(I) Mike Haley, pastor of First Church, Hobart, made a motion to amend the report: “In view of the fact that the vast majority of our Oklahoma Baptist Convention is comprised of churches with Sunday School enrollment of less than 100, because our preacher brethren from these churches find it an impossibility, or at least a tremendous hardship, to attend the convention sessions through Wednesday night, because of the leadership and insight these men provide in the direction of Oklahoma Baptists, I move to amend this motion to change the election of officers scheduled for Wednesday at 7:15 to Wednesday afternoon at 3:35 during the business session.”

The amendment was approved.

17. Joe L. Ingram was recognized for the report of the executive director-treasurer. He asked that “Amazing Grace” be sung. It was led by Marlin Hawkins, business director for the convention. Prior to Dr. Ingram’s annual address to the convention, he made the following statement:

   “There is no reference in the Constitution and Bylaws of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma to retirement age for employees.”
A good many years ago, the board of directors adopted a policy of retirement at age 68. During Dr. Lackey’s administration, the board adopted a policy of retirement during the 65th year.

“A few years ago, the federal government enacted a law which set mandatory retirement at 70. In order to comply with the government regulation, the board of directors amended our policy to state that; normal retirement is during the 65th year and mandatory retirement at 70.

“I will be 65 on Jan. 6, 1985. I intend to bypass taking Social Security retirement and continue a full-time ministry. However, in order to carry out the spirit of the normal retirement policy, I intend to ask the board of directors in their December meeting to set in motion the process to elect my successor, according to the Convention’s Bylaws. I plan to continue to serve until my successor is elected by the board of directors and the Convention.

“I want to thank all of you who have requested that I continue serving. I have struggled in my heart to try to decide what I would do should this convention ask me to continue to serve as executive director. My love for this convention is so great that I longingly desire to continue. For 23 years, I have served this convention with every fiber of my being—13 years as your executive director. And I have the same enthusiasm and faith that I expressed in my first convention address.

“I am grateful to God for the rapid recovery I have experienced since the heart problem came to me on August the first. The doctors’ reports are encouraging. I think I can effectively serve in the indeterminate future in a full-time capacity. However, the magnitude of the task of being executive director of this convention may require a greater physical strength than my body can absorb. This position requires a physical strength and stamina beyond which most people can imagine. Up until now, I have been able to meet this physical challenge. Because now I cannot be sure, I request that no motions be made requesting that I continue to serve beyond the normal time as previously set by the board of directors. From the December board meeting until my successor is duly elected by this convention, I shall continue to give you my best effort as I cover this state one more time in promotion of our annuity program, the Planned Growth in Giving Emphasis, and to solidify the 50-50 division of the Cooperative Program.

“I want to re-emphasize that I am not resigning and I am not retiring. I am simply completing the work I was elected to do in 1971. I am not going to be a lame-duck. I will vigorously exercise the leadership of this office until the day the responsibilities are passed on to my successor—with this one exception: I will not be involved in the process of electing my successor.

“Thank you for your love, friendship, and support. My love for you is greater than I can express. Be assured that the best is yet to be.

“And now I want you to listen carefully to my 14th annual message to this Convention.”

The subject of Dr. Ingram’s message was “Ancient Roads and New Challenges.” The text was Jeremiah 6:9-16; 7:21-23.

18. Rodney Briggs led in singing “All That Thrills My Soul Is Jesus.”
19. J. T. Roberts, director of the Office of Annuity for the Convention, gave the report of his work.

Annuity Services

J. T. Roberts, Director

A strong economy and sound management practices contributed to making 1983 another banner year for the Annuity Board. The following report reflects the Annuity Board’s position as a sound financial pension board.

Total assets administered by the Board as of Dec. 31, 1983 were $1,251,643,084 compared with $1,057,947,515 Dec. 31, 1982.

Investment income for 1983 totaled $150,204,159.

As of June 30, 1984, total assets held in trust by the Annuity Board totaled $1,308,938,000. This is an increase of $57,297,000 over June 30, 1983.

Premiums and dues through the first two quarters of this year reached $52,551,012 compared with $45,775,947 a year earlier.

As of June 30 this year, the Board paid a total of $17,665,022 in benefits to 13,913 annuitants.

Oklahoma State Convention Report

Deacon-Pastor conferences were conducted in nine associations during January, February and March 1984.

The motion carried to approve the report.

20. Rod Briggs led the hymn “Come Christians, Be Committed.”

21. Landrum Leavell, president of New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary, spoke to the Convention. His message was based on Eph. 4:11.

22. Glenn Boyd introduced six young people from various Baptist Student Union groups. They sang special music.

23. The BSU report was given by Bob Lee, director of Student Work in the State.

Baptist Student Union

Bob Lee, Director

Baptist Student Union work had another good year across our state. Participation on the part of students continued to grow and support by churches and associations was excellent.

This was another year of changes for many of our directors and campuses. Ron Driskill was hired at Eastern State College to replace Del Allen. Bobby Pruett, Dave Edwards, and John Strappazon were hired as new associate directors at the University of Oklahoma. Bill Zodrow resigned at NEO at Miami and was replaced by Bobby and Debbie Lipscomb as co-directors. John Ramirez moved from Panhandle State University to replace Debbie Lipscomb at Rose State College.

Seventy-one students served as summer missionaries in Oklahoma, several states, and Spain. Students raised in excess of $115,000 for mission work. Approximately $50,000 of this money went to assist BSU work in 18 states including Puerto Rico and Hawaii. Oklahoma BSUs support BSU work in new convention areas. As a result of this emphasis 15 Oklahoma college graduates will go to Oregon-Washington to do BSU work and to assist churches. Over 850 students were involved in short-term mission projects.

Over 800 students came to know the Lord as a result of the Evangelism emphasis in BSU. Several hundred students were involved in Evangelism training programs. In addition, several thousand students had an opportunity to be a part of a Bible study that was conducted by a BSU director or student. These Bible studies were held in BSU centers, dorms, apartments, sorority houses, and fraternity houses.

The motion carried to approve the report.

24. Introduction of New Business:

(1) A motion carried for the president and two vice-presidents to be elected by secret ballot.

The motion was approved.

(2) Warren Hultgren, pastor of First Church, Tulsa made the following remarks and motion:

“In as much as we have recognized the work of Dr. Joe Ingram by the standing vote and accolades that were given, also for two years it was my privilege to chair a Bold Mission report that came to the Convention—helped to put the report together and was so proud that
Oklahoma was the first state to respond in substance to that report, I submit to you that there have been more essential innovations under the leadership of Dr. Ingram than any other comparable period. I hope I am not betraying a confidence—but Dr. Ingram's doctor tells us that the only restriction that he has on Dr. Ingram's health is that he get eight hours of sleep a night. This is a good prescription for everyone of us, incidentally. The other thing I would like to say is that we here in our convention remember what he said to the board of directors—that he had been invited to become president of what is called Baptist Health Care Corporation. This involves the hospitals and Baptist villages. He does not intend to retire. He intends to go into it full-time. Now in 28 years of coming to this convention in Oklahoma, I have never made a motion, but I would like to make a three-part motion. Mr. Chairman, I would like to move that we rescind the 65 year limitation for Dr. Ingram: that we ask him to continue serving this convention with the experience, maturity and even-handedness with which he has characterized that administration, and that he bring his decision to the board of directors at their December meeting.

The motion was unanimously approved.

(3) John Hancock, pastor of Faithway Church, Ft. Towson, moved that the committee that will be selected to seek the next executive director-treasurer of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma be requested to consider candidates in Oklahoma first before they look to men from other states.

The motion was defeated.

25. The Report of the Board of Directors was presented by Dr. Ingram.

The Executive Committee

The Convention’s Bylaws states that the Executive Committee shall perform only such duties as may be referred to it for action from time to time by the board of directors. This committee is made up of the Convention president as chairman, the executive director, recording secretary and the chairmen of the five board committees. Committee members this year were William H. Cook, Joe L. Ingram, Gene Thomas, James Sanderson, Dan Day, Forrest Jackson, Richard Hopper and Steve Boehning.

At the March meeting a motion was made by Hugo Lindquist, pastor of Bethel Church, Oklahoma City to add a Section 3 to Article II of the Constitution. The proposal was as follows:

“In accordance with the Constitution, I present the following amendment to the Constitution of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma. If adopted, this amendment would become Section 3 under Article II, which is entitled “Constituency.”

“Section 3—The Convention reserves the right to determine its own membership and may refuse to seat messengers from any church that has become corrupt in faith and practice.

“A.—A formal written protest stating the reasons for messengers not to be seated may be filed by any church with the President of the Convention, a state board member, or a member of the Convention’s Credentials Committee. The protest shall be filed no later than thirty (30) days before the annual meeting of the Convention.”
"B.—The Program Committee of the convention shall provide a time at the opening session of the annual meeting for action by the messengers regarding the protest. A two-thirds majority vote is necessary to refuse the seating of messengers. Messengers from the challenged churches are not allowed to vote on the question of their being seated.

"C.—A church shall be considered to be corrupt in faith and practice if it ordains women to the ministry of deaconship; or if it practices speaking in tongues (glossolalia)."

The Executive Committee met April 30 and reviewed the legal opinion of the Convention’s attorney. They concurred with the attorney’s conclusion that the proposed amendment contradicts the organizational essence of the Convention by establishing ecclesiastical standards for memberships; and further, a determination as to meeting these standards constitutes judicial or legislative control over the particular church.

After lengthy discussion it was determined that Drs. Ingram and Cook would send a letter to the Board of Directors stating the attorney’s opinion. At the May 24 meeting of the Board, Dr. Cook articulated the sentiments expressed by the Committee. The originator to the proposal requested that it be withdrawn.

A motion was made for the president to appoint a committee to study the Constitution to see if there are portions that need to be changed or updated. The motion was defeated.

Another motion was presented to reaffirm the articles in the Constitution relative to the seating of the messengers at the Convention. It was defeated as the majority felt that the vote against the motion of a study committee was an affirmation of the Constitution.

September Report—

Motion to Reconsider—Hugo Lindquist made a motion to reconsider his original motion to amend the Convention’s Bylaws. The motion died for the lack of a second.

Section 1. A nominating committee shall be named at the business meeting at each annual session, whose duty it shall be to nominate officers at the next annual session and appoint members of the nominating committee. The nominating committee shall be composed of a chairman from the state WMU Council from an association that is not eligible to have a member that particular year and one member from each of the six area (Woman’s Missionary Union grouping of associations) who are not on the state WMU Council. All members shall be nominated by the previous nominating committee to serve one year. If a vacancy occurs on this committee, the committee appoints another person from the association from which vacancy occurred to serve the unexpired term.

Section 2. The associations within an area shall rotate numerically in having a member on the nominating committee.

2. Program Assignment for World Hunger—The Board made the following program assignment regarding world hunger:

Oklahoma Baptists are becoming increasingly concerned about world hunger and are seeking ways to be involved in helping to meet the needs of people in the homeland as well as overseas. It is recommended:

1. That the director of the Department of Brotherhood be given the program assignment of informing Oklahoma Baptists concerning world hunger;
2. That the Convention’s Brotherhood and WMU Departments be asked to assume the responsibility for promotion of and prayer for an annual World Hunger Emphasis;
3. That these organizations be asked to enlist and train individuals who could be available to Oklahoma Baptist churches in helping them to be more aware of the hunger needs of our world, and to assist the churches in knowing ways to meet these needs;
4. That Brotherhood, WMU and the Christian Life Committee be asked to conduct a World Hunger Consultation during 1984 for informing and training resource people in the local associations, and that this consultation be funded from the Special Projects Fund up to $1,000. Expense beyond 1984 will be included in the Cooperative Program budget.
5. It is further recommended that all undesignated world hunger funds be divided 80 percent Foreign Mission Board and 20 percent to Home Mission Board.

3. Planned Growth in Giving—The Board approved the recommendation for the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma to participate in the national Planned Growth in Giving emphasis beginning in 1985.

4. Method for Setting Falls Creek Assembly Dates Studied—A study was made by the committee regarding the methods by which dates for Falls Creek assemblies are set. The present method is for the first week to be the first full week following the 4th of July. There are years when this makes the last assembly late in August, and sometimes there is a conflict for some of the church groups and the starting of schools. The committee determined that even though there may be some problems, the method now used of setting dates was the best at the present time.

5. Sunday Use of Falls Creek Studied—A request came to the committee to allow Sunday use of Falls Creek facilities for Family Life Seminars. The committee determined that the current policy will not be changed to allow for use on Sundays.

There were no recommendations in the March or May meetings.

Administrative Committee

James Sanderson served as chairman of the Administrative Committee which is responsible for work related to personnel, budget, ministerial services, Baptist Messenger and Baptist Student work.

December Recommendations and Approvals—

1. Francis to Serve Three-Year Term on Board—Bill Howse, board member from Sans Bois Association area, moved to another association. A recommendation was approved for Willard Francis, pastor at Whitefield, to complete the three-year term.

2. Ministerial Crises Committee Established—The Board voted to establish a Ministerial Crises Committee and approved the following guidelines:

The Need:

Lack of income after a pastor or full-time vocational staff person (minister of music, education, youth, recreation, administration, etc.; excluding secretarial, clerical, maintenance and janitorial staff) is terminated or resigns just before termination.

The Purpose:

To provide a ministry which includes: counseling ministers and families who need to deal with spiritual and emotional pain, relocation possibilities, financial benefits during a brief interim and a support ministry that will let the individual know "someone cares."

To be available to provide a ministry of counseling and assistance to the church during a needed time of healing. To assist the director of associational missions in his ministry to that church.

Committee Supervision:

A special "Ministerial Crises Committee will be established and work under the general supervision of the Administrative Committee, BGCO. The two pastors on the committee will be from the Administrative Committee and named by the director of the Office of Ministerial Services."
Committee members include:
Director of the Office of Ministerial Services, Chairman
Executive Director-Treasurer, BGCO
Associate Executive Director, BGCO
Director of the Office of Annuity Services
President, BGCO
Pastor

The BGCO Annuity Office budget shall provide premiums for health and life insurance, and annuity premiums of the Basic Annuity Plan.

Other financial assistance shall come from the special projects account in 1984 and be included in the Office of Ministerial Services budget and the Edna McMillan State Mission Offering in 1985.

Guidelines for Assistance:
1. A consultation with a representative group from the church should be sought through the Office of Ministerial Services in coordination with the director of associational missions. Items discussed should include:
   (1) Encourage the church to provide an adequate severance pay, including benefits, for at least sixty (60) days.
   (2) Encourage the church to provide adequate time for the person to relocate his/her home, if the person is residing in a house owned by the church.

2. To further assist the staff member, the BGCO will provide the following premiums for up to six (6) months:
   (1) health insurance premiums—Annuity program or comparable program.
   (2) life insurance premiums—Annuity Program
   (3) annuity premiums—Basic Plan only

3. Based on funds available, the BGCO will assist in meeting general living expense up to and not exceeding $500.00 per month, for no more than three (3) consecutive months.

4. The BGCO and church contributions for premiums and living expenses combined will not continue for more than the six (6) month period.

5. The financial assistance and annuity/insurance premiums cannot be received more than once every five years and no more than twice during one’s ministry.
6. If the individual becomes employed in a secular position or called to a church, the financial assistance may be adjusted or cease.

Requirements for Consideration (Application):
1. Recommendation for assistance should ordinarily be given by the local director of associational missions.
2. The application for assistance must be approved by the Ministerial Crises Committee.
3. The applicant and/or family must receive counseling by one of the BGCO-approved counselors, if recommended by the committee.
4. The applicant should be planning to remain in the ministry.

The Ministerial Crises Committee wishes to represent the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma in being redemptive and exercising a spirit of care and concern during the crisis time. In addition, the desire is to assist both the terminated person and the church in the healing process.

The Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma is under no obligation to provide assistance to anyone, though each application will be given fair consideration.

All decisions regarding assistance are subject to the approval of the Ministerial Crises Committee of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma.

3. Hurt Retires—Jameson Named—Mrs. Raymond (Fern) Hurt retired after serving 37 years as associate editor of the Baptist Messenger. Norman Jameson was introduced as a new associate editor.

4. Marris Elected to Board—Tom Anderson, from Choctaw-Chickasaw association, moved out of state. Henry Marris, pastor of Grace Indian Church in Calera, was elected to complete the three-year term on the Board of Directors.

March Report and Recommendations—
1. Lottery Bill Opposition—The state legislature considered a bill to allow a lottery in the state. The convention, churches and many individuals wrote or otherwise contacted their legislators urging them not to vote for the bill. It was defeated.

2. Liquor-by-the-Drink Issue—Through an organization named Oklahoma is OK Committee protest was made on the initiative petition to legalize liquor-by-the-drink in Oklahoma. At least $300,000 was needed for advertising which had to be paid in advance. Churches were asked to take a special offering for this purpose.

George Miller, convention attorney, reported that the petition was being challenged on several legal points. The challenges were made to the State Supreme Court.

On September 18, the State of Oklahoma voted by approximately a 27,000-vote majority to permit counties to vote for or against liquor-by-the-drink. The Oklahoma is OK Committee spent approximately $390,000 in the effort to defeat liquor-by-the-drink. By the latter part of September the churches had given about $130,000. An effort is being made to pay off the deficit.

3. 1985 Cooperative Program Objective—The Board approved a recommendation to the state convention that the 1985 Cooperative Program objective be $19,000,000 to be distributed across the board 50 percent State and 50 percent Southern Baptist Convention; that the total objective be divided as follows: Basic Budget, $17,553,660 and the Challenge Section, $1,446,340; that all items in the Basic Budget have priority over items in the Challenge Section; and that all receipts over the $19,000,000 be distributed 50 percent State and 50 percent Southern Baptist Convention.

May Recommendations and Approvals—

1. Taxation for OBU—It was reported that the Oklahoma Tax Commission is seeking to change the tax exemption status for Oklahoma Baptist University and other privately owned institutions of higher learning. OBU President Bob Agee presented the following resolution to the Oklahoma Tax Commission, which the Board approved:

   WHEREAS on May 7, 1984, Oklahoma Baptist University, along with every church-related college, university, elementary, or secondary school in the State of Oklahoma, received notice from the Oklahoma Tax Commission that its sales tax exemption had been revoked as of April 16, 1984;

   WHEREAS the revocation of the sales tax exemption was based on questions about the relationship of the University to the Baptist churches of Oklahoma;

   WHEREAS Oklahoma Baptist University was brought into being by vote of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma on February 9, 1910, and has operated since that time under a charter which reads as follows: "The Corporation was formed for Charitable, Benevolent, Religious, Education, or Scientific purposes and has no stated capital. This corporation is owned by the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, and is operated through the Board of Trustees elected by that Convention." (Charter and Bylaws of Oklahoma Baptist University, Article V);

   WHEREAS Oklahoma Baptist University has operated since its beginning exempt from paying both ad valorem and sales tax and holds in its possession letters from the Oklahoma Tax Commission granting said tax exemption based upon its status as a church-owned and operated ministry in the State of Oklahoma;

   AND WHEREAS the Board of Directors attests that Oklahoma Baptist University operates as a vital extension of the ministry and work of the 1,400 Southern Baptist Churches which comprise the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma and as such conducts services of worship, conducts classes in the study of the Bible, provides ministry both to members of the University community and ministry to prisons, nursing homes, and other strategic places of human need within reach of the University and provides opportunity and encouragement to all students to find ways to meaningfully apply and express their Christian faith.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Board of Directors of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma strongly urge that the Oklahoma Tax Commission reconsider their ruling of April 16, 1984 (Order No. 84-04-16-11) as it pertains to Oklahoma Baptist University.

2. Expression of Appreciation—Reference was made to information printed in the Southern Baptist Journal about OBU. It was pointed out that the matters mentioned in the article were dealt with several years ago by the Academic Affairs Committee of the University. The committee's report was adopted by the Convention. The articles contained derogatory remarks about Dr. Agee, OBU's president, and other leadership of the convention and university. A motion was unanimously adopted to express to Dr. Agee the deep appreciation and excitement for the splendid work being done at OBU.

3. Stewardship Emphasis in Spain—Sixty-two pastors and laypeople participated in a stewardship emphasis in Spain in May. This is a part of the continuing partnership between the Convention and the Baptists of Spain. In the Spring of 1985 there will be a group go for Sunday School enlargement and in the Fall 400-500 people will be there for revivals.

September Recommendations and Approvals—

1. OBU Trustees Authorized to Borrow $4,500,000—The Board of Trustees at Oklahoma Baptist University was authorized to borrow up to $4,500,000 to provide construction financing for campus projects including the science building, the telecommunications building, and other facilities included in the capital campaign. Repayment will be made from gifts, grants, and payment of pledges made to the University for these projects.

2. Additional Guidelines for Search Committee—The Convention's Bylaws give guidelines for the selection of an Executive Director-Treasurer should a vacancy occur. In addition to those, the Board of Directors gave approval to additional guidelines as follows: After a Search Committee is selected by secret ballot, the results of the selection will not be made public until the Executive Director and President of the Convention can personally interview each of those receiving the highest number of votes to determine (1) a willingness to serve, and (2) to make certain he is not a candidate or potential candidate for the position. It was not intended that these become a part of the Bylaws.

(1) James Sanderson, pastor of First Church, Jenks and chairman of the administrative committee made the following budget recommendations.

Recommendations

1. That the Cooperative Program objective for 1985 be $19 million to be distributed across the board 50 percent to state missions and 50 percent to Southern Baptist Convention; that the total objective be divided as follows: basic budget, $17,553,660 and the challenge section, $1,446,340; that all items in the basic budget have priority over items in the challenge section; and that all receipts over the $19 million be distributed 50 percent state and 50 percent Southern Baptist Convention.

2. That the executive director-treasurer be instructed to keep Cooperative Program expenditures in line with Cooperative Program income and that he be authorized to adjust department and agency budgets up or down by not more than 5 percent in order to carry out this objective.

3. That the 1985 Cooperative Program income be distributed as outlined:

36. C. Fred Williams, president, The Baptist Foundation, presented the report of the Foundation.

"Report of the Board of Directors of The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma"

C. Fred Williams, President

The Foundation's Board of Directors makes this report to the annual meeting of the convention with an awareness of the relationship under which we serve. As the only incorporated trust agency of the convention, The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma bears a sacred responsibility to the convention, to its agencies, institutions and departments, and to the hundreds of individuals for whom we manage trust assets.

The Foundation was established on November 6, 1946 by the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma. Its Articles of Incorporation as amended on December 20, 1974 and approved by the convention's Board of Directors on May 27, 1975, sets forth the primary purpose of the Foundation which is to "receive by gift, devise, bequest or otherwise, any money or other property absolutely, or in trust to be used, either principal or income therefrom, as may be directed in the furtherance of the gospel of Jesus Christ as represented by the agencies, institutions and departments of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma and of the Southern Baptist Convention."

The report for the year concluded July 31, 1984 shows a total of $48,862,686.20 endowment and capital needs assets. Total receipts for the period were $10,169,595.50 and total earnings from investments were $4,879,669.53. This is the largest income ever earned by the Foundation in one year and reflects an 11.6 percent average earnings on assets held for the period including the non-income producing assets such as life estates.

The business and professional people who comprise the Foundation's Board of Directors, all active members of Oklahoma Baptist churches, provide general guidelines for management of assets. The Foundation's administrative staff is responsible for the daily application of the guidelines. Current board members are James L. Barham, chairman; Bill G. (Pete) Cantrell, Ralph A. Crawford, Ray Mason, Frank A. McPherson, Oveal Netherland, John Nikkel, Leslie Pain, Thomas L. Pate, John R. Redwine, Don Ritter, Charles E. Sutter, H. Forrest Tennant, Robert M. Wadlow, Barney Ward and Granville Ward.

For administrative purposes and distribution of staff responsibilities, the programs of the Foundation are divided into seven sections over which the president provides general supervision and direction: Computer Accounting and special Investment Services, Church Building Loan Services, Property Management and Mineral Leasing Services, Endowment Procurement Services, Communication and Estate Stewardship Services, Charitable Giving and Estate Planning Services and Personal Trustee Services.

Computer Accounting and Special Investment Services

Computer Accounting Services:

Computer accounting was up-dated during October 1983. The department of Child Care administrative office was connected to our computer system. A terminal and printer operate from their office. This provides an additional service to our Child Care ministry by the Foundation.

Special Investment Services:

Funds managed by the Foundation are in five pools: the Equity Pool is composed of blue chip common stocks; the Fixed Income Pool is composed of corporate bonds; the Short Term Investment Pool is composed of government securities and certificates of deposit; the Church Building Loan Pool provides funds to churches for building construction; and the Real Estate Pool was established during this year.
Student Loans and Scholarships:
The Foundation receives student loan and scholarship funds. The scholarships are awarded, for the most part, to Oklahoma Baptist University students and at the discretion of the Financial Aid Department of the University. The student loan funds are also managed primarily for students attending Oklahoma Baptist University. In most instances the interest rate is determined by the trust instrument. Interest is paid quarterly while the students are in college. Upon graduation, an arrangement is made whereby the loan can be paid over a period of months or years.

Church Building Loan Services
The Church Building Loan Trust Fund has been functioning effectively since 1954 helping the Foundation fulfill a vital part of its task. The Fund does so in two major ways:

1. It is a primary channel for the investment of endowment funds and, consequently, provides a large percentage of the income distributed to Oklahoma and Southern Baptist institutions and agencies and to individuals.

2. It provides to Oklahoma Baptist churches, local Baptist associations and Oklahoma Baptist Student Unions a means for financing building needs. The interest paid supports the causes represented in the Cooperative Program.

For the year ending July 31, 1984, 49 loans were closed totaling $9,271,119.53. This amount is the largest in the Fund's history. During the twelve-month period, 43 loan commitments were made which totaled $10,389,471.00. This is also a record for the fund for a 12-month period.

Since the establishment of the Fund, 780 loans have been made totaling $42,018,864.68 which have earned $13,829,205.94 in interest. As of July 31, 1984, $24,814,959.55 was invested in the Fund with 257 loans in force.

The Fund is administered by a committee composed of members of the Foundation's Board of Directors. During the past year, the Board amended its guidelines for obtaining a loan. Copies of the "Policies and Regulations" brochure are available upon request. The brochure provides pertinent information including eligibility requirements, interest rate, payment schedule, and application procedure.

The Church Building Loan Trust Fund has experienced its most active year in its history. It has assisted the Foundation in its role as trustee. The Fund is a complement to the Cooperative Program as Oklahoma Baptists seek to fulfill the task of the Great Commission.

Property Management and Mineral Leasing Services
Property Management Services:
Management of real property held by the Foundation is supervised by a committee of eight board members. The committee meets monthly or on special call. Decisions to sell, lease, rent or repair property are determined by the committee upon recommendation of the vice-president for property management and mineral leasing services.
Real property held by the Foundation consists of houses, farms, commercial buildings, vacant lots and open grassland. The Foundation operates no businesses or farms but leases them to others. Grassland and farms are leased on a cash-per-acre basis or a percentage of crops produced. Residential property is rented by the month on a cash basis.

During the year concluded July 31, 1984, 14 pieces of real property were received including a lumberyard, a 1,120-acre farm in Harmon County; a 480-acre farm in Wheeler County, Texas, and a 396-acre farm near Perryton, Texas. The committee makes the final decision on every transaction.

Mineral Leasing Services:

The Foundation's mineral interest business is supervised by a committee consisting of eight board members. The committee meets each month to review lease offers, bonuses, rental delays and sales.

The Foundation holds deeds to mineral interest in 61 counties in Oklahoma and in nine other states. The units vary in size from .25 acre to 320 acres.

During the past year the Foundation received 10 units of mineral interest in which the donor reserved a life estate with remainder as endowment for Baptist Retirement Center, Owasso, Oklahoma.

Interesting changes have occurred during the past year. Production income has decreased by 22 percent from August 1, 1983 to July 31, 1984 while at the same time, bonuses increased by 27 percent. The figures are as follows:

Endowment Procurement Services

Under the mandate of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma has accepted the assignment to develop and promote a new program to secure additional endowment for Oklahoma Baptist causes. This program is called BEYOND THIS TIME.

Small group meetings were conducted beginning with a special meeting of key Convention staff members. This meeting was hosted by Dr. and Mrs. Joe L. Ingram. Other meetings, hosted by directors of departments of the Baptist General Convention, were held during January and February.

Small group meetings have since been conducted throughout the state. These meetings have been hosted by current and former Board Members of The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma. This approach has received a very positive response.

A quarterly newsletter is being sent to approximately 2,000 people across the state. The Baptist Messenger has carried feature stories of people who have given to the Lord’s work through BEYOND THIS TIME.
The need for endowment continues to grow as Oklahoma Baptists face the challenge of Bold Mission Thrust. The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma is glad to be a part of this plan for securing additional funds and at the same time creating the opportunity for persons to effect their stewardship aspirations and live BEYOND THIS TIME.

Communication and Estate Stewardship Services

The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma, in performing its multi-faceted ministry, relates to various groups of people. Among these are members of Baptist churches, pastors, denominational and church leaders, attorneys, bankers, investment counselors and other professionals.

Effective communication with each of these groups is imperative. Therefore, communication is a process always involved in evaluation and improvement.

This report deals with the strategies, programs, methods and tools used by The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma in its communication efforts.

Repeated Emphases:

Repetition is a key to successful communication. Rarely do individuals comprehend a message and respond on the basis of a one-time exposure to it.

The biblical principle of Christian estate stewardship is no exception. Most people give little thought to the importance of making a will, to say nothing of making gifts from their estate to the Lord’s work through a will or a living trust. Endowment giving is also a foreign idea when first introduced.

For this reason, two months of each year are designated on the denominational calendar to give recurring attention to Christian estate stewardship responsibilities and opportunities. January is “Make Your Will Month” and September is “Baptist Foundation Month.”

In promoting the January emphasis, The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma provided 140,000 bulletin inserts to the 1,444 churches to be distributed to their people on a Sunday during the month. The September emphasis was highlighted by a special eight-page section in the Baptist Messenger (September 22, 1983) about endowment gifts for Baptist causes and the function of the Baptist Foundation in the administration of such gifts.

Further focus was given to these repeated emphases through prepared articles in associational newsletter, Care ’N Share and other Baptist periodicals. Foundation president, C. Fred Williams, and Bob Ross were guests on an Oklahoma City radio station talk show to discuss estate planning from a Christian perspective.

Repeated emphasis is also given to Christian estate stewardship through approximately 15,000 birthday cards sent each year to individuals served by the Foundation in estate planning. The card’s theme not only includes best wishes and congratulations but reminds the recipient to keep his or her estate plan up to date.
Proven Programs:

Although the Foundation is continually seeking new ways and creative methods to communicate its message, certain developed programs and formats which have proven to be highly effective throughout the years are continued.

One of these is the Pastor's Program. Eight times during the year, selected pastors from across the state are invited to be guests of the Foundation for the day. The pastors attend an orientation session during which Foundation staff members present their particular areas of work. The concept of endowment is explained, the Foundation's purposes and investment policies are stated, and the church building loan pool and student loan and scholarship funds are discussed. Pastors have opportunity to participate in a question-answer session and to offer comments and suggestions.

The pastors then sit in on a monthly meeting of the Foundation's Board of Directors and observe firsthand the Christian commitment and business expertise of those serving on the Board. Last year more than 85 pastors attended these special sessions.

Each year the Foundation works with hundreds of attorneys across the state in securing the preparation of certain legal documents and in the probate of estates. In an effort to get better acquainted with members of the legal profession and to familiarize them with the purposes and work of the Foundation, attorney's luncheon or dinner meetings have been conducted in cities across Oklahoma.

Since April 1978, 56 such meetings have been hosted by The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma. Last year, meetings were held in Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Bartlesville, Sayre, Moore, Norman, Seminole, Clinton and McAlester with a total of 87 attorneys in attendance.

The format of the attorney's meeting includes the showing of a visual presentation about The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma ("Today, Tomorrow . . . Until"), a discussion of the attorney-Foundation relationship, and the presentation of attorney's packets.

The attorney's packet consists of specimen copies of various types of wills, trusts, charitable remainder annuity trusts and unitrusts, gift annuity contracts and other related materials. Since 1978 when the attorney's packet was developed in its present form, 762 packets have been distributed. The attorneys packet was revised in April 1982 and since this time, 498 packets have been distributed. Last year, the Foundation placed 134 packets with persons in the legal profession.

Yet another proven program is the State Training Meeting for Associational Officers. Each association elects a Baptist Foundation representative to serve as liaison person between the Foundation and the churches and pastors in the association. His or her role is one of reporting and interpreting the work of the Foundation, providing opportunities for the Foundation to communicate its purposes and ministries, and identifying those individuals and professionals with whom the Foundation needs to make contact.

Baptist Foundation representatives from 14 associations came to Putnam City Church in Oklahoma City on April 27 and 28 for six hours of intensive training. Much time and energy goes into preparation for these sessions because of the benefits both for the Foundation and the representative. Being an associational Baptist Foundation representative is no longer a figurehead position.

Continuing Education:

Wherever Foundation staff members speak, preach, lead or teach, they are representing The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma. The eleven men on our staff are ordained ministers and are busy almost every Sunday in pulpit supply. Several of them have served as interim pastors during the past year. They preach revivals, conduct Bible studies, teach at Falls Creek, participate in World Mission Conferences, lead estate planning seminars, and speak at pastor’s gatherings and annual associational meetings.

In addition to this, Foundation staff members speak and distribute estate stewardship literature in selected churches or churches of a designated association on Sundays during January and September of each year. This educational program is known as Future Thrust.

The format for the Future Thrust program includes preaching a biblical sermon on Christian Estate Stewardship at the worship service, leading an estate planning seminar during the Church Training hour, and meeting with individuals in the congregation interested in estate planning assistance.

In September 1983, Future Thrust was conducted in the churches in Muskogee Association. In January 1984, 27 selected churches from across the state had Foundation staff members lead this special emphasis.

Churches participating in the January Future Thrust program were: First Churches in Muskogee, Wewoka, Stroud, Perkins, Piedmont, Tonkawa, Midwest City, Tishomingo, Madill, Hooker, Tipton, Cheyenne, Hollis, Hinton, Elk City, Chandler, Noble, Henryetta, Wynnewood, Wilburton, Nicoma Park. Others included were Enid, Calvary; Bixby, Riverside; Yukon, Trinity; Omulgee, Second; Rush Springs, Southern and Bethany, Council Road. As the direct result of the January emphasis more than 400 Christian wills were prepared—a record number for any month in the Foundation’s 38-year history.

The annual associational meetings provide yet other opportunities for continuing education. The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma offers to the associations program covers for the printing of the agenda of their annual meeting. The design of the program covers incorporates information about the Foundation’s purposes and ministries. Last year, 24 associations used 6,450 program covers. Foundation staff members also attended sessions of 37 of the 41 annual associational meetings. They distributed estate stewardship literature and, in most instances, spoke to the Baptist Foundation report during the sessions.

Other projects of communication through continuing education include weekly articles in the Baptist Messenger. These articles, written by Foundation president C. Fred Williams or one of the Foundation vice-presidents, impart information about estate planning techniques, promote programs conducted by the Foundation and report human interest stories about donors and their gifts to Baptist causes. Response to these weekly columns is most gratifying as readers contact our office for additional information or request personal estate planning assistance.

Participation in the Senior Adult Conference at Oklahoma Baptist University is yet another example of continuing education. Foundation staff members made program presentations to the more than 200 in attendance and also led several estate planning seminars for interested individuals.

During the past 12 months, Foundation representatives led 74 estate planning seminars in churches, associations, and before special groups. These seminars were sometimes conducted during the church training hour on Sunday evenings or at the midweek services on Wednesday evening. Two hour in-depth estate planning seminars were conducted as community service events in Muskogee and Duncan last year.

New Approaches:

A major shift in strategy occurred this past year as the Convention's "Twenty Five Million Dollar Endowment Campaign" was assigned to The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma. Prior to this, the Foundation had not actively solicited endowment gifts. Being the only incorporated trust agency of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, its primary function is to encourage, receive and manage such gifts and then to distribute the income produced by these gifts to the Baptist causes designated by the donors.

With this new assignment comes now the responsibility to identify and contact prospective donors and to secure endowment gifts from individuals for seven specific areas of Oklahoma Baptist work.

A committee composed of several Foundation staff members and others began in June 1983 and devoted six months to redesigning the 25 Million Dollar Endowment Campaign. First, considerations were given to a new name for the program. "Beyond This Time" was the theme selected. A logo, art work and color scheme were developed to be used in all future promotional materials.

Quality Productions of Oklahoma City was contracted to produce a 15-minute visual presentation about "Beyond This Time." The visual presentation was completed in two forms: (1) color slides for dual projection, and (2) video tapes.

The colorslide presentation was shown at the annual meeting of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma last November and on other occasions since. The video tapes are used in home and restaurant settings where the program is presented to small groups.

The program strategy is to conduct small group meetings across the state hosted by former and present Foundation Board members. The host and hostess invite friends to their home or a restaurant where a Foundation representative shows the video tape and briefly discusses "Beyond This Time," the concept of endowment giving and ways that gifts may be made to the endowment fund for Oklahoma Baptist work.

The Foundation representative makes appointments with persons attending the meetings who express further interest. Since January 1984, nine small group meetings have been held in Ada, Wewoka, Madill, Guymon, Poteau, Lawton, Spiro, Oklahoma City and Tulsa.

So that the Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma might have continuing contact with prospective donors to "Beyond This Time," a newsletter was published and distributed for the first time in February 1984. The newsletter is scheduled for publication and distribution four times a year.

The quarterly newsletter, mailed to more than 2,000 persons, contains stories about persons who have made gifts to Beyond This Time and also articles about various charitable giving techniques, estate and gift tax laws and other related matters of technical nature. These articles are authored and submitted to the Foundation by Resource Development Inc. of Springfield, Missouri.

Another new approach to communication took place on November 18, 1983, when church secretaries from across the state were invited to be guests of the Foundation for the day. Eighty-nine church secretaries accepted the invitation and attended an orientation session similar to ones conducted eight times a year for pastors. They also sat in on the Foundation’s Board of Directors meeting and were the special guests at a noon luncheon. Because of the unusual success of this experiment, Church Secretaries Day will become an annual event on the Foundation’s calendar.

In April, 1984 selected lay persons were invited to a program similar to Church Secretaries Day. Thirty men and women from different parts of the state and from different professions attended the four-hour program. This, too, shall be continued as an annual event.

Added Dimensions:

The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma for many years has published an annual report, included it in the Convention’s Book of Reports and distributed it to Foundation Board members, pastors, church and denominational leaders. However, it was decided this year to put the annual report in a more concise summary form, to employ a commercial artist to design the 12-page booklet and illustrate its content with appropriate graphs, charts, etc., and then to distribute the annual report to others beyond a Baptist constituency.

Four thousand copies of the "1983 Annual Report of The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma" were printed and sent to former and present Foundation Board members, to donors and prospective donors, to attorneys with whom the Foundation has had contact, to the chief executive officer of every bank in Oklahoma, to self-employed certified public accountants and public accountants, and to Baptist Foundation executives in other states.

The purpose of this undertaking was to magnify what God is doing through Baptist people in Oklahoma who are committed to reaching the world with the gospel of Jesus Christ and ministering to human need. The annual report was further intended as a means of informing the secular, business and financial communities about The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma—its size and scope of operations, the purposes of its work and the services it offers.
When Death Does Us Part is a 20-page booklet prepared by Foundation vice president, Robert Ross, dealing with actions to be taken and persons to be consulted by the surviving spouse after the death of a husband or wife. The booklet reports important information regarding claims for survivor’s benefits under life insurance policies, Social Security, Veteran’s Administration, etc. It further offers practical suggestions regarding payment of bills and expenses, possible trust arrangements, the changing of ownership of properties, and other such adjustments required by the death of a spouse.

Months were spent in the research and writing of this booklet which was published in May 1984. The first printing of 5,000 was exhausted within six weeks because of an unusually large number of requests for it. July 1984 brought a second printing of 5,000 copies of When Death Does Us Part.

Another new tool this year is the “Estate Planning Guide.” The 15-page booklet is divided into three sections. Pages 1-6 discuss steps to be taken and decisions to be made in putting together information for the preparation of wills. Pages 7-10 provide simplified forms for listing personal assets and liabilities and determining the approximate net worth of an estate. Pages 11-14 provide forms for recording instructions one wishes to have included in a will, such as nominations of personal representative, guardian for minor children, trustee, gifts to Baptist causes, distribution of the estate to children, relatives or friends, etc. Page 15 lists the Baptist causes in Oklahoma and the Southern Baptist Convention that one may wish to include in a will or trust.

The “Estate Planning Guide” is provided to persons requesting estate planning assistance. They are encouraged to read section one, complete forms in sections two and three, and then either take these completed forms to an attorney for the actual preparation of the documents or return them to the Foundation which shall secure the necessary legal counsel for their preparation.

The newest literature piece offered by the Foundation is the seven-page pamphlet, “The Personal Representative.” It presents in outline form the various duties and responsibilities of one who serves as personal representative (executor) in the probate of an estate. This pamphlet is offered to persons requesting such information. It is also offered to attorneys for distribution to their clients serving in this capacity.

Charitable Giving and Estate Planning Services

Effective estate stewardship is no accident. It requires spiritual commitment and informed planning. At this point The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma can be of valuable assistance to Oklahoma Baptists.

When requested to do so, a staff member of the Foundation will make an appointment to assist any Oklahoma Baptist in finding the best way to keep his stewardship commitment. This may involve the preparation of Last Wills and Testaments, any kind of necessary trust, gift annuity contract or other documents essential to the estate plan. All of this can be accomplished with experienced planners and competent legal counsel to achieve individual or family goals and to make provision for Baptist ministries at the same time. When a Baptist cause is made a beneficiary of the plan, services of The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma are available without cost. If requested to do so, the Foundation's will serve as Personal Representative or Trustee without fee for those making such gifts.

August 1, 1983, through July 31, 1984, the Foundation staff assisted in securing the information for the preparation of 1,653 wills, 48 trusts and 20 gift annuity contracts. Twenty-four wills were probated in which Baptist causes benefited.

A placard is given to the churches indicating the number of members who have used the services of the Foundation in their estate planning. The number is updated semi-annually. There are now 972 churches in which one or more families have secured the assistance of the Foundation in accomplishing their estate stewardship desires.

Personal Trustee Services

One of the unusual and yet most beneficial ministries rendered by the Foundation is its personal trustee services. H. Truman Maxey has served in this capacity in a most commendable way during the past several years. Maxey retired at the end of May after almost 50 years of unselfish service to Oklahoma Baptists. His position with the Foundation was filled by Finley W. Tinnin, who had retired from the pastorate of The Baptist Temple of Oklahoma City.

Personal trustee services include special assistance to individuals for whom the Foundation holds trusts. Transportation to hospitals, clinics, doctors' offices, regular contact by means of personal visits or telephone calls and many other personal services are rendered to the scores of people for whom the Foundation serves as personal trustee.

The motion carried to approve the report.

37. The Singing Churchmen of Oklahoma presented music.

38. Bill Coen, minister of music, First Church, Bartlesville, sang a solo.

39. William H. Cook gave the presidential address from the life of Moses. The scripture reference was Hebrews 11:23ff. He emphasized that Baptists must pay the price as we walk by faith.

40. Jere Wilson, minister of education, First Church, Bartlesville, led the closing prayer and the convention was adjourned until Wednesday morning.

Wednesday Morning

November 14

41. Robert J. Hinson, pastor of First Church, Marlow and second vice-president of the convention, called the session to order at 9 a.m.

42. Ellis Strout, minister of music, First Church, Tahlequah led in singing "I Stand Amazed in the Presence" and "There Is a Name I Love to Hear."
43. Bob Wood, pastor of First Church, Muskogee, read from Matthew 20.
44. Dave Kelley, pastor of First Church, Morris, led in prayer.
45. Roy Fish, professor of evangelism at Southwestern Seminary, Fort Worth, Texas, led the Bible study. The theme of the message was "The Church at Prayer." It was based on 1 Tim. 1-6.
46. A panel discussion was presented.

He recommended the approval of the report of planning and promotion, of which stewardship is a part.

Planning and Promotion

Lyle Garlow, Director

The Planning and Promotion Office is an extension of the Executive Office and is closely related to the work of the Executive Director-Treasurer. Lyle Garlow, Associate Executive Director, serves as the director of this office in addition to administrative responsibilities.

Because of the assignments of denominational programming, emphasis planning, coordination, and the liaison role with associations and associational directors of missions, the work of this office is placed in close relationship and communication with all SBC agencies, boards, Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma agencies, boards, and departments of work.

Seven BGCO departments closely related to the churches, their programs and emphases, are a part of the Planning and Promotion Section. These departments are: Brotherhood, Church Music, Cooperative Missions, Evangelism, Falls Creek Conference Center, Religious Education and Woman's Missionary Union. The Planning and Promotion director works closely with these departments in correlating programs, promotion, and budgets.

Glenn Brown serves as associate director of Planning and Promotion. Cade Garrison serves as director of Video/Media.

Several specific programs are assigned to the Planning and Promotion Office. These programs and reports for last year are:

Cooperative Program Promotion

Lyle Garlow serves as director of Cooperative Program promotion. Total receipts during 1983 were $14,794,515.92. This is an increase over 1982 of $526,653.40—a 3.7 percent gain.

During 1983, each Cooperative Program dollar was divided 46 percent to SBC mission ministries, and 54 percent for Oklahoma ministries. SBC received $6,805,477.32, and Oklahoma causes received $7,989,038.60.

Church tithes and offerings reported by the churches for the church year (closing in the fall of 1983) were $161,483,565. This is an increase of $13,040,450 over 1982. Church income increased 8.78 percent, while gifts through the Cooperative Program increased 3.69 percent. (The item, "Tithes and Offerings," includes all gifts, such as building fund, revival, Lottie Moon, etc.).

Cooperative Program percentage division to SBC increased 2 percent (from 46 percent to 48 percent) during 1984. This convention will consider the 1985 Cooperative Program budget which calls for a 50 percent-50 percent division beginning Jan. 1, 1985.

To help Oklahoma Baptists reach and maintain the 50 percent-50 percent objective, churches are urged to increase their percentage to missions through the Cooperative Program. Three factors have contributed to the reaching of the 50-50 objective:

1. The vision, challenge, and leadership of Joe L. Ingram, our Executive Director-Treasurer, and the support of the Board of Directors, BGCO.

2. The willingness of all BGCO staff to economize and use each dollar wisely.

3. The continued support and encouragement of the churches. Many churches have increased their gifts through the Cooperative Program each year. A one or two percent increase each year makes a tremendous difference in a few years.

If each church increased just one percent this year, we would have a 10 percent increase in dollars—an amount equal to $1.5 million.

Approximately 400 church treasurers continue to mail their Cooperative Program checks each week. This constant cash flow, along with efficient and effective banking procedures, helps us fund the promotion and administrative expense of the convention with non-Cooperative Program dollars. Thus, every mission gift from your church goes directly for a mission ministry.

Coordinated Promotion Planning

The boards and agencies of the SBC, in cooperation with state conventions, endeavor to develop Coordinated Promotion Plans (CPP). Our convention works with associational directors of missions to secure their input and evaluation to denominational planning, thus providing a coordinated program of goals and activities for the churches.

We are currently in the second year, 1983-84, of a three-year cycle (1982-85) of Bold Mission Thrust.

Oklahoma Baptist goals for 1985-1990 have been recommended to the Board of Directors and approved. These goals coincide with the SBC emphasis, Bold Mission Thrust: Reach People/Develop Believers/Strengthen Missions.

This area of work is directed by Lyle Garlow.

Associational Services

Baptist churches in England began "associationalism." The concept was continued in America and became the oldest unit of denominational life. There is a great spirit of cooperation in Oklahoma between association, state convention and Southern Baptist Convention.

The area of associational services is assigned to the Planning and Promotion Office, and Lyle Garlow serves as a liaison between the associations and the various state convention relationships.

All of the 41 associations employ a director of missions. The BGCO provides a supplement to each association for expenses related to the promotion of denominational emphases, activities, and training meetings.

Changes in associational leadership since publication of prior Book of Reports are as follows. New directors of missions: Richard Magby, Atoka-Coal Association (3-12-84); Sam Vinall, Bryan Association (2-15-84); Don Clark, Johnston-Marshall Association (5-1-83); Joe Ray Stith, North Canadian Association (4-4-83); and David N. Freeman, Tillman Association (7-15-84). Directors of Missions retiring since this last publication are: J. D. Barnes, Tillman Association (7-1-84); Carrell Hooper, Bryan Association (2-15-84); and Weldon Marcum, North-eastern Association (8-15-84). Rue Scott, Washington-Osage Association, resigned (8-1-84) to return as a missionary to Malawi.

During the past year, the following directors of missions have gone to be with the Lord: Ralph Couch (Salt Fork); M. R. Dareing (North-eastern); Lang Gibson (Grady); John R. Kelly (Beckham-Mills); Cloyce Holland (Tillman); Frank Jennings (Johnston-Marshall); and Estel Thomason (Cimarron).

Video/Media

Cade Garrison, director of Video/Media, began his work with the convention September 1, 1983. The video/media ministry is a part of the Planning and Promotion Office.

Three areas of work are assigned to video/media: ACTS, BTN and VTS. In addition to these three programs, Garrison also assists the BGCO staff in video ministries.

ACTS (American Christian Television System) was officially launched during the 1984 SBC annual meeting in Kansas City. ACTS is owned and operated by the Radio and Television Commission, SBC, in Fort Worth. ACTS provides an alternate type of Christian television—a need in today's TV market. ACTS now has access to over 135,000 Oklahoma homes with a potential viewing audience of over 364,000. Those communities receiving ACTS (or soon to be) are: Bartlesville, Blackwell, Cheyenne, Owasso, Shawnee and Tulsa. Another 20 communities are waiting on decisions from their local cable systems. They represent another 155,000 cable homes with a potential viewing audience of over 420,000.

BTN (Baptist Telecommunications Network), owned and operated by the Baptist Sunday School Board, has begun sending messages to churches. These messages are "in house" leadership and training type messages.

VTS (Video Tape Service) provides leadership and training tapes for churches. Our convention helps finance the production of these tapes. They are available through most associational missions offices.

Church Administration

The scope of Church Administration includes deacon ministry, pastor/staff leadership skills, church council, church committees and officers, annual and long-range planning. Glenn Brown serves as consultant in Church Administration.

The year 1984 has been a year of increased interest in deacon ministry, especially the Deacon Family Ministry Plan. Six state pastors are "Certified Deacon Trainers" and assist churches and associations as needed. They are Charles Becton, Russell Cook, Eldridge Miller, Carl Nelson, Gene Stockwell and Bob Woods. Mrs. Carl Nelson is also used extensively to lead conferences for deacon's wives. Three area deacon conferences were conducted this past year, plus a number of individual church conferences.

In September, Church Administration and Church music sponsored a joint training retreat for bi-vocational pastors, music directors, accompanists and spouses. More than 150 persons had preregistered at the time of this writing.

Four associations sponsored "Conflict Management" seminars for pastors; the annual Minister of Education Programming Retreat attracted 54 staff members; nine Spanish pastors attended a two-day workshop that featured principles of planning for church growth.

Eight thousand copies of the "Church Planning Calendar" were distributed for use by church leaders and an updated file of church staff job descriptions was prepared to aid churches requesting such information.

Stewardship Promotion

Glenn Brown is director of Stewardship Promotion. Services to churches include consultations and a variety of free materials for church use in developing Christian stewards, ministry budgeting, and the general area of stewardship administration and promotion. Four specialty conferences were conducted in Christian money management and the "great challenge" stewardship programs. Eleven Associational Stewardship Conferences were conducted using the new Stewardship Standard and involving approximately 750 pastors and key church leaders.

In addition, 60 Oklahoma pastors and laymen were enlisted for a stewardship project in Spain in May, 1984, in 47 Spanish churches.

Extensive preparation is under way for Oklahoma's participation in the Southern Baptist convention's Planned Growth in Giving emphasis which begins in early 1985. A state Planned Growth in Giving Task Force has been named to help guide the effort and to assist in conducting 12 two-day training events for pastors and church leaders in February, March and April of 1985. They are: Charles Becton, Steve Boehning, Paul Box, William H. Cook, Dan Day, Charles Graves, Bill Hogue, Eldridge Miller, Mack Roark, Gary Smith, Keith Wiginton, Bob Woods, Dr. Joe L. Ingram, Glenn A. Brown, Fred Williams, Jarene Robison, Lyle Garlow, Dr. Bob R. Agee and Bob Lee.
Evangelism

Jerry Don Abernathy, Director

This year has been marked by some unusual evangelism activities. Forty-three members of the Spain Baptist Union came to Oklahoma in October to conduct revivals in Oklahoma and for training. Good revivals were reported.

The Oklahoma Billy Graham Crusade in October impacted our state to help climatize for evangelism. The follow-up televising of the crusade in December and March helped sustain that emphasis. Area crusades in Tulsa and Oklahoma City added more emphasis in the summer months. Area evangelism emphases followed by aggressive local church evangelism work builds a statewide harvest.

In the local church programs it appears that many Oklahoma churches have captured the vision of two needs: (1) The importance of process evangelism. Many churches are developing good witness training programs. Leaders are determined to make evangelism a weekly process. (2) The importance of spiritual renewal in the evangelism ministry. Many churches are conducting Prayer Seminars and Lay Renewal Weekends. They know that souls are won in an atmosphere where spiritual life is real.

A major opportunity in evangelism is upon us. The 1986 Nationwide Simultaneous Revivals project is the catalyst. How we prepare for it, conduct it, and follow through afterwards is going to determine much of the way we capture it for evangelism. Several things can be done:

Evangelism Committee—Each church can establish an Evangelism Committee or Council to assist the pastor and staff. When Southern Baptist churches were utilizing the membership involvement of such a committee, the results were good. If evangelism is a priority, it deserves priority attention in the budget and organizational structure of a church.

Prayer Seminars—Lay Renewal Weekends—Spiritual reproduction depends on the spiritual health of a church. Effective national evangelism will come in the climate of renewal. For 1986 to reach the maximum evangelism results, 1985 must be a year of revival. Prayer Seminars and Lay Renewal Weekends conducted across Oklahoma will greatly contribute to revival. Plan to have a Lay Renewal Weekend and a Prayer for Spiritual Awakening Seminar in 1985. Make plans for these now.

Lay Evangelism School—Revised and rewritten guidebooks are available from the Evangelism Office and the Home Mission Board. Trained leaders are prepared to help churches conduct Lay Evangelism Schools. The history of these schools proves that Christians can effectively be trained through them. Some pastors have utilized them as the major evangelism program to guide churches into strong evangelism centers. One of the most beneficial and productive things a church can do to help members become soul winners is to conduct enough Lay Evangelism Schools to help them stay trained in the spiritual ministry. of personal witnessing. In this way every church leader can be trained in personal evangelism.

Revival Preparation—Special materials and special associational efforts are going to be available for training in revival preparation. The biggest failure in revivals seems to be lack of adequate preparation. Every effort is being made to provide assistance to change this pattern. However, the best materials and the best meetings will only help those who utilize them. Look for these during this next year and utilize them to improve revival preparation.

Youth Evangelism Conference

The summer Youth Evangelism Conference did not prove to be beneficial to the youth work of Oklahoma as evidenced by low attendance. Therefore, we will continue the December schedule. This year duplicate conferences are scheduled for December 27, Immanuel Baptist Church, Tulsa; and December 28, First Southern Baptist Church, Del City. The program personalities include Rick Stanley, Iris Urrey, James Wright, James Sanderson, Paul Purifoy, and others.

State Evangelism Conference

The 1985 Conference is set for January 21-22 at First Southern Baptist Church, Del City. Program personalities include SBC President, Charles Stanley; Vice President, Zig Ziglar; Evangelist Manley Beasley; Pastor Darrell Robinson; Home Mission Board, Evangelism Department representative, Herman Rios; Professor Anthony Campolo; SBC Quartet “New Song,” and others.

(3) Ministerial Services—Clyde Cain, director.

Ministerial Services

Clyde Cain, Director

The Office of Ministerial Services provides a general ministry of: (1) Information to churches, pastors and staff members, and (2) Continuing Education.

Services to Pastors and Staff

Ministerial Crises—Due to the fact that we are presently experiencing several pastors and staff members being coerced to resign or terminated, a special Ministerial Crises Committee has been established. This committee determines necessary assistance for the individual who has experienced termination. Some limited financial assistance may be given on a short-term basis to provide a ministry of encouragement and financial help due to termination or forced resignation. A ministry of counseling is also included in the assistance provided.

Personal Retreat, Falls Creek—Arrangements have been made with Falls Creek Conference Center to provide certain cabins to pastors, staff and their families at a reduced, supplemented cost. This is an attempt to provide a place for the staff member and his family for a personal retreat. Pastors and staff are also encouraged to seek out such a place at an associational camp that might provide the same kind of relaxed atmosphere. However, no financial assistance is provided for the associational retreat setting.

Career Assessment Seminar—A seminar designed especially for the pastor/staff member, to take an in-depth look at their ministries, including goals and aspirations, as well as struggles. Special emphasis is given to relationships, leadership styles, problems and solutions, reflections on ministry and goals for future ministry. A limited number of 10 participated in Oklahoma’s first Career Assessment Seminar conducted in February 1984.

Services to Churches

Information on Calling a Pastor—The informational service provided primarily through biographical information sheets continues to be a growing ministry. In 1982, there were 1,839 resumes shared with churches in Oklahoma and other states. In 1983, there were 2,468 resumes shared. These include resumes on pastors and staff personnel and are provided without recommendation or endorsement. They are sent by request.

Assistance is also given in counseling with search committees upon request, and securing a pulpit supply and/or interim pastor on request. If a pastor needs to be out of his pulpit, assistance is given in securing a pulpit supply.

In addition, various articles and brochures have been written for the church and pastor including: “On Calling a Pastor,” “Marriage Laws in Oklahoma,” and “On Electing a Search Committee.”

Continuing Education

State Bible Conference—The annual State Bible Conference provides detailed study for the January Bible Study book and the Baptist Doctrine Study emphasis. The conference was conducted May 7-10, 1984 with an emphasis on Psalms, the January Bible Study book for 1985 and the Doctrine of Jesus Christ, which is the doctrinal emphasis for the spring of 1985. Approximately 300 registrants attended the conference.

Ministry Training Institute—Through the School of Christian Service at Oklahoma Baptist University and the Office of Ministerial Services, BGCO, a cooperative effort has begun which will enhance our total approach to continuing education.

The director of the Ministry Training Institute is Dick Rader, Acting Dean of the School of Christian Service at OBU. The program coordinator is Clyde Cain, director of Ministerial Services for the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma.

The purpose of the institute is to offer college-level courses for vocational ministers presently serving as pastors or staff members in local churches. Training is also available to staff members, persons who have surrendered to special service and lay persons who feel the need for additional formal training. This will equip them to better serve their congregations, deepen their knowledge of the scripture and develop their functional skills as workers in their local churches.
The institute will also facilitate a working agreement with the Baptist seminary in Spain whereby graduates will receive a college degree.

The program of study consists of two levels: The Certificate Level and the Diploma Level. In most instances, a student may receive some credit at Oklahoma Baptist University for work done through the Ministry Training Institute. Certificates may also be awarded for students who have no interest in receiving credit at OBU.

College level Seminary Extension materials are used in the Ministry Training Institute at this time.

The initial centers are located in Pryor, Lawton, Enid and Ponca City. Additional centers will be established in the near future.

Scholarships are available for those persons who are ordained, licensed or have surrendered for special service and have been given a letter of certification from the local church.

Seminary Campus Visits—Seminary campuses visited during 1984 include: Midwestern, Southwestern, Southern, New Orleans and Southeastern. Interviews were given to graduating students who have an interest in serving in Oklahoma. Also, the BGCO hosted a banquet for all Oklahoma students and faculty members at the seminaries. Approximately 250 students were interviewed and attended one of these dinners during seminary visits. Joe L. Ingram, Executive Director-Treasurer, BGCO, spoke in chapel at Midwestern, New Orleans and Southeastern Seminaries.

Seminary Study Center, OBU—Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary is currently operating a Study Center at OBU. Degree offerings include a Master of Divinity, Master of Religious Education, Associate of Divinity and Associate of Religious Education degrees. A record enrollment of 111 students was attained during the past school year. The program continues to be a major contributing factor in the field of continuing education in Oklahoma.

Seminary Extension—Nine Seminary Extension Centers are currently active in Oklahoma. These centers are providing training for approximately 120 students. Some centers have switched to the Ministry Training Institute and therefore, are not counted as Seminary Extension Centers. In addition to Seminary Extension studies being available through the centers, approximately 125 students in Oklahoma are participating in the Independent Study program through Seminary Extension.

The motion carried to approve all the reports.

48. Ellis Stout led in singing a hymn.

49. Joe L. Ingram and Sam Garner, director of the Baptist Village at Hugo, presented the report of the Baptist Villages and Chaplaincy Ministry. The report is included in the report of the board of directors.

50. Lowell Milburn, director of department of child care, using various personalities, presented the report of that ministry.
Child Care

Lowell D. Milburn, Director

The Department of Child Care seeks to fulfill the ministry of Christ on earth. Hundreds of scriptures teach that God's people should care for the fatherless, poor, sick, weak, and troubled.

Services Needed—Violent crimes take place every 10 seconds and an alarming number happen within families. More children under five die from child abuse by their own people than from all diseases. (13 die daily from abuse) Every year for the past 20 years there has been an increase in the number of young people involved in drugs, alcohol, crime, teenage pregnancies, and suicide. Governor Mark White released a study of 36,000 prisoners in Texas that discovered nearly all were from broken homes.

Services Described—We earnestly try to do what is best for the child. This is why we seek to locate our homes close to the children's families. Eight children live together in cottages with houseparents. Sibling groups can live together. Children under six and those needing closeness of a family are placed in foster care. Social workers serve as counselors.

Group Homes are available. Adoptions are made when children become legally free. Children attend schools and churches of the community. Graduates are assisted with college or vocational training. A plan of care is made for every child at the time of intake.

The Department works to strengthen family ties and return a child to his family as soon as possible. Some stay only a few months in care, others may stay several years. We seek to provide a Christian atmosphere in our homes where children will accept Christ as Savior and fulfill their God-given potential. Psychiatric counseling is provided when need is apparent. Medical and dental services are also a part of care. Quality care for every child is our goal.

Services Rendered—There were 1,570 children and family members served, 299 unwed mothers counseled and served, 45 adoptions completed or placements made.

Services Expanded—Baptist Group Homes have been completed and children placed at Marlow, Ada, and Clinton. Alternatives Counseling Centers for unwed mothers have been opened in Tulsa and Oklahoma City.

Services Supported—How grateful we are for the splendid support received from various sources. Major sources were: Cooperative Program—$600,000; Endowment—$879,609; Mother's Day Offering—$494,324; Birthday/Anniversary Offering—$121,850; Memorials—$59,978; Sponsorship—$64,609.

Thank you Oklahoma Baptists for your prayers, gifts, and concern for children we serve. Pray that God will call couples to serve as houseparents and foster parents. Pray for the children and their houseparents.

A motion carried to approve the report.
51. J. M. Gaskin, director of history for the convention, gave the report of the Historical Commission.

Historical Commission

J. M. Gaskin, Director

In 1952, the state convention authorized the formation of the Historical Commission. There are nine members. They are elected to three-year staggered terms. The Commission has two regular meetings each year. Its stated purpose is to create an awareness among Oklahoma Baptists of the importance of their history; to encourage churches and associations to put special emphasis on Baptist heritage; and to collect, preserve, and utilize Baptist history in general and Oklahoma Baptist history in particular. The work of the Commission is funded through the Cooperative Program.

Historical Society

The Oklahoma Baptist Historical Society was organized in 1956. It has its own constitution, which has never been amended. The Society by the terms of its constitution is auxiliary to the Historical Commission. Membership is open to any interested person, institution, library, museum, or others who may have an interest in Oklahoma Baptist history. The official journal of the Commission and Society is The Oklahoma Baptist Chronicle, edited by J. M. Gaskin since publication began in 1958. The Society meets annually during the state convention. In recent years, the meeting has been a dinner gathering on Wednesday evening.

Oklahoma Baptist Collection

The Oklahoma Baptist Collection is housed in space provided on the third floor of the Oklahoma Baptist University library (Mabee Learning Center). It occupied the present quarters in 1976. The space has been enlarged once to provide for expanding the historical collection. Plans are in the making for another space expansion. OBU plans to provide space for its own Archives, which will leave three full-length stacks for the Oklahoma Baptist Collection. Items in the Collection include thousands of Annuals, hundreds of rolls of microfilm, periodicals, pictures, manuscripts, one thousand or more books, and a few artifacts.

Historical Marker Dedicated

May 13, 1984, the Commission worked with the LeFlore Association and the Cowlington Baptist Church in dedicating a historical marker. It is located on the Cowlington church grounds in northern LeFlore County. The event was part of LeFlore Association's "Centennial Celebration." This is Oklahoma's oldest and first white Baptist association. It was organized as Short Mountain Association at Cowlington in 1884.

'Centennial Celebrations'

Three "Centennial Celebrations" were observed by Oklahoma Baptists in 1984, and one is scheduled for 1985. First churches of Heavener and Poteau, observed their centennials Oct. 14 and 21, 1984; and LeFlore Association had a year-long celebration of several history-oriented events during the year. Enon Association will observe its centennial in 1985. This is the state's oldest white Baptist association with the same name from its beginning in 1885.

Baptist Women

After nearly 12 years since the Oklahoma WMU asked J. M. Gaskin to write a history of Baptist women's work in Oklahoma, the project is nearing completion. The book is scheduled for release August 1, 1985. The title will be, Baptist Women in Oklahoma. Historically, the time-span will extend back to 1832. Indians, Blacks, and Anglo Americans will be included in their cooperative and separate programs of Baptist women's work.

Seminar for Writers

A seminar for church history writers is in the schedule of the Commission's work for 1985. It will be held at OBU. The probable date will be June. Specific announcements will come later.

Baptist History Award

A proposal comes from the Historical Commission to establish a Baptist History Award. It will be administered by the Historical Commission. Plans for presenting the award call for competitive judging and a public presentation at the state convention, beginning in 1985.

Recommendations

In its September 11, 1984, meeting, the Historical Commission approved the following recommendations to the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma:

1. That we reaffirm as in past years, the action of the Historical Commission on June 5, 1979 (see Book of Reports, BGCO, 1982, pp. 28-29). This action was reaffirmed in 1982 (Ibid.), and again in 1983 (Ibid., 1983, p. 31). The action specifies that the Oklahoma Baptist Collection is the property of convention. By joint agreement with OBU dating back to 1955, the collection is housed in the Mabee Learning Center (Library) at OBU. But it is the property of the convention and shall be administered by the Historical Commission.

2. That the Commission work with Enon Association in its Centennial Celebration, including the dedication of a historical marker.

3. That the Commission help Kiamichi Baptist Assembly in the development of a Memorial Park in time for dedication during the Assembly's 1985 encampment.

4. That the Commission be authorized to establish a Baptist History Award, set the criteria for it, select judges to receive entries and determine winners annually, make formal presentations, and generally administer the Award.

5. That the convention approve a seminar for church/associational history writers in June 1985 at OBU, and authorize the Commission to determine specifics of the seminar.
6. That the Commission cooperate with OBU in every way possible as the University commemorates its 75th anniversary in 1985.

7. That we encourage each church and association to elect a history committee and a historian each year.

8. That we ask more churches and associations to update or do a first-time writing and publication of their histories.

9. That we urge more churches to put their minutes and other records on microfilm, and deposit a copy of the microfilm with the Oklahoma Baptist Collection at OBU.

10. That we renew our request of 1983, that the WMU department of the convention assume a leading role in promoting and marketing the book, BAPTIST WOMEN IN OKLAHOMA, by J. M. Gaskin, now in process of completion for publication in 1985.

11. That the convention encourage Al Turner to continue with his historical survey of Baptistry paintings in Oklahoma Baptist churches.

12. That friends of Falls Creek be invited to contribute (not lend) items for a museum at Falls Creek.

The report was approved.

52. John Murphy, staff member at First Southern Church, Del City and former pastor of Shields Boulevard Church, Oklahoma City, presented to Dr. Gaskin a Bible used in a Bible "readathon" at the Shields Boulevard Church. The Bible will be placed in the Oklahoma Baptist Archives at Oklahoma Baptist University.

53. Ellis Stout led in singing "Marvelous Grace" and "Amazing Grace."

54. A panel discussion was presented by:

(1) Bill C. Haggard—director of Department of Religious Education.

Religious Education Department
Bill C. Haggard, Director

Growth has been the highlight for the churches of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma in 1983-84. This has been the second year, officially, of the "8.5 by '85" Sunday School emphasis, while Church Training has continued under the theme, "3.5 by '85." As a result of a revival in outreach and Bible study enrollment growth, churches are experiencing growth in every area of the church program.

Department Personnel

The ability and skill of the department of Religious Education staff is unsurpassed, making the work of the department more effective!

Included on the staff, in addition to the director, are four field workers: Robert Audd, director of Church Training; Billy Allen, director of adult education and associational projects; David Fuller, director of youth work and Vacation Bible School; and Darlene Koch, director of early childhood education.

Serving on the secretarial staff are: Joan Eischen, secretary to Haggard; Sybil Cox, secretary to Audd; Donas Cook, secretary to Allen;
Lou Rodriquez, secretary to Fuller; and Olive Hays, secretary to Koch.

Statistics

Oklahoma Baptist churches have increased their Sunday School enrollment by 21.7 percent since 1972. Enrollment has now reached 380,276 (through 1983). Our statewide enrollment goal is 400,000 by 1985. With the dedication of the churches and the blessings of God, we will surpass that goal! Net increase this past year was 11,272 over the previous year. Thirty-one of Oklahoma's 42 associations reached a record breaking enrollment in 1983. Nationwide Southern Baptist enrollment reached 7,815,443 as we strive for 8,500,000 by 1985.

Vacation Bible School enrollment reached 142,334 in 1,283 schools. Professions of faith were reported at 2,629 and actual prospects discovered were 26,068—with a projected total of 58,813. The report on last year's follow-up showed that 7,074 prospects were visited, and 1,387 or 19.6 percent of them were enrolled in Sunday School as a result. Of this number 503 made professions of faith.

In Church Training, 20 associations had a net gain in enrollment as the state experienced a total enrollment of 96,474, a slight decrease over the previous year. Because of the nature of the training program, including many short-term projects, a new emphasis is being placed on a more efficient record system.

Projects and Emphases

A highlight of the Sunday School year was "Glorieta Comes to Oklahoma," a state Bible teaching improvement conference at First Church, Duncan where over 2,200 registrants overflowed the church. This project was sponsored jointly by the department of Religious Education and four associations.

Associational Sunday School work continues to grow in strength with 196 ASSIST members being trained at the annual Faculty Institute in April. The majority of the associations conducted central training schools. Four associations—East Central, Muskogee, South Canadian and Cimarron—conducted central training schools sponsored in cooperation with the state department. Eighty percent of the associations report a complete basic ASSISTeam. Most associations now have a team of 8.5 by '85 representatives to aid them. Two associations conducted Enrollment/Enlargement Campaigns and four others are in progress.

The four fastest growing Sunday Schools this past year were:
- Bethany, Council Road—largest numerical enrollment increase.
- Broken Arrow, First—largest numerical average attendance increase.
- Olgesby, First—largest percentage enrollment increase.
- Cox City, First—largest percentage average attendance increase.

Church Training programs and events included: Associational "M" Night, November 28, 1983, was observed by 35 associations with 5,755 in attendance. Doctrinal Clinics in Muskogee and Clinton on January 9-10, with 92 attending. Senior Adult Leadership Workshops, January 24-25, drew 216 workers. Twelve associational Church Training Growth Workshops were conducted by the state team with 482 participants. One hundred fifty-nine associational leaders were trained in the Bold Growth Team Training on March 15. The State Children’s and Youth Bible Drills, March 26, increased with 73 participants representing 10 associations. The Better Speaker’s Tournament had seven representatives.

Other meetings include: a State Church Building Conference, a State Library-Media Conference, three Sunday School Leadership Seminars and one Church Training Seminar.

Southern Baptist Leadership Training

We also provided promotion and encouragement to the following church music training opportunities: Southern Baptist Church Music Conference, Kansas City, Mo., June 10-11; Church Music Weeks at Ridgecrest, June 15-26; Church Music Weeks at Glorieta, July 8-20; Music Conference, Baylor University, July 30-August 1.

Supportive Help

In addition to the regular programming that the Church Music Department does, we are pleased to support the other agencies and departments of the convention. This year we had the privilege of assisting 11 of our departments and agencies in planning and executing their programs.

Singing Churchmen

The Singing Churchmen of Oklahoma continues to grow and give encouragement to the music leadership of our churches. We had over 110 men enrolled in the organization this year with eight performances and rehearsal choral clinics within the state. We encourage all full-time music directors to be a part of this organization, if possible. If you have questions concerning the Singing Churchmen, please contact our office.

Falls Creek

Falls Creek continues to be one of the most exciting parts of our work. We had over 2,000 young people and adults participate in our choir and instrumental program this year. We had 27 young people make a life commitment to the music ministry.

Readin' and Singin' Schools

After having modified the old Fundamentals of Church Music Schools last year, we are thrilled to see the response of our associations to the Readin' and Singin' Schools. This year we had four schools: Craig-
Mayes Association, 27 enrolled; Canadian Association, 20 enrolled; East Central Association, 9 enrolled; Union Association, 67 enrolled.

Statistical Report

The figures released by the Southern Baptist Convention's statistical department show that Oklahoma Baptist churches have 64,479 people involved in their music ministries. This is up from last year's figures of 61,921. We are thankful for the continued growth in Oklahoma in our music ministry. I want to continue to urge all churches to report their church music enrollment on the annual church letter.

Your Church Music Department is made up of Glenn Boyd, director; Paul Magar, associate director; Mary June Tabor, assistant; Judy Enegren, secretary. We are happy to be a part of Oklahoma Baptists working together to reach the world for Jesus.

The reports were approved.

Cooperative Missions

Robert E. Haskins, Director

Dr. Bill Pinson, Executive Director-Treasurer for the Baptist General Convention of Texas, in a message entitled, “Biblical Truths: Our Foundation for Mission” said, “Over and over the Holy Spirit encouraged the disciples as they shared the Gospel in difficult circumstances. Through miracles and wonderful signs He put a stamp of approval on taking the Gospel to an ever widening circle of people. The Holy Spirit called believers to undertake special missions and led churches to support them in such work (Acts 13:13).”

The Holy Spirit is still calling out believers to undertake special missions and He is leading churches in Oklahoma and the nation to support them in all kinds of work in Oklahoma.

Language Missions

Every month this year a new language work has been started. Seven of these are Indian Missions; one is a Korean Mission; two are Spanish Missions; and two are new Deaf Units.

Thirty-five full-time and 13 part-time missionaries work with American Indians, Koreans, Laotians, Chinese, Japanese, Vietnamese, Thais, Indonesians, Russian Jews, French, Afghans, Asian Indians, Deaf, etc. They traveled over a half million miles in their mission work and reported more than 2,177 professions of faith, additions by letter and special service commitments.

Two very historic events took place at Falls Creek this year. We had our first Mini Korean Camp and Chinese Camp. The Koreans had approximately 100 attending their two-day camp and the Chinese had over 140 attending their four-day camp.

We have a new State Missionary to the Deaf. He is Danny Bice. He has been serving a Deaf congregation in Fort Worth. He is a son of deaf parents. He brings many skills to his working. His personal knowledge of deafness helps him relate more effectively to Deaf people.

The largest Indian Falls Creek Assembly in its history was held June 18-22 with 2,226 people registered. Fermin Whittaker of the Language Missions Division of the Home Mission Board, served as camp pastor. Kenneth Myers, minister of music at Surrey Hills Baptist Church in Oklahoma City, served as music director. A special children's worship was conducted each day by Jimmy Anderson. He was assisted by a group from Georgia.

Our largest State Spanish Camp was held at Falls Creek June 11-15 with more than 200 registered. Dr. Antonio Rengifo, multi-ethnic missionary from Norman, served as camp director. Sybil Waldrop of the Sunday School Board and Jorge E. Diaz from El Paso Spanish Publishing House, provided special training in Sunday School work.

The State Indian Leadership Conference was held at Central Baptist Church, Oklahoma City October 11-13. Bob Evans, professor of Religion at Oklahoma Baptist University, was the Bible teacher. Keith Wiginton, pastor of First Baptist Church, Altus, was pastor. Robert Haskins and Roy Moody of the Baptist Building staff, led conferences on "The Husband's Role in Marriage" and "A Prayer Seminar."

The third Annual State Hispanic Workshop was held at First Baptist Church, Oklahoma City, October 12-13. Age level conferences were provided for Sunday School teachers and general officers. The Sunday School Board, in cooperation with the State Missions and Religious Education Departments, provided the conference leaders. Angel Murillo, Southwest Area Hispanic Catalytic Missionary, is the State Hispanic Religious Education Coordinator.

Five Indian and seven Hispanic Area Crusades were conducted this year. Hundreds of people made meaningful decisions for Christ.
Church Extension

Two Area Church Planters, a Church Planter Apprentice and a Church Planter Pastor work in our state. At least 23 new churches/missions and mission points have been established since October 1983. Our goal for the year was 41. Last year we exceeded our goal but this year we lagged behind. We will need to begin 57 new churches in 1985 to meet the goal of 125 churches during 1983-85. If every association has 1.4 new churches/missions begun this next year, we will reach our goal. We can do it and we must do it!

Campers on Mission

The Spring and Fall Rallies were held at the Little Axe Assigned Area of Clear Bay State Park.

The Spring Rally program included the Senior Adult Choir of Baptist Temple, Oklahoma City, Fran deCordova with a Backyard Bible Club presentation, and Robert Haskins led the training in the use of a marked New Testament in witnessing.

The Fall Rally featured the International Youth Choir from Northwest Baptist Church, Oklahoma City, Herman Lackey, Mission Service Corps volunteer, and a Senior Adult Choir from McLoud.

Resort Missions

More than 800 children attended Day Camp held by summer missionaries on the various lakes in Oklahoma this summer.

Through the summer mission program, associational programs and local church programs, witnessing ministries, Backyard Bible Clubs and Mission Vacation Bible Schools were provided in at least 15 recreational areas.

Christian Service Corps

At least 40 individuals and 17 groups (ranging from 5-50 persons) have assisted with more than 16 different mission projects in our state. Ten of the projects were building projects, two were Indian projects, and five were inner-city projects. More than 650 people came from Missouri, Texas, North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, Kentucky, and Oklahoma to assist. Oliver Barnes, State Construction Coordinator from Chattanooga, Oklahoma and Leonard Potter, Christian Service Corps volunteer from Guymon, coordinated the construction projects.

Chaplaincy

There are 84 chaplains serving in Oklahoma this year. They serve in hospitals, institutions, military, police and fire departments, etc.
A retreat for the Chaplains and their spouses was held on the Oklahoma Baptist University campus September 7 and 8. Carl Hart, Director of the Chaplaincy Division of the Home Mission Board, led the Bible studies. Dr. William Hendricks, Director of Doctoral Studies at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Kentucky, was guest speaker.

The 1984 officers of the Chaplains' Fellowship are: Gene Alder, president; Kim Mahn, vice-president; Bill Forester, secretary.

Interfaith Witness

The subjects studied were Mormonism, Jehovah's Witness, The Way International, Peyote, Roman Catholicism, the Charismatics, and World Religions.

Mission Service Corps

Seven Oklahomans have been assigned to mission projects in Oklahoma, California and Oregon. Their work includes Evangelism, BSU Directors, Volunteer coordinators and Mission Centers.

One person, Sharon Hardin from Kansas City, Missouri, has been assigned to the Oklahoma City Baptist Mission Center.

Black Church Relations

Five missionaries jointly employed by the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention and the Oklahoma Baptist State Convention work in the area of Black Church Relations. They are involved in student work, Christian education, church development and WMU. They are responsible for planning and promoting evangelism, Christian education, Bible study, youth camp and programs specifically planned for individual churches.

Seven students preparing for church vocations received Southern Baptist Convention Home Mission Board scholarships while attending college or seminary this year.

The School of Religion in Tulsa, with 10 learning centers across the state, had 1,398 adults enrolled in at least one course of study out of the 89 courses offered. There were 2,037 people reached with the study courses. There were 39 workshops and institutes held with 712 persons receiving certificates, diplomas and awards. Dr. Eddie Mabry is Dean of the School. Dr. Mabry participated in the National Baptist Mini-Congress of Christian Education for the Northeastern Area of the United States, delivering two major messages. The Congress was held in Newark, New Jersey, March 1-3, 1984.

Camp Burge had 25 Black youth attend camp. There were 21 rededications and five surrendered for special service. This camp which is co-sponsored by the Oklahoma Baptist State Convention and the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma continues to gradually develop.

Four BSU students from Langston University served as student summer missionaries in Tulsa, one in Oklahoma City and two outside of Oklahoma.

Miss Verlene Farmer, BSU Director, Langston University went to Fort Worth, Texas, June 1 at the invitation of Dr. Jimmy Allen to be an interview guest on the ACTS network show, “Life Today.” Her topic was what it has meant to walk with God.

Eleven persons from Langston University went to the 39th National Black BSU Retreat in Louisville, Kentucky, in March. Miss Farmer led two seminars at the National BSU Retreat, “How to Develop and Maintain an Effective Prayer Life.” There were students from all over the world there. Miss Farmer was presented an appreciation award for many years of outstanding service, commitment and dedication to the Baptist Student Union and her picture appeared on the front cover of the Baptist Messenger.

Church-Community Ministries

This is the Oklahoma name for the area of ministries which the Home Mission Board calls Christian Social Ministries.

Six missionaries appointed by the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention in cooperation with the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma and the local associations are serving in Tulsa and Oklahoma City. They are: associational directors of church-community ministries, Jack Bettis, Capital Association, and Richard Humble, Tulsa Association; directors of Baptist Mission Centers, Beverly Gray, Oklahoma City, and Valadean Gardner, Tulsa; and Women’s Shelter directors, Sharyan Utley, Tulsa, and Ravina Towe, of Oklahoma City.

The missionaries reported 344 professions of faith, 33 baptisms and 66 special decisions. There were 714 sermons and addresses during the year. Grace Rescue Mission reported approximately 21 per month on the rehabilitation program. Some 44,859 meals were provided transients and program people. Oklahoma City, Baptist Women’s Center reported that 27,926 meals were provided and 9,607 beds furnished for 853 women and children.

The Baptist Mission Center, Oklahoma City, reports that 26,308 pieces of clothing were distributed, 6,986 people helped with food, $112,880 worth of free medical care and $9,304 worth of free dental care provided.

Workers in literacy missions are continuing to be trained. All sections of the state have leaders who can lead workshops to train others in literacy missions. One statewide workshop was held during the year. The need for literacy missions volunteers continues to grow. Our state continues to attract internationals at an increased rate. Literacy missions is a great way to share the gospel.

PACT

Project: Assistance for Churches in Transitional Communities (PACT) is a Home Mission Board developed program to respond to a church’s request for help when it discovers itself located in a significant-changing community. PACT helps a church to rediscover its mission and to redream its dream as well as plan programs for reaching and ministering to the people in the church and its community.

Bob Lovejoy is the state PACT coordinator. He has helped two churches this year. One pastor has received training and has been certified to serve as PACT consultant. Either of these men are available to work with a church when invited to do so. Contact the Missions Department for more information.

Student Summer Missions

Forty-one college young people served for nine weeks in missions all across Oklahoma during the summer of 1984. They served in rural, inner city, language, resort, metropolitan and general missions in 16 different areas of the state. All except three came from colleges and universities in Oklahoma. Their work included surveys, Vacation Bible Schools, construction projects, backyard Bible clubs, mission center activities, Boy Scout Camp chaplains, resort missions, counselors in camps, language missions and a host of other responsibilities. Several of the students made commitments to full-time Christian service during the summer.

Refugee Sponsorship

Baptist churches are still being sought as sponsors for refugees who are seeking to come to our country. They are leaving their own country either for political or religious oppression. They must have sponsors before they are permitted to come to the United States. This year we have been asked to provide sponsorship for people from eastern Europe as well as Indo-Chinese people. Sponsorship provided an excellent opportunity for sharing Christ.

(3) Mrs. Frances Grafton—director of Woman's Missionary Union.

Woman's Missionary Union

Frances Grafton, Director

Emphasis for Woman's Missionary Union in 1983-84 was "Partnership in Prayer and Ministry." This emphasis was strengthened by the intercessory prayer book Holding the Ropes by Mrs. Keith Parks. Focus on mission action through WMU organizations motivated more meaningful activities.

Enlargement plan in Oklahoma ended September 31, 1984. We are grateful for the seven Starteam members and six WMU Pastor Consultants who contributed to this plan. Nationally during the three year period approximately 3,133 WMU organizations were begun.

We are now participating in the National WMU follow-up plan to the National Enlargement Plan entitled "Vision 88." Oklahoma's goal for "Vision 88" is 44,691. Our goal for 1984-85 is 39,730. Last year Oklahoma WMU increased by 706 bringing our total enrolment to 36,026.

Department status with BGCO has been for three years. Continuing to serve in the department are WMU Consultants, Lawana Roberts and Dorothy Thayer; Secretary to the Director, Eula Mae Stewart; and Receptionist-Secretary, Carleata Horton. Joining the secretarial staff, January, 1984 was Connie Webb.

Professor for Woman's Missionary Union/Oklahoma Baptist University in Sociology, Dr. Gary Farley, resigned August 31, 1984 to accept the position of Associate Director of the Rural-Urban Department with the Home Mission Board, Atlanta, Georgia. Dr. Farley served Oklahoma WMU since 1978. We are grateful for his capable assistance. Dr. Bob Agee, President, OBU, announced the new WMU/OBU Professor of Sociology to be Dr. Paul Rutledge. Dr. Rutledge has been serving as Assistant Professor and Chair-person of the Department of Sociologly, Anthropology and Social work at OBU. We welcome Dr. Rutledge in this capacity and look forward to working with him.

OBU class for religious vocation students was presented a series of presentations by the various departments of the convention. Oklahoma Woman's Missionary Union history and work was presented by Frances Grafton in April.
Spain/Oklahoma stewardship emphasis in May, 1984 provided opportunity for four WMU ladies to participate—Mrs. Perry Cox, Mrs. Virgil Landers, Mrs. J. T. Robison and Mrs. Frances Grafton. WMU was presented during the day and stewardship testimonies were shared in the evening services.

Oklahoma WMU director met with the Spain WMU president, Hilda Dorado de Simarro and vice-president, Encarnita Senda de Pastor. Spain WMU is planning to revise their WMU Manual. They requested 15 of our WMU Manuals in Spanish to use as a resource. A meeting with missionary June McNeely also strengthened relationships between Oklahoma WMU and Spain WMU.

Volunteers in Mission Workshop, May 19 was a learning experience. Dorothy Thayer presented the Big A Club material for use in volunteer mission work. This meeting is sponsored by Cooperative Missions, Brotherhood, Music and Woman’s Missionary Union Departments.

Annual Session of Woman’s Missionary Union, BGCO was held November 14-15 at Council Road Church, Bethany. This was the 78th WMU Annual Session. Girls in Action/Acteens Camps were held for six weeks at Camp Nunny Cha-ha, June 4-July 21. There were 754 resident campers, 38 professions of faith, 20 special service decisions and 75 rededications. The fourth of July week was used for “work week” since there were not enough reservations for a camp. This is the second year this has been done. During the week the camp director and staffers make plans for the following summer and actually do some of the ground work preparation that is required.

Improvements have been made to the staff house—carpet, fireplace, etc.

Two Mother/Daughter GA Camps were held for the first time. More requests for reservations were received than the camp could accommodate making it necessary to have two two-day camps. A total of 299 girls and their mothers attended.

Training for associational officers were provided at the State Training Meeting for Associational Officers, April 27-28 at Putnam City Church, Oklahoma City. The new book, A Baptist Association—Churches on Mission Together was taught to the entire group. Overview of the 1984-85 WMU Association was taught to 156 WMU leaders.

Approximately 60 men and women from different areas of the state attended to hear Nathan Porter from the Home Mission Board, Elmer West from the Foreign Mission Board and David Lockard from Christian Life Commission, SBC.

Falls Creek Assemblies had missionaries obtained by WMU to speak during the five weeks. The missionaries rotated to the different classes. They also participated in a Mission Fair each Tuesday afternoon.

WMU secured 12 staffers to assist in the children’s park for the five weeks.

Thirty MKs (missionary kids) enjoyed a retreat at Camp Nunny Cha-ha October 21-22, 1983. Dick Rader, OBU, lead in the program for the retreat.

The Season of Prayer for State Missions and Edna McMillan Offering was September 9-12. Woman’s Missionary Union secured writers for the program material, prepared the material for mailing to the churches and helped in the promotion. The 1984 theme is “Oklahoma on Missions.” The state goal is $470,000.

Scholarships were granted to 11 women to attend a Southern Baptist Seminary. This is made possible through the Edna McMillan Offering for State Missions.

(1) Baptist Messenger—Richard McCartney, editor.

The Baptist Messenger and Office of Communications

Richard T. McCartney, Editor

Circulation of the Baptist Messenger is at the highest level of its 72-year history. When the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma purchased the Messenger in 1919, the mailing list contained 5,000 names. Circulation at the beginning of September 1983 was 113,335. It grew to 117,199 this year.

One factor in circulation growth has been the ability to publish more local church editions of the state paper. Twelve more churches joined those using the front and back pages of the Messenger each week to publish their local news. The number of churches using special editions rose from 74 last year to 86 in 1984. In addition, four associations are using page 13 each week to publish associational news.

A special Care and Share section is published in the Messenger each month for the Child Care Department. Once each quarter a special edition is produced for the Baptist Retirement Centers, and space is made available for other areas of convention work from time to time. The section featuring the annual report of The Baptist Foundation in the August 23 issue is an example. These special sections were made possible with the addition in 1983 of a unit to the Messenger press.

In addition to the regular publication of current news and features of interest to Oklahoma Baptists, special promotion pages have been used by convention departments of work. These include: Brotherhood, Cooperative Missions, Evangelism, Ministerial Services, Music, Planning and Promotion, Religious Education and Woman’s Missionary Union.

Replacement of an old letterpress with a modern offset press has given better capability for printing books and promotional materials. This new equipment makes it possible to print in-house most of the materials needed by convention departments of work.

Subscription prices are expected to remain constant through 1985. The present rate of $3.50 per year for church budget subscriptions and $4.00 for individual subscriptions is possible because of continuing strong funding through the Cooperative Program. A slight increase in cost of special pages in 1985 will reflect added expense for negatives and plates.

Associate editor Fern Hurt retired early in 1984. A new associate, Norman Jameson, was assigned news reporting, feature writing and advertising responsibilities.

The assignment of the Baptist Messenger and Office of Communications is to keep Baptists informed about our cooperative work, and to inform all Oklahomans about the work of Oklahoma Baptists. Our staff seeks to use every appropriate means of communication to fulfill the assigned task. When every church sends the Baptist Messenger to every member family, church members will be better informed and our cooperative mission program will be stronger.

(2) Video/Media—Cade Garrison, director. The printed report is a part of the planning and promotion report.

(3) Baptist Book Store—Bill Polk, manager of the Tulsa Book Store.

The reports were approved.

68. Dick Rader, acting dean of School of Christian Service, OBU, and chariman of the Christian Life Committee presented the report.

Christian Life Committee
Dick Rader, Chairman

Daily newspaper headlines remind us of the many moral issues about which God's people ought to be knowledgeable and concerned. These problems in our society represent a part of the challenge to Christians who are to be salt and light to the world. To be ignorant of such problems as divorce, abortion, chemical dependency or child abuse, to name a few, is to neglect a part of our Christian responsibility to positively affect and influence our world. Even though we might never be touched by one of these problems personally we ought to have enough love for our neighbors and those whose lives are affected to learn about the problems and be able to influence society for Christ.

In an effort to help Oklahoma Baptists increase their awareness of some of these moral issues the following material is provided. Hopefully, these materials will help us begin to think more about our responsibilities as Christians. We would encourage churches and individuals to take advantage of the many publications from the Christian Life Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention, 460 James Robertson Parkway, Nashville, Tennessee 37219.

Separation of Church and State

The fundamental axiom of the soul competency of the individual before God in matters of religion requires the corollary of a free church in a free state. The issue of church-state relations is currently centered around the questions of prayer in public schools and tuition tax credits for private school patrons. These issues are not simple ones. There are emotional arguments raised by both sides. However, one of the tragic consequences of the current controversy is the dilemma of the Christian teacher in a public school. Because of the way some public school administrations have interpreted the decisions of the Supreme Court, school teachers are caught between their desire to give a Christian witness to their students and the Christian responsibility to be submissive to governmental authority. Questions have arisen about reading the Bible in class, sponsoring Christian organizations that meet on school property, witnessing personally to students, posting such things as the Ten Commandments, and producing Christian holiday programs featuring the nativity or the resurrection.

Since not all public school boards and administrations have the same interpretation to the Supreme Court rulings it is impossible to give a detailed set of guidelines for Christian teachers in public schools. However, some suggestions might be beneficial for all Christian teachers in public schools.

1) Remember that your most effective witness is through a consistent Christian life-style. The biblical injunction to be salt and light is always a means of ministering and witnessing. Life-style evangelism is especially effective for teachers who touch so many children from broken homes who are starved for love and acceptance.

2) Teaching moral values is needed and certainly within legal boundaries. Children need to learn that right is right because it is the best for them and society. You do not have to quote Scripture to tell a child that an action or behavior is wrong. Help children to see the values of moral living, as well as the problems of immoral behavior.

3) Show the place of religion in the history of America and in current life. Help children to have a respect for religious beliefs and realize the individual responsibility of each person in matters of religion.

4) Demonstrate an eagerness to follow the laws of the land despite the restrictions placed on you personally. Remember obedience to the law is a sound biblical witness.

5) Respect the beliefs of each individual student and parent, and be impartial and fair in your treatment of all children.

6) Privately pray for your pupils, fellow teachers and administrators. Seek opportunities away from school to witness to those who are lost and minister to those in need.

Citizenship

"Yes, I'm a citizen of the Kingdom of God, but I vote in Cook County, Illinois!" So answered evangelist D. L. Moody when asked about citizenship responsibility as a Christian. It is a facet of Christian witness to be concerned with, alert to, and involved in the practical issues of citizenship.

Every American carries the heritage of voting opportunity as a part of the privilege afforded by living in a democracy. Every Christian carries the challenge to apply the gospel of our Lord to all of life, including citizenship responsibility. To be a good citizen means to vote. But it also means more. Voting is only a step in fulfilling citizenship responsibility.

As Christian citizens we should be alert to issues. Be informed as to your legislators' positions on these issues. Get acquainted with your legislators and their staffs. Register your opinion by letter or telephone when it is needed. These actions every citizen should do.

As a Christian citizen, even more is required. Our personal opinions on political issues must be filtered through the gridwork of our Christian commitment and altered to the Kingdom perspective. Our communication with governmental leaders must be in keeping with the spirit of Christ. Beyond all else, the Christian citizen has the responsibility to pray. He should pray that as individuals our attitudes and actions will honor the Lord. He should also pray for governmental officials as they fulfill their duty. Pray for decision-makers to be led by God and that God will continue to bless our land and lead us to bless the lives of others.

We encourage all Oklahoma Baptists to be good citizens this year and in the years to come as part of our faithfulness to Jesus the Lord.

Divorce

The problem of divorce has reached epidemic proportions. Not only has this tragedy become rampant throughout society, the once-safe refuge of the church congregation is also feeling the tearing asunder of even Christian homes. Congregations are being forced to face the fact, although they believe divorce is not a biblical solution, that there are many church members who have suffered from divorce. While the interpretation of Scripture concerning the sinfulness of divorce has not changed, the reality of broken and shattered homes continually presents a need for compassion and forgiveness from God's people. More and more we are called to forgive as we have been forgiven and welcome into our fellowship those who have been divorced. However, it should be reiterated that the increase in divorce and the need for forgiveness should never weaken the message from the pulpit that God's ideal for marriage is one man and one woman joined in a one-flesh relationship for life.

The tragedy of divorce has also been experienced by some ministers. One writer has estimated that the number of divorces occurring among the clergy has quadrupled in the last 25 years. Analysts have compiled many lists giving reasons for such statistics. Others have offered lists of helpful suggestions for reducing the tension and preventing divorces, especially among pastors and church staff members.

Pastors and staff members must give their marriage and family a high priority in their ministry. We need to remember that God has given us marriage partners as a part of our ministry and children as responsibilities for ministry. Church business and the demands of individual church members should not become more important than the needs of one's wife and family. It is a poor excuse to say we must take care of "the Lord's work" while we deny our own families a spiritual leader and companion. Perhaps we ought to remember that if we lose our family we will probably lose our ministry.
Those in areas of spiritual leadership also need to recognize their need for counsel. Even though pastors usually give counsel to many people, they often do not recognize their personal need for the same kind of help they give others. Pastors and others should seek out those who are available, either a professional or a close friend, who will listen and offer help.

Churches must also face this issue and not place unnecessary demands on their pastor and his family. Church members need to be sensitive to the hurts of their ministry staff and their families, as well as understanding and forgiving. Ministers and their families are people, too.

Many local congregations may have to work through such difficult questions such as divorce and the office of deacon, calling a pastor who has been divorced and remarried, and retaining a pastor who suffers a divorce. These and other issues need to be faced with honesty through examination of the biblical material.

The Gambling Issue

The temptation to seek "something for nothing" is not limited to individual greed. The current nationwide push for the increased legalization of gambling is a reflection of corporate greed clothed in the suit of governmental concerns.

There appears to be a growing moral laxity regarding the wrongness of gambling. Perhaps an overview of how gambling is contrary to the spirit of the Scriptures would be helpful.

1. God's Word demands love of God and neighbor (Matthew 22:37-40) but gambling contradicts such love by its self-centered interest.

2. God's Word condemns covetousness and materialism (Matthew 6:24-34) which is at the heart of the gambling process.

3. God's Word repudiates theft (Matthew 19:18) and gambling is theft by mutual consent.

4. God's Word encourages honest work (Ephesians 4:28; II Thessalonians 3:10-12) while gambling encourages an attitude of something for nothing.

5. God's Word demands stewardship of life as well as of possessions (Matthew 6:33; Romans 14:12; Colossians 3:17) while gambling rejects the concept of stewardship.

6. God's Word demands the worship of God alone (Exodus 20:3) and recognition of His sovereignty (Matthew 10:29-30) while gambling is the worship of luck.

While we work at educating ourselves and our children on the inherent dangers of gambling we also need to be responsible citizens. As our state legislative process continues, let us keep alert to any move that furthers legalizing gambling in Oklahoma. Gambling proponents, encouraged by the legalization of parimutuel gambling in Oklahoma, were soundly defeated as the state legislature rejected a proposal to establish a state lottery for Oklahoma. However, this issue must continue to be watched closely by all Oklahomans.
A state operated lottery would put our fair state in the sorry position of encouraging its citizens to gamble. It would make our state government a "super bookie" promoting illusions and preying upon the weakness of its citizens. Let each Oklahoma Baptist pledge to do all that is possible to keep such a tragedy from occurring here.

County residents must also be alert to and work against efforts to establish parimutuel gambling in local county option elections. There is also a need for legislation to reform the present system of allowing frequent county option elections.

World Hunger

God's Word says, "Feed me with the food that is my portion" (Proverbs 30:8). Food is God's gift and adequate for all within the context of a rightful portion. But inequities and injustices have led to hunger and starvation among the world's population.

The extent of hunger is almost beyond comprehension. Statistics from the Christian Life Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention reveal that nearly one billion people, almost one of every four people on earth, live in a state of absolute poverty. Almost 20 million people die each year of starvation or hunger-related illnesses. About 12 million of them are children who will die before they reach the age of five. Each day about 30,000 children starve to death. Twenty-eight people die of starvation each minute. More people starve to death in three days than were killed in Hiroshima. Starvation has killed more people in the last five years than all of the wars, revolutions, and murders of the last century.

Hunger does not always kill, but it has crippling, scarring power. The brain accomplishes 80% of its growth in the first three years of life. Fifty percent of the dry weight of the brain tissue is protein. Without proper food intake, brain growth stops. No amount of food later in life can repair the damage. Bone deformities from lack of vitamin D cannot be corrected. Pain and lethargy from hunger are symptoms experienced by the starving and then contribute on the ongoing hunger cycle.

A worldwide phenomenon, hunger is an overwhelming problem of the world society. In an effort to focus on Southern Baptist efforts, ministries, and resources in the area, the Christian Life Committee of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, in cooperation with the Brotherhood and WMU Departments, sponsored a World Hunger Consultation in response to a request from the Convention’s Board of Directors. It was held July 6, 1984, on the campus of Oklahoma Baptist University. The program personnel and their topics were as follows:

A Theology of Enough—Dan Day, pastor, FBC, McAlester
Confronted by a Hungry World—David Lockard, CLC, SBC
Panel: "What Are We Doing?"
Moderator, Lyle Garlow—BGCO
Foreign Missions Board, Elmer West
Home Mission Board, Nathan Porter
Christian Life Commission, David Lockard
Panel: Practical Application
Moderator, Gary Farley—OBU Professor
What can I do?—Sam Porter
What can my church do?—William H. Cook
What can my association do?—Sue Stephens

Representatives from the various associations of the state were in attendance and encouraged to reproduce similar awareness consultations in their communities.

Associations and churches are encouraged to order materials and program suggestions for local World Hunger Consultations from the Brotherhood Department of the BGCO.

Chemical Dependency

Chemical dependency ranks with heart disease and cancer as our country's three major health problems. Chemical dependency is defined as a treatable, progressive condition resulting from the use of chemicals to the extent of causing continuing adverse effect upon the individual, the family, and the community.

The most prominent form of chemical dependency is alcoholism. While one third of Americans over the age of 14 do not drink, a recent study by the U.S. Department of Human Services indicates that the other "two thirds consume enough alcohol for every person in the country to annually have 591 cans of beer, 115 bottles of wine, or 35 fifths of whiskey."2

There are some 12 million persons who are dependent on alcohol, nearly 25 percent of whom are teenagers.3 These are increasing in number at the rate of 300,000 per year. For every alcohol-dependent person, 10 other people are affected. Interpreting national figures into local church context, one out of every six church families will be affected by chemical dependency.

Nationally, alcohol dependency is responsible for the following:
150,000 deaths per year
25,000 deaths and 700,000 injuries related to drunk driving alone
80% of all home violence
30% of all suicides
60% of all child abuse
50% of juvenile delinquency
34% of all arrests.

Alcohol is a primary cause of economic loss in our nation. The Office of Technology Assessment of the U.S. Congress reported that authoritative estimates of economic loss due to alcohol in 1982 ranged from $72 to $120 billion dollars.4

Alcohol ranks second only to Alzheimer's disease as a cause of mental deterioration in adults. It is a major factor in liver and heart disease, and is the third-leading cause of birth defects. If untreated, the progressive nature of alcohol dependency leads to mental damage, physical incapacity, and premature death by some 10 to 12 years. Because of neglect springing from denial, only five to 10 percent of alcohol-dependents recover.
Having acknowledged the extent and severity of chemical dependency, how can Christians respond redemptively?

First, practice and stress abstinence as the best means to prevent chemical dependency.

Second, exercise citizenship responsibilities in order to maintain the strictest control of chemicals, especially alcohol, and its availability to the community. Consistently voting to defeat liquor-by-the-drink legislation, supporting government officials who oppose expanded use and advertisement of chemicals, and insisting upon the strict enforcement of existing laws regulating its use are examples.

Third, recognize possible factors that may contribute to the propensity toward chemical dependency, such as genetic predisposition and dysfunctional family systems.

Fourth, relate in the name of Christ to chemical dependents and their families with empathy and compassion.

Fifth, refer dependents and their families to reputable programs of rehabilitation.

Sixth, provide a wide range of ministries designed to encourage and enhance Christian family relationships.

The Lord’s Day

Jesus' resurrection on the first day of the week set forth the Christian Sabbath better known as the Lord’s Day or Sunday. Our culture knows it better as the last day of the weekend.

God intended for the Lord’s Day to be a special day set apart from all other days. It was to affect the life of man, his labor, his helpers, and all he owned.

God created time (Genesis 1:1ff) and He created everything to exist according to His timetable. Man is to live in the framework of God’s time on earth. God saw that all He had done in six days was good and He blessed His creation, then He rested on the seventh day. God also blessed the seventh day and set it apart from all other days.

Man was commanded to honor the Sabbath Day as a day of rest from his toil and to renew his spiritual life with God. According to our Creator's specifications, man needs one day in seven to rest and be refreshed for his six days of labor.

Jesus honored the Sabbath Day according to the Jewish law and He went to the Temple or Synagogue to worship. Jesus taught the true meaning of the Sabbath Day over against the Pharisees’ legalistic teachings of the laws when He taught that the Sabbath was made for man and not man for the Sabbath.

Man and his society are blessed when they use the Lord's Day according to God's purpose. However, when men and society defy God’s purpose they inevitably come under the judgment of God.

As Christians, we must encourage one another in keeping the Lord’s Day as a holy day unto the Lord for rest and worship. We must remember the words from Hebrews 10:25, “Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another; and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.”

We recognize that in our society it is necessary for some Christians to work on Sundays because of providing essential services or simply to have employment. Therefore, we encourage our churches to find creative ways of ministering to those who do not choose to work on the Lord’s Day but find it necessary.

We further encourage Christians to honor the Lord’s Day, not only in worship, but also in refraining from business ventures which are unnecessary and which cause others to labor on the Lord’s Day. Certainly, Christians can make a difference in this society.

The Problem of Discharged Staff Members

In Southern Baptist Churches in Oklahoma

Southern Baptist churches are self-governing, autonomous bodies which do not have an ecclesiastical system for the appointing or discharging of church staff. The local church, under the direction of the Holy Spirit, selects “God called” ministers to lead them. The church then has the responsibility under God to pray for and to support their pastor and staff.

Records from the office of Ministerial Services show that 63 pastors and one staff person were terminated by the churches they served in Oklahoma during 1983. This number does not include those who were near termination and were successful in relocating.

It appears that the average pastorate in Southern Baptist churches in Oklahoma is approximately 2 1/2 years and even less for staff members. It is noted that the rate of turn-over is much greater in churches averaging fewer than 100 in Sunday School. Not all of the pastors who leave churches do so because they have been asked to leave. Smaller churches face difficulties keeping their pastors for other reasons as well.

Studies also show that when a church does terminate a pastor, the next pastor does not generally stay very long. It has also been discovered that those churches who terminate a staff person either have terminated others before or have become a “high risk” church for future terminations.

Pastors and staff persons have a command from the Lord to care for the church. The needs of the local church will become evident as each servant seeks to know his people and to serve them well. They should continue to sharpen their skills to become the best possible leaders for their people.

The local church should prayerfully consider the long-term effects that a forced termination can bring both to the church and to the persons affected. When problems arise the biblical answer is reconciliation.

The Associational Director of Missions usually is available upon request to assist churches and staff members in distress. He is well equipped and usually has the experience needed to assist when problems arise.

The Office of Ministerial Service offers further assistance upon request. This office along with the "Ministerial Crisis Committee" provides a ministry which includes:

1. Counseling services for ministers and families
2. Relocation possibilities
3. Limited financial assistance
4. A support ministry
5. A ministry of counseling and assistance to the church

Various conferences are held throughout the year to assist the staff member and churches toward a better understanding of the role of the minister and the church. Through these resources and aids it is hoped that many persons and churches will be helped as they seek to accomplish God's will in reaching people for Christ.

Crime and Law Enforcement

Respect for the law and those who enforce it is necessary for any society to survive. No free society can long endure where its citizens condone lawlessness or the majority of its citizens become lawless.

The scriptures teach; "Everyone must submit himself to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except that which God has established. The authorities that exist have been established by God. Consequently, he who rebels against the authority is rebelling against what God has instituted, and those who do so will bring judgment on themselves," (Rom. 13:1, 2 NIV).

Teaching respect for the law is the responsibility of the home, church, and the school. Each person should, by word and example, teach the succeeding generation the necessity of a "law abiding" society. Those who show disrespect for the law have previously "learned" this attitude from others. Persons are not "born criminals," they learn by association and attitudes expressed through others.

Law enforcement officers and their families are to be commended for their sometimes thankless task. We should be faithful to pray for "those in authority, that we might live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness," (I Tim. 2:2 NIV).

The ethics of law enforcement officers requires them to "enforce the law without fear or favor." Those who break the law are law breakers and should be prepared to pay the consequences, regardless of who they are.

Therefore, we demand that law enforcement officers faithfully apply their code of ethics to enforce the law. We further encourage Christian citizens to faithfully abide by all laws and support those who enforce them.

Abortion

The Christian Life Committee wishes to commend the Child Care Department of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma for their excellent work in providing "An Alternative to Abortion." We also commend those churches and individuals who have helped expectant mothers through difficult times of adjustment.

The Christian Life Committee reaffirms our belief in the sanctity of life and our disapproval of abortion on demand.

Corresponding statistics reveal there were 8,323 adult age abortions performed by legal means in 1982. In one year there were 11,694 lives taken by legal abortions in Oklahoma. That is like annihilating the total number of residents in the city of Guthrie or the total number of residents in Marshall County.

We, therefore, urge our churches, pastors and parents to give serious and prayerful consideration of this most serious matter.

We urge that the biblical teachings concerning life and death, and sexual morality be taught to our people of accountable ages both in our churches and in our homes. We further urge our Baptist people to promote the use of the services offered by the Child Care Department and offer to assist that department in giving care to women in need of “an alternative to abortion.”

The report was approved.

72. Hugo Lindquist, pastor, Bethel Church, Oklahoma City, made a motion that the convention look with favor in 1985 to dismissing the Wednesday evening session of the annual meeting and that the closing session be on Thursday morning. Following discussion, the motion was defeated.

73. Election of officers:
   (1) President—
       A. Keith Wiginton, pastor, First Church, Altus, nominated Wendell Estep, pastor, Council Road Church, Bethany.
       B. Bailey Smith, pastor, First Southern Church, Del City, nominated Steve Boehning, pastor, Immanuel Church, Shawnee.
C. Bob Green, pastor, Arrow Heights Church, Broken Arrow, nominated, Paul Box, pastor, First Church, Moore.

The vote was taken by secret ballot. While they were being counted, further business was conducted.

(2) Gene Thomas, recording secretary, was re-elected by acclamation.

(3) Eugene Stockwell, assistant recording secretary, was re-elected by acclamation.

(4) J. M. Gaskin was re-elected as director of history by acclamation.

74. Raymond McDowell moved that the Program Committee be asked to plan the 1985 convention program to begin on Tuesday afternoon and conclude with the Wednesday evening session.

The motion was approved.

75. Jerry Fielder made a motion that the Resolutions Committee report be dispensed with for this convention. Discussion followed.

The motion failed to pass.

76. Chairman David Forester, director of missions in Caddo Association, and others presented the report of the Resolutions Committee.

(1) Robert Scales, pastor emeritus of Trinity Church, Oklahoma City presented a resolution that had been received from a student at Oklahoma Baptist University. The title of the resolution was: "Illegality of Marriage by Non-ordained Southern Baptist Ministers in the State of Oklahoma." Dr. Scales explained that it was not the responsibility of the Resolutions Committee to determine this. Through the Office of Ministerial Services, the convention has made available a tract "Marriage Laws in Oklahoma." The tract states: "Traditionally Southern Baptists have accepted the ordination to preach the gospel as proper credentials to perform marriage ceremonies." It was felt that convention action was not needed since the matter is dealt with in the tract.

77. Additional resolutions were presented:

(1) WHEREAS, the Council Road Church of Bethany, Oklahoma, its pastor, Wendell Estep, the staff, the employees, and members have provided excellent facilities for the 79th annual session of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma;

BE IT RESOLVED that Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma wishes to express our appreciation for all those who worked so diligently in preparation of this Convention;

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we commend the Council Road Church and staff for hosting our Convention in such a gracious manner.

to the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma. They have endeavored to guide these proceedings with wisdom and have splendidly served us.

The recommendation was approved.

(3) WHEREAS, God has greatly used Dr. Joe Ingram, and our BGCO staff, in aid to our local churches and advancing the cause of Christ, and,

WHEREAS, the need for the respective ministries grows greater day by day, and,

WHEREAS, they have demonstrated a true servant’s heart in sacrificial leadership,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that this Convention express thanks, appreciation, and sustain them in their work by pledging to pray for them, and assist in whatever way we can.

The recommendation was approved.

(5) WHEREAS, liquor-by-the-drink in Oklahoma was legalized in an election this year by a very small margin as the result of a most effective campaign against its passage,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the messengers to the 1984 Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma express their appreciation to Richard T. McCartney, chairman, Marlin Hawkins, treasurer, and all members of the “Oklahoma Is OK” Committee; Don Chaffin, executive director of SANE, and Joe L. Ingram, executive director-treasurer of the Baptist General Convention, for giving leadership to the state-wide campaign; and to all the local, county and community leaders, and citizens who worked and voted against this evil.

BE IT ALSO RESOLVED that wherever county option votes are conducted, that we encourage the residents to strive diligently to defeat the legalizing of liquor-by-the-drink in the individual counties.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we urge all citizens to support the enforcement of any laws that are enacted to prohibit or control the manufacture, distribution and consumption of alcoholic beverages within the state of Oklahoma.

(1) Warren C. Hultgren, pastor of First Church, Tulsa, nominated Joe C. Knowles, pastor of First Church, Sapulpa.

(2) Charles Graves, pastor of Nichols Hills Church, Oklahoma City, nominated Brad Allen, pastor of First Church, Duncan.
(3) Brad Allen was elected.

81. Election of second vice-president:

(1) Forrest Lowery, pastor of First Church, Miami, nominated Ron Fellemende, pastor of First Church, Enid.

WHEREAS, the Southern Baptist Convention has previously decided to go to Las Vegas, that we, as Oklahoma Baptists, take every means to share the gospel of Jesus Christ in personal evangelism, and to be available to participate with the churches of Nevada through an evangelistic effort.

The recommendation was approved.

(2) WHEREAS, the Cooperative Program receipts from our Oklahoma churches in 1978 were $8,254,552, and,

WHEREAS, our Executive Director-Treasurer, Dr. Joe L. Ingram, had this vision, and recommended that the Cooperative Program giving be doubled by 1985 reaching a 50-50 division between BGCO and SBC, and

WHEREAS, as Oklahoma churches have responded to this challenge, and, will be the first state convention in the 60-year history of the Cooperative Program to reach this division,

BE IT RESOLVED, that, in order to make this objective a reality in 1985, that Oklahoma Baptist churches be encouraged to increase their budget percentages through the Cooperative Program, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we heartily commend our Executive Director-Treasurer for his vision and leadership in giving direction to this historic peak in missions percentage giving.

The recommendation was approved.

The above is a simplified treasurer's report. A complete certified audit of all Convention work, including institutions, will appear in the 1984 Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma Annual to be released about June 15, 1985, a copy of which will be sent free to every co-operating Baptist church in Oklahoma. The Annual will be mailed to the church in care of the pastor and will be available to every individual for study.

ANNUAL OF THE BAPTIST

SALARY INFORMATION

Since the auditor's report does not give salaries of all elected employees, we are printing the salaries and benefits of department directors and associate department directors. Salaries of secretaries and other convention employees are in line with those doing similar work in the Oklahoma City area.

Salary and Fringe Benefits Explanation

Every employee receives a basic salary plus fringe benefits. The base salary may be divided as follows:

Cash
House Allowance (if ordained)
Various Annuity Board Plans

Fringe benefits include comprehensive medical insurance, long-term disability insurance, life insurance, accident insurance, dependent life insurance and retirement (10 percent of base salary). For unordained persons, the convention pays employer's part of Social Security.

Here are two samples from 1985 salary schedules. Annual base pay for department directors is $34,757.68 and for associates $28,693.92.

Employees who travel are reimbursed for their expenses when on convention business. The budgets carry a line item for the cost of leasing and insuring cars. There is an additional line item for other travel expenses which includes gas, oil, lodging, etc.
LONGEVITY PAY SCHEDULE

The Board of Directors of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma approved a longevity pay schedule for employees on May 15, 1978. A separate line in the budgets indicate the longevity pay in order to clearly identify the base salary level which is the same for all employees with similar responsibilities.

Rationale Considered by Board of Directors

1. Presently, all employees are employed at the same salary for similar jobs.
2. Recognition for previous experience and skills is presently taken into account by beginning the employee at the same salary as his or her predecessor.
3. Short-term employees cost the BGCO repeated hours of training, moving expenses, etc.
4. A person becomes more valuable as he or she continues serving the BGCO.
5. There are a minimum number of positions in the BGCO and a person of ability, etc. often is limited in opportunities to move up in the organization to a higher salaried job. Longevity pay would help compensate at this point.
6. Recognition for continuous years of service could be accomplished through a longevity pay schedule that:
   1) Acknowledges the completion of 3 years with a $200 base longevity compensation.
   2) Increases each succeeding year with .2 percent of the salary, per year for each year beyond three years added to the base.
7. This suggested plan gives advantage to lower salaried persons by using the $200 base for all persons.
8. The plan also gives credibility to longevity pay for higher salaried persons by using a percent of base salary for the annual increase.

AUDIT
December 31, 1984

By

Certified Public Accountants
Board of Directors
Baptist General Convention of
The State of Oklahoma
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

We have examined the fund balance sheet of THE EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF BAPTIST GENERAL CONVENTION OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA as of December 31, 1984 and the related statements of support and revenue, expenses and capital additions and changes in fund balances, functional expenses, and changes in financial position for the year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The title "The Executive Office of Baptist General Convention of The State of Oklahoma" represents only one segment of the operations of Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, and does not include other operations of the Convention as explained in Note 1 to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly the financial position of The Executive Office of Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma at December 31, 1984, and the results of its operations and changes in financial position for the year then ended, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year after giving effect to the changes, with which we concur, in the reporting format and method of accounting for restricted revenue, as described in Note 10 to the financial statements.

Our examination was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplementary financial information is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examination of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Operations—Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma was organized for the purpose of fostering Baptist denominational activities in the State of Oklahoma, and to receive and disburse funds as provided by the various contributors. It was incorporated without capital stock under Oklahoma law. Its first Articles of Incorporation were filed in May, 1917, for a term of twenty years with subsequent amendments providing for an organization in perpetuity.

Administrative activities of Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma are conducted by The Executive Office of Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma.

Composition of Reporting Entity—The accompanying financial statements include only operations designated as “The Executive Office of Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma.”

Assets, liabilities, fund balances and results of operations of the following owned organizations, operated and reported as separate organizations, are not included:

1. Baptist Retirement Center, Hugo, Oklahoma
2. Baptist Retirement Center, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

Basis of Accounting—The financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

Fund Accounting—Separate funds have been established to achieve a proper segregation and fair presentation of those resources available for use at the discretion of the governing board (unrestricted funds) and of those resources over which the board has little, if any, discretion as to use because of externally imposed restrictions (restricted and endowment funds). The following funds have been established for the Convention:

* Current Unrestricted Fund—This fund accounts for all resources over which the governing board has discretionary control to use in carrying on the operations of the Convention.
* Current Restricted Fund—These funds account for those resources currently available for use, but expendable only for operating purposes specified by the donors.
* Plant Fund—This fund accumulates the net investment in fixed assets and accounts for the unexpended resources contributed specifically for the purpose of acquiring or replacing land, buildings, or equipment for use in the operations of the organization. Mortgages or other liabilities relating to these assets are also included in this fund.
* Endowment Fund—This fund represents the principal amount of gifts and bequests accepted with the donor-stipulation that the principal be maintained intact in perpetuity, until the occurrence of a specified event, or for a specified period, and that only the income from investment thereof be expended either for general purposes or for purposes specified by the donor.

Inventories—Inventories of office and printing supplies and items held for resale at Camps Hudgens and Nunny Chah-a are stated at the lower of cost or market.

Inventories of livestock, poultry, and feed at the boys’ ranch and farm are stated at a nominal value. These items have either been grown or have been contributed and therefore, have no cost value.

Property and Equipment—The Convention capitalizes property and equipment with a cost or fair market value at date of donation of $500 or more. Depreciation was recorded on the straight-line method from dates of acquisition or donation. The lives generally used are:

- Land improvements: 20-40 years
- Buildings: 20-50 years
- Furniture and office equipment: 4-10 years
- Automobiles and machinery: 4-10 years

Revenue Recognition—Revenue of the Baptist General Convention consists primarily of voluntary contributions from Baptist churches throughout the State of Oklahoma. The donor may designate its use by the Baptist General Convention. Such designated (restricted) contributions are recognized as revenue when the obligation imposed by the restriction has been met.

Investments and Endowments—The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma was created as an agency of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma for the purpose of receiving and managing all trust funds and all property, real, personal, or mixed, for endowment purposes. Only those funds held by the Foundation for “The Executive Office of Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma” are included in this report. These funds include designated endowment contributions and earnings on such contributions, and restricted funds held for the Convention. The contributed assets are reflected herein at the fair market value at date of contribution.

9. Deferred Life Estates

Certain duplexes were constructed by donors on land owned by the Tulsa Baptist Village in Owasso. These duplexes were donated to the Village and the donors have a rent-free life estate in the duplexes. The duplexes were capitalized at a value approximating total construction costs, and are being depreciated over their estimated useful lives. The deferred liability for the life estates, representing future rentals to be provided, is reduced annually for rentals, based upon the donors’ life expectancy. At December 31, 1984 and 1983, the deferred life estates totaled $636,891 and $324,967, respectively. The original capitalized value was $689,000 and $345,000 for the two years.

10. Change in Reporting Format

The Convention has changed its reporting format to more clearly reflect its available resources and expenditures, and to conform with Statement of Position No. 78-10, "Accounting Principles and Reporting Practices for Certain Nonprofit Organizations," issued by the Accounting Standards Division of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

Activities previously reported as separate funds have been grouped to reflect the availability of those funds for current operations and to give recognition to externally imposed restrictions (See Note 1, Fund Accounting). In addition, the restricted portion of funds held by the Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma, totaling $3,531,261 at January 1, 1984, has been reclassified as deferred revenue of the restricted fund in accordance with the accounting treatment specified for unexpended restricted resources. A portion of the earnings on the unrestricted funds held by the Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma (totaling $477,280 at January 1, 1984), are not distributed to the Convention but are reinvested with the Foundation. In prior periods these undistributed earnings were not included in reported investment income for the period in which they were earned.

Although data is not currently available to restate the restricted portion of funds or reinvested funds held by the Foundation at January 1, 1983 or investment income for the year ended December 31, 1983, fund balances as of January 1, 1984 have been restated in accordance with the reporting format adopted for the year ended December 31, 1984.

The following is a schedule of the separate funds as previously reported at December 31, 1983, and their reclassifications into the fund groupings used for 1984.

The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma (Incorporated)
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
AS OF DECEMBER 31, 1984
Together With Auditor’s Report Thereon

By
YOUNG, JONES & BATTLES
Certified Public Accountants
To the Board of Directors
The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma

We have examined the statement of assets and liabilities arising from cash transactions and contributions received of THE BAPTIST FOUNDATION OF OKLAHOMA as of December 31, 1984 and the related statement of support and revenue collected, expenses paid and changes in fund balances and of changes in funds arising from cash transactions and contributions received for the year then ended. Our examinations were made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

As described in Note 1, the Foundation's policy is to prepare its financial statements on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements, except that they include a provision for depreciation of equipment. Consequently, certain revenue and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above, present fairly the assets and liabilities of The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma arising from cash transactions and contributions received as of December 31, 1984 and the support and revenue collected, expense paid, and changes in fund balances and the changes in funds arising from cash transactions and contributions received for the year then ended, on the basis of accounting described in Note 1, which basis has been consistently applied.

Our examination was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplementary information included in Schedules I and II is presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examinations of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

NOTE 1—SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

General—The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma (the Foundation) is a private, nonprofit religious association chartered by the State of Oklahoma on October 31, 1946 for perpetual existence without capital stock. Its creation was approved by the Baptist General Convention to administer funds and property received by gift, devise, bequest, or otherwise in order to assist and promulgate the furtherance of the Convention and to promote Baptist doctrines, evangelism, Christian education, and both home and foreign mission work.

Basis of Accounting—The financial statements of the Foundation have been prepared on the basis of cash receipts and disbursements except that they include a provision for depreciation of equipment and depletion on mineral properties. Major expenditures for equipment are capitalized at cost while donated property and equipment are capitalized at fair market value at the date of the gift. Depreciation of equipment in the Operating Fund is provided for over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets on a straight-line basis. No provision is made for depreciation of rental and other properties carried as investments in the Trust and Endowment Fund.

Fund Accounting—To insure observance of limitations and restrictions placed on the use of resources available to the Foundation, the accounts of the Foundation are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting. This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds established according to their nature and purposes. The assets, liabilities and fund balances of the Foundation are reported in two self-balancing funds as follows:

Operating Fund—The Operating Fund is designed to account for resources which are expendable for support of Foundation operations and for the acquisition of equipment.

Trust and Endowment Fund—The Trust and Endowment Fund is comprised of resources received by gift, devise, bequest, or otherwise that are subject to restrictions of the gift or trust instrument. The trust funds are custodial in nature and require that distributions be made to the designated beneficiaries. Endowment funds account for assets received under the stipulation of the donors that the principal be invested and that only the income be used for the designated purposes until a specified time or occurrence, or in perpetuity.

In addition to the Operating Fund and the Trust and Endowment Fund, five investment pools have been established for convenience in managing the resources entrusted to the Foundation. The five investment pools are as follows:

(A) Church Building Loan Pool—accounts for funds loaned to churches.
(B) Fixed Income Pool—accounts for funds invested in bonds and preferred stocks.
(C) Equity Pool—accounts for funds invested in common stocks.
(D) Short-Term Pool—accounts for funds invested in government securities.
(E) Real Estate Pool—accounts for funds used in the acquisition and management of real estate.

Annuities—The Foundation accepts gifts made in trust for various Baptist agencies and institutions which require the Foundation to pay the donors substantially the equivalent of interest on the amount of the gift during the lifetime of the donor. The Foundation also accepts trusts naming individuals as lifetime beneficiaries rather than Baptist agencies and institutions. A specified portion of the income of these trusts is disbursed to the individuals during their lifetime, and upon their death, the trusts are to be administered for the benefit of the Baptist agencies or institutions as designated.

Annuities and individual trusts are included herein at an amount equal to the book value of their assets. Due to the Foundation’s use of the cash basis of accounting, no attempt has been made to compute any liability in connection with these funds for future payments to beneficiaries.

Appropriation for Corpus Preservation—For certain endowments, the Foundation appropriates a portion of the income to preserve the value of the corpus. Such appropriation is included in nonexpendable fund balance. This appropriation is generally for endowments with depletable assets such as mineral properties, but may also be specified for other endowments. Various methods are used to calculate the amount to be appropriated.

Income Taxes—The Foundation is exempt from income taxes under Section 501 (C) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Throughout the year the Foundation makes distributions either directly to these organizations or on their behalf. The Foundation also receives funds from these organizations, both to administer for their benefit and to support the Foundation's operations.

The Foundation receives appropriations from the Cooperative Program of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma. Appropriation for the year ended December 31, 1984 was $308,996.

The Foundation makes loans to Baptist churches to finance the construction of church buildings. These loans are secured by first mortgages on the buildings constructed and require personal endorsements of church representatives. The lives of these loans vary from 10 to 15 years. Interest rates are set at the approximate current rate available from commercial sources. The balances of church building loans outstanding at December 31, 1984 was $20,721,734.

NOTE 7—PENSION PLAN

All employees of the Foundation are eligible to participate in a defined contribution pension plan administered by the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. Under the plan, the Foundation contributes an amount equal to 10% of participating employees' salaries. Employee contributions are voluntary. Total pension expense for the year ended December 31, 1984 was $38,037. The Foundation's policy is to fund pension cost as it is incurred.

NOTE 8—COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

On May 18, 1984, the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors of the Foundation authorized the President to co-sign an interim financing construction loan from a local bank for $1,500,000 on behalf of a member church. Upon completion of the construction phase of the project, the Foundation will provide the church with the long-term financing needed.

By
Engelbach Roberts and Company
Certified Public Accountants
We have examined the fund balance sheets of THE OKLAHOMA BAPTIST UNIVERSITY as of July 31, 1984 and 1983, and the related statements of changes in fund balances and of current fund revenues, expenditures, and other changes for the year ended July 31, 1984. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly the financial position of The Oklahoma Baptist University as of July 31, 1984 and 1983 and the changes in the fund balances and the current fund revenues, expenditures and other changes for the year ended July 31, 1984, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Our examination was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplementary financial information on pages 16 through 23 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examination of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Accrual Basis—The financial statements of The Oklahoma Baptist University have been prepared on the accrual basis except for depreciation as explained later in this note. The statements of current fund revenues and expenditures are statements of financial activities of current funds related to the current reporting period. They do not purport to present the results of operations or the net income or loss for the period as would a statement of income or a statement of revenues and expenses.

To the extent that current funds are used to finance plant assets, the amounts so provided are accounted for as expenditures in the case of additions and normal replacement of buildings, equipment, library books and debt service.

The library is valued at cost for books, periodicals, and microform acquired during the past ten years, plus an estimated replacement cost of $5 per volume for those volumes which have been in the collection longer than ten years. Library acquisitions totaled approximately $60,000 for the current year.

Inventories consist of book store supplies for resale and maintenance supplies. These are priced at cost, generally on a first-in, first-out basis.

Fund Accounting—In order to ensure observance of limitations and restrictions placed on the use of the resources available to the University, the accounts of the University are maintained in accordance with the principles of “fund accounting.” This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting into funds in accordance with activities or objectives specified. Separate accounts are maintained for each fund; however, in the accompanying financial statements, funds that have similar characteristics have been combined into fund groups. Accordingly, all financial transactions have been recorded and reported by fund group.

Externally restricted funds may only be utilized in accordance with the purposes established by the source of such funds and are in contrast with unrestricted funds over which the governing board retains full control to use in achieving any of its institutional purposes.

Endowment funds are subject to the restrictions of gift instruments requiring that the principal be invested and the income only be utilized.

All gains and losses arising from the sale, collection, or other disposition of investments and other noncash assets are accounted for in the fund which owned such assets. Ordinary income derived from investments, receivables, and the like, is accounted for in the fund owning such assets, except for income derived from investments of endowment and similar funds, which income is accounted for in the fund to which it is restricted or, if unrestricted, as revenues in unrestricted current funds.

All other unrestricted revenue is accounted for in the unrestricted current fund. Restricted gifts, grants appropriations, endowment income, and other restricted resources are accounted for in the appropriate restricted funds. Restricted current funds are reported as revenues and expenditures when expended for current operating purposes.

Investments—Investments which were purchased by the University are generally stated at cost and investments received from donors are stated at market value as of the date of the gift.

Property, Plant and Equipment—Physical plant and equipment are stated at cost at date of acquisition or fair value at date of donation in the case of gifts. No depreciation of plant assets has been recorded.

Revenue Recognition—Charges for student tuition, fees, and other charges are recognized as income when charged to the students. Collections on pledge are recognized as income when the cash is received. Gifts and other contributions for designated causes are recognized as income when expended. Undesignated gifts and other contributions are recognized as income when received.

2. Pledges

As a result of organized requests for gifts, the following pledges have been received and are uncollected. These pledges are not recognized as receivables in the accompanying financial statements.

On December 30, 1982, the University entered into an agreement with the Oklahoma Baptist University Authority in which the Authority agreed to loan the University up to $400,000. To secure this loan the University transferred certain University property to the Authority. Upon repayment of the loan the property will be transferred back to the University.

The loan will be a revolving note for the period of two years. During this period the University will be required to make monthly interest payments. At the end of the two-year period, the note will convert to a permanent loan payable in 120 equal monthly principal payments, plus interest. The interest rate under the revolving note and the permanent loan is equal to 55% of the base rate of the Federal National Bank & Trust Company, Shawnee, Oklahoma, adjusted quarterly.

The proceeds of this loan is to be used to purchase additional real property and/or to construct new student apartments. At July 31, 1984, the University had borrowed $200,000 on this loan.

10. Operating Leases
The University has entered into a lease agreement which is classified as an operating lease. This lease is for land upon which the maintenance department officer and shops were constructed. The lease is for a period of 25 years beginning in November, 1977, and contains an option to renew at the end of the lease. The following is a schedule by years of future minimum rental payments required under this operating lease as of July 31, 1984:

Year Ending July 31,
1985  3,000
1986  3,000

1988  3,000
1989  3,000
Later Years  39,750

Total minimum payments required  54,750

The total rental expense for operating leases was approximately $3,000 for 1984 and $4,800 for 1983.

11. Capital Improvements Program
As a part of the Capital improvements program adopted in 1979, the University authorized a special fund drive to raise funds for the program. This fund drive is to extend through 1985. The funds raised, plus investment earnings, are to be used for the long-range building construction, renovation and restoration of campus facilities, and for debt service requirements under the 1979 capitalized lease obligation (Note 7).

During the year the University transferred $80,500 of these funds to Oklahoma Baptist University Authority to reimburse the Authority for costs incurred on the above projects. In excess of amounts received from the Oklahoma Baptist University Revenue Bonds, Series 1979 (Note 7), Construction was completed during 1984 on projects initiated in 1979, and the remaining balance of contributed funds will be used for retirement of the capitalized lease obligation. Assets to be used for that purpose, totaling $1,742,909, have been transferred from the renewal and replacement fund to the retirement of indebtedness fund in the accompanying financial statements.
In November 1983, the Board of Trustees of the University authorized The Vision for Excellence Campaign, which has a goal of $6,000,000. Funds raised by this campaign will be used for several priority needs, including a new science building, scholarships, renovation and construction of student housing, operational support, and new academic programs.

12. Year Ended July 31, 1983 Financial Information

The amounts shown for the year ended July 31, 1983 in the accompanying statement of current fund revenues, expenditures and other changes are included to provide a basis for comparison with the year ended July 31, 1984 and present summarized totals only. Accordingly, the year ended July 31, 1983 amounts are not intended to present all information necessary for a fair presentation in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

13. Adjustments of Prior Period Balances

The fund balances at August 1, 1983, as previously reported, have been restated for the following items:

   Accounts Receivable—During the current year the University determined that certain student accounts receivable totaling $63,776 had become uncollectible in prior years. The current unrestricted fund balance at August 1, 1983 has been restated from amounts previously reported to retroactively reflect these uncollectible accounts. Of the total charged off, $18,005 was applicable to 1983 and has been reflected as an increase in educational and general expenditures for that year. The balance is applicable to years prior to 1983.

   Contribution for Property Acquisition—A contribution received in a prior year, totaling $43,000, was designated for the acquisition of property, and has been reclassified in the accompanying financial statements from the current restricted fund to the renewal and replacement fund. These funds were used in the current year to purchase computer equipment.

   Reclassification of Agency Funds—Agency funds, which are held in custody for others, totaling $24,475 at August 1, 1983, have been reclassified from the current restricted fund to the agency fund balance sheet to reflect the University's custodial responsibility for such funds.

   Financial information for the year ended July 31, 1983, where presented for comparative purposes, has been restated to reflect the accounting treatment accorded these items for the year ended July 31, 1984.

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The Center operates a nursing home for the elderly in Hugo, Oklahoma, and reports in accordance with the “Hospital Audit Guide,” published by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Under the provision of that Guide, the following accounting policies, unique to not-for-profit hospitals and nursing homes, are in effect:

Funds—Restricted funds are used to differentiate funds, the use of which is limited by the donor, from funds on which the donor places no restriction or which arise as a result of the operation of the institution for its stated purposes. Funds restricted for property and equipment are added to the unrestricted fund balance to the extent expended within the period. Resources set aside for board-designated purposes are not considered to be restricted.

Basis of Accounting—The accrual basis of accounting is used. Revenue is recognized in the period service is provided.

Inventories—Inventories are stated at cost, but not in excess of market.

Property and Equipment—Depreciation is provided on the straight-line method at rates calculated to write off the cost of the assets over their estimated useful lives. The rates generally used were:
- Land improvements: 5%
- Buildings and improvements: 2 to 5%
- Fixed equipment: 5%
- Major movable equipment: 10%

The property and equipment is shown at cost or fair market value at date of acquisition or donation. Funds equal to a portion of depreciation expense have been set aside to ultimately be used to replace property and equipment as necessary. The balance of such funds at December 31, 1984 was $38,584 (December 31, 1983, $16,120). In addition, $28,899 has been set aside for renovations.

3. Capital Lease Obligation

The following is a schedule by years of future minimum lease payments:

4. Agreements with Hugo Golden Age Home Authority

In 1970, the Center underwent a large expansion which was financed through the Hugo Golden Age Home Authority, a public trust. The Authority issued tax exempt bonds in the amount of $320,000, of which $125,000 was used to retire indebtedness to the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, and the remaining $195,000 was used for improvements to the facility, bond issue costs, and other related expenses.

At that time, the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma leased the facilities to the Authority for a period that would coincide with the bond life of approximately sixteen years. The Authority then executed an operating and maintenance agreement with the Convention, which provides for the Convention to operate the Center on behalf of the Authority. The form of this agreement provides for the Authority to pay to the Convention, as rent, the net results of operations after deducting sufficient funds to meet annual bond debt service consisting of principal, interest, trustee fees, and any other related costs. The substance of the agreement differs from form in that the Convention retains all benefits of ownership and operations because all funds resulting from operations less debt service payments inure to the Convention. The financial statements for the Center have been prepared recognizing the substance over the form of this agreement.

In addition to the leasing of the facility to the Authority, the Convention also pledged its "full faith and credit" toward the payment of all principal and interest due under the bonds as an additional guarantee to the bond holders. This additional guarantee has, in effect, caused the convention to be responsible for the payment of debt service in the event that facility operations are insufficient to meet such payments.

The amount due to the Authority for debt service is as follows:

Our examination was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The supplementary financial information on pages 12 through 14 is presented for the purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the examination of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Operations—Baptist Retirement Center, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma was constructed in 1965 by Baptist Laymen's Corporation, a nonprofit corporation affiliated with Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma. The Center is located on Northwest Highway and Council Road in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. It consists of Lackey Manor (a nursing home), houses and apartment units located adjacent thereto.

In 1974, the Baptist Laymen's Corporation conveyed ownership of the Center to Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma. The Baptist Laymen's Corporation continues to operate the Center for the Convention.

The Center reports in accordance with the "Hospital Audit Guide," published by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Under the provisions of that guide, the following accounting policies, unique to not-for-profit hospitals and nursing homes, are in effect:

Basis of Accounting—The accrual basis of accounting is used. Service revenue is recognized in the period service is provided. Apartment revenue is recognized in the period such revenue accrues to the Center.

Inventories—Inventories are stated at cost, but not in excess of market.

Property, Plant, and Equipment—Depreciation is provided on the straight-line method at rates calculated to write off the cost of the assets over their estimated useful lives. The rates generally used were:
- Land improvements
- Building and improvements 2 to 5%
- Fixed equipment 5%
- Major movable equipment 10% to 20%

The property and equipment is shown at cost or fair market value at date of acquisition or donation.

Investments Held by Other Entities—The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma was created as a recipient for funds that could be invested. Funds held by the Foundation, included herein at cost or market value at date of acquisition or donation, were derived from contributions both by the retirement center and individual donors with the retirement center as beneficiary.

The Center has an endowment fund at the Oklahoma City Community Foundation, Inc. with a balance of $25,239 at December 31, 1984 and 1983. The Center received $2,500 income from this fund during the current year. The income from this fund may be used for any purpose; however, the corpus may not be withdrawn, and therefore is not included as an asset in the accompanying financial statements.

Life Estates—Several residents have remitted funds to the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma to be used to build houses or duplexes at the Center. In exchange for the funds, these residents have the right to live in the dwellings rent-free for the remainder of their lives. These funds are recognized in the financial statements as deferred annuities which will be amortized over the life expectancy of the residents. The amount amortized each year is included in apartment revenue.

2. Capitalized Lease Obligations (Bonds Payable)

In 1964, land on which the Baptist Retirement Center, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma is located was conveyed to Baptist Laymen's Corporation to be held in trust for the use and benefit of Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma.

In 1971, the Corporation leased the premises to the Oklahoma Industries Authority (OIA). OIA issued its Series A and B bonds secured by a first mortgage on the property and guaranteed by the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma (Conventions). OIA then subleased the premises to the Baptist Laymen's Corporation for a period of twenty years with payments equal to the annual debt service requirement of the OIA on bonds issued as described below. The Corporation has the option to acquire the leasehold estate at any time after June 30, 1981, for an amount necessary to retire all outstanding bonds issued by the OIA. The Series A bonds outstanding at December 31, 1984 totaled $350,000 (1983—$365,000). Series B bonds were retired in 1982.

On March 1, 1978, the Baptist Laymen's Corporation executed a lease with the Oklahoma Industries Authority. The Authority issued its Baptist Laymen's Corporation Revenue Bonds 1978, Lackey Manor Series C in the amount of $2,000,000. The bonds are guaranteed by the Convention. Bond funds were used for the completion of the activities center and the construction of 112 ground level apartments for retired persons. The term of the lease is 30 years with payments equal to annual debt service requirements under the bond issue. The Convention has the option to acquire the leasehold estate at any time after March 1, 1988, for the amount required to retire all outstanding bonds issued by the OIA. The bonds outstanding at December 31, 1984 totaled $1,865,000 (1983—$1,895,000).

On March 1, 1982, the Baptist Laymen's Corporation executed a lease with the Oklahoma County Industrial Authority (OCIA). OCIA issued its Baptist Laymen's Corporation First Mortgage Revenue Note, Series A (Lackey Manor Project) in the amount of $4,500,000. The note is guaranteed by the Convention. The OCIA assumed responsibility for the construction of a 36 unit intermediate care apartment complex with cafeteria and 22 quadruplexes. The term of the lease is 10 years with quarterly payments equal to principal, premium, and interest due on next note payment date and any administrative expenses, less any surplus in the sinking fund. The Corporation has the option to acquire the leasehold estate at any time prior to the expiration of the least term for the amount required to retire all outstanding indebtedness plus $500. The note payable outstanding at December 31, 1984 totaled $4,106,250 (1983—$4,331,250).
The annual lease payments for years subsequent to December 31, 1984 are as follows:

Interest earned by the indenture trustee was used to reduce the 1984 lease payments otherwise required of the Retirement Center. This amount, which is primarily nonrecurring, totaled $14,402 (1983—$31,268) and was reported as interest income in the accompanying statement of income for 1984.

On July 1, 1974, the Corporation transferred back to the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma all of the Oklahoma City Baptist Retirement Center’s real and personal property used in its operations. Baptist Laymen’s Corporation acts as the governing body of the Center for the Convention.
