial buildings, vacant lots and open grassland. We operate no businesses or farms but lease them to others. Grassland and farms are leased on a cash-per-acre basis or a percentage of crops produced. Residential property is rented by the month on a cash basis.

During the year concluded July 31, 1983, 10 pieces of real property were sold. The committee makes the final decision on every transaction. Occasionally during the probate of an estate it becomes necessary to sell real property. This is usually done by public auction wherein the right to refuse any or all bids is retained. Five public auctions were conducted this past year—two in Weatherford, one each in Shawnee, Cherokee and Spencer.

Mineral Leasing Services:

The Foundation's mineral interest business is supervised by a committee consisting of eight board members. The committee meets each month to review lease offers, bonuses, rental delays and sales.

We hold deeds to mineral interest in 58 counties in Oklahoma and in 10 other states. The units vary in size from .25 acre to 320 acres.

During the past year the Foundation received 19 units of mineral interest in which the donor reserved a life estate with remainder as endowment for Oklahoma Baptist University, and seven units from the estate of Delata Gregg as endowment for Child Care.

Interesting changes have occurred during the past year. Production income has increased by more than 93 percent from July 1, 1982 to June 30, 1983 while, at the same time, bonuses decreased by 78 percent. The figures are as follows:

	1982-83	1981-82
Mineral income	$872,850.36	$451,227.33
Lease rental and shut-in	2,128.35	3,790.84
Bonuses	132,559.59	599,652.63
	$1,007,538.30	$1,054,670.80

Endowment Procurement Services

As cited in the introductory paragraph of this report, by vote of both the convention's board of directors and the Foundation's board of directors, the $25 Million Endowment Campaign was transferred during the year to the Foundation. M. Judson Cook was elected by the Foundation as vice-president for endowment procurement. This assignment required the Foundation to develop and promote a new program to secure endowment for Oklahoma Baptist causes. The need for endowment continues to grow, necessitating ever-increasing efforts on our part.

Since the $25 Million Endowment Campaign has been transferred to the Foundation for administration and promotion, it has been given a new title and a new approach. The new theme for the endowment procurement program is BEYOND THIS TIME. The program will be centered around small group meetings hosted by outstanding lay people across the state. A committee of Foundation staff personnel chaired by Robert L. Ross has developed a plan of procedure, a new set of materials and a calendar of activities for the program. M. Judson Cook and C. Duane Riley of the staff will be convening the small group meetings and will share in the responsibility of the program.

Communication and Estate Stewardship Services

It would be impossible to overestimate the role of effective communication to the many functions of The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma. As the convention's only incorporated trust agency it relates to Baptist people, pastors, church and denominational leaders, attorneys, estate planning professionals and others. Therefore, it is imperative that relationships of understanding and open lines of communication be established and continually improved with each of these groups.

However, because people are different from one another, a strategy of communication must be developed to employ a variety of methods. No single event or attempt at communication will prove to be successful every time or for all people. Communication is a never ending process and an ongoing adventure.

The Foundation in telling its story uses a diversity of approaches. This section of the report discusses some ways Foundation staff members seek to communicate the message of Christian estate stewardship both from the biblical perspective and in terms of practical application.

Communication through participation:

Foundation staff members participate in the ministries of many Oklahoma Baptist churches each week as they are called on for pulpit supply, to serve as interim pastors, preach revivals and lead Bible studies. Last year the eight men on the staff, all of whom are ordained ministers, spoke on more than 750 occasions. In each instance they represented The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma.

They also take an active part in the work of the associations speaking to pastors' gatherings, leading associational estate planning seminars, participating in World Mission Conferences and representing the Foundation in each of the annual associational meetings during the fall.

Falls Creek Baptist Assembly is yet another area where Foundation staff members are involved in communication. During the five weeks of this year's assembly they shared the responsibilities for teaching an adult Bible class on the Gospel of John.

Foundation staff members further participate in an organization composed of Baptist Foundation executives in the Southern Baptist Convention. The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma is always well represented at the association's annual meetings. This year's meeting at Nashville, Tenn. was no exception as James Stewart of our staff led a conference on "the role of the computer in the operation of Baptist Foundations" and Bob Ross was a member of a panel discussion on "Baptist Foundations and Public Relations." Marvin Hall, long-time member of our staff, was elected president of the Association of Baptist Foundation Executives.

Communication through promotional emphases:

For many years January has been designated on the denominational calendar as "Make Your Will Month." Since 1950, September has been observed as "Baptist Foundation Month."

These two months afford to the Foundation excellent opportunities for focus on the concept of endowment, and to explain how the needs and purposes of endowment for Baptist causes can be met by gifts through wills and trusts where the Foundation is named trustee.

During these times of the year quantities of bulletin inserts are provided to the churches for distribution to their people on selected Sundays. Last year more than 270,000 inserts were mailed by the Foundation to the 1,440 churches. As the result, growing numbers of Baptist people are requesting estate planning assistance from the Foundation.

These particular emphases are also highlighted in the Baptist Messenger through cover pages and feature articles during the first and ninth months of each year. There was a special eight-page section in the Sept. 22 edition of our state Baptist paper going to more than 110,000 subscribers. Articles promoting these emphases were also supplied to associational papers and other Baptist periodicals such as Care'N Share, The Anvil, etc. They are further made available to churches for inclusion in their newsletters.

Communication through educational programs:

FUTURE THRUST is an educational program that has been conducted by our staff in the churches of at least two associations each year since 1956. Although the name of the program has been changed several times during these past 27 years, the format of the program remains basically the same. Staff members speak about the work and services of the Foundation in churches, distribute estate stewardship literature and lead estate planning seminars. They also meet with persons in the congregations desiring estate planning assistance.

The FUTURE THRUST program in January was conducted in 28 churches across the state rather than in the churches of one association. They were: First churches in Muskogee, Anadarko, Okmulgee, Comanche, Wagoner, Broken Bow, Idabel, Sallisaw, Jenks, Marlow, Atoka, Bristow, Nowata, Frederick, Perry, Sayre, Pauls Valley, Enid, Cleveland, Sulphur, Shawnee, Lindsay, Heavener, Blackwell, Okemah; Duncan, Immanuel, Durant, Calvary and Enid, Emmanuel.

Foundation staff members conducted the FUTURE THRUST emphasis during September in 46 churches of Muskogee Association.

However estate planning seminars are not just limited to FUTURE THRUST months. As our men travel and preach across the state each week they are asked to lead estate planning seminars during the Church Training hour on Sunday evenings or at the midweek service on Wednesdays. They often receive invitations to speak before senior citizen's groups, at Baptist Men's meetings and to the WMU gatherings. During the past 12 months, our staff has conducted 59 estate planning seminars.

An educational tool used by the Foundation in communicating with those of the legal profession is the attorneys' packet. This packet contains specimen copies of various types of wills and trusts, charitable remainder annuity trusts and unitrusts, gift annuity contracts and other materials. Since 1979 when this packet was first prepared, it has been distributed to 823 attorneys in Oklahoma.

Information must continually be updated as new legislation is passed affecting estate planning considerations or as rate schedules for gift annuity contracts are changed. When the National Committee on Gift Annuities met in May at Denver, Colo. they adopted a new rate schedule. The Foundation has since mailed copies of this new schedule along with letter of explanations to all attorneys who had previously received attorneys' packets asking them to add the new materials to their files for future reference.

Communication through scheduled meetings:

The Foundation schedules eight programs each year especially designed to communicate with church leaders. Selected pastors, directors of missions and church staff persons are invited to the Baptist Building in Oklahoma City for a discussion of the Foundation's ministries. They are given opportunity to ask questions, offer suggestions and observe the Foundation's Board of Directors in committee meetings.

The Pastors' Program has proved to be most effective in building relationships of understanding. Pastors are always impressed with the spiritual commitments and business expertise of the board members. More than 65 pastors attended the eight sessions of this year.

Because the Foundation works with hundreds of attorneys each year in securing the preparation of legal documents and in the probate of wills, dinner and luncheon meetings for attorneys are scheduled in communities across the state. The purpose of these meetings is to get acquainted with lawyers and to familiarize them with the role and purposes of The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma. A color slide presentation about the Foundation is shown at the after-dinner meetings, followed by a brief explanation of the relationship the Foundation seeks to have with attorneys. Attorneys' packets containing specimen copies of various legal documents are then presented to those in attendance.

During the past 12 months attorneys' meetings have been conducted in Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Weatherford, Okmulgee, Clinton, Sapulpa, McAlester, Guymon, Woodward and Muskogee. Ninety-two attorneys attended these meetings.

The State Training Meeting for Associational Officers is always a big event. Persons from across the state come to Oklahoma City each spring to attend conferences to prepare themselves better for certain responsibilities in their associations. Eighteen associational Baptist Foundation representatives attended the two-day sessions conducted by our staff. The associational Baptist Foundation representative is a liaison person between the Foundation and the local churches in his area. He or she is an invaluable partner in the adventure of communication, interpreting the ministries of the Foundation to Baptist people and encouraging them to Christian estate stewardship.

Communication through special events:

Families have homecomings. So do communities and churches and universities. Why not The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma? Nearly a hundred men have served (or are presently serving) on the Foundation's Board of Directors since its beginning in 1946. So we decided to have a reunion where the past could meet the present and where we could look to the future.

On March 17, 170 former and present Foundation Board and staff members and their spouses and some special friends attended the Homecoming '83 Banquet at the Park Suite Hotel in Oklahoma City. Class reunions followed the banquet.

Friday morning, March 18, began with a 10 o'clock coffee at First Church in Oklahoma City. Then the Foundation's Board of Directors held its monthly committee meetings with former Foundation Board and staff members as their guests.

Homecoming '83 concluded with a luncheon meeting on Friday noon at which time C. Fred Williams was honored for his 10 years of service as president of The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma. These special days provided tremendous opportunities for communication with our best friends regarding the challenges of the future.

Communication through media:

"Being of Sound Mind" is a four-part television series on estate planning jointly produced by The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma and the First Continental Bank and Trust Company of Del City. These public service programs are offered to commercial and cable television stations in the state and to churches with video equipment.

During the past year KSWO, channel 7 of Lawton and KTEN, channel 10 of Ada showed the series as did cable television stations in Del City, Guymon, Midwest City, McAlester, Moore, Norman, Stillwater and Tulsa.

Churches showing "Being of Sound Mind" were: Glenwood, Tulsa; First, Guymon; Bethel, Owasso; Putnam City, Oklahoma City; First, Wagoner; First, Chickasha; First, Edmond; Highland Park, Bartlesville; First, Shawnee; First, Mustang; Council Road, Bethany; First, Sapulpa and First, Tahlequah.

"Elevator Number Eight" is an excellent 20-minute dramatic motion picture about the importance of making a will. The Foundation purchased five copies of the film from producer Burt Martin Associates of Burbank, Calif. A two-minute trailer was added to the movie to tell the viewer of the estate planning services offered by The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma. Last year it was shown in 114 churches.

Charitable Giving and Estate Planning Services

Charitable giving and estate planning go hand in hand. There are ways of doing each to the advantage of the other and to the advantage of one's estate. This is one of the areas in which The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma can assist Baptists in total stewardship.

Simply by making a request for assistance from a Foundation staff member one can plan for the preparation of Last Wills and Testaments, Charitable Remainder Annuity Trusts, Charitable Remainder Unitrusts, Gift Annuity Contracts or other instruments essential to good estate planning. All of this can be done with the aid of competent legal counsel in order to achieve family goals and advance the Lord's work at the same time. When a Baptist cause is remembered, the preparation of the instruments is without cost to the individuals. Requests may be directed to the Oklahoma City office or one of the branch offices in Tulsa, Lawton or Shawnee. If requested to do so, the Foundation will serve as trustee or personal representative, without fee, for those who make gifts to Baptist causes.

In the course of this reporting period the Foundation staff assisted in securing the information for the preparation of the wills for 1,547 individuals. There were also 36 trusts established, 10 gift annuity contracts signed and 20 wills probated in which Baptist causes were included among the beneficiaries.

A placard is given to the churches indicating the number of members who have used the services of the Foundation in their estate planning. The number is updated quarterly. There are now 955 churches in which one or more families have secured the assistance of the foundation in accomplishing their estate stewardship desires.

Personal Trustee Services

One of the unusual and yet most beneficial ministries rendered by the Foundation is its personal trustee services. H. Truman Maxey has served in this capacity in a most commendable way during the past several years. Maxey is retiring for the third time at the end of this year. We congratulate him upon more than 50 years of unselfish service to Baptists of Oklahoma.

Personal trustee services include special assistance to individuals for whom the Foundation holds trusts. Transportation to hospitals, clinics, doctors' offices, regular contact by means of personal visits or telephone calls and many other personal services are rendered to the scores of people for whom the Foundation serves as personal trustee.

(1) Religious Education—Bill Haggard, director.

Religious Education Department

Bill C. Haggard, director

This year, 1982-83, represents the first year of the three year, "8.5 by '85," Sunday school enrollment emphasis as a part of the Bold Mission Thrust. At the same time, Church Training has entered a renewed emphasis in growth through enlarged enrollment and a growing emphasis on MasterLife. This has been another year of good, solid growth for our work in the churches of Oklahoma.

Department Staff

The Department of Religious Education has been signally blessed with a dedicated staff.

Serving on the field work staff are: Robert Audd, director of Church Training; Billy Allen, director of adult education and associational projects; David Fuller, director of youth work and Vacation Bible School; and Darlene Koch, director of childhood education.

The secretarial staff includes: Mrs. Joan Eischen, secretary to Haggard; Mrs. Sybil Cox, secretary to Audd; Mrs. Donas Cook, secretary to Allen; Mrs. Lou Rodriguez, secretary to Fuller; and Mrs. Olive Hays, secretary to Koch.

Review of Last Year

Sunday school enrollment continues to be most encouraging. This past year the reported Sunday school enrollment was 369,004, another all-time high, and a net increase of 14,440 over the previous year. With a goal of 400,000 by 1985, Oklahoma churches are well on their way to this historic achievement.

Vacation Bible School also shows evidence of increasing growth and effectiveness. Enrollment reached 138,916 in 1,214 church schools, mission schools and Backyard Bible Clubs in and through Oklahoma Baptist churches. A total of 2,335 professions of faith were reported and a projected total of over 18,000 prospects. Only one fourth of the prospects of the previous year received follow-up, and about one-third of these were enrolled in Sunday school, and one out of three enrolled were won to Christ!

Church Training enrollment showed a dramatic net increase to 97,372, an increase of 8,137 over the previous year. Much of this growth has come about as a result of an emphasis on new member orientation, equipping center modules, MasterLife and DiscipleLife. Church Training now has a better reporting system which was implemented in June 1982.

"M" Night, Nov. 22, 1982, was reported in 33 associations with a total attendance of 6,878.

Projects and Activities Conducted

In September 1982, "Glorieta: Oklahoma Style," a state Bible teaching improvement conference, drew over 2,000 participants. In April 1983, "The Best of Glorieta," reached a registration of 1,800-2,000. Four Sunday School Curriculum Workshops registered over 1,000 Sunday school workers.

Associational training schools were conducted in the following associations: Washington-Osage, Kay, Chi-Ka-Sha, East Central, Muskogee, Cimarron, Sans Bois, and South Canadian Associations. Over 1,000 workers received training in these schools. In addition, most other associations conducted training schools, using their own ASSIST as their faculties. Thirteen associations conducted one-night associational Church Training Growth Workshops. Attending the Bold Growth in Discipleship Team Training were 385 team members.

An "8.5 by '85" Adult Emphasis Conference was conducted with over 150 associational leaders from across the state.

The annual ASSIST training meeting at Falls Creek received about 200 registrants.

A State Church Building Conference was conducted in May 1983 at Tulsa, with about 70 pastors and church building committee members present.

MasterLife continues to receive good interest as two MasterLife training conferences were conducted at Falls Creek and Tulsa.

Two hundred and sixteen participants attended the Senior Adult Leadership workshops. One hundred and one youth and children participated in the state Bible Drills and Speaker's Tournament.

The two Metro Equipping Center Showcases reached 116 pastors and Church Training leaders.

About 50 library workers attended the State Church Media Conference.

Other projects include: two Sunday School Leadership Seminars, 578 registered; two How to Train Adults Conferences, about 125 individual church building consultations, many individual church Sunday School conferences, and other related consultations.

A record-breaking registration came to Falls Creek Assembly with a total of 34,820 campers (25,295 full timers). All of the Religious Education staff is involved in the development of this program.

(2) Evangelism—Jerry Don Abernathy, director.

Evangelism

Jerry Don Abernathy, Director

Another banner year in baptisms underscores the commitment of Oklahoma Baptists to evangelism. This year marks the fourth year when record years in baptisms have been achieved. These four years have not just happened. Factors which contributed to this record setting evangelism pace include:

- (1) Pastoral and church prioritizing of evangelism.
- (2) More churches implementing a process of soul-winning training to enhance the evangelism events.
- (3) Continued emphasis on strong local church revivals and area crusades.
- (4) Unified evangelistic emphasis by the church program organizations in teaching, training and outreach.
- (5) Strong evangelism emphasis in youth programs including VBS, camps and assemblies.

Evangelism Strategy

To achieve the objectives assigned the BGCO Evangelism Department a four-point state strategy has been developed. (1) Leadership development. Through leadership training the design is to assist pastors in developing evangelistic leadership style and skills based upon sound biblical evangelism principles. (2) Personal soul-winner multiplication. Through training of leadership the design is to assist churches in providing a variety of witness training programs which will allow training for the variety of church members. (3) Evangelism visibility. Recognizing that Oklahoma Baptists are motivated more by inspiration than information the design is to encourage and assist evangelism activities which can motivate the membership to make the evangelism priority of Christ foremost in their minds and hearts. (4) Evangelism channeling. Since evangelism is not a program base with church program organizations but the undergirding principle of the church the design is to provide information, assistance and coordination for all the church program organizations to keep proper perspective in their work and in so doing stay properly related to the Lord's original design for the church.

Activities

The Prayer for Spiritual Awakening Seminar is a conference designed to assist churches in teaching the biblical and historical nature of spiritual life and renewal. It teaches the people how to pray biblically and thereby experience life changing results, evangelistic results and spiritual development. These conferences are scheduled through the BGCO Evangelism Department.

Continuing Witness Training. Oklahoma has been the pilot state for this personal witness training process. Four National Training Seminars were conducted in 1983. For 1984, three National Training Seminars are scheduled.

National Simultaneous Revivals are scheduled for 1986. The Oklahoma dates are March 16 through April 6. All associations and churches are being urged to participate. National promotion and programming will make this effort a major evangelism opportunity with maximum potential.

Youth Evangelism Conference

Three duplicate conferences are scheduled for 1983. They are First Southern, Del City, Dec. 27-28; Immanuel, Tulsa, Dec. 28-29; and First Southern, Del City, Dec. 29-30. Program personalities include "Gabriel," Jerry Drace, Ken and Lois Holland, Iris Urrey, Charlie Baker, Glenn Boyd and others.

State Evangelism Conference

The 1984 Conference scheduled for Jan. 23-24 at First Southern, Del City, will follow the theme "Give Tongues of Fire to Preach Thy Word." Program personalities include Jimmy Draper, Robert Hamblin, Jess Hendley, Charles Stanley, Jerry Vines, Jack Price, Tom Elliff, Clifford Palmer, C. E. Autrey, Bill Bennett, and Manley Beasley.

(3) Ministerial Services—Clyde Cain, Director.

Ministerial Services

Clyde Cain, Director

The office of Ministerial Services provides a general service in two specific areas: A service to churches seeking pastors and/or staff members, as well as a relocation of ministers and continuing education.

Service to Churches: A continuing expansion of informational services offered to churches is evident. During 1982, 1,839 biographical resumes were sent to approximately 600 churches. These included resumes on pastors and staff members. This figure represents an increase of approximately 115 percent over the previous year.

These resumes are provided without recommendation or endorsement to the local church.

Continuing attempts are being made at the point of updating biographical resumes that are over three years old. Pastors and staff members are encouraged to see that their resumes are current.

Biographical information is received and shared with other state conventions upon request.

Assistance is also given in securing a pulpit supply and/or interim pastor on request. When a church is without a pastor this office will work with that church in finding a pulpit supply or interim pastor. If the pastor needs to be out of his pulpit, assistance is given in securing a pulpit supply.

Continuing Education

State Bible Conference—The annual State Bible Conference provides detailed study for the January Bible Study book and the Baptist Doctrine Study emphasis. The conference was conducted May 2-5, 1983, with an emphasis on I Corinthians, the January Bible Study book for 1984 and the Doctrine of the Holy Spirit, which is the doctrinal emphasis for the spring of 1984. Over three hundred registrants attended the conference.

Pastors' Continuing Training—Oklahoma Baptist University provided the setting for 28 pastors to spend time in detailed study of subjects such as, "Counseling in Crisis," "Effective Writing," "Budget Planning," "Domestic Counseling" and "Stress in Ministry." Brooks Faulkner of the Baptist Sunday School Board, Nashville, Tenn., and many leaders from OBU and our state convention provided the faculty for this four-day emphasis.

Ministry Training Institute—Through the School of Christian Service at Oklahoma Baptist University and the office of Ministerial Services, BGCO, a cooperative effort has begun which will enhance our total approach to continuing education.

The director of the Ministry Training Institute is John Tresch, vice-president for Religious Life and dean of the School of Christian Service at OBU. The program coordinator is Clyde Cain, director of ministerial services for the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma.

The purpose of the institute is to offer college-level courses for vocational ministers presently serving as pastors or staff members in local churches. Training is also available to staff members, persons who have surrendered for special service and lay persons who feel the need for additional formal training. This will equip them to better serve their congregations, to deepen their knowledge of the scriptures and develop their functional skills as workers in their local churches.

The institute will also facilitate a working agreement with the Baptist Seminary in Spain, whereby their graduates will receive a college degree.

The program of study consists of two levels: The Certificate level and the Diploma level. In most instances, a student may receive some credit at Oklahoma Baptist University for work done through the Ministry Training Institute. Certificates may also be awarded for students who have no interest in receiving credit at OBU.

College-level Seminary Extension materials are used in the Ministry Training Institute.

The initial centers are located at Pryor, Lawton and Enid. Additional centers will be established in the near future.

Scholarships are available for those persons who are ordained, licensed or have surrendered for special service and will be given a letter of certification from the local church.

Seminary Campus Visits—Seminary campuses visited during 1983 include: Midwestern, Southwestern, Southern, New Orleans and Golden Gate. Interviews are given with graduating students who have an interest in serving in Oklahoma. Also, the BGCO hosts a banquet for all Oklahoma students at the seminaries. Approximately 300 students were interviewed and attended one of these dinners during the seminary visits. Joe L. Ingram, executive director-treasurer, BGCO, spoke in chapel at Midwestern, Southern and Southwestern Seminaries. Clyde Cain was the chapel speaker at New Orleans.

Seminary Study Center, OBU—Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary is currently operating a study center at OBU. Degree offerings include the Master of Divinity, Master of Religious Education and Associate in Theology degrees. A record enrollment of 104 students was attained during the past school year. This program continues to grow.

Seminary Extension Ministry—Seventeen Seminary Extension Centers are currently active in Oklahoma. These centers are providing training for approximately 150 students. The newest center was begun in Bryan Association and meets at the associational office each Tuesday evening.

(4) Church Music—Glenn Boyd, director.

Church Music

Glenn Boyd, Director

State Leadership Training

The Church Music Department served Oklahoma in the year 1982-83 through church music training in the following ways: Baptist Education Music Association, Jan. 13-14; Oklahoma Youth Music Leadership Clinic, Feb. 25-26; assisted with the Capital Baptist Associational Music Conference, Feb. 21-24; State Handbell Festival, March 5; State Training Meeting for Associational Officers, April 22-23; Young Musicians' Festival, April 30; State Methods and Materials Conference, Eastwood, Tulsa, Aug. 22-23, and Southern Hills, Oklahoma City, Aug. 25-26; State AssisTeam Training, Southern Hills, Oklahoma City, Aug. 24; Four State Music Director and Accompanists Retreats, September 9-10, Gibson Assembly and Camp Hudgens, and Oct. 14-15, Falls Creek and Tulakogee; State Indian Leadership Conference, Oct. 6-8; Minister of Music and Wives Retreat, Nov 3-5, Falls Creek.

Southern Baptist Leadership Training

We also provided promotion and encouragement to the following church music training opportunities: Southern Baptist Church Music Conference, Pittsburgh, Pa., June 12-13; Church Music Week at Glorieta, July 16-22; Music Conference, Baylor University, Waco, Texas, Aug. 1-3.

Readin' and Singin' Schools

History was repeated once again as Pittsburg Association hosted the first of the newly modified music schools called Church Music Readin' and Singin' Schools. Eleven years ago the same association hosted the pilot Fundamentals of Church Music School which paved the way for schools all over Oklahoma. The first Church Music Readin' and Singin' School enrollment was 30 representing 12 churches. The five-week course of study was beneficial to those who attended.

Supportive Help

In addition to the regular programming that the Church Music Department does, we are very supportive of the other departments and agencies of the convention. This year we assisted 12 of our departments and agencies in planning and executing their programs and we are happy to have this opportunity.

Singing Churchmen

The Singing Churchmen of Oklahoma had one of its greatest years. We had 110 men enrolled in the organization with seven performances and rehearsal choral clinics within the state. April 4-19, 26 of the Singing Churchmen made the trip to Spain to participate in the evangelistic crusade there. I encourage all full-time music directors to be a part of this organization, if possible. If you have questions concerning the Singing Churchmen, please contact our office.

Falls Creek

Falls Creek is one of the most exciting parts of our work. We had over 2,000 young people and adults participate in our Falls Creek choir and instrumental program this year with 37 young people making a life commitment to the music ministry.

Statistical Report

The figures released by the Southern Baptist Convention's statistics department show that Oklahoma Baptist churches have 61,921 people involved in their music ministries. This is up from last year's figures of 58,863. We are thankful for that. We would like to urge all churches to report their church music enrollment on the annual church letter.

Your Church Music Department is made up of Glenn Boyd, director; Paul Magar, associate director; Mary June Tabor, assistant; Judy Trent, secretary. It is a privilege to be a part of Oklahoma Baptists working together to reach the world for Jesus Christ.

(5) Child Care—Lowell Milburn, director.

Child Care

Lowell D. Milburn, Director

A guide said to the tourists as they stood in the shadow of the great Pyramids in Egypt, "Fifty centuries look down on you." Eighty years of caring look down on Oklahoma Baptists as Child Care began in Oklahoma in 1903. The Bible Says, "Seeing we are encompassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses." There is a host of children, some 8,000 of them, who bear witness to the love and care of Oklahoma Baptists during these years. The Child Care Department has had another great year of ministry to children.

Look at Disturbing Factors—In 1976 there were 3,366 cases of child abuse reported in Oklahoma. In 1982 there were 12,472 total cases reported and investigated. The church faces a new mission field as we reach out to the troubled, hurt and needy. Approximately one million teenage girls became pregnant last year and 550,000 of these teenagers gave birth. Births to teenage, unwed mothers has reached epidemic proportions. Births to girls under 16 in Oklahoma is increasing five times the rate of the national average. The Child Care Department, along with our churches, shall continue to proclaim that parenthood is a divine trust, a sacred privilege, filled with tremendous responsibility and wonderful opportunities. We shall continue to minister to those who have special need of our services.

Look at Expanding program—A decade ago we had two children's homes. Today we have four children's homes and one group home with five other group homes planned. The Marlow Group Home was dedicated May 19. The new Oklahoma City Children's Home campus at 16301 South Western was completed. Construction was begun on a Group Home in Ada on Aug. 1. Construction will soon begin on the Clinton Home, with one at McAlester, Woodward and possibly Miami to follow.

—A decade ago we made some 8-10 adoptions. Last year we made 43.

—Back then we helped 8-10 unwed mothers. Last year we counseled and served 299.

—A decade ago we served 15-20 children in foster homes, last year 121.

—We were serving a total of some 300 children and last year we served 925.

—We had 45 employees and today 120.

—Our budget was $450,000 and this year it is $2,969,056.

Look at Special Concerns—Attract and hold quality personnel.

—Provide adequate training for staff to work with the children we serve.

—Managing “acting out” behavior of children.

—How to deal with emergency situations for children and families.

—Management of group homes being established.

—More professional help with disturbed adolescents.

Look at Financial Support—We are grateful for 1,183 of our churches which gave $437,788 to the Mother’s Day Offering. Other sources of income included $568,853 from the Cooperative Program, $694,527 from endowment with Baptist Foundation, $121,101 from birthday/anniversary gifts, $133,537 from individuals, and $59,515 from memorials.

Look at Gratitude Expressed—Our deepest appreciation is extended all Oklahoma Baptists for their prayers and support and to the Lord for his blessings. Please pray for those who serve in Child Care.

(1) Baptist Messenger—Dick McCartney, editor.

The Baptist Messenger and Office of Communications

Richard T. McCartney, Editor

The Baptist Messenger has gone through a transition during 1983 that has increased its flexibility and enhanced its communications capability.

An additional printing unit was added to the Goss Community press on which the Messenger is printed in the fall of 1982. This addition makes it possible to increase the size of the publication from the former 16 pages to as many as 32 pages as needed. Care and Share, monthly publication of the Department of Child Care, is now published in the Baptist Messenger each month. The circulation of Care and Share was quadrupled through this change.

New typesetting equipment was purchased and installed during the summer of 1983. The Linotype equipment, vital to letterpress printing, was outmoded and ill suited to our present lithographic printing method. A new Compugraphic typesetting system began operation in August, and production of the Baptist Messenger is now among the most up to date of all Southern Baptist state papers.

Other state convention departments and agencies also have benefited from the expanded capabilities of the Messenger. Publication of the Child Care newsletter requires an eight-page expansion of the Messenger. When the Department of Child Care uses fewer than eight pages, the additional space is available to convention departments who need more space. The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma used an eight-page section in the Baptist Messenger in September to launch the Beyond This Time endowment emphasis. These special sections help to diminish the number of mailings going to the churches and greatly increase the number of people who are informed about convention programs of work.

The Baptist Messenger is one of the few Baptist state papers with a growing circulation. Last year we reported a circulation of 109,627 at the beginning of September. In 1983 circulation had risen to 113,335. Last year 74 churches and four associations were publishing special local church editions. This year 81 churches and four associations were utilizing the Messenger to report local news to their people.

Continued strong funding of the Baptist Messenger through the Cooperative Program enabled us to keep the cost of church budget subscriptions at $3.50 and individual subscriptions at $4.00. No increase is anticipated in 1984.

Two new responsibilities were added to the office of communications this year. The Messenger press and central service areas of convention work were assigned to this office. Equipment has been added and other equipment updated to make it possible to meet most of the convention's printing and mailing needs in-house. Fewer of these services are being purchased from outside sources, and the goal is to be able to produce practically all of these services with our own people in the near future.

Keeping Baptists informed is the assignment of the Baptist Messenger and office of communications. Our staff takes that assignment seriously and seeks to use every appropriate medium of communications to fulfill it. Every church is urged to provide the Baptist Messenger for each member family to keep them informed about our cooperative task.

(2) Baptist Student Work—Bob Lee, director.

Baptist Student Union

Bob Lee, Director

Baptist Student Union work across the state had another good year with excellent participation from the students and outstanding support from the churches.

This was a year of change for many of our campuses and directors. Neal Schooley resigned from OSU after 12 years as BSU director to become pastor of a Baptist church in Germany and Joe Bynum was elevated to director. Alan Campbell moved from Connors State College to OSU to serve as associate director. David James moved to OBU to replace Bob Burgess who had served as director for 11 years. Rob McNamara replaced James at Tulsa after serving four years at Sayre. New directors and associates that were hired in 1983 were Gus Blackwell at Sayre, Gene Chapman at Warner, Minnie Pack at Tahlequah, Danny Toombs at Lawton, Greg Idell at Durant, Linda Cole at OU, John Lacey at Altus, Kay Chapman at Warner, and Mary Beth Kissea at OBU.

New buildings were built at Oscar Rose in Midwest City and Southeastern at Durant. A new addition and remodeling was done at Central State University. In addition, remodeling was done at OSU, East Central, and Oklahoma State Tech.

Seventy students were chosen to serve as summer missionaries in Oklahoma and five states. Seven thousand dollars was sent to the Foreign Mission Board MANNA program for World Hunger. Our students raised over $110,000 for all mission work. This included money to assist BSU in 18 states in the new convention area. Oklahoma students have gotten a vision for the need to support BSU work in the Western and Northern areas of our country. A total of 547 students were included in short-term mission projects.

The major emphases of the BSU program in Oklahoma are Bible study, evangelism, discipleship, missions, international work, churchmanship, and worship. Over 700 students were won to the Lord and approximately 4,000 were involved in Bible studies. Several thousand students again attended such events as the BSU Convention (Student Skills Training Conference), Leadership Training Conference (State Spring Retreat), Glorieta Student Week, Missions Conferences at Southwestern and Midwestern Seminaries, and other worship gatherings.

The continued support of Student Work through the Cooperative Program, associations, churches, and individuals continues to increase and be a source of encouragement. Over $1,000,000 was received from CP and another $600,000 plus from associations, churches and individuals. Because Oklahoma Baptists believe in student work and show this through the strong financial support, the programs will continue to grow stronger and students will be involved in large numbers and hundreds will be won to the Lord.

Thank you for your support and your prayers, It is our privilege to work for you and with your students from across Oklahoma.

(3) Evangelism—Jerry Don Abernathy, director.

The motion carried to adopt these reports.

57. J. M. Gaskin, director of history, presented the report of the Historical Commission.

Historical Commission

By J. M. Gaskin, Director

The nine-member Historical Commission had two meetings during the past year. Major projects and programs to which the commission gave attention will be reported in summary on the following pages.

Historical Tour

The fifth historical tour was sponsored May 12-13. The itinerary covered points of interest in Southwestern Oklahoma. More than 300 persons took part at some place on the tour. There were 90 registered regular tour members.

Baptistry Painting Survey

In the March 15 meeting, the commission endorsed a project to do a survey of baptistry paintings in Oklahoma Baptist churches. Al Turner, history teacher in the El Reno Junior College and a Baptist deacon, is conducting the survey. Results will be made available to the commission when the survey is completed and tabulated.

Historical Marker

A historical marker was dedicated at Tahlequah on Oct. 21. It indicates the organization of the first Baptist convention in what is now Oklahoma. Other Baptist historical beginnings in the Cherokee area of Northeastern Oklahoma are noted on the marker.

Convention Centennial Celebration

The commission approved a Convention Centennial Celebration at Tahlequah on Oct. 21. J. R. Stogsdill and J. M. Gaskin were designated to formulate details. The celebration involved Black, Indian and Anglo Baptists of Oklahoma. It was in the Baptist church's "meeting house" at Tahlequah the first Oklahoma convention was organized in 1883. Since that date a total of 11 conventions which sustained a connection with present Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma work have been organized.

Baptist Heritage Book

Slayden Yarbrough, assistant professor of religion at Oklahoma Baptist University, has written a three-part series on, Southern Baptists: Who Are We? As separate articles, the series has been printed in The Oklahoma Baptist Chronicle. The full series will be combined in a reprint and issued as a book for use in Baptist Heritage studies in Oklahoma in 1984. Associations and churches throughout the state convention are urged to make use of this book for a series of special studies in Southern Baptist history.

Gaskin History Award

In 1979, the Gaskin Baptist History Award was established at Oklahoma Baptist University. The award was provided by endowment funds from Gaskin and some of his friends. The funds are on deposit with the Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma. No official agreement regarding the funds and the award was ever formulated. Upon the advice of Bob Ross of the Foundation office, the donor requested a study of present and future policies on the use of this award. Kay Henry and Slayden Yarbrough were appointed to the study committee.

Falls Creek Rock House

The commission has given thought and discussion, in cooperation with Joe L. Ingram and Falls Creek officials, to the possibility of renovating and preserving the Rock House at Falls Creek. This is one of the very last historic landmarks on the assembly grounds. Tentative considerations now call for designating one floor of the building for use as a museum.

Angell!

Early this year Angell!, a biography of Warren M. Angell, was published. Helen Thames Raley wrote the book. The publication venture was a joint project of OBU and the Historical Commission. The book has been well received and reports on sales are gratifying. The OBU Book Store has handled all marketing of the book. The cost is $7.95 per copy, prepaid.

Historical Society

The Oklahoma Baptist Historical Society is auxiliary to the Historical Commission. Members of the Commission are elected each year by the convention.

Currently there are 236 paid members of the society. Cost for membership is $2 for annual dues or $25 for a life membership. All persons interested in the programs and projects of the commission and society are invited to join.

The 1983 meeting of the society will be held in the dining room of Council Road Church. Cost of the meal ticket is $5. The speaker will be Slayden Yarbrough. His topic will be, "Concerns of a Southern Baptist Historian."

Recommendations

In its Sept. 8 meeting, the Historical Commission approved the following recommendations to the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma:

1. That we reaffirm in perpetuity the action of the Historical Commission on June 5, 1979 (see Book of Reports, BGCO, 1982, pp. 28-29). This action was reaffirmed in 1982 (Ibid.) It specifies that the Oklahoma Baptist Collection is the property of the convention. By joint agreement with OBU dating back to 1955, the collection is housed in the Mabee Learning Center (Library) at OBU. But it is the property of the convention and shall be administered by the Historical Commission.

2. That we cooperate with the LeFlore Association in selecting a site, providing necessary funds, and dedicating a historical marker in 1984. (The LeFlore Association is Oklahoma's oldest white Baptist association.)

3. That we encourage all associations and churches to consider using the book, Southern Baptists: Who Are We? by Slayden Yarbrough, in Baptist Heritage studies early in 1984.

4. That we encourage each church and association to elect a historian and a history committee each year.

5. That we ask more churches to update or do a first-time writing and publication of their histories.

6. That we suggest more churches put their minutes on microfilm.

7. That we ask the convention's WMU department to assume the leading role in promoting and marketing the book, Baptist Women in Oklahoma. J. M. Gaskin is now in process of writing the book. Completion is expected in 1984.

8. Encourage Al Turner to complete his historical survey of baptistry paintings in Oklahoma Baptist churches.

9. Invite friends of Falls Creek to contribute (not loan) items which may be placed in the proposed museum at Falls Creek.

10. That we ask the convention to give formal approval to the commission's adoption of the following policy concerning materials which belong in the Oklahoma Baptist Collection:

No book manuscript, periodical, photograph, artifact, or other item which is the property of the Historical Commission, may be taken out of the Archives room without the approval of the convention's director of history or a person he may authorize to act in his absence. This rule shall apply to all materials acquired by and for the collection; which have been cataloged in the collection's card catalog; and/or which may bear a tag or imprint indicating ownership. Such ownership shall be indicated by the imprint, Oklahoma Baptist Collection. OBU Library, Shawnee, OK 74801.

The motion carried to approve the report.

58. Randy Hendricks led in singing the hymns "Love Is the Theme" and "We Are One in the Bond of Love."

59. Fraternal greetings from the following conventions were acknowledged: Ohio, Maryland, Northern Plains, Indiana, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Hawaii, New England, Mississippi, Florida, Arizona, North-west, Alabama, Virginia, California, Kentucky, Georgia, Kansas, Nebraska, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Louisiana, West Virginia, and Illinois.

60. Joe L. Ingram, recognized visitors, agency representatives, and the new pastors and church staff members who have come to serve in Oklahoma since the convention last year.

61. Vaughn Brower, Eastwood Church, Tulsa, presented the report of the Christian Life Commission.

Christian Life Committee

Vaughn Brower, Chairman

The Bible says, "Let your conversation (manner of life) be as it becometh the gospel of Christ." Each Christian is expected to "stand fast in one spirit, with one mind, striving together for the faith of the gospel" (Phil. 1:27). We need no other admonition. Paul said it clearly and effectively. Christians should be different in their conduct, their affairs and all their strivings. Why? Because the gospel of Christ lives in them.

The current "manner of life" of so many Oklahomans disturbs your Christian Life Committee. We believe it is essential that we be reminded once more of the numerous moral and social issues that weaken our Christian testimony and destroy the Christian environment. We must, individually, and collectively, through the 1,450 cooperating Southern Baptist churches in Oklahoma commit our efforts to make the "manner of life" in Oklahoma consistent with the gospel.

The first section outlines briefly the findings of a survey related to Christian moral concerns and the efforts of the Christian Life Committee and other agencies to speak to these issues.

The remaining sections deal with various "manners of life." We have endeavored, not only to identify the issue, but make positive suggestions and recommendations.

Christian Moral Concerns

A survey prepared for the Executive Committee of the BGCO revealed that the Christian Life Committee has been actively engaged in three major conferences in recent years:

1. Anti-Pornography Conference—Feb. 11, 1977
2. Alcohol Abuse Seminar—Aug. 18-19, 1980
3. Family in Crisis Seminar—June 28-29, 1982

The Christian Life Committee has spoken to the following subjects in their recent annual reports:

In addition to the work of the Christian Life Committee, the Executive Committee survey indicated 12 other agencies of programs which have contributed to Oklahoma Baptists' awareness of Christian Moral Concerns. These areas are:

1. Family Ministry Program. State conferences are planned periodically to train church and associational leadership.

2. Church Training curriculum will highlight the family during 1983-1985.

3. Planning and Promotion area directs and coordinates themes and emphasis planning. One phase, "Strengthening Families," will be magnified (1983-1985) with three projects:

- 1) Family—Opening the Word Together
- 2) Marriage—Growing in Oneness
- 3) Parents—Building a Christian Home

4. Ministerial Services provides conferences and counseling for pastors, staffs, and their families.

5. Stewardship Development provides materials and guidance in Christian Family Money Management.

6. The Child Care Department provides services to unwed mothers, including a ministry "Alternatives to Abortion" counseling service. Through their publication, "Care 'N Share," numerous articles have appeared on the family and various issues which affect the home.

7. Church Administration has provided conferences for pastors/staff on marriage and crisis counseling.

8. WMU Professor of Sociology at OBU has assisted the Christian Life Committee in designing and conducting jointly sponsored seminars on Alcohol Abuse and Family Life. He continues to serve the committee and denomination in various capacities and assignments.

In addition, the editor stays abreast of the many moral issues facing the people of Oklahoma.

10. SANE—Sooner Alcohol Narcotics Education places materials and programs in numerous public schools and churches.

11. The Executive Office, under the leadership of Joe L. Ingram, has taken a very active role in moral issues and exerts significant influence.

12. Youth at Falls Creek have studied books on Christian living, etc. Numerous influences have been brought to bear on moral life and issues in Oklahoma by these programs and their leaders.

Appreciation is expressed to the leaders of these programs for their contributions to the positive development of Christian moral concerns among Baptists in Oklahoma.

Christian Integrity in Public Life

It is important that we address the issue of personal integrity in the lives of public leaders. We are concerned about corruption in public officials and the seeming complacency of many Americans. Being convicted of the fact that "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord" (Psalm 33:12) and that public officials set the pattern for our entire nation, we realize that leadership filled with wisdom from God is imperative to the survival and success of America. We are also convinced that leadership sensitive to the commands and desires of God can produce an atmosphere conducive to many people coming to a saving faith in Jesus Christ.

With these convictions in mind, we RECOMMEND that each church member be committed to:

1. Pray for public leaders at every level of our government (I Tim. 2:1-3).
2. Be informed about all candidates seeking election, and support those who most clearly follow the principles outlined in God's Word.
3. Write letters of encouragement and support to those political leaders whose lives exemplify Christian standards and who take a stand on issues consistent with Biblical standards.
4. Faithfully exercise his or her right to vote for officials whose lives indicate an obedience to the commands of Christ.
5. Encourage his or her own church to urge its members to take an active role in government.

Christian Citizenship

As we approach another presidential election year, the Christian is reminded of his responsibilities as a citizen. Too many, in the light of internal tumult and international unrest, are pulling back from direct involvement in governmental affairs. However, rather than isolation, participation should be the key word for God's people.

When Jesus instructed that we "render to Caesar," He was simply identifying the interweaving between the citizen and his government.

The two cannot and must not be viewed as separate.

Through the Apostle Paul, God tells us to pray, entreat, beseech and give thanks for all those in positions of authority. One can scarcely do this with honesty and integrity and not find himself physically and tangibly involved also.

Voting is not only a right but a responsibility of the citizen, and most emphatically, the Christian citizen. Informed and intelligent voting calls for study of the candidates and the philosophy they endorse.

Religious Liberty

Baptist belief in the priesthood of the believer has mandated a companion tenet called religious liberty. The individual must have freedom of expression religiously to give words and works to impressions God endows upon the heart and life of each believer.

When church and state are not separate, the two intertwine to prevent the unique contribution of an individual's response to the movement of God's Spirit. History leaves an abundance of evidence. Where religious freedom has not flourished, God's Kingdom has suffered because mandates have come either from a church with vested interest in the state, or from a state committed to a church propagating its policies.

Baptists have not only lived by their commitment to religious liberty; they have also died for it. Baptists have determined through the ages that their worship and service be dictated only by God through the example of His Son and in the power of His Spirit.

To have separation of church and state for themselves, Baptists have supported religious freedom for others. Religious liberty denied to one is religious liberty denied to all.

Modern Baptists live in a complex culture and society. There is no difficulty in the admonition to render unto Caesar that which is Caesar's. The problem lies in deciding about "Caesar's" institutions. Baptists are devoted citizens of the state and contribute to it while receiving its benefits. The tension develops about the places where there is subtle merging of the two boundaries between the respective service offered by the church and the state.

As people of The Book and followers of the Lord, Baptists do well to review historical principles, Biblical examples, and the contemporary situations that have to do with the separation of church and state. Our identity as evangelical free churches, autonomous bodies of the congregation of the redeemed, and free people serving God, depends upon it.

Religious liberty! We preach Christ and him crucified.

Education in America . . . A Christian Imperative

Education is back on the "American Agenda." Some attribute this flurry of interest to politics. Whatever the cause, education should always remain at the top of any priority list whether federal, state or local.

The Christian community in America has always recognized the extreme importance of education. The first schools were church schools. Then when that changed into a public school system there developed a partnership of church, home and school that is unique in world history. This partnership is largely responsible for America's greatness. It is important that this partnership be maintained.

There is strong Biblical support for the value of education. The book of Proverbs is devoted almost entirely to the importance of acquiring wisdom. Christ spent his entire ministry teaching disciples the truth that will make men free. Paul was highly educated; yet he was able to be "all things to all men," and was used effectively by God as he spread the Gospel.

The American people have considered the provision of mandatory schooling the most important of all governmental services. At the same time, there has always been the optional choice of private education, much of it church sponsored.

The Christian community has a duty to actively support public schools. Christian parents should help determine curriculum for their local schools. Basic Christian principles, long a bulwark of this democracy, can be taught without teaching sectarian religion which is properly forbidden by law. Christian youth must be encouraged to join the large number of Christian educators already in public education. No secular profession provides greater opportunity to influence children for good than does teaching.

Church schools should have as their first priority to provide the best possible education for their students. Their academic standards should be the highest quality. The Christian school should seek to send out graduates well able to compete in their chosen field, evangelizing as they go out into this historically diverse society.

Both public and private schools must teach those things that have made this country great: love of country, love of home, respect and tolerance, free enterprise, civic duty and patriotism. These are all a part of the secret of America's greatness.

Children are America's greatest asset. Christians must demand excellence in education for them from all schools, public or private. We must be willing to help accomplish it. Our very democracy is at stake.

World Hunger

The Foreign Mission Board, Southern Baptist Convention, authorized release of $8.1 million from hunger and general relief funds in 1982. This amount funded 192 projects in 43 countries. All designated funds go to the project or field specified without any deductions whatever. MANNA contributions are included in the $8.1 million. This program is designed to permit individuals, churches, or groups to underwrite some portion of a particular project.

The Home Mission Board received more than a quarter million dollars in Domestic Hunger Relief for distribution in the United States.

Two hundred Oklahoma Baptist churches gave over $98,000 to world hunger in 1982. Almost half of them gave more than once during the year. Twenty-four of our churches gave more than a $1,000.

Youth groups had programs on hunger with "foodless" lock-ins that identified them symbolically with world hunger. It demonstrated hunger to the youth and caused many of them increased awareness of the problem of world hunger. Some churches contributed their meal costs to a world hunger fund.

Most groups had special prayer for countries most deeply affected by starvation and malnutrition.

Projects alleviating the problem of world hunger have been conducted by Oklahomans. Some of these have been coordinated by the Brotherhood Department, Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma. They include an irrigation system installation in Honduras and a cattle breeding project in Belize. Through an Agri-Missions Fellowship of Baptist Men, equipment and labor for hunger projects are conducted. Many hunger projects in foreign lands are necessary to survival. Water well-drilling and food distribution programs coordinated by the Foreign Mission Board have had Oklahoma Baptist volunteers.

World Hunger Day is the second Sunday in October.

Persons concerned with the problem of world hunger could become a catalyst in their church to encourage the congregation to join with scores of other Oklahoma Baptist churches in observing World Hunger Day. Special World Hunger Resource Kits are sent to all pastors and other church leaders. A planning guide with helpful suggestions has been prepared by the Southern Baptist Convention Christian Life Commission. What can one person do about world hunger? Consult with your pastor and help focus the attention of your church on this problem—and become a part of the solution.

The Family

For years the Christian Life Committee has spoken to the convention about the "crisis in the family." Other groups, religious, governmental, and social service, have joined the chorus. Yet, seemingly, the problem continues to grow.

The Biblical Model

The essential quality of the biblical model for the family is cooperation. The members of this family work cooperatively to care for the basic needs of family life—food, shelter, security, learning, and spiritual maturity. While there is diversity of tasks or function, there is unity of purpose (Eph. 5:21-6:4).

The cooperative family is characterized by the servanthood lifestyle. This means, first of all, that the Christian family member asks, "How can I meet the needs of my fellow family members and of the family as a whole?" Conversely, his/her needs will be ministered to by the other family members. And further, the Christian family asks, "How can this family further the impact of the Kingdom of God by ministry in and through the church?" (John 13:31-35; Luke 10:25-28).

The Christian family maintains itself through group Bible study and prayer. It involves itself in the life and work of the local church. It supports mission endeavors.

The Societal Situation

When the disciples of Jesus fell into argument among themselves over who should be first in the Kingdom, He responded by performing the servant act of washing their feet at the Last Supper (Luke 22:24-30; John 13:1-20). It is apparent that most American Christians have yet to take seriously the teachings of Jesus concerning servanthood. Like James and John we vie for positions of power and preeminence. We scorn servanthood (Luke 6:27-36; 9:21-24; 10:25-37; 11:1-13; 17:33; 18:18-29; Matt. 11:28-30; 18:1-5).

Our contemporary society lauds success competitively achieved. Conflict and conquest bring status in this world. Material goods, positions of power, and sexual adventures are proclaimed to be the "great goods" of life. The ideal of Christian spiritual growth receives little attention. In such a world the living out of the Christian life of servanthood seems out of step and abnormal. (Matt. 10:16-21). Servants appear to be like sheep in a world of wolves. However, a central teaching of scripture is that God is dependable. We can indeed count on him to keep his promises. It is this "fact of faith" that can give the believer the strength to risk assuming the servanthood lifestyle (Ps. 23; Luke 12:22-31).

Challenges

The Christian Life Committee calls upon Baptists, individually and in family groups, to take seriously our Lord's call to take on the servanthood lifestyle. As denominational materials focus on family life in the coming year, take seriously the implications of servanthood for what we do within our families. Make a personal and a family commitment to performance of the tasks of family life as servants. Consider the implications of this commitment for roles and relationships.

It is obvious that the worldly lifestyle of dominance over others is taking a terrible toll on families. Our only hope is to affirm the Lordship of Jesus and to accept servanthood as a way of life. Hopefully, by doing this, Baptist families of Oklahoma will provide light to others concerning how to escape the death-trap our society presents to families and correct a frightening trend.

Your committee also notes with special concern the rise of related problems of teenage pregnancies, abortions, herpes, AIDS, and the usurpation of parental rights and responsibilities by governmental agencies. We urge churches and pastors to provide appropriate pre-marital counseling for couples. In addition, churches should provide, in their regular programming, adequate workshops, training activities, and literature (such as the Christian Life Series) to help strengthen the family. We reaffirm the commitment of Oklahoma Baptists to minister to the children of unwanted pregnancies by the adoption placement program of our Child Care Department.

The Poor and the Unemployed

As the twentieth century moves toward finality, the subject of the poor and unemployed moves more into the news. In this complex situation, new emphasis must be placed on the role of the believer and the local church. The cup of cold water in Jesus' name may well become more important than ever. The church must continually come to grips with the problem of how to minister to those in poverty. Several suggestions are apparent.

First, the cup of cold water must be ministered. While we would not move toward a social gospel, we must recognize that the Gospel is loaded with social implications. When people are hungry and cold, they need more than a friendly "be ye warmed and filled" (James 2:16). Jesus said "the poor ye have with you always," but he also emphasized the importance of our clothing the naked, feeding the hungry, and giving drink to the thirsty. "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me" (Matt. 25:40).

Second, the cup of cold water must be given "in Jesus' name" (Mark 9:41). That which we do should be done in love and the spirit of the Great Commission. Remembering that the poorest are not those poor for this life but the ones poor for all eternity, we should seek to increase our witness through the Cooperative Program and share Christ wherever possible.

Third, we must teach the Christian work ethic, reminding men of God's original plan that for "six days thou shalt labour."

We encourage churches to continue their clothing rooms, food pantries, and benevolent funds to minister to the needy. Rides to church, funds to help the jobless, personal attention and love shared by Christian families will continue to be other important methods of ministering locally. The World Hunger Day sponsored by our Foreign Mission Board is an excellent method of channeling food to the needy overseas. We encourage churches to utilize WMU materials published on how churches can use community resources. "The righteous considereth the cause of the poor, but the wicked regardeth not to know it" (Prov. 29.7)

AIDS and Homosexuality

As of June 1983, approximately 1,400 cases of AIDS had been reported to the Center for Disease Control in Atlanta. It is estimated by the end of this year 2,000 cases will have been diagnosed. The spiral is upward. The prognosis is fatal. Of the cases presently known, 72 percent involve homosexual males. The others are intravenous drug abusers, Haitian immigrants to the U.S., and hemophiliacs. This is a very frightening development. Consequently, the Christian Life Committee urges Christians to:

1. Personally encourage research for the detection, prevention and treatment of AIDS.

2. Pray diligently for those who become victims to this disease and share the Gospel with them.

The relationship of this problem to male homosexuality provides the occasion for us to again address this issue. Certainly, God's love extends freely to all persons. Yet the Scriptures clearly condemn the practice of homosexuality as wrong (Lev. 18:22; Rom. 1:26-32). So, while it will not be a stand popular with some, it is imperative that we take a stand in opposition to the adoption of the homosexual lifestyle. Since it violates God's will, it is not an equally valid and acceptable lifestyle. It is sinful. Therefore, we encourage Christians to:

1. Teach their children about human sexuality as God intends it, noting the possible consequences of this choice.

2. Verbalize publicly and unapologetically the biblical teachings opposing homosexuality.

3. Strive to share the gospel of redemption and freedom with those who are enslaved by homosexuality.

4. Share with legislators and other public officials the biblical view of homosexuality.

5. Oppose actively those efforts by homosexual groups to have their way accepted as normal and also oppose the extension of opportunities to them to recruit the young into their lifestyle.

In all of this, we must carefully balance a love for the sinner with condemnation of the sin.

Crime and Law Enforcement

Crime continues to be a major spiritual, moral, social and economic concern in our state.

The latest report from the OSBI shows index crimes in Oklahoma totaled 165,143 for 1982, constituting 5,198.1 offenses per 100,000. This represents an increase in the total number of index crimes of 11.4% over those reported in 1981.

There were 84,931 larcenies reported with a property loss of $40,537,425. The number of larcenies increased 15.4 percent over the year of 1981. The number of violent crimes increased 7.2 percent. Non-violent crimes reflected an 11.8 percent increase. There were 343 murders reported in Oklahoma for 1982, an increase of 24.3 percent. Eight hundred and eighty-four (884) law enforcement officers were assaulted during 1982, an increase of 2.1 percent. Four officers were killed in the line of duty during 1982. There were 11,624 reported arrests for drug abuse violations. Of this number, 8.1 percent were persons under 18 years of age. Alcohol related arrests constituted 53 percent of the total arrests reported. This percentage represents the arrest of 92,663 adults and 3,191 juveniles.

No free society can long endure where its citizens condone lawlessness or the majority of its citizens become lawless.

We are exhorted in the Scripture to be "subject to the higher powers" and to "submit (ourselves) to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake."

It is RECOMMENDED that we:

1. Encourage participation in programs that help police and other law enforcement agencies deal with enforcing the laws, the education of the citizens to help prevent crime, and restoration of respect for our police, government and nation.

2. Provide assistance to our law enforcement agencies through voluntary chaplaincy services whenever the need is expressed and the opportunity is provided.

3. Work in cooperation with police in the prevention and cure of domestic and juvenile abuse in our communities.

4. Minister to the needs of crime and accident victims in the love and spirit of Jesus Christ.

5. Set an example as individual Christians by obeying and supporting our laws and law enforcement agencies.

6. Strengthen the spiritual foundations of our churches and homes in order to build a society of responsible persons who will obey the laws of the land.

7. Encourage those responsible for the enforcement of laws "to enforce the law without fear of favor, malice or ill will, never employing unnecessary force or violence" in the enforcement of it.

8. Pray for those entrusted with the task of enforcing and upholding the laws, and for their families—remembering the price that is sometimes required.

9. Present the claims of Jesus Christ to all men everywhere, believing that the final solution to the problem of lawlessness is to be found in a proper relationship to Christ as Lord and Savior.

Gambling Effort Turned Back

Carter County's successful opposition to parimutuel wagering was organized in the following way:

1. A group of business leaders formed a steering committee. They thought it was crucial that the business community have the key leadership positions. The concept was based on the idea that this was not simply an issue of the church against the world, but concerned citizens wanting to maintain the quality of family life in the county.

2. A marketing firm from Dallas was contracted to:

(1) Survey the county and determine what the key voter issue was in the election, and

(2) Develop a media campaign to address the central issue.

3. It was determined that, in the minds of the voting public, the key issue was jobs and economics. The approach of CARE (Citizens Against a Racing Environment) then was not based so much on the morality of gambling, but the issue of whether the gambling group could fulfill all of the economic promises it was making. The brochure the public relations firm designed was aimed at this issue. A brochure was mailed to every household in Carter County.

4. In evaluating the campaign, it was mentioned that it might have been more helpful to change the E in CARE from "environment" to "economics." The CARE slogan which also was created by the P.R. firm was intended to be a positive and constructive approach. It was aimed at addressing the voter issues, and taking the offensive as opposed to a defensive position. Besides the CARE brochures that were printed, there were CARE bumper stickers, lapel pins, and a slick ad campaign in the newspaper and on the radio.

5. It was felt that one of the crucial ingredients in the campaign was the hiring of the public relations firm. In our media oriented world, a group of crusaders is not enough. The P.R. firm helped the community market its position.

6. After the steering committee organized, there were several community meetings for interested citizens. Those meetings consisted of information about the campaign, fund raising, and passing out literature. At the initial community organization meeting the committee had Dick McCartney address the meeting on the false promise of parimutuel gambling.

7. Two other crucial elements of the successful campaign were the involvement of the business leaders and all of the area church groups, rather than just one denomination. In addition, there was an anonymous seed donation of $15,000 that helped the group get started.

James Duty served as secretary of CARE. More comprehensive information can be obtained by contacting him.

Beverage Alcohol

The church covenant adopted by most Southern Baptist churches clearly states: "... to abstain from the sale of, and use of, intoxicating drinks as a beverage . . ."

The Bible says: "Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise" (Prov. 20:1).

We have come to the time in Oklahoma Baptist history when a campaign is launched for total abstinence. This campaign must be an enduring one—both inside and outside the churches. There is a case for total abstinence.

1. Drinking alcoholic beverages endangers health. There is abundant evidence that alcohol damages the lining of the stomach and intestines, weakens the kidneys and is a factor, indirectly or directly, in other diseases such as cancer, tuberculosis and heart trouble.

2. Drinking alcoholic beverages impairs the mind and alters the personality. T. B. Maston wrote: "The fact that alcohol makes its first and immediate attack on the brain is particularly significant. It tends to destroy, at least temporarily, the very functions that set man apart from the animal creation . . . One of the most notable effects is the removal of inhibitions."

3. Drinking alcoholic beverages causes carnage on the highways. The drinking driver is a menace on the highways. Over 50 percent of the fatal wrecks are caused by drinking drivers.

4. Drinking alcoholic beverages enslaves the individual. When you drink, you are one drink drunk. This is true whether that one drink is beer, wine, or whiskey. Science has found no way to determine or distinguish who or what sort of a drinker may or may not become an alcoholic. The fact is that there are now multiplied millions of befuddled men, women, and young people who have become problem drinkers.

5. Alcoholic beverages corrupt society. Alcohol is the great corruptor—it corrupts everything it touches. It corrupts government and legislative officials, demoralizes home life, and is closely related to many forms of crime. The liquor industry has always tended to be lawless, even when it is legal.

We RECOMMEND that every Oklahoma Baptist church (1) regularly teach their constituency concerning the inherent evils of drinking alcoholic beverages, (2) make a plea for total abstinence on the part of every church member, (3) battle against liquor-by-the-drink campaign, and (4) budgetarily support SANE as it leads the churches in a comprehensive program of alcohol education.

We FURTHER RECOMMEND that this convention express its opposition to any efforts to liberalize Oklahoma's liquor laws, and that we strongly urge the convention Board of Directors, under the leadership of the executive director-treasurer, to appropriate the funds necessary to effectively battle the liquor-by-the-drink movement.

We also encourage churches to serve as a conduit for gifts from members to help defeat any vote on the liquor-by-the-drink question.

SANE

For many years, Sooner Alcohol/Narcotics Education has been a vital force in being an instrument of the churches in moral concerns. As Baptists, we are indebted to SANE for their courageous moral leadership in Oklahoma.

SANE now has a new leader in Don Chaffin, former pastor of First Baptist Church, Guymon. Plans are being made to make this organization even more effective as it serves all the churches in our state. Baptists can join with Christians of other persuasions in making SANE a viable and effective organization for moral concerns.

The motion carried to approve the report.

62. Joe C. Knowles, pastor, First Church, Sapulpa, addressed the convention on the subject "Questionable Issues in Our Day." He based his message on I Cor. 8:9.

63. Report of the Board of Directors was presented by Joe L. Ingram.

(1) Certificates of Appreciation were presented to the members retiring from the board.

(2) Sam Pace presented the recommendations of the Board which were approved.

The Executive Committee

The Executive Committee is made up of the chairmen of the five committees and the executive officers. Convention President William H. Cook served as chairman and other members were Hale A. Dixon, Mart Hardin, Joe L. Ingram, Forrest Jackson, Jim Sanderson, Rue Scott and Hayes Wicker. This committee meets only upon matters referred to it by the Board.

Establishment of Department of Christian Moral Concerns Considered—At the 1982 Convention a motion was introduced regarding the establishment of a Department of Christian Moral Concerns for the purpose of effectively preserving moral values, strengthening family life, and promoting a consciousness of Christian principles for everyday living. The convention referred the motion to the Board of Directors for study and asked that a report be made to the 1983 annual meeting. In December the Board asked the Executive Committee to conduct the study. The committee met two times and made a thorough study of the work now being done by the convention staff and the Christian Life Committee. The study included specific areas of concern now being handled and materials available through the various programs of work.

Christian Moral Concerns ReportI. Assignments to Convention Staff

1. The Christian Life Committee. This committee, elected by the convention, studies needs, initiates actions and reports annually to the convention on matters relating to Christian social and moral concerns. The committee speaks to Baptists rather than speaking for them.

2. Family Ministry Consultant. Robert Audd, associate director of the Department of Religious Education, serves as Family Life Consultant. This is one of several assignments for which he is responsible.

- 1) A State Family Life Conference was conducted February 7-8, 1983. The purpose was to train associational leadership, pastors and church staff in awareness of and involvement concerning Strengthening Family Emphasis. Excellent interest on the part of the participants.
 - 2) Conferences were conducted April 6 and 8, 1982 in Oklahoma City and Tulsa, and on June 28-29, 1982 at OBU.
 - 3) Training for Associational Family Ministry Director—The State Training Meeting for Associational Officers, April 22-23, 1983 included special training.
- Each association elects an associational family ministry director. These directors attend the state training meeting so they can return to their association and conduct associational family ministry programs. BSSB furnishes leadership at this state meeting.

1) This was first done in 1982 and will be repeated in 1983.

2) 30 associations responded with a family life director.

The associational program of family ministry has two purposes:

a. To assist churches in their effort to meet needs of couples, parents and their children, senior adults, and single adults.

b. To lead cooperative efforts of the churches in this ministry when cooperative efforts are needed.

For this program to be effective, more support is needed from associations.

4) Church and denominational emphasis.

The Bold Mission Thrust emphasis on the family is under the subject, Strengthen Families. Three projects under this title deal with: family, marriage and parents.

Under each feature mentioned above there is one special emphasis for the year in the local church.

It is Christian Home Week, May 1983-85.

3. Church Training. Robert Audd serves as director of Church Training for the BGCO. The Church Training program is assigned the areas of doctrine, Christian history, ethics, church polity and organization. In the Christian ethics area they are currently concerned with:

1) Church Training and Family Ministry Departments of the BSSB are promoting the use and study of Equipping Center Modules to strengthen families. There are nine such modules in the subject area of the family. These modules are the best selling modules of the entire series.

2) The Church Training curriculum for adults, young adults and youth subject matter of the family. The 1982 May issue of Church Training Magazine shows units of subjects for study.

3) The 1984 Church Training curriculum material will deal with the subject area of belief and behavior. From Jan. 1 to Sept. 30, 1984, Church Training curriculum emphasis, behavior subject areas include:

*Responsible living

*Making wise choices

*Christian personality/character

*Relationship

Summary: (1) Churches ought to promote and support a Church Training program.

(2) Leadership in a Church Training program should use Church Training curriculum produced by the BSSB as content to meet needs.

(3) Leadership opportunities need to be provided by the local church, association and state convention.

(4) More pastors, church staff and associational leadership should be involved in attendance at meetings providing help and programs in family ministry, Christian ethics and moral concerns.

4. Planning and Promotion. Lyle Garlow serves as director of Planning and Promotion. The denominational emphasis planning is coordinated through this office. Emphasis planning is designed to help churches fulfill their task with the cooperative and coordinated support of associational, state and SBC programs of work.

Various church and individual needs are included in denominational emphasis planning. Currently the matter of family life is one of the three emphases for 1982-85.

- 1) Reaching People
- 2) Developing Believers
- 3) Strengthening Families

All three have received programming time for all three years. Strengthening Families will be highlighted and given major visibility during the church year 1984-85.

The Strengthening Families emphasis will give attention to three major projects:

- * Family—Opening the Word Together
- * Marriage—Growing in Oneness
- * Parents—Building a Christian Home

5. Ministerial Services. Clyde Cain serves as director. A major task is in the area of counseling with pastors, staff and their families.

- 1) Personal Counseling by Clyde Cain has been in the following areas:

- a. Conferences with divorced persons seeking how they may serve.
- b. Breakdowns in family life—facing divorce.
- c. Vocational guidance
- d. Location of places to serve
- e. Change of occupation
- f. Educational needs/skills
- g. Evaluation of ministry

- 2) Referrals to Hospital Chaplains for professional counseling. The BGCO has a program of counseling for pastor/staff and families.

- 3) Conference on Counseling Families. Several series of Family Counseling have been conducted jointly with the Family Ministry and Pastoral Counseling Programs in cooperation with Glenn Brown and Robert Audd.

6. Stewardship Development. Glenn Brown directs this area of work. One phase relates to Christian Family Money Management. Principles have been introduced through conferences in Capital, Grady and LeFlore associations. Others are to be scheduled. Materials are provided by the SBC Stewardship Commission to help families get on top of their financial situation and take control of life in the area of finances.

7. Child Care Ministry. Lowell Milburn is director of this multi-faceted program. Programs related to the following areas of Christian moral concern are:

- 1) Unwed Mothers. Counseled with 229 young women and their families during 1982. Included in this ministry is an "Alternatives to Abortion Counseling Service." An objective of the program is to help young people with this moral and spiritual problem.

- 2) Family Emphasis in Care 'n Share. Articles, going into more than 120,000 Oklahoma homes through the Care 'n Share pages of the Baptist Messenger, speak to divorce, building a Christian home, family relationships and parenting of children. Lowell Milburn writes editorials in Care 'n Share on abortion, juvenile delinquency, drinking among teenagers, drugs, gambling and other issues which affect children, youth and families.
8. Church Administration. Glenn Brown serves as consultant and relates the Church Administration Department, BSSB, to churches and church staff leaders in Oklahoma.
 - 1) Counseling Conferences for Pastors. Conferences are designed to help equip pastors/staff in dealing with individuals and families in marriage and crisis counseling.
 - 2) Conferences in 1983 were located in Enid, Bartlesville and Muskogee.
9. WMU Professor of Sociology at OBU. Gary Farley serves as WMU Professor of Sociology and works with the WMU Department, BGCO, as consultant on mission action. Farley also assists the Christian Life Committee in an unofficial role as consultant. He has done an excellent job in designing several projects sponsored jointly by OBU and the Christian Life Committee.
 - 1) Jointly Sponsored Seminars:
 - Alcohol Abuse Seminar—1980
 - Family Life Seminar—1982
 - 2) Unique Elements not in SBC Christian Life Seminar
 - a. Co-sponsored by other BGCO groups (Family Life-CLC) in order to broaden participation. Topics have been related to WMU Mission Action concerns.
 - b. The basic strategy includes spin-off meetings conducted by the associations in the general content area of the seminar.
 - c. The workshops offered during the seminar were designed to equip persons to work with the issue at hand.
 - 3) Faculty and faculty skills available to BGCO. Farley expresses a genuine desire of his and the OBU faculty to serve the denomination, churches, and individual members by gathering information for their use in the field of their expertise. The OBU faculty wishes to provide data and insight about moral issues. Could be a "think tank" for the convention. They have a desire to be used regardless of the direction taken on the question of a moral concerns department.
 - 4) Other Involvement. Gary Farley has been involved on the associational Christian Life Committee. He also wrote articles and appeared on talk shows during the recent fight against legalized gambling. Farley continues to write for BSSB publications and is currently working on a book in the area of moral growth. Its intended audience is Christian adults, about 35-45 years of age, and will help them assess where they are in "becoming like Jesus."

10. Baptist Messenger. Richard T. McCartney, editor and director of communications for the BGCO. The editor and director of communications has two primary audiences: (1) members of Baptist churches cooperating with the state convention and (2) the general public in Oklahoma.

- 1) Editorial pages. During the past three years the following issues were spoken to on the editorial page:

Aging—4	Hunger—6
Alcohol and Drugs—25	Loneliness—1
Christian Citizenship—15	Mother—3
Christian Home Week—2	Patriotism—3
Citizenship—1	Prayer—6
Crime and Prisons—1	Race Relations—7
Energy Conservation—2	Radio and TV Programming—7
Father—2	Religious Liberty—4
Gambling—19	Youth—5

It is readily seen that most often the problems of alcohol and drugs, and gambling received considerable attention. Both of these issues have been subjects of recent public attention, therefore have been dealt with more frequently.

- 2) Other Pages. Many articles on the above issues have been dealt with in these same issues. The approach has been generally of a news nature.
- 3) The editor of the Baptist Messenger stays abreast of many moral issues facing the people of Oklahoma. Although he is not a lobbyist at the Capitol, his knowledge and pen are a powerful influence for right.

11. SANE—Sooner Alcohol and Narcotics Education provides a non-denominational effort to keep all Oklahomans abreast of the problems pertaining to alcohol and drugs, as well as numerous moral concerns such as gambling, etc.

SANE is able to place materials and programs in many public schools inaccessible to church and denominational leaders.

During 1983, $14,000 is allocated to SANE from the BGCO State Budget.

12. Executive Office. Joe L. Ingram has been extremely active and influential in numerous moral issues facing Oklahoma Baptists. These include the Gender Dysphoria issue, Anti-Pornography, Liquor-by-the-Drink, Pari-Mutuel Gambling and other less publicized issues. Through the leadership of the executive office, $136,548.64 was provided in 1982 by the Board of Directors for the Pari-Mutuel Gambling issue. Similar leadership was exerted during previous issues.

Essentially the executive office has given the direction and coordination to previous state issues. The associate executive director spent several weeks time in coordinating the associational (county by county) effort of the State Anti-Crime Council and the defeat of the Anti-Pornography Campaign.

13. SBC Christian Life Commission. The Christian Life Commission motto is "Helping changed people change the world." They are responsible for "speaking to" Southern Baptists about Christian social concerns—sensitizing as to the moral demands of the gospel. Their specific, assigned areas of attention are:

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|------------------|
| * Family Life | * Citizenship |
| * Human Relations | * World Peace |
| * Economic Life and
Daily Work | * Related Fields |

The Christian Life Commission prepares literature/materials in the form of pamphlets, books and articles on a wide variety of subjects. These materials are first class. They are available to churches and state conventions as well as individuals.

The Executive Committee sought information as to what other state conventions are doing in this area and consulted with a number of pastors. The following recommendations were approved by the Board on May 10:

1. That we commend our present Baptist Building staff for the great amount of work being done in the area of Christian moral concerns;
2. That priority be given toward the accomplishment of the convention's Bold Mission Thrust goal of a 50-50 percent division of all Cooperative Program funds by 1985; and toward the establishment of an Oklahoma Baptist ACTS Network;
3. That we delay further consideration of the establishment of a Department of Christian Moral Concerns until after we have reached the 50-50 percent division of the Cooperative Program funds;
4. That we ask the executive director-treasurer, in consultation with the Planning and Promotion Committee, to consider employing a qualified part-time Christian Life Consultant to assist in designing and coordinating a continuing moral concerns emphasis in cooperation with the Christian Life Committee and the Baptist Building staff.
5. It was further recommended that the Planning and Promotion Committee evaluate the effectiveness of this approach and make periodic reports and recommendations to the Board of Directors concerning future developments of the moral concerns program.

Business Management Committee

The Business Management Committee is responsible for the accounting office, all insurance, Baptist Building management, and management of all property other than Falls Creek, Camp Hudgens and Nunny Cha-ha. Rue Scott served as chairman.

December Recommendation and Approval

Off-Season Fee at Falls Creek Increased—Approval was given to increase the off-season daily registration fee at Falls Creek to 35 cents per person to include accidental injury and accidental death insurance for campers while on the grounds.

Renovation of Baptist Building Heating and Cooling System—Authority was given to the executive director-treasurer and business director to proceed with plans for renovation of the heating and cooling system in the Baptist Building; and that it be financed by the use of funds accumulated for that purpose and with additional funds from the special projects account. The special projects funds are to be repaid from Cooperative Program funds received beyond the budget at the end of the year.

May Recommendations and Approvals

1. 1982 Audit Approved—The committee reviewed with Terry Teel, Wolf and Company, the 1982 audit for the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma. A report on the review was given. The Board approved the audit and asked that it be printed in the 1982 Annual for distribution to all churches.

2. 1983 Auditor—Approval was given for Wolf and Company, Oklahoma City auditing firm, to serve as the auditor for the Baptist General Convention for 1983.

There were no recommendations in September.

Child Care Committee

Chairman Mart Hardin gave direction to the Child Care Committee. The committee has the assignment to give assistance to the operation and/or construction of children's homes in Oklahoma City, Owasso, Madill, Ada, Duncan, Clinton, McAlester, Deer Creek, and Boys Ranch Town, near Edmond, foster homes and additional child care ministries.

December Recommendation and Approval

The Mother's Day Offering goal for 1983 was set at $456,789.10.

March Recommendations and Approvals

1. Building Named for Boldin—A motion was approved to name the education-recreation building at Boys Ranch Town for Charles T. Boldin. He served as superintendent at the Ranch for 26 years.

2. Administration Building Named for Ingram—Ingram was greatly involved in the negotiations and sale of the property at 63rd and North Pennsylvania, Oklahoma City, on which the children's home was located. A new and more functional campus was constructed at 164th and South Western. The board voted to name the administration building for Ingram.

3. Designations for Mother's Day Offering—Approval was given to the designation of Mother's Day offerings from churches in Concord-Kiowa and Pittsburg Associations to the building of cottages in Clinton and McAlester.

4. Cottages to Be Constructed—The Board agreed to the construction of cottages at Clinton and McAlester as soon as funds are available.

5. Houses in Moore to be Sold—In May 1982 the Board of Directors authorized the purchase of three houses in the Moore area to accommodate some of the children until the new children's home was completed. As the campus was completed the houses were no longer needed. A recommendation was approved for the sale of the three houses; that the proceeds be replaced in the child care capital needs fund; and that the convention officers be authorized to sign the necessary papers.

6. Study Authorized—The committee was asked by the Board of Directors to make an indepth study of the need to provide for dependent and neglected teenagers, and that a report be made back to the Board.

May Recommendations and Approvals

1. Property Next to Boys Ranch Town Purchased—Approval was given for the purchase of 10 acres of land that joins Boys Ranch Town on the west at a cost of $175,000. This land serves as a partial replacement for the land sold to the Corps of Engineers for the development of Arcadia Lake. Funds for the purchase came from the money derived from the sale of the lake property and from capital improvement funds. There is a house on the land which serves as staff quarters. There is also a barn, stock pond, windmill, and other facilities that are used in the 4-H and FFA programs.

2. Plans for Emergency Care—The Board asked the Child Care staff to devise plans for emergency care of children and teenagers and that the plans be brought back to the committee for possible recommendation to the Board.

3. Girls Ranch Town Considered—The Board voted to look with favor on the establishment of a girls ranch town for pre-delinquent teenagers.

September Report and Recommendations.

1. Construction of Group Home in Clinton—Approval was given for the construction of a group home in Clinton prior to Dec. 31, 1983 as funds are available.

2. Emergency Child Care Plan Adopted—In the March meeting of the Board the Child Care Committee was asked to make a study regarding the need for emergency care for children and teenagers. The Committee recommended that foster homes be enlisted to provide short-term care and supervision until a more permanent plan for the child could be developed. Need for such care often arises out of a crisis situation, leaving the child with no place to stay. The Child Care Department would work with some selected churches in particular areas to locate the foster parents who would be willing to provide the needed short-term emergency care. A home study would be made to insure that the foster home meets the necessary qualifications and could give the training and guidance needed. Financial assistance would be given as necessary.

May Recommendations and Approvals

1. ACTS Network Established—The following proposal was presented:

Proposal

Background

The SBC Radio and Television Commission (RTVC) will initiate, via satellite, the American Christian Television System (ACTS) May 1, 1984. The philosophy of ACTS is to provide access, with quality programming as an instrument, for the Baptist fellowship and its churches to communicate on a daily basis with the families of our nation.

The ACTS network will be saturated with missions and evangelism in its programming on an ordinary basis. Local programming will be possible and desirable. A variety of possibilities offer unlimited opportunities. Oklahoma Baptists have an opportunity to build a statewide network with the capability to communicate directly with virtually every home in the state. Special occasion broadcasting of this nature could be a tremendous boon to the evangelism, moral concerns and other causes of Southern Baptists in Oklahoma.

Because of the urgency of the opportunity, the possibilities of the future, and the supportive role which such an ACTS network could be to every facet of Baptist work, the Planning and Promotion Committee feels priority attention should be given to this endeavor.

The Board of Directors approved a recommendation that a person be employed in the area of Video/Media Communications to develop, promote, and conduct a complete video ministry for the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, utilizing the existing SBC video ministries; that this person be related to the Planning and Promotion Office; that funding for 1983 come through the Special Projects Fund (not to exceed $40,000); and that funding for 1984 and beyond come through the regular budgeting procedure.

General Position Description

1. Promote and consult for ACTS; help establish Cable Affiliate Boards; assist CAB in completing contracts with cable stations and the RTVC; and help implement both low and high power stations, as possible and feasible, in order to build a total Oklahoma ACTS network to cover the entire state.
2. Promote and consult for Baptist TelNet and help churches and associations participate in the BSSB program.
3. Promote, consult and operate the BGCO Video Tape Service (VTS), and help every association in Oklahoma build a complete library of VTS programs.
4. Develop and conduct a BGCO video service for BGCO departments, utilizing the studio and technical skills of OBU.
5. Provide information and services to churches in the area of video and TV programming as time, skills and resources are available.

It is understood that priority will be given to ACTS, TelNet and VTS through 1984, and priority will continue to be placed on the BGCO ACTS network until the network is established.

Program objectives

1. To have 77 Cable Affiliate Boards organized, contracts signed, and systems operative by May 1, 1984 (one in each county, with a minimum of one in each association), and 150 operative by Dec. 31, 1984, with priority attention given to the more heavily populated areas.

2. To have provided consultation services to 400 churches by Dec. 31, 1984.

3. To have provided two series of area workshops by Dec. 31, 1984.

4. To have trained 5 contract consultants by Dec. 31, 1983.

5. To have trained 10 associational directors of missions to service their associations by Dec. 31, 1983.

2. Trailer to be Provided for Emergency Child Care in Disasters—

Approval was given to the purchase of a 7' by 14' trailer equipped for emergency child care in disasters. The equipped trailer cost $8,000 and the funds were provided through the Disaster Relief Account.

3. Custodian of Packaged Disaster Hospital—The offer of the State's Human Services Department for the convention to serve as custodian of a packaged disaster hospital was accepted. It includes a 10 kilowatt generator to be used to serve disaster victims in the state as needs arise. Storage of the mobile equipment is estimated at $2,000.

4. Jail Ministries Encouraged—As the board met in March, a request was made for a report of jail and prison ministries in the state. A report was made of many churches and several associations that are involved in these ministries. A recommendation was approved asking the Baptist Building staff to work with the directors of missions to encourage and eventually to have jail services and other ministries sponsored by local churches in each of the jails across the state.

5. World Hunger Survey—The Board of Directors asked the Planning and Promotion Committee to follow through on the resolution presented at the 1982 Convention regarding the involvement of Oklahoma Baptists in world hunger. In order to more systematically visualize what is being done, the Committee requested the Baptist Building staff to make a survey of what churches are doing regarding world hunger. The report is to be presented to the September meeting of the board.

December Recommendations and Approvals.

1. Allocation of Cooperative Program Funds Beyond 1982 Budget—The board gave approval to the recommendation that all 1982 Cooperative Program funds over $13,125,000 be distributed 55 percent State and 45 percent SBC. Should gifts reach $14,375,000, that $1,250,000 be distributed as follows:

Southern Baptist Convention (45%)	$ 562,500
Falls Creek Capital Needs	128,000
Activity Center at Tulsa Retirement Center	75,000
Spain Partnership	75,000
Oklahoma Baptist University	125,000
Disaster Relief	25,000
Baptist Messenger Capital Needs	123,000
Baptist Student Union	25,000
New Church Property Sites	40,000
Nunny Cha-ha Capital Needs	15,000
District Camps	5,000
Moral Concerns	51,500
	$1,250,000

Further approval was given to the recommendation that if gifts exceed $14,375,000 after 45 percent is distributed to Southern Baptist Convention, the remainder up to $100,000 will be used for Baptist Messenger Capital Needs to purchase equipment approved by the Board last year. (The amount of additional CP funds received was $1,142,862.52. They were distributed as voted by the Board of Directors.)

2. Organizational Adjustments Made—The executive director-treasurer introduced proposals for the reassignment of responsibilities. The proposals as presented are:

A. That Falls Creek be given department status, that Harry Dodd be promoted to become the Falls Creek department director, and that this new department be in the Planning and Promotion area. This will bring both Falls Creek Conference Center and Falls Creek Assembly Program (which is the responsibility of Religious Education Department) under Planning and Promotion which will give a more unified approach to Falls Creek. This move will make the Falls Creek Conference Center director in charge of the center's physical facilities and the Religious Education director will be director of the assembly (5 week) program.

B. That the Baptist Messenger and all functions of central services be one unit under the direction of Richard McCartney, the convention's communications director. The communication ministry will be the responsibility of the Administration Committee. Thus all communications, including the Baptist Messenger, will be under one person and attached more directly to the Executive Office.

C. The Brotherhood Department be given the responsibility for property management of Camp Hudgens.

D. Camp Nunny Cha-ha property management be done by Woman's Missionary Union Department.

E. The Business Management director and committee be responsible for the accounting office, all insurance, Baptist Building management, and management of property other than Falls Creek, Camp Hudgens, and Nunny Cha-ha.

The proposals were all approved.

3. OBU Authorized to Arrange $400,000 Line of Credit—The board gave approval to the request of the Board of Trustees of Oklahoma Baptist University for the adoption of a plan to arrange for $400,000 line of credit through the Oklahoma Baptist University Authority to provide interim financing for several campus projects, including married student housing, apartment renovation, and the acquiring of adjacent residential and commercial property. Repayment will be made through designated gifts and earnings on the property. At the end of two years, the unpaid balance will be converted into a term note with payment over a 10 or 15 year period.

4 Amendments to Convention Church Annuity Plans—The Tax Equity and Fiscal Responsibility Act of 1982 makes it necessary that the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma adopt amendments of the Southern Baptist Protection and Retirement Programs for both church and convention annuity plans. Authority was given to the convention officers to sign necessary documents.

5. Agreement to Participate with National Baptists in Annuity Plan—A recommendation was presented that the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma enter into an agreement with the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention relative to the participation of National Baptists in the Annuity retirement program. The National Baptists will be encouraged to contribute an amount equal to 10 percent of the minister's total salary. To make it possible for the National Baptist ministers to participate in the Southern Baptist Annuity Board Retirement program, the Convention will contribute $5 per month for each National Baptist minister whose church contributes a minimum of $20 per month to his retirement program. National Baptists participation through the Convention meets the requirements of the Annuity Board Charter Limitations. The recommendation was approved.

6. Mrs. Mike Martens to Continue as At-Large Board Member Mrs. Mike Martens served on the Board of Directors for two years and her pastor-husband moved into another association. She was serving as an at-large member. In order to keep the balance of laypersons on the board, as required by the convention's bylaws, it was necessary for a lady to serve. The board asked that Mrs. Martens continue as an at-large member, but from the Mullins Association area rather than Enon Association.

7. 1983 Convention Site Selected—The board voted for the 1983 annual meeting of the State Convention to meet in Council Road Church, Bethany.

The campaign period extended from 1979 through 1985. The first phase of the Growth for the Future Campaign was successfully completed in 1981, raising over $5,000,000. The Board of Trustees reaffirmed the need to build a new science facility, additional married student housing, a new BSU building and to renovate several campus buildings. Also, endowment funds are needed for additional scholarship and program support. The approved recommendation gave Oklahoma Baptist University authority to launch the second phase of the capital campaign, to conduct campaigns in selected areas, and to extend the campaign through 1986.

In relationship to this, the board voted to approve the following recommendations:

- A. That the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, through the Office of Ministerial Services, provide a $25 scholarship per course for each Southern Baptist who is licensed, ordained, or a full-time Christian service volunteer. Oklahoma Baptist University

Bob R. Agee, President

A new sense of optimism enveloped the Oklahoma Baptist University campus during the year of 1982-83. A number of factors, including a presidential inauguration, administrative reorganization, curriculum revision, and long-range goal implementation, combined to give the university's faculty, administration and students a renewed feeling of enthusiasm.

Bob R. Agee was inaugurated as OBU's 13th president Nov. 22, 1982. During the inauguration service, which had the theme of "Partnership in Mission and Ministry," Agee committed himself "to God, the Baptists of Oklahoma and all Southern Baptists to live out a special partnership. We affirm to be partners in the advancement of knowledge, in the growth and development of the human spirit, and in caring and reaching out to a broken, hurting world."

Harold C. Bennett, executive secretary-treasurer of the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention, presented the inaugural address. Other inauguration service participants included Joe L. Ingram, executive director-treasurer of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma; Arthur L. Walker Jr., executive director-treasurer of the Southern Baptist Education Commission; Roy L. Honeycutt, president of Southern Baptist Theological Seminary; Russell Dilday Jr., president of Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary; Herschel H. Hobbs, pastor emeritus of Oklahoma City's First Church; Albert J. Geiger, then chairman of OBU's board of trustees; Robert E. Craig, president of Union University; and Joe A. Leone, chancellor of the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education.

Several other denominational leaders participated in other inauguration activities. These participants included William G. Tanner, president of the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board; Milton Ferguson, president of Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary; Jonas L. Stewart, executive secretary and treasurer of the Tennessee Baptist Foundation; Morgan Patterson, dean of academic affairs at Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary; and R. Robert Hamblin, vice-president for evangelism at the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board.

Under the leadership of Agee, the university underwent a major administrative reorganization. This reorganization resulted in six major administrative areas, including academic affairs, admissions, business affairs, development, religious life and student development.

Several personnel changes also came as a result of the reorganization. Shirley J. Jones, professor of English, was promoted to vice-president for academic affairs, and John Fluke, director of admissions, was promoted to vice-president for admissions. John Tresch, dean of OBU's School of Christian Service, was named vice-president for religious life, a position which he held in addition to his responsibilities as dean. J. Thomas Terry, vice-president for business affairs, also assumed additional responsibilities in the area of planning and budget as executive assistant to the president. Continuing service in their vice-presidential roles were Kenneth Edmondson, vice-president for development, and Donald G. Osborn, vice-president for student development.

Another major personnel change occurred when Paul R. Corts resigned from his position as executive vice-president. Corts, whose resignation was effective Jan. 1, 1983, established a private consulting firm, but remained on the OBU staff as special assistant to the president for resource development until July 1, 1983. At that time, Corts assumed the presidency of Wingate College, a Baptist college in North Carolina.

Another positive feature of OBU's past year was a major revision in the university's general education curriculum. This curriculum revision allows OBU students greater flexibility in course selection, while maintaining the university's strong liberal arts foundation.

Under the curriculum revision, a 45-hour basic core, including courses in religion, humanities, social sciences, English, foreign language, natural science and physical education, is required of all OBU students. The revised curriculum also requires a degree core, designed by each academic college or school, of 18 additional course hours. Students also are required to complete coursework in their respective areas of specialization.

During the 1982-83 year, the OBU community also worked to establish a set of comprehensive long-range goals for the university. These institutional goals were organized into the university's six administrative areas. Specific goals included establishing three off-campus ministry training centers; designing and implementing a career counseling center; increasing student recruitment efforts and results; conducting reviews of the university's degree programs; increasing endowment for university scholarships and programs; and developing new alumni programs and university communication plans.

Other highlights for OBU during 1982-83 included a student enrollment of 1,488, an increase over the previous academic year. Approximately 71 percent of the students were from Oklahoma, with the other 29 percent representing 44 other states and 22 foreign countries. Approximately 54 percent of the student community was female and 46 percent male. Eighty-three percent of OBU's students were Southern Baptist, and some 400 students were preparing for church-related vocations.

In addition to new students, the OBU community also gained new faculty members. Elected to the faculty during the past year were Philip Atlakson, assistant professor of speech and theatre; Maria Boccia, assistant professor of psychology; Bobby Cox, instructor in health, physical education and recreation; Ed Horton, instructor in computer science; Paul Lee, assistant professor of telecommunications; Rebecca Martin, lecturer in health, physical education and recreation; Kathy McKee, instructor in journalism; Connie Campbell Peters, assistant professor of English; and Donald Phillips, assistant professor of speech.

Three academic posts were endowed during the past year. Endowment for the Augie Henry Chair of Bible, named in honor of Augie Henry who served as executive secretary of the Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma from 1947-72, was provided by R. A. Young of Oklahoma City. The Ida Elizabeth and J. W. Hollums Chair of Bible was established by Mrs. Hollums in memory of her husband, a long-time Baptist pastor in Oklahoma. Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Cargill of Fort Worth also announced plans to endow the Robert L. and Sara Lou Cargill Professorship in Business.

Another major gift received by the University during 1982-83 came from the Sarkeys Foundation of Norman for the purpose of establishing a tele-communications center. Frank Seay, president of the foundation's board and an OBU alumnus, played a significant role in securing this grant for OBU.

Dedication ceremonies were held for two new OBU construction projects and plans initiated for additional construction and renovation. The Noble Complex, a modern health, physical education and recreation center, was dedicated during September 1982. The Burns Apartments, a complex of eight units for married students, were dedicated during April 1983. Plans were made for construction of a science building and renovation of the University's Theater Annex into a Telecommunications Center. Other plans called for the renovation of Kerr Dormitory, Montgomery Hall and Thurmond Hall and the construction of additional married student housing.

A number of guest speakers visited the OBU campus during 1982-83. Among those speaking in the university's chapel/assembly programs were Keith Wiginton, then president of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma; Bailey Smith, past president of the Southern Baptist Convention; Bob Bergland, former secretary of the U.S. Department of Agriculture; G. Webster Carroll, Southern Baptist missionary to Uganda; Warren Angell, dean emeritus of OBU's College of Fine Arts; Glen Stassen, associate professor of Christian ethics at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary; David Newsom, director of the Institute for the Study of Diplomacy at Georgetown University; and Paul Box, pastor of Moore, First Church.

Albert McLellan, former assistant executive secretary of the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention, delivered the fifth Hobbs Lectureship. Sarah Frances Anders, professor of sociology at Louisiana College, served as the sixth Hobbs Lecturer.

The university held a campus-wide revival during the last week of March 1983. Lewis A. Drummond, Billy Graham professor of evangelism at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, served as the revival preacher.

During the spring of 1983, OBU trustees approved a record 1983-84 budget of $9,924,442, an increase of $647,787 from 1982-83. For the tenth time in the past 11 years, the university balanced its budget for the 1982-83 fiscal year. This accomplishment was made possible by the generous support of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma and the many friends of the university.

The institutions that survive and succeed in the decade of the eighties will be those who dare to dream, those who dare to plan, those who dare to commit themselves to quality and integrity. OBU has the potential to grow. OBU has personnel who are competent to face the challenges of the future. The university exists under a commission from above, and those in the OBU community dare to believe that the God who called this university into being is not through with her yet. Those at OBU dare to believe that the Baptists of Oklahoma and the great host of alumni and friends want to see OBU strong, want to see OBU effective, want to see OBU continuing to offer quality Christian education.

The motion carried to approve the report.

75. Special music was sung by the adult choir, Council Road Church, and the congregation. They sang the "National Anthem" and "America the Beautiful."

76. Charles Carter, pastor, Shades Mountain Church, Birmingham, Alabama, addressed the convention.

Planning and Promotion

Lyle Garlow, Director

The work of the Planning and Promotion office touches every phase of Oklahoma Baptist life because of emphasis planning (themes), goals, objectives and calendar development which are coordinated through this office. The relationships are much broader than normally conceived since there are established lines of communication between this office, Southern Baptist Convention Agencies and Institutions, Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma Agencies, Institutions, Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma departments of work, the churches and associations in Oklahoma.

The office is directed by Lyle Garlow, associate executive director of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma. Glenn A. Brown serves as associate director. Cade Garrison joined this staff, Sept. 1, 1983 as director of video/media.

Seven departments of work, closely related to church programs, are related to the Planning and Promotion office. These departments are: Brotherhood, Church Music, Cooperative Missions, Evangelism, Falls Creek Conference Center, Religious Education, and Woman's Missionary Union.

Within the Planning and Promotion office are several assigned programs. These programs and the reports for last year follow:

Cooperative Program Promotion

This area of work is directed by Lyle Garlow. Cooperative Program receipts for 1982 were $14,267,863, a 13 percent increase over 1981. Southern Baptist Convention mission ministries received 45 percent ($6,420,538) and Oklahoma mission ministries received 55 percent ($7,847,325). Total church receipts (tithes and offerings) were $148,443,115. This is a 17 percent increase over 1981.

Our Cooperative Program objective for 1983 is $15,250,000 with 46 percent going to SBC causes. The 1984 budget presented at this convention is $17,715,000, with a two percent increase (48 percent) for SBC causes. The approved objective for 1985 is 50 percent/50 percent—half to SBC ministries and half to Oklahoma ministries.

Bold Mission Thrust, Southern Baptists' plan for every person on earth to hear the gospel and have an opportunity to respond, depends on increases such as Oklahoma Baptists are proposing. For the 50 percent/50 percent division to become a reality, churches are urged to increase their percentage objective each year. Each church is challenged to increase 2-5 percent more between 1982-1985. This means a church giving 13 percent in 1982 is challenged to give 15-18 percent by 1985.

A guideline which a church might consider is:

If your church is giving—

—Up to 5 percent, increase at least 2 percent per year through 1985 or until the church reaches its projected goal.

—6 to 15 percent, increase from 1 to 2 percent per year through 1985 or until the church reaches its projected goal.

—16 percent or more, increase $\frac{1}{2}$ to 1 percent per year through 1985 or until the church reaches its projected goal.

It is important for your church to determine its own objective and determine the rate of percentage increase necessary to reach that objective.

Churches can also help make bold advances by sharing their Cooperative Program dollar weekly. Approximately 400 church treasurers mail the Cooperative Program check each Monday morning. Pastors say, "My church gives more when we give weekly." No doubt this is true. It is also true that in about eight days from the Sunday those dollars are given, they are at work in the most isolated places in the world. This is almost "Instant Missions."

The program, "Planned Growth in Giving" relates to mission commitment through the Cooperative Program and associational missions. Details are outlined below.

Coordinated Promotion Planning

The first year of the second cycle of Bold Mission Thrust (1982-85) has been completed with the major emphasis on Reaching People. The second year, with an emphasis on Developing Believers, will be launched in the fall of 1983. Plans are now underway for the 1984-85 emphasis on Strengthening Families. All three of these emphases have been promoted each year with major promotion focused on one area each year.

The 1985-90 Oklahoma plans are being made. Already we have set goals for major areas like evangelism, Sunday school, new work, etc.

This area of work is directed by Lyle Garlow. Glenn Brown does the design of Coordinated Promotion Planning materials.

Associational Services

The oldest unit of denominational life is the association. In Oklahoma there is a great spirit of cooperation between the associations and the State Convention.

Associations in Oklahoma exercise their autonomous nature. They choose to aggressively cooperate and work with the various denominational entities to provide the very best programs and resources for the churches. Associations, like state conventions, exist to help churches extend their ministries.

The 41 associations in Oklahoma all have a director of missions. The planning relationship between associations and the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma is coordinated through the Planning and Promotion office. Lyle Garlow works in this area and provides several planning meetings each year.

Through the Planning and Promotion office $129,094 Cooperative Program dollars were shared through the associations to assist them in carrying out jointly sponsored and promoted programs.

Changes in associational leadership since publication of prior Book of Reports are:

New to associational work: Don Clark, director of missions, Johnston-Marshall Association (April, 1983); Joe Stith, director of missions, North Canadian Association (April, 1983), and Howard Baker, director of missions, Chi-Ka-Sha Indian Association (April, 1983).

Retired from associational work: Charles Hargraves, director of missions, Johnston-Marshall Association (December, 1982).

Resigned from associational work: Don Taylor, director of missions, Sans Bois Association (September, 1983).

During the past year, Willie Brown, director of missions, Chi-Ka-Sha Indian Association, was fatally injured in an automobile accident. Retired former director of missions, John R. Kelly, passed away July 26, 1983.

Video/Media

This new area of work was approved at the May, 1983 meeting of the Board of Directors. Cade Garrison was employed and began his work Sept. 1.

The beginning of the new satellite programming, ACTS (American Christian Television System) to be launched May 1, 1984 prompted this new area of work. There are approximately 220 cable systems now operative across Oklahoma. The immediate objective is to establish a statewide network for ACTS.

The five areas of work assigned the new position are:

1. Promote and consult for ACTS: help establish Cable Affiliate Boards; assist CAB in completing contracts with cable stations and the RTVC; and help implement both low and high power stations, as possible and feasible, in order to build a total Oklahoma ACTS network to cover the entire state.

2. Promote and consult for Baptist TelNet and help churches and associations participate in the BSSB program.

3. Promote, consult and operate the BGCO Video Tape Service (VTS), and help every association in Oklahoma build a complete library of VTS programs.

4. Develop and conduct a BGCO video service for BGCO departments, utilizing the studio and technical skills of OBU.

5. Provide information and services to churches in the area of video and TV programming as time, skills and resources are available.

Priority will be given to ACTS, Baptist TelNet and VTS through 1984, and priority will continue to be placed on the BGCO ACTS network until the network is established.

CHURCH ADMINISTRATION

Glenn Brown, Consultant

The role of our church administration consultant is to provide skills training conferences, information and resources to pastors, church staff and church leadership in areas of church growth, deacon ministry, the work of the church council, church committees, pastor and staff leadership skills, staff relationships, preaching and counseling improvement conferences and other related areas.

This has been a very busy year in terms of state and regional conferences. The Oklahoma Preaching Conference attracted about 200 pastors. Fifty-two ministers of education attended the Minister of Education Programming Retreat at Falls Creek, three regional Pastoral Counseling Conferences were conducted and approximately 1,100 pastors, deacons and wives participated in a deacon ministry training retreat at Falls Creek in August. In addition, there were two other area deacon ministry conferences conducted, one in the Panhandle and one in Vinita.

Annual planning materials for pastor and staff use in developing church growth strategy are distributed through the coordinated promotion plan each year.

STEWARDSHIP PROMOTION

Glenn Brown, Director

The long-range objectives of efforts in stewardship promotion are to help churches organize for effective stewardship education and promotion, to provide training materials for annual giving and budgeting emphases, to train churches in effective techniques of budgeting for ministries and to conduct a year-round program of stewardship education that will help members grow and mature in Christian stewardship.

In 1983, our stewardship office worked cooperatively with 20 associations in conducting one-night training conferences. More than 1,000 pastors and church leaders will have attended these conferences by November.

Free resources are provided each year to help churches conduct an effective stewardship program.

In addition, a compensation research project was conducted and materials provided to churches to assist them in upgrading pastor and staff salaries.

In 1983, a new stewardship standard was introduced and seemingly found good acceptance as a guideline for churches to use in developing year-round programs in stewardship education.

In 1984, plans and organizations will be firmed up for Oklahoma's participation in a major conventionwide effort to strengthen stewardship in the churches during 1985-90.

Cooperative Missions

Robert E. Haskins, Director

Almost every area of mission work in Oklahoma has grown in 1983. This is as it should be since mission opportunities are all around us. Oklahoma is becoming more and more a mission field.

Language Missions

Language mission needs are on the increase. Every two weeks a new language mission has been started in 1983 with 27 new language churches and missions begun. Three of these are Deaf departments; one is a Chinese mission; fifteen are Spanish missions; and eight are Indian missions.

Twenty-nine full-time and 13 part-time missionaries work with American Indians, Koreans, Chinese, Laotians, Cambodians, Japanese, Vietnamese, Thais, Indonesians, French, Russian Jews, Deaf, etc. They traveled approximately 600,000 miles in their mission work and reported more than 1,400 professions of faith, additions by letter and special service commitments.

A very historic event took place this year. The first Chinese Baptist church ever to be established on Oklahoma soil began Sunday, Jan. 9 as a mission of Nichols Hills Baptist Church. They have called their first pastor. He is David Kou. He is married and has three children.

Our first multi-ethnic general missionary began his mission work in June. He is Dr. Antonio Rengifo, a Peruvian. He has been working for the Foreign Mission Board in El Paso, Texas, translating youth material for all of Latin America. He is a graduate of Southwestern Seminary, Fort Worth, with a Master of Divinity degree and an earned Ph.D. from the University of Texas. He is pastor of the Hispanic Church in Norman and also beginning new work with various language groups in the Union Association area.

The largest Indian Falls Creek Assembly in its history was held June 20-25 with 2,068 people registered. Johnny Lay, a Creek Indian and pastor in Yakima, Wash., served as camp pastor; J. B. Dreadfulwater, a Cherokee, served as music director and Victor Kaneubbe, an Oklahoma Choctaw and home missionary serving in Phoenix, Ariz., was camp missionary. Leadership training was provided for the adults in Sunday school work, the place of women in the church, the deacon ministry, the role of the pastors and deacons' wives, the doctrine of the church, and biblical studies.

Our largest State Spanish Camp was held at Falls Creek Conference Center, June 13-17. Daniel Caceres, pastor of Templo Bautista de Clinton, served as camp director. Gisela Horta from Louisiana provided WMU training for the women.

Our second annual State Hispanic Workshop was held at First

Hispanic Baptist Church, Oklahoma City, Oct. 14 and 15 with Chuck Padilla of the Sunday School Board conducting the two-day workshop on the Basics in Sunday School work.

Four city and areawide Indian crusades and four area Spanish crusades have been conducted. Many people made professions of faith.

Church Extension

At least 46 new churches, missions and mission points have been started this year. Twenty-eight of the 41 associations in Oklahoma have reported new work started in their area. Our goal for the year was 41 new churches/missions; so, we are well beyond the goal. Fifty-two Oklahoma churches made commitments on Pentecost Sunday to begin at least one (1) new church by 1985. If interest in new churches continues to mount, we should begin the 125 new churches by 1985.

Missions Committees Trained

At least 22 associational missions committee chairpersons and 25 church missions committees were trained in their work.

Resort Missions

More than 750 children attended the day camps held at Snake Creek, Chicken Creek, Cookson Bend and Pettit Bay areas on Tenkiller Lake. Five summer missionaries and more than 200 adult and youth volunteers from several states helped conduct the nine weeks of day camps.

Through the summer missions program, witnessing ministries, Backyard Bible Clubs and Mission Vacation Bible Schools were provided in at least 10 other recreational areas.

Campers on Mission

The Spring Rally was held at Keystone Lake near Cleveland May 29-30 with "Pockets the Clown" as our featured speaker. He led a conference on the use of clowning, balloon sculpturing and gospel magic in resort and recreational areas.

The Fall Rally was held at the Little Axe assigned area on Lake Thunderbird. Jimmy Anderson, home missionary to the Indians, Blake and Linda Winn, Oklahoma Mission Service Corps volunteers serving in Haiti and Roy Moody, associate director of the state evangelism department, led special conferences.

The Oklahoma chapter constructed the Hilltop Baptist Church, Kingston's auditorium as one of this year's special projects. Leonard Potter, state president, and two other Oklahoma Campers on Mission members assisted with the remodeling of dormitories at Yellowstone Baptist College in Montana.

US-2

This is the second year of Maxine Locklear's assignment in Oklahoma, working with the Cheyenne and Arapaho Indians. Maxine is a Lumbe Indian from North Carolina. She is doing an excellent work. She has started some youth programs and is providing much of the leadership for the Indian Mission at Thomas.

Mission Service Corps

Blake and Linda Winn of Oklahoma City have completed one and one-half years of volunteer work in Haiti. They have returned to Oklahoma. Linda has enrolled in Oklahoma Baptist University and is working toward a teaching certificate in elementary education. Blake is doing volunteer mission work in the Shawnee area. They feel at this time that God may lead them to Africa to do mission work upon Linda's completion of her education.

Five other persons from Oklahoma have been assigned to Oklahoma or other states to do work in evangelism, church starts, chaplaincy, etc.

One person from another state has been assigned to Oklahoma to do volunteer work in a women's shelter.

Christian Service Corps

At least 34 individuals and 21 groups (ranging from 4 to 40 persons) have assisted with more than 18 mission projects in our state. Thirteen of the projects were building projects and five were resort and inner city projects. More than 600 people came from Oklahoma, Texas, Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia, Arkansas, Illinois and other states to help. Oliver Barnes, state construction consultant and coordinator from Chattanooga, and Gene Garrett from Newcastle, coordinated the construction projects. Bill Fuller, director of missions in East Central Association, coordinated the work of approximately 200 volunteers on Lake Tenkiller.

Chaplaincy

The number of chaplains in Oklahoma continues to grow. The Oklahoma family has grown from 40 plus to 80 plus in 10 years. They serve in hospitals, institutions, industry, police and fire departments and the military.

A retreat for "Chaplain and Spouse" was held in Oklahoma City on Sept. 9 and 10. Dr. and Mrs. Ebbie Smith from Southwestern Seminary led the couples in Marriage and Communication Enrichment.

The 1983 officers of the Chaplains Fellowship are: Jake Clemmens, president, Tom Reiff, vice-president, Kim Mahn, secretary.

Interfaith Witness

Awareness conferences have been conducted in Bryan, Cherokee, Concord-Kiowa and Grady Associations. Approximately 600 people were in attendance. One Interfaith Witness associate has been trained in the area of Asian religions.

Black Church Relations

Five missionaries jointly employed by the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention and the Oklahoma Baptist State Convention work in the area of Black Church Relations. They are involved in student work, Christian education and WMU. They are responsible for planning and promoting Christian education, evangelism, missions, stewardship, church leadership development, Bible study, youth camp and programs specifically planned for individual churches.

Five students preparing for church vocations received Southern Baptist Convention Home Mission Board scholarships while attending college or seminary this year.

On April 9, the Oklahoma School of Religion was accredited by the National Association of Universities, Colleges and Schools of Christian Education, and became an affiliate of the Central American University Consortium. The School of Religion in Tulsa, with learning centers across the state, had 1,092 adults enrolled in at least one course of study for which they earned credit. There were 1,704 enrolled for workshops, institutes and classes during the year. Fifty-nine received certificates or diplomas and 660 received awards.

In March, 19 students from Langston attended the thirty-eighth Black National Baptist Student Union Retreat, Jackson, Miss. The Langston BSU was voted the most outstanding non-Greek Langston University organization of the year and the BSU director, Miss Verlene Farmer, was voted the most outstanding advisor for non-Greek organizations and was presented a Leadership Award Plaque. The Langston BSU annual spring revival had eight professions of faith and 19 rededications. The Langston BSU raised $2,800 for world hunger during the 1982-83 school year. This is the most they have ever raised.

Approximately 65 Black youth from Tulsa were sponsored at Falls Creek by the missions department during the fifth week of Falls Creek Assembly.

Charles Shuler was employed during the year as regional director of Christian education for eastern Oklahoma to work specifically with the rural Black Baptist churches.

Camp Burge had 67 youth who attended the two-day, one-night camp. This camp which is sponsored by the Oklahoma Baptist State Convention continues to gradually develop.

Wendy Williams, a pre-law student, was chosen as BSU queen at Langston University. She served as a summer missionary in Oklahoma. Four other Black BSU students served as student summer missionaries in Oklahoma during the summer of 1983.

Church-Community Ministries

This is the Oklahoma name for the area of ministries which the Home Mission Board calls Christian Social Ministries.

Five missionaries appointed by the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention in cooperation with the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma and the local associations are serving in Tulsa and Oklahoma City. They are: associational directors of church-community ministries, Jack Bettis, Capital Association, and Richard Humble, Tulsa Association; directors of Baptist Mission Centers, Beverly Gray, Oklahoma City, and Valadean Gardner, Tulsa; and Women's Shelter directors, Sharyan Utley, Tulsa, and Ravina Towe of Oklahoma City, who is being processed for appointment.

The missionaries reported 400 professions of faith, 122 Baptisms and 92 special decisions. There were 714 sermons and addresses during the year. Grace Rescue Mission reports 25 per month on the rehabilitation program, 101,042 meals served and 35,673 beds provided. Oklahoma City, Baptist Women's Center reported that 25,373 meals were provided and 11,012 beds furnished for 420 women and children. Tulsa, Women's Shelter reported there were 457 women and children housed.

The Baptist Mission Center, Tulsa had 427 at the Annual Youth Conference. Baptist Mission Center, Oklahoma City, reports that 16,780 pieces of clothing were distributed, 5,470 people helped with food, $107,768 worth of free medical care and $8,585 worth of free dental care provided. One hundred-thirty Christmas baskets were distributed.

Financial support through the cooperative missions department is given Capital Association to help with the ministry of Grace Rescue Mission and the Women's Center in Oklahoma City. Also, Oklahoma Baptist University receives some financial contributions from the department to assist a group of students to be involved in community ministries.

The Boulder Mission Center, Tulsa, distributed during the year $3,806 for hunger relief. These funds were secured through the Home Mission Board.

Four associations received financial help from the missions department to help reach the migrant workers living in their area. New missions have been started in cooperation with language missions. This is one of the fast growing groups in Oklahoma. Many are hearing the gospel, believing it and being saved.

Workers in literacy missions are continuing to be trained. All sections of the state have leaders who can lead workshops to train others in literacy missions. One statewide workshop was held during the year. The need for literacy missions volunteers continues to grow. Our state continues to attract internationals at an increased rate. Literacy missions is a great way to share the gospel.

Pact

Project: Assistance for Churches in Transitional Communities (PACT) is a Home Mission Board response to the needs of churches in significantly changing communities. These churches many times have to rediscover their mission and adapt their structure and programs in order to relate effectively to the people in the church and community. It is being done.

Bob Lovejoy serves as state PACT coordinator. He has completed two studies with churches this year. Others are planning an in-depth study of themselves and their community for the future. Three pastors have been trained to serve as PACT consultants. Contact the missions department for more information.

Student Summer Missions

Thirty-four college young people served for nine weeks in missions all across Oklahoma during the summer of 1983. They served in rural, inner city, language, resort, metropolitan and general missions in 13 different areas of the state. They were all Oklahoma young people or were in college in Oklahoma last year. They did survey work, worked in Vacation Bible Schools, led backyard Bible clubs, witnessed in resort areas, served as chaplains in two Boy Scout Camps, worked with internationals and served as counselors in youth camps. Several committed themselves to missions as a career as a result of their summer service.

Refugee Sponsorship

Refugees are still being sponsored by Baptist churches and groups in Oklahoma. The number is smaller than in previous years. Baptist congregations among the Laotians, Vietnamese, Cambodians and Hmong Laotians are a direct result of refugees being sponsored by Baptists. Many refugees are still living in the refugee camps. They can leave only when they have sponsors. Refugee sponsorship normally results in a great evangelistic opportunity.

"Catch the spirit of the new WMU" is the slogan of WMU's enlistment thrust for 1982-1985. This relates to the WMU National Enlargement Plan which involves Starteam members and WMU pastor consultants. Nationally, as of March 1, there have been 2,455 churches contacted; 2,031 have started WMU; 171 plan to start WMU; and 113 pastors are promoting missions education.

The National Enlargement Plan ended Sept. 31. However, Oklahoma WMU will continue until Sept. 31, 1984, since we were a year late in starting the enlargement plan.

There are now 345 churches in Oklahoma without WMU. Our membership increased 1,843. This brings our enrollment to 35,320.

During the past year, the WMU emphasis, Life Changing Accountability, encouraged planned prayer support, personal ministering and witnessing, personal giving for missions through the church, support of the Cooperative Program and to participate in a WMU organization.

Oklahoma WMU has completed its second year as a department of Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma. The WMU director, Frances Grafton; WMU consultants, Dorothy Thayer and Lawana Roberts; secretary to the director, Eula Mae Stewart; secretaries, Carleata Horton and Jean Archer, are still striving to improve and strengthen the WMU program in Oklahoma churches.

Spain/Oklahoma partnership has given the WMU department an opportunity to join other BGCO departments in making the partnership a reality. Our department participated in the prayer partnership project.

The Seventy-seventh Annual Session of Woman's Missionary Union, Department of Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, was held Nov. 15-16, 1982 at First Southern Church, Del City. The theme was "We Go. . . ." The Monday evening meeting was combined with the Baptist General Convention with the whole meeting being devoted to foreign missions under the direction of Keith Parks. WMU speaker was Dorothy Sample, president, WMU, SBC.

Interest and attendance has increased in the Volunteers in Missions Workshop held May 21, Baptist Building and is co-sponsored by Cooperative Missions, Brotherhood, Music and Woman's Missionary Union Departments.

The State Training Meeting for Associational Officers, April 22-23, First Church, Oklahoma City, had 158 WMU leaders attend. There was an additional conference this year for mission action personal witnessing directors, led by Mrs. Dorothy Miller, Texas WMU consultant.

Over 300 from Oklahoma attended WMU week at Glorieta for training and inspiration.

The first Oklahoma WMU Conference, Aug. 22-24, Falls Creek Conference Center, was a great success. The training, inspiration and fellowship combined to make an enthusiastic response to every speaker, leader and singer. Four hundred and seven attended. Those on the program were Mrs. Minette Drumwright, Gary Farley, Lyle Garlow, Darlene and Jerry Hobbs, Berdie and Ben Hope, John Tresch and Harold Ware. Conference leaders were Debbie Bailey, Delores Creekmore, Lovonna Dickerson, Nina Edwards, Ann Hyatt, Darlene Koch, Elva Landers, Mary Marks, Linda Ochsner, Patti Ogden, Wilene Pierce, Margie Pittman, Jarene Robison, Carol Routhree and Dorothy Thayer.

There were three night and six day Area Training Meetings held Sept. 6-9 and 19-22 in six locations—Lawton, Oklahoma City, McAlester, Tulsa, Enid and Guymon. There were 11 conferences. Six weeks of Acteen/Girls in Action Camps, June 6-July 12, at Camp Nunny Cha-ha had a total of 801 campers. There were 35 professions of faith, 16 special service decisions and 88 rededications.

The Mother-Daughter Camp held June 3-4, Camp Nunny Cha-ha had 158 attending.

During the five weeks of Falls Creek Assemblies, WMU secured 63 missionaries (approximately 10 a week). WMU consultant, Dorothy Thayer, directed the children's park for two weeks during the assemblies and secured 12 staffers to assist.

WMU secured writers for the program material for the State Mission Season or Prayer and prepared the material for mailing to the churches. The writers were: Gary Farley, WMU professor in sociology, OBU, wrote material for Baptist Women, Baptist Young Women and Baptist Men; Beverly Gray, director of the mission center, Oklahoma City, wrote for Acteens and Pioneer Royal Ambassadors; Hazel Kight, WMU director, Valley View Church, Sperry, wrote for Girls in Action and Crusader Royal Ambassadors; and Leona V. Tucker, children's worker in Kenton, First Church and writer for Start magazine, wrote the Mission Friends materials. The 1983 theme is "As You Go . . . Tell." The state goal is $425,000.

Scholarships were granted to 11 ladies to attend seminary: Midwestern Seminary, Cecilia Haag, Midwest City, and Linda C. The motion carried to approve the resolution.

RESOLUTION:

(5) WHEREAS, Oklahoma Baptists do recognize and appreciate the significant contribution of women within the framework of our local church ministries, we nonetheless believe that the ordination of women as deacons and ministers deviates from accepted faith and practice and creates a discord among our fellow churches;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the messengers of this convention go on record as encouraging our churches to refrain from ordaining women as deacons and ministers.

Joe Brown, pastor, First Church, Shawnee, was recognized. He commended the Resolutions Committee for their excellent job. He stated that he wanted to make sure there was no cause for confusion. He presented the following amendment:

"BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the previous resolution is not to be interpreted to say that the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma fails to recognize and honor the autonomy of the local church." The motion was seconded. This motion was discussed with many giving expression of their feelings and concern.

There was a motion calling for the previous question on the original motion. A ballot vote was taken and the resolution was approved.

RESOLUTION:

(6) WHEREAS, the blight of abortion has become epidemic in our nation, and;

WHEREAS, the intentional, willful taking of life is wrong in the sight of God;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that we as Oklahoma Southern Baptists go on record as opposed to abortion on demand;

ALSO, BE IT RESOLVED, that we covenant together to pray for the men and women who live a life of guilt and remorse following an abortion.

Charles Gregory, layman from First Church, Midwest City, presented the following:

BE IT RESOLVED that the messengers of this convention reaffirm their support of Article III of the Constitution, and further, that they commit themselves to maximum use of abilities and resources to carry out the principles of Bold Mission Thrust that have previously been adopted by this Convention. Article III of the Constitution reads: "This Convention shall have no ecclesiastical authority or power whatever and shall never assume to write creeds or to exercise judicial or legislative control over the churches." Section II: "This convention is a purely cooperative body and its purpose shall be to furnish a means by which the churches of Christ in their sovereign capacity can work together in promoting all denominational enterprises which they deem necessary in the carrying out of the Great Commission." I move that this resolution be adopted. After much discussion a motion carried calling for the previous question. Debate ceased and the resolution failed to pass.

89. Hale A. Dixon made the following motion which was approved.

"That the Board of Directors of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma be authorized to transact any unfinished or new business necessary to the work of the convention; and that the president and recording secretary of the convention be authorized to sign legal papers of the convention which require signatures."

90. Joe L. Ingram presented Certificates of Appreciation to First Vice-President Hayes Wicker and Second Vice-President Lee V. Sneed, Jr. He also presented a plaque to Hale A. Dixon for his 16 years of service as recording secretary.

91. Special music was presented by Glenn Boyd and Paul Magar.

92. Jimmy Draper, pastor, First Church, Euless, Texas, president, Southern Baptist Convention, brought the closing message of the convention.

93. The motion carried to adjourn the 78th annual session of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma.

94. Tom Cox, pastor, Sunset Church, Ponca City, led in a closing prayer.

The above is a simplified treasurer's report. A complete certified audit of all Convention work, including institutions, will appear in the 1983 Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma Annual to be released about June 15, 1984, a copy of which will be sent free to every co-operating Baptist church in Oklahoma. The Annual will be mailed to the church in care of the pastor and will be available to every individual for study.

Executive Director-Treasurer
Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma

SALARY INFORMATION

Since the auditor's report does not give salaries of all elected employees, we are printing the salaries and benefits of department directors and associate department directors. Salaries of secretaries and other convention employees are in line with those doing similar work in the Oklahoma City area.

Salary and Fringe Benefits Explanation

Every employee receives a basic salary plus fringe benefits. The base salary may be divided as follows:

Cash
House Allowance (if ordained)
Various Annuity Board Plans

Fringe benefits include comprehensive medical insurance, long-term disability insurance, life insurance, accident insurance, dependent life insurance and retirement (10 percent of base salary). For unordained persons, the convention pays employer's part of Social Security.

Here are two samples from 1984 salary schedules. Annual base pay for department directors is $32,150.16 and for associates $27,327.36.

Department Director:

Base salary, including Longevity Pay
(to be distributed as below:)

	Monthly	Annually
	$2,754.78	$33,057.36
Cash	$2,054.78
House Allowance	600.00
Various Annuity Bd. Plans	100.00
TOTAL	$2,754.78
Fringe Benefits (Cost to Convention)	581.77	6,981.24
Total base and fringe benefits (Cost to Convention)	$3,336.55	$40,038.60

Associate Department Director:

Base salary, including Longevity Pay
(to be distributed as below:)

	$2,316.72	$27,800.64
Cash	$1,616.72
House Allowance	600.00
Various Annuity Bd. Plans	100.00
TOTAL	$2,316.72
Fringe Benefits (Cost to Convention)	542.67	6,512.04
Total Base and Fringe Benefits	$2,859.39	$34,312.68

Employees who travel are reimbursed for their expenses when on convention business. The budgets carry a line item for the cost of leasing and insuring cars. There is an additional line item for other travel expenses which includes gas, oil, lodging, etc.

The salary proposals for 1985 include a 5 percent cost of living increase, plus an additional amount for longevity. The Longevity Pay Schedule is explained following:

LONGEVITY PAY SCHEDULE

The Board of Directors of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma approved a longevity pay schedule for employees on May 15, 1978. A separate line in the budgets indicate the longevity pay in order to clearly identify the base salary level which is the same for all employees with similar responsibilities.

Rationale Considered by Board of Directors

1. Presently, all employees are employed at the same salary for similar jobs.

2. Recognition for previous experience and skills is presently taken into account by beginning the employee at the same salary as his or her predecessor.

3. Short-term employees cost the BGCO repeated hours of training, moving expenses, etc.

4. A person becomes more valuable as he or she continues serving the BGCO.

5. There are a minimum number of positions in the BGCO and a person of ability, etc. often is limited in opportunities to move up in the organization to a higher salaried job. Longevity pay would help compensate at this point.

6. Recognition for continuous years of service could be accomplished through a longevity pay schedule that:

1) Acknowledges the completion of 3 years with a $200 base longevity compensation.

2) Increases each succeeding year with .2 percent of the salary, added to the base.

7. This suggested plan gives advantage to lower salaried persons by using the $200 base for all persons.

8. The plan also gives credibility to longevity pay for higher salaried persons by using a percent of base salary for the annual increase.

We have examined the fund balance sheet of THE EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF BAPTIST GENERAL CONVENTION OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA, including only the funds herein named, as of December 31, 1983 and the related statements of support and revenue, expenditures and changes in fund balances and changes in financial position for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The title "The Executive Office of Baptist General Convention of The State of Oklahoma" represents only one segment of the operations of Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, and does not include other operations of the Convention as explained in Note 1 to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly the financial position of The Executive Office of Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma at December 31, 1983, and the results of its operations and changes in financial position for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Our examination was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplementary financial information on pages 22 through 23 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examination of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

To the Board of Directors of
The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma

We have examined the statement of assets and liabilities arising from cash transactions and contributions received of The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma as of December 31, 1983 and 1982, and the related statements of support and revenue collected, expenses paid, net capital additions and changes in fund balances and of changes in funds arising from cash transactions and contributions received for the years then ended. Our examinations were made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

As described in Note 1, the policy of The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma is to prepare its financial statements on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements; consequently, certain revenue and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above, after the restatement described in Note 2, present fairly the assets and liabilities of The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma arising from cash transactions and contributions received as of December 31, 1983 and 1982, and the support and revenue collected, expenses paid, net capital additions and changes in fund balances and the changes in funds arising from cash transactions and contributions received for the years then ended, on the basis of accounting described in Note 1, which basis has been consistently applied.

Our examinations were made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The accompanying Schedules I through III are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examinations of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

THE BAPTIST FOUNDATION OF OKLAHOMA
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1—ORGANIZATION AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:Organization

The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma ("the Foundation") is a private, nonprofit religious association chartered by the State of Oklahoma on October 31, 1946 for perpetual existence without capital stock. Its creation was approved by the Baptist General Convention to administer funds and property received by gift, devise, bequest, or otherwise in order to assist and promulgate the furtherance of the Convention and to promote Baptist doctrines, evangelism, Christian education, and both home and foreign mission work.

Significant accounting policiesFund accounting—

The Foundation follows the principles of fund accounting. There principles reflect limitations or restrictions on the use of available resources by classifying such resources into funds associated with specified activities or objectives. The funds used by the Foundation are: Operating Fund, Trust and Endowment Fund and Group Investment Funds.

The Operating Fund is designed to account for both resources which are expendable for support of Foundation operations and for property and equipment.

The Trust and Endowment Fund is comprised of resources received by gift, devise, bequest, or otherwise that are subject to restrictions of the gift or trust instrument. The trust funds are custodial in nature and require that distributions be made to the designated beneficiaries. Endowment funds account for assets received under the stipulation of the donors that the principal be invested and that only the income be used for the designated purposes until a specified time or occurrence, or in perpetuity.

For convenience in managing the resources entrusted to the Foundation, four group investment funds have been established: (1) the Church Building Loan Fund accounts for funds loaned to churches; (2) the Fixed Income Fund accounts for funds invested in bonds and preferred stocks; (3) the Equity Fund accounts for funds invested in common stocks; and (4) the Short-Term Fund accounts for funds invested in government securities. The funds transferred to the Group Investment Funds are recorded as investments of the investor funds. Earnings of the Group Investment Funds are allocated to the investor funds based on the market value unit method. For financial reporting purposes, all funds and activities of the Group Investment Funds are reported under the appropriate investor funds.

Basis of presentation—

The Foundation prepares its financial statements on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements; consequently, revenues and related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned and expenses are recognized when paid rather than when obligations are incurred. However, certain modifications have been made to reflect accrual-basis accounting in the following areas:

Reimbursements due from trusts and estates: Expenditures made from the Foundation's Operating Fund on behalf of trusts and estates are recorded as a receivable until reimbursement is received.

Property and equipment: Expenditures for property and equipment are capitalized at cost when paid. Donated property and equipment are capitalized at fair value at the date of the gift. Property and equipment recorded in the Operating Fund are depreciated under the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives as follows:

Office furniture and equipment	5-10 years
Computer equipment and software	5 years

No provision is made, however, for depreciation of rental and other properties carried as investments in the Trust and Endowment Fund.

Capital leases: Equipment under lease qualifying as a capital lease is capitalized and the related obligation is recorded as a liability.

Investments—

Investments are carried at appraised or market value at the date of gift, or cost if purchased. This basis is not adjusted to recognize market value fluctuations occurring subsequent to the date of acquisition.

No provision is made for depletion of investments in mineral properties.

Annuities—

The Foundation accepts gifts made in trust for various Baptist agencies and institutions which require the Foundation to pay the donors substantially the equivalent of interest on the amount of the gift during the lifetime of the donor. The Foundation also accepts trusts naming individuals as lifetime beneficiaries rather than Baptist agencies and institutions. A specified portion of the income of these trusts is disbursed to the individuals during their lifetime, and upon their death, the trusts are to be administered for the benefit of the Baptist agencies or institutions as designated.

Annuities and individual trusts are included herein at an amount equal to the book value of their assets. Due to the Foundation's use of the cash basis of accounting, no attempt has been made to compute any liability in connection with these funds for future payments to beneficiaries.

Appropriation for corpus preservation—

For certain endowments, the Foundation appropriates a portion of the income to preserve the value of the corpus. Such appropriation is included in nonexpendable fund balance. This appropriation is generally for endowments with depletable assets such as mineral properties, but may also be specified for other endowments. Various methods are used to calculate the amount to be appropriated.

Income taxes—

The Foundation is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(C) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

NOTE 2—RESTATEMENT:

Fund balance of the Trust and Endowment Fund at December 31, 1982 and 1981 has been restated for the amounts of appropriations for corpus preservation which had previously been charged to expense. The intent of corpus preservation, as described in Note 1, is to appropriate a portion of income to preserve the value of the corpus of certain trusts, not to recognize an expense. The amount charged to expense in 1982 was $239,643. The investment in mineral interests has also been restated for the cumulative amount of the appropriation, which amounted to $578,705 at December 31, 1982. Beginning with 1983, the appropriation will be treated as a transfer from expendable to nonexpendable fund balance. The appropriation transferred for 1983 was $415,272.

NOTE 3—CHANGE IN FORMAT OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS:

The format of the financial statements has been changed to more clearly reflect the financial resources and activities of the Foundation, and to correspond to the format suggested by the AICPA Statement of Position 78-10 "Accounting Principles and Reporting Practices for Certain Nonprofit Organizations." Significant changes included in the financial statements for 1983 and 1982 are as follows:

1. The grouping of all financial resources and activities into two fund groups with a total of all funds presented for comparative purposes.
2. Separate presentation of expendable and nonexpendable fund balances.
3. The grouping of expenses by function.
4. Presentation of corpus contributions, net gain on sales of assets and corpus distributions as capital transactions.

NOTE 8—RELATED PARTIES:

As disclosed in Note 1 above, the Foundation is affiliated with the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma. The majority of the funds administered by the Foundation are for the benefit of the Convention, its agencies and various other Baptist organizations. Throughout the year the Foundation makes distributions either directly to these organizations or on their behalf. The Foundation also receives funds from these organizations, both to administer for their benefit and to support the Foundation's operations.

The Foundation receives appropriations from the Cooperative Program of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma. Appropriations for the years ended December 31, 1983 and 1982 were $285,606 and $255,500, respectively.

The Foundation makes loans to Baptist churches to finance the construction of church buildings. These loans are secured by first mortgages on the buildings constructed and require personal endorsements of church representatives. The lives of these loans vary from 10 to 15 years. Interest rates are set at the approximate current rate available from commercial sources. The balances of church building loans outstanding at December 31, 1983 and 1982 were $18,057,711 and $15,136,069, respectively.

NOTE 9—FUNCTIONAL ALLOCATION OF EXPENSES:

The costs of providing the various services of the Foundation have been summarized on a functional basis in the statement of support and revenue collected, expenses paid, net capital additions and changes in fund balances. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the program services and supporting services benefited.

NOTE 10—PENSION PLAN:

All employees of the Foundation are eligible to participate in a defined contribution pension plan administered by the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. Under the plan, the Foundation contributes an amount equal to 10% of participating employees' salaries. Employee contributions are voluntary. Total pension expense for the years ended December 31, 1983 and 1982 was $34,606 and $28,069, respectively. The Foundation's policy is to fund pension costs as it is incurred.

We have examined the fund balance sheets of THE OKLAHOMA BAPTIST UNIVERSITY as of July 31, 1983 and 1982, and the related statements of changes in fund balances and of current fund revenues, expenditures, and other changes for the year ended July 31, 1983. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly the financial position of The Oklahoma Baptist University as of July 31, 1983 and 1982 and the changes in the fund balances and the current fund revenues, expenditures and other changes for the year ended July 31, 1983, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Our examination was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplementary financial information on pages 16 through 23 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examination of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

THE OKLAHOMA BAPTIST UNIVERSITY
Shawnee, Oklahoma
For the Year Ended July 31, 1983

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Accrual Basis.—The financial statements of The Oklahoma Baptist University have been prepared on the accrual basis except for depreciation as explained later in this note. The statements of current fund revenues and expenditures are statements of financial activities of current funds related to the current reporting period. They do not purport to present the results of operations or the net income or loss for the period as would a statement of income or a statement of revenues and expenses.

To the extent that current funds are used to finance plant assets, the amounts so provided are accounted for as expenditures in the case of additions and normal replacement of buildings, equipment, library books and debt service.

The library is valued at cost for books, periodicals, and microform acquired during the past ten years, plus an estimated replacement cost of $5 per volume for those volumes which have been in the collection longer than ten years. Library acquisitions totaled approximately $61,000 for the current year.

Inventories consist of book store supplies for resale and maintenance supplies. These are priced at cost, generally on a first-in, first-out basis.

Fund Accounting.—In order to ensure observance of limitations and restrictions placed on the use of the resources available to the University, the accounts of the University are maintained in accordance with the principles of "fund accounting." This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting into funds in accordance with activities or objectives specified. Separate accounts are maintained for each fund; however, in the accompanying financial statements, funds that have similar characteristics have been combined into fund groups. Accordingly, all financial transactions have been recorded and reported by fund group.

Externally restricted funds may only be utilized in accordance with the purposes established by the source of such funds and are in contrast with unrestricted funds over which the governing board retains full control to use in achieving any of its institutional purposes.

Endowment funds are subject to the restrictions of gift instruments requiring that the principal be invested and the income only be utilized.

All gains and losses arising from the sale, collection, or other disposition of investments and other noncash assets are accounted for in the fund which owned such assets. Ordinary income derived from investments, receivables, and the like, is accounted for in the fund owning such assets, except for income derived from investments of endowment and similar funds, which income is accounted for in the fund to which it is restricted or, if unrestricted, as revenues in unrestricted current funds.

All other unrestricted revenue is accounted for in the unrestricted current fund. Restricted gifts, grants appropriations, endowment income, and other restricted resources are accounted for in the appropriate restricted funds. Restricted current funds are reported as revenues and expenditures when expended for current operating purposes.

Investments.—Investments which were purchased by the University are generally stated at cost and investments received from donors are stated at market value as of the date of the gift.

Property, Plant and Equipment.—Physical plant and equipment are stated at cost at date of acquisition or fair value at date of donation in the case of gifts. No depreciation of plant assets has been recorded.

Revenue Recognition.—Charges for student tuition, fees, and other charges are recognized as income when charged to the students. Collections on pledge are recognized as income when the cash is received. Gifts and other contributions for designated causes are recognized as income when expended. Undesignated gifts and other contributions are recognized as income when received.

2. Pledges

As a result of organized requests for gifts, the following pledges have been received and are uncollected. These pledges are not recognized as receivables in the accompanying financial statements.

11. Operating Leases

The University has entered into two lease agreements which are classified as operating leases. The first is the lease of an apartment house for a period of 15 years from May, 1967, at a rental expense of 1,858 per month. The last payment was made August, 1982. The title to the apartments was transferred to the University after the last payment was made.

The second is the lease of land upon which the maintenance department offices and shops were constructed. The lease is for a period of 25 years beginning in November, 1977. The lease provides for a rental expense of $250 per month. The lease contains an option to renew at the end of the lease. The following is a schedule by years of future minimum rental payments required under this operating lease as of July 31, 1983:

Year Ending July 31,

1984	3,000
1985	3,000
1986	3,000
1987	3,000
1988	3,000
Later Years	42,750
Total minimum payments required	57,750

The total rental expense for operating leases was approximately $4,800 for both 1983 and 1982.

12. Capital Improvements Program

As a part of the Capital improvements program adopted in 1979, the University authorized a special fund drive to raise funds for the program. This fund drive is to extend through 1985. The funds raised, plus investment earnings, are to be used for the long-range building construction, renovation and restoration of campus facilities, and for debt service requirements under the 1979 capitalized lease obligation (Note 8).

During the year the University transferred $1,329,446 of these funds to Oklahoma Baptist University Authority to reimburse the Authority for costs incurred on the above projects in excess of amounts received from the Oklahoma Baptist University Revenue Bonds, Series 1979 (Note 8).

13. Year Ended July 31, 1982 Financial Information

The amounts shown for the year ended July 31, 1982 in the accompanying statement of current fund revenues, expenditures and other changes are included to provide a basis for comparison with the year ended July 31, 1983 and present summarized totals only. Accordingly, the year ended July 31, 1982 amounts are not intended to present all information necessary for a fair presentation in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 1983

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The Center operates a nursing home for the elderly in Hugo, Oklahoma, and reports in accordance with the "Hospital Audit Guide," published by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Under the provision of that Guide, the following accounting policies, unique to not-for-profit hospitals and nursing homes, are in effect:

Funds—Restricted funds are used to differentiate funds, the use of which is limited by the donor, from funds on which the donor places no restriction or which arise as a result of the operation of the institution for its stated purposes. Funds restricted for property and equipment are added to the unrestricted fund balance to the extent expended within the period. Resources set aside for board-designated purposes are not considered to be restricted.

Basis of Accounting—The accrual basis of accounting is used. Revenue is recognized in the period service is provided.

Inventories—Inventories are stated at cost, but not in excess of market.

Property and Equipment—Depreciation is provided on the straight-line method at rates calculated to write off the cost of the assets over their estimated useful lives. The rates generally used were:

Land improvements	5%
Buildings and improvements	2 to 5%
Fixed equipment	5%
Major movable equipment	10%

The property and equipment is shown at cost or fair market value at date of acquisition or donation. Funds equal to a portion of depreciation expense have been set aside to ultimately be used to replace property and equipment as necessary. The balance of such funds at December 31, 1983 was $16,120 (December 31, 1982, $19,315). In addition, $23,699 has been set aside for renovations.

2. Notes Payable

The Center had the following unsecured notes payable to Citizen's State Bank, Hugo, Oklahoma:

Interest Rate	Monthly Payment Including Interest	Original Amount	December 31
			1983	1982
8½%	1,422	80,000	13,916	29,108
8¼%	750	25,000		6,614
			13,916	35,722

The amount due on this note is payable during 1983.

3. Capital Lease Obligation

During 1983, the Center executed a capitalizable lease for equipment. This equipment had an un depreciated cost of $16,961 at December 31, 1983.

The following is a schedule by years of future minimum lease payments:

Year Ending December 31,
1984	5,142
1985	5,141
1986	5,142
1987	2,999
Total minimum lease payments	18,424
Less amount representing interest	3,509
Present value of minimum lease payments (current portion $3,543)	14,915

4. Agreements with Hugo Golden Age Home Authority

In 1970, the Center underwent a large expansion which was financed through the Hugo Golden Age Home Authority, a public trust. The Authority issued tax exempt bonds in the amount of $320,000, of which $125,000 was used to retire indebtedness to the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, and the remaining $195,000 was used for improvements to the facility, bond issue costs, and other related expenses.

At that time, the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma leased the facilities to the Authority for a period that would coincide with the bond life of approximately sixteen years. The Authority then executed an operating and maintenance agreement with the Convention, which provides for the Convention to operate the Center on behalf of the Authority. The form of this agreement provides for the Authority to pay to the Convention, as rent, the net results of operations after deducting sufficient funds to meet annual bond debt service consisting of principal, interest, trustee fees, and any other related costs. The substance of the agreement differs from form in that the Convention retains all benefits of ownership and operations because all funds resulting from operations less debt service payments inure to the Convention. The financial statements for the Center have been prepared recognizing the substance over the form of this agreement.

In addition to the leasing of the facility to the Authority, the Convention also pledged its "full faith and credit" toward the payment of all principal and interest due under the bonds as an additional guarantee to the bond holders. This additional guarantee has, in effect, caused the convention to be responsible for the payment of debt service in the event that facility operations are insufficient to meet such payments.

The amount due to the Authority for debt service is as follows:

BAPTIST RETIREMENT CENTER

Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

Owned by Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 1983

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Operations—Baptist Retirement Center, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma was constructed in 1965 by Baptist Laymen's Corporation, a nonprofit corporation affiliated with Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma. The Center is located on Northwest Highway and Council Road in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. It consists of Lackey Manor (a nursing home), houses and apartment units located adjacent thereto.

In 1974, the Baptist Laymen's Corporation conveyed ownership of the Center to Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma. The Baptist Laymen's Corporation continues to operate the Center for the Convention.

The Center reports in accordance with the "Hospital Audit Guide," published by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Under the provisions of that guide, the following accounting policies, unique to not-for-profit hospitals and nursing homes, are in effect:

Basis of Accounting—The accrual basis of accounting is used. Service revenue is recognized in the period service is provided. Apartment revenue is recognized in the period such revenue accrues to the Center.

Inventories—Inventories are stated at cost, but not in excess of market.

Property, Plant, and Equipment—Depreciation is provided on the straight-line method at rates calculated to write off the cost of the assets over their estimated useful lives. The rates generally used were:

Land improvements	5%
Building and improvements	2 to 5%
Fixed equipment	5%
Major movable equipment	10%

The property and equipment is shown at cost or fair market value at date of acquisition or donation.

Investments Held by Other Entities—The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma was created as a recipient for funds that could be invested. Funds held by the Foundation, included herein at cost or market value at date of receipt or donation, were derived from contributions both by the retirement center and individual donors with the retirement center as beneficiary.

The Center has an endowment fund at the Oklahoma City Community Foundation, Inc. with a balance of $25,239 at December 31, 1983 (1982—$5,000). The Center received $693 income from this fund during the current year. The income from this fund may be used for any purpose; however, the corpus may not be withdrawn, and therefore is not included as an asset in the accompanying financial statements.

Life Estates—Several residents have remitted funds to the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma to be used to build houses or duplexes at the Center. In exchange for the funds, these residents have the right to live in the dwellings rent-free for the remainder of their lives. These funds are recognized in the financial statements as deferred annuities which will be amortized over the life expectancy of the residents. The amount amortized each year is included in apartment revenue.

2. Capitalized Lease Obligations (Bonds Payable)

In 1964, land on which the Baptist Retirement Center, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma is located was conveyed to Baptist Laymen's Corporation to be held in trust for the use and benefit of Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma.

In 1971, the Corporation leased the premises to the Oklahoma Industries Authority (OIA). OIA issued its Series A and B bonds secured by a first mortgage on the property and guaranteed by the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma (Convention). OIA then subleased the premises to the Baptist Laymen's Corporation for a period of twenty years with payments equal to the annual debt service requirement of the OIA on bonds issued as described below. The Corporation has the option to acquire the leasehold estate at any time after June 30, 1981, for an amount necessary to retire all outstanding bonds issued by the OIA. The Series A bonds outstanding at December 31, 1983 totaled $362,500 (1982—$397,500). Series B bonds were retired in 1982.

On March 1, 1978, the Baptist Laymen's Corporation executed a lease with the Oklahoma Industries Authority. The Authority issued its Baptist Laymen's Corporation Revenue Bonds 1978, Lackey Manor Series C in the amount of $2,000,000. The bonds are guaranteed by the Convention. Bond funds were used for the completion of the activities center and the construction of 112 ground level apartments for retired persons. The term of the lease is 30 years with payments equal to annual debt service requirements under the bond issue. The Corporation has the option to acquire the leasehold estate at any time after March 1, 1988, for the amount required to retire all outstanding bonds issued by the OIA. The bonds outstanding at December 31, 1983 totaled $1,585,545 (1982—$1,602,832).

On March 1, 1982, the Baptist Laymen's Corporation executed a lease with the Oklahoma County Industrial Authority (OCIA). OCIA issued its Baptist Laymen's Corporation First Mortgage Revenue Note, Series A (Lackey Manor Project) in the amount of $4,500,000. The note is guaranteed by the Convention. The OCIA assumed responsibility for the construction of a 36 unit intermediate care apartment complex with cafeteria and 22 quadruplexes. The term of the lease is 10 years with quarterly payments equal to principal, premium, and interest due on next note payment date and any administrative expenses, less any surplus in the sinking fund. The Corporation has the option to acquire the leasehold estate at any time prior to the expiration of the least term for the amount required to retire all outstanding indebtedness plus $500. At year end all of the quadruplexes were complete with substantial completion on the 36 unit intermediate care apartment complex and cafeteria facility. The note payable outstanding at December 31, 1983 totaled $4,238,148.

The annual lease payments for years subsequent to December 31, 1983 are as follows:

Present value of minimum lease payments	362,500	1,585,545	4,238,148	6,186,193

Interest earned by the indenture trustee was used to reduce the 1983 lease payments otherwise required of the Retirement Center. This amount, which is primarily nonrecurring, totaled $31,268 (1982—$29,779) and was reported as interest income in the accompanying statement of income for 1983.

On July 1, 1974, the Corporation transferred back to the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma all of the Oklahoma City Baptist Retirement Center's real and personal property used in its operations. Baptist Laymen's Corporation acts as the governing body of the Center for the Convention.
