90. J. M. Gaskin was elected historical director by acclamation.

91. There was no miscellaneous business.

92. Bill Merrell, pastor of Country Estates Baptist Church, Midwest City, and chairman of the Resolutions Committee, presented the following:

Resolution No. 1

RESOLUTION OF APPRECIATION

WHEREAS, the Eastwood Baptist Church of Tulsa, the professional staff, support staff, other employees, and members, have graciously provided their facilities for the 84th annual session of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma:

BE IT RESOLVED, that we, the messengers and guests of this annual session, express our sincere appreciation for countless hours of preparation for and during this convention.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we commend the Eastwood Baptist Church staff and membership for hosting our convention in a professional and gracious manner.

The resolution was approved.

Resolution No. 2

RESOLUTION IN SUPPORT OF THE MOVEMENT OF FAMILY CARE MINISTRIES TOWARD PROVIDING CARE FOR SPECIAL ADULTS.

WHEREAS, one out of seven lives are touched in some way by mental handicaps either personally or through parents, siblings, and other family members, and

WHEREAS, developmentally disabled persons are individuals for whom Christ died, and

WHEREAS, the families of special adults have intensive demands upon their time and energy and often have special needs unknown to the population at large, and,

WHEREAS, the State is not able to provide the needed care or funds for these needs, and

WHEREAS, The Family Care Ministries Department of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma is already moving toward the establishment of a group home for special adults,

BE IT RESOLVED, that this body encourage local churches to reach out to these often gentle and loving people with the gospel and with special Bible study opportunities through the Sunday School,

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the messengers to the 1989 Annual Session of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma enthusiastically affirm the increased involvement of the Family Care Ministries Department in providing housing and care for developmentally disabled adults.

The resolution was approved.

Resolution 3

RESOLUTION ON BOYCOTT OF MENNEN AND CLOROX CORPORATIONS

WHEREAS, Jesus enjoined His followers to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world, thus imposing an enlightening and preserving impact upon society, and

WHEREAS, Baptists have historically taken this injunction seriously both in standing alone and in joining hands with other citizens in promoting moral and civic righteousness, and

WHEREAS, the apparent unbridled immorality of much television programming poses a serious and continuous threat to the moral well-being of our nation, and

WHEREAS, the American Family Association (formerly the American Federation of Decency), and Clear-TV have joined hands to challenge such programming through leading a one year boycott on the purchase of all products of the Mennen and Clorox Corporations because they have been judged the most prolific sponsors of programs containing profanity, gratuitous sex, and violence, and

WHEREAS, many Southern Baptist leaders are participants in Clear-TV, and have heartily endorsed the boycott, and

WHEREAS, the use of a boycott is a proper way to address the problem in a democratic society since it does not impose censorship upon those who produce and/or sponsor such programs, but it does encourage selective purchasing on moral principles, and

WHEREAS, many television programs contain profanity, gratuitous sex, violence, and anti-Christian caricaturing of ministers and other believers,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that we commend Dr. Donald Wildmon, Executive Director, American Family Association, and the hundreds of Christian leaders who comprise Clear-TV, for their moral courage in leading the boycott, and

That we support the boycott through selective purchasing this year and encourage other citizens to do so, and

That we pray for the success of the boycott as one means of diminishing the immorality of television programming which comprises a serious and continuous threat to the moral health of our nation.

The resolution was approved.

Resolution No. 4

RESOLUTION ENCOURAGING LAWS AGAINST ABORTION

WHEREAS, Oklahoma Baptists have historically upheld the sanctity and worth of all human life, both born and pre-born, as being created in the image of God; and

WHEREAS, the messengers to the annual meetings of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma and the Southern Baptist Convention during the past decade have reaffirmed their opposition to legalized abortion except in cases where the mother's life is immediately threatened; and

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court of the United States in the 1973 Roe v. Wade decision, and its progeny denied the right of the fifty state legislatures and the Congress to protect the pre-born child by law; and

WHEREAS, the Court is now willing to permit the states and the Congress once again to enact legislation regulating and restricting abortion and in the recent Supreme Court decision of Webster v. Reproductive Health Services invited the states to enact laws which will provoke a direct reconsideration of Roe and other previous abortion decisions,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that we the messengers of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, meeting in Tulsa on November 13-15, 1989, do strongly urge the Oklahoma state legislature in its forthcoming session to enact legislation declaring that human life begins at conception and restricting the practice of induced abortion to the fullest possible extent of the Webster ruling; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we urge the staff of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, the Oklahoma Baptist Messenger, the Oklahoma Baptist Christian Life Committee, and the pastors and members of churches affiliated with the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma actively to promote the passage of such legislation; and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, that we do reaffirm our opposition to legalized abortion, and our support of appropriate federal and state legislation and/or constitutional amendment which will prohibit abortion except to prevent the death of the mother.

The resolution was approved.

Resolution No. 5

RESOLUTION ON HOMESCHOOLING

WHEREAS, the parents of Oklahoma have historically been recognized as responsible and competent to provide education for their children, and

WHEREAS, Oklahoma Baptists support the injunction enunciated in many Baptist church covenants and in the Baptist Faith and Message which encourages our parents to educate religiously their children, and

WHEREAS, other state legislatures have enacted laws restrictive to the free practice of home schooling, and

WHEREAS, home schooling, while it is not the only valid method of educating children, has proven to be a viable alternative to public and private education,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the messengers of the 1989 annual session of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma support the present laws in Oklahoma providing parents freedom to home school their children, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that attempts to further restrict the right and freedom to home school children be rejected by the Oklahoma State legislature.

The resolution was approved.

Resolution 6

RESOLUTION ON THE AUTONOMY OF LOCAL CHURCHES AND THE AUTONOMY OF LOCAL BAPTIST ASSOCIATIONS

WHEREAS, the Scripture clearly admonishes cooperation between God's people in accomplishing the tasks of His kingdom, and

WHEREAS, God's people in local assemblies known as churches are the primary expressions of God's ministry on earth, and

WHEREAS, Southern Baptists have historically affirmed and practiced both the autonomy of the local church and the autonomy of the local association of churches, and

WHEREAS, we recognize and affirm local Baptist churches in association with one another to further the work of the Kingdom of God, and

WHEREAS, Baptists have historically opposed any hierarchical or connnectional relationship between its churches, associatons, and conventions, and

WHEREAS, we recognize and affirm that local associations are free to determine their own requirements for messenger representation, and

WHEREAS, the Baptist Faith and Message of 1963 has been affirmed by Oklahoma Baptists in annual session as a reliable instrument to describe theological agreement;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the 1989 meeting of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma reaffirm the long held Southern Baptist doctrine of the autonomy of local churches, separate from but in cooperation with, the local associations of Baptist Churches,

FURTHER, we affirm The Baptist Faith and Message Statement of 1963 as the standard of theological unity for the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma.

Reports of Departments,
Institutions and Agencies

Baptist Student Union

Bob Lee, Director

The past year was a very successful one for BSU work in Oklahoma. More than ever before students were involved in various ministry and mission opportunities. Associations and churches continued to be very strong in their support of the ministry.

Because of a strong emphasis in Bible study and evangelism several hundred students came to know the Lord and several thousand students were involved in hundreds of Bible studies. Students still want to have an understanding of what God's Word has to say to them. Studies were led by BSU directors and students in dorms, apartments, BSU centers, fraternity and sorority houses, churches, and homes.

All over the state, the largest group of students in the history of BSU missions was chosen to serve as summer missionaries. There were 123 students who served in Oklahoma and other states across the U.S.A. Some financial support is still going to help BSU work in newer convention areas. Students are again serving as semester missionaries and Missions Service Corps volunteers doing BSU work in Oregon, Washington, California, and Hawaii. Over 1500 students participated in short-term and community mission projects.

Work continues to grow in ministries to International, American Indians, and Black students on our campuses. A special project supported by the Foreign Mission Board and Oklahoma BSUs has been put together to reach and work with Chinese students going to school in Oklahoma. God has truly opened the door for foreign missions work in our own state with over 9500 internationals going to school in our state.

New work is to begin on the campus at Bacone College in Muskogee. Jim Kutz will serve as BSU Director at Phillips University in Enid. Rusty Elkins, BSU Director at El Reno Junior College has moved to Northeastern Oklahoma State University, Tahlequah.

BSU work in Oklahoma has been made strong because of the strong emphasis on evangelism, missions, Bible study and discipleship. All other areas of activities are based upon these four principle emphases. Our commitment is to see that students have an opportunity to come to know Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour of their lives and to grow as His disciples through Bible study, missions opportunities, discipleship programs and church involvement.

Baptist Book Stores

Don Turner, Oklahoma City

Bill Polk, Tulsa

Bob Helmich, Muskogee

Joan Pace, Lawton

The Baptist Book Stores of Oklahoma would like to express our thanks and appreciation for your business and support. It is our goal to provide the best and friendliest service possible.

Baptist Book Stores of Oklahoma have served the people of this state since 1912 and we are committed to meet your needs. "Customer Satisfaction Guaranteed" is more than just a phrase. If you have a problem, let us know and we will do our best to correct that problem.

Many churches are enjoying the convenience of having their dated literature orders transmitted by Baptist Book Stores. Churches are now able to purchase locally those items that are on the undated literature form.

Christian Life Committee

Michael C. Catt, Chairman

As believers, we are called to be salt and light in a dark and decaying society. Thus, we must confront the questions and problems of social and personal morality. The solutions to these problems are provided in the Scripture. We cannot afford to act as a subculture, but as Francis Schaeffer said, we must "take charge of the cultured direction." This means, we must move beyond paper pronouncements and religious resolutions. As salt (Matthew 5:13) we must be willing to be rubbed into the decaying carcass of an unregenerate world system. Proverbs 28:12 (NASB) instructs us, "When the righteous triumph there is great glory, but when the wicked rise, men hide themselves." This report is offered with the hope and prayers that it will provide a catalyst for pastors, staff and lay persons to be involved in ethical and moral issues.

Abortion

The battle lines are drawn. PROLIFE and PROCHOICE are now clearly polarized. The recent Supreme Court ruling on the Webster case of Missouri did little more than muddy the water. Both sides claimed a victory. What the decision did was throw the issue of abortion back to the different state legislatures to write their own law.

Since the 1973 Roe vs Wade decision, each year 1.6 million innocent lives have been ended by abortion. Clearly abortion on demand is wrong in the eyes of God and should not be made legal. Forgotten in this are the millions of mothers who have to live with their decision to have an abortion

Now is the time for Oklahoma Baptists to speak up. Far too long our silence on public issues has let other more vocal groups get by with

"murder." Now is the time to write and call your state senators and representatives. Tell them how you feel about this curse on our society. Encourage them to make laws against abortion on demand. Other words of encouragement about participation in campaigning for candidates who are against abortion are found elsewhere in this report. You can continue to support the sanctity of life Sunday, contribute to the Mother's Day offering, support local Crisis Pregnancy Centers, and continue to pray for our nation and its leaders as we come to grips with this issue.

Alcohol and Drugs

Reportedly, Mark Twain was going through customs on his return to the United States from Europe. The customs inspector queried regarding the contents of a small suit case, and Mark Twain answered, "Clothing." Upon inspection the agent found a bottle of liquor. Holding it up he asked "And what piece of clothing is this?" Mark Twain replied, "That's my nightcap."

Use and abuse of alcohol, and other drugs, may be fodder for humor, but the fact is that the real truth about alcoholism, and drug addiction, is anything but funny. Today the problem touches far more than just a few pitiful "gutter bums" who might frequent the rescue missions. It touches men, women, and children from all stratas of life. It even touches young promising athletic stars in our Oklahoma universities.

Dr. Wm. C. Menninger of the famed Menninger Clinic wrote, "If any other disease (other than alcoholism) affected our citizens so much, a national emergency would be declared."¹

Thankfully, our President, and other national leaders, are waging a "War On Drugs", but this is not enough. In the first place it does little about problems related to the use of alcohol which is our number one drug problem. And further, we as Oklahoma Baptists must recognize that the battle will not be won in our state simply because Washington, D.C. is involved. If we are going to see victory Oklahoma Baptists must strengthen their resolve against alcohol and drug abuse, and must begin to wage war on the local level.

Only genuine concern and personal involvement will win against such enemies. The Bible is very clear in warning us about the evils of mind altering substances. (e.g. Proverbs 4:17; 20:1; 23:20-21, 31-32; 31:4-5) We must preach and teach these truths in our churches, homes, and schools. Along with this we must support the efforts of our police and political leaders as they work to control the availability of illegal and addictive substances.

Oklahoma Baptists must take seriously their role in the battle against purveyors of misery who care only about their profits and nothing about the people whose lives they ruin. We have the answer to the emptiness and hurt within the lives of those attracted to alcohol and drugs. Jesus

1. Jerry G. Dunn, God Is For The Alcoholic (Chicago: Moody Press, 1967), p. 79.

Christ can deliver them and satisfy their longing; whereas, alcohol and other drugs only destroy them and leave them empty and unfulfilled.

May God strengthen Oklahoma Baptists as we lovingly help these people find what they have been searching for.

Christian Activism

We live in a day in which many of the issues confronting lawmakers are explicitly moral issues. The sad tragedy is that far too many Christians and many of our churches are basically silent on these issues. Somehow many of us have been duped into thinking that the separation of church and state is, by whatever definition one chooses, an excuse for Christian complacency. Many feel that all we can do is shake our heads and complain to one another about the state of current affairs. However, Bible-believing Baptists can really make a difference.

First of all, we must simply make the decision to become actively involved in the decision making process, especially with regard to moral and family issues. Strangely enough, that decision is one that has been left unmade by many Baptists. Somehow many people have thought that it is a choice between evangelism and Christian activism. That simply is not the case. Jesus said that we are the salt of the earth and many of our people in the pews are frustrated in that they have a desire to do something about matters such as abortion, gambling, pornography, etc.; but they need leadership, education, and a means by which to make a difference.

Secondly, there is the very real choice as to which issues to approach. Whereas we need to have a ready answer for virtually all moral issues, there is a need to choose our fights in terms of local church involvement as well as individual influence.

Once we've made the decision to be involved and chosen some issues upon which to take a strong stand, then we simply need to know what means we should use to approach those issues; and certainly the methods are numerous. One of the easiest, yet sometimes neglected, methods for preachers is to confront moral issues directly from the pulpit. This is a very effective way to make known the position of a local church as well as to inform the attending membership. From time to time we are encouraged to be involved in exerting pressure through a boycott. For example, the Christian Life Commission of the SBC has encouraged us to join with CLear-TV in a boycott of the products of the Mennen Company and the Clorox Corporation who are major sponsors of sex, violence, profanity, and anti-Christian stereotyping on television.

We can also be involved in public demonstration. One pastor of a very evangelistic church in our state was pleasantly surprised when, after announcing a lawful anti-abortion demonstration to be held the next day, he discovered over one hundred of his local church members, including grandmothers and grandfathers as well as younger adults, eagerly participating. Oftentimes we can have an impact by writing individual letters—hundreds of them—to legislators and decision makers in the private sector. In this way, vulgar and blasphemous movies can sometimes be kept out of local theatres. One legislator recently brought to our attention that senators and representatives are just people like the rest of us and are, generally speaking, very responsive to a personal phone call.

Pastors and church leaders can take the initiative to take their local representatives out to lunch and simply, with a very positive attitude, share our concerns and our desires with the lawmakers. Many legislators are not responsive to the Bible-believing Christian's position simply because they have never heard anyone express their convictions in a Christian way. We need to apply pressure when such pressure is called for, and we need to be diligent to express our appreciation and praise when a politician courageously does the right thing.

As you can see, methods can vary tremendously and that which may be appropriate in one situation might not be so in another. Different people have differing comfort zones as well, but let's not fight with one another about methods. Let's simply but firmly commit ourselves to shunning the silence and making a difference as long as our Lord gives us opportunity.

Christians and Public Decency

No one can deny the fact that we live in an age wherein the accepted standards for public appearance, behavior and language are changing. In the midst of this seemingly wholesale abandonment of biblical and even traditional decency, it is imperative that Christians stand true to Christ's call to live lives that point men to Him.

Jesus said, "Ye are the light of the world. Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." (Mt. 5:14a, 16) The non-Christian community is not impressed with our religious works. They do notice, however, when Christians live lives of purity and integrity in the neighborhood, the school, and the marketplace.

The failures of well-known religious figures are held up to scorn in the media, and the Christian community is judged guilty by association in the minds of many. The remedy for this is not to simply attack the media. Rather the remedy is for Christians to become recommitted to living out biblical standards in all our public dealings, as well as privately and in the church. First century Christians faced social conditions similar to those of our day. The apostle Peter urged them to live their lives consistently under Christ's lordship. This is the way to be salt and light to our society, so that "whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ." (I Peter 3:16)

The greatest single agent in promoting the decline in public morals is television. Capable of much good, TV is not to be blamed for all social ills, but it is the single influence with the greatest access to the minds of people in America, especially children and young people.

Pro-Family Forum Newsletter in April 1982 reported, "Crime provides the single most recurrent theme on prime time television . . . adventure shows always involve a crime . . . always violent." The American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) in 1985 stated that on an annual basis, children spend more time in front of their television sets than they spend in school. Child behavioral expert Dr. William Dietz of the AAP says the evidence from research shows "television causes violent or aggressive behavior." Researchers are studying the link between television and sexual behavior, substance abuse, and low grades.

Hollywood, with standards often too low even for prime-time TV, has virtually equal access today through pay cable and satellite systems, and the mushrooming videocassette market. Through the television medium, alcohol and drug abuse is glorified, pre- and extra-marital sex and every kind of filthy language is presented as normal and desirable, right in our living rooms.

Language used in public today illustrates how far we have departed from the biblical standard. What a few years ago could have been found only on public restroom walls, is now paraded freely through our streets and highways on bumper stickers. Cursing and taking our Lord's name in vain is considered just a part of everyday life in the marketplace and the halls of government. To listen to the conversations of children in the shopping mall or the schoolyard would be an embarrassing education for many adults!

It is time for Christian parents to re-think our use of the television. We must carefully evaluate whether to continue subscribing to pay television. We must take responsibility for regulating our childrens' access to these influences. We will give account to God for these decisions.

We call upon Oklahoma Baptists to become informed and involved in upholding righteous standards of public decency. We call upon our pastors to preach and teach with vigor and conviction the Bible's teachings relevant to these critical needs. We call upon our pastors, concerned laymen and state Baptist leaders to use every means, including legislative action, to re-establish righteous standards of appearance, behavior and language in public life. It is time to get the salt out of the salt-shaker and into the world at large!

Issues Affecting Families

Cultural changes have always directly affected the family. A brief look back at the decades of this century shows the impact of social issues. The thirties brought the great depression and parental control was strong and bound the family together. The forties and fifties saw the family go from interdependent to individualistic as parents were determined that their children would not go without as they had. During the sixties the generation gap widened and parents began to be seen as just another part of the "establishment." "Do your own thing" was the theme-song of the younger generation. In an effort to regain the rapport with their children, parents adopted the "child-centered" parenting strategy during the seventies. Parents began to avoid conflict by giving more freedom.

We now near the closing of the decade of the eighties. What issues have impacted the family during the last ten years? The continued growth in fragmented families to the point where, at current trends, by the year 2000, families with step children will out number families raising their own children. Along with these, single parent homes and dual-income homes have greatly increased the need for quality child care. The Infant and Toddler Child Care Act and Child Development and Education Act of 1989 have been introduced in Congress with debate likely to continue into 1990. Mental illness grips thousands of Oklahomans with sixty percent of its victims living at home. Drugs and alcohol not only break up families but destroy lives. The pro-abortion forces continue to protect the choice and convenience of pregnant women with no consideration for the life of the unborn child. Recent Supreme Court decisions have allowed for this battle to be brought back to the state level.

Along with these, the attitudes of our nation regarding the definition of a family continue to change. Recently a New York State Court of Appeals ruled that a homosexual couple constitutes a family. The AIDS pandemic threatens every spectre of society. There are 1½ million active AIDS patients in the United States and by 2000, 15-20 million will be infected by the AIDS-causing HIV virus. The innocent suffer also with over 1,000 cases of AIDS reported in children under thirteen since 1981. Syphilis, another sexually transmitted disease is up 50 percent since 1980.

The change in standards in the media has greatly influenced our families and children. The combination of lower standards and the fact that the average U.S. household watches fifty hours of TV each week greatly compounds the problem.

Pornography, compulsive behavior, child abuse, commercialization of contraceptives, stress in the workplace and growing crises in the area of education; these all have taken their toll on the family.

What is the solution? Is there a solution? The answer is only in surrender to the Lordship of Jesus Christ and commitment to His liberating Word. We must:

- * Continue to maintain and proclaim the biblical standards for the family.
- * Show compassion for those who are suffering the consequences of sin along with their loved ones.
- * Develop creative ministries to touch the ever-changing circumstances that today's families face.
- * Encourage each local church to penetrate its community with the message of the gospel and ministries that demonstrate the love of Jesus.

One nationally recognized family minister has called the decade of the nineties, "the last battleground for the minds and hearts of the next generation—winner takes all."¹ If that proves to be true, the church must not stand by and allow a secular philosophy which ignores God to take our children captive. Heeding the words of the apostle Paul we must be "steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your toil is not in vain in the Lord." (1 Cor. 15:58)

Secular Humanism

Secular humanism continues to be a dominant force in American society. In order to deal with this intellectual movement, Southern Baptists need to distinguish carefully three types of humanism. (1) "Humanism" is a general term that stresses the value of human beings. Southern Baptist philosopher Richard Cunningham lists eight common values in all forms of humanism: the dignity and worth of human beings, the importance of this historical life, human freedom and responsibility, human potential for influencing the future for the better, the value of science and reason in solving problems, the good and happiness of the human family as a goal for life and society, humanitarian ethical principles, and a human rights emphasis (The Christian Faith and Its Contemporary Rivals, pp. 101-103). (2) "Christian humanism emphasizes the value of human beings in the context of the lordship of God as creator and redeemer of humanity. A biblical world view is God-centered rather than human-centered, but the relative value of human beings can and should be affirmed by Christians.

(3) "Secular" humanism is a serious rival to Christian humanism because of the beliefs it adds to the general humanistic emphasis on human dignity and worth. After reviewing several forms of secular humanism, Norman Geisler identified five common elements in secular humanism: nontheism, naturalism, evolutionism, ethical relativism, and human self-sufficiency (Is Man the Measure? An Evaluation of Contemporary Humanism, pp. 121-122). Secular humanists generally deny or question the existence of God, argue that the natural world is a totally closed system, trace human origin to a non-purposive evolutionary process, reject absolute ethical standards, and insist that human beings can solve their problems on their own. Secular humanism can be identified as the official philosophy of groups such as the International Humanist Union, the American Humanist Association, and the American Ethical Union (Cunningham, p. 99), but it is also a mindset that prevails in many arenas of American society.

How should Southern Baptists in Oklahoma respond to secular humanism? Our response can be two-pronged. First, our positive response should be to accent the Christian view of human nature. Secular humanism has a reductionistic, narrow view of human beings. Christians need to reaffirm the biblical view of humanity as creatures created in God's image. God is interested in human welfare. David was impressed with human stature in God's sight: "What is man, that thou are mindful of him? and the son of man that thou visitest him?" (Ps. 8:4). Human beings are sinners who can be saved by God's grace. Secular humanism may have won such a large following because some Christians have not presented a realistic, comprehensive statement of human nature. We are sinners, but we are also God's creatures. Our highest dignity comes from a right relation with God. Christians insist on a God-sufficiency for living life rather than a secular self-sufficiency (Phillipians 4:13, 19). When Christians attack "humanism" in sweeping, general terms we may sound like we are rejecting humanity rather than the naturalistic, secular viewpoint of some humanists. True human fulfillment comes through Jesus Christ (John 10:10b).

Second, Southern Baptists should also be alert to the influence of secular humanism in American life. Through sermons, Bible studies, and other educational programs in our churches we can identify the salient tenets of secular humanism and alert our congregations to their dangers. Two examples of places where secular humanism can make inroads are our schools and the mass media. The selection of textbooks for public schools is a crucial area of Christian concern. For example, in a 1961 decision (Torcaso v. Watkins), the United States Supreme Court identified secular humanism as a religion (Geisler, p. 121). Public schools, then, should not adopt textbooks that espouse secular humanism. Parents and church leaders should become aware of the philosophical viewpoints of the textbooks in their school systems and exert a positive Christian influence on the selection of textbooks. We can also watch for the impact of secular humanism in television, radio, and movies. Television shows that advocate ethical relativism, hedonism, and a naturalistic view of life should be avoided by concerned Christians. The products of sponsors of such shows could be boycotted as well until the moral level of the shows is improved.

Christians can respond constructively and positively to secular humanism without rejecting worthwhile human activities and achievements. Working for human well-being in areas such as health, education, and human rights does not require losing sight of the God-centered Christian worldview. Biblical faith is both pro-human and pro-God.

Report of the Board of Directors Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma

The Constitution of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma states in Article VI, Section I: "There shall be a board of directors elected by this convention through which this convention shall function in its cooperative work." The Board is made up of 64 members, plus the president, first and second vice-presidents and recording secretary, all of whom are elected by the convention. At the close of each annual meeting of the convention a motion is presented which authorizes the Board of Directors to transact unfinished business during the time that the convention is not in session; and also authorizes the president and recording secretary to sign legal papers of the convention which require signatures.

The Board of Directors met December 8, 1988, February 24 (a special called meeting), March 21, and September 12, 1989. The Board was polled twice by mail on May 19 and July 19, 1989. The Constitution requires that a general report of all Board actions be made to the annual meeting of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma. The following report indicates the actions of the Board.

The Board is organized into four areas of work which are: administrative, business management, family care ministries and planning and promotion. The newly elected convention president, in consultation with the executive director-treasurer and the first and second vice-presidents met following the annual meeting and organized the Board into committees representing the four areas. Assignments were announced at the December meeting and the Board gave approval.

The Executive Committee

The Bylaws provide for an executive committee which performs only such duties as may be referred to it for action from time to time by the Board of Directors. Those who serve on this committee are the convention president, executive director-treasurer, recording secretary and the chairmen of the four board committees. No referrals were made to the executive committee during the year.

Business Management Committee

The responsibilities of the business management committee are in the areas related to the controller's office, all insurance, Baptist Building management, and oversight of all properties other than Falls Creek, Camp Hudgens and Camp Nunny-Cha-ha. Chairman was Lynn Hill, pastor of First Church, Claremore.

December Report—

1. Orientation—Since this was the first meeting of this newly formed committee, considerable time was spent receiving information on how all funds are received, managed and disbursed. Chairman Hill stated that the committee was impressed with the careful manner in which funds are handled.

2. Insurance Bids—In order to assure that the convention is receiving the maximum coverage at the minimum cost, insurance bids are received and studied periodically. This will be done during 1989.

3. Baptist Building Renovation Study—The committee viewed pictures of the deteriorating condition of the Baptist Building. Preventive maintenance and repairs have not been done due to the lack of funding; however, there are some situations that are becoming critical due to the lack of upkeep. During the year the committee will be studying ways to finance renovation. Any recommendations will be brought to the Board.

March Report—

1. Board Urges Renovation Study to Continue—The Board was made aware that a recent report came to the convention administration of some potentially dangerous situations in the pressroom area and other places in the Baptist Building. The Board requested Marlin Hawkins and the committee to interview and select an architectural firm to study and evaluate the repair needs of the Baptist Building. This study would also include costs, repairs, suggestions of future space needs and options for expansion.

2. Insurance Reviewed—Jim Cole, convention insurance counselor, met with the committee and reviewed property and casualty insurance coverage. The committee found that coverage is adequate and that rates are competitive.

September Report—

1. Vote by Mail Ratified—The Business Management Committee met May 19 after which they asked the Board of Directors to consider three recommendations:

(1) 1988 Audit—The committee reported that the auditors carefully reviewed the convention audit with them. This audit includes all convention institutions and agencies other than The Baptist Foundation and Oklahoma Baptist University. The committee recommended that the audit be approved and printed in the convention annual for distribution to all churches.

(2) 1989 Auditor—The committee further recommended that Englebach, Roberts and Company, certified public accountants, be approved as auditors for the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma for 1989.

(3) Name Change—The third recommendation was that the name of the Business Management Committee be changed to Business Management and Audit Committee.

There were 54 ballots returned and all were affirmative for the three recommendations.

In the September Board meeting a motion was approved to ratify the votes of the mail ballots.

2. Report of Baptist Building Study—This is a follow-up report of the action of the Board in March.

It was reported that on May 12 a sub-committee of the Business Management Committee met to interview five architects. A full day was spent studying their proposals. A recommendation from the sub-committee to the full committee was that Nixon Associates Inc., an architectural and engineering firm, be asked to evaluate the present Baptist Building facilities, prioritize repair needs, study possible space reallocations and expansion, report requirements to bring the building up to code, and determine costs for each. Other options are being explored.

At the September meeting information was given that Nixon Associates Inc., had been employed and they had completed the study of the Baptist Building. It was found that several things needed to be done immediately for safety reasons, such as auxiliary lighting, fire and smoke alarms, and a sprinkler system in the pressroom area. The architects will be invited to the December meeting of the Board to carefully review their report. Adequate time for a very complete study is being given and recommendations will be presented at a later date.

Family Care Ministries

Stephen Murdock, a layman and member of Baptist Temple in Oklahoma City, served as chairman of the committee that gives direction to the child care and adult care ministries. Children's homes are located in Oklahoma City, Owasso, Madill, Ada, Duncan, Clinton, McAlester, Mooreland, and Boys Ranch Town near Edmond. Additional ministries include foster homes, alternatives to abortion, unwed mother programs, adoption and many others. Adult care ministries operates retirement centers at Owasso, Oklahoma City, Hugo, and villages at Ada, Madill, Cleveland and Okmulgee.

December Recommendation—

Mother's Day Offering—The Board gave approval to the 1989 Mother's Day Offering goal of $505,505 and the theme "Their Need—Our Responsibility" was adopted.

Special Called Meeting Recommendation—

Refinancing of Certain Retirement Centers Indebtedness—February 24 there was a special called meeting of the Board to consider refinancing of the indebtedness of the retirement centers at Oklahoma City, Owasso, Ada, Cleveland, Madill and Okmulgee. The amount to be refinanced was estimated at $21,000,000 which would include fees and other costs. It was explained that one of the major reasons for refinancing was that in 1992 a balloon note of over five million dollars would be due and in 1995 there would be another one due for over 1.8 million dollars. Also, balloon notes would be due in 1997, 1998 and 1999 of approximately $400,000 each year. It would not be possible to meet these additional payments and the regular annual payments. After discussion it was felt that the best solution would be to refinance the total indebtedness. This would eliminate the two balloon notes and reduce the amount of the regular payments. The refinancing would be at a variable interest rate that would never be more than 14% and the floor would be 4%. The projection was that the interest would average around 6% over the twenty year period of financing.

Upon the recommendation of the Family Care Ministries Committee, the Board gave unanimous approval to the following resolution: APPROVING THE REFINANCING OF OUTSTANDING INDEBTEDNESS PERTAINING TO THE VARIOUS RETIREMENT FACILITIES OF THE CONVENTION, AUTHORIZING THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR/TREASURER WITH THE APPROVAL OF COUNSEL TO NEGOTIATE THE FINAL TERMS OF SUCH REFINANCING WITHIN SPECIFIED PARAMETERS AND AUTHORIZING EXECUTION OF AGREEMENTS PERTAINING TO THE REFINANCING.

WHEREAS, the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma owns or has under its control various retirement facilities with outstanding obligations related thereto, at least a part of which are described on the December 5, 1988, Memorandum of Leo Oppenheim & Co., Inc. attached hereto; and

WHEREAS, it is deemed prudent to refinance all or part of such obligations by the issuing agencies.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE BAPTIST GENERAL CONVENTION OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA, TO-WIT:

1. The refinancing of any or all of the outstanding obligations relating to the referenced retirement facilities is hereby authorized.

2. The Executive Director/Treasurer of the Convention with the approval of Counsel, is hereby authorized to negotiate the final terms of such refinancing, provided the initial average interest rate payable on the new refinancing obligations taken as a group shall not exceed 7.75% per annum.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Convention authorizes the Executive Director/Treasurer and the Secretary or Assistant Secretary to execute any and all loan, lease or guaranty agreements necessary to accomplish the foregoing refinancings and that the Executive Director/Treasurer and Secretary or Assistant Secretary be and they are hereby authorized and directed to execute and deliver such other instruments and other documents and approve such other documents and instruments including Official Statements as may be necessary to carry out the intent of and to consummate the transactions authorized by this Resolution. The Executive Director of Family Care Ministries is hereby appointed an Assistant Secretary for the purpose of this transaction.

ADOPTED by the Board of Directors in its meeting assembled this February 24, 1989.

March Report—

1. Refinancing Update—It was reported that the refinancing of the retirement centers would be completed the first week in April. The amount, including fees, would be $20,030,000.

2. Rentals Improving—It was reported that for the first time ever in the history of Ada Baptist Village all apartments are rented and 26 of the 47 available apartments are rented at Southern Oklahoma Baptist Village at Madill.

3. Owens Retires—Announcement was made that Jack Owens would retire at the end of March as administrator at Cleveland Baptist Village.

4. Expanding Ministries—Studies are being made to determine the feasibility of increasing from one to two maternity homes at Owasso and establishing a ministry to mentally retarded adults, a program for drug and alcohol abuse, as well as providing counselors in the area of teenage suicides.

Planning and Promotion

Chairman W. C. (Nick) Garland, pastor of First Church, Broken Arrow, led the Planning and Promotion Committee. Their responsibilities are in the areas of stewardship and Cooperative Program promotion, church administration, associational services, disaster relief, video/media and the church program departments.

December Report—

Disaster Relief Sub-Committee—Rusty Fuller was asked to serve as chairman of the Disaster Relief Sub-Committee. Robert Reed Lynn and Harry Dee Griffin are other committee members.

March Report—

Housing for Disaster Relief Equipment—The Board authorized the construction of a 60' x 90' metal building with 18" eaves at Boys Ranch Town to house the disaster relief equipment. The contract was awarded to Kinser Construction Company and the cost of the building was $53,129.

Administrative Committee

The Administrative Committee has the assignment of work related to personnel, budget, annuity, ministerial services, Baptist Messenger, and Baptist Student work. Anthony Jordan, pastor of Northwest Church, Oklahoma City, served as chairman for the second year.

December Report—

Budget Sub-Committee Named—Rex Blankenship was asked to serve as chairman of the budget sub-committee for the indepth study of the proposed 1990 Cooperative Program budget. Russell Cook, Carolyn Ellenbrook, Alton Fannin and Ernie Perkins agreed to serve with Blankenship.

March Report—

Magar Becomes Director of Church Music Department—The Glenn Boyds returned to the foreign mission field leaving the position of department director vacant. Upon the committee's recommendation, Paul Magar was unanimously approved as director. He had served as associate in the department for eleven years.

September Report—

1. Vote by Mail Ratified—In July the Administrative Committee asked the Board to consider by mail two recommendations regarding a bond issue for Oklahoma Baptist University. Detailed information was furnished to the Board. The current membership of the board returned ballots by mail unanimously approving the following:

(1) Bond Issue for OBU—The Board of Trustees at Oklahoma Baptist University was authorized to borrow approximately $3.4 million to build five new student apartment buildings (providing residence for 160 students), construct additional parking lots, acquire property on the south edge of the campus, install a new telephone system, refund an existing loan with The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma, and relocate the campus safety offices. The majority of the debt service will come from student housing income and the remainder will be funded from the operating budget.

(2) Resolution Adopted—A resolution authorizing the execution of an amendment to the guaranty agreement pertaining to the Oklahoma Baptist University Authority financing for Oklahoma Baptist University was also approved. The resolution states:

WHEREAS, Oklahoma Baptist University Authority proposes to issue tax exempt revenue bonds to finance miscellaneous projects for Oklahoma Baptist University and it appears necessary that the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma guarantee said bonds, and in addition, guarantee certain other obligations in relation thereto.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, to-wit:

The Convention hereby approves and authorizes the execution of an Amendment to Guaranty Agreement, from the Convention to BancFirst, Shawnee, Oklahoma.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Convention authorizes the corporate officers to execute the Amendment to Guaranty Agreement and that the President or Vice President and Recording Secretary or Assistant Recording Secretary, be and they are hereby authorized and directed to execute and deliver such other instruments and other documents and approve such documents and instruments including Official Statements as may be necessary to carry out the intent of and to consummate the transactions authorized by this Resolution.

The Board voted to ratify the vote by mail ballot.

2. Revisions to Church Annuity Plan—The Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention continues to keep the Church Annuity Plan in conformity with the changes in law and to comply with applicable regulations and rulings. In addition to changes required by law, the state convention executive directors in their meeting in February 1989 requested some revisions be made to allow churches to waive the three-year waiting period for the purpose of member and church contributions by other than ministerial employees. This would not change the time state convention contributions would begin. Other changes simplify the administration of the plan. The Board gave approval to the changes in order to comply with the needed changes and that the Amended and Restated Church Annuity Plan be retroactive to January 1, 1989.

Recommendations

1. That the Cooperative Program objective for 1990 be $16,500,000 to be distributed as follows: 44.25% Southern Baptist Convention and 55.75% to State, with the 44.25% to SBC to be distributed on a weekly basis.

Oklahoma Baptist University

Bob R. Agee, President

More than 79 years ago, a handful of visionary Oklahoma Baptists gathered to charter a Christian university that would educate the minds of young people and at the same time nurture their spirits. In 1988-89, OBU remained true to its heritage and strengthened its position as a pacesetter in the Christian higher education arena.

The University reached a significant milestone in the fall of 1988 as enrollment grew for the seventh consecutive year, pushing the headcount to an all-time record of 1,967 students. Recent enrollment increases have made OBU one of the fastest-growing four-year colleges in the Southwest.

The 10.8 percent increase over 1987's enrollment level was paced by a 22 percent rise in the size of the freshman class and significant growth in the University's off-campus Ministry Training Institute. The 1988 freshman class totaled 518 students—an increase of 94 over last year's total—and the Ministry Training Institute's 21 centers across the state showed an enrollment of 316 students, compared with 222 in 1987.

Corresponding with the climb in enrollment is a rise in the average ACT score of entering freshmen. The 1988 freshman class had an average ACT score of 20.8, compared with the previous class' average of 20.6.

More than 1,470 of OBU's 1,967 students last fall were enrolled full time. Seventy-two of Oklahoma's 77 counties were represented in the student body, which also included students from 40 other states and more than 20 foreign countries. Over 90 percent of OBU's students are Baptist. Seventy-four percent of the University's students came from Oklahoma. Texas, Colorado, and Kansas provide large numbers of OBU's out-of-state students.

OBU students and faculty members continued to reap national and international recognition for their achievements. Dr. Douglas Watson, associate professor of English, was the recipient of a Fulbright-Hayes Lectureship and a Rotary Foundation grant to teach at Rivers State University of Science and Technology in Port Harcourt, Nigeria. He served as a Reader in English at the Nigerian university during the 1988-89 school year.

Dr. Rosemarie Lones, professor of German, became the first Oklahoman to be presented a Certificate of Merit from the American Association of Teachers of German. The award, which recognizes outstanding achievement and dedication to the profession, is presented annually to 15 German language educators from across the nation.

Stephen Goforth, assistant professor of music, won second place at the Ellsworth Smith International Trumpet Competition, which was held at Ohio State University. The competition drew participants from around the world and was judged by internationally-acclaimed musicians. Ron Lewis, assistant professor of music, served as Goforth's accompanist.

Two OBU seniors, Teresa Yates of Pawnee and Steve Doucette of Broken Arrow, were selected last spring to serve as Fulbright Scholars during 1989-90. Yates will study methods in foreign language teaching at the University of Marburg, and Doucette will examine the relationships between local and state representatives and their constituencies in Bavaria at the University of Augsburg. OBU has an excellent history of placing graduates in the Fulbright scholarship program. It is unusual, however, for a university the size of OBU to have two students selected for Fulbright Grants in the same year.

Two major task forces were formed during 1988 to begin studying new academic programs. A Graduate Education Task Force was appointed to examine the feasibility of establishing graduate programs. Another task force was formed to look at opportunities to further expand the University's international programs. These task forces are expected to make recommendations to the president and the board of trustees during the 1989-90 academic year.

OBU suffered a major disappointment in June when it was forced to suspend its China Exchange Program following the tragic events in Beijing. Fortunately, the University was able to get its two students and faculty member out of the country following the upheaval. Joy Washburn, a junior from Plainview, Texas, and Jean Gassett, a senior from Peyton, Colo., were serving as interns at Xinjiang University and Xinjiang Education College in Urumqi when the clashes broke out between government troops and student demonstrators. Wes Friberg, OBU's China studies coordinator in Urumqi, was also able to safely leave the country with his wife and two small children.

The University had a 17-member delegation of students and faculty members scheduled to leave in July for a four-week teaching assignment at the two Chinese universities. Dr. Agee was also scheduled to travel to China in July to meet with officials at Beijing University. The president was in the final stages of negotiations on a new graduate program to be offered by a consortium of Southern Baptist institutions at Yantai University. Administrators determined that it would be best to suspend the program for a year to allow the situation in China to stabilize. OBU is committed to maintaining this very important program, and will resume the exchange when conditions improve.

OBU's athletic program enjoyed tremendous success during the 1988-89 school year. The men's and women's cross country teams captured NAIA District 9 championships in the fall, and the men's indoor track team finished 11th at the NAIA Indoor Championships in February. The outdoor track team won its second consecutive District 9 championship in April and went on to finish eighth at the NAIA Outdoor Championships in California in May. The Bison baseball team finished fourth in the NAIA College World Series in Lewiston, Idaho, in June after winning its first District 9 championship in 23 years and its first-ever Area 3 championship. Senior pitcher David Hocking of Del City was named NAIA Player of the Year after compiling a 14-0 record. In June, OBU's men's athletic program finished 13th in the annual NAIA All-Sports Competition, which ranks the top overall sports programs at the nation's 500 NAIA-member institutions.

The academic year was capped on May 27 with the University's 75th commencement. More than 230 students graduated during the ceremony, which featured a keynote address by Congressman Wes Watkins. Two faculty members and an administrator were presented service awards during commencement. Dr. Marilyn Ogilvie, associate professor of natural science, received the Distinguished Teaching Award; John W. Parrish, vice president for institutional advancement, was given the Meritorious Service Award; and Anne Hammond, assistant professor of English/academic resources, was presented the Promising Teacher Award.

OBU's spiritual life programs continued to draw significant involvement from OBU students during 1988-89. Special emphases such as the Campus Revival in the fall and Focus Week in the spring challenged students, faculty and staff to examine their spiritual commitments. Dr. John Sullivan, executive director-treasurer of the Florida Baptist Convention, received a great response during the Campus Revival, with more than 30 students making decisions. In the spring, Focus Week featured Dr. Phil Lineberger, pastor of Richardson Heights Baptist Church in Richardson, Texas. Dr. Lineberger's sessions with students emphasized the importance of discipleship.

The 17th and 18th Hobbs Lectures were delivered by Dr. Larry McSwain, dean of the School of Theology at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, and Dr. Denton Lotz, general secretary of the Baptist World Alliance, respectively.

Outreach received increased emphasis during the year, and the Baptist Student Union continued to be a major vehicle for providing students with mission, ministry and evangelistic opportunities. Among the ministries offered by the BSU are Age to Age, a nursing home ministry; the Oklahoma City Mission Center; Prison Ministry; Hope House, a halfway house for problem juveniles; Shawnee Youth Ministries; Wives of the Word, a Bible study program for wives of students; Campus Baptist Young Women; and Discipleship, which is a focal point of the BSU program.

Almost 100 OBU students devoted the summer of 1989 to serving others and sharing the Gospel around the globe. Students served in South America, Europe, Mexico, Africa and dozens of locations throughout the United States.

Construction began in July of 1989 on Montgomery Hall, a new 12,000-square-foot structure which will house the University's Campus Ministry Center. Scheduled for completion in the spring of 1990, the two-story building will feature offices for Dr. Mack Roark, vice president for religious life; Odus Compton, assistant campus minister; Guy Grimes, director of religious activities/Baptist Student Union director; and other religious life personnel. The first floor will also have a lounge/meeting area and conference rooms for the BSU and other campus religious organizations. The second floor will contain classrooms for OBU and for Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary's

Oklahoma satellite campus. The new building replaces the original, 72-year-old Montgomery Hall, which was removed from the Oval last spring. Its new location is on University Drive, just south of WMU Dormitory.

The University's five-year Bridging the Centuries Campaign neared the halfway point during the summer of 1989 with more than $9.7 million in gifts and pledges. The campaign has a $10 million base goal and a $15 million victory goal. Providing a significant boost to the effort was the establishment of a $2.6 million charitable remainder unitrust by Ardmore businessman Paul Dickinson. The gift, which is being administered by the Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma, will be used for endowment in the School of Business. The board of trustees voted at its June meeting to honor the 94-year-old Baptist layman by naming the School of Business in his honor. Dickinson's gifts to the University over the past three years have totaled approximately $3.4 million.

OBU continued to demonstrate financial responsibility during difficult economic times in 1988-89. The board of trustees, at its spring meeting, approved a 1989-90 budget of $14.5 million.

The University is maintaining its commitment to attract and hire outstanding Christian scholars. Dr. Robert M. Babb, former chairman of the computer science department at Marshall University in West Virginia, was named dean of the Paul Dickinson School of Business in the spring of 1989. New faculty members for 1989 include: Dr. Oteka Ball, assistant professor of sociology/child care administration; Murray M. Blose, visiting professor of mathematics (two-year appointment); Dr. Clarence Holland, associate professor of education and director of the teacher education program; Janet Hart Johnson, instructor of piano pedagogy; Dr. Dale A. Utt, assistant professor of biology; Barry F. Vaughan, instructor of philosophy (one-year appointment); and Dr. Anna C. Walsh, assistant professor of anthropology (one-year appointment). Mrs. Nelle Agee, wife of President Agee, will serve as a part-time instructor in art and education.

The blessings of God were evident at OBU this past year. We believe the best is yet to come. With the continued financial support and prayers of Oklahoma Baptists, OBU will seek to carry out the dreams of those early Baptist pioneers who brought this university into being.

Report of the Board of Directors of The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma

Robert L. Ross, President

The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma is the incorporated trust agency of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma. All endowment gifts received by or for Convention agencies, institutions, departments or special projects are transferred to the Foundation for management. No convention entity holds and/or manages its own endowment funds.

Because of this unique relationship, dating back to November, 1946, The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma has grown to be second in size among the 29 Southern Baptist foundations in the United States. Only the Baptist Foundation of Texas is larger.

As of December 31, 1988, assets held by The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma reached $72 million. New income received during the past audit year was $6.5 million, with earnings for this period totaling $8,963,057.

As trustee for endowment gifts for Oklahoma and Southern Baptist causes, The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma distributed more than $6 million in behalf of approximately 100 beneficiaries during the past year. These beneficiaries include churches, associations, foreign, home and state missions, Oklahoma Baptist University, the Southern Baptist Convention and individuals who receive income from trusts during their lifetime.

The ethic and philosophy of The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma is clearly defined by an investment policy statement adopted by the Foundation's Board of Directors in October, 1986:

"The Foundation is committed to conducting its business affairs in a manner consistent with the highest Christian moral and ethical standards taught and implied in the Scriptures, and shall in no way compromise its Christian witness in the world by investment in a company or activity which does not promote the best interests of a wholesome society. No assets held by the Foundation are invested in companies related to the liquor, tobacco or gambling industries, or companies dealing in pornographic materials, or companies promoting entertainment forms which present as norm lifestyles inconsistent with Christian morality, or companies which violate basic human rights by their manner of doing business."

The Foundation's Board of Directors is composed of 16 business and professional people from across the state, each serving a four-year term. The directors are organized into six functioning committees. These committees are: audit control, charitable giving and estate stewardship, church building loan, communication and public relations, investment, and real estate and minerals. The chairpersons of each of these committees constitute the executive committee. In addition, there are four individuals who serve as advisors to the Foundation's Board of Directors.

Board members are: Oleta S. Carmack (Hinton), William H. Clark (Duncan), Chris Condeley (Muskogee), Kay Dudley (Oklahoma City), David L. Field (Enid), Frank T. Fleet (Ada), William R. Gwartney (Tulsa), Handford Hull (Ponca City), J.V. Lobaugh (Altus), William M. Pierce (Sapulpa), Ray Mason (Noble), O'Neal Netherland (Tulsa), Irene S. Roop (Heavener), Frank Thomas (Ardmore), Joyce Shelby (Oklahoma City) and Charles Sutter (Edmond). Advisors are: Jack Brewer (Chickasha), John Crain (Tulsa), Marlin Hawkins (Oklahoma City) and Thomas Terry (Shawnee).

The Foundation's programs and day-by-day operations are administered by an executive staff consisting of Robert L. Ross, president; C. Duane Riley, executive vice president for charitable giving and estate stewardship services; James R. Smith, senior vice president for communication and public relations services; Celinda Olszewski, vice president and controller; Ronald L. Fannin, vice president for church building loans and student services; Mart Hardin, vice president for property management services; Bill Bardwell, interim director of trust administration services and Melinda Warren, director of estate stewardship services.

Copies of "The Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma Amended and Restated, February 1988" are available from the Foundation office upon request.

This report which follows is presented under sub-headings representing areas of work of The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma.

Investments

Assets held by the Foundation are, for the most part, invested in the General Investment Fund. More than $60 million is presently invested in the Fund, composed of church building loans, government and corporate bonds, equities and cash equivalency instruments. An asset mix is established to provide diversity, with the earnings from each of the component parts flowing into a common distribution pool for income payment to beneficiaries based on their proportionate ownership in the Fund.

The asset mix of the Fund is: 60%-75% church building loans and/or fixed income securities and 25%-40% common stocks. There are other assets managed by the Foundation not invested in the Fund because of their nature, such as real estate properties, mineral interests and production, tax exempt bonds and other miscellaneous gifts.

Equities are managed by three professional equity management firms: Dreman Value Management, New York City; Jenswald King and Associates, Houston, Texas and Tom Johnson and Company, Oklahoma City. The Foundation's bond portfolio is managed by Gardner and Preston Moss, Inc., Boston, Mass. Shearson-Lehman and E.F. Hutton Company serves as an investment consultant to the Foundation in monitoring and reporting on the performance of the investment managers. The investment committee of the Board of Directors meets monthly to review the progress of the Foundation's investment strategy.

Copies of the "Investment Statement, The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma" are available upon request through the Foundation office.

Trust Administration

The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma administers more than 900 separate trusts. Such administration involves thousands of transactions annually including the receiving and investing of corpus contributions, paying expenses, distributing income to beneficiaries and making reports to appropriate individuals and other entities. Fiduciary responsibility requires a continuing monitoring process to assure that trust provisions are carried out and properly documented and that there is full and accurate accounting of income and expenses.

Approximately 30% of trusts administered by the Foundation require reporting tax information to Internal Revenue Service and the Oklahoma Tax Commission. These personal and trust returns are prepared by an outside accounting firm.

Computer operations are vital to efficient trust administration. Reorganization of computer files and programming information for easy accessibility is an ongoing activity. Computer reports necessary to the Foundation's functions are produced on a timely basis to assist personnel in performing their responsibilities.

Copies of "Trust Administration Policies of The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma," adopted by the Board of Directors in May, 1987 are available upon request. Procedures for implementation of trust administration policies are subject to continuing review and revision.

Bill Bardwell, interim director of trust administration, supervises new trust creation and the administration of existing trusts.

Charitable Giving and Estate Stewardship Services

One cannot describe the work of The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma without using words like "service" and "ministry." For 43 years, the Foundation has offered estate planning information and assistance to Baptist people. During this time, one or more persons from 1,034 of the approximately 1600 churches affiliated with the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma have availed themselves of this special service.

Last year 1,136 persons were assisted by Foundation personnel in estate planning leading to the preparation of 1,064 wills, 56 trusts, and 16 gift annuities. Duane Riley gives direction to charitable giving services while Melinda Warren directs the estate stewardship services. The state is divided into sections for assignment. Rex Wilkinson living in Muskogee serves as an estate stewardship counselor for the eastern half of the state. Kenneth Mullins is responsible for western Oklahoma. J.C. Bunn works in the Tulsa area while Forrest Siler responds to requests in the Oklahoma City area.

Charitable giving and estate stewardship is a highly specialized area complicated by changing tax laws and emerging techniques. Therefore, professional training is an ongoing activity with the Foundation staff. Foundation personnel also relate to other professionals such as attorneys, accountants and financial planners to accomplish the charitable objectives of clients.

Much of the growth of the Foundation can be attributed to this effective ministry of charitable giving and estate planning. More importantly it helps people mature in their giving and it helps agencies, institutions, and departments of our Convention to fulfill their mission.

Church Building Loan Services

The Church Building Loan Program was established by The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma in 1953 as an investment strategy to provide endowment income for Baptist causes. Cooperating churches, as well as associations, institutions and agencies of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma may secure long term financing at reasonable interest rates and know that their interest payments go to support Baptist causes.

The Foundation made 48 loans from August 1, 1988 through July 31, 1989. Since 1953 a total of 1,097 church building loans have been made. Loans in effect during the past 12 months produced $3,846,663 in interest.

As Foundation assets grow the amount of money to be loaned to churches increases. Presently the Foundation will loan up to 55% of the total assets under management. Our current loan investment is $35 million.

Loan applications are considered each month by the church building loan committee. Applications received by the first of the month are considered in the meeting that month.

Interest rates are set four times each year by the committee, with the annual variable rate of interest being set in September each year for the following January through December. This allows borrowers who have chosen this type interest to schedule their new payment amount into the budget for the following year.

Questions concerning church building loans should be directed to Ron L. Fannin, vice president for church building loan services. Copies of "Policies and Regulations for Securing a Church Building Loan" are available upon request through his office.

Communication and Public Relations Services

An effective communication program is a vital part of the ministry of The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma. The following summary highlights the communication and public relations programs relating to the Baptist constituency, church and associational leaders, attorneys and other professionals, and the general public.

Communicating through special emphasis:

Each year two observances on the denominational calendar focus on Foundation ministries. January is observed as "Make Your Will Month," and September is designated "Baptist Foundation Month."

To mark these observances The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma prepared and mailed over 140,000 bulletin inserts to more than 1,600 churches. The inserts contained an estate stewardship theme and message and provided a form to request estate planning assistance or additional information.

These emphases are also promoted through articles in the Baptist Messenger, Care 'N Share, and associational newsletters. The Baptist Messenger devoted front cover and editorial space to promoting these events.

Another special emphasis was the State Evangelism Conference. The Foundation sponsored a booth at the Oklahoma Evangelism Conference January 23-24. Foundation staff members attended the booth, distributed and displayed materials.

Communicating with churches:

Most of the executive staff of the Foundation are ordained ministers and former pastors. Because they are gifted preachers they are busy almost every Sunday preaching in churches across the state and representing the work of the Foundation. They serve as interim pastors, preach revivals, conduct Bible studies, teach at Falls Creek, participate in World Mission Conferences and other meetings.

In addition to preaching schedules, Foundation staff members conducted Future Thrust emphases in churches throughout the year. Thirty-four Future Thrust programs were conducted this year in which staff members spoke on the work of the Foundation in morning worship services, conducted estate planning seminars during Church Training hours, and preached on estate stewardship in evening worship services. They also met by appointment with persons interested in receiving estate planning assistance.

Kay Association had an associational Future Thrust emphasis in September. Thirty-four churches completed the Future Thrust emphasis this year. They include: Enid, First; Tulsa, Eastwood; Cushing, Park Place; St. Louis, First; Tulsa, Berryhill; Lawton, Central; Webbers Falls, First; Broken Bow, First; Claremore, Memorial Heights; Cheyenne, First; Nowata, First; Valliant, First; Pittsburg, First; Okay, First; Oklahoma City, South Lindsay; Garber, First; Skiatook, First; Oleta, Sobol; Eufaula, North Fork; Mannsville, First; Haskell, First; Perkins, First; Ponca City, Sunset, Northeast, Longwood, Osage Heights, Southside; Blackwell, First; Red Rock, First; Lamont, First; Tonkawa, First and Newkirk, First.

Communicating through literature:

Distributing literature and other materials is yet another way the Foundation presents important information. Literature is distributed as staff members speak in churches or associations, and by mailings to persons requesting information. Literature is supplied to associational offices, associational Baptist Foundation representatives, pastors, staff members and directors of missions. Literature and materials are supplied in packets provided to attorneys, accountants, pastors and other professionals.

Special materials developed for the year include a fan for Falls Creek campers, a synchronized dual slide presentation and program covers for associational annual meetings. The Falls Creek fan this year featured the theme, "Unlimited Horizons." The slide presentation, "Today, Tomorrow, Until . . .," is an audio-visual presentation of Foundation history and information.

Literature pieces currently available for distribution include: "The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma," "Do You Need A Will?," "Estate Planning, A Christian Perspective," "When Death Does Us Part," "The Personal Representative," "The Gift Annuity Contract," "The Charitable Remainder Annuity Trust," "The Charitable Remainder Unitrust," "The Lawyer and His Baptist Client," "The Personal Record Album," "The Revocable Living Trust," "Policies and Regulations for Student Scholarships and Loans," and "Trust Administration Policies."

Communicating through media:

Press releases are prepared periodically for major regional and local newspapers, the Baptist Messenger, other denominational publications and professional publications for foundation executives and development officers. Public service announcements are prepared for use through radio and television.

The Baptist Messenger provides an excellent means for communicating important information to Baptist people. Articles in the state Baptist paper go to more than 110,000 subscribers weekly. These articles feature personal aspects of the Foundation's ministry, board actions, materials, programming, personnel and policy news. Reader response to these articles is significant and often leads to estate planning opportunities.

Press releases and pictures are sent to newspapers across the state regarding activities of the Foundation staff, preaching and speaking opportunities, church events, activities of the Foundation Board of Directors, retirements, anniversaries, board decisions and other Foundation news.

Communicating through ongoing programs:

The Pastor's Program is an ongoing event designed to establish communication with pastors state wide. Pastoral support is essential to Foundation activities with people in the churches. There is no substitute for the pastor's enthusiastic endorsement and his recommendation of this ministry. However, before pastors can respond in this manner, they first must have an understanding and appreciation for the purposes and programs of the Foundation.

Through the Pastor's Program, selected pastors, church staff members and others from across the state are invited to be guests of the Foundation eight different times a year. They attend an hour-and-a-half orientation presenting each aspect of the work of the Foundation. Open discussion is encouraged through question-and-answer periods. Guests also attend monthly committee meetings of the Foundation's Board of Directors, as observers. Evaluations reflect the appreciation pastors have for the Christian commitment and high degree of expertise board members contribute to the work. Last year 49 pastors and other guests attended these programs.

Personal Trustee Services

The Foundation, in serving as trustee for the assets of individuals, renders more than a financial service but offers a ministry with a personal touch as well. Many trustors require assistance in other areas of their lives than the investment of funds to provide for their livelihood. They need personal attention and practical help such as transportation to doctors appointments and assistance in filing insurance claims and tax returns. They also need a spiritual ministry of encouragement. Many of them have no family members to care for them.

Finley Tinnin, administrative assistant and former long-time pastor of Baptist Temple in Oklahoma City, regularly visits with these individuals and assists them in ways mentioned above. The Foundation presently has this kind of relationship with 35 persons across the state.

Property Management and Mineral Leasing Services

During the past year, the Foundation received six pieces of real estate valued at $130,000. These gifts of real property, including houses, farms, commercial buildings, vacant lots and grassland, were received through wills, trusts, or outright transfers.

Management of real property is supervised by a committee of seven board members. Decisions to sell, lease, rent, or repair properties are determined according to provisions in legal documents by which properties are received and upon recommendations of the vice president for property management and mineral leasing services.

The Foundation operates no businesses or farms, but leases them to others. Grassland and farms are leased on a cash-per-acre basis or a percentage of crops produced. Residential properties are either sold or rented by the month on a cash basis. Income from the management of real properties last year totaled $260,318.

The Foundation holds deeds to 12,000 acres of mineral interests in 61 counties in Oklahoma and in nine other states. During the past year the Foundation received four units of mineral interest, all in Oklahoma. Production and bonus income for last year was $875,802. This compares to $643,759 in 1987.

The Foundation's mineral interest business is also supervised by a committee of seven board members. This committee meets monthly to review lease offers, bonuses, rental delays, and sales.

Student Scholarship and Loan Services

The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma invests in ways other than equities, church building loans, cash equivalency instruments, and real estate. The Foundation also invests in people—especially young people involved in educational pursuits—by providing student scholarships and/or loans. There is no more effective way to shape the future than to assist in the educational preparation of bright, committed Christian young people who can significantly impact their world for Christ.

Presently the Foundation administers more than 300 scholarship and loan trusts. In most cases, donors establish within trust documents certain criteria for the determination of recipients. The majority of these grants and loans are limited to students attending Oklahoma Baptist University or Southern Baptist seminaries. However, there are a few scholarships provided through the Foundation to qualified applicants on a "funds available" basis.

During the 1988-89 school year, 182 students benefited from Foundation administered scholarships totaling $125,385.

One hundred and thirteen low interest student loans total over $276,000 of current investment. Loan recipients are required to pay only the interest on such loans while in school. Upon graduation or termination of their education, amortized schedules are established for repayment of loans over an extended period of time. Interest received on student loans during the past 12 months amounted to $18,099.

Baptist Messenger and Office of Communications

Glenn A. Brown, Editor

For 77 years the Baptist Messenger has been the official news magazine of Oklahoma Baptists. Since its beginning in 1912, the purpose of the state paper has been to strengthen and support the work of our churches and denomination by informing, describing, interpreting and promoting matters of interest and concern to church members.

The weekly paper is the primary means for communicating news about the larger family of Baptists in Oklahoma and the only paper that details the progress of the many ministries assigned to our convention by the churches. The editor also serves as director of communications for our convention.

As of last August, 1,168 of our churches included the cost of the Messenger in their budgets.

In August, 1989, a promotion plan was initiated to encourage churches without the Messenger to begin sending it to their members on a trial basis in view of considering it for inclusion in their 1990 budgets.

The 1989 budget income and expense for the Messenger office was $1.26 million. The source of income was as follows: subscriptions, 38 percent; Cooperative Program, 38 percent; special editions, 19 percent; and advertising, 5 percent.

Continued belt-tightening in local church budgets resulted in a decline in subscriptions from 114,303 in January 1989 to a low of 111,232 in July before starting the slow climb upward.

From its beginning in 1912, the Messenger has depended upon the verbal and financial support of the churches for its existence. That is still true today. We urge churches to continue their support by including the Messenger for every family in the church budget.

Office of Ministerial Services

Clyde Cain, Director

On an average Sunday in Oklahoma there are 18 pastoral changes. Nine churches become pastorless and nine churches call a pastor. In addition, there is an average of four staff changes per Sunday. One of the areas of ministry assigned to the Office of Ministerial Services is the Church-Minister relations work. This office provides assistance, through the director of missions or directly to the church, to find a pastor or staff member. A biographical resume file, with approximately four thousand resumes, is made available to churches in a confidential way. Each year, every pastorless church receives information from the Office of Ministerial Services in the form of a packet, "On Calling a Pastor." Approximately 75 percent of all churches seeking a pastor request and receive information from this office in a given year.

Conflict ministry in the local church has become a major area of ministry in the last five years. Assistance is provided through the director of missions office or directly to the local church where conflict is of major concern within the local congregation. Efforts are made to restore fellowship.

Continuing education, a second major area of work, has experienced a very fine growth.

1. Ministry Training Institute—Twenty-one centers with approximately 350 students.

2. Southwestern Seminary Study Center at OBU—Meets on Monday and enrolls approximately 130 students.

3. Seminary Extension—Thirteen certified centers, as well as Independent Study with a total of approximately 150 students.

4. Midwestern Seminary—Doctor of Ministry program, meets in Tulsa and Oklahoma City on alternating semesters and has approximately 25 students.

Six hundred and fifty students are involved in some type of continuing education in Oklahoma.

Two other arms of continuing education include the State Bible Conference at Falls Creek in May and the Kiamichi Bible Conference at Kiamichi Assembly in August. Between three and four hundred persons were involved in these two conferences.

Brotherhood

Laddie R. Adams, Director

October 1, 1987 SBC Brotherhood began new age grouping for men and boys. The uniform church letter was changed in 1988 to correspond. Since space is limited Basic Baptist Men, Mission Action, Witnessing and Lay Renewal which had one space each were combined. This resulted in a 47,476 decrease in 1988 leaving a total of 525,511 SBC Brotherhood enrollment. Oklahoma Brotherhood enrollment taken from the church letters showed a decrease of 1,522 in 1988 leaving a total of 16,127. The Baptist Mission Center, Oklahoma City, reports that 50,948 pieces of clothing were distributed to 12,054 people; 4,280 days of food were distributed to 7,325 people; $73,062 worth of free medical care and $4,672 worth of free dental care was provided. Twelve summer missionaries served during the summer of 1989 at the center.

The Tulsa Women's Shelter housed 218 children and 305 women during the last 12 months.

The Baptist Mission Center, Tulsa, held the Annual Youth Conference, January 27-29 with approximately 300 in attendance each day.

For 16 years a group of students from Oklahoma Baptist University have received some expense money from the Missions Department through their BSU, which made it possible for them to be involved in community ministries. Students tutor, lead in recreation, minister, counsel and do whatever ministry is needed. This year two new ministries were added to the outreach area. A student led puppet and clowning ministry team called "Light Heart" and a new evangelistic ministry called "Shawnee Serf Club" aimed at reaching youth and getting them into our local Baptist churches. At least 30 OBU students helped with a carnival in Oklahoma City at the Baptist Mission Center where several hundred children and youth were entertained.

Workers in literacy missions are continuing to be trained. On June 28-30, a Literacy Missions Workshop was held at OBU. Approximately 40 people have received training in conversational English or adult reading and writing or Alfalit literacy. All sections of the state have certified leaders who can lead workshops to train others in literacy missions. The need for literacy missions volunteers is great. Our state continues to attract internationals at an increased rate and literacy missions provides a good opportunity for sharing the gospel.

Pact

Project: Assistance for Churches in Transitional Communities (PACT) is a Home Mission Board developed program to respond to a church's request for help when it discovers itself located in a significantly changing community. PACT helps a church to rediscover its mission and to redream its dream as well as plans programs for reaching and ministering to the people in the church and its community.

Bob Lovejoy is the state PACT coordinator. Three churches have received consultation this year. Contact the Missions Department for more information or assistance.

Student Summer Missions

Twenty-nine student summer missionaries served in missions all across Oklahoma during the summer of 1989. They served in rural, inner city, resort, metropolitan and general missions in 13 different areas of the state. Their work included surveys, Vacation Bible School, backyard Bible clubs, mission center activities, resort missions, counselors in camps, children's homes, and a host of other responsibilities. Some of the students made commitments to full-time Christian service during the summer.

Interfaith Witness

One conference was held in the state May 30-31, with 51 people receiving training toward becoming certified Interfaith Witness Associates. Their training in the beliefs of Mormons, New Age Movement and Satanism equips them to lead awareness conferences and to share how Christians can effectively witness to other religious groups.

Hunger Funds

Fifty-seven thousand, six hundred and forty-six dollars from the Home Mission Board hunger funds have been channeled throughout the state to help the hungry in Oklahoma during this time of economic slowdown.

Chaplaincy

Chaplaincy, both military and civilian, has a long and intriguing history. The sick, the wounded, the imprisoned and the institutionalized have been spiritually ministered to by concerned chaplains. Today, 147 chaplains serve in career and volunteer chaplaincy ministries in Oklahoma.

One of the exciting new chaplaincy ministries is the State Fair in Oklahoma City. Seventy-three volunteer chaplains made 6,120 personal contacts with 1,303 being one-on-one counseling sessions.

Joe Williams, Chaplaincy Director for the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma, assisted the Oklahoma County Sheriff's Office in establishing a chaplaincy ministry along with several other law enforcement agencies in the state. He has also assisted the Bethany Hospital in beginning a Chaplaincy Program.

A retreat was provided for chaplains and spouses in September at the Falls Creek Conference Center. A Chaplains' luncheon was held in November in Tulsa. Quarterly meetings were conducted with the Chaplaincy Advisory Committee.

A mobile unit for specialized chaplaincy ministries has been donated to the Missions Department. The unit is presently being repaired, renovated and made usable for a mobile chapel to be used around the state at truck stops, special events, prison facilities, and to be made available for disaster emergencies.

An adult study on Satanism was coordinated by the Chaplaincy Director and taught at Falls Creek in which there were 654 people involved.

Church Extension

New Church/Mission Starts

The following new church/mission starts and preaching points are in addition to those presented in the Language Mission report. they include Wimer Baptist Mission in Rogers Association, sponsored by First Baptist Church, Lenapah. The Wimer Mission began in February with 74 persons present in the first service (40 from the sponsoring church). Director of Missions, Weldon Foster, and Nowata County churches assisted the Lenapah church in distributing promotional leaflets and preparing the facility for worship. One adult was saved during the first service.

Emmanuel Baptist Church of Edmond started Hope Community Church in North Edmond. Pastor John Meador also preaches at the Hope Church. The Hope Church, which meets in a theatre, had 82 persons present in the first service on April 30. Pastor Meador and Emmanuel Church placed 3,000 phone calls to homes in North Edmond and compiled a mailing list of 400 families who expressed interest in receiving additional information. Mail-outs were sent four weeks in-a-row giving information about the new church and the date, time and place for the first service. Hope Church got off to a good start. Attendance has remained good.

Truelove Baptist Church of Spencer is a new black congregation in Capital Association sponsored by Dixon Baptist Church. Calvin Muse is pastor of Truelove. Seventy were enrolled in Vacation Bible School. Sunday School average attendance is 45. First Baptist Church, Spencer, deeded their building and property to Capital Baptist Association who in turn made it available for starting Truelove Baptist Church.

New Faith Baptist Church of Muskogee is another new black congregation. Kyle White is pastor.

Bethany, First Baptist Church, where Matthew Koonce is pastor, has voted to sponsor a new black congregation. A pastor has been approved and the first service will be conducted upon completion of plans for a meeting place.

Other new congregations this year include the Osage Mission of Sunset Baptist Church, Ponca City; Harrah Mission of First Baptist Church, Harrah; Trinity Fellowship Baptist Church, presently under the watchcare of East Central Baptist Association; Lahoma Baptist Mission in Perry Association which is sponsored by First Baptist Church, Ringwood; and Calvary Baptist Church, Terral, which began March 26 with 33 persons present. The Terral Church plans to petition Mullins Association for membership.

New preaching points this year include Indian Hills Resort and Horse Creek Resort on Grand Lake in Northeastern Association. Services are conducted by James "Bo" Holland, Church Planter for Northeastern Oklahoma. Charles Remple, pastor at Langley in Northeastern Association, conducts services at Cherokee State Park on Grand Lake. In Craig-Mayes Association, another preaching point has been established at Green Country Family Resort.

An Apartment Ministry was begun this summer in the Quail Ridge Apartments and sponsored by Quail Springs Baptist Church in Oklahoma City.

The following missions were constituted as churches this year: Faith Baptist Church in Banner Association; Bellevue Baptist Church, Blanchard, in Union Association; and Canadian Valley Mission in Central Association. Canadian Valley was a mission of Chisholm Heights, Mustang.

A combined report of Language and Church Extension reveals 31 new churches/missions and mission ministries.

Mission Sites Purchased

The Cooperative Missions Department gave assistance in the purchase of three mission property sites this year. The Edna McMillan State Mission Offering made this assistance possible.

Southern Hills Baptist Church of Oklahoma City purchased 10 acres at 134th and Pennsylvania in Southwest Oklahoma City. Pastor Jerry Fielder explained that the mission site has a 400 ft. frontage and is located in a projected growth area.

Kay Baptist Association, under the leadership of Cliff Fite, Director of Missions, purchased a 4.9 acre site with a 500 ft. frontage. The property is located on U.S. 60 and Indian Hills Road in Osage County. Sunset Baptist Church of Ponca City has voted to start the new work. Pastor David Waganer and the Sunset Church utilized a PRAXIS team to assist them in church starting ministries. Mobile units have been purchased for temporary facilities. A church starting revival has been planned for this fall.

Henderson Hills Baptist Church in Edmond purchased an 11 acre site with a 305 ft. frontage on the south side of Sorghum Mill Road (N.E. 234th) about ¼ mile east of Broadway. Capital Baptist Association and the Cooperative Missions Department of the BGCO assisted in the property purchase.

Church Starting PROBES

A PROBE is an intensive field study of an association to determine potential new work needs. Some have called PROBE a "sophisticated windshield survey" or a "conference on wheels." The PROBE utilizes guest church extension consultants who work with local teams of pastors and associational leaders. The teams study the background data and research materials prepared and examine assigned areas to discover church starting needs. The PROBE emphasizes the need for new churches/missions; however, other mission needs are also discovered.

The Cooperative Missions Department helped plan and assist in three church starting PROBES. The PROBES were conducted in Banner, Craig-Mayes and Commanche-Cotton Associations. Sixteen participants on four teams discovered 16 areas where mission ministries or new churches/missions are needed in Banner Association. In Craig-Mayes Association, 26 participants on five teams discovered 17 such needs. In Commanche-Cotton Association, 27 participants on four teams located 31 needs for mission ministries or new churches/missions. PROBE information indicated that less than 10% of the population in these three associations is active in Southern Baptist churches.

Church Starting Team

Jim and Eloise Murphy, students at New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary were approved as a church starting (PRAXIS) team to serve during the summer in Kay Baptist Association. The Murphys were assigned to Pastor David Waganer and Sunset Baptist Church of Ponca City. They were involved in church starting projects such as home Bible studies, door-to-door visitation, community survey, mission Vacation Bible School, compilation of a prospect file, community cultivative events, bulk mail-outs and numerous other activities.

Church Starting Conference

A "Growth 2000" Church Starting Conference was conducted March 2-3 at Kelham Baptist Church, Oklahoma City. The conference provided training in starting new churches/mission. Thad Hamilton, from the Evangelism Department of the Home Mission Board, and Wayne Bristow, Evangelism Director for the BGCO, shared information and materials on how to start churches with revivals. Floyd Tidsworth, Home Mission Board consultant, presented methods for starting churches in mobile home parks. He noted that it is often possible to start a church in a mobile home park that has 100 or more homes. Boyd Rayburn, Church Planter for Union Baptist Association, gave practical suggestions on how to sponsor a mission. Kenneth Neibel, Church Extension Consultant with the Home Mission Board, discussed the use of the telephone and mail-outs in starting new churches/missions. The 56 conferrees also heard personal testimonies on new church starts and viewed church starting films.

Missions Development Programs

The term "Missions Committee" has been replaced by "Missions Development Council" in both the church and associational organizations. The Missions Development Council is responsible for assessing mission needs and discovering ways to meet those needs.

This year, orientation and/or training was completed in Union, Caddo and North Canadian Associations in regard to the Associational Missions Development Council. A.M.D.P. materials were mailed on request to Salt Fork and Northeastern Associations for orientation or training of council members. Contact Donald Brent for information or training in the Associational Missions Development Program.

Specialized Conference

The Church Extension Consultant conducted two conferences in San Bois Association for churches experiencing plateau and/or decline.

Church Planters Approved

Comanche-Cotton and Tulsa Baptist Associations approved church planter positions. Church planter personnel should be secured this year.

Bi-Vocational and Part-time/Volunteer Song Leaders and Accompanists Retreat, Falls Creek, September 8-9.

Southern Baptist Leadership Training

We also promoted these church music training opportunities: Southern Baptist Church Music Conference, Las Vegas, NV, June 11-12; Church Music Week at Ridgecrest, June 17-23, and Glorieta, July 8-14; Music Conference, Baylor University, July 31-August 3.

Supportive Help

We are happy to support the other agencies and departments of our convention. We have had the privilege of assisting 10 of our departments and agencies in planning and carrying out their programs.

Singing Churchmen

We had 127 men enrolled in the organization this year with eight performances and rehearsal clinics within the state. We also sang at the Southern Baptist Church Music Conference in Las Vegas, NV. We encourage all full time ministers of music to be a part of this organization.

Falls Creek

Over 1,200 young people and adults participated in the choir and instrumental ensemble during the five weeks. This year all the choral directors were from Oklahoma Baptist churches: Max Pyron, First, Marlow; Dan Heath, Emmanuel, Enid; James D. Woodward, Oklahoma Baptist University; David Scherler, First, Bartlesville; Tom Willoughby, First, Lawton. Instrumental directors were Rusty Stowe, Exchange Avenue Baptist, Oklahoma City; Susan Clothier, graduate student at Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, TX; Sim Flora, Oklahoma Baptist University.

Readin' and Singin' Schools

We had one five week school in Arbuckle association with approximately 15 enrolled. Directors of missions and associational music directors are encouraged to provide this type of training to help church members be better prepared to aid in their own music ministries.

Singing Church Women of Oklahoma

A singing group for women in Oklahoma Baptist churches has been organized this summer. We have 200 women who will participate in two choirs. They will sing two times this year and will also sing with The Singing Churchmen at the state convention in Tulsa in November. James D. Woodward will direct both groups. We are excited about the possibilities of this group.

Music in Worship Workshops

These workshops are planned for those who participate in worship planning in the churches: pastor, minister of music, accompanists. This year they have been hosted by East Central, Craig-Mayes, Central, and Northeastern associations.

Statistical Report

Oklahoma Baptist churches had a 1.0 decrease in the music ministry enrollment this past year. However, in the past five years we have had a 2.8 increase and a 25.6 increase in the past 10 years. This increase would be greater if all our churches who had music ministries would report on the annual church letter. We had 78% reporting in 1988. We continue to urge all churches to make this report.

Your Church Music Department is made up of Paul Magar, director; Mary June Tabor, assistant; Judy Enegren, secretary.

Paul Magar was elected as director of the Department of Church Music in March, 1989, succeeding Glenn Boyd who returned to Kenya, East Africa, as music missionary.

Historical Commission

By J. M. Gaskin, Director

Members of the Historical Commission are George Atkins, Weatherford; Carleen Jones, Duncan; Slayden A. Yarbrough, Shawnee; Lemuel F. Ball, Jr., Claremore; Anson Justice, Oklahoma City; Roy Lind, Lexington; J. P. Dane, Yukon; Hale Dixon, Pauls Valley; and Alvin Turner, El Reno. Yarbrough is chairman.

The 1988-89 year has been marked by progress in a number of areas. Special and ongoing projects have been profitable. The Baptist public in Oklahoma and elsewhere is growing in its use of the Oklahoma Baptist Collection at OBU.

Awards

Four standing awards were given the past year. Lem Ball received the Distinguished Service Award for Outstanding Contributions to Baptist History. Linda Green, Walters, received the GASKIN CHURCH HISTORY AWARD. J. D. Ward, Shawnee, was given the Baptist Heritage Sermon Award. Carron Clements, OBU, received the GASKIN BAPTIST HISTORY AWARD. Linda's entry was a history of the New Salem Baptist Church of which her husband is pastor. Carron is a 1989 graduate of OBU. The two Gaskin awards brought certificates and $350.00 checks to the two winners. The cash portion of these awards comes from endowments with the Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma.

'89er Celebration

The Spring Number of the The Oklahoma Baptist Chronicle for 1989 was a special edition. It was dedicated to the Run of '89. Papers in that journal give appropriate information relative to that historical event in central Oklahoma. Copies are still available at $2 each, postpaid. Order from J. M. Gaskin, OBU, Shawnee, OK 74801.

Indian Missionary

One year ago, the Historical Society adopted a special project for this year. The project involves encapsulation of about 640 pages of The Indian Missionary. This publication was issued in 1884-93. It was the first and only official news journal of the antecedent bodies of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma before the Baptist Messenger was founded in 1912. Cost of the non-budgeted project will approximate $2,500. The completion date for this restoration/preservation job was scheduled for October of this year for showing at this year's annual meeting of the Historical Society at 5:00 p.m., Nov. 15.

McConnell Book

During the year J. M. Gaskin completed the manuscript for The McConnell Years in Oklahoma. During the summer months the Messenger Press has been printing the book to have is ready for this convention. The 198-page book is available in good quality hardback and paperback. The hardback copies are priced at $7.95 per copy and the paperback edition at $4.95. Dr. McConnell was Corresponding Secretary (now Executive Director-Treasurer) of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma in 1916-22. The book is more than a biography. It includes a definitive history of Oklahoma Baptists during one of the most crucial periods in the history of the state of Oklahoma.

Handbook

Several years ago the Historical Commission recommended to the convention that J. M. Gaskin prepare a Handbook for the Commission and the Historical Society. In a meeting April 16, 1989, final approval was voted by the Commission to print from the galley proofs Gaskin submitted for consideration. The Handbook details the work of the Commission and Society; explains the relationship between the two; gives a documented history of the history program of Oklahoma Baptists back to 1906; specifies duties of the present and future directors of history; provides a guide and key to the use of the Oklahoma Baptist Collection; explains how that collection evolved, its ownership, and administration; and offers numerous other details incident to the Commission/Society's programs of work. Copies are available to interested persons for $1 each. However, it was written for use as an in-house organ. Commission members feel this booklet, which is now available, will be a useful reference piece for years to come. It will be a daily working instrument in the Baptist Collection, especially for persons who have responsibilities there.

Encyclopedia

The Historical Commission of the Southern Baptist Commission is in the planning stages to publish Volume V of The Encyclopedia of Southern Baptists. Within the year plans should be in shape for Oklahoma's participation in this project.

The Historical Society is auxiliary to the Commission. Commission members are elected by the convention. Society membership is open to any interested person. Society dues are $25 for Life and $2 for Annual. Monies received from Society dues barely help with postage costs in the work of the Society and Commission. The work of the Historical Commission is funded from the Cooperative Program.

Family Care Ministries

Sam L. Garner, Executive Director

I. Developing the Image

Family Care Ministries encompasses three major areas of interest, as follows:

1. Child Care Ministries—Residential care of dependent children on 10 campuses, foster care, and psychological counseling.
2. Adult Care Ministries—Seven retirement centers across Oklahoma, three assisted living units, and nearly 350 nursing home beds.
3. Special Care—Crisis Pregnancy Ministry, maternity home, adoptions, and special needs counseling.
4. Total number of people Family Care Ministries served in 1988 was 12,183. Of this number, over 3,300 were counseled through the Crisis Pregnancy Ministry.

II. Enlarging the Boundaries

Among the dreams for the future are the following:

1. Developing a ministry to the developmentally disabled.
2. Expansion of service to troubled boys through facilities at Boys Ranch Town.
3. Centralization and enlargement of Baptist Maternity Home services.
4. Crisis Pregnancy Center to include a toll-free, 800 number in Oklahoma.
5. Enlarging Adult Care services to include an Alzheimer's Wing at Oklahoma City, and the continuation of construction of Life Estate Duplexes and Quadruplexes at all villages.
6. Develop and implement a Drug and Alcohol Counseling Center.

III. Financing the Opportunities

Four major avenues of revenue are available to continue and expand these ministries as follows:

1. Cooperative Program gifts are a major lifeline to this ministry. Without Cooperative Program gifts our present ministries could not continue.

2. Mother's Day Offering has averaged over $500,000 for the past six years. This annual mission offering may be received any time in the year.

3. Special gifts, including direct mail—$93,000; Birthday/Anniversary Banks—$135,000; and memorials and honor gifts—$70,500.

4. Endowment/wills and trusts—Expanded stewardship of faithful individuals continue to provide blessings throughout and beyond our lifetime.

5. A total of $20,030,000 in debt service for Adult Care Ministries was refinanced during the year. The refinancing project leveled out the payments on a monthly basis and also lowered the interest rate that was presently being paid.

Several administrative changes were made in both Child Care and Adult Care services. Oklahoma City Baptist Children's Home Administrator Jerry T. Bradley was named as Director of Child Care Ministries. Rod A. Phillips was named to the Oklahoma City Children's Home campus, moving from the Owasso campus. Tandy V. James became administrator of Baptist Children's Home in Madill, moving from the staff of Boys Ranch Town. Douglas McWhirter became administrator of Baptist Children's Home, Owasso, moving from a position with Arkansas Children's Services.

Robert D. Griffin was named administrator of Baptist Retirement Center in Owasso. Due to the retirement of Jack H. Owens, Administrator/Chaplain of Cleveland Baptist Village, James E. Taylor was named to fill the vacancy, moving from the pastorate of Terlton, First.

Family Care Ministries extends a special word of gratitude to Oklahoma Baptists whose prayers and support enable Child Care, Adult Care, and Special Care Ministries to serve a growing number of individuals each year.

Annuity Services

J. T. Roberts

ANNUITY—As of June 30, 1989, 1,386 ministers and employees of Oklahoma churches and associations were participating in the Church Annuity Plan; 708 churches and associations had entered into Cooperative Agreements with the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma to provide the Church Annuity Plan's expanded benefits. Ministers and eligible employees of these expanded participating churches and associations benefit from matching employer and Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma contributions as well as supplemental life and disability protection.

There were 969 active members in the Convention Annuity Plan in Oklahoma at the end of the second quarter. This is the pension plan used by most Southern Baptist institutions, agencies and state conventions.

In total, 62,834 Southern Baptist ministers, church employees and denominational workers had active retirement accounts at the Annuity Board. This cooperation between the Board and its participants fulfills the commitment to develop benefit programs that will give Southern Baptist ministers, missionaries and denominational workers security in old age and protection against the financial burdens of illness, disability and death.

On June 30, 1989, 20,557 retirees and other annuitants (772 in Oklahoma) had received benefits totaling $40,805, 161 in the preceding six months.

INSURANCE—Illness and accident are always tragic. But prudent purchase of insurance by participants and sound management of insurance assets by the Annuity Board allowed payment of medical claims in excess of $42 million through the second quarter of 1989.

Protection through illness remains the most difficult challenge in 1989 with the cost explosion in medical care. This results in a nationwide increase in medical insurance rates. The Annuity Board remains acutely aware of the impact soaring health-care costs have on the 38,428 participants in the Church, Group and Seminarian medical plans. The Insurance Services Division is committed to finding solutions to the challenging problems these burdensome costs impose on Southern Baptist ministers, church staffs and denominational workers.

A new Annuity Board program offers property and casualty insurance administered by the Southern Baptist Convention Managing General Agency, Inc. This affiliate makes available property and casualty coverage for church-owned property, general liability, workers' compensation, bus liability, day-care liability and ministers' malpractice insurance.

Property and casualty insurance is being offered in Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and Texas this year, and it will expand to other states in 1990.

THE ANNUITY BOARD managed total assets of $2.6 billion on June 30, 1989. Though the magnitude of this statistic can be overwhelming, the Annuity Board's employees and those in the Annuity Services Department of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma endeavor to make every letter, every call, every application, and every claim form a personal event.

The Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention and the Annuity Services Department of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma are anxious to help churches and church staff members in Oklahoma have the best retirement plans and insurance programs available.

Evangelism

Wayne Bristow, Director

Baptisms were up 1.64% in 1988, 18,434 compared to 18,137 in 1987. This was the first increase in baptisms in five years. The ratio of baptisms to resident church membership improved slightly to 24.34.

Nineteen associations reported increases in baptisms in 1988. Union and Comanche-Cotton reported the largest increases, 298 and 246 respectively. Each had better than average baptisms to church membership ratios, 16.17 for Comanche-Cotton and 19.19 for Union. Joe Knowles was the associational evangelism director for Union and Gary MacManamy for Comanche-Cotton.

The Cherokee Indian Association showed an increase of 127 baptisms in 1988 and had the best ratio in the state, 12.81. Joe Pershica was associational evangelism director.

Fourteen BGCO churches baptized over 100 people in 1988 and six exceeded 200. These churches were led by First Southern, Del City with 387 baptisms and First Baptist, Moore with 349. Tom Elliff is pastor at Del City and Bobby Boyles at Moore.

With 1.33 Oakview Hispanic Baptist Mission in Madill led in the ratio of baptisms to resident membership. Mariano Alvarado is the pastor.

Capital, Tulsa and Union associations combine for 38% of BGCO church membership and reported 38% of the 1988 baptisms.

Conferences

The evangelism department of the Baptist General Convention planned and promoted six evangelism-related conferences in 1988-89.

The YOUTH EVANGELISM CONFERENCE was held December 27-28, 1988, at First Southern Baptist Church in Del City. The Lord continues to bless this effort. Some 8,000 youth attended. Several hundred rededicated their lives by standing as directed by evangelist Jerry Johnston. Those who wanted to accept Christ were asked to come forward. Eighty-five youth made this commitment.

What may have been the largest crowd ever to attend the STATE EVANGELISM CONFERENCE heard Arthur Blessitt preach the closing service January 24, 1989. His message had been preceded by other inspirational messages by Noel McCullins, O. S. Hawkins, Adrian Rogers, Bobby Boyles, Ron Long, Doug Knapp, Ron Dunn, Esther Burroughs, Perry Sanders, and Roy Edgemon. The 1990 conference will be held at First Southern Baptist Church, Del City, January 22-23. John Bisagno of First Baptist Church, Houston, Texas, will be the closing speaker.

The INDIAN EVANGELISM CONFERENCE was held at First Baptist Church, Moore, March 9-10, 1989. Speakers included Johnny Lay from Yakima, Washington and Dr. Perry Sanders from First Baptist Church, Lafayette. This conference will be held in March of each year.

A Regional PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL AWAKENING CONFERENCE was held March 20-22, 1989, in the Oklahoma City area. The conference was hosted by Council Road Baptist Church, Bethany, the Home Mission Board, and the BGCO evangelism department. Guest speakers were Tom Elliff, Dwight Reighard, Henry Blackaby, Nell Bruce and Miles Seaborn. Guest musicians were Ron and Patricia Owens.

The HISPANIC EVANGELISM CONFERENCE was held for the first-time ever in Oklahoma. A joint venture of the Baptist General Convention evangelism and missions departments, it was held April 8, 1989, with 300 people in attendance at Exchange Avenue Baptist Church, Oklahoma City. The featured speakers were Gilbert Herrera, Alberto Mottesi and a singing group from Guatemala, "Los Nazareos." People came to the conference from Oklahoma, Nebraska, Kansas and Arkansas. We are optimistic that this conference will continue to grow in numbers.

At the time of the report, the first-of-its-kind, THE NATIONAL SOUL-WINNING CONFERENCE will have been held at the Council Road Baptist Church here in the Oklahoma City area. Oklahoma was chosen to host the first conference because the Home Mission Board felt that a climate for outreach and evangelism already existed among the churches in Oklahoma. This conference featured a door-to-door witnessing ministry.

Evangelism Training

Ed Chaney, BGCO associate evangelism director continues to lead in an aggressive personal evangelism training emphasis.

The C.W.T. (CONTINUING WITNESS TRAINING) SEMINAR, February 6-10, 1989, was a successful and inspirational seminar. This past year Oklahoma helped to introduce the ADVANCED CWT SEMINAR. This training was held at the same time as the basic course. The advanced seminar targets specific areas of training for the Christian witness such as various cults. It also has a lesson on how to witness to the secular man.

Training in the use of the LAY EVANGELISM SCHOOLS in our churches continues to be a strong emphasis. Another 150 LES leaders were trained in 1988 in addition to the 191 already trained. Exciting reports continue to come in to the evangelism department from churches who are conducting LES's.

Ed Chaney had the opportunity February-March of 1989 to travel to Korea and to participate in the training of over 700 Korean pastors and church leaders in the use of the LES materials.

Evangelism Department Ministries

Youth Evangelism Teams

Youth revival teams conducted services in 21 churches during the summer of 1989. Two churches reported over 20 professions of faith as a result of their ministry. Most of the young people were from Oklahoma Baptist University, while one was from the Baptist Student Union at Cameron, Lawton.

Tent Evangelism

Both tents, one a 200-seating capacity and the other a 500-seating capacity continue to be used for evangelism events around the state. They were used 33 times during the past year. An Olympic Festival, July 21-30, 1989, was hosted by Oklahoma. During the festival, the small tent was used to a wonderful advantage in Lawton. For more information about the tents, contact the BGCO evangelism department.

Falls Creek

Six hundred and fifty-eight men and women were trained as Falls Creek counselors in 1989. One hundred and fifty pastors helped as pastor-advisors. Evangelism staff members and volunteer section leaders directed the work of counseling 3,052 inquirers during the five weeks of Falls Creek.

Simultaneous Revivals

Diligent preparation was made throughout the state for the 1990 Here's Hope, Jesus Cares for You Simultaneous Revivals. Many churches conducted prayer seminars and LES's.

Wayne Bristow conducted Revival Preparation Seminars in 15 associations during 1988 and 1989.

The revival preparation emphasis continues to be available through the evangelism department.

We believe God is going to bless the simultaneous revival effort in a dynamic way.

Oklahoma Evangelists' Retreat

A two-day retreat was held December 15-16, 1988, for full-time Oklahoma evangelists and their spouses at the Hilton Inn West in Oklahoma City. Guest speakers were Dr. Don Wilton, Dr. Claude Thomas, and David Chambers. About forty people were in attendance. The retreat was so successful and positive that another one is scheduled for December 14-16, 1989, in Oklahoma City. Featured speakers are Dr. Bob Kendig and Dr. Mack Roark.

Planning and Promotion

Lyle Garlow, Director

The Planning and Promotion Office is an extension of the Executive Office. The associate executive director of the BGCO serves as director of this area of work, in addition to administrative responsibilities.

Departments relating to Planning and Promotion are those most closely related to programs and activities with counterparts in the local church—Brotherhood, Church Music, Cooperative Missions, Evangelism, Falls Creek Conference Center, Religious Education and Woman's Missionary Union. Coordination includes program and budget development, program promotion, calendar coordination and denominational emphasis planning.

Along with the coordinating function, the Planning and Promotion Office has been assigned six programs of work. Programs, staff assignments, and reports for last year are:

Cooperative Program Promotion

Lyle Garlow is the Director of Cooperative Program promotion.

Total 1988 Cooperative Program receipts were the highest in history, reaching $16,056,645—$547,170 above 1987, a 3.5% increase. However, this was $443,335 below our $16.5 million objective.

Total church tithes and offerings were $170,465,580, an increase of $41,250 over 1987. Total undesignated receipts (basically budget receipts) were up $2,484,135, indicating an increased support of church budgets.

The 1988 Cooperative Program was divided 44% for SBC mission ministries and 56% for Oklahoma ministries.

The 1990 proposed budget remains at $16.5 million and reflects a one-fourth of one percent increase to SBC, setting the 1990 division at 44.25% and 55.75%. The promotion emphasis, "MOVE UP: REACH OKLAHOMA and the WORLD through the Cooperative Program," focuses on an endeavor to lead each church to consider a 1%, or a ¼ % fraction, such as ¾ %, ½ %, or ¼ %, increase to world missions through the Cooperative Program. Leadership has been asked to share information and encourage the church to consider an increase.

During 1988-89, Appreciation Dinners were conducted in 20 associations. Seventeen are scheduled for 1989-90. Participants include the pastor, treasurer, chairman of deacons and budget committee, and the four spouses. Content of the program includes an emphasis on missions support through the Cooperative Program.

Coordinated Promotion Planning

"MOVE UP: REACH OKLAHOMA" is Oklahoma's thematic emphasis for 1989-90. All programs of work are relating to this theme. Churches have been encouraged to establish enrollment and growth goals. During 1990, awareness and training meetings are scheduled to launch the 1990-1995 SBC denominational emphasis, "Hope and Heritage." Lyle Garlow is the state director of Coordinated Promotion Planning.

Associational Services

The liaison relationship between the state convention and the 41 Oklahoma associations is directed by Lyle Garlow.

The state convention works with associations to strengthen them just as we work with individual churches. All Baptist entities are independent and self-governing. However, we are all interdependent and strive to coordinate our work to best accomplish our mutual tasks.

Since the last publication of the Book of Reports, we have had the following changes in associational leadership. New directors of missions are: Ralph Chapman, Beckham-Mills Association (5-89); J. R. Stogsdill, Cherokee Association (7-89) where he previously served; Wade Robertson, LeFlore Association (3-89); Darryl Moore, Perry Association (1-89); and Chester A. Ward, Jr., Pittsburg Association (9-89). M. H. Childers retired (5-89) after serving Beckham-Mills Association 12 and a half years; Joshua Davis retired (12-88) having served Cherokee Association four years; Richard Brooks retired (9-88) after serving LeFlore Association 11 years; and Tom Cotten retired from Enon Association (12-88) where he served 20 years. William V. Hart resigned Pittsburg Association (8-89) to return to the pastorate. Don Clark moved (4-89) from Johnston-Marshall Association to Enon Association. L. M. Norwood, former director of missions in Union, Banner and South Canadian Associations, went to be with the Lord.

Church Administration

Church Administration supervision and planning are done by Henry L. Chennault who is the Church Administration Consultant for the BGCO. In 1988-89, several training conferences were held, as well as personal consultations, to serve churches and staff:

October 11, 1988—Pastoral Training Conference

October 13, 1988—Pastoral Training Conference

October 27-28, 1988—Conference on Preaching

February 27-28, 1989—Oklahoma Preaching Conference

May 18-19, 1989—Ministers of Education Programming Retreat

Week-by-week, the church administration office provides resources and information to assist churches in their planning.

Stewardship

Henry L. Chennault serves as Director of Stewardship for the BGCO. The Planning and Promotion Office aids Oklahoma Baptist churches in stewardship promotion and development. Assistance is given through area and associational conferences, individual church conferences, and personal staff conferences. Budget and stewardship materials are provided at no cost to the churches.

Each church is encouraged to have at least one stewardship emphasis per year. In 1989, churches were encouraged to have an abbreviated, or mini-stewardship campaign prior to the summer months.

From October, 1988, to September, 1989, eighteen associational stewardship conferences were conducted.

In September, 1989, four area-wide stewardship preaching conferences were conducted in Enid, Lawton, Oklahoma City and Muskogee. The objective of these conferences was to prepare and encourage pastors in their stewardship preaching.

Media Services

This past year saw an increase in demand for media services. As more materials become available on video tape, churches and associations are acquiring video players, monitors and video projectors. With the closing of the Baptist Film Centers across the country, video is rapidly becoming the media training tool of choice and necessity. Churches are discovering exciting ways to use these tools, along with radio and television to enhance training and outreach.

Cade Garrison serves as Director of Media Services. Areas of service include video productions for the BGCO; media consultation for the convention, churches and associations; church media library training and consultation; and BTN consultation and training.

BGCO video productions this past year included:

Missions News Network (local church)

Many Voices of Oklahoma (Cooperative Missions)

Falls Creek Assembly and Conference Center

The Baptist Faith and Message After 26 Years (Historical Commission)

Convention Reports (state convention presentations of several BGCO departments)

In addition to video productions, media services provided numerous personal consultations to churches involved in radio and television ministries, BTN and church media library.

Currently, over 430 Oklahoma Baptist churches have access to BTN. Owned and operated by the Baptist Sunday School Board, BTN provides video resource materials to aid the entire church program. This past year, BTN area training meetings were conducted in five different locations across the state.

The annual State Church Media Library Conference was held this past June. Members approved an updated version of their bylaws and enjoyed the various training sessions provided. Regional representatives were added to provide better service to local churches.

Religious Education

Bill C. Haggard, Director

Although 1987-88 was a year of challenge in many respects, it was a very productive year for the Department of Religious Education. The annual theme for Sunday School beginning in October 1988, was "Gather the People," which is a part of the five year "challenge 10/90" thrust.

Church Training emphasized "Developing Believers" through leadership training and curriculum. A new Church Training record system is being developed which will more accurately reflect the total number involved in discipleship training throughout the year.

Department Personnel

The department maintains an exceptional staff of five field workers and five secretaries. Included on the staff are: Darlene Koch, Preschool and Childhood Education Consultant, Special Education, and Children's Weekday Education; David Fuller, Youth Consultant, language/ethnic work, and Vacation Bible School; Billy Allen, adult consultant, associational projects; and Joe Sherrer, general administration consultant, state projects. One of the five secretaries, Mrs. Joan Eischen, retired this year after 10 years of faithful, effective service. Joining the staff in this position was Mrs. Janice Newton. We welcome her to the R.E. family as secretary to the department director. The other secretaries are: Sybil Cox, secretary to Sherrer; Donas Rye, secretary to Allen; Lou Rodriguez, secretary to Fuller; and Olive Hays, secretary to Koch.

Statistics

In spite of the great out migration from Oklahoma, the spirit of Oklahoma Baptists has been most encouraging. Sunday School enrollment continues to be affected in that this year, a total of 372,622 was reported, a net decline of over 7,000. The entire Southern Baptist Convention showed a slight decline with a total enrollment of 7,911,373 reported. As the enrollment in Oklahoma shows a decline, the percentage of attendance to enrollment continues to climb.

Vacation Bible Schools in the state reported a total enrollment of 145,865 for 1988. Probably, one of the most productive tools we have is Vacation Bible School. Total prospects discovered reached a projected total of 26,919. According to our reports, churches are following up on less than 10% of these prospects. In 1988, 2,665 professions of faith were reported in V.B.S. Think of the potential if 100% of the prospects had received follow-up.

Church Training enrollment showed a decline of 1,728, bringing the present total enrollment to 89,257. National enrollment also showed a slight decline with a total of 1,993,738.

Church Training is experiencing a renewed interest because of the annual Doctrine Week, and the continued development of the new LIFE series. Equipping center modules continue to receive good acceptance by the churches.

Ministries

Associational work continues to be effective. In the annual ASSIST Training Institute, 239 team members from 39 associations received training. Actual ASSIST members totals 422, which is 94% of the full potential.

Many associational training schools have been conducted, six of which were conducted by the Department of Religious Education with an enrollment of 1,594. God is blessing this approach to training. The vast majority of the associations are now conducting an annual Sunday School training conference using their ASSISTeams as the faculty.

Among the state projects conducted this past year was the state Sunday School Leadership Seminar at Falls Creek with almost 700 leaders registered. Also, Glorieta in Western Oklahoma, conducted at Weatherford, FBC, April, 1988, registered approximately 1,000. Glorieta Style Church Training Conference was conducted in October, 1987, at the Immanuel Church, Tulsa, with over 400 participants. Another major state training event was Glorieta Style Sunday School Leadership Conference at First Church, Tulsa, with over 2,200 participants.

Other events included a State Baptist Doctrine Clinic, three regional outreach Bible study clinics, and two "How to Put LIFE in Church Training" conferences.

A state Church Building Conference was conducted at Central Church, Lawton, May, 1988, with about 30 church pastors and committees.

About six months of the year included a time consuming task of developing the Falls Creek program for over 25,000 youth. Approximately 315 teachers were enlisted to teach the classes during this five week assembly. The teachers are pastors and staff members who are attending Falls Creek with their churches. Only eternity can tell of the value of this encampment where literally thousands of lives are changed.

We rejoice and praise God for what He has done in the "Teaching and Training Department" of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma.

AUDIT

For the Year Ended

Board of Directors
Baptist General Convention of
The State of Oklahoma
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

We have audited the accompanying fund balance sheets of BAPTIST GENERAL CONVENTION OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA as of December 31, 1989, and the related statements of support and revenue, expenses, capital additions, and changes in fund balances and of cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Convention's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly in all material respects, the financial position of Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma at December 31, 1989, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

THE EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF BAPTIST
GENERAL CONVENTION OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
For the Year Ended December 31, 1989

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Operations—Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma was organized for the purpose of fostering Baptist denominational activities in the State of Oklahoma, and to receive and disburse funds as provided by the various contributors. It was incorporated without capital stock under Oklahoma law. Its first Articles of Incorporation were filed in May, 1917, for a term of twenty years with subsequent amendments providing for an organization in perpetuity.

Composition of Reporting Entity—The accompanying financial statements include all net assets and operations of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, except for The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma and Oklahoma Baptist University.

Basis of Accounting—The financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

Fund Accounting—Separate funds have been established to achieve a proper segregation and fair presentation of those resources available for use at the discretion of the governing board (unrestricted funds) and of those resources over which the board has little, if any, discretion as to use because of externally imposed restrictions (restricted and endowment funds). The following funds have been established for the Convention:

- Current Unrestricted Fund—This fund accounts for all resources over which the governing board has discretionary control to use in carrying on the operations of the Convention.

- Current Restricted Fund—These funds account for those resources currently available for use, but expendable only for operating purposes specified by the donors.

- Property Fund—This fund accumulates the net investment in fixed assets and accounts for the unexpended resources contributed specifically for the purpose of acquiring or replacing land, buildings, or equipment for use in the operations of the organization. Mortgages or other liabilities relating to these assets are also included in this fund.

- Endowment Fund—This fund represents the principal amount of gifts and bequests accepted with the donor-stipulation that the principal be maintained intact in perpetuity, until the occurrence of a specified event, or for a specified period, and that only the income from investment thereof be expended either for general purposes or for purposes specified by the donor.

Statement of Cash Flows—For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, the Convention considers all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less at the time of purchase to be cash equivalents.

Property and Equipment—The Convention capitalizes property and equipment with a cost or fair market value at date of donation of $500 or more. Depreciation was recorded on the straight-line method from dates of acquisition or donation. The lives generally used are:

Land improvements	20-40 years
Buildings	20-50 years
Furniture and office equipment	4-10 years
Automobiles and machinery	3-10 years

Revenue Recognition—Revenue of the Convention consists primarily of voluntary contributions from Baptist churches throughout the State of Oklahoma. The donor may designate its use by the Convention. Such designated (restricted) contributions are recognized as revenue when the obligation imposed by the restriction has been met.

Investments and Endowments—The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma was created as an agency of the Baptist General Convention of Oklahoma for the purpose of receiving and managing all trust funds and all property, real, personal, or mixed, for endowment purposes. These funds include designated endowment contributions and earnings on such contributions, restricted and custodial funds held for the Convention. The contributed assets are reflected herein at the fair market value at date of contribution.

The Oklahoma City Community Foundation, Inc. administers a $25,000 endowment fund for the benefit of the Convention's Baptist Retirement Center, Oklahoma City. The income from this fund may be used for any purpose; however, the corpus may not be withdrawn, and therefore is not included as an asset in the accompanying financial statements. No distributions were received from this fund in 1989.

3. Notes Payable

Oklahoma County Industrial Authority

On March 31, 1989, the Oklahoma County Industrial Authority (the Authority) issued its "Oklahoma County Industrial Authority Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma Retirement Center Revenue Refunding Bonds, Series 1989" in the amount of $20,030,000. The net proceeds of $17,472,936 from the bond issue were loaned to the Convention and were used to retire debt obligations of the Convention's retirement centers and nursing homes, including $771,000 advanced from the Convention. The Convention has executed a note to repay the Authority for its costs under the bond issue.

Monthly payments are required by the note in amounts equal to the Authority's debt service for the bonds. Final payment under the note is scheduled for May, 2008. The Convention's effective interest rate is approximately 6%.

The unrestricted gross revenues of the Convention are pledged as security under the note. The Convention has agreed not to permit any new liens or encumbrances on its endowment funds or consent to the subordination of the Convention's rights to any other person. In addition, the Convention has obtained a letter of credit to guarantee note payments and has agreed to comply with certain financial ratio covenants under the letter of credit agreement.

As a part of the debt refinancing arrangement, funds were placed in irrevocable trusts to provide for the retirement of the Tulsa Industrial Authority's "Revenue Bonds, Series 1985 (Tulsa Baptist Retirement Center at Owasso Nursing Home Project)" and the "First Mortgage Revenue Bonds 1978, Owasso Baptist Village Project (Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma Issue)". The Convention has been released from liability under the note and leases pertaining to these projects.

The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma

On November 19, 1986, the Convention entered into a loan agreement with The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma (the Foundation) in the amount of $250,000. The agreement calls for monthly payments of principal and interest at 11% per annum with the final payment due January 1, 2001. The note was created for remodeling of the area leased to The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma as described in Note 6 to the financial statements. The balance on the note at December 31, 1989 and 1988 was $225,911 and $234,631, respectively.

The Convention was also liable to the Foundation at December 31, 1989 for $370,179 (1988—$386,608) under an unsecured agreement dated June 30, 1988. The agreement calls for monthly payments of principal and interest at 7% per annum with final payment due September 15, 2005. Proceeds from the note were used for operations at Evergreen nursing home at Owasso.

The Convention has assumed responsibility for the repayment of certain loans The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma has made to various Baptist Associations in connection with Baptist Student Unions in their area. These eleven loans, with original amounts totaling $492,750 dating from 1978, are generally secured by real estate, bear interest at rates ranging from 9½% to 11%, and have a balance due of $377,636 at December 31, 1989 (1988—$402,870).

Frontier Federal Savings & Loan Association—The Convention's Baptist Retirement Center, Oklahoma City entered into a loan agreement with Frontier Federal Savings & Loan Association, Oklahoma City. The loan is secured by certain real property. The balance outstanding at December 31, 1989 and 1988 was $268 and $1,471, respectively.

4. Commitments and Contingencies

In 1988, the Oklahoma Baptist University Authority issued bonds titled "Oklahoma Baptist University Authority, Oklahoma Baptist University Revenue Refunding Bonds, Series 1989" totaling $11,800,128, and entered into a capital lease with the University. The Series 1988 bonds are secured by proceeds from the lease of the main campus facilities, mortgages on the real estate comprising the campus, a municipal bond insurance policy, a letter of credit from a financial institution, and the guarantee of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma. The present value of the net minimum lease payments required of the University is approximately $9,700,000.

5. Capital and Operating Lease Receivable

The Convention borrowed $250,000 from The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma for the purpose of remodeling office space and the acquisition of office furnishings leased to the Foundation. Rental payments by the Foundation are equal to the debt service requirements of the Convention.

The capital portion of the lease ($87,500) relates to the office furnishings. Rent on this portion totals $11,934 annually. The remaining $19,322 is considered annual space rent costs under the operating portion of the lease. The financial statements reflect a receivable of $79,385 and $82,121 at December 31, 1989 and 1988, respectively for the portion of such rental applicable to the office furnishings.

6. Notes Receivable

During 1985, the Convention sold a house and received a note in the original amount of $26,700 (balance at December 31, 1989, $23,601). The note provides for monthly payments of $295 including interest at 10.5%. The final payment is due in January, 1991.

During 1988, the Convention received a contribution of a note secured by a mortgage on real property. The balance on the note at December 31, 1989 was $11,780.

7. Capital Lease Obligations

Tulsa Baptist Retirement Center—On February 1, 1978, the Convention executed a lease with the Tulsa Industrial Authority. The Authority issued its "First Mortgage Revenue Bonds 1978, Owasso Baptist Village Project (Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma Issue)" in the amount of $2,310,000. The project was completed during 1979 at a total cost of $1,872,343.

A supplemental bond indenture dated April 1, 1981 in the amount of $325,000 was issued by the Tulsa Industrial Authority for the purpose of constructing three duplex units. The bonds were defeased under the 1989 loan the Oklahoma County Industrial Authority as described in Note 3.

The lease rental to be paid by the Convention is an amount sufficient to satisfy the bond obligation. The lease is scheduled to terminate by February 1, 2008.

The Convention has the right to purchase the project at any time on or after February 1988, at a price sufficient to pay all outstanding principal of the bonds and any thereafter issued bonds, accrued interest on all bonds to the date of redemption, and other costs.

The following is a schedule of the Tulsa Baptist Retirement Center property under capital lease by major classes at December 31, 1989:

	Cost	Accumulated Depreciation
Land	144,000
Land improvements	80,973	28,747
Building	1,780,976	556,026
	2,005,949	584,773

Baptist Retirement Center, Oklahoma City—The Baptist Retirement Center, Oklahoma City was constructed by the Baptist Laymen's Corporation (an affiliate) in 1965 and transferred to the Convention in 1974.

In 1971, the Baptist Laymen's Corporation leased the premises to the Oklahoma Industries Authority (OIA). OIA issued its Series A and B bonds secured by a first mortgage on the property and guaranteed by the Convention. OIA then subleased the premises to the Baptist Laymen's Corporation for a period of twenty years with payments equal to the annual debt service requirement of the OIA on bonds issued as described below. The Convention has the option to acquire the leasehold estate at any time after June 30, 1981, for an amount necessary to retire all outstanding bonds issued by the OIA.

On March 1, 1978, the Baptist Laymen's Corporation executed a lease with the Oklahoma Industries Authority. The Authority issued its Baptist Laymen's Corporation Revenue Bonds 1978, Lackey Manor Series C in the amount of $2,000,000. The bonds are guaranteed by the Convention. Bond funds were used for the completion of the activities center and the construction of 112 ground level apartments for retired persons. The term of the lease is 30 years with payments equal to annual debt service requirements under the bond issue. The Convention has the option to acquire the leasehold estate at any time after March 1, 1988, for the amount required to retire all outstanding bonds issued by the OIA.

On March 1, 1982, the Baptist Laymen's Corporation executed a lease with the Oklahoma County Industrial Authority (OCIA). OCIA issued its Baptist Laymen's Corporation First Mortgage Revenue Note, Series A (Lackey Manor Project) in the amount of $4,500,000. The bonds were defeased in 1989 as disclosed in Note 3.

Office Equipment—The Convention leases certain office equipment for use in its operations. The equipment which has a cost of $183,853 has been capitalized and is being depreciated over the term of the leases.

The following is a schedule by years of future minimum lease payments under the lease obligations, together with the present value of the net minimum lease payments as of December 31, 1989:

Year Ending December 31,	Tulsa Baptist Retirement Center	Baptist Retirement Center, Okla. City	Office Equipment	Total

8. Deferred Revenue

Deferred revenue of $3,772,468 and $3,870,804 at December 31, 1989 and 1988, respectively, consists of unexpended contributions for which the donor-imposed restrictions have not been met. The following is a schedule of deferred revenue at December 31, 1989:

Church program and promotion	1,557,662
Family care	2,186,878
Camps and assemblies	18,593
Baptist student work	9,335
	3,772,468

Deferred life estates consist of duplexes constructed at various retirement centers on land owned by the Convention. The construction cost of these duplexes was donated to the Convention and the donors have a rent-free life estate in the duplexes. The duplexes have been capitalized by the Convention at a value approximating total construction costs, and are being depreciated over their estimated useful lives. The deferred liability for the life estates, representing future rentals to be provided, is reduced annually for rentals based upon the donor's life expectancy. At December 31, 1989 and 1988, the deferred life estates totaled $1,476,785 and $1,553,707, respectively.

9. Pension Plan

All employees of the Convention are eligible to participate in a defined contribution pension plan administered by the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. Under the plan, the Convention contributes an amount equal to 10% of participating employees' salaries. Employee contributions are voluntary. Total pension expense for Convention employees for the year ended December 31, 1989 was $492,296 (1988—$490,102). The Convention's policy is to fund pension cost as it is incurred.

10. Restatement of Funds held by The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma and Other Reclassifications

THE BAPTIST FOUNDATION OF OKLAHOMA
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 1989

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

General—The Baptist Foundation of Oklahoma (the Foundation) is a private, nonprofit religious association chartered by the State of Oklahoma on October 31, 1946 for perpetual existence without capital stock. Its creation was approved by the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma (the Convention) to administer funds and property received by gift, devise, bequest, or otherwise in order to assist and promulgate the furtherance of the Convention, and to promote Baptist doctrines, evangelism, Christian education, and both home and foreign mission work.

Basis of Accounting—The financial statements of the Foundation have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

Fund Accounting—To insure observance of limitations and restrictions placed on the use of resources available to the Foundation, the accounts of the Foundation are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting. This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds that are in accordance with activities or objectives specified. Separate accounts are maintained for each fund; however, in the accompanying financial statements, funds that have similar characteristics have been combined into fund groups. Accordingly, all financial transactions have been recorded and reported by fund groups as follows:

Unrestricted Operating Fund—The Unrestricted Operating Fund is designed to account for resources which are expendable for support of Foundation operations and for the acquisition of equipment. This fund has no external restriction on its use or purpose, and can be used for any purpose designated by the governing board.

Property and Equipment Fund—This fund reports the carrying value of all property and equipment utilized by the Foundation in its operations, exclusive of those real properties held for investment or received under fiduciary responsibility.

Restricted Funds—Restricted funds are funds other than endowments, the use of which has been restricted by outside agencies or persons (donors/grantors) for specific purposes. Such funds are generally restricted for capital improvements. Revenues of restricted funds are reported as such to the extent that expenses have been incurred for the purpose specified by the donor or grantor during the period.

Endowment and Trust Funds—Endowment and Trust Funds are comprised of resources received by gift, devise, bequest, or otherwise that are subject to restrictions of the gift or trust instrument. Endowment funds account for assets received under the stipulation of the donors that the principal be invested and that only the income be used for the designated purposes until a specified time or occurrence, or in perpetuity. Trusts generally require that distributions be made to designated beneficiaries.

Endowment and Trust Funds also include revocable trusts totaling approximately $5,600,000 at December 31, 1989 (1988—$5,300,000).

Loan Funds—These funds represent resources restricted for loans.

Custodian Funds—These funds account for assets received by the Foundation to be held and disbursed only on instruction of the person or organization from whom they were received, as contrasted with funds held under fiduciary capacity. The receipt of such funds and the disbursement thereof are reported in the net capital additions section of the statement of support and revenue. The net balances of custodian funds are reported in the statement of assets and liabilities as amounts held for others.

General Investment Fund—This fund is an investment pool for the various funds of the Foundation. A participating fund increases or decreases ownership in the fund by the purchase or redemption of units. The fund is operated on the market value method whereby units are valued based on the relationship of total units outstanding to total assets. Investment income is allocated to participating funds based on percentage of ownership. Assets of the General Investment Fund consist primarily of church building loans, commercial stocks, bonds, and bankers acceptances.

Cash—Cash balances in excess of FDIC limits are automatically transferred into interest-bearing accounts secured by U.S. government obligations.

Allowance for Doubtful Loans—The financial statements present notes receivable net of the allowance for doubtful loans. The allowance is based on historical information coupled with a review of the status of delinquent loans. The allowance for church building loans is 2½% of the outstanding balances.

Property and Equipment—Major expenditures for equipment are capitalized at cost while donated property and equipment are capitalized at fair market value at the date of the gift. Depreciation of equipment is provided for over the estimated useful lives of the respective assets on a straight-line basis. No provision is made for depreciation on rental and other properties carried as investments in the Endowment and Trust Funds.

Annuities—The Foundation accepts gifts made in trust for various Baptist agencies and institutions which require the Foundation to pay the donors substantially the equivalent of interest on the amount of the gift during the lifetime of the donor. The Foundation also accepts trusts naming individuals as lifetime beneficiaries rather than Baptist agencies and institutions. A specified portion of the income of these trusts is disbursed to the individuals during their lifetime, and upon their death the trusts are to be administered for the benefit of the Baptist agencies or institutions as designated. The liability for future payments to beneficiaries is reported as a reduction of the corpus of such funds. Liabilities to annuitants totaled $475,690 and $457,314 at December 31, 1989 and 1988, respectively.

Appropriation for Corpus Preservation—For certain endowments, the Foundation appropriates a portion of the income to preserve the value of the corpus. Such appropriations totaled $1,716,036 and $1,743,093 at December 31, 1989 and 1988, respectively, and have been included as a part of the total corpus balance. This appropriation is generally for endowments with depletable assets such as mineral properties, but may also be specified for other endowments. Various methods are used to calculate the amount to be appropriated.

Income Taxes—The Foundation is exempt from income taxes under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Statement of Cash Flows—For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, the Foundation considers all highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less at the time of purchase to be cash equivalents. No cash flow statement is presented for the general investment fund as the activity in this fund has been reported in the various investing funds.

2. Investments

The following is a comparison of the cost or other basis of investments for those investments for which market prices are readily available:

The Foundation has fiduciary responsibility for endowment and trust funds and loan funds. Restricted funds are generally held as agent for others. Custodian funds represent assets received by the Foundation to be disbursed only on instructions of the person or organization from whom they were received.

The following schedules the beneficiaries of restricted, endowment and trust, and loan funds, and the person or organization from whom custodial funds were received.

5. Related Parties

As disclosed in Note 1, the Foundation is affiliated with the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma (the Convention). The majority of the funds administered by the Foundation are for the benefit of the Convention, its agencies and various other Baptist organizations. Throughout the year the Foundation makes distributions either directly to these organizations or on their behalf. The Foundation also receives funds from these organizations, both to administer for their benefit and to support the Foundation's operations.

The Foundation receives appropriations from the Cooperative Program of the Convention. Appropriations for the year ended December 31, 1989 were $320,592 (1988—$325,946).

The Foundation, through its General Investment Fund, makes loans to Oklahoma Southern Baptist churches to finance the purchase of land and/or construction of church buildings after the projects are completed. These loans are secured by first mortgages on the property and buildings constructed and may require personal endorsements of church members. The lives of these loans vary up to a maximum of 15 years. Interest rates are set by the Church Building Loan Committee with consideration given to the current rates available from commercial sources. The balances of church building loans outstanding at December 31, 1989 was $33,235,643 (1988—$36,386,839). Allowances of $830,891 and $500,000 for uncollectible accounts were recorded as of December 31, 1989 and 1988, respectively.

At December 31, 1989, the Foundation had outstanding commitments totaling $3,432,000 for church building loans.

6. Pension Plan

All employees of the Foundation are eligible to participate in a defined contribution pension plan administered by the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. Under the plan, the Foundation contributes an amount equal to 10% of participating employees' salaries. Employee contributions are voluntary. Total pension expense for the year ended December 31, 1989 was $50,861 (1988—$51,404). The Foundation's policy is to fund pension cost as it is incurred.

7. Capital and Operating Leases

The Foundation occupies office space in the Baptist Building, which is owned by the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, under an agreement expiring in 2001. The Convention borrowed $250,000 from the Foundation's General Investment Fund for the purpose of remodeling the office space and for the acquisition of office furnishings for the Foundation. Rental payments by the Foundation are equal to the debt service requirements of the Convention.

The office furnishings thus acquired, totaling $87,500, have been capitalized by the Foundation. A portion of the rental cost, totaling $11,934 annually, is applicable to the office furnishings acquired under capital lease. The remaining $19,322 is considered annual space rent costs under the operating portion of the lease. The financial statements reflect a liability of $79,127 and $81,914 at December 31, 1989 and 1988, respectively, for the portion of such rental applicable to office furnishings.

The following schedules the minimum future annual rental commitment under the lease:

Years ended:	Capital Lease Portion	Operating Lease Portion	Total
1990	11,934	19,322	31,256
1991	11,934	19,322	31,256
1992	11,934	19,322	31,256
1993	11,934	19,322	31,256
1994	11,934	19,322	31,256
Thereafter	83,542	177,878	261,420
	143,212	274,488	417,700
Less amount representing interest	64,085
Liability under capital lease	79,127

8. Susequent Event

The Foundation has entered into negotiations with the newly-formed Baptist Building Corporation for the lease of office space in a new facility. The lease will require payment of $630,000 over a ten year period. Upon commencement of this lease, the Foundation will be released from the capital and operating lease described in Note 7.

9. Restatement of Components of Endowment Fund Balance

The balances of endowment fund undistributed income and corpus at December 31, 1988 (presented for comparative purposes in the accompanying financial statements) have been restated from amounts previously reported. This restatement was made to reclassify by component the reporting of 1988 unrealized gains totaling $2,569,653, and had no effect on the total endowment fund balance.

THE OKLAHOMA BAPTIST UNIVERSITY
 Shawnee, Oklahoma
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
 For the Year Ended July 31, 1989

1. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Organization—The Oklahoma Baptist University was created by action of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma in 1909 to function as an operating unit of the Convention under supervision of a Board of Trustees elected by that Convention. Articles of Incorporation were filed February 9, 1910 and amended November 25, 1974 with the State of Oklahoma and a charter was granted for a corporation of perpetual duration without capital stock. The purpose of the corporation is to encourage, support, provide and maintain Christian education and to engage in Christian undertakings which are in keeping with the purpose of the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma.

Accrual Basis—Except for depreciation, which is discussed later in this note, the financial statements of The Oklahoma Baptist University have been prepared on the accrual basis. The statements of current fund revenues, expenditures and other changes are statements of current period financial activities. They do not purport to present the results of operations or net income or loss for the period.

To the extent that current funds are used to finance plant assets, the amounts so provided are accounted for as (1) expenditures, in the case of normal replacements or equipment and library books; (2) mandatory transfers, in the case of required provisions for debt amortization and interest; and (3) nonmandatory transfers in all other cases.

The library is valued at an amount equal to the cost of books, periodicals and microform acquired during the past ten years, plus an estimated replacement cost of $5 per volume for those volumes which have been in the collection longer than ten years. Library acquisitions totaled approximately $42,000 for the current year.

Inventories consist primarily of bookstore supplies held for resale and maintenance supplies. Inventories are priced at cost, generally on a first-in, first-out basis.

Fund Accounting—In order to ensure observance of limitations and restrictions placed on the use of resources available to the University, the accounts of the University are maintained in accordance with the principles of "fund accounting." This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds in accordance with activities or objectives specified. Separate accounts are maintained for each fund; however, in the accompanying financial statements, funds that have similar characteristics have been combined into fund groups.

Externally restricted funds may be utilized only in accordance with purposes specified by the source of such funds. This is in contrast with unrestricted funds over which the governing board retains full control to use in achieving any institutional purposes.

Endowment funds are subject to the restrictions of gift instruments requiring that the principal be invested and only the income be utilized.

All gains and losses arising from the sale, collection or other disposition of investments and other noncash assets are accounted for in the funds which owned the assets. Ordinary income derived from investments, receivables, and similar assets is accounted for in the funds owning such assets, except for income derived from investments of endowment and similar funds. Such income is accounted for in the funds to which it is restricted or, if unrestricted, as revenues in the current unrestricted fund.

All other unrestricted revenue is accounted for in the current unrestricted fund. Restricted gifts, grant appropriations, endowment income and other restricted resources are accounted for in the appropriate restricted funds. Current restricted funds are reported as revenues and expenditures when expended for current operating purposes.

Investments—Investments purchased by the University are generally stated at cost. Investments received from donors are stated at market value as of the date of the gift.

Property, Plant and Equipment—Property, plant and equipment is stated at cost at the date of acquisition or at fair market value at the date of donation. No depreciation of plant assets has been recorded.

Revenue Recognition—Charges for student tuition, fees and other charges are recognized as income when charged to the students. Collections on pledges are recognized as income when the cash is received. Gifts and other contributions for designated uses are recognized as income when expended. Undesignated gifts and contributions are recognized as income when received.

2. Pledges

In July, 1987, The University Board of Trustees approved a new campaign "Bridging the Centuries," with a goal of $15,000,000. Total pledges and contributions to date for this campaign approximated $10,700,000, with approximately $3,000,000 remaining uncollected at July 31, 1989. Funds raised will be used for several priority needs, including construction of Montgomery Hall and student housing, scholarships, educational equipment, operational support, and endowed faculty/staff positions.

As a result of this campaign and campaigns conducted in prior years, uncollected pledges at July 31, 1989 total $3,328,409. These pledges, which are summarized below, are not recognized as receivables in the accompanying financial statements.

	July 31,

3. Loan Fund

The University received $95,647 from the U.S. Government under the Federal Capital Loan Program for nursing loans; $77,461 has been repaid. Loans are made to qualified students from these funds. Borrowers who become qualified nurses under the program may have portions of the principal and interest forgiven.

	12,063,711	11,682,778

5. Funds Held in Trust by Others

The Liberty National Bank and Trust Company of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma administers the Louise M. Prichard Trust from which the University receives the net income after payments to beneficiaries and payment of trust expenses. These funds are designated for scholarships to ministerial and missionary students. The market value of the Prichard Trust corpus was $6,070,773 at July 31, 1989.

The American National Bank and Trust Company of Shawnee, Oklahoma administers the Howard T. and Leoti W. Riddle Scholarship Foundation from which the University receives the net income after payments of beneficiary and trust expenses. The Riddle Foundation had a corpus of approximately $1,712,271 at July 31, 1989.

The assets of the above trusts are not included in the accompanying financial statements.

6. Oklahoma Baptist University Authority—Capitalized Lease Obligation

The University entered into a capitalized lease obligation with Oklahoma Baptist University Authority in December 1979, to obtain funds to construct a health, physical education, recreation and activities complex; to remodel the Brotherhood and W.M.U. Memorial Dormitories and the Clark Craig Field House; to finance computer facilities; and to pay existing indebtedness. The Authority obtained funds for these improvements by issuing $7,640,000 of its bonds titled "Oklahoma Baptist University Revenue Bonds, Series 1979". Assets totaling approximately $7,400,000 have been constructed or purchased under this lease. These assets are included with other property, plant and equipment in the plant fund.

The lease was amended on June 1, 1985 to obtain funds to finance a portion of the construction of the science building, married student housing, and a campus ministries center, and the renovation of Kerr Dormitory, the Theater Annex, Montgomery and Thurman Halls, and Parkway and Jent Apartments. The Authority obtained funds for these projects by issuing $5,300,000 of its bonds titled "Oklahoma Baptist University Revenue Bonds, Series 1985." The remainder of the costs of these projects is to be financed by funds raised in a special fund raising campaign and by University resources. Assets totaling approximately $6,600,000 have been constructed, renovated or purchased under this amendment. These assets are included with other property, plant and equipment in the plant fund.

On May 18, 1988, the Authority issued $11,800,128 in new bonds titled "Oklahoma Baptist University Authority, Oklahoma Baptist University Revenue Refunding bonds, Series 1988". The proceeds of these bonds were used to defease in substance the Series 1979 and Series 1985 bonds. The capitalized lease obligation with the Authority was amended during May, 1988, to allow for the change in sinking fund requirements under the new bonds.

The series 1988 bonds are secured by rentals and other monies derived from the lease of the main campus facilities, by mortgages on specified real estate which comprises the main campus, by a guarantee from the Baptist General Convention of the State of Oklahoma, by a municipal bond new issue insurance policy issued by Financial Guaranty Insurance company, and by an irrevocable direct pay letter of credit issued by Barclays Bank PLC, New York branch. The letter of credit is scheduled to expire May 18, 1993, but is renewable on an annual basis.

The following is a schedule of future minimum lease payments under the capital lease, together with the present value of the net minimum lease payments as of July 31, 1989.
